2019 HOBEBY BAKER WINNER

ALL-AMERICAN

CALE MAKAR

University of Massachusetts hockey sophomore defenseman Cale Makar was named the winner of the 2019 Hobey Baker Award, the first-ever winner from UMass, on April 12, 2019 at the HarborCenter in Buffalo, New York.

Makar helped elevate Massachusetts hockey to unprecedented success in 2018-19 with the program's first-ever Frozen Four appearance. He finished his collegiate career with 70 points on 21 goals and 49 assists over 75 career contests and as the record holder for career plus-minus at +41, signing with the Colorado Avalanche and forgoing the final two years of his collegiate eligibility at the conclusion of the 2018-19 season.

Chosen as the Hockey East Player of the Year by unanimous selection, Makar, a native of Calgary, Alberta, also received the Leonard Fowle Award as New England Player of the Year and the Bob Monahan Award (New England's Best Defenseman) in addition to being named a Hockey East First-Team All-Star, a New England All-Star and a 2018-19 CCM/AHA Hockey First Team All-American.

Makar was at the center of a historic run for Massachusetts hockey in 2018-19, including program records in wins, conference wins and the team's first-ever Hockey East Regular Season Championship.

The first defenseman in history to lead Hockey East in overall scoring with 49 points in 40 games, Makar finished the year eighth in the nation in points per-game (1.20), sixth in assists per-game (0.80), third in defenseman scoring and second in plus-minus (+32). He was voted the Most Outstanding Player at the NCAA Ice Hockey Northeast Regional after leading UMass to a Northeast Regional Championship with a goal, an assist and a +3 rating in 4-0 shutouts of Harvard and Notre Dame. In the national semifinal, Makar logged his 33rd assist of the season and helped the Minutemen earn a spot in the NCAA Championship game for the first time in program history.

Makar broke UMass' single-season records for points by a defenseman and assists by a defenseman in 2018-19, marks previously held by UMass Hall of Famer Thomas Poeck. He is second in program history for single-season assists, as well as second in plus-minus and fifth for single-season points.

Makar totaled 30 points in 24 Hockey East games on eight goals and 22 assists, ranking second in points per-game (1.25) and first in plus-minus (+21). He was recognized as Hockey East Defensive Player of the Week two times in 2018-19, Player of the Week five times and was the Hockey East Player of the Month twice.

The 2018-19 Massachusetts alternate captain guided the Minutemen to their first No. 1 ranking in school history in both the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, and the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament. His 16 tallies in 2018-19 bolstered UMass' highest goals total (151) in the program's Hockey East era. Nationally, the Minutemen ranked third in scoring offense (3.68), tied for seventh in scoring defense (2.02), third in scoring margin (1.66), first in power play percentage (28.5) and fifth in penalty kill (86.9).

Makar was named No. 1 on ESPN's list of Top 50 NHL Drafted Prospects in March 2019. As a freshman in 2017-18, Makar was a Hockey East Third-Team All-Star and an All-Rookie Team honoree and won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship, where he was one of Canada's three Players of the Tournament and a World Junior Media All-Star Team selection.

Jonathan Quick—2007

Jonathan Quick, UMass Hockey’s MVP for the 2006-07 season, was named a second-team All-America selection after backstopping UMass to a 21-13-5 record and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. RBK Hockey, the sponsor of the Division I NCAA All-American program, allows for two teams in the East and the West, with the award winners being chosen by the American Hockey Coaches Association (ACHA). The Minutemen sophomore netminder paved the way to the NCAA’s and the first-ever NCAA victory for the program. Quick shattered all single-season goaltending records while earning nearly five times the number of wins he had as a rookie. He allowed two or fewer goals in 23 of 37 games played with 17 30+ save performances. All three of his career shutouts came in 2006-07, while earning 10 wins against ranked opponents. He also helped UMass to season series wins over three of the other top-five Hockey East teams. Quick was a Hockey East second team All-Star and signed a three-year deal with the Los Angeles Kings at the conclusion of the season, forgoing his final two seasons of collegiate eligibility.

Thomas Poeck—2004

No one single player had as much of an impact on UMass’ fortunes as Thomas Poeck did. The Klagenfurt, Austria, native came to UMass as a highly-regarded forward and left as the most decorated defenseman in school history. Poeck rewrote the record books, breaking every defenseman scoring record, while accomplishing these feats in only two years. Over his final two seasons in a UMass uniform, Poeck led the Minutemen to a 38-29-7 record, two appearances at the FleetCenter and a big increase at the Mullins Center turnstiles. He was UMass’ first-ever Hobey Baker finalist and had one of the finest seasons for a defenseman in Hockey East history, scoring 41 points (16g, 25a) and becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 100 career points. He was named insidecollegehockey.com’s National Defenseman of the Year and earned spots on the USCHO.com and JOFA All-America first-team lists. Three days after the season ended, Poeck signed a free-agent contract with the New York Rangers and scored a goal in his first game, the same day he signed the contract. Poeck finished the NHL season with four points (2g, 2a) in only six games of action. Shortly after the NHL season, Poeck helped Team Austria to its best finish in the World Championships in history. In 2014, Poeck was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame.

P.J. Flaherty—1972

P.J. Flaherty was the key defensive component to UMass’ first championship won in hockey—the 1972 ECAC Division II Championship. Flaherty led the Minutemen to a 19-7-0 mark, including a 9-1-0 start to the season. Flaherty still ranks fourth in career wins with 38. By no means an orthodox goalie, Flaherty loved to roam the ice and picked up two assists on the season. In 2007, Flaherty was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame.

Pat Keenan—1972, 1973

What Flaherty was to the 1972 defense, Pat Keenan was to the 1972 offense. The Weston, Ontario, native’s standards still stand today, and are likely to stand for quite some time. He is UMass’ all-time leader in points (180) and goals (105) and he holds the top three single-season scoring performances (65 in 1972-73, 59 in 1971-72 and 56 in 1970-71). For his career he averaged a remarkable 2.73 points per-game. He also holds single-game records for points (9) and goals (7). Keenan scored all the points despite having a six-game scoring drought at the end of the 71-72 season, meaning he scored all 59 points in a 19-game span during the year. He was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Brian Sullivan—1972

Brian Sullivan may not have had the stats of Keenan and Flaherty, but was a vital cog in the UMass defense during its championship season. A team captain, Sullivan scored only 44 career points, including 16 in his All-American year of 1971-72, but helped the Minutemen to a 43-21-1 mark in his three years in Amherst. He finished his career by playing in 64 of 65 games, scoring 12 goals and 32 assists. Sullivan became the first “modern-day” player in school history to turn pro.
