UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND TRENDS

ALWAYS RELIABLE

Andy Isabella averaged 141.5 receiving yards per game in 2018 via a FBS-leading 1,698 gained over 12 games as a starting wide receiver. He was the only player in the nation with more than 1,500 receiving yards or 120.0 receiving yards per game.

The next-highest totals were Tylan Wallace's (Oklahoma State) 1,491 total receiving yards and Antoine Wesley's (Texas Tech) 117.5 receiving yards per game.

His triple-digit outings in 2018 included vs. Duquesne (131), USF (191), Ohio (198), USF (191), Coastal Carolina (174), a program record set against Liberty (303) and at No. 5 Georgia (219).

Isabella had at least four receptions in each contest, including twice resetting his single-game career-best with 13 against USF before he had 15 at No. 5 Georgia. His consistency placed Isabella third nationally for receptions per game (8.5).

STEADY TARGET

Andy Isabella sported a consecutive games multi-catch streak of 36 games through the end of his UMass career in 2018. He ranked second in the nation for most consecutive games with two or more receptions behind only Virginia's Olamide Zaccheaus (38) at the time his senior year came to a close.

In that span, Isabella was held to two receptions only once, when he had two for 88 yards and a touchdown against Georgia Southern while resting the majority of the second half thanks to the team's large lead.

THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD

Andy Isabella ranked among the nation's per-game leaders in reception and receiving yards, as well as total touchdowns catches. Isabella finished the year first in receiving yards (141.5), third in receptions (8.5) and tied for sixth in touchdown receptions (13).

Isabella is one of only two players in the nation highlighted among the top six in all three categories, alongside Preston Williams (Colorado State). Williams is listed at 6-foot-4 and 210 pounds while Isabella 5-foot-10, 190 pounds.

LOCATION: AN ENDZONE NEAR YOU

Two Minutemen put their names in the top-10 in program history for touchdowns before graduating in 2018, including Andy Isabella (WR) and Marquis Young (RB).

Isabella capped his career with 30 career touchdown catches, the second-most all-time at UMass. He is second only to Adrian Zullo (32; 1998-2002).

Young ended with 29 career rushing TDs, the seventh-most all-time at UMass, tied with Jonathan Hernandez in sixth (29; 2008-11).

Young (32) and Isabella (32) also stand among the program leaders in career touchdowns scored, as they finished tied for sixth. Isabella split his between 30 receiving and two rushing. Young's total broke down to 29 rushing, two receiving and one kick return.

LUCKY NUMBER 777

UMass posted a program-record 777 total offensive yards against the Liberty defense, which included 540 passing and 237 rushing.

The prior mark was 670 vs. Georgia Southern on Oct. 21, 2017.

Massachusetts had a program-record 708 yards of offense through the end of regulation against Liberty and added 69 more during the three overtime periods.

COMIS DOUSED THE FLAMES

Redshirt senior quarterback Ross Comis bombarded the Liberty defense to the tune of 540 passing yards (29-of-44; 65.9 percent). It marked the second-most passing yards in a single game in program history behind only former teammate Blake Frohnapfel's 589 versus Bowling Green on Sept. 27, 2014.

Comis threw four touchdown passes - two to Andy Isabella during regulation and two more to Samuel Emilus during overtime. He also ran for two scores, which made him only the third UMass quarterback in the last 20 season with multiple rushing and passing touchdowns in the same game.

Excluding the three overtime periods, Comis' numbers stood at 26-of-41 (63.4 percent) with 508 passing yards and two touchdowns while he also had two scores on the ground. His 508 passing yards would have still ranked second all-time without the additional overtime efforts.

STARTING QB TRIO

Massachusetts started three different quarterbacks in at least game over the 12 contests of the 2018 season, including seven by redshirt senior Andrew Ford, four for his classmate Ross Comis and another by redshirt junior Michael Curtis. Curtis returns in 2019 as the only quarterback on the roster with a start.

OH THESE BABIES LOVE THE SLOP

The Massachusetts offense put up 444 total yards in the driving rain during the 22-17 win at UConn.

Quarterback Ross Comis totaled 197 yards passing (8-of-15) with two touchdowns and 63 yards rushing (12 carries).

Running back Marquis Young finished with 148 yards rushing over 26 carries and had the eventual game-winning touchdown with less than four minutes to go.

Wide receiver Andy Isabella posted four catches totaling 78 yards and one for a touchdown. His position mate Zak Simon added a 67-yard TD catch.

CURTIS' TIME TO SHINE

Redshirt senior quarterback Michael Curtis stepped into the starting role against Charlotte as a redshirt junior in 2018 and finished the day 12-of-19 passing for 189 yards and two touchdown passes alongside nine rushes for 35 yards and two more scores.

Curtis became the first UMass quarterback with two scoring runs and two touchdown passes in the same game since Todd Bankhead (1998-99) did so against Northwestern State in the NCAA I-AA Semifinal Round on Dec. 12, 1998.

Ross Comis accomplished the feat later in the 2018 season during the three-overtime win against Liberty when he tossed four touchdown passes and ran for two more.

Curtis assumed the starting duties for the game after No. 1 QB Andrew Ford and Comis (No. 2 QB) suffered injuries during the game at FIU on Sept. 15, 2018.

YOUNG GOT PURPOSEFUL

Marquis Young eclipsed 1,000 all-purpose yards in all four of his seasons at Massachusetts.

2015 • Freshman: 1,031 (960 rush, 71 receiving)

2016 • Sophomore: 1,045 (898 rushing, 147 receiving)

2017 • Junior: 1,503 (982 rushing, 280 receiving, 241 kick return)

2018 • Senior: 1,610 (778 rushing, 659 kick return, 173 receiving)

TOTAL: 5,189 (3,618 rushing, 900 kick return, 671 receiving)

It equated to 85.9 per game as a freshman, 87.1 as a sophomore, 125.3 during his junior campaign and 146.4 per appearance in 2018. His per game total in 2018 ranked 10th in FBS and made UMass the only team the nation with multiple competitors in the top 10 (Andy Isabella, 152.7).

Young finished fourth in UMass history for career all-purpose yards and first among all FBS players.

EXPRESS LANE OFFENSE

Massachusetts had 13 scoring drives lasting 60 seconds or less over the 12 games of the 2018 season. It ranked UMass tied for eighth in the country alongside Houston and UCF. Utah State led FBS with 25 such drives, followed by Alabama (22). Clemson (16), Illinois (16), Memphis (15) and Syracuse (14) ranked ahead of the Minutemen.

GIGANTICALLY SLIM AND TRIM

Ray Thomas-Ishman stands 6-foot-5, 320 pounds entering his senior season. Three years ago, as a true-freshman starter, Thomas weighed in at as much as 400 pounds while holding down the left guard spot for 11 of his 12 appearances.

Thomas started at left tackle in one appearance during 2016, at Old Dominion, and continued his role at LT in 2017 and 2018, weighing in at 350 pounds in 2017 before slimming down to 320 before the 2018 season.

Despite losing 85 pounds since his arrival, Thomas is only five pounds lighter than the heaviest linemen (Michael Sullivan; 325 pounds).

AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLERS

Massachusetts had 12 interceptions during the 2018 season, and spread the pickoffs across seven players. It included three by Brice McAllister and Lee Moses, two from Isaiah Rodgers and one each by Jarell Addo, Bryton Barr, Bakhari Goodson and Chinedu Ogbonna.

DEFENSE MOVES IT DOWNFIELD

Massachusetts brought back its 12 interceptions for 252 return yards, already the fifth-most interception return yards in program history and the most in a single FBS season for the team. The 252 return yards came on seven of the team's 12 interceptions, an average of 36.0 yards per return.

It makes the senior cornerback one of only four players in the history of the program with multiple interceptions returned for touchdowns, joined by Tyler Holmes (2008-11), Anton McKenzie (2000-03) and Jerard White (1996-99).

Rodgers is the only active Minutemen with an interception returned for a touchdown. In the history of the program, 36 different players have returned at least one interception for a touchdown, including Rodgers.

THE CURIOUS CASE OF BRYTON BARR

Graduate student middle linebacker Bryton Barr finished tied for fourth among all NCAA FBS players in tackles per game (12.3) and sixth for total tackles (147) during the 12-game season. Barr had at least 10 tackles in 10 of the last 11 games, including at Boston College (17), at Georgia Southern (10), at FIU (15), Charlotte (21), at Ohio (11), USF (10), Coastal Carolina (11), Liberty (12), BYU (14) and No. 5 Georgia (10).

During his 24 games with UMass, Barr averaged 10.5 tackles per game (252 total). He made at least 10 stops in 15 outings. Barr wrapped up his seventh season of collegiate football and second with the Minutemen in 2018. He was a member of the Towson football program from 2012-16 before he transferred to Massachusetts ahead of the 2017 campaign. Barr went 1,091 consecutive days between games played due to back-to-back-to-back injuries at Towson spanning from Sept. 8, 2013 through Sept. 3, 2016.

OFFENSE FROM DEFENSE

Isaiah Rodgers owns two career interceptions returned for touchdowns among his seven career pickoffs. He is one of only four players in program history with multiple interceptions returned for touchdowns, joined by Tyler Holmes (2008-11), Anton McKenzie (2000-03) and Jerard White (1996-99), who each had two.

Rodgers accomplished the feat for the first time as a sophomore in 2017 when he returned a pass by No. 21 Mississippi State's starting quarterback Nick Fitzgerald for six. Rodgers added his second career touchdown when he stepped in front of a Nathan Rourke pass and brought it back 55 yards at Ohio on Sept. 29, 2018.

GIVING THEM THE BYCZ-NESS

Junior Jake Byczko led all defensive linemen on the team with 55 tackles (17 solo, 38 assisted), including 5.0 TFLs and 3.5 sacks, two fumbles forced and as many recoveries.

Byczko completed his rookie campaign in 2017 with 23 tackles, the most by a rookie on the team. He had three pass breakups and 2.0 TFLs. As a freshman one season ago, Byczko posted a career-high 10 tackles during extended time on the defensive line against Old Dominion. He was active throughout the game, with two tackles each in the first, second and third quarters before he had four in the fourth. The Massachusetts native entered the game with two total tackles in his prior two appearances.

TOPPING 10 TACKLES A GAME

Three current players have at least one game with 10 or more tackles during their UMass careers, with junior defensive lineman Jake Byczko, junior linebacker Chinedu Ogbonna and senior cornerback Isaiah Rodgers combining for four such performances.

Jake Byczko (2017): Old Dominion (10)

Chinedu Ogbonna (2018): at Georgia Southern (10)

Isaiah Rodgers (2018): Ohio (13)

DEGREES IN-HAND

Four Minutemen enter the 2019 season with their undergraduate degree requirements completed, including Jordan Adams, Jarvis Miller, Martin Mangram and Randall West. Adams (West Virginia) and Miller (Penn State) earned theirs prior to transferring in as graduate students.

RODGERS RUNS IT OUT

Through the completion of his junior season, Isaiah Rodgers stands in ninth on the all-time list for total kick return yards by a Minuteman with 1,043 yards for an average of 22.7 yards per attempt.

Rodgers finished his true freshman season in 2016 with the fifth-most kick return yards in one campaign in program history, with 733 over 31 returns (23.6). Rodgers set the team record for kick returns in one game with nine against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 2016. He also etched his name in the record book for the fifth-most returns and ninth-highest yards per return average in a single-season in program history.

COOP COMES THROUGH

Junior kicker Cooper Garcia went 8-for-8 on extra points and made both field goal attempts for a career-high 14 points in the team's 62-59 triple overtime win over Liberty on Nov. 3.

His eight made extra points rank as the most converted in a single game in program history. His eight attempts are tied for the most tried in one game.

Garcia's two made field goals came during clutch situations. He converted through the South endzone uprights from 28 yards out as time expired in the second quarter, which tied the game at 24-all. Garcia later added the 22-yard game-winner into the North endzone during the third overtime.

I KNOW HIM FROM WAY BACK

UMass head coach Walt Bell and assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach Luke Paschall are one of only four pairs of high school classmates serving as the head coach and coordinator of an FBS program.

The duo attended Dickson County High School in Dickson, Tennessee, and graduated in 2002. Additionally, Bell and Paschall played together at Middle Tennessee State (2002-05) and have coached on the same sideline at Oklahoma State (2009), North Carolina (2012-13) and Arkansas State (2014-15).

Bell and Paschall consider each other as brothers after Paschall permanently moved in to Bell and his parents' home during his youth.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

UMass employs one alumnus in a full-time coach role in 2019 in safeties coach Jason Tudryn. Tudryn is a 1996 graduate of the University of Massachusetts and is the son of the late-Frank Tudryn, who coached Northampton (Mass.) High School to four Massachusetts Super Bowl appearances in 29 seasons.

WALT BELL PROBABLY STILL GETS CARDED AT R-RATED MOVIES

UMass head coach Walt Bell is among the youngest head coaches in the country. At 35 years old entering the season, he is fourth-youngest in the nation behind only Sean Lewis (Kent State; 33), Jake Spavital (Texas State; 34) and Will Healy (Charlotte; 34). In addition to coaching against Healy, Bell will square off with another young football mind in Akron's Tom Arth (38; ninth).

A GROUNDBREAKING ATHLETIC TRAINER

UMass football is one of 11 programs across FBS with a female primary athletic trainer. Director of Sports Medicine and Head Athletic Trainer Jennifer Brodeur is in her 13th year with the department and 10th as the primary care-giver for football. In recognition of her success, Brodeur was named the National Athletic Trainers' Association Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer in 2019 as well as the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in June, 2013. She was promoted to Head Athletic Trainer in August, 2017, and is one of only four females in her position as the leader of the sports medicine office as well as the football team's primary athletic trainer.

DREAMS TO (NFL) REALITIES

UMass football alumnus Andy Isabella was drafted in the second round with the 62nd overall selection by the Arizona Cardinals during the 2019 NFL Draft. This made Isabella the highest draft selection of the team's FBS history (2012-present) and the second-highest in the modern era of the game.

Isabella was a nine-time all-American in 2018 and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver regardless of position each year. UMass was one of only two FBS programs to offer Isabella a scholarship ahead of his freshman year in 2015.

Isabella is one of three UMass newcomers to the NFL during the 2019 preseason, alongside Marken Michel (2011-15) and Marquis Young (2015-18). Michel is with the Philadelphia Eagles currently after he signed a futures contract in January. Young was signed as an undrafted free agent in August after he previously attended the Colts' rookie mini-camp in May.

FIRST SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS // MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE '05

University of Massachusetts Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford announced the hiring of Walt Bell as the football program's head coach on Dec. 3, 2018.

"I am immensely excited for the opportunity to serve as the University of Massachusetts football head coach, and for my wife, Maria, and I to join the UMass family," Bell said. "I cannot thank Ryan Bamford, Chancellor Subbaswamy and the entire university administration enough for the opportunity to guide this program. I look forward to getting right to work with the young men on our team."

Considered one of the most dynamic young recruiters and offensive minds in college football, Bell brings 12 years of FBS coaching experience to the Minuteman program, including five seasons as the offensive coordinator at three institutions: Arkansas State (2014-15), Maryland (2016-17) and Florida State (2018).

"We are excited to welcome Walt Bell and his wife Maria to the UMass family," Bamford said. "Walt is a fantastic coach who has tremendous credentials as an offensive coordinator, recruiter and developer of talent. It is Walt's genuine interest in supporting the personal growth of his student-athletes, evidenced by his lasting relationships as a mentor and leader the last 10 years – that really resonated with us. He is a teacher, a motivator and an ambassador and we are fortunate to have him lead our Minutemen in to the future."

Bell brings a wealth of expertise gathered across seven FBS programs to Amherst with him. In addition to his tenures at Arkansas State, Florida State and Maryland, Bell also worked with the North Carolina (2012-13), Southern Miss (2010-11), Oklahoma State (2009) and Memphis (2007-08) programs prior to his arrival at UMass.

Most recently, Bell oversaw the Florida State passing offense that ranked second in the ACC for passing yards per game (270.1) and 28th overall in the country during the 2018 season.

In addition to his offensive coordinator duties at Florida State, Bell guided the growth of Seminoles' quarterback Deondre Francois, who continued his ascent up the Seminole record book rankings with a strong 2018 season that included 2,731 passing yards and 15 touchdown passes after Francois missed all but one game in 2017 due to injury.

Bell previously served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Maryland during the 2016 and 2017 seasons, and at Arkansas State during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

While at Maryland, Bell managed the Terrapins offense as it rotated through four quarterbacks due to injuries, and was one of just two teams in the nation with three or more wins by three different starting quarterbacks. Despite the rotation, Bell's offense ranked in the top-20 nationally for fewest turnovers (14), which tied the Maryland team record.

Bell's offensive system showcased the capabilities of Big Ten Receiver of the Year DJ Moore who broke the single-season school record with 80 catches, a conference-high average of 6.7 per game. Moore also led the Big Ten with 1,033 receiving yards in 2017, as he became only the program's third 1,000-yard receiver. Following the season, the Carolina Panthers selected Moore in the first round of the NFL Draft.

In 2016, Bell made his mark on Maryland's offense immediately as the Terrapins scored a program-record 173 points in the first four games of the season. Maryland's 2,594 rushing yards created the program's seventh 2,500-yard rushing season ever and first since 2003, while the 26 rushing touchdowns were the most in College Park since 2007. Quarterback Perry Hills led the Big Ten in completion percentage and ranked second in the conference in passing efficiency.

Bell's tenure at Maryland followed two spectacular seasons as the offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State. During his 26 games in charge of the offense, the Red Wolves recorded 11 games with more than 500 yards of total offense, 18 with 400 or more yards and 24 above the 300-yard threshold. The 2015 team ranked 12th in the country with an average of 40.0 points per game and had eight All-Sun Belt selections, including offensive linemen Jemar Clark and Colton Jackson and wide receiver J.D. McKissic on the first team.

With Bell overseeing the offense in 2014, Arkansas State broke single-season school records with 6,194 yards of total offense, an average of 476.5 yards per game, 1,024 plays, 477 points and 65 touchdowns. The team ranked 18th in the country in scoring offense as it averaged 36.7 points per game, was 20th in total offense and earned 25th with an average of 216.4 rushing yards per game.

Bell spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at North Carolina. During his time in Chapel Hill, he helped the offense break 35 school records. The 2013 team averaged 432.4 yards of total offense, including 277.4 yards per game through the air. In 2012, North Carolina won the ACC's Coastal Division crown and totaled 14th in the nation with an average of 485.6 yards of total offense per game. As the team's recruiting coordinator, he helped pull in two classes ranked in the top-five of the ACC.

Tight end Eric Ebron was a standout performer for the Tar Heels under Bell's guidance, and developed into the 10th overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. Ebron twice earned All-ACC acclaim and was a first-team all-American in 2013 after he piled up 973 receiving yards, the most by a tight end in ACC history. Prior to that, Ebron tripled his freshman year output and finished with 40 receptions for 625 yards as a sophomore in 2012.

Bell was at Southern Miss in 2010 and 2011, and served as the Golden Eagles' offensive graduate assistant in 2010 before he was promoted to wide receivers coach for the 2011 season.

The 2011 Southern Miss team won the Conference USA title and the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, and finished with a school-record 12 wins behind an offense that ranked 14th in the country in scoring and 17th in total offense. In 2010, the offense recorded a then-school-record 5,894 yards and broke the school record with an average of 453.38 yards per game.

Prior to his time at Southern Miss, Bell spent the 2009 season as a quality control coach at Oklahoma State. That year, the Cowboys finished 9-4 and played in the Cotton Bowl. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Memphis in 2007 and 2008, when he helped the Tigers to back-to-back bowl appearances.

Bell, a native of Dickson, Tennessee, was a four-year letterman at Middle Tennessee State. He played wide receiver for the Blue Raiders and earned two degrees, as he graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's in criminal justice administration and again in 2006 with a master's in sport management.
