MEDIA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

MEDIA INFORMATION

- Matt Houde of the UMass Athletic Communications Office will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Massachusetts football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services.
- Any questions about media policies should be directed to Houde at mhoude@umass.edu or (978) 766-2423.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

- Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Walt Bell.
- Photography and videography will only be allowed during the opening 20 minutes of practice on selected practice days. These days are specified in the weekly media availability advisory. Contact Matt Houde at mhoude@umass.edu to be added to the weekly media availability advisory email list.
- Members of the media not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 are kindly asked to wear a mask while on the University of Massachusetts campus.
- Live reporting on team practices, including discussion on formations, plays and injuries via social media channels or any other outlet is not allowed at any time. There is to be no live-tweeting of any practice elements.
- Parties breaking the above media restrictions are subject to credential revocation for the 2021 season.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALING

- Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover University of Massachusetts Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists.
- Internet-based outlets may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Internet-based outlets are expected to adhere to the same media rules and regulations as traditional outlets.
- Members of the media not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 are asked to wear a mask while on the University of Massachusetts campus.
- Single game and season-long credentials for games at McGuirk Alumni Stadium can be requested at UMassAthletics.com/credentials

MEDIA USAGE

- Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at University of Massachusetts Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. These guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

FACILITIES ACCESS FOR MEDIA

- The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless otherwise specified and escorted by a member of the communications staff.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

WARREN P. MCGUIRK ALUMNI STADIUM

With a capacity of 17,000 fans, McGuirk Alumni Stadium has a definite home field advantage for UMass over the years as the Minutemen posted an impressive 185-92-2 (.667) record and 17 of their 22 historic Yankee Conference, Atlantic 10 or CAA Conference titles.

McGuirk received an upgrade alongside the construction of the Martin Jacobson Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex with the installment of new FieldTurf prior to the 2014 season.

In 2008, UMass installed permanent lighting, which led to the second highest all-time single-season average attendance mark of 12,383. The McGuirk Stadium record of 12,811 was set in the NCAA Championship year of 1998.

Playing on the new FieldTurf surface in 2006, UMass set a school record with a perfect 8-0 record at home with a pair of wins at McGuirk Stadium in the NCAA Tournament. The Minutemen beat Lafayette, 35-14 on Nov. 25 in the First Round. Then, playing before the first sell-out since 1973, UMass downed arch-rival New Hampshire, 24-17 on Dec. 2, 2006 in front of 17,000 fans.

Built by the UMass Building Authority at a cost of $1.4 million, and at no cost to the Commonwealth's taxpayers, the structure was designed by the New York firm of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill. On August 27, 1964, the H.P. Madore Company of Southbridge, Mass., began construction on the facility. In May of 1965, the field was blanketed with pure Merion Blue Grass that had been planted by the University's agronomy department four years earlier. The turf was laid on four inches of loam and a 10-inch sand base.

In the summer of 2006 a new FieldTurf surface was laid making the field playable all-year round. Permanent lighting was installed in the summer of 2008.

Alumni Stadium hosted its first game on September 25, 1965, with the Redmen beating AIC, 41-0. The stadium was officially dedicated on October 16, 1965, when UMass defeated Rhode Island 30-7 in a Homecoming contest. On November 3, 1984 — nearly 20 years after the opening of Alumni Stadium — the facility was rededicated in honor of Warren McGuirk, the school's athletic director for 23 years, during whose tenure the stadium was built.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

TEAM CHRONOLOGY THROUGH THE YEARS

Fall, 1878: Francis Codman '80, the "Father of Massachusetts Agricultural College Football," organizes the initial Aggie team, although no games are played.

Nov. 22, 1879: Massachusetts Agricultural College (M.A.C.) plays its first football game, defeating the freshman team from cross-town rival Amherst College, 4-0, on Alumni Field. The game was the only one of the season for the Aggies, giving them their first undefeated season.

Nov. 13, 1880: The first road game for the Aggies is a 0-0 tie at Amherst College.

Nov. 4, 1885: M.A.C. and Amherst College meet for the fourth time in the 1885 season. The Aggies win the four-game set, 2-1-1.

Nov. 22, 1889: The Aggies complete their second undefeated season with a 2-0 record. Both wins come over Williston Academy.

Sept. 25, 1897: Doctor Weeks, an 1897 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where he was a regular quarterback, becomes the first M.A.C. football coach. The volunteer mentor loses his first game, 4-0 at Holy Cross, and posts a 1-4-1 mark in his only season as coach.

Nov. 6, 1897: The first-ever meeting between Massachusetts and Connecticut takes place, with M.A.C. winning the game, 36-0.

Sept. 28, 1901: James Halligan, former captain of the 1899 squad, leads the Aggies to a 17-0 victory at Holy Cross. Halligan becomes the first full-time seasonal football coach in school history.

Oct. 14, 1903: The first-ever meeting between Massachusetts and Rhode Island takes place, with the Aggies prevailing, 46-0. Massachusetts has faced Rhode Island 86 times, more than any other school.

Oct. 9, 1915: M.A.C. plays its first game at "New" Alumni Field, defeating Colby, 26-0.

Oct. 2, 1920: Massachusetts picks up its 100th win in school history, defeating Connecticut, 28-0.

March 26, 1931: Massachusetts Agricultural College becomes Massachusetts State College.

Sept. 26, 1931: Mel Taube coaches his first game against Cooper Union, leading the Aggies to a 50-0 victory. Taube goes on to earn a .682 winning percentage (29-13-2 record). The game marks the first collegiate appearance by Lou Bush, who runs for three touchdowns on the afternoon.

Nov. 14, 1931: The Aggies defeat Wagner, 77-0, behind a school-record five touchdowns by Lou Bush. The margin of victory is still tied for the largest ever by Massachusetts.

Nov. 21, 1931: Lou Bush finishes the season with a then-school record 127 points to lead the nation in scoring. Bush goes on to win the national scoring title again in 1932 with 114 points.

Sept. 24, 1932: Lou Bush matches his school record by rushing for five touchdowns against Cooper Union, leading the Aggies to a 50-0 victory.

Nov. 5, 1937: Massachusetts loses at Coast Guard, 7-6, in the first-ever night game for the Aggies.

Dec. 3, 1946: The Yankee Conference is created. Massachusetts is a charter member, along with Rhode Island, Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

May 7, 1947: Massachusetts State College becomes the University of Massachusetts.

Oct. 18, 1947: UMass hosts Rhode Island in its first-ever Yankee Conference game. Rhode Island wins the contest, 20-13.

Jan. 16, 1948: UMass changes its team nickname from the Aggies to the Redmen.

Oct. 30, 1948: The Redmen win their first Yankee Conference game, 33-0, at home against Vermont.

Sept. 27, 1952: UMass wins its 200th game in school history, posting a 39-6 win over Bates in Amherst.

Nov. 15, 1952: UMass travels to Tufts and wins 32-0 in the first televised game in school history.

Nov. 12, 1960: UMass earns a share of its first Yankee Conference championship with a 35-15 win over New Hampshire.

Sept. 30, 1961: Vic Fusia coaches his first game at Massachusetts, leading the Redmen to a 21-12 victory over American International College (AIC). Fusia retired as the school's all-time winningest coach with 59 victories.

Nov. 22, 1961: Maine defeats UMass, 10-7, for the Yankee Conference championship in a game postponed from Sept. 23 because 22 members of the UMass team had been struck with an illness.

Sept. 21, 1963: UMass surrenders a touchdown to Maine in a 14-7 win over the Black Bears. It would be the only touchdown the Redmen allowed all season.

Nov. 16, 1963: The Redmen clinch their first outright Yankee Conference title with a 48-2 victory over New Hampshire. The win also closes out the team's third and most recent undefeated season (8-0-1).

Nov. 14, 1964: UMass defeats New Hampshire, 47-0, to clinch its second straight and third overall Yankee Conference title. Vic Fusia is named New England Football Coach of the Year, while quarterback Jerry Whelchel receives the George Bulger Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Boston as New England's most outstanding player.

Dec. 12, 1964: UMass plays in its first-ever postseason game, the Tangerine Bowl. After leading East Carolina, 13-0, the Redmen tire late in the game and fall 14-13.

Sept. 25, 1965: UMass defeats American International College (AIC), 41-0, in the first game ever at Alumni Stadium.

Oct. 16, 1965: UMass defeats Rhode Island, 30-0, in the official dedication game of Alumni Stadium.

Oct. 30, 1965: Greg Landry throws for a then-UMass record 300 yards to lead the Redmen to a 41-6 victory over Vermont. Landry goes on to lead the team in passing in all three of his years (1965-1967), and lead the squad in rushing and scoring in 1965 and 1967. His quarterback efficiency rating of 145.4 (at least 150 attempts) in 1965 sets a school record that stood until Liam Coen's 2006 season numbers (160.5 rating).

Nov. 27, 1965: Milt Morin becomes the first UMass player to be drafted in the first round when the Cleveland Browns select the all-American tight end as their number one pick in the 1966 NFL Draft.

Nov. 12, 1966: UMass defeats New Hampshire, 14-7, to claim its fourth Yankee Conference title.

Nov. 18, 1967: The Redmen earn their fifth Yankee Conference championship with a 14-13 victory at New Hampshire.

Jan. 30, 1968: Greg Landry is chosen as the 11th overall pick by the Detroit Lions in the first round of the 1968 NFL Draft. Landry's selection still remains the highest draft pick by a UMass football player in school history.

Nov. 15, 1969: UMass defeats New Hampshire 48-7 to earn its sixth Yankee Conference championship.

Sept. 18, 1971: Dick MacPherson coaches his first game at UMass, defeating Maine 13-0. MacPherson goes on to lead UMass to four Yankee Conference championships in his seven-year tenure.

Nov. 13, 1971: The Redmen earn a piece of their seventh Yankee Conference title with a 38-20 victory at New Hampshire.

Spring, 1972: UMass changes its nickname from the Redmen to the Minutemen.

Nov. 18, 1972: The Minutemen defeat New Hampshire 42-7 to claim their eighth Yankee Conference title.

Nov. 25, 1972: In front of an Alumni Stadium record 20,000 fans, the Minutemen post a 28-7 win over arch-rival Boston College.

Dec. 9, 1972: UMass defeats California-Davis 35-14 at the Boardwalk Bowl in Atlantic City, N.J., to win its first postseason game.

Sept. 15, 1973: The Minutemen win the 300th game in school history, defeating Villanova 21-20.

Nov. 16, 1974: The Minutemen defeat New Hampshire 27-17 to earn a share of their ninth Yankee Conference title.

Oct. 23, 1976: Brian McNally throws for a then-school record 389 yards against Connecticut in a 28-6 loss.

Nov. 12, 1977: UMass claims its 10th Yankee Conference title with a 19-6 win at New Hampshire.

TEAM CHRONOLOGY THROUGH THE YEARS

Nov. 19, 1977: The Minutemen conclude the 1977 regular season with a 34-7 loss at Boston College. The 30,846 fans in attendance marked the biggest crowd to watch a UMass football game until 2002.

Nov. 26, 1977: Lehigh defeats UMass, 30-23, in the first round of the NCAA Division II Playoffs at McGuirk Alumni Stadium, despite a spirited second-half surge by the Minutemen. The contest was the first postseason football game played in Amherst and marked Dick MacPherson's last game as head coach of the Minutemen.

Nov. 18, 1978: The Minutemen earn their 11th Yankee Conference title with a, 34-7, victory over New Hampshire.

Dec. 9, 1978: UMass overpowers previously unbeaten and top-ranked Nevada-Reno, 44-21, in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals at MacKay Stadium in Reno. The Minutemen's victory marked the first NCAA Division I-AA playoff win in school history.

Dec. 16, 1978: UMass falls to Florida A&M, 35-28, in the first-ever Division I-AA championship game. The Minutemen, under first-year coach Bob Pickett, win the Lambert Cup as the best team in the East.

Nov. 17, 1979: The Minutemen claim a share of their 12th Yankee Conference title with a 29-0 win at New Hampshire.

Nov. 14, 1981: UMass defeats New Hampshire 20-9 to earn a piece of its 13th Yankee Conference championship.

Nov. 13, 1982: The Minutemen claim a share of their 14th Yankee Conference title with a 27-0 victory over New Hampshire.

Nov. 20, 1982: Garry Pearson rushes for a then-UMass single-game record 288 yards in the final game of his collegiate career, a 29-13 victory over American International College (AIC).

Nov. 3, 1984: Alumni Stadium is renamed Warren P. McGuirk Alumni Stadium in honor of the late UMass Athletic Director during whose tenure the stadium was built.

Nov. 22, 1986: UMass loses to Connecticut 20-17, but claims a share of its 15th Yankee Conference championship.

Nov. 19, 1988: The Minutemen win a wild 64-42 shootout at New Hampshire to earn their 16th Yankee Conference title and first outright league championship in 10 years.

Nov. 4, 1989: UMass picks up its 400th win in school history, defeating Richmond 17-14.

Nov. 10, 1990: UMass defeats Villanova 3-0 to claim its league-leading 17th Yankee Conference title.

Sept. 12, 1992: UMass falls to Delaware 33-13 in the 900th game in school history, and the first for Mike Hodges as head coach. The Minutemen rebound to win seven straight games, and Hodges is named New England Coach of the Year.

Oct. 1, 1994: Rene Ingoglia rushes for a then-UMass and Yankee Conference single-game record 313 yards in a 22-12 victory over Rhode Island at McGuirk Alumni Stadium.

Oct. 7, 1995: Rene Ingoglia becomes the all-time leading rusher in school history in a 32-29 loss to New Hampshire at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. Ingoglia surpasses Garry Pearson's previous mark of 3,859 career yards.

Nov. 11, 1995: Frank Alessio rushes for a UMass and Yankee Conference single-game record 337 yards and three touchdowns in the Minutemen's 28-23 victory at Boston University.

Nov. 18, 1995: Rene Ingoglia closes out his collegiate career by becoming the all-time leading rusher in Yankee Conference history in a 20-7 loss at Connecticut. Ingoglia finishes with 4,624 career rushing yards, which ranked among the top-25 in Division I-AA at the time.

June 3, 1996: The Yankee Conference announces its 50th anniversary all-time team. UMass led the way with a league-high six players named to the 26-man squad. Quarterback Greg Landry (1965-67), running back Rene Ingoglia (1992-95), offensive lineman Bill Durkin (1990-93), offensive lineman Bruce Kimball (1975-78), defensive lineman Brian Corcoran (1991-94) and defensive lineman Ed McAleney (1972-75) are selected.

Oct. 5, 1996: Jim Pizano runs 96 yards for a touchdown at Rhode Island, marking the longest run in school history. The rush eclipsed a mark that had stood for over 68 years, when Fred Ellert scampered 95 yards at Tufts on Nov. 27, 1928.

Nov. 16, 1996: The Miracle at McGuirk. Jeff Smith hits Erik Henry on a 20-yard touchdown strike with 31 seconds remaining to complete a 20-point fourth quarter comeback and lead UMass to a 39-38 victory over Connecticut in the final game in Yankee Conference history. The comeback is the greatest in school history.

July 1, 1997: The Atlantic 10 Football Conference officially takes over operation of the Yankee Conference, marking the end of a 50-year football legacy but the beginning of a new era in collegiate football. In the Yankee Conference's history, UMass won more league titles (17) and games (160) than any other conference member.

Aug. 30, 1997: UMass falls to Richmond 21-6, in a game that marks the official kickoff of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference. Commissioner Linda Bruno is on hand to perform the ceremonial coin flip prior to the start of the game.

Oct. 31, 1998: Quarterback Todd Bankhead throws for 274 yards in a 27-26 victory over New Hampshire to break the UMass single-season passing record in only the eighth game of the season. Bankhead, who would finish the year with 3,919 yards, also broke school single-season records for completions (303), attempts (525), touchdowns (34) and total offense (3,756).

Nov. 14, 1998: Marcel Shipp rushes for 270 yards in a 55-34 victory over Maine, to break Garry Pearson's UMass single-season rushing record. Shipp finished the year with 2,542 yards, while also breaking school single-season records for carries (428) and all-purpose yards (3,032).

Nov. 21, 1998: Jimmy Moore caught nine passes for 172 yards in a 28-27 loss to Connecticut, breaking the school single-season record for receptions. Moore totaled 92 catches on the year and broke UMass single-season records for receiving yards (1,494) and receiving touchdowns (16).

Nov. 28, 1998: The Minutemen jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter and held on for a 21-19 victory at McNeese State in the first round of the NCAA I-AA playoffs. Freshman Kevin Quinlan, who played in place of an injured Marcel Shipp, rushed for 147 yards as UMass knocked off the 1997 NCAA runner-up.

Dec. 5, 1998: UMass records the first home postseason victory in school history with a 27-21 win over Lehigh at Warren McGuirk Alumni Stadium. Todd Bankhead throws for 270 yards to lead the offense, while the defense stops the Mountain Hawks on fourth and goal in the final two minutes to preserve the victory in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Dec. 12, 1998: The Minutemen advance to the NCAA championship game for the second time in school history with a 41-31 win at Northwestern State (La.). UMass trailed 24-21 entering the fourth quarter, before Todd Bankhead hit Matt Jordan with a 49-yard touchdown pass to ignite a 20-0 run and propel the Minutemen to victory.

Dec. 19, 1998: UMass downs top-ranked and previously-unbeaten Georgia Southern, 55-43 in the NCAA championship game, played in Chattanooga, Tenn. The defense forced the Eagles into seven turnovers on the day, allowing the Minutemen to take control of the game early. Marcel Shipp led the offense by rushing for a then-championship game record 244 yards on 35 carries, while Kole Ayi had 16 tackles, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. In addition to winning its first-ever NCAA I-AA championship, UMass earned the Lambert Cup for the second time in school history.

Oct. 30, 1999: Todd Bankhead completed 16 of 27 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-9 victory over Rhode Island, breaking all-time UMass records for passing yards and attempts in the process. Bankhead finishes his career as UMass' all-time leader in passing yards (7,018), completions (561), attempts (931), touchdown passes (51) and total offense (6,821 yards).

Nov. 6, 1999: Adrian Zullo caught 11 passes for 210 yards and a touchdown in a 33-6 victory at Richmond to break the UMass single-game record for receiving yards. Zullo totaled 179 receiving yards in the first half alone, and shattered Milt Morin's old record of 181 yards, set against Vermont in 1965. Zullo also tied the single-game record for receptions with 11, a mark which he had also achieved earlier in the season against New Hampshire.

Nov. 13, 1999: Marcel Shipp rushed for 210 yards and three touchdowns on 35 carries in a 25-16 victory at William & Mary to break the all-time UMass record for career rushing yards. Shipp bested Rene Ingoglia's old mark of 4,624 yards and went on to finish his career with 6,250 yards.

TEAM CHRONOLOGY THROUGH THE YEARS

Nov. 20, 1999: The Minutemen destroyed arch-rival Connecticut 62-20 at McGuirk Stadium in the Huskies last game as a I-AA school and claimed their 18th Atlantic 10 Conference title in the process. Marcel Shipp rushed for three touchdowns in the victory to break Rene Ingoglia's single-season record of 19. Shipp went on to finish the season with 24 rushing scores.

Nov. 27, 1999: Marcel Shipp scored on a one-yard touchdown run in overtime to propel the Minutemen to a dramatic, 30-23 victory at eighth-ranked Furman in the first round of the NCAA I-AA playoffs. In the win, Adrian Zullo caught 10 passes for 121 yards and a touchdown.

Dec. 4, 1999: The Minutemen stayed close in to the fourth quarter, but came up just short in a 38-21 loss at second-ranked Georgia Southern in the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs. In the game, Adrian Zullo broke the UMass career records for catches and receiving yards. Zullo finished his career as the all-time school leader in receptions (187), receiving yards (2,892) and receiving touchdowns (32).

Aug. 31, 2000: In the first-ever night game at McGuirk Alumni Stadium, the Minutemen down William & Mary, 36-16. The game was the first ever for UMass under the lights in Amherst.

Oct. 28, 2000: Kole Ayi makes 13 solo stops in a 24-16 loss at New Hampshire to become the all-time UMass leader in career unassisted tackles. Ayi went on to end his career with 330 solo tackles and earned third all-time on the school list for total tackles with 478.

Nov. 18, 2000: Marcel Shipp rushed 36 times for 156 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Minutemen to a 29-21 victory at Rhode Island in the final game of his collegiate career. Shipp capped his four years at UMass with 6,250 rushing yards to become the all-time leading rusher in the history of the Atlantic 10 Conference. He also set the school career records for carries (1,215), rushing touchdowns (58), all-purpose yards (7,759), points scored (378) and touchdowns scored (63).

Sept. 28, 2002: The Minutemen drop their game at North Carolina State, ranked No. 17 in Division I-A (FBS). The 51,221 fans in attendance marked the biggest crowd to witness a UMass football game to that point.

Nov. 22, 2003: UMass defeats Rhode Island, 31-17 at McGuirk Stadium to claim a share of its 19th Atlantic 10 Conference title. With the win, the Minutemen also set a school record for regular season victories with 10, while posting seven home wins in a year for the first time.

Feb. 9, 2004: Don Brown was named UMass new head coach as former coach Mark Whipple left to become quarterbacks coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL.

Sept. 11, 2004: UMass hosts its second night game in school history at McGuirk Stadium. The Minutemen down Colgate, 30-20 in a rematch of the 2003 NCAA playoff game.

Oct. 16, 2004: UMass picks up its 500th win in program history with a 38-21 victory at New Hampshire. Steve Baylark tallied the game's Bill Knight MVP Award as he ran for a then-career-high 192 yards.

Sept. 17, 2005: UMass sets a Division I-AA record and ties the all-time football mark with three safeties in a 40-0 win over Albany in the third all-time night game at McGuirk Stadium.

Oct. 7, 2006: UMass won back-to-back contests by the score of 48-7 beating William & Mary. The Minutemen also beat Stony Brook by the same score on Sept. 24. The last time UMass won consecutive games by the same score -- was also 48-7 and also separated by a bye week, back in 1969. UMass beat Vermont and New Hampshire, 48-7 on Nov. 1 and 15, 1969.

Oct. 28, 2006: Steve Baylark became the third player in I-AA/FCS history to gain 1,000 rushing yards in four consecutive seasons with 152 yards in a 7-0 win at Northeastern in a rain storm. Baylark joined Jerry Azumah (New Hampshire, 1995-98) and Adrian Peterson (Georgia Southern, 1996-99).

Nov. 11, 2006: UMass clinched the Atlantic 10 Championship and the league's automatic qualifier for the NCAA Tournament with a 10-9 win over Maine. The Minutemen claimed the win as the Black Bears missed an extra point with 1:44 left in regulation.

Nov. 18, 2006: On Senior Day, UMass posted a perfect 8-0 record in the Atlantic 10 with a 22-16 win over Hofstra at McGuirk Stadium. The 8-0 record gave UMass the league's first undefeated record since Villanova in 1997.

Dec. 2, 2006: In the NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinals, UMass advanced to the National Semifinals for the first time since winning the title in 1998 with a 24-17 victory over No. 9 New Hampshire. The dramatic win came before a sell-out crowd of 17,000 at McGuirk Stadium. It was the first sell-out since Sept. 8, 1973 when 18,100 jammed McGuirk prior to fire codes. It was the ninth-largest in program history.

Dec. 8, 2006: UMass advanced to its third NCAA Division I-AA/FCS Championship Game with a 19-17 win at No. 2 Montana before a sell-out crowd of 23,454 and national-television audience on ESPN2. Kicker Chris Koepplin converted the game-winning field goal from 43-yards out with 13:25 left in the fourth to put UMass ahead, 19-17. Steve Baylark had 245 all-purpose yards and two rushing touchdowns.

Dec. 15, 2006: UMass falls to No. 1 Appalachian State in the first FCS Division I Championship Game, formerly I-AA, 28-17 in Chattanooga, Tenn.

March 1, 2007: The Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) assumed operational control of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference. All 12 teams remained in the league, which was under its third governance, beginning with the Yankee Conference in 1947.

Oct. 13, 2007: UMass beat Villanova in quadruple overtime, 32-24, at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. The game equaled the longest overtime game in program history. UMass lost to Richmond, 52-51 in four overtimes on Sept. 19, 1987.

Nov. 3, 2007: Quarterback Liam Coen became UMass' career passing yardage leader with 191 yards in a 27-7 win over rival No. 14 New Hampshire. He broke Todd Bankhead's mark of 7,018 with an eight-yard pass to Ian Jorgensen in the third quarter. The win also clinched a second straight conference North division title for the Minutemen.

Nov. 24, 2007: UMass piled up 649 yards of total offense, the second-most in a game in school history, during an NCAA First Round win over Fordham, 49-35 at McGuirk Stadium. In the triumph, Liam Coen set a then-school record for passing yards in a game with 419, breaking Matt Guice's previous mark of 401 earned in 2001.

Sept. 20, 2008: UMass football played before the largest crowd ever to watch a school team in action to that point as the Minutemen lost at No. 10 Texas Tech before 53,190 individuals.

Nov. 22, 2008: Don Brown coached his last game at UMass in leading the Minutemen to a 28-14 win over Hofstra. That game made the 2008-09 UMass senior class the winningest four-year group in the history of the program with a 37-14 record.

Jan. 19, 2009: Kevin Morris was named the 28th head coach in UMass football history. Morris spent the previous five years as the Minutemen's offensive coordinator.

Sept. 18, 2010: UMass football plays before the largest crowd in school history for any sport, at Michigan Stadium. The Minutemen battle hard in a 42-37 loss to the then-No. 20 Wolverines before 110,187 people.

Oct. 23, 2010: UMass played the first-ever college football game at Gillette Stadium as the Minutemen and New Hampshire battled in the Colonial Clash.

Nov. 19, 2011: UMass plays its final game at the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS/I-AA). The Minutemen fall, 34-17 to James Madison.

Dec. 8, 2011: Charley Molnar is named head coach for UMass' first season as a member of the Football Bowl Subdivision and of the Mid-American Conference. Molnar is introduced to fans and media in a press conference at Gillette Stadium in Foxboro, Mass.

Aug. 30, 2012: UMass falls at Connecticut, 37-0 in its first-ever game as an FBS team. It marked the first time the two teams had played since UMass defeated the Huskies 62-20 during the 1999 season - the last game for Connecticut at the I-AA (FCS) level.

Nov. 10, 2012: UMass picks up its first win as an FBS program and its first conference win as a member of the MAC with a 22-14 victory at Akron. UMass forced four interceptions, blocked a punt, scored three field goals and pinned three consecutive punts inside the five-yard line as defense and special teams highlighted the win.

April 26, 2013: Ground is officially broken as dignitaries from around the Commonwealth of Massachusetts visit the construction site of the UMass Football Performance Center - the home for football at McGuirk Stadium.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

TEAM CHRONOLOGY THROUGH THE YEARS

April 27, 2013: Michael Cox is the first Minuteman selected in the NFL Draft since the team's elevation to FBS competition. Cox goes to the New York Giants in the seventh round.

June 10, 2013: Brothers and business partners Martin and Richard Jacobson pledge $2.5 million to the athletic department for the naming rights of the new football press and skybox. The addition to McGuirk Stadium will be named the Martin And Richard Jacobson Press And Skybox Complex.

July 10, 2013: On July 10, Colter Johnson becomes the first UMass football player named to a major FBS preseason "Watch List" as he is a nominee for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter. A day later, Anthony Dima is named to the Outland Trophy Watch List honoring the nation's top interior lineman.

Jan. 14, 2014: Mark Whipple is introduced as the new head coach of the UMass Football program. Whipple, who previously served as head coach from 1998-2003, returns to Amherst after spending time in the NFL and at the University of Miami.

May 10, 2014: Rob Blanchflower makes it back-to-back FBS seasons with a Minuteman taken in the NFL Draft when the Pittsburgh Steelers pick Blanchflower in the seventh round.

Sept. 20, 2014: UMass football returns to McGuirk Stadium in historic fashion as Blake Frohnapfel throws for a school-record 589 yards in a 47-42 loss to Bowling Green. A capacity crowd of 17,000 cheer on the Minutemen during the first football game on-campus since the 2011 season.

Oct. 11, 2014: The Minutemen win their first game since Whipple's return to the helm of the program, 40-17, at Kent State. Frohnapfel tosses three touchdown passes in the win.

Oct. 11, 2014: With the 40-point effort against Kent State, UMass records 40 or more points in three consecutive games for the first time since the 1972 season. The program also accomplished this same feat during the 1963 campaign.

Dec. 10, 2015: Wide receiver Tajae Sharpe is named a Walter Camp Football Foundation Second Team All-American, the first-such award for a Minuteman during the FBS era. Sharpe set Massachusetts records for single-game receptions (15), single-season receptions (111), career receptions (277) and career receiving yards (3,486).

Aug. 25, 2018: A $5.58 million donation by Martin Jacobson provides the support necessary to design and construct a seasonal, air-supported indoor structure at McGuirk Alumni Stadium, while Jacobson's gift will also contributed to a high-definition scoreboard, among other fan experience facility improvements.

Nov. 3, 2018: Wide receiver Andy Isabella records 303 receiving yards and two touchdowns on only nine receptions during the 62-59 thriple-overtime win earned on Homecoming against Liberty. It makes Isabella the only known receiver in FBS history with 300 or more receiving yards on fewer than 10 catches. He accomplishes this feat despite not playing any of the three overtime periods due to injury.

Dec. 3, 2018: Massachusetts announces Walt Bell as the program's 30th all-time coach. Considered one of the most dynamic young recruiters and offensive minds in college football, Bell brought 12 years of FBS coaching experience to the Minuteman program, including five seasons as the offensive coordinator at three institutions: Arkansas State (2014-15), Maryland (2016-17) and Florida State (2018).

Dec. 5, 2018: Walt Bell is formally introduced as the program's head coach during a press conference in the Martin Jacobson Football Performance Center's Hunt Room.

Dec. 13, 2018: Andy Isabella becomes the program's first-ever Consensus All-American. In order to earn the distinction, Isabella required recognized by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Associated Press (AP), Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation (WCFF), and needed majority placement among the respective organizations' first team all-America listings.

Feb. 8, 2019: Andy Isabella receives an NFL Combine invitation. He is the first Minuteman since Tajae Sharpe (2012-15) to attend the NFL Combine. At the 2019 NFL Combine (March 2), Isabella runs a 4.31-second 30-yard dash, tied for the fastest among wide receivers to attend.

April 20, 2019: The Arizona Cardinals select Andy Isabella in the second round of the NFL Draft with the 62nd overall selection. Isabella became the team's 29th all-time selection in the AFL/NFL draft and 19th in the "Modern Era" of the National Football League since the merger of the AFL and NFL prior to the 1966 season.

Sept. 28, 2019: Walt Bell wins his first game as a head coach when UMass defeats Akron, 37-29. The Minutemen forced three turnovers during the game, including a 58-yard interception return for a touchdown by Isaiah Rodgers, which put Massachusetts ahead for good. In need of one last drive to sap the remaining five minutes, 24 seconds off the clock, running back Bilal Ally shouldered the responsibility and carried nine straight handoffs for 78 yards (8.7 per rush) to grind through the remaining time and secure the win.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1964 TANGERINE BOWL

EAST CAROLINA 14
MASSACHUSETTS 13

Dec. 12, 1964 • Tangerine Bowl; Orlando, Fla.

After establishing a 13-0 lead, Yankee Conference Champion UMass tired in the Orlando heat in a 14-13 loss to the East Carolina Pirates. The second half run-pass threat of Pirate all-America quarterback Bill Cline was too much for the UMass defense to handle. Cline's nine-yard touchdown run and two-point conversion pass to Pete Crane in the fourth quarter won the game.

In the second quarter, UMass' Bob Gogick recovered an East Carolina fumble that gave UMass the ball on the Pirate 12-yard line. UMass quarterback Jerry Whelchel then hit Ken Palm for a 12-yard touchdown, giving UMass a 7-0 lead.

After taking the second half kickoff, UMass started its second touchdown drive. Two running plays and a penalty put the Redmen at their own 39, when Palm got behind the East Carolina secondary and caught a Whelchel 61-yard touchdown pass for a 13-0 UMass lead.

Richardson put East Carolina on the board with a two-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, paving the way for Cline's heroics. Fullback Mike Ross led Massachusetts with 55 yards rushing. Cline led East Carolina with 217 yards in total offense. UMass finished the season with an 8-2 record.

1972 BOARDWALK BOWL

MASSACHUSETTS 35
CALIFORNIA-DAVIS 14

Dec. 9, 1972 • Convention Hall; Atlantic City, N.J.

UMass quarterback Peil Pennington led head coach Dick MacPherson's squad to a 35-14 victory over the University of California at Davis.

The Yankee Conference Champion squad went 60 yards on nine plays for their first score, with Paul Metallo gaining much of the yardage on the ground. Pennington then gave UMass the lead when he hit Tim Berra for a 17-yard score.

A John Healy interception at the Cal-Davis 27 set up the second score for UMass. The touchdown came on a 10-yard end-around by Steve Schubert. After getting the ball back on downs, Metallo once again did most of the damage on the ground, before hitting Pennington for a 21-yard scoring strike on an option play.

Cal-Davis finally got on the board when Bob Biggs found Frank Altick on a 20-yard pass with less than two minutes left in the first half. The Aggies would cut the UMass lead to 20-14 before reserve quarterback Mark Tripucka came in to put the game out of reach with two more Minuteman touchdowns.

The Minutemen outgained the Aggies 184-61 on the ground, and Schubert was UMass' top receiver with 69 yards. The Minutemen finished with a 9-2 record.

1977 NCAA DIVISION II QUARTERFINALS

LEHIGH 30
MASSACHUSETTS 23

Nov. 26, 1977 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

A spirited second-half comeback by Yankee Conference Champion UMass fell short, as Lehigh held on for a 30-23 win. Head coach Dick MacPherson's defense could not stop the Engineer aerial attack of quarterback Mike Reiker and split end Steve Kreider, who connected on a seven-yard touchdown for the winning score with 11:56 left in the game.

With Lehigh ahead 23-0, UMass took a punt on the Engineer 36-yard line and needed only two plays to score on a 36-yard pass from Mike Fallon to Dennis Dent. After the half, the Minutemen continued to cut into the Lehigh advantage, scoring on a 10-play, 74-yard drive. Billy Coleman finished the series with a one-yard run to drop the Engineer lead to 23-16.

UMass then tied the contest at 23-23 on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Fallon to John Gladchuk, before Lehigh scored the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Reiker finished the day with 351 yards passing, hitting 25 of 40 attempts, while Kreider had nine catches for 171 yards and four touchdowns. Billy Coleman led the Minutemen with 90 yards rushing. UMass finished the season 8-3.

1978 NCAA DIVISION I-AA SEMIFINALS

MASSACHUSETTS 44
NEVADA 21

Dec. 9, 1978 • MacKay Stadium; Reno, Nev.

In the 1978 NCAA Division I-AA semifinal, UMass used a combination of big-play offense and a superlative defense to stop previously undefeated and top-ranked Nevada, 44-21. The Minuteman defense forced seven Wolfpack turnovers (six interceptions, one fumble) to give the offense the ball in fine field position most of the day.

UMass opened the contest with an 80-yard drive that ended with a Cliff Pedrow 20-yard scoring run. The play was set up by Dennis Dent's 32-yard flea-flicker to Chris Kurtz.

After UMass fumbled a Nevada punt, the Wolfpack scored on a three-yard run by John Vicari. On the ensuing kickoff, Dent went 96 yards for a touchdown to give UMass a 13-7 lead.

UMass' Steve McInnes set up Pedrow's one-yard touchdown run with an interception, and Minuteman quarterback Mike McEvilly ended the first half scoring when he connected with Kevin O'Connor on a 47-yard touchdown strike that gave UMass a 28-7 lead.

In the second half, Pedrow scored on a 30-yard run and Kevin Sullivan ran an interception back 59 yards for the final two Minuteman touchdowns.

1978 NCAA DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

FLORIDA A&M 35
MASSACHUSETTS 28

Dec. 16, 1978 • Memorial Stadium; Wichita Falls, Texas

In the first NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game, UMass dropped a 35-28 decision to Florida A&M in the Pioneer Bowl. The Minutemen could not contain the Florida A&M running attack, which totalled 470 yards despite playing without leading rusher Ike Williams. Mike Solomon had 207 yards and Melvin McFayden had 177 to pace A&M.

Despite the Rattlers' ground success, UMass held a 22-21 lead in the fourth quarter on three Sandro Vitiello field goals and two touchdowns by Cliff Pedrow.

With 8:26 left in the game, UMass fumbled and Florida A&M recovered. On the next play, Solomon scored on a 28-yard touchdown run and a two-point conversion to put the Rattlers ahead 29-22.

After three unsuccessful downs and a punt by UMass, A&M got the ball back, and Solomon scampered for a 20-yard scoring run to give the Rattlers a 35-22 lead.

UMass closed the scoring on a last second 34-yard touchdown pass from Mike McEvilly to Chris Kurtz.

Head coach Bob Pickett's defense played without three starters, including Kevin Sullivan, who broke his ankle in the first quarter. UMass finished the season 9-4 and won the Lambert Cup as the top team in the East.

1988 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

EASTERN KENTUCKY 28
MASSACHUSETTS 17

Nov. 26, 1988 • Hanger Field; Richmond, Ky.

Making its first postseason appearance since 1978, UMass jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead, but could not stop Eastern Kentucky tailback Elroy Harris. Harris scored the winning touchdown on a two-yard run with just over three minutes to play and finished the game with 192 yards rushing.

Down 21-17 in the fourth quarter, the Minutemen had a chance to regain the lead late in the game, but turned the ball over on downs. Tim Lester ended the scoring with a 16-yard touchdown run to give the Colonels a 28-17 win.

UMass jumped out to a 14-0 lead when quarterback Dave Palazzi connected on a 39-yard touchdown strike to Mike Tobin, and David Mitchell scored on a two-yard run.

The Eastern Kentucky defense, however, held the Minutemen to a Silvio Bonvini 26-yard field goal in the second half while chipping away at the UMass lead. The Colonels used a powerful ground game to outgain UMass 381-221.

A steady rain and strong winds made the passing game ineffective for both teams. Kevin Smellie led the Minutemen with 80 yards on the ground. UMass finished the season 8-4.

1990 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

WILLIAM & MARY 38
MASSACHUSETTS 0

Nov. 24, 1990 • Zable Stadium; Williamsburg, Va.

The William & Mary Tribe offense gained 500 yards, including 311 through the air, and the defense stopped Massachusetts twice inside the five-yard line during the first half, as William & Mary rolled to a 38-0 NCAA Division I-AA playoff victory.

With less than five minutes left in the first quarter, UMass had a second-and-goal situation at the Tribe one-yard line and was forced to attempt a field goal, which was blocked.

After William & Mary went up 7-0, UMass drove to the Tribe six-yard line where the drive ended when the William & Mary defense held on a fourth-and-one situation. The Tribe then drove 94 yards in five plays for a 14-0 lead and never looked back.

Alan Williams scored four touchdowns and Chris Hakel completed 20 of 27 passes for 311 yards for William & Mary. Eric Thimas gained 64 yards rushing and David Mitchell added 55 rushing yards for UMass, which finished 8-2-1.

1998 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

MASSACHUSETTS 21
McNEESE STATE 19

Nov. 28, 1998 • Cowboy Stadium; Lake Charles, La.

The 12th-ranked Minutemen took a 21-0 lead in the second quarter then held on after the intermission to post a 21-19 victory at No. 6 McNeese State in the opening round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

Kevin Quinlan, filling in for the injured Marcel Shipp, rushed for 147 yards and a touchdown on 28 carries. Todd Bankhead completed 19 of 35 passes for 254 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Kerry Taylor caught seven passes for a career-high 119 yards and a score.

UMass opened the scoring on a two-yard run by Quinlan early in the second quarter. The Minutemen would make the score 21-0 with 5:26 remaining before halftime, as Bankhead hit Adrian Zullo with a 31-yard pass and then found Taylor with a seven-yard scoring strike.

McNeese State scored its first points late in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Shonz LaFrenz. LaFrenz added three more field goals in the second half and William Davis caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Blake Prejean, making the score 21-19 with just under five minutes remaining. McNeese had one more chance to score, but LaFrenz was wide right with a 52-yard field goal attempt with 1:42 remaining.

Khari Samuel led a strong effort by the UMass defense with a team-high 14 tackles and a forced fumble, while Chris Price added five tackles and two sacks for five yards.

1998 NCAA DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINALS

MASSACHUSETTS 27
LEHIGH 21

Dec. 5, 1998 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

The Minutemen rallied from a 14-13 halftime deficit to post a 27-21 win over No. 13 Lehigh in the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals. Marcel Shipp led UMass by rushing 36 times for 159 yards and a touchdown. Todd Bankhead completed 22 of 36 passes for 270 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Jimmy Moore caught eight passes for 117 yards and a score.

Lehigh jumped out to an early lead on an eight-yard touchdown run by Ron Jean, then UMass got on the board on its first possession with a 26-yard field goal from Jason Cherry.

Moore caught a 30-yard pass from Bankhead to put the Minutemen up 10-7 and Cherry added a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter, but Jean scored again late in the half on a one-yard run to give the Mountain Hawks a one-point edge at the break.

The Minutemen took the lead for good late in the third quarter when Adrian Zullo caught a 37-yard pass from Bankhead, then Shipp scored on a one-yard run early in the fourth to put UMass up 27-14.

Lehigh then cut the lead to 27-21 on a one-yard run by Phil Stambaugh with just over seven minutes to play. The Mountain Hawks made things interesting late in the game, but they lost the ball on downs after driving inside the UMass 10-yard line with less than two minutes remaining.

Kole Ayi led UMass with 12 tackles and Khari Samuel added 11 tackles with a sack for seven yards.

NORTHWESTERN STATE 31

Dec. 12, 1998 • Turpin Stadium; Natchitoches, La.

The University of Massachusetts Minutemen rallied in the fourth quarter to post a 41-31 victory over No. 2 Northwestern State in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals. Marcel Shipp rushed 38 times for 190 yards and a touchdown, Todd Bankhead completed 17 of 30 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns, and Jimmy Moore had six receptions for 98 yards and a score.

After Northwestern State led 21-14 at halftime, Kevin Quinlan tied the score with a 20-yard run early in the third quarter.

The Demons regained the lead on a 29-yard field goal by Thomas LaToof and drove into UMass territory early in the fourth quarter when the momentum changed. Khari Samuel picked off a Brad Spangler pass in UMass territory, then Bankhead hit Matt Jordan with a 49-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Minutemen the lead for good.

Shipp and Bankhead added scoring runs to put UMass up 41-24, before the Demons added a score in the closing seconds. Samuel totaled a team-high 11 tackles for the Minutemen, while Dan Schneider had three sacks among his seven tackles.

FURMAN 23 (OT)

Nov. 27, 1999 • Paladin Stadium; Greenville, S.C.

Marcel Shipp scored on a one-yard touchdown run in overtime to lift the 10th-ranked Minutemen to a 30-23 victory at No. 8 Furman. Shipp totaled 170 rushing yards on 36 carries in the victory, while scoring a pair of touchdowns.

The Paladins led 20-16 in the third quarter, before the Minutemen took the lead on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Todd Bankhead to Sean Higgins.

Furman tied the score at 23-23 early in the fourth quarter on a 39-yard field goal by Jason Wells, and the game went to overtime after Wells missed a 37-yard field goal with less than 15 seconds remaining.

UMass received the ball first in the overtime and scored on only four plays on Shipp's touchdown run.

On Furman's overtime possession, Matt Dawson and Aaron Parker both recorded tackles for loss, then the Minutemen forced a pair of incompletions on the final two plays to seal the victory.

Bankhead completed 28 of 41 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns with no interceptions, with Adrian Zullo catching 10 passes for 121 yards and a score. Jeremy Robinson led the UMass defense with 13 tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

1999 NCAA DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINALS

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 38
MASSACHUSETTS 21

Dec. 4, 1999 • Paulson Stadium; Statesboro, Ga.

In a rematch of the 1998 NCAA I-AA title game, Walter Payton Award winner Adrian Peterson rushed for 333 yards and five touchdowns on 32 carries, to lead No. 2 Georgia Southern to a 38-21 victory over the 10th-ranked Minutemen.

The game began as a defensive struggle, and the Eagles held a 10-7 lead into the locker room at the half. UMass then took the opening kickoff of the second half and went 69 yards to take a 14-10 lead on Marcel Shipp's two-yard scoring run.

The Eagles regained the lead with a pair of scoring runs from Peterson, taking a 24-14 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Minutemen cut the lead to 24-21 on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Todd Bankhead to Pete Cariello, but were unable to get any closer. Peterson added two more touchdowns late in the fourth quarter to conclude the scoring.

Shipp finished the day with 28 carries for 104 yards and two touchdowns. Bankhead completed 21 of 33 passes for 316 yards and one score, with Adrian Zullo bringing in six receptions for 102 yards. Compton Webster led the UMass defense with 11 tackles and a fumble recovery, while Paul Bolden and Dan Schneider both totaled nine tackles.

2003 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

COLGATE 19
MASSACHUSETTS 7

Nov. 29, 2003 • Andy Kerr Stadium; Hamilton, N.Y.

Quarterback Chris Brown and wideout J.B. Gerald hooked up for a pair of touchdowns from 13 and 30 yards out to lead sixth-ranked Colgate over the fifth-ranked Minutemen 19-7 in a blizzard at Andy Kerr Stadium.

UMass got on the board first as Leroy Brooks blocked a punt and teammate James Ihedigbo scooped up the loose ball and raced 25 yards into the endzone giving the Minutemen a 7-0 advantage with 6:43 left in the first quarter.

UMass had a chance to extend the lead as Raider running back Jamaal Branch fumbled on his own 27-yard line where Minuteman Mike Haynes recovered. After driving to the Colgate five-yard line, Michael Torres missed wide right on a 22-yard field goal attempt.

Colgate answered with a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a 13-yard score from Brown to Gerald. UMass appeared to have stalled the Raiders drive two plays earlier as a fourth-down pass attempt went incomplete, but the Minutemen were called for an interference penalty allowing the series to continue. Branch went in from two-yards out two plays later, but Colgate missed the conversion and led 13-7.

Neither team would score again in a first half, which saw the Raiders total only 14 yards rushing on 18 attempts.

Defensively, James Ihedigbo, Anton McKenzie and Mark Kimener each had eight tackles to lead the Minutemen.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

MASSACHUSETTS 35
LAFAYETTE 14

Nov. 25, 2006 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 3 UMass advanced to the NCAA Division I Quarterfinals with a 35-14 victory over Lafayette on a sunny afternoon at McGuirk Stadium in the NCAA First Round. Steve Baylark ran all over the Leopards, gaining 152 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

Liam Coen threw three touchdowns as he was very efficient completing just 9-of-15 for 151 yards. Baylark came out blazing as he scored UMass' first two touchdowns less than 11 minutes into the game. He finished off a 60-yard drive with an 8-yard run to UMass the 7-0 lead with 8:26 left in the first quarter. On the next drive, Baylark continued to run wild and finished that drive with a 26-yard tackle-breaking run to give UMass the 14-0 lead.

The Minutemen expanded the lead to 21-0 as junior college transfer Michael Omar made his first catch in nearly three months, for a 33-yard touchdown from Coen.

Lafayette mounted a comeback by virtue of UMass turnovers. Coen threw his first interception since Oct. 14, at Towson, with 3:06 left in the first half as Torian Johnson picked off the sophomore quarterback and returned it 17 yards to the UMass 34-yard line. Three plays later Leopard quarterback Brad Maurer hit Shaun Adair from 26 yards away with 1:23 left in the first half.

On the ensuing kickoff, UMass' Courtney Robinson returned it 35 yards, but Lafayette's Adrian Lawson forced a fumble and LC recovered the ball on UMass' 43. Two plays later Duaeno Dorsey hauled in a 31-yard pass from Maurer to cut the lead to 21-14 with just 28 seconds left in the first half.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINAL

MASSACHUSETTS 24
NEW HAMPSHIRE 17

Dec. 2, 2006 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 3 UMass (12-1) advanced to the NCAA Semifinals with a 24-17 victory over No. 9 New Hampshire (9-4) before a sell-out crowd of 17,000.

In a virtual repeat of the waning seconds in the regular season meeting between the rivals, Jason Hatchell batted down a fourth-and-one pass by UNH's Ricky Santos, intended for Keith LaVan, to ensure the 12th victory of the year for the Minutemen.

Steve Baylark romped for 198 yards - his second-highest rushing total - to pace the UMass offensive attack. His 60-yard burst in the first quarter set up his only touchdown of the day.

Brad Anderson intercepted Ricky Santos with 13:30 left in the fourth quarter and returned the ball 31 yards to the UNH 14-yard line which set up Chris Koepplin's 33-yard field goal with 11:08 left in regulation.

UMass took a 21-17 lead as Brandon London snagged a 31-yard TD pass from Liam Coen with 6:21 left in the third quarter. He broke away and dove across the endzone line with tacklers drapped on him. It was London's 15th career receiving TD, tying for fourth-most at UMass.

The Wildcats grabbed a 17-14 halftime lead as Tom Manning kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. UNH tied the game at 14-14 with 1:34 left in the first half as Keith Levan hauled in an 11-yard pass from Ricky Santos.

UMass took a 14-7 lead as sophomore Ian Jorgensen caught a 6-yard pass from Liam Coen with 8:56 left in the second quarter.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA SEMIFINAL

MASSACHUSETTS 19
MONTANA 17

Dec. 8, 2006 • Washington-Grizzly Stadium; Missoula, Mont.

No. 3 UMass advanced to the NCAA Division I National Championship game with a 19-17 win at No. 2 Montana before a sold-out and raucous crowd of 23,454 and a national-TV audience.

Steve Baylark was an amazing all-purpose back with 245 total yards. He had his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season and 25th of his career with 169 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-high 76 receiving yards to lead the receiving corps. It was Baylark's 14th career two-touchdown game and UMass is 13-1 in those games. In his 25 career 100-yard games, UMass is now 22-3. He had 12 carries in the fourth quarter to keep Montana's offense off the field.

Kicker Chris Koepplin kicked the eventual game-winning field goal from 43 yards away with 13:25 left in regulation. The Minutemen, who haven't given up a point in the second half of their three playoff games, held the Grizzlies to just 67 yards in the final 30 minutes.

Koepplin's game-winner was set up when the UMass defense forced a safety in a defensive-minded third quarter. The Minutemen pressured Grizz quarterback Josh Swogger to fumble the ball out of the end zone to make it 17-16 with 1:26 left in the third quarter. Domenique Milton was credited with the safety as he was the last player to hit Swogger after Brandon Freeman and Brad Anderson unleashed huge pressure.

It was again the UMass defense that sealed the game when Brandon Smith intercepted Swogger with 36 seconds remaining in the game after the Minutemen turned over the ball on a missed 46-yard field goal.

2006 NCAA DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

APPALACHIAN STATE 28
MASSACHUSETTS 17

Dec. 15, 2006 • Finley Stadium; Chattanooga, Tenn.

Appalachian State put the ball in Kevin Richardson's hands with its second straight NCAA Division I-AA title at stake. Richardson's fourth touchdown sealed Appalachian State's 28-17 victory over Massachusetts on Friday night. The former walk-on finished with 179 yards.

His third touchdown put the Mountaineers (14-1) ahead 21-14 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. He added another for 2 yards with 1:51 left that gave him the I-AA record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 30.

The Minutemen (13-2) cut it to 21-17 on Chris Koepplin's 42-yard field goal with 8:46 left.

Appalachian State then took 6:46 off the clock as Richardson ran 10 times in a long drive before capping it with his last touchdown. UMass got the ball back, but Appalachian State's Corey Lynch had an interception to seal it.

UMass tied it at 14 in the third quarter on Liam Coen's 17-yard pass to Brad Listorti, who tiptoed a few yards down the sideline to stay in bounds and score. The Minutemen got the ball after James Ihedigbo intercepted a pass by Edwards at the UMass 19, stopping Appalachian State's first prolonged drive of the second half.

The attendance was announced at 22,808, a sellout and overflow crowd and the largest for the I-AA title game since it moved to Chattanooga in 1997.

2007 NCAA DIVISION I FCS FIRST ROUND

MASSACHUSETTS 49
FORDHAM 35

Nov. 24, 2007 • McGuirk Stadium; Amherst, Mass.

No. 7 UMass advanced with a 49-35 win over Fordham on a record-setting day. Liam Coen set the UMass mark for passing yards in a game with 419 along with four TDs. Matt Lawrence had his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 167 and three rushing TDs. Rasheed Rancher had the second-most receiving yards in a game with 198.

The Minutemen piled up 649 yards of total offense, the second-most in a game in school history. Fordham had 406 yards as the teams combining 1,055 total yards.

Charles Walker's first-career interception set up the game-sealing drive as Lawrence ran in for his third touchdown, making it 49-35 with 5:15 left in the fourth.

UMass took the lead back at 42-35 as Lawrence ran in from 13 yards out for his second score of the day. On the drive, Coen set the UMass single-game passing yardage record as he broke the record of 403 held by Matt Guice in 2001.

Skelton connected with Sylvester Clarke for an 11-yard touchdown with 11:59 left in the fourth quarter. The drive began off another UMass turnover on a failed halfback option. Lawrence was attempting to throw a pass to Ian Jorgensen in the end zone, but was picked off.

2007 NCAA DIVISION I FCS QUARTERFINAL

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS 34
MASSACHUSETTS 27

Dec. 1, 2007 • McAndrew Stadium; Carbondale, Ill.

Despite a valiant comeback, the No. 7 Minutemen lost to No. 4 Southern Illinois, 34-27. UMass finished the season at 10-3, marking its fourth 10-win season all-time.

The Salukis were too much to handle all afternoon from the opening whistle as Southern Illinois gashed UMass' defense for 462 yards, the most the Minutemen have allowed since giving up 516 to Boston College in 2004. UMass allowed its longest reception (69 yards) and longest rush (64 yards) of the season.

Liam Coen threw for a school-record 421 yards on 28-of-42. It marked the second week in a row he set the school record for passing yards.

Matt Lawrence gained more than 100 yards for the 10th time this season with 112, in his final collegiate game. Rasheed Rancher had five catches for 143 yards, giving him 1794 in his career, as he finished his career, fourth in receiving yards all-time at UMass. J.J. Moore had seven catches giving him 185, second all-time to Adrian Zullo (187) at UMass. Moore also had 94 receiving yards as he finished his career second in career receiving yards with 2423. Michael Omar also set career-high with 10 catches and 114 yards for his first-career 100-yard game.

UMass continued to try and rally all second half. The Minutemen cut the lead to 34-27 as Brad Listorti caught his first pass of the season from four yards out with 4:00 left in regulation. It followed a series where Coen hit Jeremy Horne from 30 yards out for the receiver's third TD of the season, which brought UMass within 34-20.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

1998 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

When Mark Whipple was hired as the head coach of the Minutemen on Dec. 16, 1997, he talked about winning a national championship. Few people thought that would happen, and almost no one believed UMass could accomplish the goal in only one season. But by the time the 1998 season concluded, the Minutemen had produced one of the greatest turnarounds in college football history, going from a 2-9 record the year before to a 12-3 mark and the NCAA Division I-AA national title.

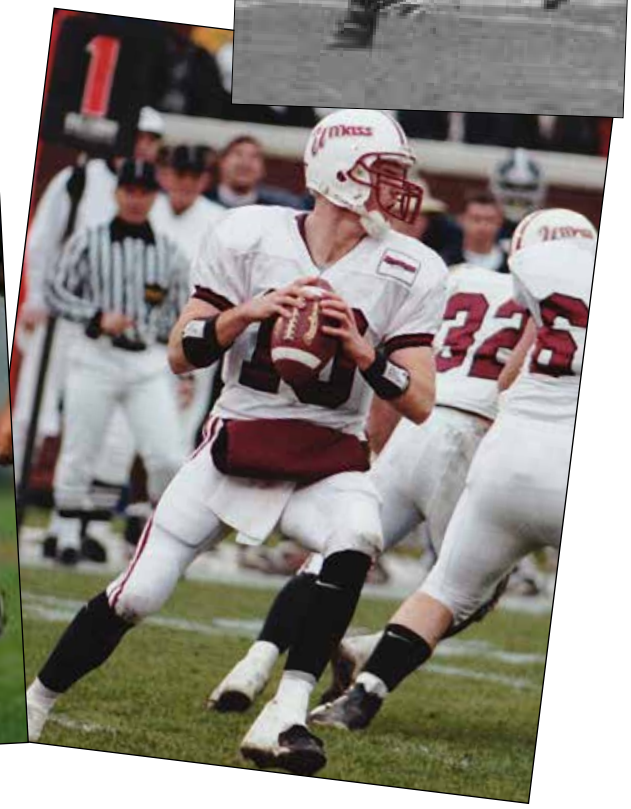

The season saw a number of close games for UMass, as nine of the first 13 contests came down to the final minute or overtime. The Minutemen then posted a dramatic come-from-behind win at Northwestern State in the NCAA semifinals, scoring 20 straight points in the fourth quarter for a 41-31 victory. In the NCAA D-IAA Championship, UMass rolled to a 55-43 win over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern, in a game which was not as close as the final score indicated.

On the way to the national championship, the Minutemen set numerous school records, many of which had stood for decades. Included among the records set were team single season marks for points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), average yards per play (5.9), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

In the end, Whipple and his team, led by senior co-captains Khari Samuel and Kerry Taylor, brought UMass the first national championship in the history of a program which played its first game in 1879. The title was also the first in the history of the Atlantic 10.

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

KOLE AYI
LINEBACKER • 1997-2000
One of the top linebackers in school history, Kole Ayi was a two-time first team All-America selection in 1999 and 2000. Also a two-time first team All-Atlantic 10 choice, Ayi led the Minutemen in tackles during his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. One of Ayi's top performances came against Georgia Southern in the 1998 national championship game, when he totaled 16 tackles, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a touchdown. A two-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, and the runner-up in 1999, the former walk-on won the 2000 George "Bulger" Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston. Ayi finished his career as UMass' all-time leader in career solo tackles with 330, while ranking third in total tackles with 478. He also set the school single-season record for solo tackles with 116 during the 1998 season.

TODD BANKHEAD
QUARTERBACK • 1998-99
Todd Bankhead is one of the most prolific passers in school history, setting numerous records in only two seasons, and leading the Minutemen to their first-ever national championship in 1998. A classic pocket passer with great arm speed, Bankhead owns many of the top 10 single game passing marks in school history. He set single-season marks for passing yards (3,919), completions (303), attempts (525) and touchdowns (34) during the 1998 season, then broke the mark for completion percentage (.635) in 1999. Bankhead finished his career with school record totals of 7,018 passing yards, 561 completions, 931 attempts, 51 touchdowns and a .603 completion percentage. A third team All-America selection during the 1998 season, Bankhead also earned second team All-Atlantic 10 honors in both 1998 and 1999. Bankhead went on to play for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League. He was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2019.

STEVE BAYLARK
TAILBACK • 2003-06
Steve Baylark was a second-team All-American in 2006 in addition to being the Atlantic 10's Offensive Player of the Year that season in leading UMass to the NCAA Championship game. Baylark became the third back in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards in four seasons. He was just the second UMass player to gain more than 5,000 career yards with 5,332. Baylark rushed for 1,960 yards as a senior in 2006, the second-most in a season in UMass history and he scored 42 touchdowns in his career, including 15 as a senior. Baylark played in the East-West Shrine Game following the campaign and went on to sign with the Arizona Cardinals as a free agent in 2007, where he joined Marcel Shipp, the only player to stand ahead of him on the UMass career rushing lists.

LOU BUSH
HALFBACK • 1931-33
Lou Bush was UMass' first All-American in football and still holds many UMass records nearly 70 years after his last game as an 'Aggie.' Bush was phenomenal in 1931 and 1932, scoring 39 touchdowns over that span, an average of over two per game. In his first year of collegiate football in 1931, Bush led the nation in touchdowns with 20. Bush finished at UMass with 45 touchdowns, before his career was cut short by an early season injury during his senior campaign. Beside setting UMass season (20) and career (45) marks for touchdowns, Bush also shares the game record, twice scoring five touchdowns (vs. Wagner in 1931 and Cooper Union in 1932). One of his five-touchdown performances led UMass to its largest victory ever, a 77-0 thrashing of Wagner in 1931. Bush was inducted as a charter member of the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

TONY CHAMBERS
END • 1951-53
Tony Chambers was a 1952 All-American for UMass, making 36 catches for 455 yards and seven touchdowns. Chambers teamed with Noel Reebenacker on what remains one of the most prolific passing teams in UMass history, and was named All-Yankee Conference and All-New England in addition to his All-America honors. While excelling on offense, Chambers' love was on the defensive end of the field, and he played every snap of every game in the 1952 season. Among Chambers' coaches at UMass were baseball coaching legend (and football end coach) Earl Lorden and line coach Chester Gladchuk. Chambers was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.

LIAM COEN
ASSISTANT COACH • 2014-15
Liam Coen graduated from the University of Massachusetts in 2008 holding nearly every passing record, including all career marks for a QB. Coen became the 21st quarterback in FCS history with 10,000 career passing yards in the win over Bryant on Oct. 25, 2008. He finished his UMass days first in passing yards (11,031), passing efficiency (152.92), completion percentage (63.9), touchdown passes (90), completions (830) and attempts (1,303). Among all-time FCS quarterbacks, Coen's 11,031 yards ranks 18th and his 90 touchdown throws stands 20th. Coen led UMass to two conference titles in 2006 and 2007, with postseason NCAA berths in both seasons, including an appearance in the 2006 NCAA championship game. Coen was named a three-time all-conference selection and he was a 2007 and 2008 Walter Payton Award candidate. He spent two seasons as the UMass football quarterbacks coach from 2014-15 while he also served as the co-passing game coordinator during 2015.

BRIAN CORCORAN
DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1991-94
Brian Corcoran was named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned second team All-America honors in 1994. He was a two-time All-Yankee Conference First Team selection after leading UMass in sacks as a junior and senior. Corcoran finished his career ranked third on the school's all-time career sack list with 30. When the ice hockey program at UMass was reinstated in 1993-94, Corcoran made the team as a walk-on defenseman. He played three professional seasons in the American Hockey League for the Baltimore Bandits and the Hershey Bears. Corcoran was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team in 1996.

UMASS FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

BERNIE DALLAS
LINEBACKER • 1963, 1965

Enthusiasm, unlimited energy, leadership and constant optimism made Bernie Dallas a great athlete and man. Dallas was a two-year letterwinner in football for UMass and earned All-Yankee Conference First Team and All-New England honors. He also served as team captain during his senior season. As a sophomore, Dallas played offensive center and defensive linebacker and was a sparkplug on the undefeated 8-0-1 team that captured the school's first outright Yankee Conference football title. Followng his UMass career, Dallas went on to play professionally for the Philadelphia Bulldogs. An automobile accident took Dallas' life on April 29, 1968, but the Dallas Memorial Mall across from the East side of McGuirk Stadium keeps his name and spirit alive. Dallas was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1971.

BILL DURKIN
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1989-93

Bill Durkin was a first team All-America selection in 1993, when he anchored an offensive line unit which helped UMass post a then-school-record 3,261 rushing yards on the season. Durkin was a two-time All-Yankee Conference First Team pick in 1992 and 1993 while serving as team co-captain in each campaign. He went on to play professionally in the Canadian Football League and the World League of American Football (NFL Europe). Durkin was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team in 1996.

FREDERICK "FRITZ" ELLERT
HALFBACK • 1927-29

Frederick "Fritz" Ellert was a three-year letterwinner for coach Charles McGeock's Massachusetts Aggies, earning a spot on the 1929 All-New England Team. Ellert caught a touchdown pass from Ken McKittrick to upset Bates 6-0 in 1928. He also had a 95-yard touchdown run in the season finale against Tufts, a school record for the longest run from scrimmage that stood until 1996. Upon completion of his collegiate athletic career, Ellert became a member of the faculty at UMass. He also coached the men's basketball team for three years (1930-1931, 1932-1933, 1940-1941), posting an 18-16 (.529) mark during this time. He retired from his faculty post in 1970 and was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1971.

VIC FUSIA
HEAD COACH • 1961-70

Vic Fusia was the head coach from 1961 through 1970 and led UMass to five Yankee Conference championships. His Redmen had their top season in 1964, when he guided them to their first-ever postseason appearance — the 1964 Tangerine Bowl, where UMass lost a heartbreaker to East Carolina, 14-13. Fusia compiled a 59-32-2 record as head coach and is still the winningest coach in UMass history, 43 years after retiring. He also had an incredible 41-7-1 mark in Yankee Conference games, with his .854 winning percentage in league games standing as the second-best mark in conference history. Fusia produced some of the most outstanding players ever at UMass, including NFL stars Greg Landry and Milt Morin. He also directed the stingiest defense in UMass history in 1963, when Fusia's troops allowed only one touchdown the entire season and a total of only 12 points in nine games. Fusia's teams were always competitive, and nothing illustrates that better than this amazing fact — in 10 seasons at the helm at UMass and over 40 Yankee Conference games, only once did one of his teams lose a conference game by more than seven points. A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Fusia passed away in 1991. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998.

HAROLD "KID" GORE
QUARTERBACK • 1911-12
COACH • 1919-27

Harold "Kid" Gore was a two-year letterwinner at quarterback for the UMass football team and went on to become the first full-time Aggie football coach in 1919. Gore compiled a 33-32-5 (.507) record. His 33 wins still rank as the eighth-best total in UMass history. Gore went on to reinstate the men's basketball and baseball programs to varsity status. He later compiled an 85-53 overall mark while coaching the basketball team for 11 years, the second-longest tenure of any basketball coach in school history. Gore was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

EMORY GRAYSON
END • 1914-16

Emory Grayson was one of the most versatile athletes in UMass history. He won eight letters in football, basketball and baseball, while also competing in hockey and track. Grayson played as a backup halfback during his freshman year, alternating between the backfield and the end position. In his junior year, he played in the first game on the new Alumni Field, where Whitmore Administration Building now stands, and helped power Massachusetts Agricultural College to a 26-0 win over Colby. He went on to serve as team captain in his senior season. Grayson was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1969.

RENE INGOGLIA
RUNNING BACK • 1992-95

Rene Ingoglia finished his collegiate career as one of the greatest running backs in UMass history. A two-time all-America selection (1994 and 1995), he became the school and Yankee Conference's all-time leading rusher with 4,624 career yards. In all, Ingoglia completed his four years with 10 UMass school records and two Yankee Conference marks to his credit. He became the first UMass player to average more than 100 yards per game rushing over a career at 112.8. Ingoglia posted 21 career 100+ yard games, three career 200+ yard performances and outrushed the entire opposing team 18 times. He also finished second on the all-time Division I-AA career rushing touchdown list (54, one shy of record), fourth among non-kickers on the all-time I-AA scoring list (332), fifth for I-AA rushing yards and 11th in career rushing yards per game. An All-Yankee Conference First Team selection as a senior in 1995, Ingoglia was one of a handful of Division I-AA players chosen to participate in the 1996 Hula Bowl All-Star Classic. During his junior season, he rushed for a then-Yankee Conference and school single-game record 313 yards against Rhode Island. Ingoglia was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team, announced in June, 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007.

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

SHANNON JAMES
DEFENSIVE BACK • 2002-05

Shannon James was a two-time first team All-American in 2004 and 2005. He was honored as the Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year in 2004. James was a superior safety as he set the UMass record for career interceptions with 20. During his junior and seniors seasons, James was the career active leader in interception for all NCAA divisions. He tied the school record for pick-offs in a season with eight in 2004. James also finished as the seventh all-time leading tackler in UMass history with 341. He stands fourth in solo stops with 253. James was invited to Baltimore Ravens training camp in 2006 and starred with the Calgary Stampeders (CFL) from 2006-09. He currently plays for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

BRUCE KIMBALL
OFFENSIVE GUARD • 1975-78

Bruce Kimball was a two-time first team All-America selection on the offensive line for the Minutemen. At his right offensive guard position, Kimball anchored a UMass line that helped the Minutemen rush for over 3,000 yards in 1978 - a school record at the time - on their way to the Division I-AA national championship game. Three different players on the squad rushed for over 500 yards, including Dennis Dent with 1,139. Kimball played a couple of seasons in the Canadian Football League and went on to play for both the New York Giants and the Washington Redskins, playing in Super Bowl XVIII with the Redskins in 1984. One of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team, announced in June, 1996. Kimball was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

GREG LANDRY
QUARTERBACK • 1965-67

Greg Landry is one of the greatest quarterbacks in UMass history. Behind his golden arm and running ability, UMass won two Yankee Conference Beanpots in three years. Landry led the team in passing all three years, and led in rushing and scoring in 1965 and 1967. Landry's quarterback efficiency rating of 145.4 in 1965 is the fifth-best mark in school history to date. He also shared the single-game mark for highest completion percentage (.800). Landry went on to be a successful pro player, spending 14 years in the NFL with the Detroit Lions and the Baltimore Colts, including a season as an All-Pro for Detroit in 1971, when he started for the NFC in the Pro Bowl. Landry also had a stint with the Chicago Blitz in the now-defunct USFL. Landry later served as an assistant coach for his former team, the Detroit Lions, after spending several years on the coaching staff at the University of Illinois. He was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears when they won Super Bowl XX. Landry was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team, announced in June of 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.

JOE LOJKO
QUARTERBACK • 1931-33

UMass went 19-6-1 while Joe Lojko was the starting quarterback for Massachusetts State College's single-wing offensive attack that ranked among the best in New England. In addition to playing football for three years, Lojko earned three letters in basketball and two in baseball. He served as team captain of the 1933-1934 basketball team that compiled a 12-0 record, the only major New England school to ever have an undefeated basketball season. His game-winning basket against Amherst College helped preserve the unblemished record. Lojko died in a tragic automobile accident on April 27, 1934, in South Deerfield, Mass., less than two months from his graduation day. Lojko was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1970.

DICK MACPHERSON
HEAD COACH • 1971-77

Dick MacPherson took over the helm of the Minutemen from Vic Fusia in 1971, and proceeded to lead UMass to four Yankee Conference championships during his seven-year tenure. Between 1971 and 1977, MacPherson compiled a 45-27-1 record and led UMass to its only postseason bowl victory. MacPherson's 1972 squad, featuring receivers Tim Berra and Steve Schubert, and Peil Pennington at quarterback, defeated the University of California-Davis, 35-14, in the 1972 Boardwalk Bowl. His squads also posted a 28-8-1 mark in Yankee Conference games, with his .778 league winning percentage ranking as the fifth-best in conference history. After leaving UMass, MacPherson went on to a successful tour with Syracuse (1981-1990), leading the Orangemen to five postseason bowls, including his undefeated 1987 squad's Sugar Bowl appearance. He also had a two-year stint as head coach of the New England Patriots (1991-1992). He was inducted in the UMass Hall of Fame in 2004.

ED MCALENEY
DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • 1972-75

Ed McAleney earned first team all-America honors from his defensive end spot in 1975. He was also a three-time first team All-Yankee Conference selection during his career with UMass. In his freshman campaign, McAleney was a member of the 1972 squad that downed California-Davis, 35-14, at the Boardwalk Bowl. McAleney was also a two-time captain for the Minutemen in 1974 and 1975. Following his collegiate career, McAleney spent seven seasons with the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League (1977-1983). McAleney was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary Team in 1996. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003.

BOB MEERS
END • 1963-65

Bob Meers was a three-year letterwinner in football, earning All-Yankee Conference and All-New England honors in each of his three seasons. By the time he left UMass, Meers held school marks for career (82) and single-season receptions (39), shared the record for most receptions in a game (nine) and ranked second in receiving yards in a game (146), career receiving yards (1,104), single-season receiving yards per game (58.9) and career receiving yards per game (40.9). A tri-captain of the 1965 team, Meers was a seventh-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 1966 NFL Draft. Meers was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

LEGENDARY MINUTEMEN

MILT MORIN
END • 1963-65

Milt Morin, an all-American in 1964 and 1965, was one of the most versatile athletes ever to play for UMass. While catching enough passes to place him eighth on the career receiving yards list and setting the record at the time, he also excelled on defense and was the team's placekicker his senior year. In addition to his action on the gridiron, Morin was the New England heavyweight wrestling champion in 1965 and played for Dick Garber on the varsity lacrosse team. Morin was a key part of two Yankee Conference championship teams and saw UMass compile a 23-4-1 record in his three seasons, including a 14-1 Yankee Conference mark. Morin went on to play 10 seasons professionally for the Cleveland Browns between 1966 and 1975 and played in three Pro Bowls (1966, 1968 and 1969). He is eighth in Browns' all-time history with 4,208 receiving yards. Morin was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1970.

GARRY PEARSON
RUNNING BACK • 1979-82

Garry Pearson was a two-time first team all-American (1981 and 1982) for the Minutemen and helped UMass to three Yankee Conference titles in his four seasons. He set new standards for running backs at UMass in his four-year tenure. Spending only three seasons in the backfield, Pearson graduated as the school's career leader in rushing (3,859) and all-purpose (5,277) yardage. During his freshman year, Pearson was used almost exclusively to return kicks, before becoming a starting running back as a sophomore. Pearson capped off his UMass career in spectacular fashion, rushing for a then-record 288 yards against American International College in his final collegiate game. He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

BOB PICKETT
HEAD COACH • 1978-83

In his first season as a head coach in 1978, Bob Pickett led UMass to a berth in the first-ever NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game. UMass lost to Florida A&M, 35-28 at the Pioneer Bowl in Wichita Falls, Texas, but on the way to the championship game, the Minutemen routed previously unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Nevada-Reno on its home turf. For his accomplishments that season, Pickett was named coach of the year by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston and the ECAC, while the team earned the Lambert Cup (given to the best Division I-AA team in the East) and was named ECAC Team of the Year. In his six-year tour as head coach, Pickett compiled a 36-28 record and led the Minutemen to four Yankee Conference titles. Pickett went on to serve as an associate athletic director at UMass, retiring from that position in the summer of 1997. He also served as a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Minuteman football games from 1998-2003.

NOEL REEBENACKER
QUARTERBACK • 1951-53

Noel Reebenacker was a walk-on quarterback who earned three varsity letters in football. He was tabbed All-Yankee Conference in 1952 and named to the Little All-America Team in 1953. Upon the completion of his UMass career, Reebenacker had established school single-season records for passing yards (1,865), completions (132), touchdown passes (20) and total offensive yards (2,080), in addition to recording the longest kickoff return in school history with a 102-yard scamper against Springfield College in 1951. Reebenacker later worked at UMass as the backfield coach for two years under coach Charles O'Rourke. Reebenacker was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

KHARI SAMUEL
LINEBACKER • 1995-98

Khari Samuel was a first team all-American and Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team selection who helped lead the Minutemen to their first-ever national championship in 1998. He was one of the best all-around defensive players in school history, able to stuff the run, put pressure on the quarterback and drop off into coverage. Samuel finished his career as UMass' all-time leader in solo tackles with 328, while ranking second in total tackles (495), fourth in assisted tackles (167) and seventh in sacks (19). As a senior in 1998, he recorded the second-highest single-season total in school history for solo tackles (113), while ranking third on the list for total tackles (160). Samuel also served as a team captain in 1997 and 1998 and received the 1998 George "Bulger" Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston as the best Division I defensive player in New England. Following the completion of his collegiate career, Samuel was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fifth round of the 1999 NFL Draft.

MARCEL SHIPP
RUNNING BACK • 1997-2000

One of the top running backs in the history of Division I-AA football, Marcel Shipp was a two-time first team all-America selection for the Minutemen in 1998 and 1999. Shipp rushed for 200 or more yards in a single game seven times during his UMass career, including a 244-yard, three-touchdown performance to lead the Minutemen over Georgia Southern in the 1998 national championship game. Only the 12th player in school history to earn first team all-conference honors three times, Shipp finished his career as the all-time leading rusher in the history of the Atlantic 10 Conference with 6,250 yards. He also set UMass career records for carries (1,215), rushing yards per game (130.2), rushing touchdowns (58), all-purpose yards (7,759), all-purpose plays (1,365), all-purpose yards per game (161.1), points scored (378) and touchdowns scored (63). Shipp spent seven seasons as part of the Arizona Cardinals organization from 2001-07. He also spent one season as the UMass football running backs coach in 2014.

MARK WHIPPLE
HEAD COACH • 1998-2003, 2014-2018

Mark Whipple led UMass to its first NCAA championship in football, capturing the title in his first season with the Minutemen in 1998. Whipple went on to coach UMass for six seasons compiling a 49-26 overall record for a 65.3 win percentage. Whipple coached UMass to three Atlantic 10 Championships, winning crowns in 1998, 1999 and 2003. He left Amherst in 2004 to serve as quarterbacks coach with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, where they won Super Bowl XL in 2006. He went on to serve as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (2007-08) before returning to the college ranks at Miami (Fla.) for two seasons from 2009-10. Whipple was the quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12. He made his return to the University of Massachusetts as the football program's head coach prior to the 2014 campaign and completed his fifth consecutive campaign and 11th overall at the helm of the program in 2018.
