UMASS MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME WEEK

A-10 WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Each Monday morning during the Atlantic 10 Conference league slate (January through March), all A-10 coaches will participate in a weekly teleconference with the media. UMass head coach Derek Kellogg and his Atlantic 10 compatriots will address questions directly from the media beginning at 10 a.m. Interested media outlets looking to participate in the A-10 teleconference should call Drew Dickerson at 757-706-3058 for the teleconference number and login credentials.

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The UMass Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the men's basketball program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Submitted all interview requests to primary contact Cody Lahl (clahl@admin.umass.edu or 845-750-4225) ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be given out to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at the Mullins Center to men's basketball contact Cody Lahl at clahl@admin.umass.edu. Please submit your credential requests a minimum of one week in advance of the contest to all for shipping and delivery.

POSTGAME MEDIA ACCESS

All postgame interviews for home games played in the Mullins Center will be held in the Green Room following a 10-minute cooling off period. The visiting head coach and selected visiting players will be available for the media first followed by UMass head coach Derek Kellogg and his Minutemen. The media will not be given access to team-specific areas, such as the locker room, for interviews.

MASSACHUSETTS-UCF PREVIEW

University of Massachusetts men's basketball and the University of Central Florida (UCF) meet for the second time in as many seasons with a Sat., Dec. 3 contest at the Mullins Center. It marks the fifth all-time meeting between the teams in a series UCF currently leads 3-1. The Knights won the most recent three contests between the sides after Massachusetts claimed a 92-70 NCAA Tournament win in the first meeting on March 14, 1996.

UCF sports a record identical to Massachusetts' 5-1 start as the Knights rank among the most successful defensive teams in the NCAA this season. UCF has the best field goal defense in the nation at 30.1 percent, second-strongest scoring defense (53.3 points allowed per game), third-most defensive rebounds per game (35.2), fourth-fewest personal fouls committed (14.5 per game) and fifth-most total rebounds on average (46.3).

Their defensive prowess can largely be attributed to 7-foot-6 center Tacko Fall, who ranks in the top-25 nationally for every rebounding and blocking category in addition to being the national leader in field goal percentage (.800; 40-of-50).

Last time out between the sides, UCF struck to a 12-point halftime lead Massachusetts chipped away at and erased midway through the second half. After Donte Clark's fastbreak 3-point make tied it at 44-all with 13 minutes, 27 seconds to go, neither side led by more than five points the remainder of the way. UCF sealed the win on a Shaheed Davis offensive rebounds and put-back layup with three seconds to play.

UMASS BASKETBALL FASTBREAK POINTS

University of Massachusetts men's basketball...

- Head coach Derek Kellogg is in his ninth season at the helm of the program in 2015-16. Kellogg, a 1995 graduate of the University of Massachusetts, sports a 145-120 career record currently, the third-most wins by a head coach in the more-than 100-year history of the program and the 15th-most in the history of the Atlantic 10 Conference.
- Newcomers provide an average of 38.2 points per game led by DeJon Jarreau (12.0), Luwane Pipkins (10.3) and Zach Lewis (10.2). Tyrn Flowers adds 4.0 per game and Chris Baldwin scores 1.7 on average. It equates to 51.1 percent of the team's total points per game over the opening six games. Jarreau, Pipkins and Lewis are three of the top four scoring Minutemen, behind only Donte Clark's 16.5 averaged per game.
- Freshman guard Luwane Pipkins tied the program record with eight steals against UMass Lowell. It was his first collegiate game. He has 21 on the season through six contests, the third-highest per game average (3.5) in NCAA Division I men's basketball and the fifth-most by volume.
- Is one of only 17 teams in the nation averaging at least 9.5 steals per game or more. The Minutemen are tied with Georgia State for 12th in the nation with 9.7 per game. They are second in the A-10 to only Fordham in the category (12.1).
- Sports the 36th-best field goal percentage defense in the nation and the third-best mark in the Atlantic 10 through games on Wed., Nov. 30. The Minutemen held opponents to a combined 38.2 field goal percentage over the opening six games of the season.
- Junior guard Donte Clark has at least eight points in each of his last 44 career games. He has scored double-figures in 37 of those contests.
- Only has one senior on the roster, walk-on forward Zach Turcotte. The Minutemen are the only team in the Atlantic 10 with one or fewer seniors.
- Forced the 20th-most turnovers in NCAA Division I through games on Nov. 30 with an average of 17.8 for each of the six opponents so far in 2016-17. It's also the second-best mark in the Atlantic 10.
- Hosts 18 games at home in the Mullins Center, a program record for the regular season. The slate is split evenly between non-conference and Atlantic 10 play.
- Junior guard Donte Clark was named to the Atlantic 10 Preseason All-Conference Team, one of only five non-seniors recognized on the yearly preseason accolades list.
- Head coach Derek Kellogg promoted Shyrone Chatman to associate head coach prior to the start of the year. Chatman's first season as associate head coach doubles as his sixth campaign on the coaching staff after he spent the previous five years as an assistant.
- Played UMass Lowell in the first game of the 2016-17 season between NCAA Division I teams thanks to the 4 p.m. matinee tipoff at the Mullins Center. Massachusetts won, 90-76.
- Head coach Derek Kellogg inked a recruiting class that ranks among the most highly touted nationally with Chris Baldwin, Tyrn Flowers, Brisen Gresham, DeJon Jarreau and Unique McLean. The quintet combined to give the Minutemen the top class in the A-10 according to 247Sports, ESPN and Rivals. The rankings do not reflect the addition of Luwane Pipkins (2015-16 academic non-qualifier) or Zach Lewis (transfer from Canisius College).
- The Minutemen moved into their new home during the Summer 2015, the John Francis Kennedy Champions Center for UMass Basketball. The 53,000 square foot dedicated facility features full practice courts, a strength and conditioning suite, state-of-the-art athletic training space, office and meeting areas for the coaches and team, a theatre-style film room, a UMass basketball hall of fame as well as additional spaces for team meals, equipment management and miscellaneous team-related resources.
- Guard trio of Donte Clark, Trey Davis and Jabarie Hinds provide 67.1 percent of the offense on average in 2015-16 with a combined 49.3 points per game for the Minutemen. At least one of the three recorded the most points by a Minuteman in 30 of the 32 games played by the team that season.

MINUTEMEN MARCHING TO NON-CONFERENCE VICTORIES

University of Massachusetts men's basketball enters the game against UCF with a 5-1 record, the fourth consecutive season the Minutemen opened the year with five victories in six games. It is the sixth time in head coach Derek Kellogg's nine seasons Massachusetts opened 5-1 or better.

GRESHAM CLEARED TO PLAY BY NCAA

University of Massachusetts men's basketball freshman Brisen Gresham has been ruled eligible to compete by the NCAA. Gresham is eligible to play immediately. He made his UMass debut on Wed., Nov. 30 with three minutes played against Wagner.

Gresham, who hails from New Orleans, La., is in his first year at the University of Massachusetts. The highly-touted 6-foot-9 forward and center ranked No. 7 in Louisiana, No. 29 at power forward and No. 54 in the Southeast Region according to ESPN recruiting services.

DONTE CAME TO PLAY

Junior guard Donte Clark scored 29 points against Harvard in the 70-66 win, one shy of tying his most in a single game in his career (30 vs. New Orleans [OT], Dec. 16, 2015). Clark scored 18 of the team's final 22 points in turning a 51-48 deficit with 8:18 to play to the final margin. In that span, Clark was 3-for-3 from the floor – all 3-point attempts – and 9-of-10 at the foul line.

LEWIS CRACKS STARTING LINEUP

With freshman guard DeJon Jarreau sidelined with an injury, redshirt junior guard Zach Lewis rotated into the lineup with a 10-point effort in the win over Harvard. Lewis shot 5-of-11 from the floor and had two assists without a turnover in 35 minutes on the floor against the Crimson.

PIP MOVES TO THE POINT

Freshman Luwane Pipkins moved to point guard with DeJon Jarreau out for 4-6 weeks due to a foot injury. Pipkins made his first start at point guard in the win over Harvard with eight points, four steals, two rebounds and a pair of assists.

HINES VARIETY NO. 14

Sophomore forward Malik Hines produced a single-game career high 14 points off of the bench versus Wagner on Nov. 30. It doubled his previous best of seven points, set one game earlier against Harvard. Hines finished 4-of-5 on field goals and 6-for-7 at the foul line. Eleven of his 14 points came in the second half.

Additionally, Hines set personal bests in rebounds (8), offensive rebounds (5), steals (2) and minutes played (27). He enters the game against UCF shooting 12-for-14 on field goals (85.7 percent) and 8-for-11 at the foul line (72.7 percent).

HINES CAN HIT THE HOOK

Sophomore forward Malik Hines is 12-of-14 from the floor (85.7 percent) over the opening six games of the season. Primarily employing a baby-hook shot when he works his way into the paint, Hines was 3-for-3 against UMass Lowell, 2-of-2 against Lowell, 3-for-4 versus Harvard and 4-of-5 against Wagner. He is also the team-leader in dunks with five, including three during the second half versus Wagner.

FAST-HANDED MINUTEMAN

Freshman guard Luwane Pipkins has the third-most steals per game (3.5) across NCAA Division I men's basketball and is tied for fifth in total steals (21) through games on Wed., Nov. 30. He had eight in the opener against UMass Lowell, four each at Ole Miss and against Harvard, three in the win over Wager and a pair versus Temple.

His eight against UMass Lowell also rank tied for the most in a single game in NCAA Division I this season and in the history of the UMass men's basketball program.

Led by Pipkins' 21, UMass is 12th in the nation for steals per game (9.7) as of contests on Wed., Nov. 30.

BENCH SETS THE MARK VS. WAGNER

Massachusetts men's basketball won a 62-55 game over Wagner thanks to 40 points from three members of its bench, highlighted by career highs from C.J. Anderson (19) and Malik Hines (14). Tyrn Flowers added scored seven to reach the 40-point mark.

The Maroon and White bench personnel outscored their opposing reserves in four of six games in 2016-17. The non-starting Minutemen own a 158-114 advantage in scoring through six games, good for a 26.3-to-19.0 per game advantage.

THE ACCURACY OF MR. ANDERSON

C.J. Anderson led the Minutemen in scoring for the second time in his career and set a personal best with 19 points on 8-of-11 shooting against Wagner. Anderson hit his first five shots, including a pair of 3-point field goals. He had 14 points at the conclusion of the first half – three more than his previous single-game best of 12 vs. Boston University on Dec. 2, 2015.

Anderson's overall season accuracy improves to 75.0 percent with the career night versus the Seahawks. He enters the game against UCF 12-of-16, including 3-for-5 on 3-pointers.

ANDERSON NAMED A NABC GOOD WORKS TEAM NOMINEE

C.J. Anderson was selected as a nominee for the 2017 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Good Works Team, as announced by the NABC on Wed., Nov. 30. Anderson is one of 181 men's basketball student-athletes from the NCAA Divisions I, II, III and NAIA levels chosen as a nominee.

The Allstate NABC and WBCA Good Works Teams recognize players at all levels of college basketball whose charitable involvement and altruistic acts stand out amongst all other student-athletes participating in the sport. From leading an initiative to help end the water crisis in Flint, Michigan, to co-founding a non-profit with the mission to improve literacy rates across the country, the players nominated embody the true spirit of teamwork and giving back.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

MAKING THE LAST PASS

Massachusetts men's basketball has assists on 98 of its 152 made field goals this season, equal to 64.5 percent. Opponents are only averaging an assist on 55.3 percent of their conversions (73-of-132).

BETTER PERFECT THE FINGER WAG

UMass men's basketball is averaging 4.0 blocks per game over the opening six contests, led by eight from Rashaan Holloway, four from Malik Hines and three by Chris Baldwin and Zach Lewis. On the other end of the court, foes have only turned aside nine UMass attempts combined (1.5 bpg).

Holloway has three games with two or more blocks (UMass Lowell [3], Temple [3] and Harvard [2]) for his team-leading eight blocks.

DEEKY THE DISTRIBUTOR

Freshman guard DeJon Jarreau - nicknamed "Deeky" - had 24 assists over the opening four games of the season. Due to missing the previous two games to injury, Jarreau no longer meets the minimum playing time requirement for the rankings in the A-10 or NCAA. His assists per game (6.0) would put Jarreau second across the Atlantic 10. He is the only freshman in the top-15. It would also rank him tied for 27th in the nation and fourth among freshmen.

Jarreau did not play favorites with who he dishes to and has distributed the ball to eight scorers for his 20 assists, including C.J. Anderson (1), Chris Baldwin (3), Donte Clark (6), Tyrn Flowers (3), Rashaan Holloway (3), Malik Hines (1), Zach Lewis (3) and Luwane Pipkins (4).

He accounted for 38.9 percent of the team's total assists on the season and has nine more than the next Minuteman (Luwane Pipkins; 15) through the opening four games, but is expected to be sidelined with an injury for the next 3-5 weeks.

THE CHICAGO BULLDOG

Chicago native and Bogan High School graduate Luwane Pipkins made his first collegiate game a memorable performance with eight steals against UMass Lowell, which tied Pipkins for the single-game program record in the category. Pipkins is tied with Alex Eldridge, who previously had eight apiece against Harvard (Nov. 30, 1977) and Maine (Feb. 11, 1978).

Pipkins did not play favorites with UMass Lowell and spread his eight swipes over five River Hawks: Rinardo Perry (3), Jahad Thomas (2), Stefan Borovac (1), Matt Harris (1) and Isaac White (1).

His eight steals against UMass Lowell rank tied for the most in NCAA Division I by a single player in 2016-17.

MINUTEMEN DEPLOY THE YOUNG GUNS

UMass men's basketball's 2016-17 roster features only one senior, walk-on Zach Turcotte. The remainder of the roster breaks down to five juniors, three sophomores and six freshmen. The Minutemen are the only team in the Atlantic 10 with a one-man senior class.

THE SHORT AND LONG OF THINGS

The shortest (Luwane Pipkins, 5-foot-11) and tallest (Rashaan Holloway, 6-foot-11) players on the roster combined for domination on both sides of the court to the tune of 35 points, nine steals, eight rebounds, three blocks and three assists in the 90-76 win over UMass Lowell.

Pipkins tied the UMass record for steals in a game with eight while he posted 14 points in his first collegiate game. Holloway reset his career high with 21 points and turned aside three shots.

20/20 COURT VISION

DeJon Jarreau dished out seven assists (six during the second half) in 22 minutes played during his first collegiate game. The freshman from New Orleans, La., split time between point guard and playing off-ball. Jarreau shared the ball with six different Minutemen in those seven assists: Tyrn Flowers (2), C.J. Anderson, Chris Baldwin, Donte Clark, Malik Hines and Luwane Pipkins.

He has at least four assists in all four of his games played. He did not play against Harvard or Wagner due to injury.

CLARK WORKING HIS WAY TO THAT COMMA

Despite only being six games into his junior season in 2016-17, Donte Clark already surpassed 900 career points. Clark currently has 921, an average of 13.2 per game played since the beginning of his freshman year (70 contests).

Clark expedited his process of getting to 1,000 points through his stellar sophomore season that included 16.1 points per game (515 over 32 games), a 41.0 field goal percentage and 139 free throws made in 185 taken (75.1 percent).

MAXING OUT OUR TIME IN THE MULLINS CENTER

UMass men's basketball's will play 18 regular season home games at the Mullins Center in 2016-17, a one-year record for the program. Massachusetts also played 18 games at the Mullins Center in 2010-11, which included one Atlantic 10 Tournament contest along with 17 regular season contests in the building.

KELLOGG RANKS AMONG WINNINGEST COACHES IN A-10 HISTORY

Head coach Derek Kellogg ranks among the winningest coaches in the history of the Atlantic 10 Conference with 145 victories at the helm of the UMass program. He stands 15th all-time among Atlantic 10 head coaches and is fifth among current leaders after Phil Martelli (407; Saint Joseph's), Chris Mooney (206; Richmond), John Giannini (187; La Salle) and Mark Schmidt (149; St. Bonaventure). Records reflect tenures through games on Wed., Nov. 30.

GIMME THAT!

University of Massachusetts took possession from UMass Lowell with 17 steals against the River Hawks. It marked the most since UMass also had 17 against Northeastern on Nov. 26, 2014. The River Hawks turned the ball over 28 times total during the game.

THE BEST POSSIBLE OPENING ACT OUTCOME

UMass defeated UMass Lowell, 90-76, in its 2016-17 season opener, which marked the seventh consecutive season the Minutemen began the year victorious. Head coach Derek Kellogg is 8-1 in season-openers over the last nine seasons.

FIRST!

The University of Massachusetts and UMass Lowell combined to play the first Division I game of the 2016-17 season with the 4 p.m. tipoff time at the Mullins Center on Fri., Nov. 11. The Minutemen won, 90-76, led by Rashaan Holloway's 21 points.

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

Five Minutemen made their team debuts during the 90-76 win over UMass Lowell, including Chris Baldwin, Tyrn Flowers, DeJon Jarreau, Zach Lewis and Luwane Pipkins. The quintet combined for 43 points, 17 rebounds, 12 steals and 11 assists.

THE FIRST FLUSH

Malik Hines recorded the first dunk of the 2016-17 during the season half of the 90-76 win over UMass Lowell. Hines hammered down on a pass from DeJon Jarreau with 14:26 to go in the game. The bucket increased the UMass lead to 65-43.

Hines has a team-high five dunks through six games. Rashaan Holloway follows with three, redshirt junior forward Seth Berger and junior guard Donte Clark have two apiece and C.J. Anderson added his first slam of the year versus Wagner. The frontcourt trio of Berger, Hines and Holloway owned all seven dunks through five games before Anderson and Clark provided their first of the year against the Seahawks.

CLARK CHOSEN TO ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON THIRD TEAM

University of Massachusetts junior guard Donte Clark picked up an Atlantic 10 Preseason All-Conference Third Team honor, as announced by the league. Clark averaged 16.1 points per game as a sophomore with 3.8 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game.

Clark is one of only five non-seniors chosen to the Atlantic 10 Preseason Awards listing. He had 14 points and nine rebounds in the season-opener against UMass Lowell.

CHATMAN PROMOTED TO ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

University of Massachusetts men's basketball head coach Derek Kellogg announced ninth-year staff member Shyrene Chatman's elevation to associate head coach on Sept. 8. Chatman's first season as associate head coach doubles as his sixth campaign on the coaching staff after he spent the previous five years as an assistant.

Since moving to the role of assistant coach with recruiting and on-court responsibilities five seasons ago, UMass has produced 101 victories, posted three 20-win seasons and, in 2014, made the school's ninth all-time NCAA Tournament trip and first since the 1997-98 campaign. With Chatman's help, the Minutemen also made a pair of NIT appearances, including an NIT Final Four showing in 2012, and reached the Atlantic 10 Tournament semifinals on two occasions.

Before his promotion to assistant coach, Chatman served as the director of player personnel in his first three seasons with the University of Massachusetts men's basketball program. He joined UMass after two seasons on-staff at his alma mater, the University of Memphis.

NEW NUMBER, WHO DIS?

Four returning Minutemen changed their numbers prior to the season. Seth Berger dropped 24 in favor of 33, Zach Coleman switched from 13 to 14, Rayshawn Miller moved off of 35 to 11 and Zach Turcotte changed from 55 to 34. In addition to the returnees with new numbers, the rookies will be playing for the first time in No. 2 (Luwane Pipkins), No. 3 (DeJon Jarreau), No. 4 (Unique McLean), No. 5 (Chris Baldwin), No. 24 (Tyrn Flowers) and No. 55 (Brisson Gresham).

Zach Lewis, a redshirt junior transfer in his first season of competition at UMass, wears No. 1.

MINUTEMEN IN THE COMMUNITY

Head coach Derek Kellogg keeps the Minutemen involved in the local and regional community through a multitude of civic responsibilities.

All members of the men's basketball team joined in the Pi Kappa Phi 2016 Ability Experience fundraiser, which included a 36-hour bike-a-thon to help raise awareness and donations for those who live with disabilities. During their time spent at the fundraiser, the Minutemen participated in the bike-a-thon and handed out flyers to students passing by the on-campus fundraiser.

Kellogg and the Minutemen also participate in the JDRC One Walk at Six Flags New England each fall in support of the fight against childhood diabetes. UMass men's basketball also visits Crocker Farms Elementary School to read to its students and participate in the annual Walk To School Day.

MINUTEMEN IN PRIMETIME

CLARK STEADY AS THEY COME

Donte Clark produced 16.1 points per game over the 18-game league season in 2015-16, a continuation of his success from 2015-16 non-conference play. Clark scored double-figures in 15 of those games and finished 15th in the A-10 for scoring during the entire season and in league-only play.

He has at least eight points scored in each of his last 44 games played. For his 70-game career, Clark owns 36 games scoring in double-digits, including 13 with 20+ points.

UMASS IN THE MULLINS CENTER

Since the beginning of the 2011-12 season, the Minutemen are 59-19 overall (.756) and 27-15 in Atlantic 10 contests (.643) in the Mullins Center.

UMass completed its 23rd season playing at the Mullins Center in the Spring 2016 and holds an all-time record of 227-94 (.707) at the facility. The Minutemen also own a 122-63 (.659) historical mark in regular season Atlantic 10 Conference games at the Mullins Center, and a 4-2 ledger in Atlantic 10 Tournament contests. The first game was played on Feb. 4, 1993, when UMass bested West Virginia, 64-59 in overtime.

HIGHLY-TOUTED QUINTET FILLS OUT LATEST RECRUITING CLASS

Head coach Derek Kellogg brought five new members to the program on during the 2015-16 signing periods as Chris Baldwin, Tyrn Flowers, DeJon Jarreau, Brisen Gresham and Unique McLean signed their National Letters of Intent to compete for the Maroon and White beginning in 2016-17. The quintet combined to earn a national ranking across the three major recruiting services: 247Sports, ESPN and Rivals. In addition to the praise heaped on the individual student-athletes, Kellogg's signees represent the top ranked class across all Atlantic 10 programs.

Baldwin, the No. 2 ranked player in Massachusetts and a four-star recruit via ESPN, hails from Springfield where he attended Notre Dame Prep.

Flowers, a unanimous three-star selection, held the No. 4 spot for the State of Connecticut according to ESPN and 247Sports. He won three consecutive state championships with Sacred Heart High School as a sophomore, junior and senior.

Gresham, who was a teammate with Jarreau at McDonogh 35 High School in New Orleans before he joined Baldwin at Notre Dame Prep, ranked No. 7 among players from the state of Louisiana according to 247Sports with an overall grade of 92.

ESPN also touts the abilities of Jarreau, who is a four-star player tabbed No. 61 overall in their top-100 listing with more than 20 offers from NCAA Division I programs across the country.

McLean, who played locally at the MacDuffie School in Granby, chose the Minutemen over Rutgers and a trio of other Atlantic 10 institutions in Dayton, Fordham and Rhode Island.

Luwane Pipkins joins the class after he was a non-qualifier as a freshman in 2015-16. The 2014 signee is a four-star recruit according to ESPN and listed as a three-star player with a grade of 88 by 247Sports. Pipkins was also the No. 7 recruit in the state of Illinois via ESPN, No. 22 at point guard nationally and No. 23 in his region while he was slated as the No. 9 recruit in the state and 41st at the point guard position by 247Sports.

UMASS UNVEILS JOHN FRANCIS KENNEDY CHAMPIONS CENTER

The University of Massachusetts men's and women's basketball program moved into their first dedicated team facility during the Summer 2015 with the introduction of the John Francis Kennedy Champions Center for UMass Basketball. The 53,000-square foot building offers a state-of-the-art facility for the Minutemen and Minutewomen that will benefit generations of basketball student-athletes to come.

The structure is named in honor of longtime athletics support John Francis Kennedy, who donated the lead gift of $11 million toward the project. The 53,000-square foot facility houses the daily operations for the UMass men's and women's basketball programs. The $22-million facility features dedicated practice courts for each team, office space for the coaching staffs, locker rooms and areas for strength and conditioning along with athletic training services. It also contains Legacy Hall, which will display the rich history of UMass basketball along the building's Eastern corridor.

BETTER LATE TO THE BLOCK PARTY THAN TO NEVER SHOW UP

Freshman center Rashaan Holloway finished his freshman year with 13 blocks in the last 13 games after he had five during the opening 19 contests. Cady Lalanne was the last UMass freshman center with at least 10 blocks in his inaugural season when the recent NBA draft pick had 21 in 2011-12. Holloway ranked tied for second on the team in blocks (Antwan Space) and had the most among underclassmen.

Holloway ranks first among Minutemen in 2016-17 with eight blocks (1.3 per game). It puts him tied for seventh in the conference in blocks per game.

SHOOTING THEIR WAY TO VICTORIES

When the Minutemen outshot their opponents, UMass sported 12 wins in 16 chances during 2015-16. However, when the opposition holds a higher conversion rate, Massachusetts went 2-14 on the year. The Maroon and White continued this trend into 2016-17 as they are 4-0 this season when shooting better than their foes.

PLAYING CLEAN LED TO WINS

UMass only turned the ball over six times during the 69-63 win at Harvard on Nov. 17, 2015, its fewest giveaways since the squad had five in an 80-62 win over Saint Joseph's on Feb. 9, 2013. It was a span of 77 contests between the two outings. Over the previous five seasons, the Minutemen have committed less than 10 turnovers on 12 occasions and are 8-4 in those contests.

WINS WITH ROOM TO SPARE

The Maroon and White routed Central Arkansas by 27 points, 89-62 on Thursday, Nov. 19. The margin of victory marks the largest for the Minutemen since a 38-point win over Fordham, 90-52 on Jan. 26, 2014. It was the fourth win by 25 or more points dating back to the 2013-14 campaign and 10th under head coach Derek Kellogg.

UMass men's basketball blasted Boston University, 99-69 on Dec. 2, 2015, the first time UMass posted a 30-point margin in victory since the +38 win over Fordham. It marks the fifth victory by 30 or more points under head coach Derek Kellogg.

Scouting Report (ESPN): Combo-guard who can play either guard position, although he is more scorer than facilitator ... Wiry frame with long arms and he's a solid athlete ... Excels in the open court where he slashes his way to the rim and he has the dexterity and skill to finish in traffic ... In the half court set he can run high-screen-and-roll and his vision is excellent ... Can knock in the 3-point shot, but he shoots a set shot and overall it needs to get more consistent.

Scouting Report (ESPN): Absolutely explosive athlete who can take off and play above the rim like few others in the country, especially for his size ... Is a highlight reel waiting to happen in the open floor and capable of making the type of momentum changing plays that ignite a home crowd or quiet the gym on the road ... As quick off his feet as he is high and able to manipulate his body in mid-air with terrific body control ... Upside as a driver and potentially defender, if he can learn to maximize his athletic tools on that end of the floor.

GAME 1: UMASS 90, UMASS LOWELL 76

FRI., NOV. 11, 2016 // MULLINS CENTER; AMHERST, MASS.

Rashaan Holloway led both sides with 21 points and Luwane Pipkins added 14 points with a program record-tying eight steals as the University of Massachusetts downed UMass Lowell, 90-76 in the season-opener for both teams. Ahead by just one point following a Matt Harris 3-pointer with six minutes, 22 second to go in the opening stanza, the Minutemen worked the ball into Holloway in the paint and hit their free throws as the slim advantage ballooned to 13 less than five minutes later. Ahead by 11 at the break, 48-37, the Minutemen continued their domination of the paint in the second half, an area of the court Massachusetts outscore UMass Lowell by 20 points (44-24), and went up by as much as 26 points.

GAME 2: OLE MISS 90, UMASS 88

MON., NOV. 14, 2016 // THE PAVILION AT OLE MISS; OXFORD, MISS.

The Minutemen led by nine with less than four minutes to play but a furious Ole Miss rally - capped by Sebastian Siaz's tip-in with 3.3 seconds left - gave the Rebels a 90-88 home victory over Massachusetts. With the game knotted at 88-all, Burnett missed a driving layup but Siaz collected the loose ball at the cylinder and deposited it through the hoop with 3.3 seconds to play. It cemented a series for Ole Miss where the Rebels hit three of their final four field goals and made 5-of-6 at the foul line to complete the comeback. DeJon Jarreau's 25 points, eight rebounds and six assists led the Minutemen while Saiz finished with a double-double on 22 points and 19 boards.

GAME 3: UMASS 70, TEMPLE 67

THURS., NOV. 17, 2016 // MULLINS CENTER; AMHERST, MASS.

DeJon Jarreau scored five points over the final 34 seconds as Massachusetts squeaked out a 70-67 victory over former Atlantic 10 arch-rival Temple. Jarreau put UMass in front for good with 34 seconds to go when he drained a right side 3-pointer for a 68-67 margin. Following a defensive stop, Luwane Pipkins hit Jarreau in transition with a half-court heave pass and Jarreau converted at the rim for the eventual winning margin. The game featured 17 lead changes and nine tie scores as neither side grew an advantage larger than three points over the final 17 minutes of the contest. It marked the first meeting between the teams since Temple departed the A-10 following the 2012-13 season.

GAME 5: UMASS 70, HARVARD 66

SAT., NOV. 26, 2016 // MULLINS CENTER; AMHERST, MASS.

Donte Clark poured in 22 of his 29 points during the second half and sparked Massachusetts to a 70-66 victory over Harvard. Clark, who put in 18 of the final 22 Minuteman points, only missed one free throw on the night, and it proved paramount in the victory as Clark was able to collect the loose ball with 11 seconds left and the Minutemen ahead, 66-64. He was immediately fouled by Harvard, stepped to the line again and sank both for the decisive four-point lead. Zach Lewis joined Clark in double-figures with 10 points during his first start as a Minuteman. Lewis was 5-of-11 shooting with two rebounds and a pair of assists while he did not turn the ball over in 35 minutes on the floor.

GAME 6: UMASS 62, WAGNER 55

WED., NOV. 30, 2016 // MULLINS CENTER; AMHERST, MASS.

UMass relied on the steady shooting of C.J. Anderson and Malik Hines for a 62-55 victory over Wager. The Minuteman duo finished 12-for-16 from the floor for a combined 33 points as UMass improved to 5-1 with victories in the last four games. Tied at 47-all with nine minutes, 21 seconds to go, Donte Clark put UMass up for good when he slashed to the basket for two of his 11 points on the night. The Minutemen kept hold of a slim lead over the next four minutes before Anderson, Hines and Clark combined for a 12-4 run that pushed the advantage to 61-52 with 1:55 left. Anderson started the game-clinching streak with a layup and added a corner 3-pointer two possessions later that pushed the advantage to 55-50 with 4:44 to go.

HEAD COACH DEREK KELLOGG

MASSACHUSETTS '95 // NINTH SEASON AS HEAD COACH OVERALL AND AT MASSACHUSETTS

Entering his ninth season at the helm of his alma mater, UMass men's basketball head coach Derek Kellogg has guided the Minutemen back to prominence with national postseason appearances in the NCAA Tournament and NIT, culminating in 140 head coach victories for the 1995 UMass graduate entering 2016-17.

Kellogg, already the third-winningest coach in the 100-plus year history of UMass basketball, moved the Minutemen down the block to the program's new home, the John Francis Kennedy

Champions Center for UMass Basketball ahead of the 2015-16 season. The 53,000-square foot basketball-centric facility offers one of the top homes in college basketball with dedicated practice courts, full athletic training and strength and conditioning suites, a cinema-style film room and additional space for team meetings and meals, coach and administrative offices and a connecting tunnel to the Mullins Center.

With the help of assistant coaches Andy Allison, Shyrone Chatman and Adam Ginsburg, Kellogg guided Massachusetts averaged 20 wins per season over the last five campaigns. The successful stretch includes the 24-win season in 2013-14 when Kellogg led the Minutemen back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 15 years and an NIT Final Four berth during 2011-12.

Kellogg's noted success as a recruiter, combined with the state-of-the-art, dedicated home for basketball at UMass, helped the eighth-year leader land a top-25 class ahead of the 2016-17 school year. The group, comprised of Chris Baldwin, Tyrn Flowers, Brison Gresham, DeJon Jarreau and Unique McLean, ranked among the top 25 nationally and provide the Minutemen the most vaunted incoming class in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

In addition to infusing energy on the sidelines and court, Kellogg-led UMass teams have re-dedicated themselves to the local and regional community that cheers on the Minutemen. Kellogg serves as the Honorary Co-Chairman of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation for the Northern Connecticut/Western Massachusetts chapter, while participating with the entire team in the JDRF Walk to Cure Diabetes. He has also lent his time to the Clarke Schools for Hearing and Speech and Baystate Children's Hospital of Springfield/Children's Miracle Network.

The 2015-16 season marked a year of transition for the Minutemen as the squad adjusted to its new home in the Champions Center. The guard trio of Donte Clark, Trey Davis and Jabarie Hinds buoyed Massachusetts as it reached the Atlantic 10 Championship Quarterfinals via the combined strength of nearly 50 points per game from the three. Davis collected USBWA All-Region following the season while Hinds earned Atlantic 10 Co-Sixth Man of the Year.

Massachusetts picked up its fourth consecutive winning season in 2014-15, spearheaded by Kellogg and a pair of then-seniors and current professional basketball players, Maxie Esho and Cady Lalanne. Esho, who recently signed an NBA D-League contract, and Lalanne, the 55th pick of the 2015 NBA Draft (San Antonio Spurs), assisted Kellogg in winning 17 games and finishing tied for sixth in the talent-rich Atlantic 10.

In 2013-14, Kellogg's dedication to his alma mater brought the program back to the national spotlight. UMass opened the year with 10-consecutive victories and collected the Charleston Classic Championship as it rose to a top-20 ranking - its first time in the polls since early in the 1998-99 campaign. The squad eventually was slotted as high as No. 12 in the coaches poll and No. 13 in the Associated Press ledger and spent 10 weeks and played 15 games as a ranked team.

The year secured UMass a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Tournament after the program had not achieved that benchmark since 1998. Senior Chaz Williams capped his Minuteman career with his third consecutive appearance on first team all-district and all-conference listings.

UMass also continued its rise at the gate as the team averaged 6,600 fans, putting season attendance numbers at a 100 percent increase over the previous three years. The Minutemen sold-out six games at the Mullins Center and, by year's end, UMass' home attendance had increased by 1,345 fans from 2012-13 to 2013-14, ranking 10th nationally.

The 2013-14 campaign marked the second-consecutive year the Minutemen appeared in the top-30 for the largest increase from the previous year. The 6,600 home attendance average was the highest since the 1998-99 campaign, while the single-season increase was the largest since moving into the Mullins Center midway through the 1992-93 year. It was also the eighth-highest average in school history.

The Minutemen posted 21 victories during 2012-13, including their second NIT appearance in as many seasons. Williams picked up his second consecutive first team all-conference and NABC all-district laurels and became the first player to go back-to-back in both categories since Rashaun Freeman (2005-07).

During 2011-12, Kellogg's tutelage led Massachusetts to a 25-11 overall record and advanced to the semifinals of the Atlantic 10 Championship and the NIT. Kellogg's energy as a coach, mimicked by the squad on the court, earned UMass a tied for fifth in the A-10 after the squad was picked 12th in the preseason poll. Kellogg also installed his up-tempo offense to go along with a pressure defense that resulted in a the team breaking the school record for steals, while ranking in the top five nationally in possessions per game.

Leading the way during 2011-12 was Williams, who tallied first team all-Atlantic 10 and NABC all-district after averaging 16.9 points, 6.2 assists and 4.4 rebounds per game. Williams set UMass sophomore records for assists (231) and steals (81). The friendly confines of the Mullins Center and its home crowd helped the team earn a 15-1 mark during games played in Amherst. The Minutemen played before four crowds of more than 6,200 in the final six games, including a season-high 8,399 in the victory over Saint Louis.

In 2010-11, Kellogg guided UMass to its best start since the 1995-96 Final Four campaign as the Minutemen opened the year with a 7-0 mark. UMass also posted its first seven-game win streak since 1998 and have since eclipsed that figure when it won 10 straight at the start of 2013-14.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS MEN'S BASKETBALL COACHING STAFF

Kellogg capped his second season with an Atlantic 10 Tournament appearance and first round victory, the first in eight years, as UMass knocked off No. 6 seed Charlotte, 59-56.

In his first year as the head coach at UMass, Kellogg led the Minutemen to one of their most thrilling wins in recent memory, an epic win over defending NCAA Champion Kansas before a nationally-televised audience on ESPN.

Kellogg's first full recruiting class at UMass was named one of the nation's top groups and the consensus best class in the A-10. Kellogg guided Putney, Riley and Vinson to 1,000-point careers at UMass while members of the quintet helped Kellogg win 97 games from 2009-14 and secure three national postseason appearances.

Kellogg was named the 21st head coach in University of Massachusetts men's basketball history on April 23, 2008. He returned to his alma mater for his first head coaching opportunity after he served as an assistant coach for 12 years, the last eight at the University of Memphis under former UMass head coach and Naismith Hall of Fame inductee John Calipari. The energetic and hard-working Kellogg is largely credited for recruiting many of the student-athletes who helped Memphis reach the 2008 NCAA Championship Game and record eight consecutive 20-win seasons with as many consecutive postseason berths, and Kellogg has continued his strong recruiting efforts at UMass.

Kellogg spent eight years on the Memphis staff alongside Calipari where he brought his "coach on the floor" mentality at UMass to the sidelines, and it produced results for the Tigers. In Kellogg's eight seasons in Memphis, he helped the Tigers to eight-straight 20-win seasons and eight consecutive postseason berths (NCAA: 2003, '04, '06, '07, '08; NIT: 2001, '02, '05). It marked the first time the Memphis basketball program reached eight consecutive national postseasons, breaking the previous mark of six-in-a-row from 1988-93.

In 2007-08, Kellogg was an integral part of another magical Tiger campaign, which continued through to the 2008 NCAA Tournament Championship Game. The NCAA Final Four appearance was the Tigers' first since 1985 and the NCAA title contest was the program's first since 1973. Memphis set an NCAA single-season record for victories with 38 wins (38-2 mark) and held down the No. 1 spot in both national polls for five-straight weeks during the season. The Tigers finished 2007-08 ranked No. 2 in the nation, the highest final ranking in school history. Memphis also won a school-record 26-straight games and swept the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles for a third-consecutive season.

The Tigers won 30 games for a third-straight year in 2007-08, becoming the second school in NCAA Division I history to accomplish the feat. Kentucky was the first to do so from 1947-49 and 1996-98. UCLA joined the elite group later in 2007-08. From 2005-06 to 2007-08, Memphis won 104 games (104-10 record) and tied the 1996-98 Kentucky squads for the most victories in a three-year period in NCAA Division I history.

In 2006-07, Kellogg helped lead Memphis to another record-setting campaign. The Tigers won 33 games for a second-straight season (33-4 record) and captured their second-consecutive Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. The back-to-back outright regular season crowns were a first for the Memphis program, and the consecutive tournament championships were the Tigers first since they won two-straight Metro Conference Tournaments in 1984 and 1985. Memphis advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight for a second-straight year (2006, 2007), marking the first time in school history that happened.

The 2006-07 Tigers also pulled a first in Conference USA history. Memphis posted a perfect 16-0 regular season mark and captured the league's postseason tournament. The Tigers were the second squad in C-USA history to go 16-0 in the regular season as Cincinnati did so in 1999-2000. That Bearcat team, though, did not win the Conference USA Tournament title. The Tigers received a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and finished in the top 10 in both national polls (No. 5/AP; No. 7/ESPN-USA Today).

Kellogg also played an integral role in the Tigers' 2005-06 remarkable season. Memphis posted a 33-4 record and won the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. The conference regular season crown was the Tigers' second in three years. The 2005-06 Memphis squad earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time since 1992. The Tigers finished the season ranked in the top 10 of both national polls (No. 4/AP; No. 6/ESPN-USA Today). Those final rankings were the highest in Memphis basketball history at the time.

From when Kellogg joined the Memphis staff in 2000-01, the Tigers won the 2002 National Invitation Tournament Championship, claimed a share of the 2004 Conference USA regular season crown and took home the 2002 and 2003 C-USA National Division titles. The Tigers posted 219 overall victories (27.3 wins per year) and 101 conference wins (12.6 league victories per year) in his eight seasons. The eight years prior to that span, the Tigers only had 140 total wins and 66 conference victories.

In addition to the 2006-08 final national rankings, the Tigers also finished the 2003 (No. 19) and 2004 (No. 24) seasons ranked in the final Associated Press poll. Prior to the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons, the last time Memphis was ranked in the final polls in consecutive years was the 1984-85 and 1985-86 campaigns.

Kellogg was an off-campus recruiter for the Tigers and also assisted in scouting opponents. His hard work -- especially on the recruiting trail -- gained him national recognition. In the summer of 2007, Rivals.com listed Kellogg (No. 7 spot) as one of the nation's 10 assistants "ready to move up." A year earlier in 2006, the same web site named Kellogg as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters, and HoopScoop magazine tabbed him as one of the nation's top assistant coaches.

Prior to joining Calipari's staff, Kellogg spent one season at Youngstown State. In his lone year at Youngstown State, Kellogg was a member of a coaching staff led by former UMass assistant John Robic that rallied a community around Penguin basketball. Youngstown State finished fourth in the Mid-Continent Conference regular season standings, despite the absence of leading scorer Elmer Brown for the final seven games of the regular season. Youngstown State signed a freshman class that included three top-100 recruits during Kellogg's tenure.

Kellogg joined the Youngstown State staff after two seasons at George Mason University in Fairfax, Va., where he worked for Jim Larranaga. The Patriots posted a 19-11 record during the 1998-99 season, captured the Colonial Athletic Association regular season and tournament championships and earned an automatic bid to the 1999 NCAA Tournament.

As a four-year letterwinner at Massachusetts from 1992-95, Kellogg played on four Atlantic 10 Conference regular season and tournament championship teams. The Minutemen were just the second team in NCAA history to win four-straight outright season and tournament championships.

During his four-year career at UMass under Calipari, the Minutemen were 111-24, including 51-11 in the Atlantic 10, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year, including the Elite Eight in 1995. Kellogg was named the team's captain as a junior and senior, earned Atlantic 10 All-Conference in 1995 and picked up three Atlantic 10 All-Academic honors. Kellogg ranks fifth in assists (453) and seventh in three-pointers (138) as well as seventh in three-point percentage (38.1) all-time at UMass.

Kellogg played his high school basketball at Springfield Cathedral where he was a two-time Massachusetts All-State player and McDonald's All-America Honorable Mention.

Following graduation from UMass, Kellogg pursued professional basketball before he began his coaching career at his alma mater. He was a graduate assistant and part-time radio broadcaster at UMass for the 1996-97 season after he played a season with the Connecticut Skyhawks in the United States Basketball League in 1995.

Kellogg, 42, is a 1995 graduate of the University of Massachusetts with a degree in real estate and finance. In May 2005, he married Nicole Flory, who graduated from UMass in 1997. The couple has one son, Max, while Kellogg's parents, George and Ruth, still reside locally in Belchertown, Mass.
