UMASS ON THE RADIO

- All UMass football games can be heard live on the UMass Sports Network, with WEEI 105.5 FM (Springfield/Western Massachusetts) serving as the flagship station. Josh Maurer is in his ninth season as the play-by-play announcer. He is joined by veteran color commentator Matt Goldstein, now in his 14th season calling games at UMass. Mike Antonellis will continue his role as sideline reporter while Adam Frenier serves as the in-studio host.

Here is the list of this year's affiliates on the UMass Sports Network:

- WEEI FM 105.5 FM (Springfield/Western Mass.)
- WCRN 830 AM (Worcester)
- WXKS 1200 AM (Boston)
- WATD 95.9 FM (Marshfield/Boston)
- All games will be streamed with live audio on UMassAthletics.com and via the Tune-In app for mobile devices and tablets.

MEDIA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

MEDIA INFORMATION

- Molly O'Mara of the UMass Athletic Communications Office will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Massachusetts football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services.
- Any questions about media policies should be directed to O'Mara at momara@umass.edu or (413) 406-6434.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

- Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Mark Whipple.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALING

- Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover University of Massachusetts Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

MEDIA USAGE

- Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at University of Massachusetts Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. These guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

FACILITIES ACCESS FOR MEDIA

- The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

EIGHTH YEAR AT UMASS 18TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH BROWN UNIVERSITY, 1979

Mark Whipple, the architect of one of the University of Massachusetts football program's most successful eras, was named the team's head coach on Jan. 14, 2014 for his second stint in Amherst. He was previously at the helm of the Minuteman program from 1998-2003 when he led the Minutemen to the NCAA I-AA National Championship in his first season while making two additional postseason appearances in the following five years.

Whipple is the second head coach of the program during the Football Bowl Subdivision at UMass. He is the fourth of the Minutemen's 29 all-time coaches to serve multiple tenures.

A 30-year coaching veteran of the collegiate and professional levels, Whipple is widely regarded for his prowess as an offensive coordinator and his ability to develop quarterbacks. He helped Ben Roethlisberger of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers win a Super Bowl in his second year, built the University of Miami's 2009 and 2010 offenses into two of its best all-time and his teams set 40 offensive records while at UMass.

"Sometimes, you need to go away to find out where your home is and I have found it," said Whipple during his introductory press conference. "I can make a bigger impact than I have ever made in my life with people young, old and in between at the University of Massachusetts and that's what I am really excited about. I believe in this place and it hit me after the interview when I drove around campus and then got out and walked. This is a special place and I will represent this University better than I ever have. I am trying to do it better than anyone ever has. People ask me, 'Why would you leave the NFL?' They haven't been to UMass. They haven't been to the University of Massachusetts."

Whipple brings more than 15 years of experience as a head coach with a 127-77 overall record, including a 55-44 mark at UMass. His coaching resume includes a National Coach of the Year award (1998), a Brown Athletic Hall of Fame induction (1996), an NFL Super Bowl Championship (2006) and a pair of collegiate bowl game appearances (2009, 2010).

"We are thrilled to welcome back one of the greatest coaches in the 135-year history of UMass football," said UMass Amherst Chancellor Kumble R. Subbaswamy. "Coach Whipple is committed to fostering a positive environment in which our student-athletes will thrive both athletically and academically. His passion for the flagship campus and his drive for excellence have already earned the support of alumni, faculty, students and fans. I am confident that, under Coach Whipple's leadership, Minuteman football will continue to improve and will excel at the FBS level."

Whipple last coached with the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12 where he served as quarterbacks coach. He worked with second-year quarterback Colt McCoy (2011) and rookie Brandon Weeden (2012) within the Browns' West Coast offensive scheme.

His most recent collegiate stop was at the University of Miami as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009-10 seasons. During his time in Coral Gables, he guided the explosive Hurricane offense during two of their best statistical seasons in program history. Both years featured total yardage in excess of 5,000 yards with 2010's total of 5,483 standing as the third-most in program history.

In 2009, Whipple led Miami to its best offensive season since the national-title contending 2002 team. The Hurricanes put up 5,199 yards of offense becoming just the eighth team in school history to eclipse the 5,000-yard mark in total yards gained. Under Whipple's tutelage, quarterback Jacory Harris totaled the second-most pass completions (249), fourth-most passing yards (3,352) and sixth-most touchdowns (24) in a single season at Miami.

The 2010 Miami squad posted the fourth-best total rushing yardage in program history with 2,372 on the ground. Damien Berry led a stable of tailbacks with 899 yards and five touchdowns. The group overall averaged 182.5 yards on the ground per game with an average of 4.8 per carry.

Whipple spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, helping the team to an appearance in the NFC Championship game. Before joining the Eagles, he served as the quarterbacks coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-06 where he was instrumental in the development of Roethlisberger, who became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl as a rookie. In 2004, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback to finish a season undefeated with a 13-0 record in games he started.

Prior to his move to the NFL, Whipple spent 16 years as a collegiate head coach. In addition to his time at UMass, Whipple also led the Brown and New Haven programs.

At every stop in his college coaching career, the trademark of a Whipple team was a high-powered offense. His UMass teams rewrote the program's record book, setting more than 40 team records. In 1998, his national championship team posted school records in points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

While at UMass, he posted a 49-26 (.653) record in six years (1998-2003), leading the Minutemen to a Division I-AA National Championship in his first season with the team in 1998. He also won three Atlantic 10 Conference Championships. He was named the American Football Coaches Association's GTE Division I-AA National Coach of the Year, while also receiving National Coach of the Year honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette and finished runner-up for the Eddie Robinson Award, presented by The Sports Network.

In addition, Whipple was named the Scotty Whitelaw Division I-AA Coach of the Year by the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Association, and earned AFCA/GTE Region I Coach of the Year honors. In 2003, he earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors. He was selected as the New England Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in both 1998 and 2003. He posted five winning seasons in only six years as head coach with 17 different players earning All-America honors.

Taking over a program which finished 2-9 in 1997 and having had won just 19 games in the previous four seasons before his arrival, Whipple brought unparalleled success to the Minutemen under his leadership. Consider that in Whipple's six seasons on the sideline, UMass football captured a national title, won three conference championships, made consecutive NCAA I-AA playoff appearances for the first time ever and had three NCAA berths overall.

Introduced as the 26th coach in UMass history by then-athletic director Bob Marcum on Dec. 16, 1997, Whipple-coached teams posted a .500-or-better record 14 times. No UMass football coach reached the 20-win plateau faster than Whipple, who also owns five of the school's 11 all-time postseason victories.

In Whipple's rookie season at UMass, the Minutemen won a then school-record 12 games (broken by the 2006 NCAA national runner-up team) en route to the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA championship. UMass posted a record six victories over ranked opponents in 1998, including a 55-43 triumph over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern in the NCAA Championship game.

The Minutemen followed up Whipple's first campaign with another outstanding season in 1999. Armed with a lofty preseason ranking, UMass rebounded from a 1-3 start to post a 9-4 record and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. Along the way, UMass tied the all-time school record for consecutive victories with eight, and also claimed a share of the 18th Atlantic 10 title in school history.

In 2000, UMass struggled with injuries to key players throughout the season, but was still able to post an overall record of 7-4, with three of the losses coming against teams which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs. It marked the first time UMass had strung together three-straight winning seasons since a five-year run from 1977-1981. In addition, the Minutemen finished in third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 5-3 league mark, and handed Whipple his 100th career win with UMass' 29-21 season-ending victory at Rhode Island.

A young and inexperienced team was hit hard by injuries in 2001, finishing 3-8, but Whipple's 2002 Minutemen rebounded to post an overall record of 8-4. UMass tied for third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 6-3 mark in conference games, while downing two teams ranked in the top five in the nation (No. 2 Maine and No. 4 Villanova).

Whipple came to UMass following a four-year stint at his alma mater, Brown University. During his four years with the Bears (1994-97), Whipple compiled a 24-16 (.600) overall record without a losing season. His teams won more games in four years than the previous eight seasons at Brown combined.

Whipple led Brown to a 7-3 mark and a second-place finish in the Ivy League in his first season in 1994, posting the school's best record and first winning season since 1987. His squad capped the year with four consecutive victories, marking the first time since 1980 that Brown had accomplished that feat.

HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

In 1995, the Brown offense set several single season school records, including most points (282), total offense (4,165 yards), passing offense (2,502 yards) and first downs (227). His 1996 team came within a play of the Ivy League title. Battling Dartmouth to the final minute of the game in the ninth week of the season, the Bears fell to the undefeated Big Green by three points. For the second straight year, Whipple's passing offense set a new school mark with 2,628 yards.

In 1997, his squad set Ivy League and school records for total offense (474.3 yards per game) and Brown records for single season first downs (233), passing yards (317.9 yards per game) and single game total offense (629 yards vs. Yale).

Before his tenure at Brown, Whipple spent six years at the University of New Haven (1988-93), where he posted an impressive 48-17 (.738) overall record as head coach and offensive coordinator, including two straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1992 and 1993. The Chargers were ranked in the top 20 nationally in five of his six seasons at New Haven.

In 1992, he led the Chargers to a 12-1 mark, advancing to the NCAA semifinals and finishing with a No. 5 ranking nationally. The squad led all NCAA divisions in scoring offense (50.5 points per game) and total offense (587.7 yards per game).

Whipple guided the 1993 squad to a second-straight undefeated regular season (10-0) and a No. 2 national ranking, before falling in the NCAA quarterfinals. That team was named Sports Illustrated's "Best Offense in College Football", averaging 52.5 points and 557.6 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to his stint at New Haven, Whipple served as the offensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire for two years. He was also a member of the coaching staff for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers under George Allen, assisting with the quarterbacks. Whipple was an assistant coach at Brown for one season (1983), working with the wide receivers. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University (1980), before serving as the offensive coordinator at Union College for two years (1981-82).

A 1979 graduate of Brown University with a bachelor's degree in political science, Whipple was the starting quarterback for the Bears in 1977 and 1978 leading Brown to a 13-5 record and a pair of second-place Ivy League finishes. He was a member of the Bears' 1976 Ivy League Championship team, the first Ivy title in school history. During his three-year varsity career, he completed 175 of 340 passes for 2,365 yards and 13 touchdowns, while running for 518 yards and 10 touchdowns. A two-time honorable mention All-Ivy pick in football, Whipple also earned four varsity letters on the baseball diamond as Brown's starting shortstop. He was inducted into the Brown Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Whipple was born in Tarrytown, N.Y. before moving to Phoenix, Ariz. at the age of nine. He is a graduate of Camelback High School where he was an all-state performer in both football and baseball. Whipple was named the Arizona Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1975. He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Spencer and Austin. Spencer was a quarterback at UMass and the University of Miami where he graduated in 2012. He is currently UMass' passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Austin began his college career as a quarterback on the Penn State football team before enrolling at UMass prior to the 2014 season.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ...

"Mark Whipple as a football coach is not just a great teacher, but an excellent motivator. The Pittsburgh Steelers won Super Bowl XL and he was an integral part of our success. The University of Massachusetts is getting a head coach who is a leader of men and committed to excellence, both on and off the field."

- Bill Cowher
- Head Coach, Pittsburgh Steelers (1992-2006)

"I'm excited for UMass in hiring Mark Whipple. I had the opportunity to work with him in Pittsburgh for a number of years and, not only is he a good football coach, but he's a good role model. I think he'll do a great job with those young men. He did a great job with a young quarterback named Ben Roethlisberger and we had some success, so I know he has a good offensive mind. He'll do great in the community. I think it's a great hire and I'm excited for the school."

- Ken Whisenhunt
- Head Coach, Tennessee Titans (2014-15)

"When I arrived, he had been brought in to guide the rebuilding of UMass football. Immediately he instilled confidence and toughness in the guys. He put us in a great place to succeed on the field in terms of knowing how to match up against our opponents. Coach Whipple got the most out of us as players and led us to successes I could not have imagined achieving before I arrived. He helped me develop as a quarterback and he helped us all maximize our potential as a team."

- Todd Bankhead
- Quarterback, University of Massachusetts (1998-99)

"I personally was fortunate enough to have him coach me my senior year. He was able to bring out more of my talent and our collective talent as a team. We were 2-9 the year before he arrived and then went out and won the national championship the next season with almost the same exact team. He had a way to motivate you to get the best out of you and get you to achieve things you did not think you would be able to do. With his motivation and leadership, a lot of us played to levels that people thought we could not reach."

- Kerry Taylor
- Tight End, University of Massachusetts (1995-98)

Tom MASELLA

Defensive Coordinator • Safeties Coach
Fifth Year at UMass • Wagner, 1981

Tom Masella's coaching career spans more than 30 years and eight different institutions. He has held head coaching duties at three different schools, Boston University, Central Connecticut and Fordham, with six of his teams winning conference championships when he was on staff.

The 2014 season saw Masella's return to Amherst as head coach Mark Whipple's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Collectively during his time with the Minutemen, his players have earned four first-team all-conference honors and six second and third-team league accolades.

In 2015, under Masella's guidance seniors Joe Colton, Randall Jette and Trey Dudley-Giles amassed 206 collective tackles. Jette and Dudley-Giles also intercepted six passes for 80 yards.

Prior to his return to Amherst, he served at his alma mater, Wagner, for two seasons (2012, 2013) as associate head coach and offensive coordinator. In 2012, he helped the Seahawks capture the NEC Championship and advance to the second round of the NCAA FCS playoffs.

Masella was part of Fordham's staff from 2006-11. As head coach, he led the Rams to one of the greatest NCAA FCS turnarounds, taking the program from a 3-8 record in 2006 to an 8-4 campaign the following year. His 2007 season was also highlighted by a Patriot League Championship and a berth in the NCAA FCS playoffs.

At the end of 2007, he was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year as well as the AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year. Masella was also honored as the Bronx Sportsperson of the Year by the New York Daily News and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award which is presented annually to the NCAA FCS National Coach of the Year. Masella coached in various capacities with the Rams through the 2011 season.

In a two-year stint as head coach at Central Connecticut, Masella guided the Blue Devils to a pair of Northeast Conference Championships in 2004 and 2005 - the school's first-ever football titles.

Masella's first stretch at Massachusetts came during the 2002 and 2003 seasons. The Minutemen won the 2003 Atlantic 10 Championship while his defense allowed an average of just 22.7 points per game, recovered 18 fumbles and made 27 sacks. That season, UMass finished No. 11 in the Sports Network I-AA poll with a 10-3 record.

Masella spent three seasons at Louisiana Tech where he helped turn the Bulldog defense into one of the nation's top units. With Masella on staff, Louisiana Tech was ranked in the top 25 (1999) and won two Western Athletic Conference Championships (2000, 2001). Additionally, his 2001 defense ranked 11th nationally in interceptions and 13th in turnovers forced.

Masella joined the staff at the University of Connecticut for the 1998 season with the squad advancing to the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He coached the Huskies' secondary and also served as assistant head coach.

The 1990s saw Masella spend seven seasons in two stops at Boston University, including as head coach in 1996 and 1997. From 1990-94, he coached the Terriers' secondary and also served as defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving the Seahawks in various coaching capacities from 1982 to 1984. In 1985, he took over the defense at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he remained until 1989, also holding the role of assistant athletic director and defensive coordinator.

Masella and his wife, Leslie-Ann, have sons, T.J. and Jack.

Mark MICHAELS

Special Teams Coordinator • Outside Linebackers Coach
Third Year at UMass • Connecticut, 1986

Longtime college and NFL coach Mark Michaels joined head coach Mark Whipple's as special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in January 2015. Michaels returns to familiar territory as he helped the Minutemen win the I-AA National Championship as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in 1998.

Michaels has spent a large portion of his career coaching alongside Whipple since the pair first worked together in 1988 at the University of New Haven. Since first starting as a graduate assistant in New Haven from 1987-90, Michaels has also worked at Brown (1993-97), UMass (1998), with the Cleveland Browns (1999-00), Seattle Seahawks (2001-04), Jacksonville Jaguars (2005-06) and at Fordham (2007).

Under Michaels, on the special teams units in 2015, Logan Laurent ranked No. 3 in the MAC, averaging 42.2 yards per punt and recorded 13 punts of at least 50 yards, with a long of 56. Laurent also converted eight-of-12 field goal attempts, with a long of 48, and was perfect on all 25 PATs

Also last season, Trey Dudley-Giles earned second-team All-MAC honors at the punt return position with 113 yards on 13 returns.

Prior to his return to Amherst, Michaels was the defensive and special teams coordinator and a health teacher at Ridgeview High School in Orange Park, Fla. Starting his stint in 2008, Michaels helped Ridgeview reach the Florida state playoffs three-consecutive years (2010-12), advance to the third round of the 4A Playoffs in 2008 and set school records for wins (nine, 2009), blocked kicks (2009) and return touchdowns (2009).

While at Fordham, where he served with current UMass defensive coordinator Tom Masella, Michaels helped the Rams reach the FCS playoffs in 2007. That season Fordham had the nation's No. 1 net punt and punt coverage rank for both the FCS and BCS divisions. In addition to his work as co-special teams coordinator, he coached the defensive line for a unit that ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the Patriot League for tackles for loss and quarterback sacks, respectively.

His return to the collegiate ranks came after spending eight years coaching in the NFL. He started in the professional ranks with the Cleveland Browns in 1999 before being promoted to special teams coordinator in 2000.

Michaels then moved on to the Seattle Seahawks where he rose to special teams coordinator after spending three years as an assistant special teams coach. During his tenure there, Seattle made the playoffs twice, Alex Bannister was named to the Pro Bowl (2003), the Seahawks finished first in the NFL for punt return yardage defense (2003) and Josh Brown was second in the NFL for field goal percentage (23-of-25, 92.0%, 2004).

His last stint in the NFL was with Jacksonville during the 2005-06 season as assistant special teams coach. There he helped the Jaguars rank No. 1 during the 2005 season in overall offensive and defensive drive start position and Maurice Jones Drew ranked 3rd in the NFL in kickoff return average in 2006.

Prior to his NFL coaching career, Michaels was the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at UMass during the 1998 I-AA Championship run. That season, he helped linebackers Khari Samuel and Kole Ayi flourish. Samuel finished the year as a first-team All-America pick, while Ayi set the UMass single-season tackle record.

That marked the third time he had served with Whipple. The pair worked together while at Brown where Michaels was the linebackers, secondary and special teams coach from 1993-97.

His collegiate coaching career started in 1987 at New Haven where he was a graduate assistant coaching the defensive line and linebackers.

Between his stints at New Haven and Brown, Michaels was the head coach of the Helsinki (Finland) Roosters during the 1991 campaign, leading the team to the Finnish Maple League title. He then served for one season as linebackers coach for the Utah Pioneers of the Professional Spring Football League before entering private business as an account executive for Dun & Bradstreet.

Michaels is a 1986 graduate of the University of Connecticut where he was a two-time All-New England First-Team selection and the Yankee Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 1985. His 13 sacks in 1984 is still tied as the UConn single-season record while his 27 career sacks rank second in program history. He signed as a free agent with the Phoenix Cardinals in 1986 before beginning his coaching career. Michaels and his wife, Mary, have two children, Grace and Max.

Charles WALKER

Recruiting Coordinator • Inside Linebackers Coach
Third Year at UMass • Massachusetts, 2008

Charles Walker is in his third season with the UMass football staff. He was the outside linebackers coach for the 2014 season and moved to inside linebackers prior to the 2015 season.

Under Walker's direction, in 2015, linebacker Jovan Santos-Knox earned second-team All-MAC honors with 131 total tackles. Santos-Knox also led the FBS in assisted tackles with 87.

In 2012 and 2013, Walker was a member of the Vanderbilt staff as defensive quality control coach. In 2013, the Commodores ranked second in interceptions in the SEC (18), led in interception return yards (277) and tied for fourth in sacks (28).

Walker was a member of the Nichols College (Mass.) coaching staff for four years in a number of capacities, including linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator.

No stranger to Amherst, Walker was a four-year letterman for the Minutemen. In addition to being named team captain in 2007, he was a Colonial Athletic Association First-Team selection and a New England Football Writers All-Star.

In his career, Walker appeared in 50 games and started 36, totaling 340 total tackles, eight sacks and 15 TFL. He tied the UMass single-game high for tackles (23), a record he shares with John McKeown. Walker also tallied 10 career games in which he earned 10 or more tackles.

In 2006, he earned Atlantic 10 Second-Team honors and was named honorable mention for the Don Hansen All-Northeast Region Team. That season, he also helped lead the Minutemen to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game under head coach Don Brown.

A native of North Lauderdale, Fla., Walker holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from UMass. He is the father of one-year-old Nyla Ann.

Steve COSTELLO

Cornerbacks Coach
Third Year at UMass • Massachusetts, 2014

Steve Costello is in his third season with UMass football. He coached the tight ends in 2015 and took over the safeties prior to 2015 spring practice.

No stranger to Amherst, he was a four-year letterman for the Minutemen and also spent time as a graduate assistant during the 2014 season.

During his time as a graduate assistant and an intern with UMass football, he worked with the wide receivers and the defensive backs. UMass' passing offense improved nationally from 116th in 2013 to 19th in 2014.

A 2004 team captain and preseason All-America candidate, Costello totaled 12 career interceptions, 12th all-time in school history.

Costello earned his undergraduate degree from UMass in sociology in May 2014.

Matt DAWSON

Defensive Line Coach • Special Teams Coach
Fifth Year at UMass • Massachusetts, 2001

Matt Dawson was named to Massachusetts' football staff in January 2016. He returns to Amherst with 14 years of college football experience. He coaches the defensive line and works with special teams.

He spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at the University of Rhode Island as linebackers coach. He worked with two Colonial Athletic Association all-conference selections.

Prior to his arrival in Kingston, Dawson spent the 2013 season as the Virginia State defensive coordinator, spearheading a unit that produced a division title.

In 2012, he was the defensive coordinator for Monroe College, and before that, he held the same position for two seasons at Fordham.

Dawson coached the linebackers and was special teams coordinator for New Hampshire in 2009. As a graduate assistant, he was an assistant defensive line coach at Oregon from March 2007 through February 2009. He also spent time coaching at Massachusetts (2002-05) and Central Connecticut State (2005).

Dawson earned a degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 2001. As a three-year starter at linebacker, he helped the Minutemen win the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA National Championship and the 1999 Atlantic 10 Championship.

Spencer WHIPPLE

Passing Game Coordinator • Wide Receivers Coach
Third Year at UMass • Miami (Fla.) '12

Spencer Whipple enters his third season on the Massachusetts football staff in 2016. He coached the tight ends in 2014 and took on the role of receivers coach prior to the 2015 season, the area he'll also work with in 2016.

In 2015, under Whipple's direction, senior Tajae Sharpe put together a dominant season. He set Massachusetts records for single-game receptions (15) vs. Florida International on Oct. 3, single-season receptions (111), career receptions (277) and career receiving yards (3,486). A two-time first-team All-MAC honoree, at the conclusion of the 2015 season, Sharpe led the nation in receptions per game (9.3) and total receptions (111). Also among FBS players, he was No. 6 in receiving yards per game with 109.9 and No. 12 in total yards with 1,319.

Sharpe, Massachusetts' first All-American since 2011, earned second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and fourth-team All-America honors from Phil Steele. Sharpe was the 140th pick in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans and UMass' highest pick since offensive lineman Vladimir Ducasse in 2010 (second round, 61st pick).

Previously, Whipple was a member of the Pittsburgh staff as a defensive graduate assistant and video assistant.

Son of head coach Mark Whipple, Spencer is no stranger to Amherst, being raised in the area during his father's first tenure directing the UMass football program (1998-2003). Additionally, he spent one season (2008) with the Minutemen as a quarterback.

His playing career also included stops at Pittsburgh and Miami (Fla.). In 2007, he walked-on to the Pitt squad, then played in each game at Miami in 2010 and 2011, as holder and backup quarterback. During his senior season in 2011, he received the Mariutto Family Scholar-Athlete Award and, as a holder, helped lead the Hurricanes to a 39-for-39 PAT rate and 11-for-14 field goal rate.

As a student-athlete at Pine-Richland High School (Pa.), he threw for nearly 1,500 yards during his senior season, including 11 touchdowns. The run helped compose the Rams' 11-1 record and subsequent Greater Allegheny Conference Championship. That season, he earned "Fabulous 22" North honors from the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Whipple earned his sociology degree from Miami in 2012.

Mike FOLEY

Offensive Line Coach

First Year at UMass • Colgate, 1978

College coaching veteran and New England native Mike Foley joined the Massachusetts football program, as offensive line coach, in March 2016.

He spent the 2006-14 seasons working with the offensive line and tight ends at the University of Connecticut. In his first season working with the tight ends in 2012, Ryan Griffin earned All-BIG EAST second-team honors and he and John Delahunt combined to be one of the more effective tight ends duos in UConn history. Griffin was selected by the Houston Texans in the sixth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

Foley and his offensive line were key factors in UConn's outstanding rushing game in 2009-11 as the Huskies featured two 1,000-yard rushers in BIG EAST Player of the Year and All-American Jordan Todman (2009 and 10) and Andre Dixon (2009). Lyle McCombs joined that group in 2011. In addition, center Moe Petrus was named BIG EAST First-Team All-Conference while tackle Mike Ryan was a second-team selection.

Foley and his offensive line were a key factor in Donald Brown achieving the status as the country's leading rusher in 2008. In 2008, Foley coached BIG EAST First-Team All-Conference selection Will Beatty at left tackle as Beatty later went on to play in the Senior Bowl and was selected in the Second Round of the National Football League Draft by the New York Giants.

Prior to UConn, Foley served from 1981-2005, over two stretches, with the football team at his alma mater, Colgate. He was the Raiders' head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach during his tenure. In 2005, his final year at Colgate, the Raiders posted an 8-4 record and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs. Foley helped coach all seven of Colgate's NCAA Playoff squads, including the 2003 team that advanced to the National Championship game. Of the 13 seasons in which Colgate was eligible for the playoffs with Foley aboard, the team qualified seven times. Foley also played a role in each of Colgate's five Patriot League Championship teams (1997, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2005).

Colgate broke the league record for rushing yardage three times under Foley's tutelage, and led the Patriot League five out of his last nine seasons. During his tenure as offensive coordinator (1997-2005), Foley produced 39 All-Patriot League players, including 13 on the offensive line. His offensive schemes and the line's blocking helped pave the way for a pair of Walter Payton Award winners, Kenny Gamble in 1987 and Jamal Branch in 2003.

In 1986, he served as Colgate's interim head coach during the absence of head coach Fred Dunlap, who was recovering from bypass surgery. Following Dunlap's retirement in 1987, Foley was named head coach of the Raiders, a title he held through 1992, compiling a 21-34 record.

During a brief stint away from Colgate, Foley spent the 1994-96 seasons on the football staff at Harvard as the offensive coordinator.

Foley began his coaching career as offensive line coach at Bates College in 1978, before moving the next fall to Dartmouth as the freshman offensive line coach for one season. After one season as offensive line coach at Holy Cross in 1980, he returned to his alma mater as junior varsity head coach and varsity receivers coach. After two seasons in that position, he took over as offensive line coach in 1983. Foley added the duties of offensive coordinator in 1984.

He was a four-year letterwinner at Colgate and captain of the 1977 team. A three-year starter at center, he was twice honored as an All-East performer by the Associated Press and, in 1977, was also named to the ECAC All-East squad. In 2004, Foley was inducted into Colgate's Athletic Hall of Honor.

Foley was born in Kittery, Maine and raised in Newburyport, Mass. He graduated from Colgate University in 1978 with a degree in economics. Foley and his wife, Kathleen, have children, Erin and Patrick.

Jason PALERMO

Tight Ends Coach

First Year at UMass • Wisconsin, 2005

Jason Palermo joined the Massachusetts football program, as tight ends coach, in March 2016 after spending the past four seasons (2012-15) as the offensive line coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn.

Palermo began his coaching career under Pat Behrms at Nebraska-Omaha in 2009 as tight ends coach while assisting with the offensive line. He then moved to Southern University and spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons coaching tight ends and serving as special teams coordinator for former NFL great Stump Mitchell.

Palermo was a three-year letter winner at Wisconsin as an offensive guard and center. At the conclusion of his senior year in 2005, he was invited to play in the 2006 Hula Bowl All-Star game in Honolulu. Off the field, Palermo was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team in 2003. He played professionally for both the Minnesota Vikings and Atlanta Falcons.

Palermo is married to the former Kaitlyn Beinlich. They have a daughter, Giabella and sons, JonLuca and Grayson. He is the son of veteran coach John Palermo, who spent 40+ seasons in the collegiate and professional coaching ranks.

Darrius SMITH

Running Backs Coach
Second Year at UMass • Frostburg State, 1995

Darrius Smith joined the UMass football program as the squad's running backs coach during spring 2015. He comes to Amherst following an eight-year stint in the same position at Villanova and more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience overall.

In 2015, Marquis Young burst onto the national scene in his freshman campaign. He ranked 23rd in FBS with his 6.3 yards per rush and second among freshmen running backs. He had the most rushing yards in a single game among all MAC running backs (240 vs. Buffalo) and one of only two 200-yard games in the league.

Smith turned the Wildcats' running game into one of the best in the Colonial Athletic Association. In five different seasons (2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014), he spearheaded the program to rushing offenses that led the conference, highlighted by the 2012 campaign in which the team tallied 252.8 yards per game. During this period, Smith also guided several players to All-CAA honors and 1,000-yard seasons.

While at Villanova, Smith and the Wildcats won the 2009 FCS National Championship, reached the NCAA playoffs four times and won the CAA twice. The 2009 championship season saw Villanova post a 14-1 overall record with a 240.3 rushing yards per game.

The 1995 graduate of Frostburg State University also made stops in collegiate coaching capacities at Northeastern (2004-06), James Madison (2002-04), Idaho (2001-02), Indiana (Pa.) (2000-01) and New Mexico Highlands (1995-00).

Smith began his coaching career at Frostburg State as a student assistant after a career as a defensive back, during which he posted 12 interceptions in three years as a starter. Additionally, he received an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the summer of 2005. He holds a bachelor's degree in health and physical education.

Scott WOODWARD

Quarterbacks Coach
Second Year at UMass • Massachusetts, 2009

Massachusetts native and alum Scott Woodward is in his second season with UMass football and his first as quarterbacks coach. He joined the staff in July 2015 and worked with the quarterbacks and receivers while assisting with all facets of the offense last season.

Woodward returns to Amherst after coaching stints at Farleigh Dickinson (2013-15) and Westfield State (2010-13). At FDU, he served as offensive coordinator, academic coordinator, travel coordinator and assistant strength and conditioning coordinator. He was responsible for in-game play calling while working with the quarterbacks.

Woodward was an offensive graduate assistant at WSC, charged with coaching the quarterbacks and the offensive skill positions. He was also the fundraising coordinator and managed home game event operations.

Woodward was a four-year letterman with the Minutemen and, as a senior, completed 50-of-93 for 613 yards with two touchdowns and rushed 22 times for 62 yards. He served as back-up to UMass' all-time passing leader Liam Coen and holder for four seasons. He was a member of the 2006 Division I-AA National Championship team.

He was a three-year starting quarterback for Mahar Regional High School and led the Senators to back-to-back Division III Super Bowl titles. A three-time All-Western Mass selection and a first-team all-state selection as a senior, he threw for more than 4,000 yards in his career and 46 touchdowns passes.

A native of Wendell, Mass., Woodward earned his undergraduate degree in psychology from UMass in 2009.

Michael Scire joined the Massachusetts football staff as equipment manager in June 2015. He oversees all day-to-day equipment operations for the Minutemen, including practice and gameday preparation.

He was a member of the equipment staff at Boston University prior to his return to Amherst. He started with the Terriers in November 2010, working with the hockey program.

Scire was an assistant equipment manager at Quinnipiac for the 2008-09 season. Prior to his stint there, he worked with the Lowell Devils, now the Albany Devils, of the American Hockey League during the 2007-08 season.

Scire got his start in college athletics at UMass where he worked with the Minutemen hockey program as an assistant equipment manager from 2005-08. He graduated from UMass in 2008 with a degree in urban forestry.

2016 COACHES AND STAFF

Bill Sisler

Video Coordinator

17th Year at UMass • James Madison, 1995

Bill Sisler is in his 17th year on the Massachusetts football staff as video coordinator. He is responsible for coordinating, managing and supervising all video operations for the football program. Sisler handles all recording of practices and games, and also coordinates recruiting videos for the use of the coaching staff.

Prior to his arrival in Amherst, Sisler served as the video coordinator for all sports at the University of Memphis for three years. He supervised all video activities for the athletic department, including filming of games and practices for most sports, breaking down film and coordinating video exchanges. Sisler also oversaw a staff of student workers in the video office.

Previously, Sisler spent two years as a graduate assistant in video operations for the Memphis football and men's and women's basketball teams. He also served as video coordinator for the football team at James Madison University for four years as an undergraduate student.

A member of the Collegiate Video Directors Association and the American Football Coaches Association, Sisler earned his bachelor's degree in mass communications from James Madison in 1995.

Sisler and his wife, Jennie, reside in Sunderland.

Jennifer BRODEUR

Associate Head Athletic Trainer, M.S., A.T.C., L.A.T.

10th Year at UMass • Ohio University, 1991

Jennifer Brodeur enters her 10th year as an athletic trainer at the University of Massachusetts, her ninth season working with the football team and her eighth campaign as the team's head athletic trainer. Brodeur previously worked with the UMass men's lacrosse and swimming and diving teams.

In recognition of her success, Brodeur was named the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association in June 2013, given to one individual annually and voted on by the College/University Athletic Trainers Committee.

Previously, Brodeur was also recognized with the 2009 Athletic Trainer Service Award at the National Athletic Trainers Association convention in San Antonio, Texas. She was one of just 16 recipients of the annual award that recognizes NATA members for their contributions to the athletic training profession and the association. Although it is a national honor, local, state and district service is the focus of this award.

Brodeur is the president-elect of ATOM (Athletic Trainers of Massachusetts). She also directs the UMass Sports Medicine undergraduate intern program.

Brodeur came to Amherst after working for the WNBA's Connecticut Sun. Prior to the Sun, she worked as an athletic trainer Providence College's lacrosse program from 2001-06. Prior to Providence, she served as an athletic trainer at Fordham University (1998-2001).

Brodeur earned her bachelor's degree from Ohio University in 1991 and her master's from Austin Peay State University in 1993.

WARREN P. MCGUIRK ALUMNI STADIUM

YEAR-BY-YEAR AT MCGUIRK STADIUM

Recognized as one of the Northeast's finest I-AA football facilities, Warren P. McGuirk Alumni Stadium serves as the home of Minuteman football. With a capacity of 17,000 fans, McGuirk Stadium was a definite home field advantage for UMass over the years as the Minutemen posted an impressive 174-83-2 (.676) record and 17 Yankee Conference, Atlantic 10 or CAA Conference titles.

In 2008, UMass installed permanent lighting, which led to the second highest all-time single-season average attendance mark of 12,383. The McGuirk Stadium record of 12,811 was set in the NCAA Championship year of 1998.

Playing on the new FieldTurf surface in 2006, UMass set a school record with a perfect 8-0 record at home with a pair of wins at McGuirk Stadium in the NCAA Tournament. The Minutemen beat Lafayette, 35-14 on Nov. 25 in the First Round. Then, playing before the first sell-out since 1973, UMass downed arch-rival New Hampshire, 24-17 on Dec. 2, 2006 in front of 17,000 fans.

Built by the UMass Building Authority at a cost of $1.4 million (and at no cost to the Commonwealth's taxpayers), the structure was designed by the New York firm of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill. On August 27, 1964, the H.P. Madore Company of Southbridge, Mass., began construction on the facility. In May of 1965, the field was blanketed with pure Merion Blue Grass that had been planted by the University's agronomy department four years earlier. The turf was laid on four inches of loam and a 10-inch sand base.

In the summer of 2006 a new FieldTurf surface was laid making the field playable all-year round. Permanent lighting was installed in the summer of 2008.

Alumni Stadium hosted its first game on September 25, 1965, with the Redmen beating AIC, 41-0. The stadium was officially dedicated on October 16, 1965, when UMass defeated Rhode Island 30-7 in a Homecoming contest. On November 3, 1984 — nearly 20 years after the opening of Alumni Stadium — the facility was rededicated in honor of Warren McGuirk, the school's athletic director for 23 years, during whose tenure the stadium was built.

Beginning in 2014, UMass split home contests between Gillette Stadium and McGuirk Stadium. Major renovations to McGuirk Stadium include a new press box and field house, which contain all support features for the football program. These renovations began in January 2013 and were completed in July 2014.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

TEAM CHRONOLOGY THROUGH THE YEARS

Fall, 1878: Francis Codman '80, the "Father of Massachusetts Agricultural College Football," organizes the initial Aggie team, although no games are played.

Nov. 22, 1879: Massachusetts Agricultural College (M.A.C.) plays its first football game, defeating the freshman team from cross-town rival Amherst College, 4-0, on Alumni Field. The game was the only one of the season for the Aggies, giving them their first undefeated season.

Nov. 13, 1880: The first road game for the Aggies is a 0-0 tie at Amherst College.

Nov. 4, 1885: M.A.C. and Amherst College meet for the fourth time in the 1885 season. The Aggies win the four-game set, 2-1-1.

Nov. 22, 1889: The Aggies complete their second undefeated season with a 2-0 record. Both wins come over Williston Academy.

Sept. 25, 1897: Doctor Weeks, an 1897 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where he was a regular quarterback, becomes the first M.A.C. football coach. The volunteer mentor loses his first game, 4-0 at Holy Cross, and posts a 1-4-1 mark in his only season as coach.

Nov. 6, 1897: The first-ever meeting between Massachusetts and Connecticut takes place, with M.A.C. winning the game, 36-0.

Sept. 28, 1901: James Halligan, former captain of the 1899 squad, leads the Aggies to a 17-0 victory at Holy Cross. Halligan becomes the first full-time seasonal football coach in school history.

Oct. 14, 1903: The first-ever meeting between Massachusetts and Rhode Island takes place, with the Aggies prevailing, 46-0. Massachusetts has faced Rhode Island 86 times, more than any other school.

Oct. 9, 1915: M.A.C. plays its first game at "New" Alumni Field, defeating Colby, 26-0.

Oct. 2, 1920: Massachusetts picks up its 100th win in school history, defeating Connecticut, 28-0.

March 26, 1931: Massachusetts Agricultural College becomes Massachusetts State College.

Sept. 26, 1931: Mel Taube coaches his first game against Cooper Union, leading the Aggies to a 50-0 victory. Taube goes on to earn a .682 winning percentage (29-13-2 record). The game marks the first collegiate appearance by Lou Bush, who runs for three touchdowns on the afternoon.

Nov. 14, 1931: The Aggies defeat Wagner, 77-0, behind a school-record five touchdowns by Lou Bush. The margin of victory is still tied for the largest ever by Massachusetts.

1964 TANGERINE BOWL

EAST CAROLINA 14

MASSACHUSETTS 13

Dec. 12, 1964 • Tangerine Bowl; Orlando, Fla.

After establishing a 13-0 lead, Yankee Conference Champion UMass tired in the Orlando heat in a 14-13 loss to the East Carolina Pirates. The second half run-pass threat of Pirate all-America quarterback Bill Cline was too much for the UMass defense to handle. Cline's nine-yard touchdown run and two-point conversion pass to Pete Crane in the fourth quarter won the game.

In the second quarter, UMass' Bob Gogick recovered an East Carolina fumble that gave UMass the ball on the Pirate 12-yard line. UMass quarterback Jerry Whelchel then hit Ken Palm for a 12-yard touchdown, giving UMass a 7-0 lead.

After taking the second half kickoff, UMass started its second touchdown drive. Two running plays and a penalty put the Redmen at their own 39, when Palm got behind the East Carolina secondary and caught a Whelchel 61-yard touchdown pass for a 13-0 UMass lead.

Richardson put East Carolina on the board with a two-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, paving the way for Cline's heroics. Fullback Mike Ross led Massachusetts with 55 yards rushing. Cline led East Carolina with 217 yards in total offense. UMass finished the season with an 8-2 record.

1972 BOARDWALK BOWL

MASSACHUSETTS 35

CALIFORNIA-DAVIS 14

Dec. 9, 1972 • Convention Hall; Atlantic City, N.J.

UMass quarterback Peil Pennington led head coach Dick MacPherson's squad to a 35-14 victory over the University of California at Davis.

The Yankee Conference Champion squad went 60 yards on nine plays for their first score, with Paul Metallo gaining much of the yardage on the ground. Pennington then gave UMass the lead when he hit Tim Berra for a 17-yard score.

A John Healy interception at the Cal-Davis 27 set up the second score for UMass. The touchdown came on a 10-yard end-around by Steve Schubert. After getting the ball back on downs, Metallo once again did most of the damage on the ground, before hitting Pennington for a 21-yard scoring strike on an option play.

Cal-Davis finally got on the board when Bob Biggs found Frank Altick on a 20-yard pass with less than two minutes left in the first half. The Aggies would cut the UMass lead to 20-14 before reserve quarterback Mark Tripucka came in to put the game out of reach with two more Minuteman touchdowns.

The Minutemen outgained the Aggies 184-61 on the ground, and Schubert was UMass' top receiver with 69 yards. The Minutemen finished with a 9-2 record.

1977 NCAA DIVISION II QUARTERFINALS

LEHIGH 30

MASSACHUSETTS 23

Nov. 26, 1977 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

A spirited second-half comeback by Yankee Conference Champion UMass fell short, as Lehigh held on for a 30-23 win. Head coach Dick MacPherson's defense could not stop the Engineer aerial attack of quarterback Mike Reiker and split end Steve Kreider, who connected on a seven-yard touchdown for the winning score with 11:56 left in the game.

With Lehigh ahead 23-0, UMass took a punt on the Engineer 36-yard line and needed only two plays to score on a 36-yard pass from Mike Fallon to Dennis Dent. After the half, the Minutemen continued to cut into the Lehigh advantage, scoring on a 10-play, 74-yard drive. Billy Coleman finished the series with a one-yard run to drop the Engineer lead to 23-16.

UMass then tied the contest at 23-23 on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Fallon to John Gladchuk, before Lehigh scored the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Reiker finished the day with 351 yards passing, hitting 25 of 40 attempts, while Kreider had nine catches for 171 yards and four touchdowns. Billy Coleman led the Minutemen with 90 yards rushing. UMass finished the season 8-3.

1978 NCAA DIVISION I-AA SEMIFINALS

MASSACHUSETTS 44

NEVADA-RENO 21

Dec. 9, 1978 • MacKay Stadium; Reno, Nev.

In the 1978 NCAA Division I-AA semifinal, UMass used a combination of big-play offense and a superlative defense to stop previously undefeated and top-ranked Nevada-Reno 44-21. The Minuteman defense forced seven Wolfpack turnovers (six interceptions, one fumble) to give the offense the ball in fine field position most of the day.

UMass opened the contest with an 80-yard drive that ended with a Cliff Pedrow 20-yard scoring run. The play was set up by Dennis Dent's 32-yard flea-flicker to Chris Kurtz.

After UMass fumbled a Nevada-Reno punt, the Wolfpack scored on a three-yard run by John Vicari. On the ensuing kickoff, Dent went 96 yards for a touchdown to give UMass a 13-7 lead.

UMass' Steve McInnes set up Pedrow's one-yard touchdown run with an interception, and Minuteman quarterback Mike McEvilly ended the first half scoring when he connected with Kevin O'Connor on a 47-yard touchdown strike that gave UMass a 28-7 lead.

In the second half, Pedrow scored on a 30-yard run and Kevin Sullivan ran an interception back 59 yards for the final two Minuteman touchdowns.

1978 NCAA DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

FLORIDA A&M 35

MASSACHUSETTS 28

Dec. 16, 1978 • Memorial Stadium; Wichita Falls, Texas

In the first NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game, UMass dropped a 35-28 decision to Florida A&M in the Pioneer Bowl. The Minutemen could not contain the Florida A&M running attack, which totalled 470 yards despite playing without leading rusher Ike Williams. Mike Solomon had 207 yards and Melvin McFayden had 177 to pace A&M.

Despite the Rattlers' ground success, UMass held a 22-21 lead in the fourth quarter on three Sandro Vitiello field goals and two touchdowns by Cliff Pedrow.

With 8:26 left in the game, UMass fumbled and Florida A&M recovered. On the next play, Solomon scored on a 28-yard touchdown run and a two-point conversion to put the Rattlers ahead 29-22.

After three unsuccessful downs and a punt by UMass, A&M got the ball back, and Solomon scampered for a 20-yard scoring run to give the Rattlers a 35-22 lead.

UMass closed the scoring on a last second 34-yard touchdown pass from Mike McEvilly to Chris Kurtz.

Head coach Bob Pickett's defense played without three starters, including Kevin Sullivan, who broke his ankle in the first quarter. UMass finished the season 9-4 and won the Lambert Cup as the top team in the East.

1988 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

EASTERN KENTUCKY 28

MASSACHUSETTS 17

Nov. 26, 1988 • Hanger Field; Richmond, Ky.

Making its first postseason appearance since 1978, UMass jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead, but could not stop Eastern Kentucky tailback Elroy Harris. Harris scored the winning touchdown on a two-yard run with just over three minutes to play and finished the game with 192 yards rushing.

Down 21-17 in the fourth quarter, the Minutemen had a chance to regain the lead late in the game, but turned the ball over on downs. Tim Lester ended the scoring with a 16-yard touchdown run to give the Colonels a 28-17 win.

UMass jumped out to a 14-0 lead when quarterback Dave Palazzi connected on a 39-yard touchdown strike to Mike Tobin, and David Mitchell scored on a two-yard run.

The Eastern Kentucky defense, however, held the Minutemen to a Silvio Bonvini 26-yard field goal in the second half while chipping away at the UMass lead. The Colonels used a powerful ground game to outgain UMass 381-221.

A steady rain and strong winds made the passing game ineffective for both teams. Kevin Smellie led the Minutemen with 80 yards on the ground. UMass finished the season 8-4.

1990 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

WILLIAM & MARY 38 MASSACHUSETTS 0

Nov. 24, 1990 • Zable Stadium; Williamsburg, Va.

The William & Mary Tribe offense gained 500 yards, including 311 through the air, and the defense stopped Massachusetts twice inside the five-yard line during the first half, as William & Mary rolled to a 38-0 NCAA Division I-AA playoff victory.

With less than five minutes left in the first quarter, UMass had a second-and-goal situation at the Tribe one-yard line and was forced to attempt a field goal, which was blocked.

After William & Mary went up 7-0, UMass drove to the Tribe six-yard line where the drive ended when the William & Mary defense held on a fourth-and-one situation. The Tribe then drove 94 yards in five plays for a 14-0 lead and never looked back.

Alan Williams scored four touchdowns and Chris Hakel completed 20 of 27 passes for 311 yards for William & Mary. Eric Thimas gained 64 yards rushing and David Mitchell added 55 rushing yards for UMass, which finished 8-2-1.

1998 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

MASSACHUSETTS 21 MCNEESE STATE 19

Nov. 28, 1998 • Cowboy Stadium; Lake Charles, La.

The 12th-ranked Minutemen took a 21-0 lead in the second quarter then held on after the intermission to post a 21-19 victory at No. 6 McNeese State in the opening round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

Kevin Quinlan, filling in for the injured Marcel Shipp, rushed for 147 yards and a touchdown on 28 carries. Todd Bankhead completed 19 of 35 passes for 254 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Kerry Taylor caught seven passes for a career-high 119 yards and a score.

UMass opened the scoring on a two-yard run by Quinlan early in the second quarter. The Minutemen would make the score 21-0 with 5:26 remaining before halftime, as Bankhead hit Adrian Zullo with a 31-yard pass and then found Taylor with a seven-yard scoring strike.

McNeese State scored its first points late in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Shonz LaFrenz. LaFrenz added three more field goals in the second half and William Davis caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Blake Prejean, making the score 21-19 with just under five minutes remaining. McNeese had one more chance to score, but LaFrenz was wide right with a 52-yard field goal attempt with 1:42 remaining.

Khari Samuel led a strong effort by the UMass defense with a team-high 14 tackles and a forced fumble, while Chris Price added five tackles and two sacks for five yards.

MASSACHUSETTS 27

LEHIGH 21

Dec. 5, 1998 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

The Minutemen rallied from a 14-13 halftime deficit to post a 27-21 win over No. 13 Lehigh in the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals. Marcel Shipp led UMass by rushing 36 times for 159 yards and a touchdown. Todd Bankhead completed 22 of 36 passes for 270 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Jimmy Moore caught eight passes for 117 yards and a score.

Lehigh jumped out to an early lead on an eight-yard touchdown run by Ron Jean, then UMass got on the board on its first possession with a 26-yard field goal from Jason Cherry.

Moore caught a 30-yard pass from Bankhead to put the Minutemen up 10-7 and Cherry added a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter, but Jean scored again late in the half on a one-yard run to give the Mountain Hawks a one-point edge at the break.

The Minutemen took the lead for good late in the third quarter when Adrian Zullo caught a 37-yard pass from Bankhead, then Shipp scored on a one-yard run early in the fourth to put UMass up 27-14.

Lehigh then cut the lead to 27-21 on a one-yard run by Phil Stambaugh with just over seven minutes to play. The Mountain Hawks made things interesting late in the game, but they lost the ball on downs after driving inside the UMass 10-yard line with less than two minutes remaining.

Kole Ayi led UMass with 12 tackles and Khari Samuel added 11 tackles with a sack for seven yards.

Dec. 12, 1998 • Turpin Stadium; Natchitoches, La.

The University of Massachusetts Minutemen rallied in the fourth quarter to post a 41-31 victory over No. 2 Northwestern State in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals. Marcel Shipp rushed 38 times for 190 yards and a touchdown, Todd Bankhead completed 17 of 30 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns, and Jimmy Moore had six receptions for 98 yards and a score.

After Northwestern State led 21-14 at halftime, Kevin Quinlan tied the score with a 20-yard run early in the third quarter.

The Demons regained the lead on a 29-yard field goal by Thomas LaToof and drove into UMass territory early in the fourth quarter when the momentum changed. Khari Samuel picked off a Brad Spangler pass in UMass territory, then Bankhead hit Matt Jordan with a 49-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Minutemen the lead for good.

Shipp and Bankhead added scoring runs to put UMass up 41-24, before the Demons added a score in the closing seconds. Samuel totaled a team-high 11 tackles for the Minutemen, while Dan Schneider had three sacks among his seven tackles.

FURMAN 23 (OT)

Nov. 27, 1999 • Paladin Stadium; Greenville, S.C.

Marcel Shipp scored on a one-yard touchdown run in overtime to lift the 10th-ranked Minutemen to a 30-23 victory at No. 8 Furman. Shipp totaled 170 rushing yards on 36 carries in the victory, while scoring a pair of touchdowns.

The Paladins led 20-16 in the third quarter, before the Minutemen took the lead on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Todd Bankhead to Sean Higgins.

Furman tied the score at 23-23 early in the fourth quarter on a 39-yard field goal by Jason Wells, and the game went to overtime after Wells missed a 37-yard field goal with less than 15 seconds remaining.

UMass received the ball first in the overtime and scored on only four plays on Shipp's touchdown run.

On Furman's overtime possession, Matt Dawson and Aaron Parker both recorded tackles for loss, then the Minutemen forced a pair of incompletions on the final two plays to seal the victory.

Bankhead completed 28 of 41 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns with no interceptions, with Adrian Zullo catching 10 passes for 121 yards and a score. Jeremy Robinson led the UMass defense with 13 tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 38

MASSACHUSETTS 21

Dec. 4, 1999 • Paulson Stadium; Statesboro, Ga.

In a rematch of the 1998 NCAA I-AA title game, Walter Payton Award winner Adrian Peterson rushed for 333 yards and five touchdowns on 32 carries, to lead No. 2 Georgia Southern to a 38-21 victory over the 10th-ranked Minutemen.

The game began as a defensive struggle, and the Eagles held a 10-7 lead into the locker room at the half. UMass then took the opening kickoff of the second half and went 69 yards to take a 14-10 lead on Marcel Shipp's two-yard scoring run.

The Eagles regained the lead with a pair of scoring runs from Peterson, taking a 24-14 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Minutemen cut the lead to 24-21 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Todd Bankhead to Pete Cariello, but were unable to get any closer. Peterson added two more touchdowns late in the fourth quarter to conclude the scoring.

Shipp finished the day with 28 carries for 104 yards and two touchdowns. Bankhead completed 21 of 33 passes for 316 yards and one score, with Adrian Zullo bringing in six receptions for 102 yards. Compton Webster led the UMass defense with 11 tackles and a fumble recovery, while Paul Bolden and Dan Schneider both totaled nine tackles.

COLGATE 19

MASSACHUSETTS 7

Nov. 29, 2003 • Andy Kerr Stadium; Hamilton, N.Y.

Quarterback Chris Brown and wideout J.B. Gerald hooked up for a pair of touchdowns from 13 and 30 yards out to lead sixth-ranked Colgate over the fifth-ranked Minutemen 19-7 in a blizzard at Andy Kerr Stadium.

UMass got on the board first as Leroy Brooks blocked a punt and teammate James Ihedigbo scooped up the loose ball and raced 25 yards into the endzone giving the Minutemen a 7-0 advantage with 6:43 left in the first quarter.

UMass had a chance to extend the lead as Raider running back Jamaal Branch fumbled on his own 27-yard line where Minuteman Mike Haynes recovered. After driving to the Colgate five-yard line, Michael Torres missed wide right on a 22-yard field goal attempt.

Colgate answered with a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a 13-yard score from Brown to Gerald. UMass appeared to have stalled the Raiders drive two plays earlier as a fourth-down pass attempt went incomplete, but the Minutemen were called for an interference penalty allowing the series to continue. Branch went in from two-yards out two plays later, but Colgate missed the conversion and led 13-7.

Neither team would score again in a first half, which saw the Raiders total only 14 yards rushing on 18 attempts.

Defensively, James Ihedigbo, Anton McKenzie and Mark Kimener each had eight tackles to lead the Minutemen.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

MASSACHUSETTS 35

LAFAYETTE 14

Nov. 25, 2006 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 3 UMass advanced to the NCAA Division I Quarterfinals with a 35-14 victory over Lafayette on a sunny afternoon at McGuirk Stadium in the NCAA First Round. Steve Baylark ran all over the Leopards, gaining 152 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

Liam Coen threw three touchdowns as he was very efficient completing just 9-of-15 for 151 yards. Baylark came out blazing as he scored UMass' first two touchdowns less than 11 minutes into the game. He finished off a 60-yard drive with an 8-yard run to UMass the 7-0 lead with 8:26 left in the first quarter. On the next drive, Baylark continued to run wild and finished that drive with a 26-yard tackle-breaking run to give UMass the 14-0 lead.

The Minutemen expanded the lead to 21-0 as junior college transfer Michael Omar made his first catch in nearly three months, for a 33-yard touchdown from Coen.

Lafayette mounted a comeback by virtue of UMass turnovers. Coen threw his first interception since Oct. 14, at Towson, with 3:06 left in the first half as Torian Johnson picked off the sophomore quarterback and returned it 17 yards to the UMass 34-yard line. Three plays later Leopard quarterback Brad Maurer hit Shaun Adair from 26 yards away with 1:23 left in the first half.

On the ensuing kickoff, UMass' Courtney Robinson returned it 35 yards, but Lafayette's Adrian Lawson forced a fumble and LC recovered the ball on UMass' 43. Two plays later Duaeno Dorsey hauled in a 31-yard pass from Maurer to cut the lead to 21-14 with just 28 seconds left in the first half.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINAL

MASSACHUSETTS 24

NEW HAMPSHIRE 17

Dec. 2, 2006 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 3 UMass (12-1) advanced to the NCAA Semifinals with a 24-17 victory over No. 9 New Hampshire (9-4) before a sell-out crowd of 17,000.

In a virtual repeat of the waning seconds in the regular season meeting between the rivals, Jason Hatchell batted down a fourth-and-one pass by UNH's Ricky Santos, intended for Keith LaVan, to ensure the 12th victory of the year for the Minutemen.

Steve Baylark romped for 198 yards - his second-highest rushing total - to pace the UMass offensive attack. His 60-yard burst in the first quarter set up his only touchdown of the day.

Brad Anderson intercepted Ricky Santos with 13:30 left in the fourth quarter and returned the ball 31 yards to the UNH 14-yard line which set up Chris Koepplin's 33-yard field goal with 11:08 left in regulation.

UMass took a 21-17 lead as Brandon London snagged a 31-yard TD pass from Liam Coen with 6:21 left in the third quarter. He broke away and dove across the endzone line with tacklers draped on him. It was London's 15th career receiving TD, tying for fourth-most at UMass.

The Wildcats grabbed a 17-14 halftime lead as Tom Manning kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. UNH tied the game at 14-14 with 1:34 left in the first half as Keith Levan hauled in an 11-yard pass from Ricky Santos.

UMass took a 14-7 lead as sophomore Ian Jorgensen caught a 6-yard pass from Liam Coen with 8:56 left in the second quarter.

MONTANA 17

Dec. 8, 2006 • Washington-Grizzly Stadium; Missoula, Mont.

No. 3 UMass advanced to the NCAA Division I National Championship game with a 19-17 win at No. 2 Montana before a sold-out and raucous crowd of 23,454 and a national-TV audience.

Steve Baylark was an amazing all-purpose back with 245 total yards. He had his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season and 25th of his career with 169 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-high 76 receiving yards to lead the receiving corps. It was Baylark's 14th career two-touchdown game and UMass is 13-1 in those games. In his 25 career 100-yard games, UMass is now 22-3. He had 12 carries in the fourth quarter to keep Montana's offense off the field.

Kicker Chris Koepllin kicked the eventual game-winning field goal from 43 yards away with 13:25 left in regulation. The Minutemen, who haven't given up a point in the second half of their three playoff games, held the Grizzlies to just 67 yards in the final 30 minutes.

Koepllin's game-winner was set up when the UMass defense forced a safety in a defensive-minded third quarter. The Minutemen pressured Grizz quarterback Josh Swogger to fumble the ball out of the end zone to make it 17-16 with 1:26 left in the third quarter. Dominique Milton was credited with the safety as he was the last player to hit Swogger after Brandon Freeman and Brad Anderson unleashed huge pressure.

It was again the UMass defense that sealed the game when Brandon Smith intercepted Swogger with 36 seconds remaining in the game after the Minutemen turned over the ball on a missed 46-yard field goal.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

APPALACHIAN STATE 28

MASSACHUSETTS 17

Dec. 15, 2006 • Finley Stadium; Chattanooga, Tenn.

Appalachian State put the ball in Kevin Richardson's hands with its second straight NCAA Division I-AA title at stake. Richardson's fourth touchdown sealed Appalachian State's 28-17 victory over Massachusetts on Friday night. The former walk-on finished with 179 yards.

His third touchdown put the Mountaineers (14-1) ahead 21-14 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. He added another for 2 yards with 1:51 left that gave him the I-AA record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 30.

The Minutemen (13-2) cut it to 21-17 on Chris Koepllin's 42-yard field goal with 8:46 left.

Appalachian State then took 6:46 off the clock as Richardson ran 10 times in a long drive before capping it with his last touchdown. UMass got the ball back, but Appalachian State's Corey Lynch had an interception to seal it.

UMass tied it at 14 in the third quarter on Liam Coen's 17-yard pass to Brad Listorti, who tiptoed a few yards down the sideline to stay in bounds and score. The Minutemen got the ball after James Ihedigbo intercepted a pass by Edwards at the UMass 19, stopping Appalachian State's first prolonged drive of the second half.

The attendance was announced at 22,808, a sellout and overflow crowd and the largest for the I-AA title game since it moved to Chattanooga in 1997.

MASSACHUSETTS 49

FORDHAM 35

Nov. 24, 2007 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 7 UMass advanced with a 49-35 win over Fordham on a record-setting day. Liam Coen set the UMass mark for passing yards in a game with 419 along with four TDs. Matt Lawrence had his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 167 and three rushing TDs. Rasheed Rancher had the second-most receiving yards in a game with 198.

The Minutemen piled up 649 yards of total offense, the second-most in a game in school history. Fordham had 406 yards as the teams combining 1,055 total yards.

Charles Walker's first-career interception set up the game-sealing drive as Lawrence ran in for his third touchdown, making it 49-35 with 5:15 left in the fourth.

UMass took the lead back at 42-35 as Lawrence ran in from 13 yards out for his second score of the day. On the drive, Coen set the UMass single-game passing yardage record as he broke the record of 403 held by Matt Guice in 2001.

Skelton connected with Sylvester Clarke for an 11-yard touchdown with 11:59 left in the fourth quarter. The drive began off another UMass turnover on a failed halfback option. Lawrence was attempting to throw a pass to Ian Jorgensen in the end zone, but was picked off.

2007 NCAA DIVISION I FCS QUARTERFINAL

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS 34

MASSACHUSETTS 27

Dec. 1, 2007 • McAndrew Stadium; Carbondale, Ill.

Despite a valiant comeback, the No. 7 Minutemen lost to No. 4 Southern Illinois, 34-27. UMass finished the season at 10-3, marking its fourth 10-win season all-time.

The Salukis were too much to handle all afternoon from the opening whistle as Southern Illinois gashed UMass' defense for 462 yards, the most the Minutemen have allowed since giving up 516 to Boston College in 2004. UMass allowed its longest reception (69 yards) and longest rush (64 yards) of the season.

Liam Coen threw for a school-record 421 yards on 28-of-42. It marked the second week in a row he set the school record for passing yards.

Matt Lawrence gained more than 100 yards for the 10th time this season with 112, in his final collegiate game. Rasheed Rancher had five catches for 143 yards, giving him 1794 in his career, as he finished his career, fourth in receiving yards all-time at UMass. J.J. Moore had seven catches giving him 185, second all-time to Adrian Zullo (187) at UMass. Moore also had 94 receiving yards as he finished his career second in career receiving yards with 2423. Michael Omar also set career-high with 10 catches and 114 yards for his first-career 100-yard game.

UMass continued to try and rally all second half. The Minutemen cut the lead to 34-27 as Brad Listorti caught his first pass of the season from four yards out with 4:00 left in regulation. It followed a series where Coen hit Jeremy Horne from 30 yards out for the receiver's third TD of the season, which brought UMass within 34-20.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

1998 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

When Mark Whipple was hired as the head coach of the Minutemen on Dec. 16, 1997, he talked about winning a national championship. Few people thought that would happen, and almost no one believed UMass could accomplish the goal in only one season. But by the time the 1998 season concluded, the Minutemen had produced one of the greatest turnarounds in college football history, going from a 2-9 record the year before to a 12-3 mark and the NCAA Division I-AA national title.

The season saw a number of close games for UMass, with nine of the first 13 contests coming down to the final minute or overtime. The Minutemen then posted a dramatic come-from-behind win at Northwestern State in the NCAA semifinals, scoring 20 straight points in the fourth quarter to post a 41-31 victory. In the final game of the season, UMass rolled to a 55-43 win over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern, in a game which was not as close as the final score indicated.

On the way to the national championship, the Minutemen set numerous school records, many of which had stood for decades. Included among the records set were team single season marks for points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), average yards per play (5.9), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

In the end, Whipple and his team, led by senior co-captains Khari Samuel and Kerry Taylor, brought UMass the first national championship in the history of a program which played its first game in 1879. The title was also the first in the history of the Atlantic 10.

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

KOLE AYI

LINEBACKER • 1997-2000

One of the top linebackers in school history, Kole Ayi was a two-time first team All-America selection in 1999 and 2000. Also a two-time first team All-Atlantic 10 choice, Ayi led the Minutemen in tackles during his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. One of Ayi's top performances came against Georgia Southern in the 1998 national championship game, when he totaled 16 tackles, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a touchdown. A two-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, and the runner-up in 1999, the former walk-on won the 2000 George "Bulger" Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston. Ayi finished his career as UMass' all-time leader in career solo tackles with 330, while ranking third in total tackles with 478. He also set the school single-season record for solo tackles with 116 during the 1998 season.

TODD BANKHEAD

QUARTERBACK • 1998-99

Todd Bankhead is one of the most prolific passers in school history, setting numerous records in only two seasons, and leading the Minutemen to their first-ever national championship in 1998. A classic pocket passer with great arm speed, Bankhead owns many of the top 10 single game passing marks in school history. He set single-season marks for passing yards (3,919), completions (303), attempts (525) and touchdowns (34) during the 1998 season, then broke the mark for completion percentage (.635) in 1999. Bankhead finished his career with school record totals of 7,018 passing yards, 561 completions, 931 attempts, 51 touchdowns and a .603 completion percentage. A third team All-America selection during the 1998 season, Bankhead also earned second team All-Atlantic 10 honors in both 1998 and 1999. Bankhead went on to play for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League.

STEVE BAYLARK

TAILBACK • 2003-06

Steve Baylark was a second-team All-American in 2006 in addition to being the Atlantic 10's Offensive Player of the Year that season in leading UMass to the NCAA Championship game. Baylark became the third back in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards in four seasons. He was just the second UMass player to gain more than 5,000 career yards with 5,332. Baylark rushed for 1,960 yards as a senior in 2006, the second-most in a season in UMass history and he scored 42 touchdowns in his career, including 15 as a senior. Baylark played in the East-West Shrine Game following the campaign and went on to sign with the Arizona Cardinals as a free agent in 2007, where he joined Marcel Shipp, the only player to stand ahead of him on the UMass career rushing lists.

LOU BUSH

HALFBACK • 1931-33

Lou Bush was UMass' first All-American in football and still holds many UMass records nearly 70 years after his last game as an 'Aggie.' Bush was phenomenal in 1931 and 1932, scoring 39 touchdowns over that span, an average of over two per game. In his first year of collegiate football in 1931, Bush led the nation in touchdowns with 20. Bush finished at UMass with 45 touchdowns, before his career was cut short by an early season injury during his senior campaign. Beside setting UMass season (20) and career (45) marks for touchdowns, Bush also shares the game record, twice scoring five touchdowns (vs. Wagner in 1931 and Cooper Union in 1932). One of his five-touchdown performances led UMass to its largest victory ever, a 77-0 thrashing of Wagner in 1931. Bush was inducted as a charter member of the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

TONY CHAMBERS

END • 1951-53

Tony Chambers was a 1952 All-American for UMass, making 36 catches for 455 yards and seven touchdowns. Chambers teamed with Noel Reebenacker on what remains one of the most prolific passing teams in UMass history, and was named All-Yankee Conference and All-New England in addition to his All-America honors. While excelling on offense, Chambers' love was on the defensive end of the field, and he played every snap of every game in the 1952 season. Among Chambers' coaches at UMass were baseball coaching legend (and football end coach) Earl Lorden and line coach Chester Gladchuk. Chambers was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.

LIAM COEN

ASSISTANT COACH • 2014-15

Liam Coen graduated from the University of Massachusetts in 2008 holding nearly every passing record, including all career marks for a QB. Coen became the 21st quarterback in FCS history with 10,000 career passing yards in the win over Bryant on Oct. 25, 2008. He finished his UMass days first in passing yards (11,031), passing efficiency (152.92), completion percentage (63.9), touchdown passes (90), completions (830) and attempts (1,303). Among all-time FCS quarterbacks, Coen's 11,031 yards ranks 18th and his 90 touchdown throws stands 20th. Coen led UMass to two conference titles in 2006 and 2007, with postseason NCAA berths in both seasons, including an appearance in the 2006 NCAA championship game. Coen was named a three-time all-conference selection and he was a 2007 and 2008 Walter Payton Award candidate. He spent two seasons as the UMass football quarterbacks coach from 2014-15 while he also served as the co-passing game coordinator during 2015.

BRIAN CORCORAN

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1991-94

Brian Corcoran was named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned second team All-America honors in 1994. He was a two-time All-Yankee Conference First Team selection after leading UMass in sacks as a junior and senior. Corcoran finished his career ranked third on the school's all-time career sack list with 30. When the ice hockey program at UMass was reinstated in 1993-94, Corcoran made the team as a walk-on defenseman. He played three professional seasons in the American Hockey League for the Baltimore Bandits and the Hershey Bears. Corcoran was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team in 1996.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

BERNIE DALLAS

LINEBACKER • 1963, 1965

Enthusiasm, unlimited energy, leadership and constant optimism made Bernie Dallas a great athlete and man. Dallas was a two-year letterwinner in football for UMass and earned All-Yankee Conference First Team and All-New England honors. He also served as team captain during his senior season. As a sophomore, Dallas played offensive center and defensive linebacker and was a sparkplug on the undefeated 8-0-1 team that captured the school's first outright Yankee Conference football title. Following his UMass career, Dallas went on to play professionally for the Philadelphia Bulldogs. An automobile accident took Dallas' life on April 29, 1968, but the Dallas Memorial Mall across from the East side of McGuirk Stadium keeps his name and spirit alive. Dallas was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1971.

BILL DURKIN

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1989-93

Bill Durkin was a first team All-America selection in 1993, when he anchored an offensive line unit which helped UMass post a then-school-record 3,261 rushing yards on the season. Durkin was a two-time All-Yankee Conference First Team pick in 1992 and 1993 while serving as team co-captain in each campaign. He went on to play professionally in the Canadian Football League and the World League of American Football (NFL Europe). Durkin was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team in 1996.

FREDERICK "FRITZ" ELLERT

HALFBACK • 1927-29

Frederick "Fritz" Ellert was a three-year letterwinner for coach Charles McGeock's Massachusetts Aggies, earning a spot on the 1929 All-New England Team. Ellert caught a touchdown pass from Ken McKittrick to upset Bates 6-0 in 1928. He also had a 95-yard touchdown run in the season finale against Tufts, a school record for the longest run from scrimmage that stood until 1996. Upon completion of his collegiate athletic career, Ellert became a member of the faculty at UMass. He also coached the men's basketball team for three years (1930-1931, 1932-1933, 1940-1941), posting an 18-16 (.529) mark during this time. He retired from his faculty post in 1970 and was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1971.

VIC FUSIA

HEAD COACH • 1961-70

Vic Fusia was the head coach from 1961 through 1970 and led UMass to five Yankee Conference championships. His Redmen had their top season in 1964, when he guided them to their first-ever postseason appearance — the 1964 Tangerine Bowl, where UMass lost a heartbreaker to East Carolina, 14-13. Fusia compiled a 59-32-2 record as head coach and is still the winningest coach in UMass history, 43 years after retiring. He also had an incredible 41-7-1 mark in Yankee Conference games, with his .854 winning percentage in league games standing as the second-best mark in conference history. Fusia produced some of the most outstanding players ever at UMass, including NFL stars Greg Landry and Milt Morin. He also directed the stingiest defense in UMass history in 1963, when Fusia's troops allowed only one touchdown the entire season and a total of only 12 points in nine games. Fusia's teams were always competitive, and nothing illustrates that better than this amazing fact — in 10 seasons at the helm at UMass and over 40 Yankee Conference games, only once did one of his teams lose a conference game by more than seven points. A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Fusia passed away in 1991. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998.

HAROLD "KID" GORE

QUARTERBACK • 1911-12

COACH • 1919-27

Harold "Kid" Gore was a two-year letterwinner at quarterback for the UMass football team and went on to become the first full-time Aggie football coach in 1919. Gore compiled a 33-32-5 (.507) record. His 33 wins still rank as the eighth-best total in UMass history. Gore went on to reinstate the men's basketball and baseball programs to varsity status. He later compiled an 85-53 overall mark while coaching the basketball team for 11 years, the second-longest tenure of any basketball coach in school history. Gore was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

EMORY GRAYSON

END • 1914-16

Emory Grayson was one of the most versatile athletes in UMass history. He won eight letters in football, basketball and baseball, while also competing in hockey and track. Grayson played as a backup halfback during his freshman year, alternating between the backfield and the end position. In his junior year, he played in the first game on the new Alumni Field, where Whitmore Administration Building now stands, and helped power Massachusetts Agricultural College to a 26-0 win over Colby. He went on to serve as team captain in his senior season. Grayson was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

RENE INGOGLIA

RUNNING BACK • 1992-95

Rene Ingoglia finished his collegiate career as one of the greatest running backs in UMass history. A two-time all-America selection (1994 and 1995), he became the school and Yankee Conference's all-time leading rusher with 4,624 career yards. In all, Ingoglia completed his four years with 10 UMass school records and two Yankee Conference marks to his credit. He became the first UMass player to average more than 100 yards per game rushing over a career at 112.8. Ingoglia posted 21 career 100+ yard games, three career 200+ yard performances and outrushed the entire opposing team 18 times. He also finished second on the all-time Division I-AA career rushing touchdown list (54, one shy of record), fourth among non-kickers on the all-time I-AA scoring list (332), fifth for I-AA rushing yards and 11th in career rushing yards per game. An All-Yankee Conference First Team selection as a senior in 1995, Ingoglia was one of a handful of Division I-AA players chosen to participate in the 1996 Hula Bowl All-Star Classic. During his junior season, he rushed for a then-Yankee Conference and school single-game record 313 yards against Rhode Island. Ingoglia was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team, announced in June, 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007.

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

SHANNON JAMES

DEFENSIVE BACK • 2002-05

Shannon James was a two-time first team All-American in 2004 and 2005. He was honored as the Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year in 2004. James was a superior safety as he set the UMass record for career interceptions with 20. During his junior and seniors seasons, James was the career active leader in interception for all NCAA divisions. He tied the school record for pick-offs in a season with eight in 2004. James also finished as the seventh all-time leading tackler in UMass history with 341. He stands fourth in solo stops with 253. James was invited to Baltimore Ravens training camp in 2006 and starred with the Calgary Stampeders (CFL) from 2006-09. He currently plays for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

BRUCE KIMBALL

OFFENSIVE GUARD • 1975-78

Bruce Kimball was a two-time first team All-America selection on the offensive line for the Minutemen. At his right offensive guard position, Kimball anchored a UMass line that helped the Minutemen rush for over 3,000 yards in 1978 - a school record at the time - on their way to the Division I-AA national championship game. Three different players on the squad rushed for over 500 yards, including Dennis Dent with 1,139. Kimball played a couple of seasons in the Canadian Football League and went on to play for both the New York Giants and the Washington Redskins, playing in Super Bowl XVIII with the Redskins in 1984. One of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team, announced in June, 1996. Kimball was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

GREG LANDRY

QUARTERBACK • 1965-67

Greg Landry is one of the greatest quarterbacks in UMass history. Behind his golden arm and running ability, UMass won two Yankee Conference Beanpots in three years. Landry led the team in passing all three years, and led in rushing and scoring in 1965 and 1967. Landry's quarterback efficiency rating of 145.4 in 1965 is the fifth-best mark in school history to date. He also shared the single-game mark for highest completion percentage (.800). Landry went on to be a successful pro player, spending 14 years in the NFL with the Detroit Lions and the Baltimore Colts, including a season as an All-Pro for Detroit in 1971, when he started for the NFC in the Pro Bowl. Landry also had a stint with the Chicago Blitz in the now-defunct USFL. Landry later served as an assistant coach for his former team, the Detroit Lions, after spending several years on the coaching staff at the University of Illinois. He was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears when they won Super Bowl XX. Landry was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team, announced in June of 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.

JOE LOJKO

QUARTERBACK • 1931-33

UMass went 19-6-1 while Joe Lojko was the starting quarterback for Massachusetts State College's single-wing offensive attack that ranked among the best in New England. In addition to playing football for three years, Lojko earned three letters in basketball and two in baseball. He served as team captain of the 1933-1934 basketball team that compiled a 12-0 record, the only major New England school to ever have an undefeated basketball season. His game-winning basket against Amherst College helped preserve the unblemished record. Lojko died in a tragic automobile accident on April 27, 1934, in South Deerfield, Mass., less than two months from his graduation day. Lojko was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1970.

DICK MACPHERSON

HEAD COACH • 1971-77

Dick MacPherson took over the helm of the Minutemen from Vic Fusia in 1971, and proceeded to lead UMass to four Yankee Conference championships during his seven-year tenure. Between 1971 and 1977, MacPherson compiled a 45-27-1 record and led UMass to its only postseason bowl victory. MacPherson's 1972 squad, featuring receivers Tim Berra and Steve Schubert, and Peil Pennington at quarterback, defeated the University of California-Davis, 35-14, in the 1972 Boardwalk Bowl. His squads also posted a 28-8-1 mark in Yankee Conference games, with his .778 league winning percentage ranking as the fifth-best in conference history. After leaving UMass, MacPherson went on to a successful tour with Syracuse (1981-1990), leading the Orangemen to five postseason bowls, including his undefeated 1987 squad's Sugar Bowl appearance. He also had a two-year stint as head coach of the New England Patriots (1991-1992). He was inducted in the UMass Hall of Fame in 2004.

ED MCALENEY

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1972-75

Ed McAleney earned first team all-America honors from his defensive end spot in 1975. He was also a three-time first team All-Yankee Conference selection during his career with UMass. In his freshman campaign, McAleney was a member of the 1972 squad that downed California-Davis, 35-14, at the Boardwalk Bowl. McAleney was also a two-time captain for the Minutemen in 1974 and 1975. Following his collegiate career, McAleney spent seven seasons with the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League (1977-1983). McAleney was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team in 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003.

BOB MEERS

END • 1963-65

Bob Meers was a three-year letterwinner in football, earning All-Yankee Conference and All-New England honors in each of his three seasons. By the time he left UMass, Meers held school marks for career (82) and single-season receptions (39), shared the record for most receptions in a game (nine) and ranked second in receiving yards in a game (146), career receiving yards (1,104), single-season receiving yards per game (58.9) and career receiving yards per game (40.9). A tri-captain of the 1965 team, Meers was a seventh-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 1966 NFL Draft. Meers was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

MILT MORIN

END • 1963-65

Milt Morin, an all-American in 1964 and 1965, was one of the most versatile athletes ever to play for UMass. While catching enough passes to place him eighth on the career receiving yards list and setting the record at the time, he also excelled on defense and was the team's placekicker his senior year. In addition to his action on the gridiron, Morin was the New England heavyweight wrestling champion in 1965 and played for Dick Garber on the varsity lacrosse team. Morin was a key part of two Yankee Conference championship teams and saw UMass compile a 23-4-1 record in his three seasons, including a 14-1 Yankee Conference mark. Morin went on to play 10 seasons professionally for the Cleveland Browns between 1966 and 1975 and played in three Pro Bowls (1966, 1968 and 1969). He is eighth in Browns' all-time history with 4,208 receiving yards. Morin was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1970.

GARRY PEARSON

RUNNING BACK • 1979-82

Garry Pearson was a two-time first team all-American (1981 and 1982) for the Minutemen and helped UMass to three Yankee Conference titles in his four seasons. He set new standards for running backs at UMass in his four-year tenure. Spending only three seasons in the backfield, Pearson graduated as the school's career leader in rushing (3,859) and all-purpose (5,277) yardage. During his freshman year, Pearson was used almost exclusively to return kicks, before becoming a starting running back as a sophomore. Pearson capped off his UMass career in spectacular fashion, rushing for a then-record 288 yards against American International College in his final collegiate game. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

BOB PICKETT

HEAD COACH • 1978-83

In his first season as a head coach in 1978, Bob Pickett led UMass to a berth in the first-ever NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game. UMass lost to Florida A&M, 35-28 at the Pioneer Bowl in Wichita Falls, Texas, but on the way to the championship game, the Minutemen routed previously unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Nevada-Reno on its home turf. For his accomplishments that season, Pickett was named coach of the year by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston and the ECAC, while the team earned the Lambert Cup (given to the best Division I-AA team in the East) and was named ECAC Team of the Year. In his six-year tour as head coach, Pickett compiled a 36-28 record and led the Minutemen to four Yankee Conference titles. Pickett went on to serve as an associate athletic director at UMass, retiring from that position in the summer of 1997. He also served as a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Minuteman football games from 1998-2003.

NOEL REEBENACKER

QUARTERBACK • 1951-53

Noel Reebenacker was a walk-on quarterback who earned three varsity letters in football. He was tabbed All-Yankee Conference in 1952 and named to the Little All-America Team in 1953. Upon the completion of his UMass career, Reebenacker had established school single-season records for passing yards (1,865), completions (132), touchdown passes (20) and total offensive yards (2,080), in addition to recording the longest kickoff return in school history with a 102-yard scamper against Springfield College in 1951. Reebenacker later worked at UMass as the backfield coach for two years under coach Charles O'Rourke. Reebenacker was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

KHARI SAMUEL

LINEBACKER • 1995-98

Khari Samuel was a first team all-American and Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team selection who helped lead the Minutemen to their first-ever national championship in 1998. He was one of the best all-around defensive players in school history, able to stuff the run, put pressure on the quarterback and drop off into coverage. Samuel finished his career as UMass' all-time leader in solo tackles with 328, while ranking second in total tackles (495), fourth in assisted tackles (167) and seventh in sacks (19). As a senior in 1998, he recorded the second-highest single-season total in school history for solo tackles (113), while ranking third on the list for total tackles (160). Samuel also served as a team captain in 1997 and 1998 and received the 1998 George "Bulger" Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston as the best Division I defensive player in New England. Following the completion of his collegiate career, Samuel was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fifth round of the 1999 NFL Draft.

MARCEL SHIPP

RUNNING BACK • 1997-2000

One of the top running backs in the history of Division I-AA football, Marcel Shipp was a two-time first team all-America selection for the Minutemen in 1998 and 1999. Shipp rushed for 200 or more yards in a single game seven times during his UMass career, including a 244-yard, three-touchdown performance to lead the Minutemen over Georgia Southern in the 1998 national championship game. Only the 12th player in school history to earn first team all-conference honors three times, Shipp finished his career as the all-time leading rusher in the history of the Atlantic 10 Conference with 6,250 yards. He also set UMass career records for carries (1,215), rushing yards per game (130.2), rushing touchdowns (58), all-purpose yards (7,759), all-purpose plays (1,365), all-purpose yards per game (161.1), points scored (378) and touchdowns scored (63). Shipp spent seven seasons as part of the Arizona Cardinals organization from 2001-07. He enters his first season as the UMass football running backs coach in 2014.

MARK WHIPPLE

HEAD COACH • 1998-2003, 2014-PRESENT

Mark Whipple led UMass to its first NCAA championship in football, capturing the title in his first season with the Minutemen in 1998. Whipple went on to coach UMass for six seasons compiling a 49-26 overall record for a 65.3 win percentage. Whipple coached UMass to three Atlantic 10 Championships, winning crowns in 1998, 1999 and 2003. He left Amherst in 2004 to serve as quarterbacks coach with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, where they won Super Bowl XL in 2006. He went on to serve as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (2007-08) before returning to the college ranks at Miami (Fla.) for two seasons from 2009-10. Whipple was the quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12. He made his return to the University of Massachusetts as the football program's head coach prior to the 2014 campaign and begins his third consecutive campaign and ninth overall at the helm of the program in 2016.
