INSIDE THE SERIES

- This is the first meeting between the two programs

DAGW Bytes

- Three Retrievers reach double-figures, but a fourth quarter rally came up short as the UMBC Women's Basketball team dropped a 68-52 decision to host Manhattan on Sunday afternoon.

- The Jaspers built a game-high 19 point lead at 45-26 midway through the third, but UMBC chipped away and cut the deficit to 52-43 less than three minutes into the final frame. The hosts would score 13 of the next 19 points to secure the victory.

- Anna Blount and Jaden Walker each had a team-high 12 points, with Blount adding nine rebounds, three steals and two blocks. Jordan Lewis added 10 points, while Jalen Sanchez chipped in seven points and three assists.

- UMBC scored the first four points of the second quarter to take a 12-11 lead, but Manhattan responded with a 20-2 run to go up 31-14. The Retrievers scored the final six points of the half to trim the deficit to 11 at the break.

- The teams traded baskets to start the third, but a 10-0 Jaspers run gave the hosts the 19-point lead they would not relinquish.
