UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary contact Hana Johnson (hanajohnson@umass.edu or 413-575-4470). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be provided to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at McGuirk Alumni Stadium by visiting UMassAthletics.com/credentials. This includes media passes for the press box and sidelines as well as scouting credentials. Media credential requests for UMass road games should be placed through the hosting institution's communications office. COVID-19 protocols may impact availability of credentials.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Don Brown. Live reporting on team practices, including discussion on formations, plays and injuries, via social media channels or any other outlet is not allowed at any time. Parties breaking the above media restrictions are subject to credential revocation for the 2022 season.

AUDIO, VIDEO & IMAGERY USAGE BY MEDIA

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at University of Massachusetts Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. These guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

FACILITY ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, sports medicine suite and strength and conditioning center are closed to the media.

MASSACHUSETTS AT TULANE // YULMAN STADIUM // SEPT. 3 // ESPN+ UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND STORYLINES

YEAR 139

The 139th season of Massachusetts football commences on Saturday as the Minutemen head to Tulane for only the second meeting between the two programs, including the first road contest against the Green Wave.

UMass is 576-613-51 (.465) all-time, and is looking for its first season-opening win since 2018.

SERIES HISTORY

The Minutemen and the Green Wave are meeting for the second time in program history, with Tulane holding a 1-0-0 advantage in the all-time series.

The two programs first and only meeting was on Oct. 1, 2016, at McGuirk Stadium. Tulane went on to defeat Massachusetts, 31-24.

THE QB ROOM: A MIX OF YOUNG AND OLD

The Minutemen's quarterback room features two sophomores (Brady Olson and Zamar Wise), one redshirt sophomore (Garrett Dzuro) and one redshirt junior (Gino Campitotti).

Olson (6'4", 200-pounds from Bellingham, Mass.) appeared in nine career games during the 2021 season as a true freshman.

Campitotti (6'3", 215-pounds from Manteca, Calif.), meanwhile, arrived at UMass after spending the 2021 season at Modesto Junior College, playing in 11 games, and competed at Northern Arizona in the 2019-2020 seasons.

WELCOME BACK COACH

Head coach Don Brown returns to Massachusetts for his second stint with the football program. Brown was named head coach on Nov. 22, 2021, by Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford, after spending a season with Arizona as the defensive coordinator.

During his first stint as head coach with the Minutemen, he led UMass to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004-2008, accumulating a 43-19 record and making two postseason appearances. He spent the previous 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and Arizona.

The Spencer, Massachusetts, native has 45 years of coaching experience to his credit, beginning at Hartford High School in 1977. As a head coach, Brown combined for a 95-45 overall record between Plymouth State, Northeastern and Massachusetts. He also totaled four postseason appearances.

ELLIS MERRI' GO 'ROUND

Redshirt senior Ellis Merriweather carried the load in the backfield for the Minutemen in 2021, rushing 218 times for 1,138 yards (55% of the team's total rushing yards) in his second season at UMass.

Merriweather was aided earlier last season by Rutgers transfer Kay Ron Adams. Adams played two seasons with the Scarlet Knights in 2019 and 2020, compiling 320 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 83 carries in 18 career games, in addition to six catches for 120 yards and a touchdown.

With Adams seeing limited action before being declared out for the remainder of the 2021 season with an ankle injury, Merriweather was the go-to back yet again, and ran for a then-career-high 144 yards on 23 carries against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 18. It was the most yards on the ground since Bilal Ally against UConn on Oct. 26, 2019 (159 yards).

Merriweather improved upon that performance with a monster showing in the win over UConn, carrying the ball 39 times for 171 yards and two touchdowns, his first two rushing TDs of his career and first multi-touchdown game.

At Florida State, Merriweather was limited on the ground, but was UMass' top receiver with 65 yards on four catches.

The Alpharetta, Georgia native ran for 149 yards on 24 carries at Liberty with two plays for 20+ yards. Out of UMass' eight rushing plays going for 20 or more yards last season, Merriweather held six of them.

Against Rhode Island, Merriweather ran for 118 yards on 30 carries and scored his third touchdown on the ground of the 2021 year.

Merriweather's new career single game bests (39 attempts, 171 yards) are more than double his single game highs from last season (16 attempts at Georgia Southern on 10/17/20 and 48 yards at FAU on 11/20/21). He's nearly doubled his average yards per carry and tallied 1,138 yards on 218 carries compared to 155 yards on 42 attempts in four games in 2020.

Merriweather is the only player on the UMass roster with a 100-yard rushing game to his name and finished with seven games on the year, which established a new school single-season record. It marks the most for a Minuteman since Marquis Young had four in both his sophomore (2016) and junior (2017) campaigns.

TO THE HOUSE! (TWICE)

Josiah Johnson had a pair of touchdowns for Massachusetts on Sept. 18 against Eastern Michigan: a one-yard dash into the end zone in the second quarter before hauling in a 29-yard pass from Brady Olson late in regulation.

He was the first Minuteman with a rushing and a receiving touchdown in the same game against an FBS opponent since Marquis Young on Dec. 2, 2017 vs. FIU.

Johnson caught his second touchdown pass of the season on Nov. 6 vs. Rhode Island and joined Rico Arnold as the only two Minutemen with multiple touchdown catches this season.

O-C, TRIPLE O-C

After seeing his streak of 17 straight games with a catch come to an end against Boston College on Sept. 11, wide receiver Jermaine "OC" Johnson, Jr. got back on track with a grab against Eastern Michigan and two more at No. 17 Coastal Carolina. He has at least one catch in 20 of his 26 career games.

BALL!

The Minutemen were quick to pounce on the loose ball last season, recording two fumble recoveries in each of the first two games, and one each against EMU, UConn, at Florida State, at Liberty and at Army.

It was the first time in the FBS era, and first time overall since 2009, that Massachusetts has logged two fumble recoveries in each of its first two games of the year.

It was also the first time since Oct. 21, 2017 (Georgia Southern) and Oct. 28, 2017 (Appalachian State) that the Minutemen recorded at least two fumble recoveries in consecutive games.

Avien Peah, Uchenna Ezewike, Bryson Richardson, Javon Batten, Viczaril Alobwede and Gerrell Johnson all had recoveries in the 2021 season for UMass, making the Minutemen tied for 39th in the nation in fumble recoveries.

UMass had at least one takeaway in 30 of the last 38 games dating back to Sept. 8, 2018 at Georgia Southern. The lone exceptions in the span is the Sept. 14, 2019 game against Charlotte, Nov. 7, 2020 at No. 16/15 Marshall, Nov. 27, 2020 at RV/RV Liberty, Sept. 25, 2021 at No. 17/17 Coastal Carolina, Oct. 2, 2021 vs. Toledo, Nov. 6, 2021 vs. Rhode Island, Nov. 13, 2021 vs. Maine and Nov. 27, 2021 at New Mexico State.

Gerrell Johnson forced two fumbles at Florida State, the first time a Minuteman did so since Jovan Santos-Knox had two vs. Akron on Nov. 7, 2015.

ON THE HUNT

Freshman linebacker Gerrell Johnson had a game-high 13 tackles (five solo, eight assisted) on Sept. 11 against Boston College, and followed it up with another double-digit day against Toledo on Oct. 2 (two solo, eight assisted). On Nov. 20 at Army, Johnson recorded a career-best 14 tackles (six solo, eight assisted).

He and Da'Shon Ross (14 tackles vs. Toledo; 10 tackles at Army) are the only active players on the roster with a 10+ tackle game in their careers.

BORN AND BRED IN THE COMMONWEALTH

TURNED ASIDE

Two members of the 2022 team have registered blocked punts: Jermaine "OC" Johnson, Jr. on Oct. 5, 2019 at FIU and Tanner Davis on Nov. 20, 2020 at FAU.

Johnson, Jr., then a freshman, blocked an FIU punt when he deflected a Tommy Heatherly attempt from the FIU 45 that landed at the UMass 37 yard line.

Davis, a sophomore, blocked a Matt Hayball punt at FAU that bounced out of bounds through the end zone for a safety.

Johnson, Jr.'s was the first blocked punt by the Minutemen since Joe Colton stuffed an Akron punt attempt on Nov. 10, 2012 during the program's first-ever FBS win.

MERRIWEATHER NAMED TO MAXWELL AWARD WATCH LIST

Ellis Merriweather was named to the 86th Maxwell Award Watch List, announced July 18 by the Maxwell Football Club. The award is presented to the College Player of the Year.

Merriweather completed the 2021 year as Massachusetts' first 1,000-yard rusher in the program's FBS era, while accumulating 1,138 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns. He recorded 218 consecutive carries without any fumbles and totaled a career best 39 carries for 171 yards and two touchdowns, leading UMass to its first victory of 2021. Merriweather received 2021 Phil Steele All-Independent Second Team honors.

FIVE MINUTEMEN TABBED PHIL STEELE PRE-SEASON ALL-INDEPENDENT

Massachusetts placed five members of the team on the 2022 Phil Steele Preseason All-Independent Team, including running back Ellis Merriweather, tight end Josiah Johnson, offensive tackle Max Longman, defensive tackle Billy Wooden and cornerback Josh Wallace. Merriweather earned First Team accolades, while Johnson, Longman, Wooden and Wallace each were named Second Team.

MERRIWEATHER NOMINATED FOR 2022 ALL-STATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Redshirt senior Ellis Merriweather was nominated for the 2022 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team on July 20, as announced by Allstate and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

Merriweather is one of 114 student-athletes who showcase exemplary community service, academic dedication and impact on and off the field. The candidates for Allstate's 31st AFCA Good Works Team are scholars, leaders and community champions, who have volunteered to build homes, mentor underserved kids and feed the hungry, as well as advocate for civil injustice.

Off the field, Merriweather has contributed his time and services to several organizations as a representative in each organization. He has dedicated his time developing, collaborating and advocating with peers, staff and other mentors for the mental health and well-being of student-athletes, while engaging in community service opportunities and programs with student-athletes. The Alpharetta, Georgia, native has also aided in a compilation of extensive resources and tools to be an effective change agent on campus and beyond.

KEEPING TABS ON AN OLD FRIEND

Redshirt junior tight end Josiah Johnson had been hearing the name of a former teammate on the airwaves throughout New England all last season. Johnson, formerly a quarterback, attended the Bolles School in Jacksonville, Fla. where he was the backup to current New England Patriots quarterback Mac Jones.

TRIO LAND ON EAST-WEST SHRINE BOWL 1000 LIST

Three Minutemen were selected to the East-West Shrine Bowl 1000 list, including Ellis Merriweather, Billy Wooden and Josh Wallace. The trio are among the best 1,000 players throughout all of college football who are currently all-star game eligible for the 2023 East-West Shrine Bowl and the 2023 NFL Draft Class.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

UMass employs four alumni in a full-time coaching role in 2022 in assistant head coach/special teams coordinator/defensive lines coach, Ben Albert, defensive line coach, Valdamer Brower, associate head coach/offensive line coach, Alex Miller and tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator, Jeff Moore. Albert is a 1995 graduate of the University of Massachusetts and was an All-Conference defensive lineman. During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, he served as the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator, where he aided the Minutemen to the 2003 Atlantic 10 Conference championship.

Brower, a 2004 graduate of UMass, was a star defensive lineman for Massachusetts from 1999-2003, playing for then-defensive coordinator Don Brown during the 1999 season.

Miller developed into one of the most celebrated offensive linemen during his playing days at Massachusetts. His four years starting on the line culminated with multiple first team all-America awards following the team's appearance in the 2006 National Championship Game. Miller cemented his legacy as a durable and reliable centerpiece for the Minutemen with starts in all 50 games played during the 2003-06 seasons.

A 2012 graduate of UMass, Moore played receiver for the Minutemen from 2008-12 as a walk-on.

Two additional coaching staff members earned a degree from UMass in analyst Randall Jette '15 and Jesse Monteiro '17.

COEN TO BE INDUCTED IN UMASS ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

UMass football's Liam Coen (2004-08) is one of four inductees to the UMass Athletics George "Trigger" Burke Hall of Fame. The Class of 2022 will be inducted on Friday, September 16.

Coen was the starting quarterback for the 2005-08 seasons for head coach Don Brown and was a team captain during his redshirt senior year in 2008. The Minutemen were 37-14 overall and 25-7 in conference play (2005 – Atlantic 10; '06-08 – CAA) during his four seasons as the starting quarterback. Coen was selected Atlantic 10 All-Conference Third Team (2006) and CAA All-Conference Second Team (2007, '08). At the time of graduation, he was one of 21 quarterbacks in FCS history with 10,000 or more passing yards in a career. He was 18th all-time in FCS/I-AA history for career passing yards (11,031) and 20th for touchdowns thrown (90).

Coen is currently the career record-holder for passing yards (11,031), pass attempts (1,303), pass completions (830), touchdown passes (90), completion percentage (.639), passer efficiency (152.92), yards per pass attempt (8.47). He holds the UMass single-season record-holder for completion percentage (.650; 2006) and passing efficiency (160.52; 2006).

He helped lead Massachusetts to the 2006 NCAA FCS National Championship Game by going 69-of-109 for 837 yards with six touchdowns during the playoff run. Coen also led the Minutemen to an NCAA postseason appearance in 2007 and won conference championships in 2006 and 2007, as well. He tied the program record for most passing touchdowns in one game (5 at Towson, 2006; vs. Bryant, 2008), and is one of only two quarterbacks to throw five touchdowns in a single game.

Coen spent two seasons as an assistant coach at UMass under then-head coach Mark Whipple in 2014 and 2015. After leaving UMass to serve as the offensive coordinator and QBs coach at the University of Maine (2016-17), Coen then coached in the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams in 2018 and 2019, helping the team reach the Super Bowl during his first season as an assistant wide receiver's coach. In March of 2022, Coen was named the offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Rams.

HEAD COACH DON BROWN

FIRST SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS (SECOND STINT) // NORWICH '77

Highly respected football coach and iconic defensive mind Don Brown has returned to the University of Massachusetts football program for his second stint as head coach, Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford announced on November 22, 2021. Brown, who led the Minutemen to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004 to 2008, has spent the past 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and, most recently, the University of Arizona where he served as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator during the 2021 season.

The Spencer, Massachusetts, native, known for his aggressive and blitz-heavy attacks, has nearly 45 years of coaching experience to his credit.

While at Michigan, the Wolverines finished among the top-12 units in the nation in total defense from 2016-2019, which included a No. 1 ranking in 2016. Under Brown's watch, the Wolverines led the country in pass defense twice, once in 2016 again in 2017. Michigan made 16 top-25 appearances in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense, and pass defense during the 2016-2019 stretch.

During his time with Michigan, Brown's student-athletes earned 49 All-Big Ten recognitions, with 43-of-44 starters earning all-conference honors as well as 10 players that picked up 14 first team nods.

Prior to his four years in Ann Arbor, Brown spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator at Boston College where he was known for the team's defensive overhaul that brought the squad to two bowl games in three seasons; a matchup with Arizona in the AdvoCare Independence Bowl in 2013 and the Pinstripe Bowl in 2014 against Penn State. The Eagles' ranked No. 92 in total defense the year prior to Brown's arrival and under his leadership earned two top-12 finishes in 2014 and 2015. That 2015 unit led the nation in total defense allowing only 254.3 yards per game. Brown spent one season at the University of Connecticut and the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at the University of Maryland before making his way to Boston College.

Before his tenure as a Power Five defensive coordinator, Brown served as the head coach at Massachusetts (2004-08), Northeastern (2000-03), and Plymouth State (1993-95) where he compiled a career record of 94-45. Brown amassed a combined five conference championships and six playoff appearances during his time at those three institutions. During his first stint at UMass, he led the Minutemen to a 43-19 record in what was the winningest period in program history.

Over the last decade, 29 defensive players who played under Brown have been selected in the NFL Draft. After the total overhaul of the Boston College defense, Brown was tabbed as the American Football Coaches Association, Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015. Brown was a five-time nominee and a finalist in 2016 for the Broyles Award, annually awarded to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 1992, Brown served as the interim head baseball coach at Yale where he led the team to a 26-10 record and an NCAA Tournament bid.

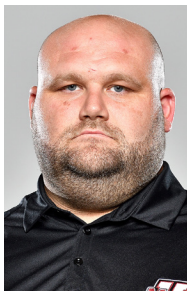

Brown played four years as a running back at Norwich University and lettered for two seasons as a member of the Men's Basketball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from NU in 1977.

Brown and his wife Deborah have four children and 10 grandchildren.
