USILA NORTH/SOUTH ALL-STAR GAME

UMass alumni are among the many participants in the annual battle between the top seniors from the North and the South. In addition to the 60-plus players who have contributed, Richard F. Garber also served as head coach of the North squad twice, in 1965 and 1983. UMass hosted the 1967 game at McGuirk Alumni Stadium. A Minuteman was honored as the game's most valuable player four times. In 1993, Mark Millon was named MVP. Tom LoPresti received the honor in 1995, while Brendan Glass was the hero of the 1997 contest with the game-winning goal in overtime. Brian Danvers represents the most recent honoree as he took home MVP of the 2008 game.

He was also an honorable mention all-America selection in 1991, while earning all-New England honors three times. During his four-year career, Millon totaled 213 points on 155 goals and 58 assists, making him the fourth-leading scorer in UMass history. He also ranks second on the school's all-time goals scored list and is 18th on the assists chart. NORM SMITH '79

MIDFIELD

Two-time all-American and three-time all-New England choice Norm Smith's impact on the Massachusetts men's lacrosse program can still be felt nearly 40 years after Smith competed in his final contest with the team. Smith posted career totals of 140 points, 74 goals and 66 assists and had at least 25 points in each of his four years with the team, one of only 12 all-time men's lacrosse student-athletes to achieve such consistency. Upon graduation, Smith stood sixth all-time in points, tied for sixth in assists and eighth in goals.

His offensive impact helped the program reach three NCAA Tournaments; one each in 1976, 1977 and 1979, while Massachusetts recorded 38 wins over his four seasons with the program. The 1976 NCAA berth marked the first for the program and legendary head coach Dick Garber.

Smith was a Class of 2018 inductee into the US Lacrosse Hall of Fame Western Massachusetts Chapter. TIM SOUDAN '91

MIDFIELD

A two-time second-team all-America and all-New England selection, Tim Soudan was an integral part of the UMass men's lacrosse team from 1987-90, helping the Minutemen to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances and as many New England titles. Soudan finished his career with 114 total points and 84 tallies. His goals total still rank as the best-ever by a midfielder. All told, he helped guide UMass through one of its best four-year periods as the Minutemen recorded a 41-14 record during his career.

The Fairport, N.Y., native produced his best seasons as a junior in 1989 and as a senior in 1990. During the 1989 campaign, he scored 31 goals and added seven assists, while in 1990 he notched 32 goals and helped out on 18 more. Soudan earned all-America and all-New England honors in each of those campaigns. Additionally as a senior, he was selected as a tri-captain for legendary head coach Dick Garber's final season. At the conclusion of his senior year, he was selected to play in the annual USILA North/South All-Star Game.

Following his collegiate career, Soudan was selected to the U.S. National Team in the 1994 and 1998 World Championships, winning gold both times. In 2002, he once again played for Team USA in the Heritage Cup against Team Canada.

He enjoyed a successful career in professional lacrosse as well. From 1991 through 2005, Soudan played indoor and outdoor lacrosse. From 1991-94, he competed for the Boston Blazers before moving on to the Rochester Knighthawks, where he suited up until 2005. He also played for the Rochester Rattlers from 2001-03 in Major League Lacrosse.

All told, Soudan totaled 173 games over his 15 seasons of indoor lacrosse with 198 goals and 203 assists. To date, he still ranks among the top-10 of every major offensive category in Knighthawks history and is a member of the NLL franchise's Hall of Fame. In 2001, he was also inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Greater Rochester Chapter Hall of Fame.

After finishing as a player, Soudan eventually became the assistant general manager for the Knighthawks in 2008. In 2011, the Rochester Rattlers named him the franchise's head coach and in September 2012, Soudan was named the leader for the U.S. Indoor National Team for the Bowhunter Cup.

A four-time all-region selection, Spooner played on three New England championship teams (1974, 1976-77) and captained UMass' first pair of NCAA Tournament teams in 1976 and 1977. Despite only playing two years, Sweet ranks eighth in goals (106), tied for 14th in assists (66) and 10th in points (172). As a senior, he was a team captain and represented UMass in the USILA North-South All-Star Game. JIM WELLER '82

ATTACK

One of the top offensive players in the history of UMass lacrosse, Jim Weller continues to hold marks untouched by some of the greatest players the program has witnessed. Weller's 162 career goals still ranks No. 1 all-time for the Minutemen - a mark that was not reached by the great names such as Mark Millon, Scott Hiller, Kevin Leveille or Jeff Zywicki. His 62 goals scored in 1981 along with his 98 points that year remain single-season records. Additionally, his 94 career assists ranks tied with Will Manny '13 for sixth all-time. He finished his career with 256 career points, which remains the third-highest total in program history. Among the NCAA rankings, Weller's offensive performance ranks in the top-15 all-time in goals, goals per game and points for a single-season, while he is among the top-25 players in each of those career categories as well. Weller also played for the Canadian National Field Lacrosse Team in 1982, 1984, 1986 and 1990. He led the Canadian Team in goals and points at the World Championships in 1982, 1984 and 1986. In 1984 and 1986, he was selected to the All-World Team.
