BOSTON COLLEGE LEADS 111 26-5

The Eagles and the Minutemen

- BC holds a 20-5 series advantage over Massachusetts and has won the last eight meetings, the latest coming in 2014.
- The Eagles are also 10-2 when playing on the Minutemen's home field, but the two teams have not battled at Amherst since 1978, when UMass earned a 27-0 shutout over the Eagles.
- The last time BC rushed for over 500 yards was against the Minutemen. The Eagles put up 518 rushing yards in a 59-14 victory on Nov. 24, 1973.

BC-UMass Ties

- BC defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Jim Reid was the head coach at Massachusetts from 1986 to 1991. He compiled a 36-29-1 record and guided the Minutemen to three Yankee Conference titles. He was named the Yankee Conference Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990.
- Reid got his start at UMass as a graduate assistant in 1973. In 13 seasons as an assistant, he helped the Minutemen win six Yankee Conference titles. He coached outside linebackers in 1975 and defensive backs in 1976 and 1977 and from 1978-85, he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Battle of the Bay State

- Twenty-two players on the Boston College roster hail from Massachusetts, the most from any one state.
- Thirty-six players on UMass's roster claim Massachusetts as their home state.
- There are seven common high schools between the Boston College and Massachusetts rosters: Boston College High, Brockton, Catholic Memorial, Everett, Franklin, St. John's Shrewsbury and Doherty Memorial in Worcester.
- Sophomore DB Taj-Amir Torres hails from UMass's home territory, Amherst, Mass., and attended Amherst-Pelham High School where he earned MassLive First-Team All-Western Mass honors in 2014 and 2013 and a spot on the MassLive "Super 24" Team as a senior. He was also a three-time Massachusetts state champion in the 100m dash and one-time 200m dash state champion, earning Massachusetts Gatorade Player of the Year as a track & field athlete as a sophomore and New Hampshire Gazette Track & Field Player of the Year as a senior.

LAST MEETING

*AUG. 30, 2014 111 W, 36-7
FOXBORO, MASS.*

FOXBORO, Mass. - The Boston College football team earned a 30-7 victory over Massachusetts on Aug. 30 at Gillette Stadium in the first game of the 2014 season. Quarterback Tyler Murphy recorded rushing and passing touchdowns while throwing for 173 yards and rushing for a career-high 118 more.

Josh Bordner made his first appearance as a wide receiver after a three-year stint as backup quarterback to Chase Rettig. He caught his first career touchdown, a 43-yard pass from Murphy, and recorded 81 yards on four catches on the day in his first career start.

The Eagles amassed 511 total yards of offense while the defense allowed just 202. BC collected 338 yards on the ground while allowing just 55. The Eagles held the ball for 42:11, collected 27 first downs.

The Minutemen only mustered nine for the entire game. The last time the Eagles recorded over 500 yards in total offense and over 300 in rushing was on Nov. 9, 2013 at New Mexico State.

The Eagles connected on two field goal attempts in the first half to take a 6-0 lead into halftime. After turning the ball over on downs on their first offensive set, linebacker Josh Keyes sacked UMass QB Blake Frohnapfel for a loss of eight yards on third-and-12 at the BC 43-yard line to give BC the ball back.

Starting on the BC two-yard line, the Eagles drove 71 yards in just under five minutes to put the first points of the game on the board. On third-and-three, Murphy rushed for a career-long 31 yards to put the Eagles at their own 40. Sophomore running back Tyler Rouse led the charge, carrying the ball three times for 27 yards to set up senior kicker/punter Alex Howell for a 44-yard attempt to second the second quarter. The points were the first of Howell's career.

BC went up, 6-0, on a second field goal after the Eagle defense forced a quick three-and-out. The offense took over with 13 minutes to go and drove the field 72 yards. Senior Joey Launcefors recorded his first career field goal, a 28-yard attempt, to increase the Eagles' lead.

With just over two minutes to play in the first half, UMass defensive back Randall Jette intercepted Murphy's pass at the 39-yard line and returned it 20 yards. Frohnapfel was called for intentional grounding as defensive back Justin Simmons put the pressure on. The Minutemen were not able to recover as the BC defense allowed just a four-yard pass on third-and-25. Kicker Blake Lucas missed a 47-yard attempt to kept UMass scoreless.

Running back Myles Willis scored the first touchdown of the season to open the second half. On the 13-play, 75-yard drive that lasted just over six minutes, running back Sherman Alston registered his first career run - 14-yard run - to give the Eagles a first down at the UMass 23-yard line. After six straight rushes and a pass interference call in the endzone on the Minutemen, Willis forced his way into the endzone with a one-yard run to give the Eagles a 13-0 lead with 8:49 to play in the third.

After the defense forced another three-and-out, Murphy made it 20-0 on a one-yard run of his own. It capped off a 10-play, 52-yard drive that lasted 4:47.

Massachusetts got on the board when Frohnapfel connected with Tajae Sharpe on a 77-yard pass with just under 1:29 to play in the third quarter.

It didn't take long for the Eagles to retaliate. On their next possession, Murphy hit Bordner for a 43-yard pass to increase the lead to 27-7 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Simmons intercepted Frohnapfel's pass and returned it 20 yards, giving the Eagles the ball at UMass's 35-yard line with 12:29 to go in the game. Launcefors connected on a 21-yard field-goal attempt to push the lead, 30-7.

New Year New Team

- The 2015 season did not go Boston College's way, as they went 3-9 without an Atlantic Coast Conference win, but the Eagles are ready for a new football with a clean slate.
- While the defense was first in the country for the majority of the season, the offense was inexperienced and suffered many key injuries - including at the quarterback and running back positions - which held them to one of the lowest outputs in the nation.
- Game one showed immediate improvement as the Eagles racked up 320 offensive yards against ACC opponent Georgia Tech, the most in a conference games since racking up 332 against Louisville on Nov. 8, 2014.
- The defense returned 17 of the top 21 tacklers from a year ago. Junior LB Connor Strachan led all defenders in the first game with eight solo stops and four tackles for loss - tying Georgia Tech's total.
- On offense, the running back core looks to be healthy and hopes to return to form, like when they averaged 254.7 yards per game in 2014, ranking 14th in the nation and second in the ACC. Redshirt sophomore RB Jon Hilliman led the way against the Yellow Jackets with his fifth career 100-yard rushing game, notching 102 yards with a career-long, 73-yard TD run.
- After much of the offensive line learned on the field, it returns as an experienced unit in 2016. Graduate transfer QB Patrick Towles joined the Eagles and immediately made an impact, throwing for 144 yards against the Ramblin Wreck and scoring a rushing touchdown.

A Fixture on Top

- In 2015, the Eagles allowed 254.3 yards per game, tops in the nation. They maintained the No. 1 spot for 12 of the 13 weeks of the 2015 regular season.
- The Eagles also allowed just 82.8 rushing yards per game - second in the country - and just six rushing touchdowns - good for first in the nation.
- The BC D surrendered the fourth-fewest points in 2015: just 15.3 per game. The 19 total touchdowns allowed were the fewest overall for the year.
- In the opening game against Georgia Tech, the Eagles allowed a score on the opening drive for the first time in nine games. The last time it occurred in the 14-0 loss to then sixth-ranked Florida State on Sept. 18, 2015.

Leading the Way

- Seniors Truman Gutapfel, John Johnson, Tyler Rouse and Myles Willis were voted team captains of the 2016 Boston College football team, head coach Steve Addazio announced before the first week of the season.

Game of Inches

- Boston College has lost its last nine games, but six have been by three points or less.

Opening in Ireland

- Boston College started the 2016 campaign in Dublin, hosting Georgia Tech in Aviva Stadium on Sept. 3 in the Aer Lingus College Football Classic.
- The Yellow Jackets defeated the Eagles, 17-14, scoring a touchdown with 35 seconds left in the game.
- It was the third time in six years an American college football game took place in Ireland and the second BC played on the Emerald Isle.
- In 1988, the Eagles defeated Army, 38-24, in front of 45,000 fans in the old Lansdowne Road Stadium in the Emerald Isle Classic. Aviva Stadium was built on the site of Lansdowne Road Stadium.
- It was the first American football game played in Europe. In 2013, members of the 1988 team, including head coach Jack Bicknell reunited for the silver anniversary of the game and were honored on the field at Alumni Stadium during the BC-Army game.
- During the game, former quarterback Mark Kampa was honored. He was the MVP in 1988, completing 15 of his 20 passes for 194 yards, while also recording a rushing touchdown.

- A number of Eagles were named to award watch lists and preseason teams before the start of the 2016 season.

Eaglets

- 64 of 99 members of the Boston College football team are freshmen, redshirt freshmen, sophomores or redshirt sophomores.
- There are only 14 seniors and three graduate students on the team.
- Only six seniors or graduates are on the offensive side of the ball, tying the Eagles for the sixth fewest in the nation.
- In 2015, the Eagles tied for seventh in the country for playing the most freshmen, as 26 (16 true, 10 redshirt) saw time on the field.

Bletzer Brothers

- Freshman LB Curt Bletzer joins sophomore Kevin Bletzer at The Heights, reuniting the Medfield, Mass., pair who both attended Catholic Memorial High School.
- The Bletzers are one of 76 pairs of brothers from 48 schools in the nation.
- They are also one of 28 pairs who play the same position.

Welcome to The Heights

- Fourth-year head coach Steve Addazio welcomed five new assistant coaches to Boston College during the offseason.
- Jim Reid returned to The Heights as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He brought more than 40 years of coaching experience to The Heights. The Medford, Mass., native was the defensive coordinator for the Eagles under Dan Henning in 1994. BC went 7-4-1 and ranked 11th in the nation, defeated Kansas State in the Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day. The Eagles recorded 47 sacks that season, a school record that still stands today.
- Scot Loeffler, BC's new offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, is working with Addazio for a third time in his career, after calling the plays at Temple and coaching QBs at Florida. Loeffler has tutored notable signal callers such as four-time Superbowl Champion Tom Brady, Heisman Trophy winner and BCS National Champion Tim Tebow, and second-round draft pick Chad Henne in his 18-year coaching career.

- Forty-three-year coaching veteran Paul Pasqualoni joined the BC staff as the defensive line coach. He was the head coach at the Connecticut (2011-13), Syracuse (1991-2004) and Western Connecticut State (1982-86), compiling a 151-94-1 record, with 15 winning seasons, five conference titles and a 6-3 bowl record. Addazio got his start in coaching on Pasqualoni's Western Connecticut State coaching staff as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 1985.
- Former BC wide receiver Rich Gunnell returned to The Heights to coach his former position group. He joined the Eagles after almost a two-year stint as the head coach at Marian High School in Framingham, Mass. Gunnell was a four-year letter winner, served as team co-captain and earned the team's most valuable player award and All-ACC honorable mention accolades. He ranks on four BC career record lists.
- Anthony Campanile rounded out the BC staff as the defensive backs coach. He was a member of the Rutgers coaching staff for the last four years, working with wide receivers, tight ends and on the defensive side of the ball. He played safety and linebacker for the Scarlet Knights from 2001 to 2004.
- In other coaching news, Justin Frye was promoted to run game coordinator and will continue to coach the offensive line. Al Washington moved to special teams coordinator and works with the defensive line. Brian White now oversees the running backs and Frank Leonard was promoted to assistant head coach.

Nowhere to Go but Up

- After the Eagles ranked No. 1 in total defense and held numerous top-10 positions in defensive categories in 2015, the entire staff moved to defensive coordinator positions.
- Don Brown, former defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, is now the defensive coordinator at Michigan. Defensive line coach Ben Albert is the associate defensive coordinator at Duke. Defensive backs coach Kevin Lempa is now the DC at Hawaii and brought former graduate assistant and BC linebacker Sean Duggan with him to coach his former position.

Returning to Where it Started

- There are currently six members of the BC football staff who graduated from Boston College, including two coaches.
- Al Washington and Rich Gunnell both played football and earned degrees from BC.
- Current graduate assistants Ian White and Ty-Meer Brown are BC men; White earned his undergraduate degree from BC, while Brown transferred to BC for the 2014 season after completing his undergraduate work at Connecticut.
- Barry Gallup, the associate athletics director for football and alumni relations, has been at Boston College for 37 years, while former linebacker Ricky Brown, the Eagles' recruiting specialist/quality control, returned to The Heights for his first season.

BC Picked to Finish Fifth in Atlantic

- Boston College was picked to finish fifth in the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the 2016 season.
- The Eagles received 441 points from the 144 media members in attendance at the 2016 ACC Football Kickoff at the Westin Charlotte.
- Clemson was chosen as the favorite to claim the ACC title. North Carolina was picked to repeat as the Coastal Division winner. Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson was voted to retain his ACC Player of the Year title.

Towles Takes Over

- Graduate QB Patrick Towles made his Boston College debut on Sept. 3, getting the start against Georgia Tech in Ireland.
- Towles finished the game throwing 11-for-17 with 144 passing yards, one interception and a six-yard rushing touchdown.
- Towles comes to The Heights after earning his undergraduate degree from Kentucky. He started 22 games for the Wildcats and played in 28 in three years, amassing 5,099 passing yards (427-for-759) with 24 touchdowns and 24 interceptions. He also ran for 353 yards and scored 11 rushing touchdowns. In 2014, Towles accounted for more than 3,000 yards total offense in 2014, becoming one of three players in UK history to top the 3,000-yard mark in first season as a starter. Towles threw 159 consecutive passes without an interception, the second-longest streak in school history. Last season, he accounted for nine TDs through the air and five more on the ground, racking up 2,148 passing yards with 14 interceptions and a 56.1 completion percentage.

King of the Hillman

- Redshirt sophomore RB Jon Hillman made his first start of 2016 impactful after missing the second half of last season with an injury.
- Hillman averaged six yards per carry as he lead the Eagles rushing core in attempts (17) and total yards (102) against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3.
- Hillman recorded his fifth 100-yard game while scoring the first touchdown of the season, rushing for a career-long 73 yards on the play.

Running Backs Ready

- In 2014, the running back corps ranked 14th in the nation and second in the Atlantic Coast Conference, averaging 254.7 yards on the ground per game.
- Current redshirt sophomore Jon Hillman earned All-ACC third-team honors, was named the ECAC Co-Rookie of the Year and broke BC's rookie record for rushing attempts (210). He also tied for ninth in school record books for single-season rushing touchdowns (13).
- But things changed in 2015 when Hillman's season ended early with an injury, after recording a team season-high 119 yards against Northern Illinois (Sept. 26) and current seniors Myles Willis and Tyler Rouse battled nagging injuries for the entire year.
- The group - along with sophomore Richard Wilson and DB-turned RB redshirt freshman Davon Jones - look to have a turnaround season as they are all back and healthy.

New Look Receivers

- The Eagles featured a deeper wide receiving core against the Yellow jackets on the season opener on Sept. 3 as they caught 10 passes for 140 yards.
- Junior Charlie Callinan set a career-high in receptions with four catches for 53 yards leading the Eagle wideouts in both categories.
- Sophomore Jeff Smith and redshirt freshman Chris Garrison both recorded their first career receptions as Smith transitioned from quarterback and had three catches for 26 yards. Garrison missed his true freshman season due to injury; he caught one pass for 26 yards.

Operation O-Line

- The BC offensive line has a year of experience under its belt after getting thrown into the fire in 2015.
- Heading into last season, the Eagles did not return a starter from the 2014 team, in which BC boasted an O-Line of five graduates that combined for 134 career starts.
- The Eagles were one of two offensive lines in the country in which all five linemen did not start a game last season.
- In the season opener against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3 in Dublin, Ireland, the O-Line allowed just one sack while the Eagles recorded 176 yards on the ground.
- Junior Jon Baker returns to center after starting the final nine games as the ball snapper in 2015. As a true freshman, he played 10 games as the backup left guard.
- Sophomore Chris Lindstrom was thrown into the fire, getting nine starts and playing all 12 games, mainly at right guard. He added 38 pounds between the start of his freshman year and his sophomore season.
- Classmate Aaron Monteiro started the final five games at left tackle while senior

Jim Cashman will be the veteran on the line, entering the year with 23 games played and seven career starts.

The Eagles also get experience with graduate transfer Jimmy Lowery, who comes to The Heights from Eastern Illinois. Sophomore Sam Schmal, who played in seven games, will be a significant contributor as well.

EAGLES DEFENSE

Looking to Stay on Top

- The Boston College defense has been one of the best in the nation since head coach Steve Addazio took over the program in 2014.
- In 2014, the Eagles ranked 11th overall in total defense, allowing 324.2 yards per game, giving up 94.5 rushing yards per game, second best in the nation. They also surrendered just 21.3 points per game, 21st in the country.
- In 2015, the BC defense was first in the nation in total defense, allowing just 254.3 yards per game. The rush defense was second again (83.2 yards/game), while the pass defense was sixth (171.2 yards/game). The Eagles allowed just 15.3 points per game, fourth best in the country.
- On Sept. 12, 2015, BC allowed just 11 yards overall to Howard, a school record.
- The Eagles have held opponents to under 100 rushing yards 14 times in the last 25 games, including seven games in 2015.
- BC has allowed the second-fewest 100-yard rushers - 22 - since 2005. Alabama is first with 16.

Return of the D

- Last year's No. 1 defense returns 17 of the top 21 tacklers.
- In the secondary, eight of nine top tacklers return after starting two true freshmen in 2015. The ninth was Justin Simmons, the Eagles' top draft pick, who went in the third round to the Denver Broncos.
- BC also lost LB Steven Daniels (seventh round - Washington Redskins) and DLs Connor Wujciak (free agent - Philadelphia Eagles) and Mehdi Abdesmad (free agent - Tennessee Titans), but return junior LB Connor Strachan, who was second only to Daniels in tackles (75), senior DB John Johnson, who was second on the team with three interceptions and senior LB Matt Milano, who tied for 21st in the nation with 17.5 tackles for a loss. Junior DL Harold Landry also returns to a stacked defense after leading the team with three forced fumbles.

The Brick Wall of Boston

- In the first game of the 2016 season, the Eagles defense tied or broke six career highs against Georgia Tech.
- Three players broke their career high in tackles: senior DT Truman Gutapfel (8), junior LB Ty Scwabb (9) and sophomore DE Zach Allen (3). Two other players also tied career high; sophomore DB William Harris (5) and sophomore DE Wyatt Ray (3).
- Junior LB Connor Strachan recorded a career-high four tackles for a loss. His four TFLs matched the total of the Yellow Jackets' entire defense.

They Are Called Rushmen

- BC led the nation in 2015 9.5 tackles for loss per game and was second overall with 114 total. The 463 yards lost was fourth.
- The Eagles have racked up eight double-digit TFL in a single game in the last two years, including five last season.
- They also notched seven sacks for a loss of 62 yards in the loss to Louisville on Oct. 24, 2015. The total was the second most in program history. BC recorded eight sacks three different times in the past, most recently in 2005 against NC State.
- In game one against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3, the Eagles recorded eight tackles for a loss of 28 yards, good to tie for 34th in the nation.

Marked Improvement

- Since head coach Steve Addazio took over the program in 2014, the Eagles have vastly improved their numbers of sacks and tackles for loss.
- In 2012, BC recorded six sacks (last in the nation) and 45 tackles for a loss of 147 yards. In just one year, the number jumped to 36 sacks and 88 tackles for a loss of 371 yards in 2013.
- In 2014, BC recorded 33 sacks and 89 tackles for a loss of 351 yards.
- 2015 was the best year to date as the Eagles notched 34 sacks, tying for 24th in the nation, for a loss of 263 yards, good for eighth overall.

Each Year, It Gets Better

- The overall defense also saw improvement from the 2014 season to 2015.
- The Eagles ranked 18th in the nation allowing six fewer points per game in one season and were eighth overall allowing 69.9 fewer yards per game.
- Georgia State led the way in improvement in the points category, allowing 15 fewer per game, while Illinois gave up 105.6 yards per game.

EAGLES SPECIAL TEAMS

The Kicking Game

- Sophomore Colton Lichtenberg returns to The Heights as the Eagles' kicker for the 2016 season.
- In the first game against Georgia Tech, Lichtenberg had troubling connecting, missing a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter and having a 43-yarder blocked.
- It was the first time one of Lichtenberg's kicks was blocked in his BC career. In fact, it was the first time the Eagles had a field goal blocked since Oct. 29, 2011 at Maryland.
- Lichtenberg was 2-for-2 on extra-point attempts.
- He is also in charge of kickoff duty. He averaged 60.7 yards on three kicks in game one.
- Last season, he was 3-for-6 in field-goal attempts on the year and a perfect 6-for-6 kicking the extra point. He connected on longs of 43 yards in the final two games of the season - against Notre Dame (Nov. 21) at Fenway Park and at Syracuse (Nov. 28). He averaged 60.1 yards per game on kickoffs with four touch backs.

Mr. Walker's Welcome

- Junior Mike Knoll took over the punting duties in the first game of the season against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3.
- Alex Howell was the Eagles' punter for the last two years, ranking first in BC record books with 92 punts in 2015, tying for first with 12 attempts in a game (in 2015) and tying for third with a 42.1 career average.
- In his first game as the BC punter, Knoll punted three times for a 35.7 yard average, but pinned the Yellow Jackets at the one-yard line with a perfect punt in the second quarter.

Mr. Walker's Welcome

- Current sophomore Michael Walker came to The Heights as a defensive back but moved to wide receiver before the first game of the 2015 season.
- He added kickoff returner to his repertoire. He led the Eagles with 24 returns for 686 yards, averaging 28.6 yards per game, fourth in the ACC.
- He notched a career-long, 67-yard return against No. 5/4 Notre Dame (Nov. 21), which was the longest of the season for the Eagles.

Tyler of All Trades

- Senior RB Tyler Rouse returned two punts for 36 yards - including a run of 22 yards - in the season opener against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3.
- The 18.0-yard average is second in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- It is the first time in his career that Rouse is returning punts.
- He returned one kick in 2015.

Matt on the Block

- Senior LB Matt Milano blocked his first career punt in the Eagles' victory over Howard on Sept. 12, 2015. He then did it again in the victory over Northern Illinois on Sept. 26.
- They marked the first time a BC player blocked a punt since Manuel Asprilla did so at Maryland on Nov. 23, 2013.

EAGLE SIDE NOTES

Willis Represents BC, ACC

- Senior RB Myles Willis was chosen to represent the Atlantic Coast Conference on the NCAA's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).
- He is one of two football players on the panel and the only one from an FBS school.
- Willis is the marketing chair on Boston College's SAAC board.

Johnson Named McGillis Scholarship Recipient

- Senior DB John Johnson was named the recipient of the Jay McGillis Memorial Scholarship at the annual spring game, also named in honor of the former BC student-athlete. McGillis' family was on hand before the game to present Johnson with the award.
- The award is given annually since 1993 to a Boston College defensive back who best exemplifies the personal qualities of team dedication and leadership by example, an extraordinary competitive spirit, and personal concern for family friends and teammates. McGillis, a starting defensive back for Boston College, passed away from Leukemia in 1992. The Eagles' spring game is played in his honor each year.
- Before the start of the 2016 campaign, Johnson was voted a team captain.

Eagles Greats' Jerseys to be Retired

- Boston College will retire the jerseys of quarterback Matt Ryan and linebacker Luke Kuechly in separate ceremonies during the 2016 season.
- Kuechly's jersey will be retired at the Eagles' Oct. 22 game vs. Syracuse while Ryan will be honored at the Nov. 19 game vs. Connecticut.
- Kuechly became the most decorated defensive player in BC football history after sweeping every major postseason award in 2012, including the Dick Burkus Award, the Lott IMPACT Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Award and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The two-time consensus first-team All-American finished his three-year collegiate career led the nation for two consecutive seasons in total tackles, tackles per game, solo tackles and solo tackles per game. He finished his collegiate career with a school-record 532 tackles and ranks among the NCAA career leaders in several defensive statistical categories. Kuechly recorded at least 10 tackles in 34 of 38 games, including a streak of 33 straight games between 2009-11. He was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round (ninth overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft.
- Ryan, nicknamed "Matty Ice," capped an illustrious Boston College career by being selected third overall by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL draft, becoming BC's highest draft pick ever in any sport. During his standout senior season in 2007, he led the team to an 8-0 start and No. 2 national ranking en route to an 11-3 record (best since 1940), the ACC Atlantic Division championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the ACC Championship game. He was the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (given to the nation's top senior quarterback), the Manning Award (given to the nation's top quarterback), was ACC Player of the Year and finished seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting. He set the BC school record for single-season passing yards.

- Previously, Boston College has retired the numbers of Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Doug Flutie and Outland Trophy winner Mike Ruth and the jerseys of eight other standouts: Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Lou Montgomery, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

Eagles in the BC Hall

- Former Boston College football players William Green and Paul Zukauskas will be inducted in the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame as two of the nine-member 2016 class.
- They will be inducted in a ceremony on Friday, Sept. 23 and be recognized at halftime of the Eagles' football game against Wagner on Sept. 24.
- William Green was a consensus first-team All-American in 2001 as he ran for 1,559 yards and scored 15 touchdowns. A native of Atlantic City, N.J., Green arrived at BC as a much heralded recruit and lived up to his potential as he scored four touchdowns as a rookie and was used as a short-yardage back. He started only two games in his second season but rushed for 1,164 yards with 14 touchdowns. He was the second-leading rusher in the conference and 20th in the country. In Green's final season, he rushed for 100 or more yards in nine of 10 games and 200 yards in two games. He is second on the all-time list for rushing touchdowns with 22. He ranks fourth for most TDs in a single season (15) and is the sixth-leading rusher in program history. He was drafted 16th by the Cleveland Browns in 2001.
- Zukauskas, a native of Weymouth, Mass., was the first true freshman to start on the offensive line in 20 years when he arrived on campus in 1997. He proceeded to start all but one game in the next four seasons. As a senior, he led an offensive line that allowed only six sacks the entire season and earned a third-place ranking by the conference for total offense. Zukauskas was a first-team All-America selection by American Football Coaches Association, second team Walter Camp All-American, first team All-Big East and Outland Trophy Watch List in 2000. Zukauskas was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 2001 and played professionally for five years.

ACC Network Hits the Air

- ESPN and the Atlantic Coast Conference will launch the ACC Network – a comprehensive linear and digital network,
- The 20-year partnership will provide ACC fans unprecedented access to live events via a comprehensive, multi-platform network.
- It also provides for the extension of the conference's existing rights agreement with ESPN to 2036. ESPN is the ACC's exclusive worldwide rights holder.
- Beginning in August 2016, fans can access more than 600 exclusive live events from across the conference via a digital live-events channel 'ACC Network Extra', immediately available to users who have access to ESPN3 via WatchESPN and the ESPN app, with that number growing each year.
- More than 1,300 ACC events will be distributed across the platforms in 2019 when the linear network launches.
