LAST TIME OUT: UMASS SWEEPS ALASKA ANCHORAGE

- No. 11 University of Massachusetts hockey swept its first-ever meetings against Alaska Anchorage on December 8 and 9. In Friday's contest, the Minutemen used eight different goal scorers to a defeat the Seawolves 11-2. The 11 tallies set a new program record for most goals against a Division I opponent. On Saturday, UMass scored a pair of late goals in the third period to finish off a weekend with a 3-2 victory.

- In game one fifteen Minutemen found their way onto the scoresheet in the contest, including eight multi-point performances. Freshman Aydar Suniev led the group with a career-high five points on two goals and three assists, while junior Ryan Ufko also posted a new career best with four points (1g, 3a). Junior Scott Morrow (1g, 2a) and freshman Jack Musa (1g, 2a) had three points each. Suniev was one of three multi-goal scorers, joined by classmate Dans Locmelis and junior Taylor Makar. Defensemen Sebastian Törnqvist and Owen Murray both finished with two helpers, Törnqvist's marked the first two points of his collegiate career.

- In his first game back from injury, sophomore Michael Cameron put UMass out in front at the 2:37 mark of the first period. The Berwyn, Pennsylvania native out-skated a pair of defenders and beat UAA goaltender Jared Whale for the game's first goal while juniors Ryan Lautenbach and Ufko picked up the assists.

- Less than two minutes later, Suniev doubled the UMass lead with his fifth tally of the season on a delayed penalty. Ufko earned his second helper while Musa recorded his first point of the night.

- Continuing the scoring, Ufko netted a power play goal to give him a three-point first period, set up by Morrow and Suniev at the 7:31 mark.

- Midway through the frame, Cam O'Neill scored his second of the season to put the Minutemen up 4-0. Fellow Senators' draft pick Nick VanTassell recorded his first collegiate point with the assist while Lucas Vanroboys added the secondary helper.

- To round out the scoring in the opening stanza, Murray and Musa set up Locmelis for his third goal of the season at 16:25.

- Just 10 seconds into the second period, the Seawolves got on the board with a tally from Maximilian Helgeson. However at 7:07, Suniev regained the five-goal advantage from Morrow and Törnqvist.

- After Riley Thompson added the second tally for Alaska Anchorage 9:38 into the period, Makar responded for UMass to bring the score to 7-2 at the 17:09 mark.

- In the final frame, the Minutemen picked up right where they left off as Murray found Locmelis for his second goal of the evening just 1:54 in.

- A minute and 26 seconds later, Musa added another for the Minutemen on a power play, as Suniev and Ufko picked up the assists.

- At the 9:33 mark, Makar became the second Minuteman to score a pair of goals in the game to extend the UMass lead to eight. Cole O'Hara and Kenny Connors' work behind the net set up the tally.

- Morrow then capped the scoring with a power-play goal at 19:58 from Törnqvist and Suniev. - UMass finished with a 37-26 advantage in shots and went 3-for-4 on the power play and 3-for-3 on the penalty kill.

- Senior Cole Brady turned aside 18 in net for the Minutemen before being relieved by Irving who made six stops over his first 8 minutes, 50 second of collegiate action.

- In game two, Alaska Anchorage opened the scoring 6:28 into the first as Ben Anderson's outlet pass set up an odd-man rush and Brandon Lajoie dished off to Matt Kinash who finished with a one-timer from the right faceoff circle.

- The Minutemen leveled the score at 1-1 moments later. Morrow collected the puck from Lautenbach and dropped it off for Mercuri who went bar down for his fifth tally of the season at the 9:25 mark.

- The teams would remain deadlocked until 17:06 into the third period when Morrow advanced the puck to Musa who played it to Suniev off the half wall. Suniev then drove to the net and tucked it past goaltender Jared Whale inside the far post.

- Just 55 seconds later, Makar added a third UMass goal, cleaning up a rebound at the top of the crease off the initial shot by Connors. O'Hara earned the secondary helper on the play.

- Alaska Anchorage then capped the scoring with an extra attacker on with one minute remaining in the third as Connor Marritt sent the puck to Riley Thompson behind the net and he found Ben Almquist for the finish out in front.

- The Minutemen ended the night with a 38-21 shot advantage and went 0-for-4 on the power play and 2-for-2 on the penalty kill.

- Morrow was second on the team in scoring for October, trailing only Musa, as he put up nine points on two goals and seven assists with both tallies coming on the power play.

- The Darien, Connecticut native had back-to-back multi-point games against No. 6 Michigan (1g, 1a) and No. 19/20 Minnesota State (3a), both 6-3 victories for the Minutemen. He also helped UMass post a 1-0 shutout on the road at No. 19/20 Minnesota State to complete a weekend sweep of the Mavericks. Morrow currently ranks tied for ninth nationally for points by a defenseman with 15.

FILL THE BILL

- UMass enters 2024 ranked 12th nationally in attendance and average attendance (5,161) through 10 home games on the year.

- The attendance vs. No. 6 Michigan tied the program's Mullins Center attendance record at 8,412 after packing the building with 7,361 fans the night before against the Wolverines, good for 17th-most all-time. That weekend series against Michigan set a new non-conference weekend series attendance record with a combined total of 15,773 coming through the doors at Mullins on Oct. 13 and 14.

MUSA TABBED HOCKEY EAST ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- Freshman forward Jack Musa was selected as the Hockey East Pro Ambitions Rookie of the Week on Oct. 16. The Orange Park, Florida native helped the Minutemen earn a split with No. 6 Michigan, setting up five of UMass' eight goals on the weekend.

- Musa led UMass in points on the week with five helpers against the Wolverines, including three of the six goals the Minutemen scored in the third period in Saturday's 6-3 come-from-behind victory. He also assisted both goals in the Friday loss.

MINUTEMEN EARN PAIR OF WEEKLY AWARDS AFTER SWEEPING MAVERICKS

- Senior defenseman Aaron Bohlinger and freshman goaltender Michael Hrabal were selected as Hockey East Army ROTC Defender of the Week and Stop It Goaltending Goaltender of the Week on October 23 after the duo helped the Minutemen sweep #19/20 Minnesota State on the road with a 6-3 win in game one and a 1-0 victory in game two.

- Bohlinger collected three assists and was +1 with seven blocks over the two-game set against the Mavericks. The Walden, New York native had a pair of assists in Friday's contest with one coming on the first goal of the game and the other on a power play late that put UMass up 5-3, while also blocking three shots.

- On Saturday, Bohlinger helped lead a UMass defense the shutout win with four blocked shots and picked up the primary assist on the game's only tally. He also helped UMass' penalty kill go a perfect 14-for-14 on the weekend.

- Hrabal started both games in net for the Minutemen and posted a 1.51 goals-against average and a .952 save percentage with two wins on the weekend. The Prague, Czechia, native made 28 saves on Friday and followed up by stopping all 32 he faced on Saturday in his first career shutout.

CLEAN SWEEP

- UMass' 6-3 and 1-0 victories on the road at #19/20 Minnesota State on October 20-21 marked the first time since 2010 that the Minutemen swept a ranked team in a road weekend series. Massachusetts beat #17 Maine 5-2 and 4-3 on March 5-6, 2010.

BLOCK PARTY

- Graduate transfer Samuli Niinisaari had seven blocks in the Oct. 21 1-0 shutout at #19/20 Minnesota State, tying the program record previously set by Marc Hetnik (10/10/15 at Colorado College), Callum Fryer (vs. UMass Lowell 1/9/15), Oleg Yevenko (at Quinnipiac 11/28/14) and Colin Shea (12/7/13). The total also tied Niinisaari's personal best, which he set while at Brown playing against Colgate on Feb. 25, 2023.

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF DIVISION I HOCKEY

- On October 23, 1993, the University of Massachusetts hockey team took the ice for the first time as a Division I program, taking on Merrimack in North Andover. Thus began a new era for a program that was shuttered at the conclusion of the 1978-79 season, despite winning the ECAC Division II National Championship in 1972.

- Fast forwarding to the present day, as we enter the 2023-24 campaign, University of Massachusetts Athletics will celebrate 30 years of Division I hockey in Amherst throughout the upcoming season. In addition to honoring the 1993-94 squad, the top moments from the past 30 seasons will be highlighted on social media and at UMass hockey home games.

- After 15 years of no hockey program at UMass, the Minutemen went 20-9 in their return campaign in 1993-94, playing a mixture of Division I, II and III teams.

- The 1993-94 roster was comprised of 22 freshmen and one senior, former UMass baseball player Steve Corradi, and a football All-Yankee Conference defensive end, Brian Corcoran. The program's first signed recruit of the Division I era was defenseman Rich Alger, the father of current Minutemen senior defenseman Linden Alger.

TAKING STOCK

- University of Massachusetts hockey has a balanced roster of youth and experience in its eighth season under head coach Greg Carvel in 2023-24 with 15 returnees and 13 newcomers making up the roster.

- UMass saw the bulk of its roster turnover among its forwards group with nine new players joining the seven returnees. The Minutemen return all five of their top-five goal scorers from 2022-23, including Taylor Makar who led the squad with 10 tallies as a sophomore. Kenny Connors and Michael Cameron are back as well after putting up nine goals apiece as freshmen. Three graduate transfers and six freshmen will give a new look to much of the front half of the UMass lineup with five of those newcomers being NHL draft selections.

- Defensively the script has flipped from a year ago as Carvel's squad now boasts a veteran defensive corps after dressing mostly freshmen and sophomores many last season.

- Seniors Linden Alger and Aaron Bohlinger are back healthy after both missing time due to injury in 2022-23, while senior Elliott McDermott enters year two with the Minutemen after the Colgate transfer appeared in all 35 games last season.

- Pro prospects Scott Morrow and Ryan Ufko have returned for their junior campaigns and ranked first and third, respectively, among the team in point scoring last season.

- Owen Murray and Kennedy O'Connor round out the group of returnees on the blueline, having played in 21 and 22 games each last season as freshmen.

- The Minutemen have added even more of a veteran presence on the back end with the addition of graduate transfer Samuli Niinisaari from Brown, while Sebastian Törnqvist is the lone freshman defenseman for UMass this season.

- In net, Massachusetts returns Cole Brady who saw 600+ minutes for UMass last season over 13 games after transferring in from Arizona State. Brady, a 2019 New Jersey Devils' draft selection, will mentor two freshmen between the pipes with freshman Michael Hrabal, a 2023 second round pick of Arizona, and Massachusetts native Jackson Irving joining the squad.

MORROW MAKING HIS MARK

- Entering his junior season, Scott Morrow led the nation in career goals by active defensemen and ranked fourth nationally among active defensemen with 64 career points, second in game-winning goals by defensemen (5) and third in power-play goals by defensemen (7).

- Last year Morrow joined UMass Hall of Famer Thomas Poeck as the only Minutemen blueliners in program history to post multiple seasons with 30+ points, logging 33 as a freshman and 31 as a sophomore.

- Morrow is climbing UMass' defenseman scoring career list, currently third.

- UMass previously played in the Ice Breaker Tournament in 2008 when Boston University hosted at Agganis Arena in Boston.

- The Ice Breaker Tournament, which began in 1997, traditionally marks the beginning of the NCAA Division I men's hockey season. The event brings together four teams, typically from different conferences, and is administered by College Hockey Inc. on behalf of the Hockey Commissioners Association.

PROSPECTS APLENTY

- The Massachusetts roster features 13 NHL draft picks, the most in program history, which is tied for second nationally, trailing only Boston University and Boston College's 14.

- Six of the 13 draftees are newcomers to the squad for 2023-24, including graduate transfer Liam Gorman who was selected in the sixth round (177th overall) by the Pittsburgh Penguins in the 2018 NHL Entry Draft and had his rights traded to Chicago in 2022. In addition to Gorman, UMass has also added Dans Locmelis (Boston, 2022 fourth round), Michael Hrabal (Arizona, 2023 second round), Cam O'Neill (Ottawa, 2022 fifth round), Aydar Suniev (Calgary, 2023 third round) and Nick VanTassell (Ottawa, 2023 seventh round).

"BO" AND UFKO WEARING THE C'S

- University of Massachusetts hockey has named senior defenseman Aaron Bohlinger and junior defenseman Ryan Ufko as co-captains for 2023-24.

- Bohlinger appeared in 25 games in 2022-23 and totaled nine points on two goals and seven assists with one power-play goal and one game winner. He also blocked 43 shots and registered two multi-point games and one multi-goal game.

- Out of seven career tallies for the Walden, New York native, one was the overtime winner in the 2022 Hockey East Championship and his first career goal was the game winner in the 2021 National Championship. Bohlinger helped the Minutemen win a Hockey East title in 2021, as well.

- He is a two-time AHCA Krampade All-American Scholar and a three-time Hockey East All-Academic Team honoree while earning the prestigious honor of being named Hockey East's Top Scholar-Athlete in 2021-22 and in 2022-23.

- This past summer, Bohlinger became just the second Academic All-American in program history. He currently has seen action in 99 career games with 41 career points (7g, 34a).

- Ufko garnered the team's Most Valuable Player recognition in 2023-24 after finishing his sophomore campaign third for the Minutemen in scoring with 24 points over 32 games on eight goals and 16 assists with four of his tallies coming on the power play. The Smithtown, New York, native led UMass in blocks with 48,

Eighth Season - Career Record (Entering 2023-24): 215-187-35

Record at Massachusetts (Entering 2023-24): 129-105-17

Alma Mater: Saint Lawrence '93/Massachusetts '98G

2019 Spencer Penrose Award winner Greg Carvel enters his eighth season as head coach of the Minutemen in 2023-24. He guided UMass to back-to-back Hockey East Tournament Championships in 2021 and 2022 and its first NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey National Championship in 2020-21. The National Hockey League (NHL) coaching veteran was named the 14th ice hockey head coach at the University of Massachusetts on March 29, 2016.

In 2021-22, Carvel's sixth season at the helm, the Minutemen won their second straight Hockey East Tournament title, defeating UConn, 2-1 in overtime at the TD Garden on March 19, 2022, punching their ticket to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. Senior forward Bobby Trivigno became the second Hockey East Player of the Year in program history and second of Carvel's tenure, was a Top-10 Finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, the College Hockey News Player of the Year, repeated as the winner of the Walter Brown Award and was one of two First-Team All-Americans from UMass, joined by Scott Morrow, the first freshman in program history to earn All-America status. Trivigno was also the Hockey East 2021-22 Scoring Champion and headlined a group of five Minutemen to garner Hockey East All-Star recognition. Carvel has coached 20 Hockey East All-Stars in the past five seasons, more than any other program in the league over that span.

On April 10, 2021, the Minutemen defeated St. Cloud State, 5-0 in the National Championship game, reaching the pinnacle of college hockey in the fifth season of Carvel's tenure. En route to the title, UMass outscored its opponents 27-6 in the 2020-21 postseason, and 17-3 in the NCAA Tournament.

Additionally in 2020-21, Carvel led UMass to the No. 3 seed in the Hockey East Tournament and the squad won three games on home ice to secure the Minutemen's first Hockey East Tournament Championship. Five Minutemen collected Hockey East All-Star honors, the second highest total in program history, while Trivigno was named the program's first-ever winner of the Walter Brown Award as the best American-born player in New England and Josh Lopina was tabbed Hockey East Co-Rookie of the Year, the first-ever from UMass.

Trivigno earned a First Team All-America nod, as well, and defenseman Zac Jones was tabbed a Second Team All-American. UMass ended the 2020-21 campaign on a 14-game unbeaten streak, the longest unbeaten streak in program history, going 11-0-3 since January 22 and the Minutemen finished with a 20-5-4 record, the fewest losses for an NCAA Champion since Maine's 40-1-2 season in 1992-93. Carvel was tabbed the USCHO and College Hockey News Coach of the Year in 2021. In addition, he was also the 2021 Spencer Penrose runner-up.

Over the past seven years, Massachusetts hockey has made a meteoric rise under Carvel's guidance, including five of the top-10 winningest seasons in UMass' 92-season history, the program's first NCAA title, first NCAA Runner-Up finish, first Hockey East regular season and tournament titles and first Hobey Baker winner. On his watch, the Minutemen posted four straight 20-win seasons from 2018-19 to 2021-22. He has coached five Hobey Baker finalists, two Hobey Hat Trick Finalists and one Hobey Baker winner in his 12-year head coaching career.

UMass matched its then second-highest wins total in program history in 2019-20 with 21 victories and was poised to make its second-straight

NCAA Tournament appearance before the season was cut short. The Minutemen finished eighth in the PairWise rankings and spent 22 straight weeks in the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, while securing the No. 2 seed in the Hockey East Tournament.

John Leonard led the nation in goals and in goals per-game in 2019-20 and became the third Hobey Baker Top 10 Finalist in program history, the second of Carvel's tenure. Leonard collected a host of accolades as he was named a CCM/AHCA First Team East All-American, Herb Gallagher Award co-winner (New England's best forward), a Hockey East First-Team All-Star and the program's first winner of Hockey East's PNC Bank Three Stars Award. Two more Minutemen received postseason recognitions as Jake McLaughlin was tabbed a Hockey East Third-Team All-Star and Jones earned a spot on the Hockey East All-Rookie Team.

UMass enjoyed unprecedented success in 2018-19 with the team breaking program records for wins overall (31) and in conference play while finishing as the 2019 National Runner-Up after reaching the National Championship game. The Minutemen went 18-6-0 in Hockey East play and captured the school's first Hockey East Regular Season Championship.

Carvel's Minutemen also eclipsed previous school records for home and road victories and posted the longest win streak in program history in 2018-19. Taking a team that won just five games two seasons prior, Carvel led UMass to its first-ever No. 1 rankings in both the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine Polls.

UMass finished in the top-10 nationally in virtually every statistical category in 2018-19, including first in combined special teams (57.9) and power play percentage (28.5), third in scoring margin (1.66), third in scoring offense (3.68), fifth in penalty kill (86.9) and seventh in scoring defense (2.02). The Minutemen posted their highest goals total in the program's Hockey East era (151) and set a program record for power play goals (43).

On Carvel's watch, Minutemen garnered a host of individual accolades in 2018-19, highlighted by Cale Makar being chosen as the 2019 Hobey Baker Award winner. Makar and Mitchell Chaffee were both tabbed first team All-Americans, while Makar was named UMass' first-ever Hockey East Player of the Year and Chaffee earned the title of Hockey East Scoring Champion. Chaffee received the Herb Gallagher Award, Chaffee, Makar and senior forward Jacob Pritchard were all tabbed New England All-Stars, while Makar picked up both the Bob Monahan Award as New England's best defenseman and the Leonard Fowle Award as New England player of the year. College Hockey News selected Makar as its CHN Player of the Year and to its All-CHN First Team, while naming Marc Del Gaizo to its CHN All-Rookie Team. Additionally, the Minutemen collected a school-record six Hockey East All-Star accolades and Carvel was recognized as both the 2019 Clark Hodder Award winner (New England Coach of the Year) and the Hockey East Bob Kullen Coach of the Year.

In Carvel's second year at the helm in 2017-18, the Minutemen posted a 12-win improvement from 2016-17, marking the biggest one-year turnaround in program history and in Division I hockey that season. Among the milestone's set by Carvel's Minutemen in 2017-18, the program hosted and won its first postseason series since 2007. Makar earned a Hockey East Third Team All-Star nod and became the first-ever New England Hockey Writers Association George C. Carens Award (Rookie of the Year) recipient. Makar and freshman defenseman Mario Ferraro were both named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, as well.

Eighteen Minutemen have been selected in the NHL Entry Draft during Carvel's tenure: Cale Makar (4th overall, Colorado) and Ferraro (49th overall, San Jose) in 2017, Leonard (182nd overall, San Jose) in 2018, Jones (68th overall, New York Rangers), Del Gaizo (109th overall, Nashville) and Lindberg (197th overall, Minnesota) in 2019, Matthew Kessel (150th overall, St. Louis) and Lucas Mercuri (159th overall, Carolina) in 2020, Morrow (40th overall, Carolina), Lopina (98th overall, Anaheim), Ryan Ufko (115th overall, Nashville) and Taylor Makar (220th overall, Colorado) in 2021, Kenny Connors (103rd overall, Los Angeles), Cole O'Hara (114th overall, Nashville), Cam O'Neill (143rd overall, Ottawa) and Tyson Dyck (206th overall, Ottawa) in 2022 and Michael Hrabal (38th overall, Arizona), Aydar Suniev (80th overall, Calgary) and Nick Van Tassell (215th overall, Ottawa).

Prior to his time at UMass, Carvel spent five years at St. Lawrence University from 2011-16, also his alma mater, where he posted a head coaching record of 86-82-18 over five seasons and was named the 2014-15 Tim Taylor Award winner as Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Coach of the Year. Before his return to Canton, N.Y., also his hometown, he spent 15 seasons in the professional ranks. He made two trips to the NHL Stanley Cup Finals while a member of the staff in Anaheim and Ottawa.

During his tenure at St. Lawrence, Carvel coached five All-Americans, two ECAC Rookies of the Year, an ECAC Player of the Year, three Hobey Baker finalists and one Hobey Hat Trick finalist. While head coach of the Saints, he was selected as an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Men's National Team and spent the better part of May 2015 in the Czech Republic, joining Columbus Blue Jackets head coach Todd Richards and Buffalo Sabres head coach Dan Bylsma in leading the U.S. squad to a bronze medal finish.

Carvel took over an 11th-place team in 2011-12 and guided the Saints to eighth, fifth, second and fourth place finishes, respectively. In 2015-16, his club finished with a record of 19-14-4 and a final NCAA Pairwise ranking of 19th. The three ECAC teams that finished ahead of SLU advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
