THE ROOS' NEWS

- Kansas City Men's Soccer closes its non-conference slate at Michigan State on Sunday afternoon, traveling to East Lansing for a meeting with the Spartans. It will be the latest in the year that the Roos have played an out-of-conference opponent on the road since the 2010 season, when KC traveled to Saint Louis for a match against the Billikens on Oct. 26.
- The Roos are coming off a 2-0 victory at Tulsa on Wednesday evening, taking down Head Coach Ryan Pore's alma mater in his 100th game on the Kansas City sidelines and winning the program's first-ever match at Tulsa in 12 games played.
- Jeremy Francou scored the game-winner in the 32nd minute on Wednesday, his seventh goal of the season. The junior forward currently ranks 34th in the NCAA in total goals, and with four game-winners on the year he is tied for third nation-wide.
- Freshman Bryce Outman tallied his fourth assist of the season on Raphael Kistmann's 59th-minute goal, moving him into a tie for the team-lead. All four of Outman's assists have come in the past six games, including three in the last four.
- The Roos are currently on a four-match winning streak and have won six of their last seven. A victory over the Spartans would match the team's longest winning streak since 1999, when Kansas City strung together a program-record six-straight wins from Sep. 19 through Oct. 9.
- Kansas City notched a Senior Night victory over St. Thomas on Oct. 18, defeating the Tommies in a 3-1 decision. Three of the honored seniors - Wade Muttitt, Raphael Kistmann and Timothy Ospina - accounted for all three of Kansas City's goals.
- Elie Kisoka made his presence known in Kansas City's 1-0 win over Oral Roberts on Oct. 11, scoring his first goal of the year. The senior found the back of the net in the 87th minute, giving the Roos their second-straight victory.
- The Roos picked up their first win of Summit League play on Oct. 4 with a 1-0 victory over Omaha. KC found the back of the net on a goal from Jeremy Francou in the 25th minute, his sixth goal and third game-winner of the year.
- Kansas City went 2-0 with a pair of shutouts against SIUE and

A LOOK AT THE SPARTANS

- Michigan State enters Sunday's contest with a 5-6-2 record and most recently played UCLA to a 0-0 draw on Monday evening.
- The Spartans have been held scoreless in their last three contests. Their last goal came from Richie Ludwig against Penn State on Oct. 3, his third goal of the season.
- MSU's Zac Kelly has posted five shutouts in goal this season, ranking 44th in the NCAA.
- As a team, the Spartans average 12.85 shots per game, ranking 77th in the nation.
- This will be the first-ever meeting between KC and Michigan State. The Roos hold a 1-6-2 all-time record against current members of the Big Ten with games played against Rutgers (0-1-1), Wisconsin (0-1-1) and Northwestern (1-4-0).

Western Illinois in the week of Sep. 15-21. Jeremy Francou and Marc Popow swept the Summit League weekly awards for their efforts in the victories.

- The Roos nabbed their third result against a ranked opponent on Sep. 13 with a 1-1 draw at No. 25 San Diego. After falling behind in the 72nd minute, Bryson Gosch scored the equalizer just 74 seconds later.
- Kansas City picked up its second win of the season on Sep. 1 thanks to a Jeremy Francou brace, the first of his career. KC was able to pick up the win despite being out-shot, 18-9.
- Kenny Yedmel was named the Summit League's Defensive Peak Performer of the Week on Sept. 2, earning the first weekly award of the season for a Kansas City player. He was the first non-goalie from Kansas City to earn defensive player of the Week honors since Seth Kacich in 2022.
- The Roos' first win of the year came in the form of a 2-1 victory over No. 24 Missouri State on Aug. 25. It was KC's third win over the Bears in the last two years and gave the Roos a program record four ranked wins over the past two seasons.
- Kansas City opened the year with a 2-2 draw against No. 5 SMU, the third time in program history that the Roos have notched a top-25 draw in their season opener. The other two were also ended in 2-2 results: against No. 16 UIC in 2008 and against No. 15 Virginia Tech in 2021.
- The Roos' No. 18 ranking in the preseason United Soccer Coaches poll marks the first time in program history that KC has entered a season in the top 25.
- Coming off their first Summit League Championship since 2008, the Roos were selected for a second-place finish in the 2025 Summit League Preseason Coaches' Poll.
- The Roos return eight players that started at least 10 games last season: Kisoka (22 GS), Miguel Fernandez (21), Bryson Gosch (21), Brandon McGaugh (21), Brevyn Cole (20), Raphael Kistmann (15), Guille Munoz (13) and Mathias Baucher (11).
- Alongside the veterans, the Roos are adding 15 new student-athletes. That group includes four Division One transfers: Joackim Betina (FIU), Wade Muttitt (SMC), Timothy Ospina (UIW) and Ethan Schaefer (Drexel).
- Kansas City has a Dallas flair to it this season. The Roos' roster includes four players from the FC Dallas Academy: Ospina, Adam Lansdown, Bryce Outman and Ian Witis-Hughes.
- The KC roster continues to span across the world. Coach Pore and staff have constructed a team that represents 12 different nations and five of the seven continents.
- After earning Summit League Offensive Player of the Year, Newcomer of the Year, and United Soccer Coaches Second Team All-West Region honors last season, Kisoka enters the 2025 campaign with lofty expectations. TopDrawerSoccer has named him a "Forward to Watch," placed him at No. 7 on the preseason National 100 and gave him a spot on the Preseason Best XI First Team.
- The Summit League has given preseason expectations for a different pair of returners: Jeremy Francou and Bryson Gosch. The pair were each Honorable Mention All-League players last year and started in all four of the Roos' postseason matches.
- The Roos schedule will be sure to challenge, featuring five contests against preseason ranked opponents. After starting the year against No. 5 SMU and No. 24 Missouri State, KC will

LAST TIME VS. MICHIGAN STATE

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Kansas City celebrated Senior Night on Oct. 18 with a 3-1 win over St. Thomas. In appropriate fashion, three of the honored players - Wade Muttitt, Raphael Kistmann and Timothy Ospina - were responsible for KC's goals.

Brandon McGaugh

McGaugh came to Kansas City after an all-conference career at Johnson County CC and was a large part of the Roos' NCAA run last season. He started in 21 games, ranking second in the Summit in goals-against average and saves per game en route to two Summit Peak Performer of the Week awards and an All-Newcomer honor.

Joackim Betina

Betina began his collegiate career at Florida International and came to KC for his final year, where he has been a starter in 12-of-13 games and has played 1026 minutes. Betina has tallied one goal and two assists on the year, accounting for the first points of his collegiate career.

Elie Kisoka

The reigning Summit League Offensive Player of the Year, Kisoka rewrote the record books in his first year with the Roos, claiming program records with 12 goals and 33 overall points. His efforts led the Roos to an NCAA Round of 16 appearance and he has battled back from an offseason surgery to score his first goal of 2025, a game-winner on Oct. 11 at Oral Roberts.

Mateus Moura

Moura spent the last two seasons in Kansas City after spending time at Lincoln Trail College, appearing in 17 games and making a pair of starts in 2024. He appeared in all four of KC's postseason games last year and has made appearances in six games this season.

Raphael Kistmann

A 2024 Second Team All-Summit Leaguer, Kistmann came to KC from Saint Louis CC and made an immediate impact. He scored eight goals last season and tallied 22 total points, ranking third in the Summit. He has made four starts this year, notching a pair of assists in the Roos' win over SIUE.

Timothy Ospina

After a three-year career at Incarnate Word, Ospina came to Kansas City this past offseason and has been a key player for the Roos. He has appeared in 12 games, making four starts and playing 467 minutes with a season-high of 90 minutes in the Roos' win over St. Thomas.

Wade Muttitt

Wade Muttitt came to Kansas City after three years at Saint Mary's, where he was a three-time All-WCC player. He has made five starts in 12 appearances this year, three goals and notching a pair of assists. He currently ranks second on the team with eight overall points.

also play No. 10 San Diego, No. 4 Denver and No. 8 UMass.

- Last season, Kansas City established themselves as one of the best road teams in the nation, posting a 9-3-2 record away from home. That marked the most road wins in the NCAA last season and the most in program history.
- KC finished 2025 as one of just six teams in the NCAA with multiple top-12 RPI wins, taking down Missouri State twice and Denver twice.
- The Roos' offense was a standout last season, finishing the year top-five in the nation in goals per game (2.55, T3rd), assists per game (2.73, 5th) and points per game (7.82, 2nd).
- Kansas City carried a six-game streak of two-plus goals into the 2025 season, three away from tying a program record. KC was shut out just twice in 2024, ending the season with at least one goal in each of the last 16 games.

NOTES

- Named the fifth head coach in Kansas City Men's Soccer history by Dr. Brandon Martin on Jan. 14, 2020.
- Two-time Summit League Men's Soccer Coach of the Year: 2020 and 2024.
- Enters the 2025 season as the program coaching leader in win percentage, ranking second in winning seasons and third in overall and conference wins.
- Led Roos to the best season in program history in 2024, winning the Summit League Championship with a 2-1 win over Denver and defeating Saint Louis and Missouri State en route to an NCAA Round of 16 appearance.
- The Roos' 2024 Summit League Championship and NCAA Tournament appearances were both the first for the program since the 2008 season.
- Aided Elie Kisoka to a Summit League Offensive Player of the Year honor, the first Roo to win conference player of the year since 2010.
- Led KC to three-straight Summit League championship game appearances for the first time in program history.
- Coached Cooper Clark to back-to-back Summit League Goalkeeper of the Year awards in 2020 and 2021.
- Overall, he has coached eight First Team All-Conference Performers, as well as 10 Second Teamers and eight Honorable Mention honorees.
- Began his coaching career at Tulsa, starting as an assistant coach and moving his way to associate head coach.
- Aided the Golden Hurricane to three American Athletic Conference titles.
- Drafted 16th overall in the 2005 SuperDraft by the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting KC), playing with the club for four years.
- Played at Tulsa from 2002-04, setting single-season records in goals and points, earning two All-American honors.
