UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND TRENDS

FLOAT LIKE A BUTTERFLY

Redshirt junior running back Bilal Ally averaged 5.0 or more yards per carry in three of his four seasons with the team, including 2016, 2017 and 2019.

Ally owns 958 career rushing yards over 198 attempts, an average of 4.8 per carry. Prior to the 2019 season, Ally primarily played as a reserve running back during Marquis Young's tenure with the program (2015-18).

Over 67 carries through five games played at running back in 2019, Ally posted 353 rushing yards for an average of 5.3 per carry.

RUN IT IN THE CLUTCH

Redshirt junior running back Bilal Ally carried the ball on all nine snaps during the final drive of UMass' 37-29 win over the visiting Akron Zips.

He picked up 78 yards during the drive as he advanced the Minutemen from their 25 yard line to the Akron two yard line and sapped the final five minutes, 24 seconds from the clock.

His nine carries included runs of 26, 13 and 17 yards while he collected four first downs. He averaged 8.7 yards per carry on the drive.

BACK IN THE SADDLE

Redshirt senior quarterback Michael Curtis started against Akron and went 17-for-31 with 173 yards passing, two touchdowns and one interception. He also carried the ball 10 times for 69 yards and another score.

His touchdown passes went to Samuel Emilus (six yards, 1st quarter) and Sadiq Palmer (eight yards, 3rd quarter). He ran for a two-yard score in the third quarter as well.

The game was Curtis' second start as a Minuteman. He previously started due to injuries to Ross Comis and Andrew Ford against Charlotte during the 2018 season.

LIKE MIKE

Redshirt junior quarterback Mike Fallon saw his first game action against Akron (9/28) and went 2-of-2 for 40 yards passing in place of Michael Curtis, who left briefly due to a leg cramp. His receptions went to Taylor Edwards (six yards) and Josiah Johnson (34 yards).

Fallon is the son of 1976 and '77 letterman quarterback Mike Fallon. The elder Fallon remains in the UMass record book as the program's all-time leader for single-game passer efficiency (256.3 vs. Youngstown State, 1977) and is one of only seven Minutemen to throw for five touchdowns in a single game (YSU, '77).

DO THE CAM-CAM

Junior wide receiver/running back Cam Roberson has 193 rushing yards on 51 carries this season (3.8 ypc). He was originally recruited as a wide receiver, but switched his primary position to running back during fall preseason practice to add depth to the position. He is second only to starting running back Bilal Ally in rushing yards and carries through five games.

YOUNG BUCKS

UMass football is tied for the FBS lead in total true-freshmen to start a game this season with seven, alongside only Alabama. Massachusetts had two rookies make starts on offense (tied-fourth most) and five do so on defense (tied-first).

Roberson took his third carry of the game through the middle of the Scarlet Knights' defense with 9:33 to go in the first and raced 39 yards for the score.

Ally found paydirt from 33 yards out with two seconds remaining in the opening quarter for his touchdown.

It is the first game of the program's FBS era where UMass scored on multiple runs of 30 or more yards.

AND THEY WERE ROOMMATES

Redshirt senior housemates Kyle Horn and Randall West connected on a 20-yard touchdown play during the first quarter at Rutgers. It marked the first touchdown pass of West's career and Horn's first collegiate touchdown catch.

KEEP THE LEGS CHURNING

UMass averaged 5.4 yards per carry during the season-opener at Rutgers with 183 yards gained on the ground over 34 attempts.

Redshirt junior running back Bilal Ally led the way with his 6.2 yards per carry average on 68 gained over 11 attempts. He did not lose yardage during any of his 11 carries.

Junior wide receiver/running back Cam Roberson added 51 yards over nine carries while Kevin Brown (7-32-4.6) and Randall West (5-30-6.0) contributed to the team's success as well

GO WEST YOUNG MAN

Redshirt senior quarterback Randall West, rotated into the lineup for an injured Andrew Brito in the final minutes of the third quarter of the game against Coastal Carolina.

West went 8-of-11 for 120 yards and two touchdowns during his three drives played, which included the series that ended with the final whistle.

For the two touchdown passes, West connected with Brennon Dingle and Zak Simon for 30 and 23 yards out, respectively.

O-C, TRIPLE O-C

Freshman wide receiver Jermaine "OC" Johnson, Jr., leads UMass in receptions through five games with 18 catches. He has covered 99 yards with his 18 catches and scored his first touchdown of the season on a three-yard grab in the second quarter at Charlotte (9/14).

BRITO FILTER

Junior quarterback Andrew Brito made his first start at quarterback in the game at Charlotte and finished 18-of-27 for 127 yards with one touchdown thrown. He connected with freshman wide receiver Jermaine "OC" Johnson, Jr., on the touchdown pass, which was Johnson Jr.'s first collegiate TD.

BILLY TOUCHDOWNS

Redshirt junior running back Bilal Ally had two touchdowns in the game against Coastal Carolina on runs of five yards each. It marked his second career multi-touchdown game, as Ally previously posted three scores in a 55-20 win over Georgia Southern on Sat., Oct. 21, 2017.

His two-score game against the Chanticleers gave Ally three rushing touchdowns on the season. It matched his single-season career high for touchdowns scored (2017).

DOWNTOWN KEVIN BROWN

Freshman running back Kevin Brown recorded his first collegiate touchdown against Southern Illinois (9/7) on a two-yard run in the second quarter. It gave UMass a 13-10 lead with one minute, 26 seconds left in the second quarter.

In three appearances as a reserve running back, Brown owns 27 carries for 119 yards for an average of 4.4 per rush.

His assisted tackle numbers are also tops on the team while he is second in solo takedowns. He ranks 15 total tackles ahead of the next active Minuteman in the category (Martin Mangram - 24).

Following the fifth game of the year, McCubrey already surpassed his single-season career best in the category (35 in 12 games, 2018).

GROUP EFFORT

UMass recorded 9.0 TFLs for 28 yards lost in the game against Southern Illinois (9/7), split up across nine players. Graduate student linebacker Jarvis Miller and redshirt freshman defensive lineman Johnathon Weir had 1.5 TFLs each at the forefront of the group.

COLE WORLD

Junior linebacker Cole McCubrey led UMass or tied for the lead in tackles during three of the opening five games of the season. He posted 10 at Rutgers (8/30), notched a career-high 11 against Southern Illinois (9/7), had eight at Charlotte (9/14) and five versus Akron (9/28).

McCubrey ranked tied for second on the team in tackles against Coastal Carolina (9/21) and tied for third versus Akron (9/28).

His previous one-game best with eight stops at FIU on Sept. 15, 2018.

In addition to his 11 tackles, McCubrey forced a fumble and broke up a pass against the Salukis.

He tied with position-mate Tyris Lebeau for the team lead in tackles at Charlotte.

PICKS FOR POINTS

Isaiah Rodgers has three career interceptions returned for touchdowns, earned at No. 21 Mississippi State (11/4/17), at Ohio (9/29/18) and against Akron (9/28/19).

It makes the senior cornerback the only player in the history of the program with three interceptions returned for touchdowns and one of only four with multiple as Tyler Holmes (2008-11), Anton McKenzie (2000-03) and Jerard White (1996-99) each had two.

Rodgers is the only active Minutemen with an interception returned for a touchdown. In the history of the program, 36 different players have returned at least one interception for a touchdown, including Rodgers.

MR. RODGERS' NEIGHBORHOOD

Isaiah Rodgers had four total passes defended in the game at Rutgers including two interceptions and a pair of pass breakups. His four passes defended mark a single-game career high for the senior.

Rodgers posted one breakup each in the second and third quarters while he hauled in his pickoffs during the third and fourth quarters.

For his career, Rodgers owns 28 pass breakup (tied for fifth-most all-time) and 38 passes defended (seventh-most).

OFFENSE FROM DEFENSE

Isaiah Rodgers owns three career interceptions returned for touchdowns among his 10 career pickoffs. He is one of only four players in program history with multiple interceptions returned for touchdowns, joined by Tyler Holmes (2008-11), Anton McKenzie (2000-03) and Jerard White (1996-99), who each had two.

Rodgers is the only player in program history with three interceptions returned for touchdowns.

Rodgers accomplished the feat for the first time as a sophomore in 2017 when he returned a pass by No. 21 Mississippi State's starting quarterback Nick Fitzgerald for six.

Rodgers added his second career touchdown when he stepped in front of a Nathan Rourke pass and brought it back 55 yards at Ohio on Sept. 29, 2018.

He notched his third in the win over Akron on Sept. 29, 2019.

NO-FLY ZONE

UMass hauled in three interceptions during the season-opening game at Rutgers. It marked the second consecutive season-opener with as many interceptions and third since the beginning of the 2018 season with three or more.

GIVING THEM THE BYCZ-NESS

Now-junior Jake Byczko led all defensive linemen on the team with 55 tackles (17 solo, 38 assisted), including 5.0 TFLs and 3.5 sacks, two fumbles forced and as many recoveries.

Byczko is currently tied for third overall and first among defensive linemen in tackles through five games of the 2019 season. He has 24 total, including eight solo stops and 16 assisted tackles.

Byczko completed his rookie campaign in 2017 with 23 tackles, the most by a rookie on the team. He had three pass breakups and 2.0 TFLs. As a freshman two seasons ago, Byczko posted a career-high 10 tackles during extended time on the defensive line against Old Dominion. He was active throughout the game, with two tackles each in the first, second and third quarters before he had four in the fourth. The Massachusetts native entered the game with two total tackles in his prior two appearances.

TOPPING 10 TACKLES A GAME

Four current players have at least one game with 10 or more tackles during their UMass careers, with junior defensive lineman Jake Byczko, junior linebacker Cole McCubrey, junior linebacker Chinedu Ogbonna and senior cornerback Isaiah Rodgers combining for five such performances.

Jake Byczko (2017): Old Dominion (10)

Chinedu Ogbonna (2018): at Georgia Southern (10)

Isaiah Rodgers (2018): Ohio (13)

Cole McCubrey (2019): at Rutgers (10)

Cole McCubrey (2019): Southern Illinois (11)

JUST DON'T KICK TO HIM

Senior Isaiah Rodgers returned a punt 42 yards for a touchdown at Charlotte, the first punt return touchdown of the program's FBS era. D.J. Adeoba was the last Minuteman to return a punt for a touchdown when he did so on a blocked punt at Kansas State on Sept. 6, 2009.

COOP COMES THROUGH

Then-redshirt junior kicker Cooper Garcia went 8-for-8 on extra points and made both field goal attempts for a career-high 14 points in the team's 62-59 triple overtime win over Liberty on Nov. 3.

His eight made extra points rank as the most converted in a single game in program history. His eight attempts are tied for the most tried in one game.

Garcia's two made field goals came during clutch situations. He converted through the South endzone uprights from 28 yards out as time expired in the second quarter, which tied the game at 24-all. Garcia later added the 22-yard game-winner into the North endzone during the third overtime.

RIGHT DOWN THE MIDDLE

Redshirt senior kicker Cooper Garcia went 3-for-3 on field goals of 30, 34 and 38 yards, and was 4-of-4 on extra points during the 37-29 win over Akron (9/28). He won Lou Groza Award Star of the Week for his efforts in the win.

EXTRA POINT EXTRAORDINAIRE

Redshirt senior kicker Cooper Garcia is 52-for-53 all-time on PAT extra point kick attempts, including 37-of-37 in 2018 and 15-for-16 in 2019. His .981 conversion rate places him second all-time behind only Marco Gabrielli (46-46, 1.000, 1989-90) and a single one-thousandth of a percentage point ahead of Chris Koeplin (99-101, .980, 2006-07).

RODGERS RUNS IT OUT

Isaiah Rodgers reset the program record for total kick return yards by a Minuteman in a career during the fourth game of the season. Through five games, Rodgers owns 1,494 yards for an average of 24.90 yards per attempt.

Rodgers finished his true freshman season in 2016 with the fifth-most kick return yards in one campaign in program history, with 733 over 31 returns (23.65).

Rodgers set the team record for kick returns in one game with nine against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 2016. He also etched his name in the record book for the fifth-most returns and ninth-highest yards per return average in a single-season in program history.

DEGREES IN-HAND

Four Minutemen enter the 2019 season with their undergraduate degree requirements completed, including Jordan Adams, Jarvis Miller, Martin Mangram and Randall West. Adams (West Virginia) and Miller (Penn State) earned theirs prior to transferring in as graduate students.

I KNOW HIM FROM WAY BACK

UMass head coach Walt Bell and assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach Luke Paschall are one of only four pairs of high school classmates serving as the head coach and coordinator of an FBS program.

The duo attended Dickson County High School in Dickson, Tennessee, and graduated in 2002. Additionally, Bell and Paschall played together at Middle Tennessee State (2002-05) and have coached on the same sideline at Oklahoma State (2009), North Carolina (2012-13) and Arkansas State (2014-15).

Bell and Paschall consider each other as brothers after Paschall permanently moved in to Bell and his parents' home during his youth.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

UMass employs one alumnus in a full-time coach role in 2019 in safeties coach Jason Tudryn. Tudryn is a 1996 graduate of the University of Massachusetts and is the son of the late-Frank Tudryn, who coached Northampton (Mass.) High School to four Massachusetts Super Bowl appearances in 29 seasons.

One additional staff member earned a degree from UMass in Chief of Staff Matt Gordon.

WALT BELL PROBABLY STILL GETS CARDED FOR R-RATED MOVIES

UMass head coach Walt Bell is among the youngest head coaches in the country. At 35 years old entering the season, he is fourth-youngest in the nation behind only Sean Lewis (Kent State; 33), Jake Spavital (Texas State; 34) and Will Healy (Charlotte; 34). In addition to coaching against Healy, Bell will square off with another young football mind in Akron's Tom Arth (38; ninth).

DREAMS TO (NFL) REALITIES

UMass football alumnus Andy Isabella was drafted in the second round with the 62nd overall selection by the Arizona Cardinals during the 2019 NFL Draft. This made Isabella the highest draft selection of the team's FBS history (2012-present) and the second-highest in the modern era of the game.

Isabella was a nine-time all-American in 2018 and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver regardless of position each year. UMass was one of only two FBS programs to offer Isabella a scholarship ahead of his freshman year in 2015.

Isabella was one of three UMass newcomers to the NFL during the 2019 preseason, alongside Marken Michel (2011-15) and Marquis Young (2015-18). Michel was with the Philadelphia Eagles after he signed a futures contract in January. Young was signed as an undrafted free agent in August after he previously attended the Colts' rookie mini-camp in May.

A GROUNDBREAKING ATHLETIC TRAINER

UMass football is one of 11 programs across FBS with a female primary athletic trainer. Director of Sports Medicine and Head Athletic Trainer Jennifer Brodeur is in her 13th year with the department and 10th as the primary care-giver for football. In recognition of her success, Brodeur was named the National Athletic Trainers' Association Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer in 2019 as well as the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in June, 2013. She was promoted to Head Athletic Trainer in August, 2017, and is one of only four females in her position as the leader of the sports medicine office as well as the football team's primary athletic trainer.

Two-year starting quarterback Todd Bankhead guided UMass to its 1998 Division I-AA National Championship victory as one of the most prolific passers in school history. A classic pocket passer with great arm speed, Bankhead owns many of the top-10 single-game passing marks in school history. He set single-season records for passing yards (3,919), completions (303), attempts (525) and touchdowns (34) during the 1998 season, then broke the mark for completion percentage (.635) in 1999.

Bankhead finished his career with school-record totals of 7,018 passing yards, 561 completions, 931 attempts, 51 touchdowns and a .603 completion percentage. A third-team all-America selection during the 1998 season, Bankhead also earned All-Atlantic 10 honors in 1998 and 1999.

FIRST SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS // MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE '05

University of Massachusetts Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford announced the hiring of Walt Bell as the football program's head coach on Dec. 3, 2018.

"I am immensely excited for the opportunity to serve as the University of Massachusetts football head coach, and for my wife, Maria, and I to join the UMass family," Bell said. "I cannot thank Ryan Bamford, Chancellor Subbaswamy and the entire university administration enough for the opportunity to guide this program. I look forward to getting right to work with the young men on our team."

Considered one of the most dynamic young recruiters and offensive minds in college football, Bell brings 12 years of FBS coaching experience to the Minuteman program, including five seasons as the offensive coordinator at three institutions: Arkansas State (2014-15), Maryland (2016-17) and Florida State (2018).

"We are excited to welcome Walt Bell and his wife Maria to the UMass family," Bamford said. "Walt is a fantastic coach who has tremendous credentials as an offensive coordinator, recruiter and developer of talent. It is Walt's genuine interest in supporting the personal growth of his student-athletes, evidenced by his lasting relationships as a mentor and leader the last 10 years - that really resonated with us. He is a teacher, a motivator and an ambassador and we are fortunate to have him lead our Minutemen in to the future."

Bell brings a wealth of expertise gathered across seven FBS programs to Amherst with him. In addition to his tenures at Arkansas State, Florida State and Maryland, Bell also worked with the North Carolina (2012-13), Southern Miss (2010-11), Oklahoma State (2009) and Memphis (2007-08) programs prior to his arrival at UMass.

Most recently, Bell oversaw the Florida State passing offense that ranked second in the ACC for passing yards per game (270.1) and 28th overall in the country during the 2018 season.

In addition to his offensive coordinator duties at Florida State, Bell guided the growth of Seminoles' quarterback Deondre Francois, who continued his ascent up the Seminole record book rankings with a strong 2018 season that included 2,731 passing yards and 15 touchdown passes after Francois missed all but one game in 2017 due to injury.

Bell previously served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Maryland during the 2016 and 2017 seasons, and at Arkansas State during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

While at Maryland, Bell managed the Terrapins offense as it rotated through four quarterbacks due to injuries, and was one of just two teams in the nation with three or more wins by three different starting quarterbacks. Despite the rotation, Bell's offense ranked in the top-20 nationally for fewest turnovers (14), which tied the Maryland team record.

Bell's offensive system showcased the capabilities of Big Ten Receiver of the Year DJ Moore who broke the single-season school record with 80 catches, a conference-high average of 6.7 per game. Moore also led the Big Ten with 1,033 receiving yards in 2017, as he became only the program's third 1,000-yard receiver. Following the season, the Carolina Panthers selected Moore in the first round of the NFL Draft.

In 2016, Bell made his mark on Maryland's offense immediately as the Terrapins scored a program-record 173 points in the first four games of the season. Maryland's 2,594 rushing yards created the program's seventh 2,500-yard rushing season ever and first since 2003, while the 26 rushing touchdowns were the most in College Park since 2007. Quarterback Perry Hills led the Big Ten in completion percentage and ranked second in the conference in passing efficiency.

Bell's tenure at Maryland followed two spectacular seasons as the offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State. During his 26 games in charge of the offense, the Red Wolves recorded 11 games with more than 500 yards of total offense, 18 with 400 or more yards and 24 above the 300-yard threshold. The 2015 team ranked 12th in the country with an average of 40.0 points per game and had eight All-Sun Belt selections, including offensive linemen Jemar Clark and Colton Jackson and wide receiver J.D. McKissic on the first team.

With Bell overseeing the offense in 2014, Arkansas State broke single-season school records with 6,194 yards of total offense, an average of 476.5 yards per game, 1,024 plays, 477 points and 65 touchdowns. The team ranked 18th in the country in scoring offense as it averaged 36.7 points per game, was 20th in total offense and earned 25th with an average of 216.4 rushing yards per game.

Bell spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at North Carolina. During his time in Chapel Hill, he helped the offense break 35 school records. The 2013 team averaged 432.4 yards of total offense, including 277.4 yards per game through the air. In 2012, North Carolina won the ACC's Coastal Division crown and totaled 14th in the nation with an average of 485.6 yards of total offense per game. As the team's recruiting coordinator, he helped pull in two classes ranked in the top-five of the ACC.

Tight end Eric Ebron was a standout performer for the Tar Heels under Bell's guidance, and developed into the 10th overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. Ebron twice earned All-ACC acclaim and was a first-team all-American in 2013 after he piled up 973 receiving yards, the most by a tight end in ACC history. Prior to that, Ebron tripled his freshman year output and finished with 40 receptions for 625 yards as a sophomore in 2012.

Bell was at Southern Miss in 2010 and 2011, and served as the Golden Eagles' offensive graduate assistant in 2010 before he was promoted to wide receivers coach for the 2011 season.

The 2011 Southern Miss team won the Conference USA title and the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, and finished with a school-record 12 wins behind an offense that ranked 14th in the country in scoring and 17th in total offense. In 2010, the offense recorded a then-school-record 5,894 yards and broke the school record with an average of 453.38 yards per game.

Prior to his time at Southern Miss, Bell spent the 2009 season as a quality control coach at Oklahoma State. That year, the Cowboys finished 9-4 and played in the Cotton Bowl. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Memphis in 2007 and 2008, when he helped the Tigers to back-to-back bowl appearances.

Bell, a native of Dickson, Tennessee, was a four-year letterman at Middle Tennessee State. He played wide receiver for the Blue Raiders and earned two degrees, as he graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's in criminal justice administration and again in 2006 with a master's in sport management.
