NOTEWORTHY

The No. 12 (AFCA) and No. 20 (D2Football.com) ranked University of Minnesota Duluth football team is heading on the road to face Slippery Rock University in Week 0 of the 2026 Season. The game will be at Mihalik-Thompson Stadium on Thursday with kick off set for 5:00 p.m.

BULLDOG NOTES

Slippery Rock: UMD takes on Slippery Rock for the first time in program history. Slippery Rock finished 6-4 in the regular season after having reached the NCAA National Semifinals in the 2024 campaign. The Rock returns two players on the PSAC Western Division Second-Team All-Defense; Trevor Valenti, and Teddy Gregory Jr..

The Rock will look to their Running Back JayJay Jordan to drive their offense. The Senior from Reading, Pennsylvania was eighth in rushing yards in D-II last season, totaling 1375 yards on the gridiron.

Slippery Rock are expected to have a bounce-back year, picked second in the PSAC West, just behind Indiana (P.A.) in the rankings.

The Rock are no strangers to success, having made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (15th amongst current D-II members). Head Coach Shawn Lutz has guided Slippery Rock to four National Quarterfinals and two National Semifinals, and has won five PSAC West titles.

New Captains for the Bulldogs:

UMD has six captains this season, Carter Geerts, Preston McQueen, Nick Ojile, Ryder Patterson, Ross Rivord, and Jonathan Shrum.

Bulldogs Look to Keep Season Opening Streak:

The Bulldogs have won their past seven opening games, having last lost one to Sioux Falls in 2017. Slippery Rock will look to defend one of their own, as they have won sixteen consecutive season openers, with their last loss happening against Seton Hill in 2008.

Unfamiliar Foes: The Bulldogs haven't seen much action against PSAC opponents in their history. Their only PSAC matchup so far was their National Semifinal win against California (P.A.) in 2008. Slippery Rock likewise has little experience with NSIC opponents, as their last matchup was a loss to Minnesota State, Mankato in the 2019 National Quarterfinal.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE: The Bulldogs are bringing back several key returners for the 2026 Season. Allen Pearson Jr., Ross Rivord, Carter Geerts, Preston McQueen, Jonathan Shrum, Joey Krouse, and Nick Ojile are some of the key returners for the Bulldogs.

UNDISPUTED NSIC CHAMPIONS: The 2025 regular-season finale win marked the program's regular-season conference record at 9-1 to give the team its first unshared title since the 2012 season. This is also their first undisputed North Division title since the 2019 season. This marks the program's 11th unshared overall title (1934, 1937, 1980, 1985, 1996, 2002, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012, and now 2025) and 11th unshared North Division title (2008, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, and now 2025). This also marks head coach Curt Wiese's eighth North Division title and fourth overall title since taking over the program in 2013.

IN THE RANKINGS: The Bulldogs were recognized as the No. 12 team in the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) national rankings to start the season. The Bulldogs finished 16th in the AFCA rankings in 2025.

UMD IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: UMD made its 13th historic appearance in the NCAA II Tournament last year, with the first match occurring all the way back in 2002 (2002, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2021, and now 2025).

In the last two decades, the Bulldogs have earned two of the coveted NCAA II Championship titles, with one in 2008 and one in 2010.

WIESE'S BULLDOGS IN THE NCAA: Wiese's Bulldogs have claimed an overall 2-4 record in the first round and have gone 3-6 overall. His first-round wins came in the 2013 and 2014 postseasons. In those victories, the Bulldogs scored a combined 80 points (55 in 2013 and 25 in 2014) while only allowing 34 points. Both wins were powered by strong rushing efforts from the quarterback, Drew Bauer, with two over 100-yard games (173 yds in 2013 and 131 yds in 2014).

Overall, the Wiese Bulldogs have scored a combined 230 points in postseason action while allowing 340 points across nine games.

In Wiese's three postseason victories, the Bulldogs combined for 890 yards rushing (476, 2013 / 414, 2014) and 442 passing yards (35, 2013 / 408, 2014).

Under his leadership, by the end of the 2018 run, the Bulldogs were statistical champions in total defense (205.7 yds/g), rushing defense (59.2 yds/g), and third-down conversion defense (0.225).

NSIC Postseason Honors

In his 12th season as head coach of UMD football, Wiese earns his first NSIC Coach of the Year award after leading the Bulldogs to their 22nd NSIC Championship title and 13th North Division title. He marks his eighth North Division and fourth overall title at the helm of UMD football. The Wiese' Bulldogs completed the regular season 10-1 overall while earning a 9-1 record in NSIC action and will make their sixth appearance in the NCAA postseason under Wiese. Overall, he coached UMD to finish the regular season as the leaders in scoring offense in the NSIC.

Vogler earns his first NSIC Assistant Coach of the Year award in his seventh season after helping coach the Bulldogs to a 9-1 finish in conference competition (10-2 overall). His offense finished the regular season as the top-scoring offense in the NSIC with 40.3 average points per game. He coached five All-NSIC offensive performances this season, and his scoring offense ranked seventh in the nation.

Luke Dehnicke earned both the coveted Offensive Newcomer of the Year award and a First Team All-Conference selection. In a breakout year, Dehnicke led the NSIC in the receiving category with 97.6 average yards per game and 14 touchdowns. He also reached the 1,000-yard career receiving mark as a redshirt freshman (has totaled 1,074 yards and is trailing the program's single-season record of 1,201). Heading into national competition, he currently ranks second in the NCAA for receiving yards (1,074), third in receiving yards per game (97.6), and third in receiving touchdowns (14). Luke Dehnicke will be playing for Northwestern this season.

The eight First Team All-NSIC selections were Dehnicke, offensive lineman Carter Geerts, offensive lineman Tait Kongsjord, defensive lineman Mojo Weerts, defensive back Jonathan Shrum, defensive back Preston McQueen, linebacker Alex Sylvester, and kicker Drew Henson. The Bulldogs earned five Second Team All-NSIC honors, including wide receiver DaShaun Ames, quarterback Kyle Walljasper, defensive lineman Allen Pearson Jr., defensive back Joey Krouse, and linebacker Ross Rivord.

Geerts, a senior from Rochester, Minn., made his all-conference debut after keeping the pressure off Walljasper through all 11 regular-season matchups. As an anchor on the line, his effort has enabled the offense to rank seventh in the country in scoring and second in passing efficiency.

Shrum, a senior from Farmington, Minn., earned his first and second career all-conference selection for both defense and special teams. Throughout all 11 games, he has combined for 31 total tackles (24 solo) with two tackles for a loss of five yards and one interception with three passes broken up. In kick returns, he completed the regular season in second place in the NSIC with an average of 29 yards. He also earned the coveted NSIC Player of the Week award for special teams.

McQueen, a senior from Henderson, Nev., earned his second all-conference selection after 28 total tackles (25 solo) with a tackle and a sack for a loss of seven yards. He also picked off opposing quarterbacks twice, with one returning for a gain of 27 yards.

Henson, a senior from Owatonna, Minn., the kicker and punter hit the team's longest field goal of the year at 52 yards, which fell five yards short of the program record. Earlier this season, he nabbed his first career NSIC Player of the Week award for his efforts on special teams. By the end of the regular season, he had attempted seven field goals, making five of them, and sent 15 punts in the air for 618 yards total, with seven going within the 20-yard line. He also put one punt in the air that went over the 50-yard mark and took three kickoffs for 91 yards.

Pearson Jr., a senior from Maplewood, Minn., gained his first career all-conference selection. As a defensive lineman, he has held the line through 11 games, earning 33 total tackles (12 solo), forcing five tackles for a loss of 19 yards, and earning 2.5 sacks for a loss of 16 yards.

Krouse, a senior from Savage, Minn., the defensive back earns his first all-conference selection after totaling 45 tackles (36 solo). Four of his tackles resulted in a total loss of 12 yards while breaking up four passes. He also forced one fumble and recovered two fumbles with a gain of two yards. Two of his three interceptions were returned for over 39 yards for a total of 90 yards.

Rivord, a senior linebacker out of Superior, Wis., totaled 39 tackles (24 solo). 6.5 tackles resulted in a total loss of 15 yards, while he also broke out to the quarterback 1.5 times for a loss of eight yards.

yard line twice. In total, he punted 158 yards in his best performance in his career.

SECOND WINNINGEST UMD FOOTBALL COACH:

Curt Wiese enters his 13th season at the helm of UMD (15th career season). Wiese commands a dominant 114-29 record with an impressive two perfect 11-0 seasons, eight NSIC North Division titles, four NSIC championship victories, and six National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II playoff appearances. Last season, he earned his way to becoming the second-winningest coach in UMD football history behind Hall of Fame coach Jim Malosky.

Returning NSIC Players of the Week:

Jonathan Shrum earned UMD's first 2025 NSIC Player of the Week selection off of his Special Teams performance against CSP, with his 90-yard kick return touchdown (Totaled 111 kick return yards).

Jadon Apgar earned his first-ever weekly award for special teams as a freshman kicker after helping lift a 17-14 victory over the then-ranked No. 7 Minnesota State. He went three for three in field goals in a match that was decided by his kick in the final second of the game.

Drew Henson earned his first career special teams weekly award after sending two long field goals in to help the team lift a 28-14 win over the Minnesota State University Moorhead. He nearly met the UMD program record (57 yards) for the longest field goal with his kick of 52 yards. On top of that, he nailed a 40-yard field goal and two extra points for a total of eight points of the Bulldogs' 28-point day. He also kept the Dragons' offense pinned with four punts that averaged 39.5 yards each and set them behind the 20-

114 career wins, eight Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) North Division titles. Six NCAA Division II playoff appearances. Four overall NSIC championships. Two perfect 11-0 regular seasons. A .803 winning percentage.

That, for starters, is what Curt Wiese has accomplished since taking over as UMD's sixth head coach on Dec. 21, 2012. He's also helped produce 32 All-Americans and 73 All-NSIC First Team selections while his Bulldogs have earned NSIC All-Academic status 148 times. Among those are 12 College Sports Communicators (CoSIDA) Academic All-Americans including three in the 2024 season. Wiese's Academic All-American's are wide receiver Jason Balts (First Team, 2017), two-time honoree defensive lineman Ethan Beffert (Second Team, 2024 and 2023), three-time honoree offensive lineman Arik Johnson (First Team in 2024, 2023 and 2022) defensive end Dan Monson (Second Team, 2019), offensive lineman Andrew Pattock (First Team, 2013), two-time honoree tight end Sam Pitz (First Team, 2024 and 2023) and defensive end Nick Thorpe (First Team, 2017). Johnson also won the 2024 Britton Scholar-Athlete Award for Academic Excellence, for the NSIC's top male student-athlete.

In addition, during Wiese's head coaching tenure UMD has racked up a victory total 114, making him the second-winningest coach in UMD program history, behind UMD Hall of Famer Jim Malosky.

Nine times Wiese's UMD squads have earned nine or more wins in a season, including a 9-2-0 record in 2024. In 2019, UMD went 8-3 and laid claim to its 12th consecutive NSIC North Division crown (with a perfect 7-0 mark against North competition). The 2018 season saw his Bulldogs run the regular season table for sixth time in the program history, going a perfect 11-0. They also captured a share of their 20th NSIC overall title, advance to the NCAA II postseason for the ninth time since 2008 and was ranked 13th in the final American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II poll. In 2017, the 9-3 Bulldogs earned invitation to the Mineral Water Bowl and that came one year after they reeled off 10 straight victories following a setback in the season opener and wound up going 10-2. Along the way the 2016 Bulldogs upped their home winning streak to a school-record 22 games, returned to the NCAA II playoffs after a brief, one-year absence, and occupied the No. 13 spot in the final AFCA II poll. In 2015, UMD capped off a 9-3 season by defeating Fort Hayes State University 30-22 in the Mineral Water Bowl and in 2014 rolled up a 13-1 overall record (the third most wins in program history) and claimed a share of another league crown. That was on top of advancing to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA II playoffs and ending up at No. 3 spot in the final AFCA II poll. Wiese's rookie-go-around (2013) included an 11-2 mark in all games, an NCAA II playoff berth and a No. 8 final AFCA II poll ranking.

For his exemplary efforts in 2013, Wiese was selected the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award winner for Division II, a prestigious honor recognizing coaches for their responsibility, integrity, sportsmanship and excellence, on and off the field.

Wiese was elevated to the UMD head coaching position after spending the previous five years overseeing offenses that moved the football with as much proficiency as any in NCAA II ranks. During Wiese's successful run as the team's offensive coordinator, the Bulldogs finished near the top of the NCAA II leader board four times in scoring (third in 2012 with a school-record 46.5 points per game average, fifth in 2008, sixth in 2010 and ninth in 2009) and in 2012 possessed the nation's seventh best rushing attack (after ranking seventh, fourth, and third, respectively, in that department the previous three seasons). The 2012 Bulldogs were also the nation's leader in third down conversions (54.8 percent). In addition, no less than 15 of his pupils landed some kind of All-American recognition, including a pair of Harlon Hill Award finalists -- quarterback Ted Schlafke (2008), the school's career passing and total offense leader, and running back Isaac Odum (2009), UMD's No. 1 all-time ground gainer and scorer and the holder of over one dozen school records. In addition, his starting offensive guard from 2009-12, Garth Heikkinen, became the school's first recipient of the Gene Upshaw Division II Lineman of the Year of Award and earned a playing spot in the annual East-West Shrine Game in January 2013 while offensive tackle Jake Bscherer participated in the Seattle Seahawks and Minnesota Vikings Training Camps later that year.

Since Wiese's arrival at UMD in February 2008, the Bulldogs have generated both a record of 159-30 and winning percentage (.841) while capturing two NCAA II national championships (2008 and 2010) nine NSIC titles (2008-12, 2014, 2018, 2021, and 2025) and 12 straight NSIC North Division crowns (2008-18). They've also posted two perfect 15-0 seasons and four 11-0 regular seasons.
