2013 Game Notes

Saturday, Sept. 7

Maryland vs. Old Dominion

(1-0, 0-0 ACC)

(0-1)

Kickoff: 4:05 p.m. EDT Location: College Park, Md. Stadium: Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium (51,802)

FIRST-AND-10...

• The University of Maryland football team looks to build upon a season-opening 43-10 victory over FIU when it welcomes Old Dominion to Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium Saturday at 4 p.m. The Terps turned in an impressive offensive performance racking up 576 total yards, 325 yards through the air and 251 yards on the ground. The defense was equally as impressive holding the Panthers to 171 total yards including only 80 passing yards.

• A dominant offensive performance in the first half put the game out of reach and enabled the Terps to earn the win. Quarterback C.J. Brown led the effort with 281 yards passing and 105 yards rushing and five scores (three passing touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns) in three quarters of action. Nine different Terrapin receivers caught a pass on Saturday with Deon Long hauling in nine passes for 110 yards and one touchdown in his Maryland debut. Stefon Diggs had five catches 98 yards and one score, a 66-yard pass from Brown tying his career long.

• Defensively, linebacker L.A. Goree totaled a team-high 10 tackles, four solo. Dating back to last season, Goree has led or tied for the team high in tackles in four straight games. The junior linebacker totaled a career-best 14 tackles in the 2012 season finale at North Carolina (11/24/12). Defensive lineman Quinton Jefferson and linebackers Cole Farrand and Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil each had seven tackles. The Terps tallied five sacks on the day led by linebacker Marcus Whitfield, who had a career-best 1.5 sacks. Cornerback Dexter McDougle, who played in his 25th consecutive game on Saturday, picked off FIU quarterback E.J. Hilliard in the third quarter for his fourth career interception.

• Maryland welcomed back 37 letterwinners from the 2012 season including 18 on offense and six starters. Diggs, a second-team All-ACC selection as a specialist last season, leads a talented receiving corp that includes returning starter Nigel King and junior-college transfer Long. Diggs' 848 receiving yards were the third-most by an ACC rookie all-time and his 1,896 all-purpose yards was the sixth-highest total among active players in the conference. Long posted impressive numbers at Iowa Western leading the NJCAA in receptions (100), receiving yards (1,625), and touchdowns (25) en route to first team All-American honors. Running backs Albert Reid and Brandon Ross return in the backfield. Ross led the Terps in rushing with 390 yards (4.6 avg.) last season and topped 100 yards in two of the last three games including a career-best 141-yard performance at North Carolina to close the season.

• The Terps are tasked with replacing six starters on defense from a unit that ranked in the top-25 nationally under defensive coordinator Brian Stewart's tutelage, but returns several playmakers particularly in the secondary. McDougle will pair with Jeremiah Johnson to form an experienced duo. McDougle and Johnson have 38 starts combined. They will be joined by safety Anthony Nixon, who played in all 12 games last season and started five. McDougle led the team in solo tackles (58), tied for third in pass breakups (5) and tallied three tackles for a loss. Meanwhile, Johnson led the squad with eight pass breakups, while Nixon finished with 41 tackles, three pass breakups and an interception. The Terps also welcome back Farrand and Goree at line backer along with defensive lineman Darius Kilgo. Farrand tied for the team lead with 78 tackles and recorded 6.0 TFL. After appearing in five of the first nine games, Goree, a honorable mention freshman All-American in 2011, started the final three contests and tied or led the team in tackles each game. Kilgo started 11 of 12 games and finished with 40 tackles, 5.0 TFL and 1.5 sacks.

Release as of Sept. 2

QUICK HITTERS...

- Four players made their first career starts for the Terps on Saturday against FIU: offensive linemen Ryan Doyle and Michael Dunn, wide receiver Deon Long and defensive lineman Quinton Jefferson.
- In addition to the four first-time starters, 14 players saw their first action against FIU. Of the 53 players that saw playing time on Saturday, 28 were underclassmen including five true freshmen.
- Maryland has 32 underclassmen on its two-deep (including specialists). That total is tied for the second-most among FBS schools (as of 9/2) (Virginia - 34, Colorado State - 32, South Carolina - 32, Temple - 32).
- Maryland allowed FIU to gain just 171 yards of total offense. That's the best total defensive performance since surrendering 115 to Wake Forest on Oct. 30, 2010.
- In addition, the Terps held the Panthers to just 91 yards rushing and 80 yards passing. The last time Maryland held its opponent under 100 yards in both categories came against Morgan State on Sept. 11, 2010. The Terps held the Bears to 37 yards rushing and 48 yards passing.
- The Terrapin defense held FIU to 2.3 yards per rushing attempt. Of the Panthers 15 rushing attempts in the first half, 11 of them went for three yards or less.
- The Terrapin offense racked up 576 total yards on Saturday. It marked the first time Maryland had eclipsed 500 total yards of offense since it posted 524 at North Carolina on Nov. 12, 2005.
- Of the 43 points scored by Maryland on Saturday, 40 came in the first half. It is the most points scored in the opening half since the Terps scored 45 against Morgan State on Sept. 11, 2010.
- On Saturday, Maryland scored on its first four possessions with two field goals and two touchdowns. The last time the feat was accomplished came against Wake Forest on Oct. 30, 2010.
- Quarterback C.J. Brown completed 87 percent of his passes against FIU (20-for-23). With a minimum of 20 attempts, that mark is a single-season program record.
- In addition, with Caleb Rowe going 5-for-6, Maryland quarterbacks completed 86.2 percent of their passes, the best performance in team history. The previous record was 83.3 percent at NC State on Nov. 4, 1995.
- Brown threw for three touchdowns and rushed for two accounting for five touchdowns against FIU. That total is the most by a Terrapin since Scott McBrien accounted for six touchdowns against North Carolina on Nov. 1, 2003.
- Wide receiver Deon Long caught nine passes for 110 yards including a 27-yard touchdown pass from Brown. Long is the first Maryland receiver to top 100 yards since Stefon Diggs went for 152 at Boston College on Oct. 27 of last season.

- Linebacker L.A. Goree finished with a team-high 10 tackles on Saturday. Dating back to last season, Goree has at least tied for the team lead in tackles in four straight games.
- Of the 28 sacks registered a year ago, the Terps return just 4.5. Defensive back Jeremiah Johnson and defensive lineman Darius Kilgo each had 1.5 sacks, the most among the returnees.
- Despite the loss of that production, Maryland's defense recorded five sacks on Saturday led by linebacker Marcus Whitfield's 1.5. Defensive linemen Quinton Jefferson and Andre Monroe both had 0.5 sack, while linebacker Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil also had 0.5 sack. Kilgo and fellow defensive lineman Roman Braglio had one sack.
- Head coach Randy Edsall handed out game balls for the win over FIU. Brown got the ball for the offense, linebacker Marcus Whitfield on defense, and linebacker Abner Logan for special teams.
- The Terrapins return 70 percent of the offensive and defensive two-deep from the end of last season. There are 16 of 22 defensive players back and 15 of 22 offensive players returning. In addition, all 12 of the members on the final special team two-deep are back in 2013.
- Brandon Ross peaked in the final third of the season last year eclipsing 100 yards rushing in two of the Terps' final three games. Against Clemson on Nov. 10, Ross hit 100 yards on 16 carries marking just the 14th time in school history that a freshman rushed for 100 yards in a game. Two weeks later, Ross ran for 141 yards at North Carolina, including a season-long 71-yard run. The 141-yard performance was the most rushing yards by a Maryland running back since Da'Rel Scott rushed for 200 yards against East Carolina in the 2010 Military Bowl (12/29/10).
- The Maryland defense will have to replace six starters from a unit that finished the season ranked 21st nationally and third in the ACC. It returns five starters along with several other players with starting experience. Though they aren't listed as returning starters, LB Matt Robinson, LB Alex Twine, LB L.A. Goree, LB Bradley Johnson, DB Sean Davis, DB Isaac Goins, DB A.J. Hendy, DL Andre Monroe, DL Keith Bowers and LB Marcus Whitfield have all started in their career.
- Maryland's offensive line has six players with starting experience including three returning starters (Mike Madaras, De'Onte Arnett and Sal Conaboy). Evan Mulrooney, Andrew Zeller and Nick Klemm all have started in their careers.
- The Terps should benefit from consistency in the coaching staff this fall. With offensive coordinator Mike Locksley, defensive coordinator Brian Stewart and special teams coordinator Andre Powell, Maryland is one of just 18 FBS programs to retain its entire coaching staff from last season.
- Seven of the top 13 tacklers from 2012 are back

BROWN OFF AND RUNNING...

• After missing all of the 2012 season with an ACL injury, quarterback C.J. Brown made a marvelous return on Saturday. Brown completed 20-of-23 passes (.870), a single-game program record with a minimum of 20 attempts, for 281 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed for 105 yards and two scores. The five touchdowns Brown accounted for is most by a Maryland player since Scott McBrien accounted for six against North Carolina on Nov. 1, 2003. For his efforts, Brown was named College Football Performance's National Quarterback of the Week.

• Brown's performance was also noteworthy as he became the first Maryland quarterback since Shaun Hill to throw for over 275 yards and rush for over 100. Hill threw for 323 yards and rushed for 105 against Duke on Oct. 20, 2001.

RUSHING YARDS (QB) - GAME

Player	Date	Total
1. C.J. Brown vs. Clemson	10/15/11	162
2. Dennis O'Hara vs. Wake Forest	10/4/69	139
3. Jack Scarbath vs. Georgetown	10/14/50	132
4. Jamarr Robinson vs. Virginia Tech	11/14/09	129
5. Dwayne Fletcher vs. North Carolina	10/17/59	125

9. C.J. Brown vs. FIU	8/31/13	105
Shaun Hill vs. Duke	10/20/01	105

• Brown's 105 yards on the ground is tied for the ninth-best rushing total by a Maryland QB in school history. He now holds four of the top 10 rushing performances by a quarterback.

SHUT THEM DOWN...

• Maryland's defense was as equally impressive on Saturday. Brian Stewart's group held FIU to 171 total yards of offense marking the first time the Terps held an opponent under 200 yards since holding Wake Forest to 115 on Oct. 30, 2010. The defenses' opening weekend performance ranks third nationally.

• In addition, the Terps held the Panthers to just 91 yards rushing and 80 yards passing. The last time Maryland held its opponent under 100 yards in both categories came against Morgan State on Sept. 11, 2010. The Terps held the Bears to 37 yards rushing and 48 yards passing.

• The Terrapin defense held FIU to 2.3 yards per rushing attempt. Of the Panthers 15 rushing attempts in the first half, 11 of them went for three or less yards.

• The 10 points scored by the Panthers all came off of turnovers and of FIU's eight first-half possessions six of them ended with three-and-outs.

• The 171 yards of total offense surrendered is the seventh-best defensive performance since the 2000 season.

FIRST IMPRESSION...

• Wide receiver Deon Long made his debut with the Terps by catching nine passes for 110 yards and a touchdown on Saturday. Long is the first Maryland receiver to go over 100 yards receiving since Stefon Diggs finished with 152 at Boston College on Oct. 27, 2012.

• Long's 110 yards receiving are the most yards for a Terrapin wide receiver in a season opener since Kevin Dorsey went for 124 yards against Miami on Sept. 5, 2011.

• In addition, Long is one of only four players to surpass 100 yards receiving in a season opener since 1990. Dorsey had 124 yards against Miami on Sept. 5, 2011, Geroy Simon had 124 at Duke on Sept. 3,

MARYLAND

.870...Quarterback C.J. Brown completed 20-of-23 passes against FIU, an 87 percent completion percentage. With a minimum of 20 attempts, that mark is a single-game record.

1...Stefon Diggs set the Atlantic Coast Conference single-season record for all purpose yards per game last year, averaging 172.4. That number ranked eighth nationally.

1...Matt Robinson made his first career start at linebacker on Saturday against FIU. Robinson made the switch to linebacker this season after three seasons as a defensive back.

2...Running back Brandon Ross recorded two 100-yard rushing games in the final three games last season (100 at Clemson, 141 at North Carolina).

4...Number of players who have made their first career starts on Saturday.

5...Quarterback C.J. Brown accounted for five touchdowns (3 passing, 2 rushing) on Saturday. It was the most touchdowns accounted for by a Terrapin since Scott McBrien had six against North Carolina on Nov. 1, 2003.

12...There are 12 sophomore starters listed on Maryland's two-deep.

25...Senior defensive back Dexter McDougale has started 25 consecutive games, tops on the team.

87...Maryland improved 87 spots in the national rankings for total defense last season, moving from No. 108 in 2011 to No. 21 in 2012, the first year under coordinator Brian Stewart.

120.4...After the defense allowed 457.2 yards per game in 2011, it allowed just 336.8 per game in 2012, a drop of 120.4 yards.

848...The number of receiving yards for wide receiver Stefon Diggs in 2012. The yardage total is the best total by a freshman in school history and the third best total in league history.

937...The program's Academic Progress Rate (APR), which measures eligibility and retention, has trended upward in Randy Edsall's two seasons after previously declining for five straight years. The multiyear score has increased from 922 (2009-10) to 931 (2010-11) to 937 (2011-12).

1994, and Frank Wycheck had 106 yards against Virginia Tech on Sept. 1, 1990.

NATIONAL HONORS...

• With his superb performance on Saturday, C.J. Brown was named College Football Performance's National Quarterback of the Week.

• Brown was joined by two teammates. Wide receiver Stefon Diggs and place kicker Brad Craddock. Diggs earned Honorable Mention Associated Press Performer of the Week. Diggs had five catches for 98 yards and one touchdown, and returned three kickoffs for 70 yards to finish with 194 all-purpose yards. Craddock earned Honorable Mention Specialist of the Week honors. The sophomore drilled all three of his field goal attempts with a long of 25 yards.

MARYLAND-OLD DOMINION SERIES HISTORY...

• Saturday marks the first all-time meeting between Maryland and Old Dominion.

TALENT AT THE SKILL POSITIONS...

• Unlike last season, where the Terps needed to replace their leading rusher and second-leading receiver, Maryland returns three of its top five rushers and its leading receiver in Stefon Diggs this fall. Brandon Ross and Albert Reid will be the Terps one-two punch in the backfield. Ross led all rushers with 390 yards on 85 carries with one touchdown. The sophomore from Newark, Del., excelled at the end of last season taking over the starting role for the final three contests and rushing for 100 yards or more in two of those games. After totaling 100 yards against Clemson on Nov. 10, Ross rushed for a season-high 141 yards at North Carolina (11/24). Ross solidified his hold on the starting spot with an impressive spring camp that included a 122-yard performance in the spring game. Reid began last season as the starter and also enjoyed a solid spring and rushed for 135 yards in the spring game. Joe Riddle and Jacquille Veii will push for time and add competitiveness to the position. Riddle redshirted the 2012 season, while Veii has been impressive in preseason camp.

• After a record-setting freshman campaign, Diggs will continue to be a play-making threat at wide receiver. Diggs set a single-season ACC freshman record for all-purpose yards per game last season, averaging 172.4, a number that ranked eighth nationally. The six-foot, 195-pound wideout also finished with 848 yards receiving, a single-season Maryland record and the third most by a ACC rookie all-time. Diggs also hauled in 54 receptions and six touchdowns, a Maryland single-season freshman record. The addition of five-star recruit and junior-college transfer Deon Long will bolster the unit. Long, who spent last season at Iowa Western, earned first team All-America honors while leading the NJCAA in receptions (100), receiving yards (1,625) and touchdowns (25). Nigel King, who appeared in all 12 games and started three of the final four, provides a big, physical presence to the receiving corp. King finished with nine catches for 129 yards and a touchdown last season. He recorded a season-high four catches for 72 yards in the season finale at North Carolina. Levern Jacobs has received extensive work with the first-team offense during preseason camp. Jacobs appeared in 11 games last season and totaled 50 yards on seven receptions. Special teams standout Tyrek Cheeseboro along with Amba Etta -Tawo and Malcolm Culmer will compete for playing time along with highly-touted freshman Taivon Jacobs. Two-year starter Tyler Cierski returns at fullback. The 255-pound junior saw action in 11 games, seeing time on special teams as well. Redshirt freshman Kenneth Goins and freshman Andrew Stefanelli will back up Cierski.

BROWN BACK UNDER CENTER...

• After missing last season with a knee injury sustained in preseason camp, senior C.J. Brown is back under center for the Terps. A dual-threat quarterback, Brown set a Maryland single-season rushing record (574) for a quarterback and threw for 842 yards in 10 games (five starts). Brown boasts four of the top 10 rushing performances by a quarterback in school history including his record-setting 162-yard performance against Clemson on October 15, 2011.

• While sitting out with the ACL injury, Brown spent last season learning offensive coordinator Mike Locksley's system, which provided a different perspective. "It was good to be able to step back from the game and kind of see things from a different angle, a different perspective, and have a better appreciation for the game as well as developing more knowledge of the offense," said Brown.

TERRAPIN SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

All of Maryland's football games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in college sports. Maryland Sports Properties, a division of CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, manages the radio network. In its 10th year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Maryland Sports Properties has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, and Washington, D.C.

WJZ 105.7 FM and WJZ AM 1300 in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with 13 more affiliates across the area picking up the games. In July 2010, ESPN980 became the home for Terps football in Washington, D.C. All games will be "trimulcast" throughout the D.C. metropolitan area, suburban Maryland, and Northern Virginia on 980-AM (WTEM), 92.7FM (WWXT) and 94.3FM (WWXX).

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps TV page on www.umterps.com.

• After suffering the second season-ending injury of his career prior to last season, Brown applied for and was awarded with a sixth year of eligibility in April. Brown redshirted in 2009 before playing in one game in 2010, when he fractured his right shoulder and missed the season's final 11 games. He will have eligibility for the 2013 and 2014 seasons.

• Behind Brown, the Terps have a number of able signal-callers. Sophomores Perry Hills and Caleb Rowe both gained experience last season, with Hills starting the first seven games and throwing for 1,336 yards before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Rowe played in two games, including a start at Boston College, before also suffering a season-ending knee injury. Transfer Ricardo Young gives the Terps another dual-threat and gained experience while serving as the No. 1 QB during spring camp. Young was the 2010 Washington D.C. Gatorade Player of the Year out coming out of H.D. Woodson High School, but has yet to take a snap in college after stops at Virginia Tech (2010) and New Mexico (2011).

YOUTH IS SERVED AT TIGHT END...

• The tight end position will feature several new faces after the departure of three seniors last season. Dave Stinebaugh is the veteran of the group. Though a senior, Stinebaugh has missed the majority of the last three seasons due to knee and shoulder injuries. In 2012, Stinebaugh appeared in 11 of 12 games mostly on special teams and is atop the two-deep to start the season. Four freshmen are fighting for playing time behind Stinebaugh with P.J. Gallo earning the nod on the depth chart. Andrew Isaacs, a two-time all-state and all-conference selection, provides an imposing target and will compete with Derrick Hayward, Brian McMahon and Eric Roca for playing time.

CONSISTENCY ON THE O-LINE...

• The Terps utilized four different starting rotations along the offensive line in 2012. As a result, Maryland enters the campaign with six players who have starting experience including returning starters Mike Madaras, De'Onte Arnett and Sal Conaboy. Joining them on the two-deep is center Evan Mulrooney and right guard Andrew Zeller. As a group, the returnees have 38 starts combined. But throughout preseason camp, head coach Randy Edsall strived to find the five best players regardless of position. As a result, sophomore Ryan Doyle has moved to the right side of the line and is slated to start at right tackle. Doyle will be joined on the right side by redshirt freshman Michael Dunn at right guard. Junior Jake Wheeler is penciled in at left tackle behind Madaras, while junior-college transfer Silvano Altamirano will slide in behind behind Arnett. Mulrooney will slot in behind Conaboy at center with Zeller backing up Dunn at right guard and freshman Moise Larose backing up Doyle at right tackle.

NEW LOOK D-LINE...

• Maryland will have to replace two stalwarts along the defensive line after the graduation of All-American Joe Vellano and A.J. Francis, a pair which combined to start 72 games in their careers. Junior nose tackle Darius Kilgo is the lone returning starter and after a solid season in 2012, has stepped into a leadership position, representing the defensive line on Maryland's newly-formed leadership council. After battling injuries last season, junior Keith Bowers hopes to return to his 2011 form, when he was an honorable mention freshman All-America selection. Sophomore Quinton Jefferson, one of the top defensive end prospects nationally coming out of high school, has secured the other end position after an impressive spring and will be backed up by Roman Braglio. Behind Kilgo, Nate Clarke provides depth, while 2011 freshman All-American Andre Monroe and Alex Walker are listed as the backups behind Bowers.

• The defensive line's depth received a boost with the arrival of Zeke Riser. A graduate transfer, Riser joined the Terps just prior to the start of fall camp and brings a familiarity with the defensive system having played for defensive coordinator Brian Stewart in 2010 and 2011 at Houston.

REVAMPED LINEBACKING CORPS...

• Similar to the defensive line, Maryland will be faced with replacing several stalwarts in the linebacking corps, though a new crop of talented playmakers is ready to step in. Perhaps one of the deepest positions on the team, the Terps have a first and second unit established despite the loss of Demetrius Hartsfield, Kenneth Tate and Darin Drakeford. On the inside, Cole Farrand and L.A. Goree give Maryland a pair of established veterans to help direct the unit. Far-

TERPS IN THE NFL

Heading into week one of the NFL season, Maryland had 21 former players on NFL rosters. Below is the list.

Joe Vellano	DL	New England Patriots
Josh Wilson	DB	Washington Redskins
Will Yeatman	OL	Miami Dolphins

list as of Sept. 2

rand tied for the team lead in tackles as a sophomore last season, his first as a starter, while making six tackles for loss and forcing three fumbles. Goree was one of the most consistent players on defense during the stretch last year. He totaled double-digit tackles in the final three games including a career-best 14 against North Carolina and averaged 12.3 tackles per game in his three starts. Behind Farrand is sophomore Shawn Petty, who has moved back to his natural position after starting the final four games at quarterback last season. Redshirt freshman and former four-star recruit Abner Logan will be ready to step in behind Goree.

• Converted safety Matt Robinson, healthy after battling injuries in each of the last two seasons, solidified one of the outside linebacker positions with a strong fall camp with depth provided by Alex Twine. Senior Marcus Whitfield is penciled in as the starter at the other outside spot, and will be pushed by Yannick Cudjoe-Virgil. The transfer from Seton Hall University impressed the coaching staff during fall camp with his high motor and quickness off of the edge.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY...

• The secondary should be Maryland's most stable unit as it returns cornerbacks Dexter McDougale and Jeremiah Johnson, and safeties Anthony Nixon, Sean Davis and A.J. Hendy. Maryland ranked 30th nationally in passing defense a year ago, allowing just 207.5 yards per game through the air, third best in the ACC. This season the unit adds talented freshman William Likely in addition to the aforementioned group. Likely, who enrolled in classes in January, impressed in spring practice and throughout preseason camp. McDougale and Johnson, though, have the potential to be one of the better defensive back duos in the ACC. McDougale, who has played in 25 consecutive games, led all defensive backs with 71 tackles last year including a team-best 58 solo stops. Meanwhile, Johnson had a team-high eight pass breakups, a total which tied for 18th in the ACC. Senior Isaac Goins will also be in the mix at corner behind McDougale.

• Last year, Nixon played in all 12 games with five starts and led all freshmen on the team with 41 tackles including 26 solo stops. The Pittsburgh native also had one interception, three passes defended and two fumble recoveries and will start opposite of Davis, who edged out Hendy in preseason camp for the starting spot. Davis played in all 12 games with two starts as a true freshman last year. Hendy was somewhat limited last season due to a nagging ankle injury, but played in nine games as a freshman in 2011 and averaged 8.3 tackles per game in his three starts. The 205-pound junior will still see significant playing time particularly in dime package and on special teams. Sophomore Undray Clark will be in the mix behind Nixon.

SPECIAL TEAMS REPEAT...

• After entering last season with few known quantities, the Terps hope the return of all their special teams performers from 2012, combined with the addition of several new playmakers, makes for more stability in the unit in 2013. Rising sophomores Brad Craddock and Nathan Renfro are expected to anchor the kicking game, with Craddock handling kickoff and place-kicking duties and Renfro handling the punting. Stefon Diggs was a constant threat in the return game last season, returning two kickoffs for touchdowns and averaging 10 yards per return on punts. Freshman William Likely adds another speedy option to the return game.

ALL-PURPOSE PERFORMER...

• Stefon Diggs had a record-breaking freshman season a year ago, setting the ACC Freshman All-Purpose Yardage record by averaging 172.4 per game, a mark which also ranked eighth nationally. Until recently, it was a mark that hadn't been broken in more than 20 years; Robert Lavette of Georgia Tech set the previous record of 142.0 yards per game in 1981, which stood until Sammy Watkins of Clemson set a new record with 171.4 yards per game in 2011. Diggs finished just ahead of Miami's Duke Johnson, who averaged 171.7 yards per game last season.

Top ACC Freshman All-Purpose Yardage

Player	School	Year	Average
1. Stefon Diggs	Maryland	2012	172.4
2. Duke Johnson	Miami	2012	171.7
3. Sammy Watkins	Clemson	2011	171.4
4. Robert Lavette	Georgia Tech	1981	142.0
5. Ryan Williams	Virginia Tech	2009	141.2

• On the Maryland charts, Diggs' 1,896 all-purpose yards are the second-most in a single season behind Torrey Smith's 2,192 in 2009. Diggs will move into the school's top-25 career all-purpose yards list with another 298 yards. The school record is held by Smith (5,264).

COACHING STAFF AT A GLANCE...

• Mike Locksley was hired in December 2011 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Locksley, a native of Washington, D.C., returned to Maryland after previously spending six years (1997-2002) as an assistant coach on the Terrapins staff. A veteran coach with over 20 years experience, Locksley most recently spent four years (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-2011) as head coach at the University of New Mexico. Locksley helped the Fighting Illini offense improve from No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 yards per game) in 2008. The Illinois offense ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007) in rushing yards. Known for strong recruiting skills, Locksley was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com.

• Brian Stewart was hired in January 2012 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In his first season in College Park, Stewart's unit improved 87 spots in the national rankings for total defense, moving from No. 108 in 2011 to No. 21 in 2012. In addition, the Terrapin defense finished the 2012 season ranked third in total defense in the ACC. A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart recently completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll. The Cougars had one of the best defenses in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second – 67 percent), interceptions (t-third – 21), tackles for loss (sixth – 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th – 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th – 111.75 rating).

Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) this past year. Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas.

• Andre Powell is in his second season as special-teams coordinator, in addition to his running back chores. Powell was a special-teams coordinator during each of his last two stops – Clemson (2007-10) and North Carolina (2001-06). He handled both running backs and special-teams duties the final three seasons at each job.

• Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso was elevated to assistant head coach prior to last season. The former head coach of Duquesne (1992-2004), Gattuso spent six seasons (2005-2010) as the defensive line coach at Pittsburgh. Two of Gattuso's recent pupils, A.J. Francis and Joe Vellano, signed with the Miami Dolphins and New England Patriots, respectively, in 2013.

• The rest of the staff remains in tact, with Tom Bratton entering his 13th season coaching the offensive line, Lyndon Johnson entering his third year on staff and second overseeing both outside linebacker positions (Sam and Will), while Lee Hull entering his sixth season coaching the wide receivers, Keith Dudzinski entering his third year coaching the inside linebackers and John Dunn entering his third year coaching the tight ends and serving as the recruiting coordinator.

TERPS ESTABLISH LEADERSHIP COUNCIL...

• This offseason, Maryland established a leadership council for the 2013 season. Eleven players were selected to the council by the coaches representing 10 position groups based upon performance on the field, in the film room and overall leadership ability. The council is: senior C.J. Brown (quarterback), junior Sal Conaboy (offensive line), junior Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil (outside linebacker), sophomore Stefon Diggs (wide receiver), junior Cole Farrand (inside linebacker), senior Issac Goins (defensive back), junior Jeremiah Johnson (defensive back), junior Darius Kilgo (defensive line), senior Greg Parcher (specialist), sophomore Albert Reid (running back) and senior Dave Stinebaugh (tight end).

WALK-ONS REWARDED...

• On Aug. 25, head coach Randy Edsall announced that he would award four walk-ons scholarships for the 2013-14 academic year for their hard work, dedication and commitment to the football program. The four walk-ons that earned scholarships for the season are: redshirt freshman offensive lineman Michael Dunn, senior offensive lineman G.T. Harraka, senior defensive back Tony Perry and senior wide receiver Regis Whittington. "That is something that is always very, very special to do and again knowing that those young men have worked extremely hard," said head coach Randy Edsall. Michael has earned himself a starting job, and the others have been in the program a number of years, working out there each and everyday, and to have the opportunity to do that is really special."

RANDY EDSALL

Head Coach
Syracuse '80 • Third Year

Randy Edsall enters his third season as head football coach at the University of Maryland, leading a program that continues to make great strides both on and off the field.

Edsall was named the 34th coach in Maryland football history in January 2011. Since taking over, Edsall and his staff have placed a great emphasis on recruiting the local Maryland/Washington, D.C. market which is heavily recruited by schools across the nation and is considered a football hotbed. The result of this focus was the signing of 22 athletes, 14 from the area. Edsall and his staff have recruited classes ranked in the top 35 nationally by Rivals the last two years, including the 31st overall in 2013.

In addition, under Edsall's command and following a pattern he started at the University of Connecticut, the football program's Athletic Progress Rate (APR) moved significantly upward after a five year decline. The football team's APR, which measures eligibility and retention, increased its multi-year score from 922 (2009-2010) to 937 and its single year score from 905 to 948. The football team's cumulative GPA has risen each semester since Edsall took over the program.

The Maryland program continued to improve in 2012, a year in which they played 15 true freshmen (third most in the Football Bowl Subdivision). The defensive unit finished the season ranked second in the ACC and 21st in the nation in total defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally against the run (129.3 ypg) and third in the ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg). The Terrapins also held five of their opponents under 100 rushing yards.

On the offensive side of the ball, injuries forced the Terrapins to play four different quarterbacks, including three true freshmen and a converted linebacker. Edsall and his staff utilized the talents of a young group of offensive standouts. True freshman Stefon Diggs led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc), the most ever by a Maryland freshman. Diggs also caught six touchdowns and was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times. Maryland also rotated carries among a talented group of backs, with four different players earning a start. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross set career highs, rushing for at least 100 yards in two of the final three games, including 141 yards in the final contest at North Carolina.

Prior to coming to College Park, Edsall, a native of nearby Glen Rock, Pa, spent twelve seasons coaching the University of Connecticut Huskies where he took the program from FCS (formerly I-AA) to five bowl games, including a BCS bowl. The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year led the Huskies to a 33-19 record over his last four seasons there, including two bowl victories and his leadership resulted in UConn being the first program ever to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in just seven seasons.

Edsall departed UConn as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). He was a two-time recipient of the prestigious Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston (2007, 2010).

During his tenure at UConn, the Huskies finished in the top twenty nationally for total offense twice (2003, 2004) and total defense three times (2002, 2005, 2008). Under Edsall's guidance Connecticut defeated teams from the ACC, Big Ten, Big East, Big 12, Conference USA and the SEC.

In 2007, as Edsall continued to grow the program to prominence, the Huskies earned their first-ever national rankings peaking at #13 in the BCS standings in November. That year they became just the second Big East team ever to go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams at home that were ranked in the top ten during the season.

Off the field, just as he is doing at Maryland, Edsall's teams were strong in the classroom as well. In 2007, 2008 and 2009 UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate. In 2003 UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90% of its football players and in 2005, it was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70% and win a bowl game.

When Edsall was named the head coach at Connecticut on December 21, 1998 he brought 19 years of coaching experience with him. He earned the job at Connecticut after a year as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech where the 14th ranked Yellow Jackets went 9-2.

Prior to his season at Georgia Tech Edsall spend three seasons under two-time Super Bowl Champion coach Tom Coughlin as the secondary coach for the NFL Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville the expansion Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. The former quarterback at Syracuse started as a graduate assistant (1980-82) before joining the staff in 1983 overseeing the running backs under head coach Dick MacPherson. Edsall oversaw the running backs for three years (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to defense.

He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-90 and during that time the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense. After the 1990 season Tom Coughlin, then coach of Boston College, hired Edsall to coach the defensive backs at BC.

Edsall was a three-year letter winner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.) and was an all-state selection in all three sports as a senior which led to induction into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

At Syracuse he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and a master's degree in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall and his wife, Eileen met at Syracuse University where she was a basketball and volleyball standout who was later inducted into the Syracuse University Hall of Fame. They have a daughter, Alexi and a son, Corey.

Maryland 43, FIU 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - C.J. Brown celebrated his return from injury with a marvelous performance, throwing for three touchdowns and running for two scores to lead Maryland over Florida International.

Brown missed all of last year after tearing his left ACL in preseason practice. The senior made up for lost time during a torrid first half, completing 15 of 16 passes and running for 99 yards to help the Terrapins go up 40-10.

Brown finished 20 for 23 for 281 yards passing and ran for 105 yards on 11 carries before being removed in the third quarter. His touchdown runs were 29 and 11 yards, and he threw for scores of 25, 17 and 66 yards.

FIU gave up 399 yards before halftime and managed only 59 yards and three first downs over the opening 30 minutes.

The Maryland offense amassed 576 yards and the only scores against the defense came after turnovers.

Maryland moved 50 yards on its first possession before Brad Craddock made a short field goal. Sam Miller fumbled the subsequent kickoff, setting up another field goal for a 6-0 lead.

Florida International's first score came when Sergio Sroka kicked a 32-yard field goal after Maryland William Likely mis-handled a punt.

Brown answered with a 29-yard touchdown run around left end, the final play of an 86-yard drive in which Diggs ran for 26 yards with a pitch from Brown off the option.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Brown put a nice touch on a 25-yard toss to Long in the right side of the end zone, making it 20-3.

Later, Brown fumbled in the pocket and FIU recovered on the Maryland 25. That led to a 1-yard run on fourth down by fullback Lamarq Caldwell.

Brown quickly made amends. He ran for 64 yards around left end before lofting a 17-yard touchdown pass to Kenneth Goins to put Maryland up 26-10.
