Men's Soccer UMSL Sports Hall of Famers

DON DALLAS

Inducted: 2001

Don Dallas built the UMSL men's soccer program into a perennial national power after starting the program in 1968, and six years later won the school's only NCAA National Championship for any sport in 1973. He had a 236-89-30 career record at UMSL and a 247-93-34 record overall in college coaching. Dallas coached a total of 15 All-Americans at UMSL and led the team to the NCAA Tournament 16 times and to six Final Four appearances. He was named Midwest Region Coach of the Year three times during his career and in 1987 was named National Coach of the Year. In 1991, the UMSL soccer field was renamed the Don Dallas Soccer Field as a tribute to Dallas and in honor of his accomplishments to the University.

FRANK TUSINSKI

Inducted: 2001

Frank Tusinski was two-sport athlete who earned All-American honors in both soccer and baseball. Tusinski was the starting goalkeeper for UMSL's 1973 National Championship team, earning All-American honors in both 1972 and 1973. He ranks third in UMSL history for goal against average (0.92) and is fifth in career saves (182). On the baseball field, he was an all-region and All-American selection in 1973 as a first baseman.

JEFF ROBBERN

Inducted: 2002

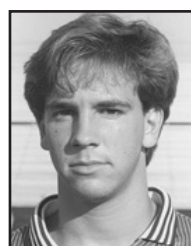

Jeff Robben is one of the most decorated goalkeepers in UMSL history. During a three-year stretch (1986-88), he recorded 31 career shut-outs, including a single-season record 11 in 1986. In 1988, he led the team to a school record 18 wins, including a trip to the NCAA Championships. Robben has the second best career goals against average in school history at 0.79, and is third in career saves with 278. Robben was a first team All-American selection in 1988 and was a three-time all-region and all-conference selection.

CRAIG FREDERKING

Inducted: 2003

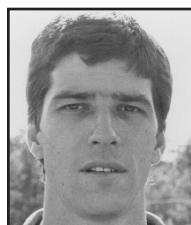

Craig Frederking is UMSL's all-time leading scorer with 99 career points. He holds the school record for most career goals with 39 and is second all-time in career assists with 21. In 1991, he recorded 15 goals, the second best single season mark in UMSL history, and his 10 assists in 1989 are the fourth highest total. During his career, UMSL had a combined record of 55-17-4 and in 1991 advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. Frederking was a three-time all-region selection, in 1990, 1991 and 1992, and was a two-time All-American player in 1991 and 1992.

SCOTT WIBBENMEYER

Inducted: 2005

Scott Wibbenmeyer was a three-year letterwinner at UMSL, earning all-conference honors in each of his three seasons. He was an all-region selection three straight years (1986, 1987, 1988) and was an All-American selection in 1987 and 1988. He is tied for 13th among the UMSL career scoring leaders with 46 career points. Wibbenmeyer recorded 19 goals and eight assists during his career.

DAN MUESENFECHTER

Inducted: 2007

Dan Muesenfechter played two seasons at UMSL and led the team in goals both years. He was a two-time All-American selection in 1979 and 1980, and helped lead UMSL to the NCAA Tournament, reaching the quarterfinals in 1980. He ranks ninth in the UMSL records with 52 career points, and is tenth in career goals with 20. His 14 goals in 1980 rank as the fifth best single season total in school history, and his 33 points rank as the sixth best in school history.

TIM SMITH

Inducted: 2007

Tim Smith played two seasons at UMSL (1972, 1973) and was a member of the men's soccer national championship team in 1973. He ranks 13th in UMSL career scoring with 46 points on 18 goals and 10 assists. Tim led the national championship team in scoring in 1973 with 13 goals, which ranks as the sixth best single season total in UMSL history. His 34 points that season ranks as the fifth best total in a single season. Tim holds individual single game records for most goals with four, and most points with ten.

Men's Soccer UMSL Sports Hall of Famers

PAT HOGAN

Inducted: 2010

Pat played at UMSL from 1973-1976 and was a member of the 1973 NCAA Division II National Championship team, which finished with an 11-0-3 record. During his four-year career, UMSL produced a 34-17-9 record and competed in four NCAA Tournaments. As a senior on the 1976 team, he earned all-region honors after helping the team to a 9-8-1 record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament semifinals.

KEVIN MISSEY

Inducted: 2014

The only three-time All-American in men's soccer program history, Kevin Missey was a midfielder during the 1970, 1973 and 1974 seasons. He was also an All-Region selection in each of those years. He helped the 1973 team to the NCAA Division II national championship, earning tournament MVP honors after scoring two goals in the 3-0 win over the University of California-Fullerton. UMSL finished 11-0-3 that season. Missey still ranks ninth all-time in shots (128).

SCOTT LUCZAK

Inducted: 2010

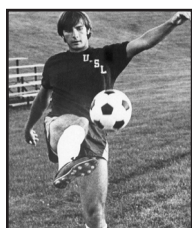

Scott was a two-sport athlete at UMSL from 1996-2000. He was a four-time all-Great Lakes Valley Conference selection in soccer, earning first team honors as a junior in 1998 and second team honors in 1996, 1997 and 1999. Scott was also a three-time NSCAA all-Midwest Region selection. He is tied as the fourth all-time leading scorer at UMSL with 71 points, scoring 31 goals and recording nine assists. His 31 goals rank third all-time. Scott also ranks second all-time in games played (78) and fourth in shots (157).

TODD RICK

Inducted: 2018

A three-time all-region selection, Rick also earned Second Team All-American accolades and was named the MIAA MVP as a junior. He graduated ranking second all-time in career goals (33) and tied for second in career assists (21) and scoring (87 points). As a junior in 1994, Rick tied a single season record with 17 goals and scored 41 points, which was the second most. He started all 75 games during his career.

STEVE BUCKLEY

Inducted: 2014

Steve Buckley was a two-time All-American (1971 and 1972) as a defender, garnering the accolades in each of the two seasons he played at UMSL. He also earned All-Region honors in both of those years and helped the 1972 team to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. Buckley came to UMSL following two seasons at St. Louis Community College-Florissant Valley. He was inducted into the St. Louis Soccer Hall of Fame in 2010.
