NUMBERS TO KNOW

2,321	Punt yards for Logan Laurent in 2016, an average of 42.2 yards per attempt (55). He has 13 punts of at least 50 yards.
624	Adam Breneman's receiving yards over the last eight games (78.0 per game). He averages 6.6 receptions per contest in that span.
610	Receiving yards for sophomore Andy Isabella through 10 games. He had seven yards on two catches as a freshman in 2015.
531	Isaiah Rodgers' kick return yards, the 26th-most in FBS and seventh-most among true freshmen nationally.
278	Andrew Ford passing yards vs. FIU, the most in a UMass QB's first start since Richard Lucero vs. William & Mary (376) on Aug. 31, 2000.
140	Pick in the 2015 NFL Draft (fifth round, first selection) the Tennessee Titans took Tajae Sharpe , making the wide receiver the highest Minute-man taken in the FBS era.
108	Career games for Mark Whipple as the UMass head coach, including the Nov. 5 game at Troy. It's the most for one coach in the history of the program.
83	Length in yards of Marquis Young's rushing touchdown vs. FIU, tied for the 14th-longest run in FBS this year.
57	Career wins for Mark Whipple as the UMass head coach, three from surpassing Vic Fusia (1961-70) for first all-time at UMass.
42.2	Yards Logan Laurent averages per punt over his career (118 attempts, 4,981 yards), which ranks first all-time at UMass.
22	Passing touchdowns for Andrew Ford , tied for the 16th-most in FBS despite Ford only attempting a pass in eight of the team's 10 games.
13	Games it took Marquis Young to eclipse 1,000 career rushing yards. He enters play vs. Wagner with 1,627 on 299 carries (5.4 ypc).
9	Fumbles recovered by the Minute-men in 2016, tied for the 22nd-most in FBS this year.
6	Career 100+ yard games for running back Marquis Young , with three in 2015 as a true-freshman and as many more during 2016.
5.8	Receptions per game by Adam Breneman , the second-most by a tight end in FBS through Nov. 5.
3	Fumble recoveries for Steve Casali , tied for the second-most by an individual player in FBS this season.

MINUTEMEN HEAD WEST TO MEET BYU

University of Massachusetts football continues its three-game, season-closing road trip with a Sat., Nov. 19 game at BYU's LaVell Edwards Stadium in Provo, Utah, at 2 p.m. ET. It marks the first meeting between the teams and the first trip to Utah for the Massachusetts football program.

The Minutemen are coming off of their bye week. Prior to the break, Massachusetts headed to Troy University in Alabama, where the Maroon and White struck to an early lead but could not keep pace with the balanced Trojan attack. Andrew Ford finished with 316 yards passing and three touchdowns while Jalen Williams led all receivers with 108 yards on four receptions, including a 31-yard TD catch.

Massachusetts represents one of the youngest programs in FBS this season as it employs a host of rookies and inexperienced competitors. The Maroon and White are tied for ninth across FBS in most first time starters this season (19). The Minutemen also have one of the smallest senior classes in the nation with 13 seniors or graduate students. It is tied for the fourth-smallest in FBS.

UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary contact Molly O'Mara (momara@umass.edu or 413-406-6434). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be given out to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at Gillette Stadium and McGuirk Alumni Stadium to primary football contact Molly O'Mara at momara@umass.edu. This includes media passes for the press box and sidelines as well as scouting credentials.

QUICK SNAPS

University of Massachusetts football...

- Tight end Adam Breneman was added to the John Mackey Award Midseason Watch List after he opened the year with 28 receptions for 296 receiving yards and a pair of touchdowns in six games. He is up to 58 catches for 699 yards and seven TDs entering play at BYU.
- Running back Marquis Young appears twice in the UMass top-10 for rushing yards gained on a single play with his pair of 83-yard TD runs (tied-10th). He is one of only two Minutemen to appear twice in the top-10, alongside Frank Alessio (tied-sixth; 84 yards, twice).
- Tight end Adam Breneman recorded 10 receptions against FIU, making him the first UMass tight end with 10 or more catches in one game since Rob Blanchflower had as many versus Central Michigan on Nov. 23, 2012.
- Running back Marquis Young reached 1,000 career yards in his 13th game as a Minuteman, making him one of the fastest to do so in recent team history. Steve Baylark, R.J. Cobbs and Rene Ingoglia all bested Young as they accomplished the feat during their 11th games.
- Quarterback Andrew Ford stepped into the starting role against FIU with 278 passing yards and three touchdowns thrown. He is the first Minuteman to eclipse 275 passing yards during his first career start since Richard Lucero (376) did so against William & Mary on Aug. 31, 2000. Ford is also the first Minuteman with three or more touchdown passes since Todd Bankhead (four) at Delaware on Sept. 3, 1998.
- Running back Marquis Young reeled off 125 yards on 18 carries during the game against Mississippi State, his fourth collegiate contest with 100+ yards rushing and his first of the 2016 season. He has since added a second via a 163-yard performance at Old Dominion and a third at South Carolina (123 yards).
- Quarterback Andrew Ford distributed his 22 touchdown passes over the last eight games to seven receivers, including Andy Isabella (6), Adam Breneman (6), Jalen Williams (5), Dan Jonah (2), Bernard Davis (1), Sadiq Palmer (1) and John Robinson-Woodgett (1).
- Quarterback Andrew Ford and tight end Adam Breneman previously played on the same team at Cedar Cliff High School in Camp Hill, Pa. With Ford as the starter in the last seven games, Breneman owns a team-high 50 receptions for 598 yards and six touchdowns.
- Punter Logan Laurent averages 42.2 yards per attempt over 115 career punts, the longest distance averaged by a Minuteman with at least 50 punts in program history. He has 26 career punts of 50 or more yards and 30 dropped inside the opponent's 20 yard line.
- Linebacker Steve Casali owns 84 tackles in 2016, the most on the team and 24 more than the next Minuteman (Jesse Monteiro, 60). Casali is also second in TFLs (6.5) and tied for second in sacks (2.5) thanks to a combined 4.0 TFLs and 2.0 sacks at South Carolina and against Wagner.
- Safety Khary Bailey-Smith is the active leading tackler with 211 career stops, including a career-best 62 over 12 games in 2014. A do-it-all performer, Bailey-Smith also owns 16 passes defended, eight interceptions, five fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and a pair of kickoff return touchdowns.
- Linebacker Steve Casali has three fumble recoveries in 2016, currently tied for the second-most by an individual player in FBS this season.
- Played in the State of Utah for the first time in the history of the program with its Nov. 19 game at BYU.
- Head coach Mark Whipple owns 57 wins at the helm of the program, the second-most in UMass history behind only Vic Fusia (1961-70), who posted 59.
- Head coach Mark Whipple led the Minutemen into his 100th game as head coach when the team faced No. 25 Florida in the 2016 season-opener. His 109 career games are the most among all head coaches in the history of the program.
- Does not have permanent team captains in 2016 and will use game captains throughout the season. A list of game captains is available on page 15 of the notes.
- Alumnus Tajae Sharpe became the highest-drafted Minuteman of the FBS era when he was taken 140th overall (fifth round, first selection) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2016 NFL Draft.

BRENNEMAN BY-THE-NUMBERS

Adam Breneman has emerged as one of the most productive tight ends in FBS this season to the tune of team-leading numbers for receptions (58), receiving yards (799) and touchdown receptions (7).

In the last four weeks Breneman owns 30 receptions (7.5 per game) for 403 yards (100.8) and five touchdowns during play vs. Louisiana Tech (7-94-0), South Carolina (9-94-2), Wagner (8-138-2) and Troy (6-77-1).

BRENNEMAN ADDED TO JOHN MACKEY AWARD WATCH LIST

Adam Breneman earned his way onto the John Mackey Award Watch list as part of the organization's midseason update on Oct. 12. Through 10 games played, Breneman is first on the team in receptions (58) and receiving yards (699) and touchdowns (7).

A favorite target of quarterback Andrew Ford, who Breneman played with in high school, the redshirt junior tight end averages 7.31receptions per game during Ford's seven starts at QB.

Breneman marks the fourth UMass tight end to appear on a John Mackey Award Watch List. Teammate Todd Stafford started the 2016 campaign on the preseason edition of the award's watch list. Jean Sifrin (2014) and Rob Blanchflower (2013) were previously lauded on the midseason watch lists as well.

THE CEDAR CLIFF CONNECTION

UMass quarterback Andrew Ford and tight end Adam Breneman played together previously as members of the Cedar Cliff High School football program in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania.

Ford made his first start for the Minutemen against FIU and targeted Breneman throughout the game, resulting in 10 receptions, 77 yards and one touchdown for the 6-foot-4 tight end. Over Ford's seven starts at QB, Breneman averages 7.1 receptions and 85.4 yards per game.

Breneman is the all-time leading receiver in Cedar Cliff history and all-time leading tight end in Pennsylvania high school history (in all receiving categories).

Ford was the 2013 Gatorade Player of the Year, football's Mr. Pennsylvania and an Elite 11 QB as a senior. He set Cedar Cliff records in passing yards, touchdowns thrown and completion percentage.

NO SLUMP FOR SOPHOMORE STAR ISABELLA

Andy Isabella is the teams' No. 1 threat at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2016 after he saw limited action at the spot during his true freshman season. He leads all UMass wide receivers in receptions (49), receiving yards (610), receptions per game (4.9), receiving yards per game (61.0) and touchdown receptions (6).

BRENEMAN LEAVING LASTING MARK AT TIGHT END

In his first season in Western Massachusetts, tight end Adam Breneman now ranks as one of the all-time most productive members of his position group across team history. In only 10 games with the program, Breneman has 58 receptions, 699 receiving yards and seven touchdowns.

He is first all-time among UMass tight ends for touchdown receptions in a single-season. Breneman also ranks second for receptions and receiving yards (Kerry Taylor, 74-854).

BUILT FORD TOUGH

Andrew Ford stepped into the starting spot at quarterback for the first time against FIU and provided 278 passing yards and three touchdowns in the 21-13 victory over the Golden Panthers. He became the first Minuteman to debut with at least 275 yards since Richard Lucero had 376 yards against William & Mary on Aug. 31, 2000. The last Minuteman with at least three touchdown passes in his debut was Todd Bankhead (323 yards, four TDs) at Delaware on Sept. 3, 1998.

TWO WITH TWO

UMass produced back-to-back games with multi-touchdown receivers against Mississippi State (9/24) and Tulane (10/1). Jalen Williams had two on three catches versus the Bulldogs before Andy Isabella scored on a pair of 12-yard receptions against the Green Wave.

The last time a pair of Minutemen had two or more touchdowns in back-to-back games was in 2014 when Jean Sifrin caught two TDs at Colorado (Sept. 6) before Rodney Milles scored twice against Vanderbilt (Sept. 13).

Adam Breneman pulled off the same feat alone in the last two games with a pair of scores each against the South Carolina and Wagner defenses.

RUNNING RIGHT INTO THE RECORD BOOK

Marquis Young has twice rushed for an 83-yard touchdown, doing so at No. 6 Notre Dame on Sept. 26, 2015 and again on Sept. 24, 2016 versus Mississippi State. Those rushing attempts tie Young for 10th all-time on the longest run from scrimmage by a Minuteman and make him one of only two UMass football players to appear twice on the list (Frank Alessio, 84 yards, twice, tied-sixth).

THE CAMERA ADDS SIX POINTS

Bernard Davis caught a toe-drag touchdown pass in the fourth quarter against Mississippi State that was initially ruled to be incomplete due to Davis landing out of bounds. Following an official's review of the play, Davis was credited with the 19-yard score as replays showed Davis landed his left foot inches in-bounds before he and the Bulldogs' defender landed on the sideline.

It was Davis' second career touchdown pass and first since Sept. 25, 2013 against Maine. His previous touchdown also came at Gillette Stadium in the South endzone.

ESPN TOP-10 LOVE FOR WILLIAMS

Jalen Williams' 31-yard juggling touchdown catch through the defense of two Mississippi State players while falling to the ground was tabbed the ESPN No. 4 Play of the Day on the night of Sat., Sept. 24. It was Williams' first of two touchdown receptions against the Bulldogs.

THE FASTEST 1,000

Marquis Young reached 1,000 career rushing yards in only 13 games played, which ranks Young among the quickest Minutemen to 1,000 yards in recent team history. The last to reach the plateau faster was Steve Baylark, who did it in 11 games as a freshman in 2003. RJ Cobbs (2001-05) also accomplished it in 11 games, as did Rene Ingoglia (1992-95).

MAKING SURE THE FIRST TIME IS MEMORABLE

Sadiq Palmer's first collegiate reception went for a 19-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against Mississippi State. In 2016, Palmer is one of 20 players (11 wide receivers, six tight ends, one fullback, one running back, one quarterback) who had their first career catch go for six points. He is one of only four freshmen to do so.

DEPEND ON THE TIGHT END

Tight end Adam Breneman caught 10 passes against FIU covering 77 yards and one touchdown. It is the most receptions by a UMass tight end since Rob Blanchflower caught 10 ball for 100 yards and one score versus Central Michigan on Nov. 23, 2012.

Breneman is first on the team in receptions (58) and receiving yards (699). He has at least six receptions and 75 yards in six contests and owns at least one touchdown in five.

SHARING THE WEALTH

Quarterback Andrew Ford distributed his 28 completions among nine Minuteman receivers against FIU. It marked the most different players with at least one catch since 10 Minutemen reeled in at least one pass against Ball State on Oct. 31, 2015.

Ford bested his performance against FIU with completions to 10 receivers against Louisiana Tech. He has hit at least six receivers in each of his seven starts at quarterback.

A QB'S NEW BEST FRIEND AT TIGHT END

Redshirt junior tight end Adam Breneman broke out against the Boston College defense with 69 receiving yards and a touchdown on three receptions.

He produced a 58-yard catch-and-run touchdown reception in the first quarter – the first TD catch of the season for the Minutemen and longest by a tight end since Jean Sifrin rumbled for a 76-yard score against Toledo on Oct. 25, 2014.

Breneman put forth his first 100+ yard effort at the collegiate level with 138 yards receiving to go along with two touchdowns on eight receptions against Wagner. In his last four games, Breneman has 30 catches (7.5 per game), 403 receiving yards (100.8) and five touchdowns.

He entered the season with 186 career receiving yards on 15 receptions (three touchdowns) as a member of the Penn State football program from 2013-15.

JRW CHANGES THE PACE

Redshirt senior converted fullback John Robinson-Woodgett provided a change of pace at running back and took five handoffs for 28 yards during the 21-13 victory over FIU. All of his carries came during one fourth quarter drive when he and Marquis Young (one rush, 12 yards) moved the Minutemen from their 48 yard line to the FIU 12 with three first downs.

Woodgett averages 4.2 yards per carry in 2016 (16 rushes, 67 yards). His most offensive yards came against Louisiana Tech (three carries, 22 yards; three receptions, 22 yards).

Robinson-Woodgett added his first collegiate touchdown when he scored on a 14-yard reception against Louisiana Tech.

SPEEDSTER DOWN THE SIDELINE

Sophomore wide receiver Andy Isabella reeled in a 53-yard catch-and-run play down the Florida sideline at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. It set a personal best for Isabella, who entered the game with seven career receiving yards.

Isabella finished with three receptions for 95 yards at Florida, the most receiving yards for one player on either team. It reset his single-game bests for receptions and receiving yards.

He enters the game at BYU second for most touchdowns (6), receiving yards (610) and receptions (49) among all Minutemen. He has seven receptions covering at least 20 yards on the year.

MINUTEMEN FORCE THE ISSUE

Led by three forced fumbles from Da'Sean Downey and two more by Ali Ali-Musa, UMass football has forced 11 fumbles in 2016, with nine recoveries on those plays. Khary Bailey-Smith, Steve Casali, Colbert Calhoun, Basit Dennis and Sha-Ki Holines each have one.

UMass last had more forced fumbles in a single season in 2012 when the team caused 12.

FIND THEM IN THE BACKFIELD

UMass football eclipsed its previous FBS total for sacks in a season when Peter Angeh and Sha-Ki Holines combined for a 12-yard sack on Wagner's Alex Thomson, the 16th sack by the Minutemen in 2016. The 2014 and 2015 defenses totaled 15 sacks apiece over their respective 12-game slates.

Massachusetts enters the game at BYU with 20 sacks for 141 yards lost. Da'Sean Downey's 5.0 individual sacks also ranks as the most by a Minuteman during one year at the FBS level (2012-present).

The Minutemen have 59 tackles for loss in 2016, an average of 5.9 per game. The 2015 defense currently holds the season-long record for most TFLs in the FBS era with 67 for an average of 5.58 per game.

I GOT YOU THE BALL!

Linebacker Steve Casali has three fumble recoveries, representing all of Casali's career recoveries as well. It is tied for the 12th-most in a single season in team history. He had one each against FIU, Mississippi State and Louisiana Tech. It is also tied for second in the nation across FBS through games played on Oct. 29.

Randall Jette was the last Minuteman with as many fumble recoveries in a season when he had three in 11 games played and started during the 2013 season. The last UMass player with more than three in a single season was Kole Ayi with five during 1998.

KNOCK 'EM DOWNEY

Linebacker Da'Sean Downey has 5.0 sacks on the year, the most by a UMass defender in one season during the team's FBS era. 2013 graduate student transfer Justin Anderson was the previous leader with 4.0 during his lone season at UMass.

Downey had a pair of sacks covering 18 yards lost against FIU. It made him the first Minuteman with multiple sacks in one contest since Kassan Messiah (2.0-14) at Bowling Green on Oct. 10, 2015. The last Minuteman with more sack yards in a single contest was Michael Hanson (2.0-23) at William & Mary on Oct. 27, 2007.

Downey also had a sack each against No. 25 Florida, Mississippi State and South Carolina.

GOODSON GETS ONE

True freshman cornerback Bakhari Goodson pulled down his first collegiate interception against Louisiana Tech. It marks the first pick-off by a true-freshman since Joe Colton had one during his rookie campaign in 2012.

RODGERS IN THE RIGHT PLACE

True freshman cornerback Isaiah Rodgers added his name to the list of Minutemen with interceptions during the game against Wagner. It was Rodgers' first pickoff wearing the Maroon and White and made him the second true freshman with an interception on the year.

RODGERS SHINES IN FIRST START

Freshman Isaiah Rodgers was called into action against FIU as a starter at cornerback in place of an injured Jackson Porter. He finished the day with four tackles in the secondary and three pass breakups.

His PBU total marks the most by one Minuteman this season. He added a five-tackle afternoon against Mississippi State in his second start opposite James Allen and totaled six tackles, a pass breakup and a QB hurry as a starter at Old Dominion.

THE GRIZZLED VETERAN

Redshirt senior Khary Bailey-Smith is the only Minuteman with appearances in each of the team's five FBS seasons (2012-present). Three additional members of the squad were true freshmen during the inaugural year at the FBS level in Bernard Davis, Vondell Langston and John Robinson-Woodgett.

Bailey-Smith made two appearances in 2015 before suffering a season-ending injury that allowed him to redshirt. Davis, Langston and Robinson-Woodgett each redshirted one year without seeing time during it.

CASALI STAYS STEADY WITH THE STOPS

Steve Casali has at least eight tackles in six games this season, his first year as a starter at inside linebacker. All of his eight-stop showings came over the last eight games played, a stretch where Casali averaged 9.4 takedowns per game.

Casali leads the team in total tackles (84) and is also first for the most solo tackles (35). He is first on the team with three fumble recoveries and is tied with defensive back Isaiah Rodgers for most pass breakups (6).

ILB WITH THE INT

Inside linebacker Shane Huber picked off Boston College quarterback Patrick Towles during the second quarter of the #BattleoftheBayState, Huber's first career interception as a Minuteman. He is now one of two active linebackers with an interception on the squad, including Da'Sean Downey, who hauled one in during the win over Buffalo on Nov. 27, 2015.

TEDRICK THE TACKLER

Tedrick Lowery notched 11 tackles in his UMass debut at No. 25 Florida. It was the most by a single player on either team. He had three solo stops and eight assisted takedowns.

He added an eight-tackle day against FIU that included a seven-yard sack and also featured a pass breakup. Including his nine-stop outing against Mississippi State, Lowery tallied eight or more tackles in three of his four career games entering Tulane.

He ranked second among Minutemen in tackles at the time of his injury and he has not played in the previous three games due to injury.

DEPLOYING THE 4TH DOWN FOOTBALL MORTAR

In his second season as the punter, Logan Laurent already ranks among the best performing specialists in UMass football history with the career punt average and single-game punt yard records.

Over 115 career punts entering play at BYU, Laurent averages 42.21 yards per attempt. Brett Arnold ranks second at 41.35 yards per attempt (97-4270; 2007-08).

Laurent's most active day came in the #BattleoftheBayState against Boston College with 12 punts covering a program-record 547 yards (45.6 per attempt). Laurent dropped four of his punts inside the Eagles' 20 yard line while four traveled at least 50 yards.

He has averaged at least 41.0 yards per punt attempt in seven of the 10 games this season.

FIRST TIME IN THE FIRST PLAY

UMass featured 19 first-time starters over the opening nine games of the season. It is tied for the ninth-most in NCAA this season alongside recent opponent South Carolina and it trails Illinois (27), Missouri (26), Bowling Green (24), Baylor and Colorado State (22), UTSA (21), Mississippi State and Texas (20). Below is a breakdown of all 19 by first game started.

NO. 25 FLORIDA: Ross Comis (QB), Marquis Young (RB), Jack Driscoll (OL), Jake Largay (OL), Raquan Thomas (OL), Ali Ali-Musa (DL), Steve Casali (LB), Tedrick Lowery (LB), James Allen (CB) and Lee Moses (SS)

BOSTON COLLEGE: Joe Previte (DL)

FIU: Anthony Fernandez (OL), Andrew Ford (QB), Isaiah Rodgers (CB)

MISSISSIPPI STATE: Vondell Langston (LB), Peter Ngobidi (LB)

TULANE: Colbert Calhoun (LB)

OLD DOMINION: Travis Reynolds (TE)

SOUTH CAROLINA: Bakhari Goodson (CB)

YOUTH MOVEMENT IN FULL EFFECT

UMass has one of the smallest senior classes FBS in 2016 with 13 seniors or graduate students. It is tied for the fourth-fewest alongside Florida, Marshall, Minnesota, Old Dominion and Wake Forest.

Kentucky leads the nation with its 11-member senior class while Baylor and Penn State follow with 12 apiece. A host of UMass opponents also feature small senior classes alongside Florida, including Old Dominion (13), Troy (15) and Boston College (17).

FRESH RECRUITS CALLED INTO ACTION

Seventeen Minutemen made their first appearances during the 2016 season-opener at No. 25 Florida. These 17 include Ali Ali-Musa, Bilal Ally, James Bowe Jr., Adam Breneman, Colbert Calhoun, Jack Driscoll, Derek Dumais, Andrew Ford, Malik Lee, Tedrick Lowery, Brandon Mangram, Martin Mangram, Sadiq Palmer, Mario Patton, Travis Reynolds, Isaiah Rodgers and Raquan Thomas.

Seven more saw their first time vs. Boston College: Basit Dennis, Leon Flanagan Jr., D'Shan Harley, Roderick Jones Jr., Bakhari Goodson, Tyshaun Ingram and Sharif Saleem.

Anthony Fernandez and Mike Yerardi first appeared against FIU while Micah Morel and Nick Orekoya played against Tulane, Randall West saw snaps at Old Dominion and Basit Dennis saw time versus Louisiana Tech.

In total, 30 Minutemen have made their first appearances with the team during the 2016 season.

THE NAME'S ALLEN... JAMES ALLEN

Now-sophomore cornerback and return specialist James Allen changed his last name from Oliphant to Allen between the 2015 and 2016 seasons. He also changed numbers from No. 48 to No. 4, which was worn and passed along by former standout cornerback Randall Jette.

A NEW FACE UNDER CENTER

University of Massachusetts football was one of 10 programs in FBS that did not feature a returning quarterback with at least one career start on its 2016 roster. This list also includes Arizona State, Arkansas, NC State, North Carolina, Penn State, Rice, USC, Utah and Wisconsin.

Ross Comis was the only one with FBS-level experience as the redshirt sophomore was 15-of-21 for 171 yards and two touchdowns during six appearances in 2015. He started against the No. 25 Florida, Boston College and Old Dominion defenses but is currently out due to injury.

Andrew Ford, a junior college transfer, played 2015 at Lackawanna Community College after he redshirted his true-freshman season at Virginia Tech. He is 160-of-266 (60.2 percent) with 1,846 yards and 21 touchdowns over his seven games as the starter.

Redshirt freshman Randall West was elevated to second quarterback on the depth chart following Comis' injury. He played in his first collegiate game with his appearance on the final drive at Old Dominion when he went 2-for-4 covering 36 yards.

A NEW CENTER, TOO

Fabian Hoeller started at center in each game so far during 2016. It marked a position change for Hoeller after he served as the team's starting left guard for the previous two seasons, with 37 career starts on the line all-together. He replaced Matt Sparks, who held the title of starting center for the previous three seasons.

ROBINSON-WOODGETT SWAPS SIDES

Redshirt senior John Robinson-Woodgett will play his final season with the Minutemen at fullback after nearly four years as a linebacker. Robinson-Woodgett made the switch midway through the 2015 season and played as a fullback during the 2016 spring semester and fall preseason.

He served as the primary fullback at No. 25 Florida, blocking for Marquis Young as Young eclipsed 1,000 career rushing yards during play at The Swamp. He has started three games in 2016, accounting for each start by a fullback on the year.

Robinson-Woodgett holds totals of 67 yards rushing on 16 carries (4.2 ypc) and 55 yards receiving via nine receptions (6.1 ypr) including one for a touchdown. Robinson-Woodgett, who still contributes on special teams, owns 96 career tackles.

THE BROTHERS MANGRAM

UMass sports a pair of brothers donning the Maroon and White: Brandon and Martin Mangram. Brandon enters his redshirt freshman season while Martin is a true freshman. Both play cornerback.

They are one of 76 pairs of brothers from 48 different FBS programs. The Mangrams are also one of 28 sets of brothers competing at the same position, spread across 21 institutions. Both Mangrams made their first collegiate appearances at No. 25 Florida.

NICE TO MEET YOU

UMass football faces eight first-time foes in 2016. This includes BYU, No. 25 Florida, Hawai'i, Louisiana Tech, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Troy and Tulane. The Minutemen travel to BYU, Florida, Hawai'i, South Carolina and Troy. Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State visit Gillette Stadium while Tulane makes a trip to Amherst.

WE'VE ALREADY MET

Of the four repeat opponents on the schedule, UMass faced regional rival Boston College the most, with 25 games between the two Commonwealth of Massachusetts programs including the 2016 meeting. The Minutemen played their first game vs. FIU during 2015, a 24-14 UMass victory. Old Dominion (Oct. 1, 2011) and Wagner (Nov. 14, 1931) have each taken on UMass once prior.

WHIPPLE APPROACHING UMASS WINS RECORD

Head coach Mark Whipple is three wins away from moving into first all-time in UMass history for career victories. Whipple owns 57 triumphs over his two tenures as the program's leader (1998-2003; '14-present), including the wins over FIU and Wagner in 2016.

Vic Fusia (1961-70) currently ranks first in UMass football history with 59 victories. Whipple is one of five coaches in team history with at least five winning seasons. Fusia leads the way with eight while Don Brown (2004-08), Harold "Kid" Gore (1919-27), Mel Taube (1931-35) and Whipple each have five.

WHIPPLE WEARS MULTIPLE HATS

University of Massachusetts football head coach Mark Whipple is one of the few program leaders across the FBS landscape the serves as a coordinator alongside his responsibilities as head coach.

Alongside Whipple, there are seven additional FBS head coaches who call plays as an offensive or defensive coordinator. David Beaty (Kansas), Paul Johnson (Georgia Tech), Mike Leach (Washington State), Doug Martin (New Mexico State), Derek Mason (Vanderbilt) and Phillip Montgomery (Tulsa) are the seven additional head coaches with coordinator responsibilities.

THE QUARTERBACK GURU

Two of the most successful quarterbacks in program history played for Mark Whipple during his first tenure at UMass while two highly successful NFL QBs received guidance from him during his time with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles as Whipple worked with Ben Roethlisberger and Donovan McNabb.

Todd Bankhead led the Minutemen from 1998-99 and finished his career with 7,018 passing yards, the second-most for a career in program history. Jeff Krohn suited up for Whipple from 2002-03 when he threw for 4,993 yards. Bankhead had 51 career touchdowns; while Krohn produced 44, which rank second and third on the program's all-time list, respectively. Blake Frohnapfel added his name to the list as he notched 6,264 passing yards and 39 touchdowns in only 22 appearances.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

University of Massachusetts football employs six alumni across various coaching roles in 2016, including Steve Costello (cornerbacks), Matt Dawson (defensive line and special teams), Anthony Rouzier (graduate assistant), Matt Schell (graduate assistant), Charles Walker (recruiting coordinator and inside linebackers) and Scott Woodward (quarterbacks/graduate assistant).

Costello, Dawson and Walker represent three of the nine assistant coaches allowed on-staff per NCAA regulations. Rouzier, Schell and Woodward are graduate assistants, with Rouzier and Schell helping on the defensive side and Woodward simultaneously serving on the offensive side along with quarterback coach responsibilities.

UMass is one of 13 teams in FBS that has three or more alumni coaching in full-time roles. BYU leads the way with nine, followed by Air Force (7) and Boise State (5). Hawai'i and Wisconsin sport four alums each while Auburn, Ball State, Iowa, Missouri, Troy, Utah and Utah State also have three.

LET'S GET THE BAND BACK TOGETHER!

Mark Whipple is flanked by former Minutemen on the sideline again in 2016. Included among his full-time assistant coaches are three recent program alumni in Steve Costello (tight ends), Matt Dawson (offensive line and special teams) and Charles Walker (recruiting coordinator and outside linebackers).

Three of the team's four graduate assistants also attended the University of Massachusetts, including Anthony Rouzier, Matt Schell and Scott Woodward.

In addition, Whipple's son, Spencer, is now coaching the wide receivers alongside his duties as the passing game coordinator after he suited up for the Maroon and White in 2008 before transferring to play for his dad at Miami (Fla.). Also back are several coaches who were part of Whipple's first staff (Tom Masella and Mark Michaels).

HUBER TABBED TO TWO PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Redshirt junior linebacker Shane Huber was on the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, presented annually to the best defensive player in college football.

Huber recorded 7.9 tackles per game and 95 total tackles in 2015. Huber had five games of 10 or more tackles last season and at least five takedowns in 11 of his 12 games played.

Huber, who missed part of 2013 and all of 2014 due to a knee injury, finished as one of the top tackling underclassman in the nation as the redshirt sophomore in 2015. He ranked 22nd nationally among players in their first or second year of active competition with his 7.9 stops per game.

LAURENT NAMED TO RAY GUY AWARD WATCH LIST

Redshirt junior Logan Laurent is on the watch list for the Ray Guy Award, presented annually to the nation's best collegiate punter, it was announced on Thursday.

Laurent set a career long punt of 56 yards and booted 13 punts of at least 50 yards in 2015. He had at least one attempt of 50 or more yards in eight games played last season.

In 2015, Laurent ranked third in the Mid-American Conference for average yards per punt (42.2) and highest among punters with at least 60 attempts. He also ranked 46th nationally and 13th among underclassmen-only in yards per punt.

YOUNG RECOGNIZED ON DOAK WALKER, MAXWELL WATCH LISTS

Sophomore running back Marquis Young is on the watch list for the 80th Maxwell Award, named in honor of Robert W. "Tiny" Maxwell and given to America's College Player of the Year since 1937.

Young tallied 960 rushing yards on 152 carries with seven touchdowns last season. He ranked 23rd in FBS with 6.3 yards per rush and second among freshmen running backs. His 960 rushing yards marked the most by a UMass freshman since Steve Baylark (1,177 in 2003) and the most for a Minuteman in the FBS era.

MINUTEMEN PARTNER WITH ASN FOR HOME BROADCASTS

UMass established a partnership with ASN to broadcast the contests against Boston College (Sept. 10), Mississippi State (Sept. 24), Tulane (Oct. 1) and Louisiana Tech (Oct. 15). All four games will be available on the ESPN3 platform and the WatchESPN App. ASN will simulcast the broadcasts on NESN for distribution in the New England market.

THREE AND THREE

UMass will play three contests at McGuirk Stadium this season. It hosts FIU for the second consecutive year (Sept. 17) while Tulane (Homecoming; Oct. 1) and Wagner (Oct. 29) also visit campus. Three more home games will be played across the Commonwealth at Gillette Stadium. These are Boston College (Battle of the Bay State; Sept. 10), Mississippi St. (Sept. 24) and Louisiana Tech (Oct. 15).

UPGRADING McGUIRK STADIUM

As part of the transition plan to the FBS, McGuirk Alumni Stadium in Amherst went through an extensive construction project in the last three years. With groundbreaking during April 2013, the two main additions include the UMass Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex.

The Football Performance Center contains coach, operations and academic staff offices, locker rooms, meeting areas, a theatre-style film room, athletic training facilities, a video suite and a strength & conditioning area. This marks the first time in the modern era that all support services for the program are housed in one complex. The Martin And Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex offers the first upgrade to the media center of McGuirk Stadium in a half-century. The complex also offers viewing opportunities for dignitaries and fans alike.

In addition to the Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex, the Minutemen switched sidelines in anticipation of their return to on-campus competition in 2014. The home sideline is now one the East side of the stadium, opposite the press box, in an effort to promote the team and show the home fan section when on national television broadcast.

UMASS ONE OF FEW TEAMS WITH FEMALE ATHLETIC TRAINER

University of Massachusetts football is one of eight programs across FBS with a female primary athletic trainer. Associate athletic trainer Jennifer Brodeur is in her 10th year with the department and ninth working with the football program. In recognition of her success, the National Athletic Trainers Association named Brodeur the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in June 2013. The award is only given to one individual per year and is voted on by the College/University Athletic Trainers Committee.

Tajae Sharpe concluded one of the most lauded Minuteman careers in program history with an All-American senior season in 2015. He is now a wide receiver on the Tennessee Titans following his draft selection as the Titans' fifth round pickup (140th overall).

Over 47 games played with the Minutemen, Sharpe climbed atop the list for career receptions with 277. He is also first all-time in catches per game and averaged 5.9 in each contest. His 3,486 yards receiving ranks first all-time after he surpassed Adrian Zullo (2,892; 1998-2002) during 2015 Homecoming against Kent State on Oct. 17.

HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

NINTH SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS // 19TH AS COLLEGIATE HEAD COACH // BROWN, 1979

Mark Whipple, the architect of one of the University of Massachusetts football program's most successful eras, was named the team's head coach on Jan. 14, 2014 for his second stint in Amherst. He was previously at the helm of the Minutemen program from 1998-2003 when he led the Minutemen to the NCAA I-AA National Championship in his first season while making two additional postseason appearances in the following five years.

Whipple is the second head coach of the program during the Football Bowl Subdivision at UMass. He is the fourth of the Minutemen's 29 all-time coaches to serve multiple tenures.

A 30-year coaching veteran of the collegiate and professional levels, Whipple is widely regarded for his prowess as an offensive coordinator and his ability to develop quarterbacks. He helped Ben Roethlisberger of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers win a Super Bowl in his second year, built the University of Miami's 2009 and 2010 offenses into two of its best all-time and his teams set 40 offensive records while at UMass.

Whipple brings more than 15 years of experience as a head coach with a 127-77 overall record, including a 55-44 mark at UMass. His coaching resume includes a National Coach of the Year award (1998), a Brown Athletic Hall of Fame induction (1996), an NFL Super Bowl Championship (2006) and a pair of collegiate bowl game appearances (2009, 2010).

Whipple last coached with the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12 where he served as quarterbacks coach. He worked with second-year quarterback Colt McCoy (2011) and rookie Brandon Weeden (2012) within the Browns' West Coast offensive scheme.

His most recent collegiate stop was at the University of Miami as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009-10 seasons. During his time in Coral Gables, he guided the explosive Hurricane offense during two of their best statistical seasons in program history. Both years featured total yardage in excess of 5,000 yards with 2010's total of 5,483 standing as the third-most in program history.

In 2009, Whipple led Miami to its best offensive season since the national-title contending 2002 team. The Hurricanes put up 5,199 yards of offense becoming just the eighth team in school history to eclipse the 5,000-yard mark in total yards gained. Under Whipple's tutelage, quarterback Jacory Harris totaled the second-most pass completions (249), fourth-most passing yards (3,352) and sixth-most touchdowns (24) in a single season at Miami.

The 2010 Miami squad posted the fourth-best total rushing yardage in program history with 2,372 on the ground. Damien Berry led a stable of tailbacks with 899 yards and five touchdowns. The group overall averaged 182.5 yards on the ground per game with an average of 4.8 per carry.

Whipple spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, helping the team to an appearance in the NFC Championship game. Before joining the Eagles, he served as the quarterbacks coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-06 where he was instrumental in the development of Roethlisberger, who became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl as a rookie. In 2004, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback to finish a season undefeated with a 13-0 record in games he started.

Prior to his move to the NFL, Whipple spent 16 years as a collegiate head coach. In addition to his time at UMass, Whipple also led the Brown and New Haven programs.

At every stop in his college coaching career, the trademark of a Whipple team was a high-powered offense. His UMass teams rewrote the program's record book, setting more than 40 team records. In 1998, his national championship team posted school records in points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

While at UMass, he posted a 49-26 (.653) record in six years (1998-2003), leading the Minutemen to a Division I-AA National Championship in his first season with the team in 1998. He also won three Atlantic 10 Conference Championships. He was named the American Football Coaches Association's GTE Division I-AA National Coach of the Year, while also receiving National Coach of the Year honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette and finished runner-up for the Eddie Robinson Award, presented by The Sports Network.

In addition, Whipple was named the Scotty Whitelaw Division I-AA Coach of the Year by the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Association, and earned AFCA/GTE Region I Coach of the Year honors. In 2003, he earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors. He was selected as the New England Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in both 1998 and 2003. He posted five winning seasons in only six years as head coach with 17 different players earning All-America honors.

Taking over a program which finished 2-9 in 1997 and having had won just 19 games in the previous four seasons before his arrival, Whipple brought unparalleled success to the Minutemen under his leadership. Consider that in Whipple's six seasons on the sideline, UMass football captured a national title, won three conference championships, made consecutive NCAA I-AA playoff appearances for the first time ever and had three NCAA berths overall.

Introduced as the 26th coach in UMass history by then-athletic director Bob Marcum on Dec. 16, 1997, Whipple-coached teams posted a .500-or-better record 14 times. No UMass football coach reached the 20-win plateau faster than Whipple, who also owns five of the school's 11 all-time postseason victories.

In Whipple's rookie season at UMass, the Minutemen won a then school-record 12 games (broken by the 2006 NCAA national runner-up team) en route to the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA championship. UMass posted a record six victories over ranked opponents in 1998, including a 55-43 triumph over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern in the NCAA Championship game.

The Minutemen followed up Whipple's first campaign with another outstanding season in 1999. Armed with a lofty preseason ranking, UMass rebounded from a 1-3 start to post a 9-4 record and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. Along the way, UMass tied the all-time school record for consecutive victories with eight, and also claimed a share of the 18th Atlantic 10 title in school history.

In 2000, UMass struggled with injuries to key players throughout the season, but was still able to post an overall record of 7-4, with three of the losses coming against teams which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs. It marked the first time UMass had strung together three-straight winning seasons since a five-year run from 1977-1981. In addition, the Minutemen finished in third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 5-3 league mark, and handed Whipple his 100th career win with UMass' 29-21 season-ending victory at Rhode Island.

A young and inexperienced team was hit hard by injuries in 2001, finishing 3-8, but Whipple's 2002 Minutemen rebounded to post an overall record of 8-4. UMass tied for third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 6-3 mark in conference games, while downing two teams ranked in the top five in the nation (No. 2 Maine and No. 4 Villanova).

Whipple came to UMass following a four-year stint at his alma mater, Brown University. During his four years with the Bears (1994-97), Whipple compiled a 24-16 (.600) overall record without a losing season. His teams won more games in four years than the previous eight seasons at Brown combined.

Before his tenure at Brown, Whipple spent six years at the University of New Haven (1988-93), where he posted an impressive 48-17 (.738) overall record as head coach and offensive coordinator, including two straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1992 and 1993. The Chargers were ranked in the top 20 nationally in five of his six seasons at New Haven.

Prior to his stint at New Haven, Whipple served as the offensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire for two years. He was also a member of the coaching staff for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers under George Allen, assisting with the quarterbacks. Whipple was an assistant coach at Brown for one season (1983), working with the wide receivers. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University (1980), before serving as the offensive coordinator at Union College for two years (1981-82).

A 1979 graduate of Brown University with a bachelor's degree in political science, Whipple was the starting quarterback for the Bears in 1977 and 1978 leading Brown to a 13-5 record and a pair of second-place Ivy League finishes. He was a member of the Bears' 1976 Ivy League Championship team, the first Ivy title in school history. During his three-year varsity career, he completed 175 of 340 passes for 2,365 yards and 13 touchdowns, while running for 518 yards and 10 touchdowns. A two-time honorable mention All-Ivy pick in football, Whipple also earned four varsity letters on the baseball diamond as Brown's starting shortstop. He was inducted into the Brown Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Whipple was born in Tarrytown, N.Y. before moving to Phoenix, Ariz. at the age of nine. He is a graduate of Camelback High School where he was an all-state performer in both football and baseball. Whipple was named the Arizona Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1975. He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Spencer and Austin. Spencer was a quarterback at UMass and the University of Miami where he graduated in 2012. He is currently UMass' passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Austin began his college career as a quarterback on the Penn State football team before enrolling at UMass prior to the 2014 season.

NO. 25/25 FLORIDA 24

Sept. 3, 2016 • Ben Hill Griffin Stadium; Gainesville, Fla.

University of Massachusetts football battled back and forth with No. 25 nationally-ranked Florida but the Gators prevented the upset and prevailed, 24-7 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville, Florida, on Saturday. Florida pulled away for the win with 14 fourth quarter points after it entered the final frame holding to a slim 10-7 advantage.

Massachusetts and Florida played three tightly-contested quarters as the Gators went into the final stanza clinging to a 10-7 lead.

Del Rio found Callaway for a 12-yard touchdown with three minutes, 57 seconds to play in the first half, but the Minutemen evened play in the second quarter with a scoring drive of their own.

Ross Comis capitalized on a 75-yard drive with his first collegiate rushing touchdown. Comis scrambled right before he cut back to his left and raced into the endzone for the score.

The Gators earned their three-point halftime advantage through the final drive of the second quarter. Del Rio and running back Mark Thompson worked Florida to UMass 23 yard line over a nine-play drive that culminated in Eddy Pineiro's 40-yard field goal conversion with eight seconds to go in the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Gators notched back-to-back scoring drives to bump their advantage to 21-7 midway through the fourth.

GAME TWO

BOSTON COLLEGE 26

MASSACHUSETTS 7

Sept. 10, 2016 • Gillette Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.

University of Massachusetts football scored first but Boston College rebounded from its slow start for a 26-7 victory over the Minutemen at Gillette Stadium.

UMass quarterback Ross Comis found tight end Adam Breneman open over the middle on a catch-and-run play that netted the Minutemen a 58-yard touchdown and 7-0 advantage in the first quarter.

The Eagles responded in the second quarter when Patrick Towles connected with Jeff Smith on back-to-back touchown receptions of 46 and 36 yards. Both scores came on the first play of their respective drives as Boston College put up 13 points in the quarter over only 17 seconds of game clock.

Mike Knoll added to the Boston College lead with a pair of field goals late in the third quarter. Knoll hit from 40 yards with three minutes, 50 seconds to play in the frame. He lined up and drilled a 36-yard attempt less than three minutes later as the Eagles took a 19-7 margin into the fourth.

UMass was unable to rally as the Boston College defense disrupted the line of scrimmage throughout the game. The Eagles sacked Comis eight times over the course of play while they recovered a pair of fumbles and ended another Minuteman drive with an interception.

Jon Hilliman tacked on a 15-yard score in the fourth quarter to reach the final score.

GAME THREE

FIU 13

MASSACHUSETTS 21

Sept. 17, 2016 • McGuirk Alumni Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

Andrew Ford started at quarterback for the first time as a Minuteman and distributed 28 completions across nine receivers as UMass football downed FIU, 21-13 at McGuirk Stadium. Ford tossed touchdown passes to Adam Breneman, Andy Isabella and Jalen Williams.

Austin Taylor capped FIU's first scoring drive with a 47-yard field goal that made it 3-0 Golden Panthers with 6:32 left in the first quarter. The drive was aided by a 15-yard personal foul penalty on Ali Ali-Musa that moved the ball from the FIU 48 yard line to the UMass 37.

UMass answered with a five-play, 48-yard scoring drive capped by Williams' 26-yard touchdown reception. It gave the Minutemen a 7-3 advantage with 9:51 to go in the opening half. Ford followed with a 31-yard touchdown toss to Isabella in the final minute of the second quarter, which gave the Minutemen a 14-3 lead at the break. It capped a seven play, 87 yard drive the spanned only 96 seconds.

FIU cut the UMass advantage to 14-10 with a 16 play drive covering 75 yards and 5:43 of game clock. Alex Gardner ended the series with a two-yard touchdown rush around the left side of his offensive line.

The Golden Panthers defense stood up UMass running back Marquis Young on fourth-and-one at the UMass 44, which gave FIU the ball back in Maroon and White territory. The ensuing drive resulted in a 35-yard field goal conversion by Taylor with 4:48 left in the third quarter.

Massachusetts responded with Breneman's one-yard touchdown reception at the 1:28 mark of the third quarter. It gave the Minutemen a 21-13 advantage heading to the final frame.

GAME FOUR

MISSISSIPPI STATE 47

MASSACHUSETTS 35

Sept. 24, 2016 • Gillette Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.

Massachusetts led early but a strong third quarter showing for Mississippi State put the Bulldogs over the Minutemen, 47-35.

The Minutemen held an eight-point lead late in the second quarter after Marquis Young (83-yard run) and Jalen Williams (31-yard catch) posted touchdowns and off-set a pair of Westin Graves field goals.

However, Mississippi State converted on a Fred Ross nine-yard touchdown with 28 seconds to go in the frame to cut the Bulldogs' halftime deficit to 14-13.

The strong finish to the second rolled into the third quarter for Mississippi State as the visitors posted 28 points in the frame for a 41-21 lead. Ross started the comeback effort with a 46-yard TD reception with 9:05 left in the third.

Massachusetts pulled back within 41-35 with five minutes left to play via consecutive 19-yard touchdown catches from Bernard Davis and Sadiq Palmer. Palmer's score marked his first collegiate catch.

Ashton Shumpert put the game out of reach for UMass when he glided into the endzone with 2:33 to go. Mississippi State failed on its ensuing two-point conversion attempt.

GAME FIVETULANE 31*MASSACHUSETTS 24Oct. 1, 2016 • McGuirk Alumni Stadium; Amherst, Mass.*

UMass opened with back-to-back scoring drives but could not maintain its momentum against Tulane in a 31-24 loss at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. Andy Isabella had a two-touchdown afternoon as part of six receptions covering 94 yards. Steve Casali led the defense with 15 tackles.

Andrew Ford connected with Isabella on 12-yard receptions that capped the opening two drives and gave Massachusetts a 14-0 lead less than four minutes in. Khary Bailey-Smith's special teams forced fumble and recovery set up the second drive only seconds after UMass scored its first touchdown.

The Green Wave cut their deficit to 14-10 at halftime as the defense locked in and offense found room to run. An 11-yard Dontrell Hilliard rumble into the endzone put Tulane on the scoreboard before Andrew DiRocco converted a 22-yard field goal.

Glen Cuiellette hit Terren Encalade in-stride for a 36-yard touchdown down the right sideline 52 seconds into the third quarter as Tulane went in front for good. Lazedrick Thompson followed with a 19-yard TD run with seven minutes to go in the third as the Green Wave expanded their lead to 24-14.

Logan Laurent ended the UMass scoring drought with his first field goal of the season, a 28-yarder that capped a 79-yard drive and brought UMass within 24-17 with nine minutes, 37 seconds to go. However, Tulane scored on a Josh Rounds rushing play during the visiting side's next drive to put the lead back to double-digits, 31-17.

The Minutemen continued to battle through the final whistle as Sekai Lindsay scored on a two-yard run with 2:45 left and the defense forced Tulane to punt the ball away only 27 seconds later. However, the offense was unable to cobble together a game-tying scoring drive.

GAME SIXMASSACHUSETTS 16*OLD DOMINION 36Oct. 7, 2016 • S.B. Ballard Stadium; Norfolk, Va.*

Old Dominion led by 10 points after one quarter and the Monarchs' lead never dipped below one touchdown over the remainder of play as UMass football fell, 36-16 on the road.

Old Dominion scored 10 points in the first quarter and led 19-9 at halftime as Brad Davis connected on two ODU field goals, Travis Fulgham pulled in an eight-yard touchdown and Jeremy Cox ran for a 16-yard score.

Massachusetts put points on the board via a 12-yard Marquis Young rushing play and a two-point defensive PAT return by Steve Casali.

Dan Jonah set up the first scoring drive for UMass with an acrobatic 61-yard catch that included Jonah flipping over a would-be tackler as he continued to the Old Dominion 12 yard line one play prior to Young's rushing score.

GAME SEVENLOUISIANA TECH 56*MASSACHUSETTS 28Oct. 15, 2016 • Gillette Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.*

UMass was unable to slow down Louisiana Tech's combination of Ryan Higgins and Carlos Henderson as Higgs posted 484 passing yards and Henderson finished with 326 receiving yards on 12 catches, including five touchdowns in a 56-28 Minutemen loss.

Louisiana Tech and Massachusetts traded first quarter touchdowns en route to a 7-7 score after one quarter. Ryan Higgins hit Carlos Henderson for a 50-yard score on the Bulldogs' opening drive before Marquis Young rushed in from nine yards away to even it at 7-all with six minutes, 12 seconds to go in the frame.

Higgins connected with Henderson again during LA Tech's next scoring drive before Kam McKnight rumbled in from three yards away for a 21-7 Bulldogs lead entering the final minutes of the half.

Andrew Ford found Dan Jonah open in the left corner of the endzone on an 18-yard touchdown reception as UMass cut the deficit to 21-14 only 58 seconds later, but Higgins against found Henderson with just 10 seconds to play in the second to make it 28-14 at the break.

Ford completed his second touchdown toss as the Minutemen fought back to within 28-21 on John Robinson-Woodgett's first career score. It immediately followed up a Colbert Calhoun forced fumble and Peter Angeh fumble recovery that gave the Minutemen the ball at the LA Tech 14 yard line.

LA Tech responded with back-to-back scores on an 83-yard Higgins-to-Henderson reception before Russell Farris returned a fumble 19 yards to make it 42-21 with 11:08 to go in the third. It marked the start of a four-score run by the Bulldogs that put the game out of reach.

GAME EIGHTMASSACHUSETTS 28*SOUTH CAROLINA 34Oct. 22, 2016 • Williams-Brice Stadium; Columbia, S.C.*

UMass nearly upset South Carolina on the road at Williams-Brice Stadium with a late comeback surge as the Minutemen scored 21 of the final 28 points in a 34-28 loss.

South Carolina scored on a pair of one yard runs during its opening two drives for a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. Massachusetts answered as it strung together its longest drive of the season, a 14-play, 92-yard scoring series capped by Adam Breneman's 14-yard touchdown reception.

The Gamecocks responded with a Jake Bentley-to-K.C. Crosby touchdown play for a 20-14 lead as the extra point snap was botched. South Carolina then added a second touchdown with a 24-yard grab by Bryan Edwards for a 27-7 advantage following its next possession.

After the first UMass scoring drive totaled six minutes, nine seconds, the second took only 13 seconds as Andrew Ford found Jalen Williams open over the middle for a 73-yard touchdown reception.

David Williams added his second one-yard scoring play of the day in the third quarter as South Carolina bumped its lead to 34-14 with seven minutes, 53 seconds to go in the frame.

After Isaiah Rodgers forced a fumble and recovered the loose ball, UMass produced its third scoring drive of the game. Ford closed the series with a diving play at the left pylon that resulted in an eight-yard touchdown.

The Minutemen added another scoring drive late in the fourth to pull within six of tying when Ford hit Breneman from 18 yards away on third-and-17 for Breneman's second touchdown of the game.

With the score 34-28, Massachusetts was unable to complete the comeback as South Carolina received the ball with 4:32 to go and held possession with a grind-out drive that ticked the clock to zero and secured the Gamecocks the win.

GAME NINE

WAGNER 10

MASSACHUSETTS 34

Oct. 29, 2016 • McGuirk Alumni Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

UMass scored the opening 34 points of the game as the offense and defense combined for a dominant performance against Wagner on 2016 Senior Day.

Massachusetts elected to receive possession to start the game and marched down the field for a game-opening touchdown. Andrew Ford closed the drive with a 28-yard strike to Adam Breneman. Ford and Breneman connected on their second scoring play of the day in the final minute of the first quarter. On the sixth play of an 84-yard drive, Ford hit Breneman in the endzone for a six yard touchdown.

Ford aired the ball out for the next score, his third touchdown pass of the day. Ford hit Andy Isabella streaking down the left side of the field and Isabella outpaced the Wagner secondary en route to a 55-yard touchdown that pushed the lead to 21-0.

Logan Laurent added a pair of field goals for the 27-0 halftime advantage. Laurent connected from 33 yards away with six minutes, eight seconds to play in the half before he sent a 22-yard try through the uprights with 12 seconds left in the half.

The UMass defense locked down on Wagner over the course of the half and limited the Seahawks to 167 total offensive yards (30 plays) over the opening 30 minutes while the UMass offense accumulated 403 on 44 plays.

The Minutemen padded the lead during their second drive of the third quarter. After rolling out in search of his fourth TD pass of the day, Ford tucked it and ran in from 16 yards out for the score after he battled a pair of Wagner defenders at the goal line for the rushing score.

Wagner scored on its final two drives after it was denied on its opening nine attempts. James Cooper put points on the board with a 27-yard field goal at the 2:42 mark of the third. John Williams caught a two-yard pass from Thomson with 6:29 to go in the fourth to reach the final score.

GAME 10

MASSACHUSETTS 31

TROY 52

Nov. 5, 2016 • Veterans Memorial Stadium; Troy, Ala.

UMass converted on its first two drives but could not stymie the Troy offense en route to a 52-31 setback at Veterans Memorial Field in the team's first trip to Alabama in the history of the program.

Massachusetts raced out to a 14-0 lead in the opening two minutes, 21 seconds with back-to-back Andrew Ford touchdown passes, one each to Dan Jonah and Adam Breneman.

Troy answered with the next three scoring drives. Silvers made up for his miscue with a five yard completion to Emanuel Thompson before Jordan Chunn and Silvers powered in for back-to-back rushing scores.

Logan Laurent cut into the 21-14 deficit at the 10:38 mark of the second quarter when he converted on a 28-yard field goal; however, the Trojans netted their fourth TD drive of the half with only 56 seconds to go for a 28-17 lead at the break. John Johnson hauled in a seven yard grab for the touchdown.

UMass answered back during its opening drive of the third quarter to cut the deficit to 28-24 with 10:13 to go. The Minutemen marched 70 yards over seven plays, capped by Williams' 31-yard TD reception.

Troy posted the next 24 points and put the game out of reach as the Trojans turned a four-point advantage into a 52-24 margin with 10 minutes to play.

Sadiq Palmer added the final UMass points of the contest with his first rushing touchdown, a four-yard scamper that closed out a 16-play, 75-yard series.
