SIMPLY THE BEST - MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

- The Terps have been invited to the NCAA Tournament a total of 25 times, a number that tops any other team in the country. Virginia, which is second, made its 22nd NCAA appearance in 2009.
- Maryland has played the most games in the tournament (54) and has the most wins with a 39-16 record.
- The Terps have won nine NCAA Championships which is four more than the second place team. Northwestern has won its first five national titles the last five seasons while Princeton and Virginia also have three to their names.
- Maryland has won the most overtime games in the NCAA Tournament with a 6-0 record.
- Maryland has the longest winning streak in NCAA Tournament history with 21 consecutive victories from 1995-2002 and has appeared in 16 title games, more than any other school.
- Heading into the 2010 season, Maryland has more wins than any other program in the country, totaling in at 516 and also boast the top winning percentage (.806).

MARYLAND BOUNCES BACK WITH WIN AGAINST PRINCETON

- Sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson erupted for six goals as No. 3 Maryland downed Ivy League power Princeton, 13-6, Wednesday night.
- The Annapolis, Md., native matched her career-high with six goals against the Tigers while adding an assist to lift Maryland to 13-1 overall. Fellow Tewaaraton nominee Sarah Mollison added six points on three goals and three assists.
- Brittany Dipper made seven saves to pick up the win in the cage. The Terrapin defense, led by Merrifield's four ground balls and two caused turnovers, held its opponent to single-digit goals for the 11th time in 2010.

SCOUTING THE HOKIES

- Virginia Tech is on a two-game winning streak heading into Saturday's match at Ludwig Field.
- The Hokies (6-9, 0-4 ACC) edged Longwood, 15-14, in its last outing Wednesday.
- VT is led by Allie Emala, who boasts a team-high 44 points on 29 goals and 15 assists. Jessica Nonn paces the Hokies in goals with 32 while the offense is averaging 11.80 goals per contest. Opponents are scoring at a .477 clip against VT's defense in 2010.
- The Hokies have used three goalies this season, with Alex Gale getting the majority of the action in the cage. Gale is allowing 14.24 goals per game while notching 77 saves.
- Maryland is undefeated in the all-time series, winning all six meetings. Last season, the Terps topped VT in Blacksburg, 16-6, led by hat tricks from Kristy Black, Karri Ellen Johnson and Brittany Jones.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- Despite winning the ACC championship and going a spectacular 21-1, including an undefeated record at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, the Terps, which return every starter from last season, have some unfinished business to take care of --- bringing the national championship back to College Park.
- It had been five seemingly long seasons since the esteemed Maryland women's lacrosse program had advanced to the final four, but the wait finally ended in 2009 as the Terps landed in Towson for national semifinals.
- This year's Terps are a year older and a year wiser -- boasting possibly ten upperclassmen in their starting lineup -- and the goal has never been clearer.

THE ACC SCENARIO

- Should Maryland win against Virginia Tech Saturday, all indications point to a number two seed in the upcoming ACC tournament in College Park next weekend.
- North Carolina and Virginia have wrapped up each of its conference regular-season slates with 4-1 records. A Terrapin win against the Hokies Saturday would be mean a three-way logjam at the top.
- Below is a breakdown of the conference tiebreaker formula:
 1. Head-to-head Conference game results between the tied teams.
 2. Record versus team(s) occupying the higher position in the standings (or in case of a tie for first place, the next highest in the regular-season standings and continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage).
 3. Goals differential in head-to-head competition against tied teams (goals for, minus goals against, maximum difference plus five for any one game).
 4. Blind draw.
- Below is a list of how tiebreaker scenario #3 shakes up.
 1. North Carolina - def. Maryland, 13-9 (+4), lost to Virginia, 13-12 (-1) = +3
 2. Maryland - def. Virginia, 11-5 (+5), lost to UNC, 13-9 (-4) = +1
 3. Virginia - def. UNC, 13-12 (+1), lost to Maryland (11-5) (-5) = -4

MCFADDEN, TAYLOR AND JOHNSON ALL MAKE CUT

- Seniors Caitlyn McFadden and Karissa Taylor, along with sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson, have been listed as three of the top 25 candidates for this year's Tewaaron Award, given annually to the best player in women's college lacrosse, as announced April 14 by The Greater Washington Sports Alliance.
- From this nominee list, five will be named finalists for the prestigious award. Last season, McFadden was named one of the final five. This season, the Terps boast one player at defender (Taylor), attack (Johnson) and midfield (McFadden). Johnson is one of only three sophomores to make the cut.

TEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

FH & LAX COMPLEX FINALE

- Maryland, which began the season with a snow-filled opener at the football field turf, went 6-0 at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex this season and concluded its home venue slate against Towson on Wednesday.
- The Terps, who play host to the 2010 ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship at Ludwig Field, will switch locations for its final home game prior to the championships versus Virginia Tech April 17 and will remain there for the final two home games following ACCs.
- The field turf at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex will be getting a makeover after sustaining some damage following the series of blizzards in College Park this winter.

THE 200-POINT CLUB

- With seven points against George Mason, senior Caitlyn McFadden joined Maryland's prestigious 200-point club for her career.
- The four-year starter is currently ninth all-time with 226 points. Former Maryland great Jen Adams leads the way with 445 career points, the most in NCAA women's lacrosse history. Maryland assistant coach Quinn Carney is fourth with 272, while head coach Cathy Reese is 12th with 217.

TERPS TOPPLE NO. 6 PENN

- Sophomore duo Karri Ellen Johnson and Kristy Black combined for seven goals as No. 2 Maryland toppled No. 6 Penn, 12-6, on the road.
- Johnson, who has scored in all 34 matches she has appeared in at Maryland, scored a game-high four goals and added an assist for five points on the day. Black put three in the back of the net while Tewaaron nominees Caitlyn McFadden and Sarah Mollison each added two scores.
- The Terrapin defense held Penn to 13 shots in the match while causing six Quaker turnovers, led by three from McFadden. Maryland's defense has held 11 of its 12 opponents to ten or fewer goals this season while topping its sixth top-ten ranked foe.

GOING STREAKING

- Maryland's Caitlyn McFadden, Sarah Mollison and Karri Ellen Johnson each possess scoring streaks which rank among the best nationally.
- McFadden's 39-game point scoring streak ranks 13th in the nation, while Johnson and Mollison's 36-game version is tied for 15th. Johnson also boasts the sixth-longest goal scoring streak after scoring in all 36 games she has appeared in as a Terp.

#100 IN SIGHT

- Head coach Cathy Reese is one-win shy of career win No. 100 heading into Maryland's match against Virginia Tech Saturday.
- The former Terrapin All-American is 99-38 in her seven-year career, which began at the University of Denver. Reese is 68-9 all-time at the helm of the Maryland program and has not lost a regular season match in College Park during her four seasons with the Terps.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

- Several Terps find their names scattered among the active leader lists in NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse.
- Caitlyn McFadden is currently fourth among active leaders in career assists (99), sixth in points (226) and 23rd in goals (127).
- As only a sophomore, Karri Ellen Johnson ranks 29th in the nation in active career goals (118). Maryland senior Kate Faas, who spent the first two years of her collegiate career at St. Bonaventure, ranks 31st with 166 career points.

TOPPLING THE TOP

- Don't accuse Maryland of padding its schedule with fluff teams. The Terps have already battled ten top-20 squads, with six being ranked in the top ten. Maryland has topped nine out of ten and is doing so by an average of 7.89 goals per game.

- Below is a rundown of Maryland's assault on the polls.

- X - #18 Penn State, 17-9
- X - #5 Duke, 17-4
- X - #9 Virginia, 11-5
- X - #15 New Hampshire, 20-6
- X - #7 Georgetown, 20-11
- X - #8 Stanford, 20-8
- X - #20 James Madison, 8-7
- X - #7 Towson, 12-10
- X - #6 Penn, 12-6

A BALANCING ACT

- Maryland's offense, while dominant, is also incredibly balanced, boasting eight players with double-digit goals.

- Karri Ellen Johnson (44), Caitlyn McFadden (28), Sarah Mollison (25), Katie Schwarzmans (22), Brandi Jones (16), Amanda Spinnenweber (13), Laura Merrifield (14) and Kate Faas (13) give Maryland an extremely dynamic attack, providing solid looks at goal from all over the field.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Maryland had three different players earn weekly awards after dropping No. 7 Towson and No. 6 Penn in consecutive matches.

- Sarah Mollison was named ACC Women's Lacrosse Player of the Week for the period ending Sunday, April 4, while Caitlyn McFadden garnered Womenslacrosse.com's Offensive Player of the Week and Karri Ellen Johnson was tabbed Womenslax.com Player of the Week.

SCHWARZMANN NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Freshman Katie Schwarzmans was named Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Player of the Week for the period ending March 28.

- Schwarzmans tallied five goals and six points in a pair of wins over ranked opponents on the week to move No. 2 Maryland to a perfect 10-0 in 2010. Schwarzmans was also named Rookie of the Week by Womenslax.com and Womenslacrosse.com.

MARYLAND ROUTS NO. 8 STANFORD, 20-8

- Ten different Terps scored Thursday to lift the No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team past No. 8 Stanford, 20-8.

- Of the ten Maryland goal scorers, seven were multiple offenders, led by four from Karri Ellen Johnson and three from Laura Merrifield. Johnson, a sophomore Tewaaron nominee, also tallied a game-high seven draw controls, the majority of which led to Maryland goals.

- Maryland has outscored the four top-ten foes it has faced by a total of 68-28. The Terps outshot its West Coast opponent, 43-16, to move to a perfect 4-0 against Stanford all-time.

TERPS SLIDE PAST BOSTON COLLEGE

- No. 2 Maryland slid past a previously undefeated Boston College team, 7-6, to gain sole possession of first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

- Despite being held to its lowest scoring output of the year, the Maryland defense allowed BC a mere nine shots in the match and caused 14 Eagle turnovers. Brandi Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson led the Terrapin attack with two goals apiece. Johnson, a sophomore Tewaaron nominee, also caused three turnovers and had a team-best four draw controls.

JOHNSON LEADS TERPS PAST NO. 7 GEORGETOWN

- Sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson netted five scores and No. 2 Maryland put up 20 goals for the second consecutive game as the Terps ran away with a 20-11 win against No. 7 Georgetown.

- Three of Johnson's five goals came in the opening minutes of the second stanza to provide Maryland some breathing room and a six-goal cushion after an even-played first half.

- The Terrapin defense stepped up the intensity in the second half, allowing only five Hoya goals in the period. Maryland trumped Georgetown 23-10 in the draw control category, led by five from junior Brandi Jones.

TENACIOUS D

- George Mason's Megan Udovich finally stymied Maryland's defense with a goal with 2:33 remaining in the first half to stop Maryland's streak of 67 consecutive minutes without surrendering a goal.
- Maryland, which is allowing a mere seven goals per game this season, held No. 9 Virginia scoreless the final 39:43 of last Friday's match before preventing Mason from seeing the back of the net for 27:27 to begin Tuesday's game in Fairfax.

MARYLAND DROPS VIRGINIA, 11-5

- The No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team held No. 9 Virginia scoreless in the second half on its way to an 11-5 defeat of the Cavaliers.
- After the two perennial powerhouses battled to a 6-5 Maryland advantage through the first 30 minutes of play, the Terps held the Cavs to a mere three shots in the second stanza.
- Karri Ellen Johnson ended the day with a match-high four goals while adding an assist, two caused turnovers, a draw control and a ground ball. Sarah Mollison also tallied five points on two goals and three assists.
- Maryland held a decisive shot advantage, 33-11, and kept an opponent from reaching a double-digit goal output for the fourth consecutive time this season.

TERPS DOMINATE DUKE, 17-4

- Maryland benefited from a balanced scoring attack as the Terps toppled Duke, 17-4, on the road.
- Maryland picked up hat tricks from Katie Schwarzmann, Amanda Spinnenweber and Sarah Mollison as a total of nine players scored on the day, five of whom put up multi-goal showings.
- The Terps have now scored 17 goals in all three of their wins in 2010. Duke (4-1, 0-1 ACC), who was also averaging 17 scores per contest, was held to a season-low four goals in its conference opener. Maryland outshot the Blue Devils 32-19 for the match.
- In addition to notching three goals, Mollison added a pair of assists and a game-high five draw controls. Schwarzmann put together the most complete game of her young career at Maryland, tacking an assist, two draw controls, five ground balls and three caused turnovers onto her career-high three-goal performance.

TAYLOR AND POIST NET BACK-TO-BACK DEFENSIVE HONORS

- Karissa Taylor garnered WomensLacrosse.com Defensive Player of the Week honors after Maryland dismantled No. 5 Duke on the road, while the next week Brittany Poist garnered the award.
- Taylor played a vital part in Maryland's monumental 13-goal defeat of Duke, scooping up five ground balls, causing three turnovers and adding a pair of draw controls to help hold the Blue Devils to four scores, its lowest goal production since 2005.
- Poist kept the honor in the family the next week as she helped the Terps to a dominating win over Virginia. She had four ground balls and four caused turnovers as Maryland shut down the Cavaliers in the second half, allowing only three shots and zero goals.

TRICKY TRICKY

- Maryland spread around its scoring in its home opener as four different players notched hat tricks on the day.
- Karri Ellen Johnson, Brandi Jones, Caitlyn McFadden and Kate Faas all netted three goals apiece.
- In total, nine Terps scored goals against Richmond, including Danielle Kirk and Katie Schwarzmann, who notched their first collegiate scores at Maryland.

MCFADDEN NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

- Senior midfielder Caitlyn McFadden has been tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason National Player of the Year, as announced by the publication.
- McFadden, who helped guide the U. S. to a gold medal in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer, was tabbed IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year last season along with a clean sweep of every ACC honor, including Player of the Year, Tournament Most Valuable Player and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The Tewaaron Trophy finalist ended the 2009 campaign with 54 goals, 31 assists and 37 draw controls. The Phoenix, Md., native has started in every match since her arrival to College Park in 2007 and is one-goal shy of 100 career goals as a Terp.

2010 MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

TITLE TERPS!!

- ACC Championship MVP Caitlyn McFadden scored four goals in the second half to lift the Terps to its first title since 2003 as top-seeded Maryland downed Duke, 12-11, to win the 2009 ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship at Thompson Field on the campus of Virginia Tech.
- McFadden was named tournament MVP while teammates Brittany Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Brittany Jones and Karissa Taylor all landed on the all-tournament team.

ALL-AMERICANS RETURN

- A total of six Terps garnered regional All-American status last season with five moving on to earn national honors -- all return for Maryland this season.
- Regionally, Caitlyn McFadden, Karissa Taylor, Sarah Mollison, Brandi Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson all landed on the first team while Laura Merrifield racked up regional second team honors.
- The first team honorees advanced to national voting where McFadden and Johnson were each tabbed to the first team. Mollison and Brandi Jones landed on the second team and Taylor earned third-team accolades.
- McFadden was also named IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year.

SUMMER FUN IN PRAGUE

- A total of 16 current and former Terps competed for their respective countries in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer.
- Included in that mix are current Maryland standouts Caitlyn McFadden, Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison.
- McFadden helped guide the U.S. to the gold medal, topping Mollison and Team Australia in the finals. Merrifield led her native England to the semifinals before bowing out to the U.S.

SCHWARZMANN EARNS LOFTY HONOR

- Maryland freshman Katie Schwarzmans has been tabbed "Athlete of the Decade" by the Carroll County Times.
- A three-sport standout, excelling in soccer, basketball and lacrosse, Schwarzmans was named first-team All-Decade in all three sports.

PERFECTION

- Maryland, compliments of a 19-0 record, racked up its eighth undefeated regular season following a win against Princeton, 20-12, on May 2, 2009.
- The unblemished record was the first for Maryland since 2001, when it last won the national championship.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- Maryland is 34-1 at home under fourth-year head coach Cathy Reese.
- The Terps have won all four games in which they have played an opponent ranked No. 1 or No. 2 at home in the past three seasons and have done it in three different locations.
- The Terps are 174-15 in College Park dating back to 1990 with 11 perfect seasons in that span.
- Records of home and away games are incomplete from 1974-89.

TERPS TAB CAPTAINS

- Sarah Mollison will join two-time captains Caitlyn McFadden, Amanda Spinnenweber and Karissa Taylor as captains for the defending ACC champions.
- McFadden, who was tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason Player of the Year, gathered a slew of awards last season, including a sweep of every conference award and IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year.
- Spinnenweber started in every match except one in 2009, tallying career-highs in goals (26), assists (9), points (35), draw controls (22), caused turnovers (10) and ground balls (16).
- Taylor picked up Third Team All-America honors last season while guiding the Terrapin defense to a 9.11 GAA. She also contributed offensively during her junior campaign, registering 10 goals and four assists.
- Mollison, a junior, started in every match for Maryland's attack in 2009, scoring 44 goals and dishing out 38 assists for the ACC champion Terps.

SISTER, SISTER

- Possibly the finest sister combination in the country, Brittany and Brandi Jones team up once again this season in the Maryland midfield.
- Brandi took her game to a new level in 2009, being tabbed an All-American and All-ACC after racking up 28 goals and 32 assists as a sophomore for the ACC champion Terrapins.
- Brittany had a breakout season in 2009 notching career-highs in goals (33), assists (8), points (41), and draw controls (23). She was named to the ACC All-Tournament Team after scoring four goals and adding two draw controls in Maryland's run to the title.
- In 2010, Brandi has racked up 26 points on 16 goals and 10 assists while Brittany has eight goals and two assists on the year.

MD WLAX SWEEPS ACC AWARDS

- Caitlyn McFadden headlined the 2009 ACC Women's Lacrosse individual postseason honors. The Tewaaron Trophy finalist was recognized alongside freshman Karri Ellen Johnson and Terrapin head coach Cathy Reese.
- McFadden helped make it three-in-a-row for Maryland as Dana Dobbie won the coveted Player of the Year honor in 2007 and 2008. She was also named ACC Tournament MVP and Scholar-Athlete of the Year.
- Johnson secured Rookie of the Year honors after a tremendous freshman campaign in which she tallied team-highs in goals and draw controls.
- Reese garnered her second ACC Coach of the Year honor in only three seasons at the helm of the Maryland program. Reese guided the Terps to a 21-1 record and an ACC title in 2009.

HALL OF FAME COACHES

- Over the offseason, both head coach Cathy Reese and assistant coach Quinn Carney were awarded the prestigious honor of being named to various Hall of Fames.
- Carney was inducted into the New Jersey Lacrosse Hall of Fame while Reese landed in the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame in January.

Game Recaps

Game #1 • February 14 College Park, Md. Maryland 17, Richmond 7

Karri Ellen Johnson, Brandi Jones, Caitlyn McFadden and Kate Faas all netted three goals apiece as the Terps moved to 17-0 all-time against the Spiders. Johnson, who scored five goals in her collegiate debut at Richmond last season, also led Maryland in draw controls with seven. McFadden tacked on four assists for a team-high seven points on the day. The Terps heated up in the second half, outshooting the Spiders 17-8 in the period. Maryland rolled off four-straight scores to start the session, including three by Johnson and one from Spinnenweber. Richmond's Molly Early snapped the streak with a free position goal with 18 minutes remaining. Faas capped her hat trick off another McFadden assist. Sophomore Brittany Dipper was the keeper of record after making six saves in the match. The Terps were a stellar 10-for-10 in clears. Laura Merrifield had a team-high three caused turnovers as Brittany Poist scooped up three of Maryland's 19 ground balls on the day.

Game #3 • February 27 Durham, N.C. Maryland 17, Duke 4

The Terps benefited from a balanced scoring attack, highlighted by hat tricks from Katie Schwarzmann, Amanda Spinnenweber and Sarah Mollison. Maryland picked up scoring from a total of nine players on the day, five of whom put up multi-goal showings. The Terps have now scored 17 goals in all three of their wins in 2010. Duke, which was also averaging 17 scores per contest, was held to a season-low four goals in its conference opener. Maryland outshot the Blue Devils 32-19 for the match. In addition to notching three goals, Mollison added a pair of assists and a game-high five draw controls. Schwarzmann put together the most complete game of her young career at Maryland, tacking an assist, two draw controls, five ground balls and three caused turnovers onto her career-high three-goal performance.

Game #4 • March 5 College Park, Md. Maryland 11, Virginia 5

The No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team held No. 9 Virginia scoreless in the second half on its way to an 11-5 defeat of the Cavaliers Friday. Maryland thwarted a ten-minute stall tactic by Virginia to outscore the Cavs 5-0 in the second half and earn its second conference victory in six days. After the two perennial powerhouses battled to a 6-5 Maryland advantage through the first 30 minutes of play, Virginia came out of the locker room at the half with a draw control win and a six-minute lethargic possession in which they did not tally a shot. The Maryland defense went on to grant Virginia a mere three shots in the stanza while the Terps capped their 7-0 run with three more goals, including a pair of acrobatic scores by Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson. Maryland held a decisive shot advantage, 33-11 and has yet to allow an opponent to reach a double-digit goal output this season.

Game #5 • March 9 Fairfax, Va. Maryland 16, George Mason 4

No. 2 Maryland utilized a ferocious start to drop George Mason, 16-4, on the road. Maryland jumped out to a massive 10-0 lead before George Mason even registered its first shot of the day. Tewaaraon nominee Caitlyn McFadden tallied six points in the devastating run, mustering two goals and four assists. The Terps outscored Mason 5-2 in the second period and held a significant 14-7 shot advantage. A swarming Maryland defense forced Mason into 11 turnovers in the second half alone while the Patriots were successful on a mere 10-of-18 clear attempts on the match. Game #7 • March 17
College Park, Md.
Maryland 20, Georgetown 11

Sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson netted five scores and No. 2 Maryland put up 20 goals for the second consecutive game as the Terps ran away with a 20-11 win against No. 7 Georgetown Wednesday.

Three of Johnson's five goals came in the opening minutes of the second stanza to provide Maryland some breathing room and a six-goal cushion after an even-played first half. The Hoyas outscored Maryland 5-2 in the first 11 minutes of the game before goals by Kate Faas, Laura Merrifield, and Brandi Jones tied the game and a Brittany Jones score at 11:47 gave the Terps the eventual game-winner.

The Terrapin defense stepped up the intensity in the second half, allowing only five Hoya goals in the period. Maryland trumped Georgetown 23-10 in the draw control category.

Maryland v. Penn

Sophomore duo Karri Ellen Johnson and Kristy Black combined for seven goals as No. 2 Maryland toppled No. 6 Penn, 12-6, on the road Friday night.

Johnson, who has scored in all 34 matches she has appeared in at Maryland, scored a game-high four goals and added an assist for five points on the day. Black put three in the back of the net while Tewaaraton nominees Caitlyn McFadden and Sarah Mollison each added two scores.

The Terrapin defense held Penn to 13 shots in the match while causing six Quaker turnovers, led by three from McFadden. Maryland's defense has held 11 of its 12 opponents to ten or fewer goals this season while topping its sixth top-ten ranked foe.

Game #13 • April 10
Chapel Hill, N.C.
Maryland 9, North Carolina 13

No. 2 Maryland dropped its first regular season game since March 1, 2008, when it fell to No. 3 North Carolina, 13-9, Saturday.

The Terps (12-1, 3-1 ACC) were led by Karri Ellen Johnson, who racked up a hat trick and added an assist on the day. Caitlyn McFadden dished out three assists and freshman Katie Schwarzmann added a pair of goals against North Carolina, who moved to 11-1 and 3-1 in ACC play.

Despite the loss, Maryland took more shots, secured more ground balls and made four-fewer turnovers than North Carolina.

Maryland 13, Princeton 6

Sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson erupted for six goals as No. 3 Maryland downed Ivy League power Princeton, 13-6, Wednesday night.

The Annapolis, Md., native matched her career-high with six goals against the Tigers while adding an assist to lift Maryland to 13-1 overall. Fellow Tewaaraton nominee Sarah Mollison added six points on three goals and three assists.

Brittany Dipper made seven saves to pick up the win in the cage. The Terrapin defense, led by Merrifield's four ground balls and two caused turnovers, held its opponent to single-digit goals for the 11th time in 2010.
