Quick Hits: Minutemen Fall to No. 20 Vermont, Tie No. 19 St. Lawrence at Friendship Four.

- The Minutemen went 0-1-1 in the Friendship Four last week in Belfast, Northern Ireland, falling to No. 20 Vermont, 4-2, and tying No. 19 St. Lawrence, 2-2. The Saints won a shootout, 2-1, that determined third place in the tournament.

- Against UVM, UMass finished the night with a 35-34 shot advantage and went 0-for-6 on the power play, while Vermont was 2-for-4.

- Freshmen Griff Jeszka and Shane Bear both notched their third goals of the season in Friday's contest.

- Junior Jake Horton's assist vs. the Catamounts marked his first point of the season, while sophomore Callum Fryer's was his second assist of the year.

- Freshman Ryan Wischow started in net and made 30 saves against Vermont.

- During the shootout vs. St. Lawrence, sophomore Austin Plevy converted his attempt for the Minutemen, but goals by Mike Marnell and Drew Smolcynski gave the Saints the shootout win.

- UMass out-shot St. Lawrence, 37-28 in the contest and both teams were 1-for-6 on the power play.

- Plevy's goal vs. the Saints marked his team-leading fourth of the year. He now has six points (4g, 2a) in the past eight games.

- Senior Steven Iacobellis and sophomore Kurt Keats both notched their second assists of the Friendship Four tournament. Keats has an active four-game point scoring streak (1g, 3a) and has six points (3g, 3a) in his last seven games.

- Jeszka's assist marked his fourth of the season as he finished the tournament with a goal and an assist and now has seven points (3g, 4a) on the year to lead all UMass freshmen.

- UMass finished the night vs. St. Lawrence with a slight edge in faceoffs, winning 31 of 61 (50.8%), led by Iacobellis' 15-for-23 (65.2%) performance.

- Freshman Ryan Wischow made 26 saves in his eighth start of the season against the Saints.

First Timers

- There have been a lot of "firsts" for the Minutemen over the opening 12 games of the 2016-17 season.

- In the first two games of the Greg Carvel era, all eight members of the freshmen class made their college hockey debuts, three of them picked up their first career points, one goaltender recorded his first career shutout (in his first career game), all while the Minutemen notched their first win of the young season.

- Freshmen forwards Jonny Lazarus and Griff Jeszka each tallied their first goals of their collegiate careers, with Lazarus scoring in both games against the Tigers, and Jeszka getting on the scoresheet with an assist in game one vs. Colorado College and a goal in game two. Defenseman Shane Bear also recorded his first collegiate point, assisting on a goal scored by Steven Iacobellis.

- Freshman goaltender Ryan Wischow started his first college game in the Minutemen's season debut against the Tigers, turning in a stellar 31-save shutout on the way to a 3-0 victory for UMass, and his first career shutout. Over the Division I history of Minutemen hockey, Wischow is the only netminder to record a shutout in his first career game.

- Freshman Niko Hildenbrand logged his first collegiate point with a goal against Army West Point on Oct. 21.

- Freshmen Jack Suter and Jake McLaughlin both collected their first career points at No. 6/7 Quinnipiac with a goal and an assist, respectively.

- Defenseman Shane Bear picked up his first career goal for the Minutemen on Oct. 28 vs. New Hampshire.

- Suter collected his first collegiate assist on the game-tying goal vs. UConn on Nov. 4.

Reaching a Milestone

- Senior defenseman Marc Hetnik recently played the 100th game of his career at UMass on Nov. 18, 2016 at New Hampshire.

- Hetnik has four goals and 13 assists for 17 points thus far in his career with the Maroon and White and became the third member of the Minutemen's current roster to reach the century milestone in games played, joining classmates Steven Iacobellis and Ray Pigozzi.

Youth Movement

- Through 12 games, freshmen have provided 41.4% of the Minutemen's goals as Jonny Lazarus, Griff Jeszka and Shane Bear all have three apiece on the season, while Niko Hildenbrand and Jack Suter contributed two goals and one goal, respectively, combining for 12 of the team's 29 tallies to date.

- A total of six freshmen have found the scoresheet over the first 12 games of the year, combining for 26 points or 31% of the team's scoring.

- In addition, of the Minutemen taking 10 or more faceoffs per-game, Jeszka is second for UMass with a 55.0% faceoff percentage (71 for 129).

- In Hockey East play, Bear ranks seventh in the league in defenseman scoring and fifth in freshman scoring as five (3g, 2a) of his six points on the year have come in Hockey East play.

- A freshman has also accounted for two of the squad's wins in net as Ryan Wischow is 2-3-2 on the year and holds a team-best .912 save percentage and a 2.49 goals-against average.

Balanced Attack

- Of the 18 Minutemen skaters to dress against Boston College on Oct. 29, 11 of them combined for 12 points, including assists from five of six defensemen.

- Over the first 12 games of the season, not one Minuteman has registered more than four goals and 22 players out of the 27 who have seen action have tallied at least one point. Two individuals, sophomores Austin Plevy and Kurt Keats, are tied for the team scoring lead with eight points apiece, while two more have seven points apiece and three more follow with six each.

Mr. Consistent

- Senior Steven Iacobellis was named the 10th two-year captain in UMass history and fifth in the program's modern era this September.

- The Port Coquitlam, British Columbia native has appeared in 115 of a possible 118 games over his three-plus seasons with the Minutemen, totaling 71 points on 24 goals and 47 assists. Iacobellis, who was second on the squad in assists with 17 in 2015-16, has ranked in the top-five in scoring for UMass in each of his first three seasons with three straight seasons of 20+ points.

- As a sophomore in 2014-15, Iacobellis bested his freshman year total with 24 points to rank third on the team, while finishing fourth on the squad in goals (8) and third in assists (16).

- Iacobellis was honored as the team's 2013-14 Rookie of the Year after he tied for third on the team in scoring with 21 points on 11 goals and 10 assists.

- In 2013-14 Iacobellis ranked fourth among Division I freshmen with 383 faceoff wins and was eighth in faceoff winning percentage (.563, 383-for-680), while finishing the year tied for 16th among the nation's freshmen in goals scored and third in power-play goals.

A Little Help from My Friends

- In addition to Steven Iacobellis being named the UMass captain for 2016-17, senior defenseman Brennan Baxandall, junior forward Dominic Trento, senior goaltender Alex Wakaluk and sophomore defenseman William Lagesson will serve as the team's assistant captains this season.

- Baxandall has seen action in 55 games with the Minutemen and has logged seven points on two goals and five assists. The three-time Hockey East All-Academic Team member appeared in 14 games last season and contributed 23 blocks in addition to a goal and an assist.

- Trento is coming off a 2015-16 campaign that saw him set career bests in virtually every statistical category, finishing tied for fourth on the team in goals (8) and sixth in points (17). The Brockport, New York, native, who was named the NCAA's No. 2 Star of the Week last

Oct. 10, has 29 career points over 60 games on 13 goals and 16 assists.

- Wakaluk is a two-time Hockey East Academic All-Star and three-time Hockey East All-Academic Team selection from Bellevue, Alberta. As a junior in 2015-16, the netminder logged a career high 439 minutes, 10 games played and 206 saves. He recorded his first career victory on January 2, 2016, turning aside 22 shots in a 2-1 overtime win at Army West Point.

- Lagesson, who was named an assistant captain prior to UMass' game vs. UConn on Nov. 4, played in 27 games as a freshman in 2015-16 and registered seven points on two goals and five assists.

Dynamic Duo

- Over the past three-plus seasons, a total of 118 games, seniors Steven Iacobellis and Ray Pigozzi have missed just a combined 18 contests between them.

- Of the 100 games where they have both been in the lineup, Pigozzi and Iacobellis have been linemates in 72 of those contests, combining for 104 points (33g, 71a).

Plevy Makes Big Impact in First Season

- Sophomore forward Austin Plevy made a splash as a rookie in 2015-16, finishing fourth on the team in scoring with 24 points (10g, 14a), which led the freshman class, and tied for the team lead in power-play goals with four, while pacing the squad with three game-winners.

- Plevy recorded a hat trick in his collegiate debut on Oct. 9, 2016, at Colorado College to join Connecticut's Max Letunov's as the first players in Division I hockey to do so in their first career games since Notre Dame's Anders Lee in 2010.

- Plevy's hat trick was the first by a UMass rookie since James Marcou found the back of the Vermont net three times as a freshman on Jan. 25, 2008.

- Following his five-point weekend with four goals and an assist to open the 2015-16 season, Plevy was named the Co-Hockey East Rookie of the Week and Co-UMass Student-Athlete of the Week on Oct. 12, 2015.

- Plevy was also tabbed NCAA Hockey's No. 1 Star of the Week and had the No. 1 play of the week on the NCAA's Top Plays, as well.

- The Langley, British Columbia, native was featured in Sports Illustrated's "Faces In The Crowd" for that debut performance.

On the Blueline

- The Minutemen return seven of eight defensemen from their 2015-16 roster, including four individuals who played 25+ games on the UMass blueline last season, three of whom were freshmen (Ivan Chukarov, Callum Fryer and William Lagesson).

- As a rookie in 2015-16, Ivan Chukarov was one of three players on the Minutemen roster to appear in all 36 games and was second among the team's defensemen in scoring with eight points on three goals and five assists. Drafted by the Buffalo Sabres in the 7th round of the 2015 entry draft, Chukarov was named a co-recipient of the Craig Ramsay award winner at Buffalo's development camp this summer, given to the "hardest working player" at camp.

- This year, the Minutemen's roster features 10 defensemen, with seven freshmen and sophomores in the group. Freshman Shane Bear comes to Amherst with impressive credentials as he won an AJHL Championship with the Brooks Bandits and a gold medal with Canada West at the World Junior A Challenge in 2015-16, amassing 108 points over 156 career games with Brooks.

International Experience

- Defenseman William Lagesson took part in the 2016 World Junior Championship as a member of Team Sweden and reached the Bronze Medal game as a freshman in 2015-16.

- Lagesson, who played for Sweden at World Juniors in 2015, became the first Minuteman to compete for his country in the tournament since Stephen Werner '06 was a member of Team USA in 2004.

- Lagesson previously dressed for Team Sweden in 65 international contests between the U16, U17, U18 and U20 levels.

- At the 2015 World Junior Championship, he helped Sweden to a 4-0 record in the preliminary round and an appearance in the Bronze Medal game.

- Lagesson finished the 2016 WJC tournament two goals and one assist and a +7 rating over seven games. He was among the plus-minus leaders for the tournament.

Eight is Great

- UMass has welcomed a group of eight freshmen to the fold for the 2016-17 season, including five forwards, two defensemen and one goaltender.

- The group represents five states (California, Illinois, Nebraska, New York and Wisconsin) and one province (Alberta).

- Five of the freshmen previously played in the USHL, including three who were previously teammates with the Fargo Force: Niko Hildenbrand, Jake McLaughlin and Ryan Wischow.

TV Time

- A pair of Massachusetts' Hockey East contests have been selected as a part of the 2017-16 Hockey East Television Package. The Minutemen's Dec. 2 matchup vs. Notre Dame and Dec. 9 game at Connecticut have been selected as a part of the 14-game slate that will be produced by American Sports Network and shown on NESN across New England.

- ASN will broadcast select Hockey East contests as part of a Friday night double-header showcasing eastern college hockey programs at 6 p.m. ET followed by western teams at 8:30 p.m. UMass' game times for its televised contests have been adjusted accordingly as the Notre Dame matchup at the Mullins Center has been moved to a 6 p.m. start and the game at UConn will now begin at 6:30 p.m.

HEAD COACH GREG CARVEL

First Season - Career Record (Entering 2016-2017): 72-63-15

Record at Massachusetts (Entering 2016-2017): First Season

Alma Mater: Saint Lawrence '93/Massachusetts'98G

National Hockey League (NHL) coaching veteran and former Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Defensive Forward of the Year and Coach of the Year Greg Carvel was named the 14th ice hockey head coach at the University of Massachusetts on March 29, 2016.

"Greg's extensive pro and college hockey experience, including considerable success as a player and coach, will serve him well as the leader of our program for years to come," Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford said. "I look forward to working closely with Greg and his staff to place the Commonwealth's Flagship hockey program in a position of sustained success in Hockey East and beyond."

Carvel spent the last five seasons at St. Lawrence University, also his alma mater. He boasts a head coaching record of 72-63-15 over four seasons. Prior to his return to Canton, N.Y., also his hometown, he spent 15 seasons in the professional ranks. He made two trips to the NHL Stanley Cup Finals while a member of the staff in Anaheim and Ottawa.

Carvel's college coaching resume includes four All-Americans, two ECAC Rookies of the Year, an ECAC Player of the Year, three Hobey Baker finalists and one Hobey Hat Trick finalist. The Saint coach was selected as an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Men's National Team and spent the better part of May 2015 in the Czech Republic, joining Columbus Blue Jackets head coach Todd Richards and Buffalo Sabres head coach Dan Bylsma in leading the U.S. squad to a bronze medal finish.

Carvel took over an 11th-place team in 2011-12 and has since guided the Saints to eighth, fifth, second and fourth place finishes, respectively. In 2015-16, his club finished with a record of 19-14-4 and a final NCAA Pairwise ranking of 19th. The three ECAC teams that finished ahead of SLU advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

He began his professional coaching career as director of hockey operations for the Lowell Lock Monsters of the American Hockey League. He joined the Anaheim Ducks as scouting coordinator in May of 1999, adding video coordinator to his duties in 2002 and earning a promotion to assistant coach in 2003. He joined the Ottawa Senators as an assistant coach in 2004 and was on the staff until the summer of 2011. Both the Ducks and the Senators made it to the Stanley Cup Finals during his time as an assistant coach.

A former Saint captain and the first CoSIDA Academic All-American in SLU program history, Carvel is the first ECAC Coach to have won a major league award as a player and its Coach of the Year Award. He was the 1993 Outstanding Defensive Forward award winner. He had 38 goals and 85 assists for 123 points in 131 collegiate games.

Carvel played one year of professional hockey in Sweden and then became assistant athletic director and assistant hockey coach at Canterbury Prep. He earned a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts in 1998 and was an assistant coach at Amherst College in 1996 while pursuing his degree.

Carvel and his wife, Daina, an Amherst native, are parents to Kathryn, Ava and Drew.
