THE ROOS' NEWS

- Kansas City Men's Soccer plays host to one of the biggest regular season games in Durwood Soccer Stadium history on Friday evening, welcoming 10th-ranked Michigan State. The Spartans will be just the fourth top 10 opponent to come to Durwood since its opening in 2009.
- The Roos are coming off a road trip that saw them go 1-0-1, including a draw with No. 3 SMU and a win over Drake in which KC was down a man for the majority of the second half. Kansas City is now unbeaten in its last seven regular season road matches.
- Mark Ramarola was named the Summit League Offensive Peak Performer of the Week on Tuesday following his heroics against SMU. He tallied the equalizer in the 90th minute, playing 78 total minutes and attempting a team-high three shots.
- Brandon Kincaid was a stalwart in goal in the win over Drake, making a season-high four saves en route to his third shutout of the season. Kincaid is currently tied for seventh in the NCAA with three clean sheets on the year.
- Ian Witis-Hughes scored the game-winner against the Bulldogs, entering as a substitute in the 30th minute and scoring in the 32nd on assists from Brevyn Cole and Brice Miller Jr. The goal was the second of the season for Witis-Hughes and was his first career game-winner.
- The Roos picked up a quality road result on Sep. 4, earning a 1-1 draw with No. 3 SMU for the fifth result against a top 10 team in the Ryan Pore era. Mark Ramarola scored the equalizer in the 90th minute to earn the draw.
- KC extended its' program record home unbeaten streak to 15-straight games with a 1-0 win over UNLV on Aug. 25, using a 54th-minute game-winner from Shotaro Kodama.
- Kansas City opened the season with a rip-roaring 5-0 win over SIUE. Raphael Kistmann went for a brace and an assist in the Roos' largest margin of victory over a Division I opponent since 2002.
- The Roos return a solid core from the 2025 roster, bringing back 76.2% of their minutes from last year's NCAA Second Round squad. Additionally, 13 players are still around from the 2024 NCAA Round of 16 roster.

A LOOK AT THE SPARTANS

- Michigan State has shot up the rankings with a 4-0-1 start to the season, scoring multiple goals in each of its first four games before a 0-0 draw with Pitt last week.
- The Roos and Spartans have each played, and beaten, SIUE on the young season. Kansas City picked up a 5-0 victory over the Cougars on Aug. 20, while MSU won 4-0 on Aug. 27.
- The Spartans are led offensively by Leo Conneh, who averages 1.4 points per game. Six different MSU players have score multiple goals on the year.
- As a team, Michigan State boasts the ninth-best scoring offense in the nation, averaging 3.2 goals per game. The Spartans have a +12 goal differential, the eighth-best in the NCAA.
- These teams have met just once before, a 2-0 victory for Kansas City in East Lansing last season. Raphael Kistmann scored the game-winner in the 50th minute.

GAME 6: (RV) KANSAS CITY VS. No. 10 MICHIGAN STATE | FRIDAY, SEP. 11 | 7:00 P.M.

- Jeremy Francou logged a breakout season in 2025, going for 11 goals, the fourth-most in a single season in program history and 19th-most in the nation last year. He has drawn attention from across the nation, making the MAC Hermann Trophy "Forwards to Watch" list and grabbing the No. 29 spot on the TopDrawerSoccer preseason National Top-100.
- Bryce Outman also garnered recognition entering 2026 after a freshman campaign that saw him named Summit League Newcomer of the Year. He earned the No. 75 spot on the TopDrawerSoccer preseason National Top-100.
- Of the 20 returners on roster, 12 have earned All-Summit League designation in their careers: Brandon Kincaid (All-Newcomer, 2024), Marc Popow (All-Tournament, 2025), Brevyn Cole (Honorable Mention, 2024), Guille Munoz (First Team, 2025), Bryson Gosch (Honorable Mention, 2024; Second Team, 2025), Miguel Fernandez (All-Tournament, 2024; Honorable Mention, 2025), Bryce Outman (First Team, 2025), Mathias Baucher (All-Newcomer, 2024), Jeremy Francou (Honorable Mention, 2024; First Team, 2025), Gabriele Galluccio (Honorable Mention, 2024), Raphael Kistmann (Second Team, 2024 & 2025) and Wesley Cribb (Honorable Mention, 2024).
- Marc Popow made a difference in the net for the Roos last season, ranking second in the Summit in goals against average. He was named to the end-of-year TopDrawerSoccer Top-100 Freshmen list at No. 52.
- Kansas City adds nine new faces to the mix in 2026, bringing in one transfer and eight who will be playing their first season of collegiate soccer. Five of the newbies come from the international scene and three come from the Kansas City metro.
- The Roos' 2026 schedule includes plenty of challenges against perennial contenders and national brands, with highlights including games hosting Michigan State, San Diego, and Tulsa and trips to SMU and NC State.
- Durwood Soccer Stadium saw major upgrades this summer, most prominently the addition of a state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard on the east side of the stadium. The board stands 34 feet wide and 17 feet tall, creating an immersive fan experience.
- Kansas City has qualified to two-straight NCAA Tournaments for the first time in program history, including the first at-large bid in program history in 2025.
- The Roos hosted their first-ever NCAA Tournament game last season, defeating Lindenwood, 1-0, on Nov. 20. The game was played in front of a Durwood-record-breaking 809 fans.

NOTES

- Named the fifth head coach in Kansas City Men's Soccer history by Dr. Brandon Martin on Jan. 14, 2020.
- Three-time Summit League Men's Soccer Coach of the Year: 2020, 2024 and 2025.
- Enters the 2026 season as the program coaching leader in win percentage, ranking second in winning seasons and third in overall and conference wins.
- Led Roos to the best season in program history in 2024, winning the Summit League Championship with a 2-1 win over Denver and defeating Saint Louis and Missouri State en route to an NCAA Round of 16 appearance.
- The Roos' 2024 Summit League Championship and NCAA Tournament appearances were both the first for the program since the 2008 season.
- Aided Elie Kisoka to a Summit League Offensive Player of the Year honor, the first Roo to win conference player of the year since 2010.
- Led KC to three-straight Summit League championship game appearances for the first time in program history.
- Coached Cooper Clark to back-to-back Summit League Goalkeeper of the Year awards in 2020 and 2021.
- Overall, he has coached eight First Team All-Conference Performers, as well as 10 Second Teamers and eight Honorable Mention honorees.
- Began his coaching career at Tulsa, starting as an assistant coach and moving his way to associate head coach.
- Aided the Golden Hurricane to three American Athletic Conference titles.
- Drafted 16th overall in the 2005 SuperDraft by the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting KC), playing with the club for four years.
- Played at Tulsa from 2002-04, setting single-season records in goals and points, earning two All-American honors.
