LAST TIME OUT

- Sophomore Jack Musa's first collegiate hat trick helped No. 18 University of Massachusetts hockey rally from a 2-0 first period deficit for a 5-4 win over the Huskies at Toscano Family Ice Forum last Friday. The win marked UMass head coach Greg Carvel's 250th career victory.

- UConn opened the scoring just 3:38 into the contest as Joey Muldowney cleaned up a loose puck in front, knocking it in at the back post with Jake Richard and Hudson Schandor collecting the assists.

- Muldowney struck again at the 6:29 mark, one-timing home a feed from Schandor below the goal line. Richard earned the secondary helper on the play.

- In the opening minute of the second period, Musa cut the deficit in half for UMass on the power play. Freshman Daniel Jencko drove the puck into the slot where it hit off senior Lucas Mercuri and Musa was there to knock it home 34 seconds into the frame.

- The Huskies responded with a power-play goal of their own to regain their two-goal cushion. Ethan Whitcomb deposited his shot from the top of the left faceoff circle over the right shoulder of Michael Hrabal for the tally from Kaden Shahan and Ethan Gardula 8:48 into the period.

- Moments later, Musa responded with his second of the night, driving to the net to redirect a centering feed from Cole O'Hara and Mercuri at the 9:56 mark.

- Trailing by one in the third period, sophomore Dans Locmelis came through with the equalizer at the 1:50 mark, cutting across the offensive zone and burying a wrister after junior Owen Murray set up the play by keeping the puck in the zone.

- Musa then completed his hat trick to five UMass its first lead 4:24 into the third, tipping home a shot from the left point by junior Lucas Olvestad. O'Hara earned an assist on the play as well, his second of the night.

- Junior Kenny Connors gave UMass a two-goal cushion at 6:38, corralling a loose puck just inside the UConn zone and ripping a wrister just inside the near post to make the score 5-3.

- Shahan scored an extra attacker goal for the Huskies in the final minute of play, but UConn was unable to complete the comeback, despite finishing with a 46-34 shot advantage.

- UMass went 1-for-4 on the power play on the night and 2-for-3 on the penalty kill.

- Hrabal had 42 saves in the win for the Minutemen and Tyler Muszelik turned aside 29 shots for UConn.

NO ORDINARY LEAGUE

-The Minutemen continue to light up the lamp this season, taking over the scoresheets in conference play. Cole O'Hara leads the way, ranking sixth in points with 19 (6g, 13a) while Lucas Mercuri comes in at 16 with 14 points (4g, 10a). Other Minutemen with double-digit points in league play include Jack Musa with 12 (7g, 5a), and Aydar Suniev (6g, 5a) and Kenny Connors with 11 (5g, 6a).

-As a team, UMass ranks third in save percentage throughout league play at .919. The power play, dominant all season, is scoring at a 21.3% success rate, good for fourth in Hockey East. The penalty kill holds the same ranking, killing the man-advantage 84.8% of the time.

- UMass has scored a season high of five goals in conference play four times, all against different opponents-UConn, Merrimack, Northeastern, and Providence College. They have also posted shutouts twice on the season, once against Boston University and again against Northeastern.

KEEPING THE GOAL LIGHTS ON

-Kenny Connors joins Bobby Trivigno, Carson Gicewicz, John Leonard, Michael Pereira and Greg Mauldin as the record holders for most consecutive games with a goal (5) in program history. Connors is currently tied for the longest active goal streak in the country and there have only been six longer goal scoring streaks this season nationally.

A HAT TRICK OF HAT TRICKS

- Three three-goal games courtesy of Jack Musa, Cole O'Hara and Aydar Suniev make the Minutemen one of only two teams nationally to have three different players record a hat trick during the 2024-25 season.

- UMass is just one of four teams with three hat tricks on the year.

HOT ONES

- Four of the 10 longest active point streaks in the nation currently belong to members of the Minutemen as Kenny Connors, Cole O'Hara, Lucas Mercuri and Jack Musa are all tied for seventh on that list with active six-game point streaks.

- UMass is currently the only team with multiple players riding active point streaks of six games or more.

- During that six-game span, Connors (6g, 2a), O'Hara (6, 6a), Mercuri (5g, 5a) and Musa (5g, 6a) have combined for 22 goals and 19 assists for 41 points.

AND THE AWARD GOES TO...

- Junior forward Cole O'Hara and sophomore forward Aydar Suniev are among 90+ nominees for the 2025 Hobey Baker Memorial Award. The list of candidates was announced on January 22, coinciding with the start of the Hobey Baker fan voting, which is live and will run through Sunday, March 9 at midnight. Phase two of fan balloting will come from the list of Top Ten Hobey Baker finalists beginning March 19 and closing March 30. The fans' vote accounts for a percentage of the total ballot in each phase in selecting this year's award recipient.

- Sophomore Michael Hrabal is among 35 goalies nationally and six from Hockey East to qualify for the Mike Richter Award Watch List with a GAA under 2.30 and a save percentage above .920.

- Sophomore forward Jack Musa has been named one of 26 semifinalists for the 73rd Walter Brown Award, the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston announced February 4. The slate of nominees for the award, which is presented annually to the best American-born college hockey player in New England, includes 19 forwards, three defensemen and four goaltenders.

CHASING HISTORY

- Cole O'Hara currently has 39 points (15g, 24a) through 28 games, tying him for 22nd on UMass' all-time single-season list. He is eight points away from breaking into the top 10.

- O'Hara's 39 points through 28 games is the second-fastest pace behind UMass' Division I single-season record holder James Marcou (41 points in 28 games) who finished with 51 points in 36 games in 2009-10, the only Minuteman in the program's DI history to break 50 points in a season.

- Hobey Baker Top-10 Finalist Bobby Trivigno had 36 points through 28 games in 2021-22.

THE WILD, WILD EAST

The Minutemen will finish their 2024-25 regular season with seven matchups, all against Hockey East opponents. All opponents currently rank 18th or higher in the Pairwise rankings including four games against teams in the top-10.

NEXT IN LINE

- Defenseman Francesco Dell'Elce has risen up 2025 Entry Draft boards as of late, slotting in at 91st among North American skaters per NHL.com. Dell'Elce has 19 points on six goals and 13 assists and is +10 through 28 games as the Minutemen's top scoring defenseman.

GOT YOUR (NU)MBER

- Since the beginning of the 2019-20 season, the Minutemen have emerged victorious in 11 of their 14 matchups against Northeastern, including an eight game winning streak. UMass has outscored the Huskies 45-28 during that span including two shutouts and six of the eleven victories coming with a two goal margin of victory or greater.

TWICE AS NICE

- Michael Hrabal continued his stellar play against the Northeast Huskies that saw Hrabal stop 77 of 79 shots faced, good for a .975 save percentage and a 1.02 goals against average. Collecting his second shut-out of the season, the netminder was also recognized as Hockey East's Defender of the Week, his second honor this season. Hrabal's shutout marked the second in as many games for the Minutemen, who outscored their opponents 13-0 during the two games.

RAPID FIRE

- The Minutemen's three goals in 49 seconds in the second period against Robert Morris on January 4 marked the quickest three goals in program history.
- The previous record was set on December 1, 2017 with three goals by George Mika, Jack Suter and Mitchell Chaffee in 1:18 against UConn.

MORE HARDWARE FOR HRBAL

- Sophomore goaltender Michael Hrabal earned Bronze at the 2025 IIHF World Junior Championship after helping his native Czechia defeat Sweden, 3-2, in a 14-round shootout in the Bronze Medal game at Canadian Tire Centre on January 5.
- Hrabal is the first two-time medal winner from UMass after also helping Czechia to Bronze in 2024. In total, seven individuals from UMass have collected eight medals at the IIHF World Junior Championship. Current junior Kenny Connors and Ryan Ufko were part of a Bronze Medal winning Team USA squad in 2023. Goaltender Filip Lindberg captured Gold with Finland in 2020 and Cale Makar took home Gold with Canada in 2018, while that same tournament Director of Equipment Operations Josh Penn earned a Bronze medal on staff with Team USA. Stephen Werner was the first Minuteman to collect a medal at the World Junior Championship, winning gold with the United States in 2004.
- Hrabal started six of seven of Czechia's games in the tournament, posting a 3-2 record with a .919 save percentage and a 2.45 goals-against average over 366:45 in net, totaling 169 saves. He helped the Czechs reach the Semifinal Round with 29 saves on 32 shots in a 4-3 victory over Canada in the quarterfinals.
- In the Bronze Medal game, Hrabal 32 shots through three periods and overtime and then denied 12 of 14 shootout attempts to help seal the medal-clinching win over Sweden, earning Player of the Game recognition. He was selected as one of Team Czechia's Top-Three Players of the Tournament by the team's coaches for a second straight year, as well.
- Freshman Daniel Jencko also competed in the 2025 World Junior Championship and put up four points (2g, 2a) in five games for Slovakia, helping the squad reach the tournament's Quarterfinal round.

IRVING EARNS FIRST CAREER WEEKLY HONOR

- Sophomore Jackson Irving was selected as the Hockey East Stop It Goaltending Goaltender of the Week on January 6, marking the third time this season that a Minuteman has earned a weekly award and the first career weekly honor for Irving.
- The Newbury, Massachusetts native started in both games at the Desert Hockey Classic for UMass and posted a 1.51 goals against average and a .946 save percentage with 53 saves on the weekend over 119 minutes.
- Irving made 31 saves on 34 shots in a 4-2 loss to #16 Cornell in game one. In game two, he posted his first career win, first career shutout and had his first career assist in an 8-0 win over Robert Morris, stopping all 22 shots he faced.

SERENITY NOW!

- The Minutemen defeated Boston University 4-0 in their first shutout of the Terriers in program history, and their largest margin of victory since 2013 on December 7. The game featured three power-play goals as a result of 48 penalty minutes taken by the Terriers, as well as five goals disallowed-three against the Minutemen and two against the Terriers, all as a result of goaltender interference.

I AM > I WAS

- Linden Alger has surpassed his career-high totals in goals, assists, and points (3g, 5a - 8p), while also shooting at a career-high 10.0%.
- Kenny Connors has continued to heat up during the second half of the season, now matching a career high in assists with 17 set during his freshman season.
- Bo Cosman's two helpers are a career high in points and assists (2a).
- 24 games through the 2024-25 campaign, Michael Hrabal is playing some of the best hockey of his college career, with a career high GAA of 2.49 and a save percentage of .922.
- Jackson Irving continues to impress, posting a 1.5 GAA on the season to go with an outstanding .943 save percentage through five games. He also has a shutout on the season.
- Dans Locmelis has posted a career-high 25 points this season while also surpassing his previous high in assists with 19 in 28 games vs. 14 points (7g, 7a) in 30 games as a freshman last season.
- Lucas Mercuri's nine goals are tied for a career high previously set last season.
- Owen Murray's three goals set a career high previously set in 2023-24 (2). He has also tied his career high in points with nine.
- With 13 goals on the season, Jack Musa has surpassed his freshman total of 12, accompanied by a healthy jump in his shooting percentage, up to 20.6% on the year.
- Kennedy O'Connor's five assists surpass his previous high during the 2022-23 season (2a).
- Cole O'Hara has dominated the score sheet thus far, setting a career high in goals while also setting new marks in assists and points (15g, 25a - 39p). O'Hara's previous bests were seven goals and 18 points in 37 games in 2023-24 and 13 assists in 32 games in 2022-23.
- Lucas Olvestad's three goals and 13 assists thus far have set a new career-highs, while surpassing his previous point total (six in 32 games) with 16.
- Aydar Suniev continues to make waves, surpassing totals from his freshman campaign (14g, 13a - 27p). Accomplished in 13 less games than the previous season, Suniev's 13 goals and 13 assists for 26 points come in part from an improved shooting percentage, 16.3%, and an impressive +7 on the season.
- Nick VanTassell's 2g and 2a have yielded a new career-high in points with four, while also shooting at 11.8% on the year.

CAN U SEE US NOW?

- Three Minutemen have landed on College Hockey News' Top 50 Hobey Tracker: Cole O'Hara leads the way at 12th, up to his highest of the seasonal Francesco Dell'Elce's outstanding freshman year makes him one of three first year players on the list at 45.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

- Since the 2018-19 season, UMass is 14-6-2 against Providence College, while all other opponents are 26-56-15 against the Friars in that span.
- The Minutemen are 7-2-1 in their last 10 matchups at Schneider Arena, an improvement from 0-10-1 in their previous 11 games dating back to the 2017-18 season.

"GREEN" BLUE LINE

- UMass is just one of nine teams in the nation with four or more freshman defensemen on its roster for 2024-25, trailing only Northern Michigan's seven and Alaska's five.
- The Minutemen have dressed at least three freshman defensemen in 26 of 28 games this season, dressing four on six occasions. The only team to dress three or more freshmen blueliners more times than UMass this season is Air Force (31 times in 32 GP).

O'HARA COPS WEEKLY HONOR

- Junior forward Cole O'Hara was selected as the Hockey East Player of the Week on Oct. 14 for his first weekly honor of his career from the league.

- The Richmond Hill, Ontario native led UMass in scoring at the Ice Breaker Tournament where the Minutemen went 1-1-0 with an 3-2 overtime loss to #15/16 Omaha and a convincing 5-1 win over Air Force and earned a spot on the Ice Breaker All-Tournament Team.

- O'Hara registered an assist against Omaha and then followed up with a then career high three-point night against Air Force, which included two goals—the game-winning power-play goal and an empty net goal. He also registered one block against the Falcons.

HOW DO YOU DUERR?

- Freshman forward James Duerr collected the first three points of his college career against Vermont on Nov. 8, netting two goals and an assist, factoring in on all three UMass goals on the evening.

CHART-TOPPERS

- Aydar Suniev is tied for 20th nationally in goals (10th in goals per-game at 0.61). He ranks 12th in points per-game (1.17). He ranks 22nd in the nation in game-winning goals (3), and 27th in power play goals with five, tied with teammate Cole O'Hara in both categories.

- Jack Musa's three game-winning goals are also tied for 22nd in the nation, and a hat trick against UConn has propelled him up to a tie for 27th in goals with 13. Musa also ranks 34th in the country in goals per game with .46.

- O'Hara climbs to fourth in the nation in assists with 24 and tied for fourth in points with 39 (15g, 24a). He also ranks fourth in assists per-game at 0.86 and third in points per-game with 1.39. O'Hara is tied for 14th in the nation with 15 goals and 20th in goals per game at .54.

- Dans Locmelis is tied for 25th nationally in assists with 19, and 33rd in assists per-game at .68. He joins Lucas Mercuri on the faceoff leaderboard, ranking 34th in wins with 261.

- Michael Hrabal is tied for 12th nationally in shutouts with two and 17th in save percentage (.922).

- Lucas Mercuri's prowess in the faceoff dot has him nationally ranked, coming in at 23rd in faceoffs won with 279.

- Cole O'Hara, Jack Musa and Aydar Suniev all rank tied for fourth in the nation with one hat trick apiece.

- The UMass offense continues to impress, ranking seventh in scoring offense with 3.54 goals per game, fifth in team assists with 179 and sixth in team points with 278. The success of the power play has brought the Minutemen up to fourth at 27.7%, with the 11th-most power-play goals, 23. The team ranks ninth in scoring margin at 1.07. The penalty kill has steadily improved, up to 83.5% and good for 14th in the nation. Additionally, their scoring defense has risen to 17th best in the nation at 2.46 goals per-game.

SAVES GALORE: 44

- With a career-high 44-save performance in a victory over AIC on November 2, Michael Hrabal picked up the third 40+ save performance of his college career, topping his previous best of 41 saves against Denver in the 2024 NCAA Regional Tournament and a 40-save game against Boston College earlier in the 2023-24 season.

STATE OF THE U

- University of Massachusetts hockey has youthful roster in its ninth season under head coach Greg Carvel in 2024-25 as the squad is comprised of 16 returning letterwinners and 11 newcomers, which includes 16 freshmen and sophomores.

- UMass saw the bulk of its roster turnover on its back end from a year ago, losing three experienced blueliners to graduation and juniors Scott Morrow and Ryan Ufko to professional hockey. Morrow and Ufko provided almost 20% of the team's points last season with Morrow leading UMass in scoring with 30 points (6g, 24a) and Ufko chipping in 26 points (10g, 16a) which was good for third on the team. Linden Alger returns for a fifth season and will provide a veteran presence on the Minutemen's back end after serving as Ufko's partner on UMass' No. 1 "D" pairing last season. Junior Owen Murray, who was a regular in the lineup as a sophomore and provided 10 points (2g, 8a) a year ago should see yet another bump in his ice time in 2024-25. To help recoup its defensive losses, the Minutemen have added transfer Lucas Ölvestad who is fresh off a National Championship with Denver. UMass has also added 2023 Red Wings' fourth round draft pick Larry Keenan, highlighting a group of four freshmen blueliners.

- The Minutemen return seven of their top nine scorers from last season, including Jack Musa and Aydar Suniev who put up 29 and 25-point seasons respectively as freshmen in 2024-25 and tied for the team lead in goal scoring with 12 apiece. In total, UMass brings back 11 members of its forward group from a year ago and adds four newcomers, including graduate transfer Joey Musa.

- In net Michael Hrabal returns for his sophomore campaign after starting 29 of 37 games as a freshman. He will be backed up by classmate Jackson Irving and freshman James Norton.

HATS OFF, AYDAR

- Netting three goals in the 2024-25 season opener, Aydar Suniev recorded his first career hat trick, passing his previous single-game high of two goals and the first hat trick by a UMass forward since the 2021 NCAA Tournament (Carson Gicewicz vs Bemidji State 3/27/21). The feat is also the first in a season opener by a Minuteman since Austin Plevy in a 6-3 win over Colorado College on 10/9/15.

CARVEL'S FAST-150

- The 2024-25 season began by waves around Amherst as Greg Carvel collected his 150th win at UMass with a victory over Bentley (10/5/24). His continued success through only 289 games put him in the Massachusetts record books next to Don "Toot" Cahoon, reaching the milestone 87 games quicker. - Cahoon, the program's all-time wins leader, recorded his 150th win in his 376th game and his 166th win in his 434th. Only three wins away, Carvel is closing in on Cahoon as the program's all-time wins leader.

ALL EYES ON U

- Three Minutemen have made The Hockey News "Top 100 NCAA Players to Watch in 2024-25" with Michael Hrabal (29), Aydar Suniev (73), and Kenny Connors (100).

- Hrabal's size, sky-high potential, and solid freshman season have set eyes on him as the season kicks off.

- Suniev receives praise for his intelligence and skill, while Connors could be in store for a strong junior season.

SUMMER SUCCESS

- Following his 2023-24 season with the Minutemen, Dans Locmelis took the ice for Latvia in the Olympic Games Qualification this summer, posting a goal and an assist in three games to help his nation earn a spot in the upcoming 2026 Winter Olympics.

RAIN OR SHINE

- Among players returning to the Minutemen for the 2024-25 season, five players played in all 37 games during the 2023-24 season: Kenny Connors, Ryan Lautenbach, Lucas Mercuri, Jack Musa and Cole O'Hara.

THE MORE THE MERRIER

- In the first-ever meeting between the two teams, the Minutemen set a program record for the most goals scored against a Division I program in an 11-2 win over Alaska Anchorage on December 8, 2023.

- Among the top scorers for the Minutemen, Aydar Suniev led the way with five points with fellow linemates Jack Musa and Dans Locmelis collecting two and three points, respectively.

- Jackson Irving also made his collegiate debut, stopping all six shots faced in 8:50 of game time.

- Suniev's five points marked the most points by a UMass freshman in a single game in the program's DI era.

NUMBER FOUR IS MONTOUR

- After posting 33 points (8g, 25a) during the 2023-24 season, UMass hockey alumnus Brandon Montour hoisted his first career Stanley Cup, the fourth Minuteman to do so and the seventh Stanley Cup for a Minuteman overall.

- Montour, a second-round selection of the Anaheim Ducks in 2014, spent the 2014-2015 season with the Minutemen, earning Hockey East All-Rookie team honors after scoring 20 points (3g, 17a) in 21 games.

HRA-BALLIN'

- The second-highest Minutemen ever selected in the NHL Entry Draft at 38th overall, Michael Hrabal's highly anticipated freshman season landed him on the Hockey East Second Team All-Star squad, the first UMass goalie to do so in their rookie campaign.

- Over 29 games played, Hrabal posted a 2.62 GAA and a .912 save percentage with a 16-12-1 record. He was named Hockey East's Goaltender of the Week three times during the 2023 season (10/23, 11/20, 2/12).

- Hrabal was named a Top 3 Player for Czechia during the 2023-24 World Junior Championships. Entering the 2024 season, Elite Prospects named Hrabal the fourth-ranked prospect of the Utah Hockey Club and the 11th-ranked NHL-affiliated goaltender.

GRADE-A

- Among UMass' 22 Hockey East All-Academic Team recipients from the 2023-24 season, 12 return to the squad this season with Jackson Irving, Kennedy O'Connor, Linden Alger, Cam O'Neill, Lucas Mercuri, Ryan Lautenbach, Aydar Suniev, Kenny Connors, Owen Murray, Michael Cameron, Bo Cosman and Michael Hrabal.

- Transfers Lucas Ölvestad and Joey Musa were also named to their respective conferences' all-academic teams.

YOUNG N' MIGHTY

- Despite entering the 2024 season as the seventh youngest program in college hockey with an average age of 21.4 years old, UMass ranks second in tallest teams coming in at an average height of 6'1.3".

- With only two seniors on the roster, the Minutemen have the second fewest in the NCAA and are tied for eighth in total underclassmen with 17 freshmen and sophomores.

THE AMHERST PIPELINE

- The Minutemen were well represented in the NHL during the 2023-24 season ranking tied for fourth-most with North Dakota in number of alumni playing in the NHL last season with 15.

- The Minutemen are tied for ninth nationally with nine draft picks on the 2024-25 roster.

- UMass was named the top developmental program in NCAA Men's College Hockey by The Hockey News in August 2021.

GOING BACK TO THEIR ROOTS

- Sophomore Jack Musa and his older brother Joey Musa have reunited for Joey's final season of eligibility after Joey previously played three seasons at Dartmouth. The duo was most recently teammates in 2020-21 with the Odessa Jackalopes of the NAHL.

- Despite coming to Amherst from Orange Park, Florida, the Musa brothers have family ties to Western Mass. as their father, Joe Musa is a Springfield native who played college hockey at Division III Western New England (1990-92).

ALGER, LAUTENBACH AND MERCURI TO LEAD MINUTEMEN IN 2024-25

- Graduate student defenseman Linden Alger has been named captain for 2024-25, while senior forwards Ryan Lautenbach and Lucas Mercuri will serve as alternate captains.

- Alger, who announced he would be returning for a fifth season with the Minutemen this past spring, appeared in 66 games over his previous four years in Amherst, including a career-best 35 in 2023-24. He is +9 for his career and has 13 points on six goals and seven assists, four of which came last season. The four-time Hockey East All-Academic Team honoree is the first Massachusetts native (Centerville) to wear the "C" for UMass since Conor Sheary (Melrose) did so as a senior in 2023-14.

- Lautenbach entered his senior year coming off his most productive campaign of his collegiate career in 2023-24, which saw him post 24 points on 10 goals and 14 assists, including a team-best three shorthanded tallies and one game winner. The Brighton, Michigan native has seen action in 130 career games to date with 21 goals and 42 assists for 63 points. He is a two-time Hockey East All-Academic Team member.

- Mercuri, a 2020 sixth round draft pick of the Carolina Hurricanes, has appeared in 136 of a possible 137 games over his career in a UMass uniform and has compiled 78 career points on 27 goals and 51 assists with six power-play goals and five game winners. The Montreal, Quebec native posted new career highs in goals (9), assists (16) and points (25) as a junior over 37 games with three power-play tallies and three game winners. He has been named to the Hockey East All-Academic Team twice in his career thus far.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Greg Carvel needs three wins this season to pass Don "Toot" Cahoon (166 wins) to become the all-time wins leader at UMass.

- Ryan Lautenbach is two away from moving up into a tie for third all-time for career shorthanded goals, currently with three. Five individuals are tied for third with five with Stephen Werner (2002-06) being the most recent entry into the top-three.

- Michael Hrabal (29 wins) currently ranks tied for fifth for career wins by a goaltender in UMass history with Filip Lindberg. He needs nine wins to match Pat Flaherty for fourth.

IN CARVEL WE TRUST

- Head coach Greg Carvel, in his ninth season of his UMass tenure, has led the Minutemen to five seasons of 20+ wins, including a program-record 31 wins in 2018-19, the second-highest wins total in program history (22 in 2021-22), 21 wins in 2019-20 (tied-third) and 20 wins in 2020-21 and 2023-24 (tied-fifth).

- Carvel won his 100th game at the helm for the Minutemen on November 6, 2021 at Providence. He earned his 200th career victory on March 12, 2022 vs. the Friars in the Hockey East Quarterfinals. Most recently, he collected his 250th victory as a collegiate head coach on February 7, 2025 against UConn.

- Among active Division I Men's head coaches, Carvel is second in wins for coaches with tenures of 14 years or less, trailing only Mike Hastings (Wisconsin, 336). Carvel is in his 14th year as a head coach and currently has 250 wins.

- Under head coach Greg Carvel, the Minutemen are 7-3 in the NCAA Tournament with two trips to the National Final (2019 and 2021) and one National Championship (2021) and have made four NCAA Tournament appearances under Carvel.

- UMass is 21-39 all-time in the Hockey East Tournament, 11-8 under Carvel and 9-3 since 2019 with consecutive Hockey East Tournament titles in 2021 and 2022, the first two in program history.

- Overall under Carvel (Hockey East and NCAA Tournament) UMass' postseason record is 18-11 with two Hockey East Championships, two Regional Championships and one National Championship.

FILL THE BILL

- UMass finished its home slate ranked 13th nationally in attendance and 11th average attendance (5,544) over 17 home games on the year.

- The attendance vs. No. 6 Michigan tied the program's Mullins Center attendance record at 8,412 after packing the building with 7,361 fans the night before against the Wolverines, good for 17th-most all-time. That weekend series against Michigan set a new non-conference weekend series attendance record with a combined total of 15,773 coming through the doors at Mullins on Oct. 13 and 14.

- UMass drew 7,737 fans against Maine on Feb. 3, 6,342 against UConn on Feb. 10, 8,412 against Boston College on Feb. 16 and 6,089 on Feb. 23 vs. New Hampshire. It matched a program record of four straight home crowds of 6,000+, first set in 2007 (3/2, 3/3, 3/9, 3/10). Then for the home regular season finale, 6,289 fans came out to the Mullins center to break the record with a fifth-straight home crowd of 6K+.

-The streak of 6K+ attendances continued for the Minutemen in their 2024-25 home opener with a crowd of 6,022 vs. Sacred Heart on Oct. 18 and a sellout crowd of 8,412 against UConn on Oct. 25.

PROSPECTS APLENTY

- The Massachusetts roster features nine NHL draft picks across eight different franchises. UMass returns Dans Locmelis (Boston, 2022 fourth round), Michael Hrabal (Arizona, 2023 second round), Cam O'Neill (Ottawa, 2022 fifth round), Aydar Suniev (Calgary, 2023 third round) and Nick VanTassell (Ottawa, 2023 seventh round) for a second season, while Kenny Connors (Los Angeles, 2022 fourth round) and Lucas Mercuri (Carolina, 2020 sixth round) are in their fourth years with the Minutemen, respectively.

- Freshman Larry Keenan was selected in the 2023 NHL Entry Draft by the Detroit Red Wings in the fourth round (117th overall).

MINUTEMEN FROM NEAR AND FAR

- UMass' 2024-25 roster is composed of student-athletes from seven different countries.

- There are three different Canadian provinces (Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec) represented and nine different states (Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey and Pennsylvania).

- Springfield native Kennedy O'Connor is the closest to home at 27 miles, while Aydar Suniev is the furthest from home (Kazan, Russia) at 4,844 miles.

HOME IS WHERE THE WINS ARE

- UMass has gone 91-33-11 at the Mullins Center over the past five-plus seasons (2018-present) for a .715 winning percentage. This stretch included a 16-game unbeaten streak (15-0-1) that began on Jan. 11, 2019 against Vermont and came to an end on Nov. 30, 2019 with a 2-1 loss to Quinnipiac.

BLOODLINES AND FAMILY TIES

- Jack and Joey Musa are the sixth set of brothers to wear the Maroon & White in the program's modern era, the fifth duo to play together at UMass. The other five sets of brothers are: Anthony Del Gaizo (2018-22) and Marc Del Gaizo (2018-21), Taylor Makar (2021-24) and Cale Makar (2017-19), James Marcou 2007-10 and Michael Marcou 2008-12; Jeff Turner 1997-2001 and Tim Turner 1999-2003; Mike Warner 2000-04 and Tim Warner 2001-05.

- Linden Alger's father, Richard, played for UMass in the program's inaugural Division I season (1993-94) and then played the next two campaigns at Boston University (1995-97). Kennedy O'Connor's father, Thomas, was a teammate of Alger's at UMass in 1994-95 and played with the program through 1998 before going on to a professional career with the Wheeling Nailers (1998-99) and Augusta Lynx (2000-01) of the ECHL and the Syracuse Crunch (1998-99) and Wilkes-Barre Scranton Penguins (1999-00) of the AHL. O'Connor's sister, Kayla, was a college hockey player as well, playing at Trinity from 2014 to 2018.

- Lucas Ölvestad's father, Jimmie, played for the Tampa Bay Lightning from 2001-2003 and Lucas was actually born in Tampa during his father's NHL tenure. Jimmie Ölvestad went on to have an extended pro career with Djurgårdens IF back home in Sweden.

- Owen Murray's great uncle, Dallas Smith, played for the Boston Bruins from 1966 to 1977.

- Jackson Irving's father, Father, Bruce, was a goaltender at Cornell.

- Cam O'Neill's brother Colin played hockey at UMass Lowell (2016-18) and his brother Jason played hockey at Providence (2017-21).

- Freshman Larry Keenan's grandfather Larry Keenan played in the NHL for the Toronto Maple Leafs (1961-62), St. Louis Blues (1967-71), Buffalo Sabres (1970-72) and Philadelphia Flyers (1971-72).

Ninth Season - Career Record (Entering 2024-25): 235-201-38

Record at Massachusetts (Entering 2024-25): 149-119-20

Alma Mater: Saint Lawrence '93/Massachusetts'98G

2019 Spencer Penrose Award winner Greg Carvel enters his ninth season as head coach of the Minutemen in 2024-25. He guided UMass to back-to-back Hockey East Tournament Championships in 2021 and 2022 and its first NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey National Championship in 2020-21. The National Hockey League (NHL) coaching veteran was named the 14th ice hockey head coach at the University of Massachusetts on March 29, 2016.

This past year in 2023-24, Carvel led UMass back to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in his eight-year tenure and fifth time in the program's history. The Minutemen reached the 20-win mark for the fifth time in Carvel's tenure, three individuals earned Hockey East All-Star nods and Ryan Ufko was named to the AHCA/CCM Hockey All-America First Team East squad, the eighth All-America award for the Minutemen in the past six seasons.

In 2021-22, Carvel's sixth season at the helm, the Minutemen won their second straight Hockey East Tournament title, defeating UConn, 2-1 in overtime at the TD Garden on March 19, 2022, punching their ticket to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. Senior forward Bobby Trivigno became the second Hockey East Player of the Year in program history and second of Carvel's tenure, was a Top-10 Finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, the College Hockey News Player of the Year, repeated as the winner of the Walter Brown Award and was one of two First-Team All-Americans from UMass, joined by Scott Morrow, the first freshman in program history to earn All-America status. Trivigno was also the Hockey East 2021-22 Scoring Champion and headlined a group of five Minutemen to garner Hockey East All-Star recognition. Carvel has coached 24 Hockey East All-Stars in the past six seasons, more than any other program in the league over that span.

On April 10, 2021, the Minutemen defeated St. Cloud State, 5-0 in the National Championship game, reaching the pinnacle of college hockey in the fifth season of Carvel's tenure. En route to the title, UMass outscored its opponents 27-6 in the 2020-21 postseason, and 17-3 in the NCAA Tournament.

Additionally in 2020-21, Carvel led UMass to the No. 3 seed in the Hockey East Tournament and the squad won three games on home ice to secure the Minutemen's first Hockey East Tournament Championship. Five Minutemen collected Hockey East All-Star honors, the second highest total in program history, while Trivigno was named the program's first-ever winner of the Walter Brown Award as the best American-born player in New England and Josh Lopina was tabbed Hockey East Co-Rookie of the Year, the first-ever from UMass.

Trivigno earned a First Team All-America nod, as well, and defenseman Zac Jones was tabbed a Second Team All-American. UMass ended the 2020-21 campaign on a 14-game unbeaten streak, the longest unbeaten streak in program history, going 11-0-3 since January 22 and the Minutemen finished with a 20-5-4 record, the fewest losses for an NCAA Champion since Maine's 40-1-2 season in 1992-93. Carvel was tabbed the USCHO and College Hockey News Coach of the Year in 2021. In addition, he was also the 2021 Spencer Penrose runner-up.

Over the past eight years, Massachusetts hockey has made a meteoric rise under Carvel's guidance, including five of the top-10 winningest seasons in UMass' 94-season history, the program's first NCAA title, first NCAA Runner-Up finish, first Hockey East regular season and tournament titles and first Hobey Baker winner. On his watch, the Minutemen posted four straight 20-win seasons from 2018-19 to 2021-22. He has coached five Hobey Baker finalists, two Hobey Hat Trick Finalists and one Hobey Baker winner in his 12-year head coaching career.

UMass matched its then second-highest wins total in program history in 2019-20 with 21 victories and was poised to make its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance before the season was cut short. The Minutemen finished eighth in the PairWise rankings and spent 22 straight weeks in the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, while securing the No. 2 seed in the Hockey East Tournament.

John Leonard led the nation in goals and in goals per-game in 2019-20 and became the third Hobey Baker Top 10 Finalist in program history, the second of Carvel's tenure. Leonard collected a host of accolades as he was named a CCM/AHCA First Team East All-American, Herb Gallagher Award co-winner (New England's best forward), a Hockey East First-Team All-Star and the program's first winner of Hockey East's PNC Bank Three Stars Award. Two more Minutemen received postseason recognitions as Jake McLaughlin was tabbed a Hockey East Third-Team All-Star and Jones earned a spot on the Hockey East All-Rookie Team.

UMass enjoyed unprecedented success in 2018-19 with the team breaking program records for wins overall (31) and in conference play while finishing as the 2019 National Runner-Up after reaching the National Championship game. The Minutemen went 18-6-0 in Hockey East play and captured the school's first Hockey East Regular Season Championship.

Carvel's Minutemen also eclipsed previous school records for home and road victories and posted the longest win streak in program history in 2018-19. Taking a team that won just five games two seasons prior, Carvel led UMass to its first-ever No. 1 rankings in both the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine Polls.

UMass finished in the top-10 nationally in virtually every statistical category in 2018-19, including first in combined special teams (57.9) and power play percentage (28.5), third in scoring margin (1.66), third in scoring offense (3.68), fifth in penalty kill (86.9) and seventh in scoring defense (2.02). The Minutemen posted their highest goals total in the program's Hockey East era (151) and set a program record for power play goals (43).

On Carvel's watch, Minutemen garnered a host of individual accolades in 2018-19, highlighted by Cale Makar being chosen as the 2019 Hobey Baker Award winner. Makar and Mitchell Chaffee were both tabbed first team All-Americans, while Makar was named UMass' first-ever Hockey East Player of the Year and Chaffee earned the title of Hockey East Scoring Champion. Chaffee received the Herb Gallagher Award, Chaffee, Makar and senior forward Jacob Pritchard were all tabbed New England All-Stars, while Makar picked up both the Bob Monahan Award as New England's best defenseman and the Leonard Fowle Award as New England player of the year. College Hockey News selected Makar as its CHN Player of the Year and to its All-CHN First Team, while naming Marc Del Gaizo to its CHN All-Rookie Team. Additionally, the Minutemen collected a school-record six Hockey East All-Star accolades and Carvel was recognized as both the 2019 Clark Hodder Award winner (New England Coach of the Year) and the Hockey East Bob Kullen Coach of the Year.

In Carvel's second year at the helm in 2017-18, the Minutemen posted a 12-win improvement from 2016-17, marking the biggest one-year turnaround in program history and in Division I hockey that season. Among the milestones set by Carvel's Minutemen in 2017-18, the program hosted and won its first postseason series since 2007. Makar earned a Hockey East Third Team All-Star nod and became the first-ever New England Hockey Writers Association George C. Carens Award (Rookie of the Year) recipient. Makar and freshman defenseman Mario Ferraro were both named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, as well.

Eighteen Minutemen have been selected in the NHL Entry Draft during Carvel's tenure: Cale Makar (4th overall, Colorado) and Ferraro (49th overall, San Jose) in 2017, Leonard (182nd overall, San Jose) in 2018, Jones (68th overall, New York Rangers), Del Gaizo (109th overall, Nashville) and Lindberg (197th overall, Minnesota) in 2019, Matthew Kessel (150th overall, St. Louis) and Lucas Mercuri (159th overall, Carolina) in 2020, Morrow (40th overall, Carolina), Lopina (98th overall, Anaheim), Ryan Ufko (115th overall, Nashville) and Taylor Makar (220th overall, Colorado) in 2021, Kenny Connors (103rd overall, Los Angeles), Cole O'Hara (114th overall, Nashville), Cam O'Neill (143rd overall, Ottawa) and Tyson Dyck (206th overall, Ottawa) in 2022 and Michael Hrabal (38th overall, Arizona), Aydar Suniev (80th overall, Calgary) and Nick Van Tassel (215th overall, Ottawa).

Prior to his time at UMass, Carvel spent five years at St. Lawrence University from 2011-16, also his alma mater, where he posted a head coaching record of 86-82-18 over five seasons and was named the 2014-15 Tim Taylor Award winner as Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Coach of the Year. Before his return to Canton, N.Y., also his hometown, he spent 15 seasons in the professional ranks. He made two trips to the NHL Stanley Cup Finals while a member of the staff in Anaheim and Ottawa.

During his tenure at St. Lawrence, Carvel coached five All-Americans, two ECAC Rookies of the Year, an ECAC Player of the Year, three Hobey Baker finalists and one Hobey Hat Trick finalist. While head coach of the Saints, he was selected as an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Men's National Team and spent the better part of May 2015 in the Czech Republic, joining Columbus Blue Jackets head coach Todd Richards and Buffalo Sabres head coach Dan Bylsma in leading the U.S. squad to a bronze medal finish.

Carvel took over an 11th-place team in 2011-12 and guided the Saints to eighth, fifth, second and fourth place finishes, respectively. In 2015-16, his club finished with a record of 19-14-4 and a final NCAA Pairwise ranking of 19th. The three ECAC teams that finished ahead of SLU advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

He began his professional coaching career as director of hockey operations for the Lowell Lock Monsters of the American Hockey League. He joined the Anaheim Ducks as scouting coordinator in May of 1999, adding video coordinator to his duties in 2002 and earning a promotion to assistant coach in 2003. He joined the Ottawa Senators as an assistant coach in 2004 and was on the staff until the summer of 2011. Both the Ducks and the Senators made it to the Stanley Cup Finals during his time as an assistant coach.

A former Saint captain and the first CoSIDA Academic All-American in SLU program history, Carvel was the first ECAC Coach to have won a major league award as a player and its Coach of the Year Award. He was the 1993 Outstanding Defensive Forward award winner and had 38 goals and 85 assists for 123 points in 131 collegiate games.

Carvel played one year of professional hockey in Sweden and then became assistant athletic director and assistant hockey coach at Canterbury Prep. He earned a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts in 1998 and was an assistant coach at Amherst College in 1996 while pursuing his degree.

Carvel and his wife, Daina, an Amherst native, are parents to Kathryn, Ava and Drew.
