UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary contact Molly O'Mara (momara@umass.edu or 413-406-6434). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be given out to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at Gillette Stadium and McGuirk Alumni Stadium to primary football contact Molly O'Mara at momara@umass.edu. This includes media passes for the press box and sidelines as well as scouting credentials.

QUICK SNAPS

University of Massachusetts football...

- Sports four Minutemen splitting six national award watch list entries for the 2016 season, including linebacker Shane Huber (Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Butkus Award), punter/kicker Logan Laurent (Ray Guy Award), tight end Todd Stafford (John Mackey Award) and running back Marquis Young (Doak Walker Award, Maxwell Award).
- Does not have permanent team captains in 2016 and will use game captains throughout the season. A list of game captains is available on page 15 of the notes.
- Head coach Mark Whipple owns 56 wins at the helm of the program, the second-most in UMass history behind only Vic Fusia (1961-70), who posted 59.
- Head coach Mark Whipple led the Minutemen into his 100th game as head coach when the team faced No. 25 Florida in the 2016 season-opener.
- Running back Marquis Young reached 1,000 career yards in his 13th game as a Minuteman, making him one of the fastest to do so in recent team history. Steve Baylark, R.J. Cobbs and Rene Ingoglia all bested Young as they accomplished the feat during their 11th games.
- Running back Marquis Young appears twice in the UMass top-10 for rushing yards gained on a single play with his pair of 83-yard TD runs (tied-10th). He is one of only two Minutemen to appear twice in the top-10, alongside Frank Alessio (tied-sixth; 84 yards twice).
- Tight end Adam Breneman recorded 10 receptions against FIU, making him the first UMass tight end with 10 or more catches in one game since Rob Blanchflower had as many versus Central Michigan on Nov. 23, 2012.
- Quarterback Andrew Ford stepped into the starting role against FIU with 278 passing yards and three touchdowns thrown. He is the first Minuteman to eclipse 275 passing yards during his first career start since Richard Lucero (376) did so against William & Mary on Aug. 31, 2000. Ford is also the first Minuteman with three or more touchdown passes since Todd Bankhead (four) at Delaware on Sept. 3, 1998.
- Running back Marquis Young reeled off 125 yards on 18 carries during the game against Mississippi State, his fourth collegiate contest with 100+ yards rushing and his first of the 2016 season.
- Quarterback Andrew Ford distributed his nine touchdown passes over the last three games to six different wide receivers, including Adam Breneman (3), Andy Isabella (2), Jalen Williams (2), Bernard Davis (1) and Sadiq Palmer (1).
- Quarterback Andrew Ford and tight end Adam Breneman previously played on the same team at Cedar Cliff High School in Camp Hill, Pa. With Ford as the starter in the last three games, Breneman owns a team-high 20 receptions for 195 yards and a touchdown.
- Punter Logan Laurent averages 42.7 yards per attempt over 96 career punts, the longest distance averaged by a Minuteman with at least 50 punts in program history. Of those 96 attempts, 63 came during the 2015 season when Laurent was a redshirt sophomore.
- Safety Khary Bailey-Smith is the active leading tackler with 185 career stops, including a career-best 62 over 12 games in 2014. Bailey-Smith opened 2015 with 21 stops in the first two games before he suffered a season-ending injury against Temple. A do-it-all performer, Bailey-Smith also owns 16 passes defended, eight interceptions, five fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and a pair of kickoff return touchdowns.
- Running back Marquis Young ran for 960 yards as a true-freshmen in 2015, the most yards for a UMass freshman since Steve Baylark (1,177; 2003).
- Freshman James Allen collected 785 kickoff return yards in 2015, the fourth-most in a single season in program history.
- Running back Marquis Young averaged 6.32 yards per carry as a freshman in 2015 with 960 yards on 152 attempts. It marked the 10th-most yards per carry in team history and the third-highest average by a running back with at least 150 carries.
- Return specialist James Allen posted 238 kick return yards - including a 97-yard touchdown - at Bowling Green on Oct. 10, 2015. It went down as the second-most in one game in UMass football history and the most notched by one player in a contest across FBS during 2015.
- Rookie standout James Allen reeled off a 97-yard kick return touchdown at Bowling Green on Oct. 10, 2015. It went as the seventh-longest kick return in program history.
- Alumnus Tajae Sharpe became the highest-drafted Minuteman of the FBS era when he was taken 140th overall (fifth round, first selection) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2016 NFL Draft.

OFF TO THE RACES

Marquis Young needed only 13 career games to reach the 1,000-yard rushing mark. A sophomore, Young hit the four-digit mark during play at No. 25 Florida with his 13th rushing attempt of the game. Young used 165 career carries to go over the 1,000-yard mark, an average of 6.07 yards per attempt.

He is the first UMass running back to eclipse 1,000 career rushing yards during the FBS era. Only two Minuteman freshmen accumulated better first seasons with the team: Steve Baylark (1,177 yards; 2003) and R.J. Cobbs (1,067 yards; 2002).

THE CEDAR CLIFF CONNECTION

UMass quarterback Andrew Ford and tight end Adam Breneman played together previously as members of the Cedar Cliff High School football program in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania.

Ford made his first start for the Minutemen against FIU and targeted Breneman throughout the game, resulting in 10 receptions, 77 yards and one touchdown for the 6-foot-4 tight end. Six of those completions to Breneman went for first downs. Breneman and Ford connected six times against Mississippi State for 79 yards and added four more completions versus Tulane, making Breneman the most targeted receiver by Ford through two games.

Breneman is the all-time leading receiver in Cedar Cliff history and all-time leading tight end in Pennsylvania high school history (in all receiving categories).

Ford was the 2013 Gatorade Player of the Year, football's Mr. Pennsylvania and an Elite 11 QB as a senior. He set Cedar Cliff records in passing yards, touchdowns thrown and completion percentage.

RUNNING RIGHT INTO THE RECORD BOOK

Marquis Young has twice rushed for an 83-yard touchdown, doing so at No. 6 Notre Dame on Sept. 26, 2015 and again on Sept. 24, 2016 versus Mississippi State. Those rushing attempts tie Young for 10th all-time on the longest run from scrimmage by a Minuteman and make him one of only two UMass football players to appear twice on the list (Frank Alessio, 84 yards, twice, tied-sixth).

THE CAMERA ADDS SIX POINTS

Bernard Davis caught a toe-drag touchdown pass in the fourth quarter against Mississippi State that was initially ruled to be incomplete due to Davis landing out of bounds. Following an official's review of the play, Davis was credited with the 19-yard score as replays showed Davis landed his left foot inches in-bounds before he and the Bulldogs' defender landed on the sideline.

It was Davis' second career touchdown pass and first since Sept. 25, 2013 against Maine. His previous touchdown also came at Gillette Stadium in the South endzone.

ESPN TOP-10 LOVE FOR WILLIAMS

Jalen Williams' 31-yard juggling touchdown catch through the defense of two Mississippi State players while falling to the ground was tabbed the ESPN No. 4 Play of the Day on the night of Sat., Sept. 24. It was Williams' first of two touchdown receptions against the Bulldogs.

TWO WITH TWO

UMass produced back-to-back games with multi-touchdown receivers against Mississippi State (9/24) and Tulane (10/1). Jalen Williams had two on three catches versus the Bulldogs before Andy Isabella scored on a pair of 12-yard receptions against the Green Wave.

The last time a pair of Minutemen had two or more touchdowns in back-to-back games was in 2014 when Jean Sifrin caught two TDs at Colorado (Sept. 6) before Rodney Milles scored twice against Vanderbilt (Sept. 13).

BUILT FORD TOUGH

Andrew Ford stepped into the starting spot at quarterback for the first time against FIU and provided 278 passing yards and three touchdowns in the 21-13 victory over the Golden Panthers. He became the first Minuteman to debut with at least 275 yards since Richard Lucero had 376 yards against William & Mary on Aug. 31, 2000. The last Minuteman with at least three touchdown passes in his debut was Todd Bankhead (323 yards, four TDs) at Delaware on Sept. 3, 1998.

THE FASTEST 1,000

Marquis Young reached 1,000 career rushing yards in only 13 games played, which ranks Young among the quickest Minutemen to 1,000 yards in recent team history. The last to reach the plateau faster was Steve Baylark, who did it in 11 games as a freshman in 2003. RJ Cobbs (2001-05) also accomplished it in 11 games, as did Rene Ingoglia (1992-95).

MAKING SURE THE FIRST TIME IS MEMORABLE

Sadiq Palmer's first collegiate reception went for a 19-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against Mississippi State. In 2016, Palmer is one of 19 players (11 wide receivers, five tight ends, one fullback, one running back, one quarterback) who had their first career catch go for six points. He is one of only four freshmen to do so.

DEPEND ON THE TIGHT END

Tight end Adam Breneman caught 10 passes against FIU covering 77 yards and one touchdown. It is the most receptions by a UMass tight end since Rob Blanchflower caught 10 ball for 100 yards and one score versus Central Michigan on Nov. 23, 2012.

In the last four games, Breneman owns 23 receptions for 264 yards and two touchdowns. It is the most receptions in that span and tied for the most yards with Andy Isabella (21 catches).

SHARING THE WEALTH

Quarterback Andrew Ford distributed his 28 completions among nine Minuteman receivers against FIU. It marked the most different players with at least one catch since 10 Minutemen reeled in at least one pass against Ball State on Oct. 31, 2015.

Adam Breneman led the group with 10 catches, followed by six for Andy Isabella and five by Bernard Davis. Dan Jonah caught two passes while Sekai Lindsay, Shakur Nesmith, John Robinson-Woodgett, Jalen Williams and Marquis Young all had one grab.

A QB'S NEW BEST FRIEND AT TIGHT END

Redshirt junior tight end Adam Breneman broke out against the Boston College defense with 69 receiving yards and a touchdown on three receptions.

He produced a 58-yard catch-and-run touchdown reception in the first quarter - the first TD catch of the season for the Minutemen and longest since tight end Jean Sifrin rumbled for a 76-yard score against Toledo on Oct. 25, 2014.

Breneman added a 10-catch, 77 yard, one touchdown afternoon in the win over FIU (9/17) and led all UMass receivers with 79 yards on six catches versus Mississippi State (9/24).

He entered the season with 186 career receiving yards on 15 receptions (three touchdowns) as a member of the Penn State football program from 2013-15.

JRW CHANGES THE PACE

Redshirt senior converted fullback John Robinson-Woodgett provided a change of pace at running back and took five handoffs for 28 yards during the 21-13 victory over FIU.

All of his carries came during one fourth quarter drive when he and Marquis Young (one rush, 12 yards) moved the Minutemen from their 48 yard line to the FIU 12 with three first downs.

They represent five of Robinson-Woodgett's 12 career carries, all of which occurred in 2016.

SPEEDSTER DOWN THE SIDELINE

Sophomore wide receiver Andy Isabella reeled in a 53-yard catch-and-run play down the Florida sideline at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. It set a personal best for Isabella, who entered the game with seven career receiving yards.

Isabella finished with three receptions for 95 yards at Florida, the most receiving yards for one player on either team. It reset his single-game bests for receptions and receiving yards.

He enters the game at Old Dominion with a team-high 359 receiving yards over only 24 receptions, an average of 15.0 yards per catch.

ALI-MUSA, DOWNEY ARE FORCING THE ISSUE

Junior Ali Ali-Musa owns two forced fumbles in his first season as a Minuteman. Junior Da'Sean Downey has three in his five games played this year, his third year with the team. They represent all of Downey's forced fumbles as a Minuteman.

Ali-Musa's first was on running back Lamical Perine at No. 25 Florida. The second came against FIU when he ended the Golden Panthers' final drive with a forced fumble on quarterback Alex McGough.

Downey collected one each against No. 25 Florida (QB Luke Del Rio), FIU (QB Alex McGough) and Mississippi State (QB Nick Fitzgerald).

KNOCK 'EM DOWNEY

Linebacker Da'Sean Downey had a pair of sacks covering 18 yards lost against FIU. It made him the first Minuteman with multiple sacks in one contest since Kassan Messiah (2.0-14) at Bowling Green on Oct. 10, 2015. The last Minuteman with more sack yards in a single contest was Michael Hanson (2.0-23) at William & Mary on Oct. 27, 2007.

Downey's 4.0 sacks in 2016 tie him with Justin Anderson (4.0-20; 2013) for the most in one season by a Minuteman during the FBS era.

RODGERS SHINES IN FIRST START

Freshman Isaiah Rodgers was called into action against FIU as a starter at cornerback in place of an injured Jackson Porter. He finished the day with four tackles in the secondary and three pass breakups. His PBU total marks the most by one Minuteman this season. He added a five-tackle afternoon against Mississippi State in his second start opposite James Allen.

THE GRIZZLED VETERAN

Redshirt senior Khary Bailey-Smith is the only Minuteman with appearances in each of the team's five FBS seasons (2012-present). Three additional members of the squad were true freshmen during the inaugural year at the FBS level in Bernard Davis, Vondell Langston and John Robinson-Woodgett. Bailey-Smith made two appearances in 2015 before suffering a season-ending injury that allowed him to redshirt. Davis, Langston and Robinson-Woodgett each redshirted one year without seeing time during it.

ILB WITH THE INT

Inside linebacker Shane Huber picked off Boston College quarterback Patrick Towles during the second quarter of the #BattleoftheBayState. Huber's first career interception as a Minuteman. He is now one of two active linebackers with an interception on the squad, including Da'Sean Downey, who hauled one in during the win over Buffalo on Nov. 27, 2015.

TEDRICK THE TACKLER

Tedrick Lowery notched 11 tackles in his UMass debut at No. 25 Florida. It was the most by a single player on either team. He had three solo stops and eight assisted takedowns.

He added an eight-tackle day against FIU that included a seven-yard sack and also featured a pass breakup. Including his nine-stop outing against Mississippi State, Lowery tallied eight or more tackles in three of his four career games entering Tulane.

He is second on the team in tackles to his fellow linebacker, Steve Casali, who moved in front of Lowery with his 15-takedown performance against Tulane.

DEPLOYING THE 4TH DOWN FOOTBALL MORTAR

In his second season as the punter, Logan Laurent already ranks among the best performing specialists in UMass football history with the career punt average and single-game punt yard records.

Over 96 career punts entering play against Tulane, Laurent averages 42.66 yards per attempt. Brett Arnold ranks second at 41.35 yards per attempt (97-4011; 2007-08).

Laurent's most active day came in the #BattleoftheBayState against Boston College with 12 punts covering a program-record 547 yards (45.6 per attempt). Laurent dropped four of his punts inside the Eagles' 20 yard line while four traveled at least 50 yards.

He has averaged at least 41.0 yards per punt attempt in each of the five games this season.

FIRST TIME IN THE FIRST PLAY

UMass featured 10 first-time starters on offense and defense at No. 25 Florida. This total does not include tight end Adam Breneman, who made his first start as a Minuteman but previously started for the Penn State program.

On offense, the new starters included Ross Comis (QB), Marquis Young (RB), Jack Driscoll (OL), Jake Largay (OL) and Raquan Thomas (OL). On defense, Ali Ali-Musa (DL), Steve Casali (LB), Tedrick Lowery (LB), James Allen (CB) and Lee Moses (SS) marked the first-time starters. Joe Previte earned his first career start during the game against Boston College when Previte was a member of the defensive line.

Offensive lineman Anthony Fernandez tallied his first career start as part of the jumbo package UMass employed against FIU. Isaiah Rodgers started on the other side of the ball at cornerback.

Andrew Ford made his first start against FIU while linebackers Vondell Langston and Peter Ngobidi lined up against Mississippi State. Colbert Calhoun was tabbed a first-time starter vs. Tulane.

YOUTH MOVEMENT IN FULL EFFECT

UMass has one of the smallest senior classes FBS in 2016 with 13 seniors or graduate students. It is tied for the fourth-fewest alongside Florida, Marshall, Minnesota, Old Dominion and Wake Forest.

Kentucky leads the nation with its 11-member senior class while Baylor and Penn State follow with 12 apiece. A host of UMass opponents also feature small senior classes alongside Florida, including Old Dominion (13), Troy (15) and Boston College (17).

SMALLEST 2016 SENIOR/GRADUATE STUDENT CLASSES

RK.	SCHOOL	SENIOR CLASS SIZE
1.	Kentucky	11
2.	Baylor	12
	Penn State	12

FRESH RECRUITS CALLED INTO ACTION

Seventeen members of the UMass football program made their first appearances as Minutemen during the 2016 season-opener at No. 25 Florida. These 17 include Ali Ali-Musa, Bilal Ally, James Bowe Jr., Adam Breneman, Colbert Calhoun, Jack Driscoll, Derek Dumais, Andrew Ford, Malik Lee, Tedrick Lowery, Brandon Mangram, Martin Mangram, Sadiq Palmer, Mario Patton, Travis Reynolds, Isaiah Rodgers and Raquan Thomas.

Seven more Minutemen made their first appearances against Boston College: Basit Dennis, Leon Flanagan Jr., D'Shan Harley, Roderick Jones Jr., Bakhari Goodson, Tyshaun Ingram and Sharif Saleem.

Anthony Fernandez and Mike Yerardi first appeared against FIU while Micah Morel and Nick Orekoya played against Tulane.

In total, 28 Minutemen have made their first appearances with the team during the 2016 season.

A NEW FACE UNDER CENTER

University of Massachusetts football was one of 10 programs in FBS that did not feature a returning quarterback with at least one career start on its 2016 roster. This list also includes Arizona State, Arkansas, NC State, North Carolina, Penn State, Rice, USC, Utah and Wisconsin.

Ross Comis was the only one with FBS-level experience as the redshirt sophomore was 15-of-21 for 171 yards and two touchdowns during six appearances in 2015. He started against the No. 25 Florida and Boston College defenses.

Andrew Ford, a junior college transfer, played 2015 at Lackawanna Community College after he redshirted his true-freshman season at Virginia Tech. He is 63-of-101 (62.4 percent) with 660 yards and nine touchdowns over the last three games as the starter.

Redshirt freshman Randall West is the third quarterback on the depth chart and did not see action in 2015.

A NEW CENTER, TOO

Fabian Hoeller started at center in each game so far during 2016. It marked a position change for Hoeller after he served as the team's starting left guard for the previous two seasons, with 32 career starts on the line all-together. He replaced Matt Sparks, who held the title of starting center for the previous three seasons.

ROBINSON-WOODGETT SWAPS SIDES

Redshirt senior John Robinson-Woodgett will play his final season with the Minutemen at fullback after nearly four years as a linebacker. Robinson-Woodgett made the switch midway through the 2015 season and played as a fullback during the 2016 spring semester and fall preseason.

He served as the primary fullback at No. 25 Florida, blocking for Marquis Young as Young eclipsed 1,000 career rushing yards during play at The Swamp.

Robinson-Woodgett served as a change-of-pace back against FIU as he ran for 28 yards on five carries.

Robinson-Woodgett, who also contributes on special teams, owns 94 career tackles. He was the leading rusher of the 2016 UMass Football Spring Game with 63 yards on 13 carries (4.8 ypc).

THE NAME'S ALLEN... JAMES ALLEN

Now-sophomore cornerback and return specialist James Allen changed his last name from Oliphant to Allen between the 2015 and 2016 seasons. He also changed numbers from No. 48 to No. 4, which was worn and passed along by former standout cornerback Randall Jette.

THE BROTHERS MANGRAM

UMass football sports a pair of brothers donning the Maroon and White in 2016: Brandon and Martin Mangram. Brandon enters his redshirt freshman season while Martin is a true freshman. Both play cornerback.

They are one of 76 pairs of brothers from 48 different FBS programs. The Mangrams are also one of 28 sets of brothers competing at the same position, spread across 21 institutions.

Both Mangrams made their first collegiate appearances at No. 25 Florida.

NICE TO MEET YOU

UMass football faces eight first-time foes in 2016. This includes BYU, No. 25 Florida, Hawai'i, Louisiana Tech, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Troy and Tulane. The Minutemen travel to BYU, Florida, Hawai'i, South Carolina and Troy. Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State visit Gillette Stadium while Tulane makes a trip to Amherst.

WE'VE ALREADY MET

Of its four repeat opponents, UMass has faced regional rival Boston College the most, with 25 games between the two Commonwealth of Massachusetts programs including the 2016 meeting. The Minutemen played their first game against FIU during 2015, a 24-14 UMass victory at McGuirk Stadium. Old Dominion (Oct. 1, 2011) and Wagner (Nov. 14, 1931) have each taken on UMass once prior.

YOUNG BURSTS ONTO THE SCENE IN 2015

True freshman running back Marquis Young provided 103 yards rushing over only five carries vs. the defense of No. 6 nationally ranked Notre Dame on Sept. 26. The game was Young's first 100-yard performance in college and the first such by a UMass running back in 2015.

Young led the Minutemen in rushing yards (960) and yards per attempt (6.3) with 152 carries over the 12-game slate. He provided an 83-yard touchdown run against the Irish, the longest carry by a UMass true-freshman in the modern era of the program - dating back to 1978 - and also the longest since R.J. Cobb scampered 84 yards against Delaware on Nov. 2, 2002. It was 149 games between Cobb and Young's 80-plus yard carries.

"POP" STRONG IN THE UMMASS KICK RETURN GAME

James Allen, nicknamed "Pop" by his grandfather, produced 238 kickoff return yards over seven attempts at Bowling Green on Oct. 10, the second-most yards in a single game in program history behind only Jesse Julmiste's 252 versus Boston College on Sept. 24, 2011. Tim Berra recorded the only other 200-yard return performance with as many yards vs. Rhode Island on Oct. 20, 1973.

Over the course of his true freshman season, James Allen earned 785 kick return yards, the fourth-most in a single season in program history. He did not play at Ball State on Oct. 31.

SINGLE-SEASON KICK RETURN YARDAGE LEADERS

RK.	PLAYER	YARDS (RETURNS)	SEASON
1.	Jordan Broadnax	932 (44)	2012
4.	James Allen	785 (34)	2015
5.	Adrian Zullo	681 (31)	1998
6.	Trey Dudley-Giles	669 (30)	2013
8.	Khary Bailey-Smith	563 (23)	2014
9.	Courtney Robinson	495 (19)	2007

WHIPPLE APPROACHING UMMASS WINS RECORD

Head coach Mark Whipple is four wins away from moving into first all-time in UMass history for career victories. Whipple owns 56 triumphs over his two tenures as the program's leader (1998-2003; '14-present), including the win over FIU in 2016.

Vic Fusia (1961-70) currently ranks first in UMass football history with 59 victories. Whipple is one of five coaches in team history with at least five winning seasons. Fusia leads the way with eight while Don Brown (2004-08), Harold "Kid" Gore (1919-27), Mel Taube (1931-35) and Whipple each have five.

WHIPPLE WEARS MULTIPLE HATS

University of Massachusetts football head coach Mark Whipple is one of the few program leaders across the FBS landscape the serves as a coordinator alongside his responsibilities as head coach.

Alongside Whipple, there are seven additional FBS head coaches who call plays as an offensive or defensive coordinator. David Beaty (Kansas), Paul Johnson (Georgia Tech), Mike Leach (Washington State), Doug Martin (New Mexico State), Derek Mason (Vanderbilt) and Phillip Montgomery (Tulsa) are the seven additional head coaches with coordinator responsibilities.

THE QUARTERBACK GURU

Two of the most successful quarterbacks in program history played for Mark Whipple during his first tenure at UMass while two highly successful NFL QBs received guidance from him during his time with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles as Whipple worked with Ben Roethlisberger and Donovan McNabb.

Todd Bankhead led the Minutemen from 1998-99 and finished his career with 7,018 passing yards, the second-most for a career in program history. Jeff Krohn suited up for Whipple from 2002-03 when he threw for 4,993 yards. Bankhead had 51 career touchdowns; while Krohn produced 44, which rank second and third on the program's all-time list, respectively. Blake Frohnapfel added his name to the list as he notched 6,264 passing yards and 39 touchdowns in only 22 appearances.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

University of Massachusetts football employs six alumni across various coaching roles in 2016, including Steve Costello (cornerbacks), Matt Dawson (defensive line and special teams), Anthony Rouzier (graduate assistant), Matt Schell (graduate assistant), Charles Walker (recruiting coordinator and inside linebackers) and Scott Woodward (quarterbacks/graduate assistant).

Costello, Dawson and Walker represent three of the nine assistant coaches allowed on-staff per NCAA regulations. Rouzier, Schell and Woodward are graduate assistants, with Rouzier and Schell helping on the defensive side and Woodward simultaneously serving on the offensive side along with quarterback coach responsibilities.

UMass is one of 13 teams in FBS that has three or more alumni coaching in full-time roles. BYU leads the way with nine, followed by Air Force (7) and Boise State (5). Hawai'i and Wisconsin sport four alums each while Auburn, Ball State, Iowa, Missouri, Troy, Utah and Utah State also have three.

LET'S GET THE BAND BACK TOGETHER!

Mark Whipple is flanked by former Minutemen on the sideline again in 2016. Included among his full-time assistant coaches are three recent program alumni in Steve Costello (tight ends), Matt Dawson (offensive line and special teams) and Charles Walker (recruiting coordinator and outside linebackers).

Three of the team's four graduate assistants also attended the University of Massachusetts, including Anthony Rouzier, Matt Schell and Scott Woodward.

In addition, Whipple's son, Spencer, is now coaching the wide receivers alongside his duties as the passing game coordinator after he suited up for the Maroon and White in 2008 before transferring to play for his dad at Miami (Fla.). Also back are several coaches who were part of Whipple's first staff (Tom Masella and Mark Michaels).

HUBER TABBED TO TWO PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Redshirt junior linebacker Shane Huber is on the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, presented annually to the best defensive player in college football.

Huber recorded 7.9 tackles per game and 95 total tackles in 2015. Huber had five games of 10 or more tackles last season and at least five takedowns in 11 of his 12 games played.

Huber, who missed part of 2013 and all of 2014 due to a knee injury, finished as one of the top tackling underclassman in the nation as the redshirt sophomore in 2015. He ranked 22nd nationally among players in their first or second year of active competition with his 7.9 stops per game.

LAURENT NAMED TO RAY GUY AWARD WATCH LIST

Redshirt junior Logan Laurent is on the watch list for the Ray Guy Award, presented annually to the nation's best collegiate punter, it was announced on Thursday.

Laurent set a career long punt of 56 yards and booted 13 punts of at least 50 yards in 2015. He had at least one attempt of 50 or more yards in eight games played last season.

In 2015, Laurent ranked third in the Mid-American Conference for average yards per punt (42.2) and highest among punters with at least 60 attempts. He also ranked 46th nationally and 13th among underclassmen-only in yards per punt.

STAFFORD AMONG JOHN MACKEY AWARD CANDIDATES

Redshirt junior tight end Todd Stafford stands among the candidates for the 2016 John Mackey Award. Primarily used in blocking situations in 2015, his first season competing at tight end, Stafford made 10 appearances on the year with a start against FIU in the 24-14 Minuteman victory. He played two seasons at quarterback before transitioning to tight end prior to 2015.

YOUNG RECOGNIZED ON DOAK WALKER, MAXWELL WATCH LISTS

Sophomore running back Marquis Young is on the watch list for the 80th Maxwell Award, named in honor of Robert W. "Tiny" Maxwell and given to America's College Player of the Year since 1937.

Young tallied 960 rushing yards on 152 carries with seven touchdowns last season. He ranked 23rd in FBS with 6.3 yards per rush and second among freshmen running backs. His 960 rushing yards marked the most by a UMass freshman since Steve Baylark (1,177 in 2003) and the most for a Minuteman in the FBS era.

MINUTEMEN PARTNER WITH ASN FOR HOME BROADCASTS

UMass established a partnership with ASN to broadcast the contests against Boston College (Sept. 10), Mississippi State (Sept. 24), Tulane (Oct. 1) and Louisiana Tech (Oct. 15).

All four games will be available on the ESPN3 platform and the WatchESPN App. ASN will simulcast the broadcasts on NESN for distribution in the New England market.

THREE AND THREE

UMass will play three contests at McGuirk Stadium this season. It hosts FIU for the second consecutive year (Sept. 17) while Tulane (Homecoming; Oct. 1) and Wagner (Oct. 29) also visit campus. Three more home games will be played across the Commonwealth at Gillette Stadium. These are Boston College (Battle of the Bay State; Sept. 10), Mississippi St. (Sept. 24) and Louisiana Tech (Oct. 15).

UPGRADING MCGUIRK STADIUM

As part of the transition plan to the FBS, McGuirk Alumni Stadium in Amherst went through an extensive construction project in the last three years. With groundbreaking during April 2013, the two main additions include the UMass Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex.

The Football Performance Center contains coach, operations and academic staff offices, locker rooms, meeting areas, a theatre-style film room, athletic training facilities, a video suite and a strength & conditioning area. This marks the first time in the modern era that all support services for the program are housed in one complex. The Martin And Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex offers the first upgrade to the media center of McGuirk Stadium in a half-century. The complex also offers viewing opportunities for dignitaries and fans alike.

In addition to the Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex, the Minutemen switched sidelines in anticipation of their return to on-campus competition in 2014. The home sideline is now one the East side of the stadium, opposite the press box, in an effort to promote the team and show the home fan section when on national television broadcast.

UMASS ONE OF FEW TEAMS WITH FEMALE ATHLETIC TRAINER

University of Massachusetts football is one of eight programs across FBS with a female primary athletic trainer. Associate athletic trainer Jennifer Brodeur is in her 10th year with the department and ninth working with the football program. In recognition of her success, the National Athletic Trainers Association named Brodeur the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in June 2013. The award is only given to one individual per year and is voted on by the College/University Athletic Trainers Committee.

SHARPE LEFT AN INDELIBLE MARK

Tajae Sharpe concluded one of the most lauded Minuteman careers in program history with an All-American senior season in 2015. He is now a wide receiver on the Tennessee Titans following his draft selection as the Titans' fifth round pickup (140th overall).

Over 47 games played with the Minutemen, Sharpe climbed atop the list for career receptions with 277. He is also first all-time in catches per game and averaged 5.9 in each contest. His 3,486 yards receiving ranks first all-time after he surpassed Adrian Zullo (2,892; 1998-2002) during 2015 Homecoming against Kent State on Oct. 17.

HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

NINTH SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS // 19TH AS COLLEGIATE HEAD COACH // BROWN, 1979

Mark Whipple, the architect of one of the University of Massachusetts football program's most successful eras, was named the team's head coach on Jan. 14, 2014 for his second stint in Amherst. He was previously at the helm of the Minutemen program from 1998-2003 when he led the Minutemen to the NCAA I-AA National Championship in his first season while making two additional postseason appearances in the following five years.

Whipple is the second head coach of the program during the Football Bowl Subdivision at UMass. He is the fourth of the Minutemen's 29 all-time coaches to serve multiple tenures.

A 30-year coaching veteran of the collegiate and professional levels, Whipple is widely regarded for his prowess as an offensive coordinator and his ability to develop quarterbacks. He helped Ben Roethlisberger of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers win a Super Bowl in his second year, built the University of Miami's 2009 and 2010 offenses into two of its best all-time and his teams set 40 offensive records while at UMass.

Whipple brings more than 15 years of experience as a head coach with a 127-77 overall record, including a 55-44 mark at UMass. His coaching resume includes a National Coach of the Year award (1998), a Brown Athletic Hall of Fame induction (1996), an NFL Super Bowl Championship (2006) and a pair of collegiate bowl game appearances (2009, 2010).

Whipple last coached with the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12 where he served as quarterbacks coach. He worked with second-year quarterback Colt McCoy (2011) and rookie Brandon Weeden (2012) within the Browns' West Coast offensive scheme.

His most recent collegiate stop was at the University of Miami as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009-10 seasons. During his time in Coral Gables, he guided the explosive Hurricane offense during two of their best statistical seasons in program history. Both years featured total yardage in excess of 5,000 yards with 2010's total of 5,483 standing as the third-most in program history.

In 2009, Whipple led Miami to its best offensive season since the national-title contending 2002 team. The Hurricanes put up 5,199 yards of offense becoming just the eighth team in school history to eclipse the 5,000-yard mark in total yards gained. Under Whipple's tutelage, quarterback Jacory Harris totaled the second-most pass completions (249), fourth-most passing yards (3,352) and sixth-most touchdowns (24) in a single season at Miami.

The 2010 Miami squad posted the fourth-best total rushing yardage in program history with 2,372 on the ground. Damien Berry led a stable of tailbacks with 899 yards and five touchdowns. The group overall averaged 182.5 yards on the ground per game with an average of 4.8 per carry.

Whipple spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, helping the team to an appearance in the NFC Championship game. Before joining the Eagles, he served as the quarterbacks coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-06 where he was instrumental in the development of Roethlisberger, who became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl as a rookie. In 2004, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback to finish a season undefeated with a 13-0 record in games he started.

Prior to his move to the NFL, Whipple spent 16 years as a collegiate head coach. In addition to his time at UMass, Whipple also led the Brown and New Haven programs.

At every stop in his college coaching career, the trademark of a Whipple team was a high-powered offense. His UMass teams rewrote the program's record book, setting more than 40 team records. In 1998, his national championship team posted school records in points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

While at UMass, he posted a 49-26 (.653) record in six years (1998-2003), leading the Minutemen to a Division I-AA National Championship in his first season with the team in 1998. He also won three Atlantic 10 Conference Championships. He was named the American Football Coaches Association's GTE Division I-AA National Coach of the Year, while also receiving National Coach of the Year honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette and finished runner-up for the Eddie Robinson Award, presented by The Sports Network.

In addition, Whipple was named the Scotty Whitelaw Division I-AA Coach of the Year by the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Association, and earned AFCA/GTE Region I Coach of the Year honors. In 2003, he earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors. He was selected as the New England Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in both 1998 and 2003. He posted five winning seasons in only six years as head coach with 17 different players earning All-America honors.

Taking over a program which finished 2-9 in 1997 and having had won just 19 games in the previous four seasons before his arrival, Whipple brought unparalleled success to the Minutemen under his leadership. Consider that in Whipple's six seasons on the sideline, UMass football captured a national title, won three conference championships, made consecutive NCAA I-AA playoff appearances for the first time ever and had three NCAA berths overall.

Introduced as the 26th coach in UMass history by then-athletic director Bob Marcum on Dec. 16, 1997, Whipple-coached teams posted a .500-or-better record 14 times. No UMass football coach reached the 20-win plateau faster than Whipple, who also owns five of the school's 11 all-time postseason victories.

In Whipple's rookie season at UMass, the Minutemen won a then school-record 12 games (broken by the 2006 NCAA national runner-up team) en route to the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA championship. UMass posted a record six victories over ranked opponents in 1998, including a 55-43 triumph over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern in the NCAA Championship game.

The Minutemen followed up Whipple's first campaign with another outstanding season in 1999. Armed with a lofty preseason ranking, UMass rebounded from a 1-3 start to post a 9-4 record and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. Along the way, UMass tied the all-time school record for consecutive victories with eight, and also claimed a share of the 18th Atlantic 10 title in school history.

In 2000, UMass struggled with injuries to key players throughout the season, but was still able to post an overall record of 7-4, with three of the losses coming against teams which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs. It marked the first time UMass had strung together three-straight winning seasons since a five-year run from 1977-1981. In addition, the Minutemen finished in third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 5-3 league mark, and handed Whipple his 100th career win with UMass' 29-21 season-ending victory at Rhode Island.

A young and inexperienced team was hit hard by injuries in 2001, finishing 3-8, but Whipple's 2002 Minutemen rebounded to post an overall record of 8-4. UMass tied for third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 6-3 mark in conference games, while downing two teams ranked in the top five in the nation (No. 2 Maine and No. 4 Villanova).

Whipple came to UMass following a four-year stint at his alma mater, Brown University. During his four years with the Bears (1994-97), Whipple compiled a 24-16 (.600) overall record without a losing season. His teams won more games in four years than the previous eight seasons at Brown combined.

Before his tenure at Brown, Whipple spent six years at the University of New Haven (1988-93), where he posted an impressive 48-17 (.738) overall record as head coach and offensive coordinator, including two straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1992 and 1993. The Chargers were ranked in the top 20 nationally in five of his six seasons at New Haven.

Prior to his stint at New Haven, Whipple served as the offensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire for two years. He was also a member of the coaching staff for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers under George Allen, assisting with the quarterbacks. Whipple was an assistant coach at Brown for one season (1983), working with the wide receivers. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University (1980), before serving as the offensive coordinator at Union College for two years (1981-82).

A 1979 graduate of Brown University with a bachelor's degree in political science, Whipple was the starting quarterback for the Bears in 1977 and 1978 leading Brown to a 13-5 record and a pair of second-place Ivy League finishes. He was a member of the Bears' 1976 Ivy League Championship team, the first Ivy title in school history. During his three-year varsity career, he completed 175 of 340 passes for 2,365 yards and 13 touchdowns, while running for 518 yards and 10 touchdowns. A two-time honorable mention All-Ivy pick in football, Whipple also earned four varsity letters on the baseball diamond as Brown's starting shortstop. He was inducted into the Brown Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Whipple was born in Tarrytown, N.Y. before moving to Phoenix, Ariz. at the age of nine. He is a graduate of Camelback High School where he was an all-state performer in both football and baseball. Whipple was named the Arizona Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1975. He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Spencer and Austin. Spencer was a quarterback at UMass and the University of Miami where he graduated in 2012. He is currently UMass' passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Austin began his college career as a quarterback on the Penn State football team before enrolling at UMass prior to the 2014 season.

University of Massachusetts football battled back and forth with No. 25 nationally-ranked Florida but the Gators prevented the upset and prevailed, 24-7 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville, Florida, on Saturday. Florida pulled away for the win with 14 fourth quarter points after it entered the final frame holding to a slim 10-7 advantage.

Massachusetts and Florida played three tightly-contested quarters as the Gators went into the final stanza clinging to a 10-7 lead.

Del Rio found Callaway for a 12-yard touchdown with three minutes, 57 seconds to play in the first half, but the Minutemen evened play in the second quarter with a scoring drive of their own.

Ross Comis capitalized on a 75-yard drive with his first collegiate rushing touchdown. Comis scrambled right before he cut back to his left and raced into the endzone for the score.

The Gators earned their three-point halftime advantage through the final drive of the second quarter. Del Rio and running back Mark Thompson worked Florida to UMass 23 yard line over a nine-play drive that culminated in Eddy Pineiro's 40-yard field goal conversion with eight seconds to go in the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Gators notched back-to-back scoring drives to bump their advantage to 21-7 midway through the fourth.

Pineiro drilled a 49-yard field goal ahead of a 26-yard Freddie Swain touchdown reception with 8:04 left on the Ben Hill Griffin Stadium scoreboard. Pineiro added his third made field goal of the game with 2:26 left to reach the final score.

GAME TWO*BOSTON COLLEGE 26*MASSACHUSETTS 7Sept. 10, 2016 • Gillette Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.*

University of Massachusetts football scored first but Boston College rebounded from its slow start for a 26-7 victory over the Minutemen at Gillette Stadium.

UMass quarterback Ross Comis found tight end Adam Breneman open over the middle on a catch-and-run play that netted the Minutemen a 58-yard touchdown and 7-0 advantage in the first quarter.

The Eagles responded in the second quarter when Patrick Towles connected with Jeff Smith on back-to-back touchdown receptions of 46 and 36 yards. Both scores came on the first play of their respective drives as Boston College put up 13 points in the quarter over only 17 seconds of game clock.

Mike Knoll added to the Boston College lead with a pair of field goals late in the third quarter. Knoll hit from 40 yards with three minutes, 50 seconds to play in the frame. He lined up and drilled a 36-yard attempt less than three minutes later as the Eagles took a 19-7 margin into the fourth.

UMass was unable to rally as the Boston College defense disrupted the line of scrimmage throughout the game. The Eagles sacked Comis eight times over the course of play while they recovered a pair of fumbles and ended another Minuteman drive with an interception.

Jon Hilliman tacked on a 15-yard score in the fourth quarter to reach the final score.

FIU 13

MASSACHUSETTS 21

Sept. 17, 2016 • McGuirk Alumni Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

Andrew Ford started at quarterback for the first time as a Minuteman and distributed 28 completions across nine receivers as UMass football downed FIU, 21-13 at McGuirk Stadium. Ford tossed touchdown passes to Adam Breneman, Andy Isabella and Jalen Williams.

Austin Taylor capped FIU's first scoring drive with a 47-yard field goal that made it 3-0 Golden Panthers with 6:32 left in the first quarter. The drive was aided by a 15-yard personal foul penalty on Ali Ali-Musa that moved the ball from the FIU 48 yard line to the UMass 37.

UMass answered with a five-play, 48-yard scoring drive capped by Williams' 26-yard touchdown reception. It gave the Minutemen a 7-3 advantage with 9:51 to go in the opening half. Ford followed with a 31-yard touchdown toss to Isabella in the final minute of the second quarter, which gave the Minutemen a 14-3 lead at the break. It capped a seven play, 87 yard drive the spanned only 96 seconds.

FIU cut the UMass advantage to 14-10 with a 16 play drive covering 75 yards and 5:43 of game clock. Alex Gardner ended the series with a two-yard touchdown rush around the left side of his offensive line.

The Golden Panthers defense stood up UMass running back Marquis Young on fourth-and-one at the UMass 44, which gave FIU the ball back in Maroon and White territory. The ensuing drive resulted in a 35-yard field goal conversion by Taylor with 4:48 left in the third quarter.

Massachusetts responded with Breneman's one-yard touchdown reception at the 1:28 mark of the third quarter. It gave the Minutemen a 21-13 advantage heading to the final frame.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 47

MASSACHUSETTS 35

Sept. 24, 2016 • Gillette Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.

Massachusetts led early but a strong third quarter showing for Mississippi State put the Bulldogs over the Minutemen, 47-35.

The Minutemen held an eight-point lead late in the second quarter after Marquis Young (83-yard run) and Jalen Williams (31-yard catch) posted touchdowns and off-set a pair of Westin Graves field goals.

However, Mississippi State converted on a Fred Ross nine-yard touchdown with 28 seconds to go in the frame to cut the Bulldogs' halftime deficit to 14-13.

The strong finish to the second rolled into the third quarter for Mississippi State as the visitors posted 28 points in the frame for a 41-21 lead. Ross started the comeback effort with a 46-yard TD reception with 9:05 left in the third.

Massachusetts pulled back within 41-35 with five minutes left to play via consecutive 19-yard touchdown catches from Bernard Davis and Sadiq Palmer. Palmer's score marked his first collegiate catch.

Ashton Shumpert put the game out of reach for UMass when he glided into the endzone with 2:33 to go. Mississippi State failed on its ensuing two-point conversion attempt.

TULANE 31

MASSACHUSETTS 24

Oct. 1, 2016 • McGuirk Alumni Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

UMass opened with back-to-back scoring drives but could not maintain its momentum against Tulane in a 31-24 loss at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. Andy Isabella had a two-touchdown afternoon as part of six receptions covering 94 yards. Steve Casali led the defense with 15 tackles.

Andrew Ford connected with Isabella on 12-yard receptions that capped the opening two drives and gave Massachusetts a 14-0 lead less than four minutes in. Khary Bailey-Smith's special teams forced fumble and recovery set up the second drive only seconds after UMass scored its first touchdown.

The Green Wave cut their deficit to 14-10 at halftime as the defense locked in and offense found room to run. An 11-yard Dontrell Hilliard rumble into the endzone put Tulane on the scoreboard before Andrew DiRocco converted a 22-yard field goal.

Glen Cuiellette hit Terren Encalade in-stride for a 36-yard touchdown down the right sideline 52 seconds into the third quarter as Tulane went in front for good. Lazedrick Thompson followed with a 19-yard TD run with seven minutes to go in the third as the Green Wave expanded their lead to 24-14.

Logan Laurent ended the UMass scoring drought with his first field goal of the season, a 28-yarder that capped a 79-yard drive and brought UMass within 24-17 with nine minutes, 37 seconds to go. However, Tulane scored on a Josh Rounds rushing play during the visiting side's next drive to put the lead back to double-digits, 31-17.

The Minutemen continued to battle through the final whistle as Sekai Lindsay scored on a two-yard run with 2:45 left and the defense forced Tulane to punt the ball away only 27 seconds later. However, the offense was unable to cobble together a game-tying scoring drive.
