#4 PENN STATE Oct. 10, 2014 • 3:30 College Park, Md.

Oct. 12, 2014 • 1:00 College Park, Md.

- No. 2 Maryland will host No. 4 Penn State Friday at 3:30 p.m. and Penn Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.
- Maryland is coming off of two big wins over the weekend. The Terrapins cruised past Ohio State, 6-0. behind two goals and two assists from Katie Gerzabek and a goal and an assist from Moira Putsch. The Terps went on to beat No. 18 Old Dominion, 3-1, Sunday. Anna Dessoye, Putsch and Maxine Fluharty scored for Maryland. Over the last four games, Brooke Cabrera has allowed just one goal off of 24 shots faced in 252 minutes in goal.
- Gerzabek, Putsch and Cabrera swept the Big Ten weekly awards Tuesday. Gerzabek was named Offensive Player of the Week, Cabrera was named Defensive Player of the Week and Putsch was named Freshman of the Week. Putsch was honored for the second straight week and is the first to win the Freshman of the Week award three times in a season since Michigan State's Molly Cassidy did in 2010. Maryland is the first school to win all three in the same week since Ohio State did on Oct. 4, 2010.
- Missy Meharg is in her 27th season as the leader of the Terrapins. She's led them to a 480-117-9 (.800) record, seven NCAA titles, 10 conference titles and 16 Final Fours. She has been named NFHCA National Coach of the Year an unprecedented nine times in her career.
- In last year's NCAA Semifinal, the Terrapins fell to No. 5 Duke, 3-2. The Blue Devils scored just under three minutes into the game, then Hayley Turner tied it off a shot from Sprink two minutes later. Duke scored twice more before the end of the first half and Jill Witmer made it 3-2 with a goal before the break. The Terps outshot the Blue Devils, 11-2 in the second half, but could not score the equalizer.

Scouting the Nittany Lions

- Penn State is 10-2 overall, 2-1 in Big Ten play this year and is ranked No. 4 in the latest Penn Monto/NFHCA Coaches poll. The Nittany Lions have won five straight games over the last few weeks. Most recently, they beat No. 14 Temple 2-0 Sunday.
- Taylor Herold is leading Penn State with 12 goals and six assists for 30 points so far this season.
- Penn State owns the all-time series over Maryland, 20-11-1, but the Terps have won the last two straight games and seven of the last eight matchups since 1994. Maryland won the most recent meeting, 8-1, on Sept. 12, 2009 in College Park.
- Maryland is 3-1 vs. Penn State at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex. The Nittany Lions' lone win was a 1-0 victory in the NCAA Second Round in 2007.

Scouting the Quakers

- Penn is 4-4 so far this season and 1-2 in Ivy League play. The Quakers fell to Dartmouth, 5-3, this past weekend.
- Emily Corcoran and Alexa Hoover lead the Quakers with eight goals apiece.
- Maryland owns the all-time series over Penn, 14-5. The Terps have won 11 straight meetings in the series, dating back to 1990. Most recently, the Terrapins won 5-1 in College Park on Oct. 12, 2008.

• The Terrapins are 2-0 vs. the Quakers at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

Three Named to Big Ten Players to Watch List

Junior Anna Dessoye, senior Maxine Fluharty and senior Katie Gerzabek were named to the Big Ten Players to Watch list.

- Dessoye is Maryland's leading returning scorer, after she notched 13 goals and 16 assists in 2013.
- Fluharty added 12 goals and seven assists last year and was named a 2013 Third Team NFHCA All-American.
- Gerzabek scored five goals and notched three assists in her 19 games played. She was named to the All-ACC Team last year.

Terps in the Rankings

Maryland is ranked No. 2 in the latest Penn Monto/NFHCA Division I Coaches poll, released Oct. 7.

- The Terps have been ranked in the top five for the last 17 straight weeks, dating back to the preseason poll in 2013.
- The Terrapins have appeared in the top five nationally in 159 of 164 polls since the 1999 season.

• Prior to the poll released Oct. 9, 2012, the Terrapins had not been outside the top five since before the 1999 season. They were ranked sixth in that Oct. 9 poll.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Maxine Fluharty, Katie Gerzabek and Sarah Sprink were voted tri-captains by their teams for the 2014 season.

"Maxine, Katie and Sarah are a talented dynamic, hardworking leadership trio," head coach Missy Meharg said. "The front field, the midfield, the backfield are represented by these NCAA/FIH experienced players. All have been honored by their leagues and all three represented their countries in the Junior World Cup. They understand that the way we train and prepare puts us in position to win championships in November."

Terps Going B1G

The Terrapins joined the Big Ten conference this year, after playing in the ACC for 31 years. Big Ten field hockey is now the biggest conference in the history of the sport in the NCAA with nine teams - Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Northwestern, Ohio State, Penn State, Rutgers and Maryland.

- The Terps are 85-32-3 (.721) all-time against Big Ten opponents.
- Head coach Missy Meharg is 69-12-1 (.848) vs.
 Big Ten opponents in her 27 years at the helm of the Maryland field hockey program.

Home Sweet Home

Since its opening in 2003, the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex has provided the Maryland hockey program a huge home field advantage.

- The Terps are 132-15 (.898) all-time at the Complex.
- Maryland won 38 straight games at the Complex from Oct.11, 2008 through Oct. 14, 2011. The streak ended with a 5-2 loss to then-No. 1 Old Dominion.
- The Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex has played home to 22 of Maryland's NCAA Tournament games, including two Final Fours (2007, 2010). The Terrapins are 21-1 in those games and won the 2010 national title on their home field.
- Maryland will host the 2014 NCAA Final Four at the Nov. 21 and 23.

Pack the House

- The Maryland field hockey team has increasingly attracted more and more fans to the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex season after season. The Terrapins have led the nation in attendance since 2010.
- In 2013, Maryland led the country in attendance with 8,176 fans coming out to see the Terrapins. On average, 629 fans came to each game, which was nearly 200 more than North Carolina's average of 438 which was second in the country.

• An NCAA-record crowd of 2,381 came out to watch as Maryland beat North Carolina 3-2 in double overtime for the 2010 national championship at the Complex.

Overtime is Terp Time

During Missy Meharg's tenure, the Terrapins have become one of the nation's most dangerous teams in overtime

- The Terps are 56-22 (.718) all-time in games that went to overtime or penalty strokes.
- In Meharg's tenure, the Terps are 46-18 (.719) in overtime or penalty strokes games.

Play the Best

The Terrapins will play one of the strongest schedules in the country.

- Ten of the Terps' 18 regular season games are against teams in the NFHCA Preseason Top 20. They are 5-2 against ranked teams.
- The Terrapins will face off against seven of the other 15 teams in the 2013 NCAA Tournament and are 3-1 so far against them.

Meharg Named Top Recruiter

Terrapin head coach Missy Meharg was named one of college athletics' top 20 recruiters by ESPNU in January 2012.

- Meharg was the only NCAA field hockey coach to make ESPNU's list.
- Her stellar recruiting classes have won her seven NCAA titles overall (1993, 1999, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2010, 2011) and 10 conferene titles.
- Here is the top 10:
 - 1. Pat Henry, Texas A&M Track & Field
 - 2. Anson Dorrance, UNC women's soccer
 - 3. Ed Orgeron, USC Football
 - 4. Chris Dailey, UConn WBB

Staff Updates

The Terrapins return three assistant staff members in 2014. Dina Rizzo, Joppe de Vries and Steve Simpson all return for the second straight year together.

 Meharg will welcome back recent Terrapin alums Natalie Hunter and Jill Witmer as student assistant coaches this year as both work to finish their degrees.

Global Terps

Six of the 24 Terrapins are from different parts of the globe, reflecting Maryland's diversity as a campus.

- Steffi Schneid and Sarah Sprink hail from Germany and all have experience playing in the German national team system. Sprink played with the German Under-21 team in the Junior World Cup in Monchengladbach, Germany last summer.
- Rachel Frusher is from Perth, Australia. She met former Terrapin Jemma Buckley playing in the Australian system, who told her about the Terps.
- Lein Holsboer and Anne-Floor Jansen van Galen are both from the Netherlands. Jansen van Galen is an exchange student from the University of Amsterdam for the fall semester.
- Welma Luus came to Maryland to play tennis, but also has much experience in field hockey from growing up in South Africa. She played on the South African Under-18 team.

Terrapins on U.S. National Teams

Eight Terrapins, former and present, are currently on USA Field Hockey's national team rosters.

- Katie O'Donnell competed for the U.S. Senior National Team in London last summer. She and Jill Witmer both competed for the USA in the Rabobank World Cup in the Netherlands this summer. Ali McEvoy is also a member of the U.S. Senior National Team.
- Anna Dessoye, Alyssa Parker, Delaney Leathers

and Moira Putsch are on the U.S. Under-21 Team.
• Freshman Carrie Hanks is on the U.S. Under-19 Team.

Welsh, Infante, Rowe, O'Donnell & Frazer Win Honda Award

In 2001, defensive back Autumn Welsh became the first athlete under Missy Meharg to be recognized as the national player of the year. Welsh was named the recipient of the prestigious Honda Award, marking the first time in Maryland field hockey history that a Terp attained the honor. After leading the Terps to back-to-back NCAA Championships in 2005 and 2006, defensive midfielder Paula Infante earned the honor both years, becoming only the third field hockey player in the history of the award to win it multiple times. Infante went on to be a topfive finalist for the coveted Honda-Broderick Cup, presented to the NCAA's Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year across all sports. In 2008, Susie Rowe capped a senior campaign in which she won her third national title with the national player of the year award after setting Maryland records with 28 goals and 74 total points scored. The defender scored the game-winner in the National Championship game, a 4-2 victory over Wake Forest. As a junior, Katie O'Donnell won the nation's top award after breaking the ACC assist records and leading the team offensively. Megan Frazer, team co-captain, won in 2011 after leading the Terrapins from an unseeded NCAA Tournament berth to another national title. Infante (2005, 06), Welsh (2001), Rowe (2008), O'Donnell (2009), Frazer (2011) and women's lacrosse standout Jen Adams (2000, 2001) are the only Honda Award recipients in Maryland athletics history.

DinaRIZZO

Associate Head Coach • 5th year • Maryland '02

After conducting a full candidate search, Maryland welcomed Dina Rizzo back to College Park in June 2010, after she served as an assistant at the University of Massachusetts during the 2009 season. Head coach Missy Meharg promoted her to associate head coach in January 2013.

Prior to her time in Amherst, Mass., Rizzo spent the spring of 2009 working with the Crimson of Harvard. She got her start in coaching as a volunteer assistant with the Terrapins in 2004.

Rizzo served on the U.S. Senior National team for seven years after her graduation from Maryland, making 133 appearances. She competed in all six of the U.S.'s games in the 2008 Beijing Olympics and played in the 2006 World Cup. Rizzo was also a member of the 2003 Pan American silver medalist team and played in two Olympic qualifiers and one World Cup qualifier.

As a player at Maryland from 1998-2001, Rizzo was a member of the 1999 National Championship team. She was named a first team All-American, All-ACC and to the NCAA All-Tournament team in 2001. Rizzo earned her bachelor of arts in Communication in 2002.

JoppedE VRIES

Assistant Coach · 2nd year · Amsterdam '00

Maryland field hockey head coach Missy Meharg announced the hiring of Joppe de Vries (pronounced YO-pa de-VREEZ) as the program's assistant coach and technical director in July 2013. De Vries comes to College Park with over a decade of experience, including serving as goalkeeping coach for the South African national teams in preparation for the London Olympics.

"Joppe is technically an outstanding choice to join our coaching staff," Meharg said. "He's had a variety of hands-on coaching experiences, both internationally at the Olympic level and the Dutch club system, which is the best club system in the world. We are really pleased with what he will bring to the University of Maryland. We welcome his wife and daughter as well and it will be a real honor to work with Joppe."

De Vries has taught physical education and marketing communications at the University of Amsterdam for the past eight years. Over the last 12 years, he worked with various club teams in the Netherlands, including coaching the Rotterdam Hockey Club and former Terrapin Berber Rischen. Terrapin greats Paula Infante and Boukje Vermeullen also played with the Rotterdam Hockey Club.

From 2010 through 2012, de Vries developed with the goalkeepers of South Africa's senior men's and women's national teams, as well as the Under-18 and Under-21 teams.

De Vries earned his degree in 2000 from the University of Amsterdam in physical education with a specialization in sports marketing.

De Vries and his wife, Katrien Van Den Eijnde, have a young daughter, Saar, and infant son, Tijn.

SteveSIMPSON

Volunteer Assistant Coach • Maryland '88

Maryland field hockey head coach Missy Meharg announced Steve Simpson as the program's volunteer assistant coach in August of 2013. Simpson has deep roots at Maryland as an alumnus, and he was involved as an undergraduate and assistant coach.

In his two years as an assistant coach at Syracuse (2011, 2012), Simpson helped lead the Orange to a 38-7 record, one BIG EAST Tournament title, one regular season title, two NCAA Tournaments, and one Final Four.

Simpson joined the Syracuse staff after concluding a four-year stint at New Hampshire. The Wildcats won the America East regular season title in 2010. Prior to UNH, he worked at UMass, where he served as assistant coach from 2003-06.

Simpson began working with the Maryland field hockey team while he was a student at Maryland. He was a part of the program when head coach Sue Tyler and then-assistant Meharg won its first national title in 1987. He came on-board as an assistant with Meharg in 1995 and stayed on through 2003. Together, they won the 1999 national championship and went to four Final Fours.

Simpson also has international coaching experience as an assistant with the U.S. Women's National Team (1997-98) that included the Hockey World Cup in May 1998 and the Champions Trophy in 1997. In addition, he has coached at numerous "A" and "B" Camps and been active in the USFHA Futures Program, including serving as Regional Director and Director of Coaching of the Chesapeake Region.

Simpson was an internationally-rated umpire manager. He umpired at the Indoor World Cup in Leipzig, the Pan Am Games, the Pan Am Cup and the World Cup qualifier in Edinburgh in 2001.
