1973 NCAA CHAMPIONS - MARYLAND 10, JHU 9 (2OT)

After making the finals in the inaugural NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 1971 and a semifinal defeat the following year in 1972, the Terrapins earned their first NCAA title in 1973 with a 10-9 victory over No. 2 Johns Hopkins on June 2 at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Maryland capped off an undefeated season thanks in large part to freshman midfielder Frank Urso. The Long Island, N.Y., native bounced a 15-yard shot off of Blue Jay defender Bob Barbera past Hopkins goalie Les Matthews, who was screened on the play, at 1:18 of overtime to give the Terps their first NCAA Championship.

Urso told Sports Illustrated at the time, "I figured if I couldn't see him, then he couldn't see me."

Urso wasn't the only hero for Maryland in overtime. Terp goalie Bill O'Donnell came out of the goal on a missed shot by Hopkins, but Blue Jay attackman Jack Thomas caught up with the ball and flipped it blindly over his shoulder to the crease. Dale Kohler caught the pass and fired a shot at what normally would have been an empty net. But Maryland defender Ed Glatzel stepped into the crease and knocked the potential game-ender away.

Earlier in the season, Maryland decimated Hopkins, handing the Blue Jays a 17-4 defeat, which was the worst of coach Bob Scott's 19-year career. With that loss fresh in their minds, the Blue Jays slowed the tempo down in the national title game. That strategy paid off in the first half as Hopkins took a 5-2 lead into the intermission.

But the Terps stormed out at the beginning of the third quarter, scoring four goals in a three-minute span to take a 6-5 lead, the sixth coming on the first of three goals by Urso. Hopkins rallied with three goals of its own to take an 8-6 lead. Attackman Pat O'Meally cut the lead back to one with an over-the-shoulder shot, but the Blue Jays responded with a goal of their own for a 9-7 advantage.

Goals by Urso and attackman Doug Schreiber, as time wound down, tied the match, sending it to overtime.

There is no question that the Terps dominated the 1973 season, thanks in large part to a balanced squad that featured 12 All-Americans, including four first team honorees, and five future Hall of Famers.

The offense featured four players with at least 48 points, led by O'Meally's 66. Fellow attackmen Ed Mullen and Doug Schreiber and Urso completed the quartet.

The defense was led by Mike Thearle, who was awarded the Schmeisser Memorial Cup as the nation's top defenseman, and crease man Rich Avena, who did not allow a crease goal by his mark until the national semifinals. O'Donnell was outstanding in goal and was considered to be one of the top two in the nation, along with Hopkins' Matthews.

Another important factor for the Terps in 1973 was the dominating duo of Doug Radebaugh and Gary Besosa on face-offs. Both earned All-America honors after helping spark Maryland's fast-break offense. Twenty-one times in 1973 the Terps scored a goal, won the ensuing face-off and scored again within 15 seconds.

1975 NCAA CHAMPIONS - MARYLAND 20, NAVY 13

The 1975 Maryland men's lacrosse team nearly did not qualify for the NCAA Tournament, playing just seven NCAA games with a 5-2 record. But the Terps did earn a bid and made it count by winning three tournament games decisively to be crowned the national champions for the second time in three years.

But this was not the domination that the 1973 title team showed. Maryland opened the season with a win over North Carolina, but suffered a devastating loss in its first game when All-America attackman Ed Mullen was lost for the season with an early-season knee injury. The Terps responded with a pair of victories over Air Force and Brown, but dropped their next two at Virginia and at Navy by a combined two goals.

Maryland, which was inexperienced early in the season while dealing with numerous injuries to key players, returned to its run-and-gun style of play and ripped off wins over Army and archrival Johns Hopkins to qualify for the tournament.

Once in the field there was no denying the Terps, thanks in large part to midfielder Frank Urso, who was named the recipient of the Lt. Raymond Enners Memorial Award as the nation's outstanding player in 1975. He tied the then-NCAA championship game record with five goals to lead Maryland to a 20-13 romp over the Midshipmen, avenging the Terps' regular-season defeat.

The game was a back-and-forth struggle with the Terps and the Mids wrestling to gain control. Maryland finally caught a break in the fourth quarter. Hanging on to a 13-10 lead, the Terps built a four-goal lead on a fast-break goal by defenseman Mike Farrell.

One of the unsung heroes of the 1975 team was senior goalie Gary Niels. A converted midfielder, Niels made a pair of one-on-one stops to preserve Maryland's lead in the fourth quarter and finished with 17 saves in the title game.

The Terps' 20 goals set the championship game goals record that stood for 15 years (Syracuse topped Loyola 21-9 in 1990). The 54 goals in a three-game series was also a tournament record for Maryland.

2017 NCAA CHAMPIONS - MARYLAND 9, OHIO STATE 6

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (Gillette Stadium) -- After back-to-back heartbreaks in the last two title games extended decades of frustration, Maryland was finally able to celebrate.

Dylan Maltz had two goals and an assist and Tim Rotanz scored three times as the top-seeded Terrapins defeated Ohio State 9-6 in the 2017 NCAA lacrosse championship game, putting an end to a 42-year title drought.

"It's an unbelievable experience. You look at everyone who played so hard for this program and set such a platform for us to succeed, it's awesome to see them in the crowd," Rotanz said. "I have no feeling right now. I'm numb."

Rotanz scored the final goal with 59 seconds left, allowing the Terps (16-3) a little comfort to count down the final minute after three goals by Ohio State in the fourth quarter pulled the Buckeyes within two.

The Terps held on, then rushed the field beneath a cloud of gloves and sticks they tossed in the air to celebrate putting an end to their own frustration.

"Two losses in two years is very hard to do and overcome, but that just says an awful lot of what the Terps are about," said Connor Kelly, who scored his team-high 46th goal Monday.

It was especially gratifying for Kelly, a junior who just missed with a shot in overtime of last year's championship game against North Carolina. A short time later, the Tar Heels scored and won it 14-13, extending Maryland's pain another year.

Kelly responded as a junior in 2017 by scoring a Maryland midfield record 46 goals and earning USILA First Team All-America honors.

"After what happened last year, for them to be back up here speaks to their character and how hard they worked and what a true team and how unselfish they are," coach John Tillman said.

The victory clinched a sweep for both the Maryland men's and women's programs. The Terps won the women's title Sunday, beating Boston College 16-13 in the championship.

Adam DiMillo, who had scored just three times in the previous 18 games, scored twice, Matt Rambo had a goal and an assist, and Kelly scored for Maryland.

Six players scored for the Buckeyes as they came up short in their third meeting against Maryland. The Buckeyes won the regular-season match 11-10, Maryland prevailed by the same score in overtime for the Big Ten tournament championship, and the Terps won when it mattered most.

Tim Muller was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, while Rotanz, Kelly, Maltz, Dan Morris and Rambo were named to the all-tournament team.

The season capped off an incredible career for Rambo, who received the "cherry on top" just days later when he became Maryland's first-ever male recipient of the Tewaaron Award. Rambo ended his career as Maryland's all-time leader in both points (257) and goals (155), while also totaling 62 career points in the NCAA Tournament - the most among any player nationally since the stat was first kept in 2000.

In total, a nation's best nine Terrapins earned USILA All-America honors. Muller, who won the Schmeisser Award for the nation's top defenseman, was joined on the First Team by Rambo, Kelly and Isaiah Davis-Allen. Rotanz and Colin Heacock were on the Third Team, while Bryce Young, Jared Bernhardt and Matt Neufeldt were named Honorable Mention.

Maryland captured every trophy possible in 2017, winning "The Rivalry" in front of more than 14,000 fans at Maryland Stadium and also capturing both the Big Ten regular season and tournament crowns.

The 2017 team captains were Isaiah Davis-Allen, Colin Heacock, Nick Manis and Tim Muller.

2022 NCAA CHAMPIONS - MARYLAND 9, CORNELL 7

EAST HARTFORD, CT -- The Maryland men's lacrosse team lives by the mantra 'Be The Best.' On Memorial Day Monday, the No. 1 Terrapins showed they are the best of all-time, completing a perfect 18-0 season in winning the 2022 National Championship with a 9-7 victory over seventh-ranked Cornell at Rentschler Field.

Maryland set an NCAA record for most wins in a season without a loss in becoming the first undefeated NCAA men's lacrosse champion since 2006 when Virginia finished a 17-0 campaign.

This is Maryland's fourth NCAA title, previously winning in 1973, 1975 and 2017 and 13th overall men's lacrosse national championship, winning nine USILA crowns. Overall, it is Maryland Athletics' 47th national championship and first since the women's lacrosse program won its record 15th time in 2019.

In his final game as a Terp, Logan Wisnaukas racked up four points on two goals and two assists. He became the first Terp to record 100 points in a single season, breaking the record of 99 set by Jared Bernhardt last season. His assist on Anthony DeMaio's first goal of the game in the first quarter set the record. DeMaio's second goal, 48 seconds later, was the 100th tally of his career.

DeMaio led the Terps with a season-high four goals, his fifth hat trick in his last six games, all in the postseason. He added one assist for a five-point game. He scored his 100th career goal in the first quarter, as he scored the final three goals of the first quarter -- in the span of 2:09 late in the quarter. He had 17 in the postseason after scoring 16 in 12 regular-season games.

The Terps' defense was stellar all afternoon. Goalie Logan McNaney, the 2022 NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player, made 17 saves and finished with 61 saves in the NCAA Tournament. Maryland was stifling and shutting down the Big Red much of the day. Matt Rahill shutdown the nation's leading scorer Jack Piatelli (65 goals entering the game), limiting him to one goal and one assist. Maryland held Cornell scoreless for a span of 22:15 crossing from the second to the third quarter.

The Terps' other goals came Jonathan Donville, Eric Malever, and Owen Prybylski. Kyle Long had three assists. Maryland had assists on all nine goals. With those assists, Maryland set an NCAA record for most assists in a season by a team, surpassing the record of 203 by Albany in 2015.

In addition to McNaney, the MOP of the Tournament, DeMaio, Luke Wierman, Wisnaukas, and Ajax Zappitello were named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team.

Cornell finished the season 14-5. CJ Kirst led the Big Red with two goals.

Breaking Down The Action

Both defenses were strong early as no one scored for the game's first 7:32 before Cornell's Kirst scored. The Terps evened the game as Malever ripped a feed from Jack Brennan with 5:47 left in the first quarter. DeMaio then recorded the natural hat trick with three goals in a span of 2:09. That put the Terps up 4-1 to end the period.

In the second quarter, Owen Prybylski scored the first goal of the season to give Maryland a 5-1 edge. Kirst got one back for Cornell before DeMaio added his fourth of the first half. Wisnaukas got on the board just before halftime to make it 7-2 at intermission. Cornell was just 2-of-22 shooting in the first half as McNaney made 10 saves in the half.

Wisnaukas opened the second half's scoring and Donville scored against his former team to make it 9-2. The Terps held Cornell scoreless for 22:15 before Aiden Blake scored with 4:34 left in the third quarter. The Terps led 9-3 after three.

In the fourth quarter, Cornell closed the gap to two at 9-7 with four straight goals.

National Champs

Maryland won its 47th National Championship in all sports. Overall, eight different teams have won a title, with men's lacrosse winning 12 (three NCAA and nine USILA).

The last Maryland team to win a title was women's lacrosse in 2019, when they won their sport-record 15th crown. In the 2000s, has won National Championships in seven sports including men's basketball (2002), women's basketball (2006), field hockey (2005, 2006, 2008, 2010, 2011), men's lacrosse (2017) women's lacrosse (2000, 2001, 2010, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2019), men's soccer (2005, 2008, 2018), and competitive cheer (2006, 2007, 2008, 2010).
