FACING OFF

1

Maryland is set to host Rutgers in College Park for the first time since 1997. The Terps hold a formidable 24-1 all-time record against the Scarlet Knights dating back to 1931, including six straight wins since 1981.

2

Senior Bryan Cole has scored a true game-winning goal in two straight games, becoming the first Terp to accomplish the feat in one-goal games since Matt Hahn in 1997. Cole scored a winner against Michigan two weeks ago, before posting the sudden victory goal in OT at Penn State.

2

Senior Henry West stepped up in a big way for the Terps against Penn State, scoring the second hat trick of his career and first since 2014. He was also a key part of Bryan Cole's overtime winner, dishing the ball to Cole for the eventual goal.

5

The Terps have been phenomenal killing EMO opportunities this season, allowing just five goals on 24 chances (20%) - a mark that ranks second in the nation. Among the strong showings were games against top-2 teams Yale (0-for-5) and Notre Dame (0-for-3).

7

Maryland won its seventh consecutive game Sunday with a thrilling 11-8 overtime victory at Penn State. It is the third straight season the Terps have won at least seven consecutive games. Maryland is averaging 11.7 goals during the streak, while allowing just 7.6 goals. The Terps are currently ranked first in the NCAA RPI.

8

The Terrapins are 8-0 in one-goal games dating back to May 10, 2014 - the best streak in program history. It includes two wins this season and five games in 2015. The next longest such streak was a span of six one-goal wins from 2000 to 2001.

14

Senior Kyle Bernlohr pieced together arguably the best game of his career against the Nittany Lions, making a career-high 14 saves in net. Bernlohr made save after save to keep the Terps in the game, including a key overtime stop that led to the Terrapin game-winner. It was the most saves in a game since Niko Amato had 17 vs. Duke in 2014.

21

Maryland's will be celebrating "Senior Day" Saturday, as it recognizes a group of 14 seniors that has won 46 games - a mark that already ranks tied for the fifth-most in program history. The Terps need just four more wins to tie the class record of 50 wins set by the 2015 senior class.

57

The Terrapins are 57-4 under John Tillman when scoring at least 10 goals in a game, including a spectacular mark of 38-1 over the last four seasons. That trend has continued this season with a perfect 7-0 mark.

78

Maryland has received tremendous support from its midfield lines, which have totaled 78 points through 10 games. The red midfield line (Cole/West/Kelly) has posted 57 points, which is equal to the output of its first two lines combined through 10 games last season.

GAME NOTES

COACHING MATCHUP

- John Tillman is in his ninth season as a head coach, and sixth with the Terps, with a 90-44 career record for a .671 winning percentage. Tillman is 70-25 (.737) as Maryland's head coach.
- Rutgers' Brian Brecht is in his fifth season with the Nittany Lions.

SERIES HISTORY VS. RUTGERS

- Maryland holds a 24-1 all-time advantage over Rutgers, including six straight wins in the series.
- The Big Ten foes met for the first time in 17 seasons last year, when the Terps defeated Rutgers, 9-8. Then-sophomore Matt Rambo was the difference, scoring all six of his points (3G, 3A) in the second half. His last goal was the biggest of the game, as he scored the game-winner with 13 seconds remaining.
- Maryland's lone loss to the Scarlet Knights came in 1980, when it fell, 9-8.

COLE'S OT WINNER PUSHES TERPS PAST PSU

- A Bryan Cole goal with 43 seconds remaining in the first overtime pushed the No. 5 Maryland men's lacrosse team to a thrilling 11-10 victory over No. 14 Penn State on April 10.
- It was the second straight game Cole had scored a game-winner for the Terps, who won their seventh consecutive game. Cole became the first Terps to score true game-winners in one-goal games since Matt Hahn achieved the feat in the 1997 NCAA playoffs.
- Maryland (8-2, 2-0 B1G) trailed by four goals, 8-4, with 9:39 remaining in the second quarter, before holding the Nittany Lions to just two goals over the remainder of the game.

TERPS DEFEAT MICHIGAN IN BIG TEN OPENER

- Despite heavy snow flurries and frigid conditions in Ann Arbor, Maryland defeated the home Wolverines, 8-7, April 2.
- Senior Bryan Cole scored the game-winning goal for the Terps with just 49 seconds remaining in the game after goalie Kyle Bernlohr made a pair of spectacular saves on the other end of the field. Cole finished with four points, while Bernlohr had 12 saves.

TERPS UPEND PENN, 13-8

- Maryland exploded for 10 first half goals and the defense allowed just two second half goals as the Terps earned a decisive 13-8 victory over Penn at Franklin Field on March 29.
- The Philadelphia native Matt Rambo (3G, 1A) and teammate Colin Heacock (3G, 1A) led the way with four points each, while Bryan Cole (2G, 1A) and Dylan Maltz (2G, 1A) each added three points. Freshman Austin Henningsen dominated the faceoff X with a 15-for-20 day, while Kyle Bernlohr made a season-high 10 saves in net. Greg Danseglio had six ground balls and caused two turnovers.

TERPS TAKE CARE OF TAR HEELS

- Maryland took care of business against former ACC North Carolina on March 26, never trailing in a game it won 11-8. Despite allowing two Tar Heel goals in the final minute, the Terps still held the visitors 5.5 goals below their season average.
- Sophomore Connor Kelly had the best game of his career in the win, posting a career-high six points on three goals and three assists. Kelly has two hat tricks in his career - both coming against North Carolina. Matt Rambo also tied his career-high with four goals in the game.

GET TO 10 AND WIN

- Since John Tillman took over the program in 2011, Maryland has won 57 of the 61 games in which it has scored 10 or more goals for a .934 winning percentage.
- The Terps have won 40 of their last 41 games when scoring at least 10 goals, only falling to Johns Hopkins during that streak in 2015.

HOLDING OPPONENTS TO SINGLE-DIGITS

- Maryland is 63-10 since Tillman took over the program in 2011 when it allows nine goals or less, for an .861 winning percentage.
- The Terps are 39-5 over the last three seasons when allowing less than 10 goals.

MARYLAND QUICK-HITTERS

- Maryland's 2016 schedule features matchups against five of the seven other 2015 NCAA Quarterfinalists, including Final Four participants Notre Dame and Johns Hopkins.
- Maryland made history at the 2016 Major League Lacrosse Draft on Jan. 22, setting an MLL record with six players selected in the first 19 picks: Matt Dunn (7th), Kyle Bernlohr (11th), Henry West (12th), Pat Young (13th), Bryan Cole (16th) and Greg Danseglio (19th).
- Maryland won a school record 15 games in 2015, surpassing the previous best of 14 set by the 1998 Maryland team.

TERPS' 91ST SEASON OF LACROSSE

- The Terps boast an all-time record of 775-261-4 (.740), dating back to the first varsity team in 1924 (a team was not fielded in 1944 and 1945 due to World War II). Maryland has finished every one of its previous 90 seasons with a .500 or better record, including last season when the Terps went 15-4. The program reached the 700-win milestone with a 15-6 victory over Penn on April 14, 2009 at Ludwig Field.
- During the decade of the 2000s, Maryland went 111-49 for a .694 win percentage, making it the winningest decade in Terrapin lacrosse history. In the decade of the 1990s, Maryland posted a 95-47 record. - Through the 2015 season, Maryland is 53-17 in the 2010's for a .757 winning percentage - on pace for the best decade in Maryland history.

THE 700 CLUB

- Maryland's 15-6 victory over Penn on April 14, 2009 was the program's 700th victory in 84 seasons of varsity men's lacrosse. The Terps join Johns Hopkins, Syracuse, Navy, Army and Cornell as the only programs with 700 or more Division I wins.
- Two things that make Maryland's accomplishment all the more impressive is that the Terps reached the 700-win plateau in just their 84th season. Only Syracuse reached win No. 700 in as few seasons, but it took the Orange 53 more games than Maryland. In fact, Maryland needed only 940 games to reach 700 wins and only Johns Hopkins needed fewer games (932) to hit the historic number, but the Blue Jays did so in their 105th season.

JOHN TILLMAN

HEAD COACH • SIXTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • CORNELL '91

John Tillman was hired as the University of Maryland's head men's lacrosse coach on June 16, 2010, becoming the ninth coach in the 85-year history of the program. Tillman came to College Park after three years returning Harvard lacrosse to national prominence and twelve seasons as the top assistant at Navy, during which the Midshipmen experienced some of the best years in their storied history.

Tillman has experienced immense success since taking the reins in College Park, leading the Terps to four NCAA Final Fours in five seasons. He has garnered a 63-23 (.733) overall record at Maryland - the most wins ever by a Maryland coach through their first five seasons. The Maryland defense has ranked in the nation's top-10 in scoring defense all five seasons of his tenure.

Maryland put together one of its best seasons in program history in 2015 when Tillman led the team to a Terrapin single-season record 15 victories and a berth in the NCAA national title game. The Terps featured the top-ranked scoring defense (7.1 goals allowed/g), as junior Kyle Bernlohr claimed the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award. Additionally, five players earned USILA All-America honors and Casey Ikeda was a USILA Scholar All-American.

Tillman captured his first career ACC Coach of the Year honor by leading the Terps to the 2014 ACC regular season championship and the program's third Final Four appearance in four seasons. Senior Niko Amato earned the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award as the nation's most outstanding goalie, as five Maryland players earned USILA All-America honors.

Tillman's third season in College Park saw the Terps ascend to the top of the national rankings for the first time since 2006, following a 12-10 win at then-No. 1 Loyola on Feb. 21. Maryland earned a bid to the NCAA tournament for the 11th consecutive season, which is the longest active streak in Division I men's lacrosse. Seniors Jesse Bernhardt and John Haus became the first Terrapins since 2006 to earn first-team All-America honors, leading a group of seven Maryland honorees.

The 2012 season was viewed by many as a rebuilding year after Maryland graduated 17 seniors in 2011, but Tillman rallied the team and the Terrapins returned to the NCAA championship game with sensational postseason performances from seniors Joe Cummings and Drew Snider among others. Five Terps earned All-America honors following Maryland's 12-6 campaign and junior Jesse Bernhardt was selected as co-recipient of the ACC's first-ever Defensive Player of the Year award.

In his first season in College Park Tillman guided the Terps to a 13-5 record, the 2011 ACC championship (the program's first since 2005) and a berth in the NCAA championship game (the first for the Terps since 1998). Eight Terrapins earned All-America honors in Tillman's first season, which is the most Maryland players selected in a single-season since 2004.

Widely considered one of the top young coaches in the country and a dynamic recruiter, Tillman was the head men's lacrosse coach at Harvard for three seasons prior to his arrival in College Park. His last recruiting class for the Crimson was rated No. 3 in the nation, according to Inside Lacrosse.

During his three seasons at Harvard, Tillman compiled an overall record of 20-19, including an 8-5 mark in 2009, which was the Crimson's highest win total since 1999.

Tillman's time at Harvard produced a number of the most memorable wins in the program's history. This past season, during which Harvard climbed as high as No. 11 in the national polls, Tillman guided the Crimson to an 11-8 victory over No. 6 Princeton, which was the first time Harvard had defeated the Tigers in 20 years. In 2009, Tillman led the Crimson to a season-opening 9-6 upset victory at No. 5 Duke.

Tillman improved his teams in every aspect over the past three seasons. Prior to his arrival in Cambridge, Mass., the Crimson ranked 40th and 42nd, respectively, in total offense and defense. Tillman's defense ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation, while his offense rose to No. 15 in the country. He also dramatically improved Harvard's extra-man offense, from the 51st-ranked unit before he arrived, to a perennial top 15 unit.

Prior to Harvard, Tillman spent 12 seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. After six seasons as an assistant coach, he was promoted to head assistant coach and offensive coordinator prior to the 2002 season. From 2004 through 2007, Tillman helped lead the Midshipmen to the some of the most successful seasons in program history, including four straight NCAA tournament berths, four consecutive Patriot League tournament titles and four straight Patriot League regular season championships.

In 2004, with Tillman at the helm of the Navy offense, the Mids made a remarkable run through the NCAA tournament, defeating three Ivy League teams (Penn, Cornell and Princeton) en route to a spot in the national championship game. Tillman's offense was a key component of Navy's success that season, ranking third in the nation in scoring offense. Following the Mids' tremendous 2004 season, Tillman was awarded the first of his two Collegiate Lacrosse Assistant Coach of the Year Awards by the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association.

During his 12 season at the Naval Academy, Tillman was responsible for helping develop first team All-America midfielders Graham Gill and Billy Looney and second team All-America attackman Jon Birsner. In his 12 seasons in Annapolis, the Mids compiled an overall record of 104-63.

Tillman started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Ithaca College. He spent four seasons (1992-95) with the Bombers, helping lead them to the Division III national semifinals in 1992.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Tillman also serves as a member of the Tewaaraton Award Men's Selection Committee.

A 1991 graduate of Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration, Tillman was a three-year member of the school's Dean's list. He had the opportunity to play for legendary coach Richie Moran and was a member of the 1989 squad that earned a berth in the NCAA tournament. Tillman was a goalie when he entered college, but played a number of positions for the Big Red, giving him a great appreciation and understanding for the overall game of lacrosse.

Tillman played professionally for the Baltimore Thunder and the Washington Power of the National Lacrosse League. During his final two seasons in Baltimore, he helped the Thunder reach the NLL Championship and Semifinals. Tillman also played for the Toyota Lacrosse Club, who won five-consecutive Southern Division Championships, including a world championship in 2000.

A native of Corning, N.Y., Tillman was previously commissioned into the U.S. Navy as a fleet support officer and was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal.
