RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW

WHERE WE ARE ...

- Maryland looks to bounce back and close out its five-game homestand on a strong note Tuesday night as Canisius visits XFINITY Center. The game will tip at 7 PM on a first-of-its-kind B1G+ Mega Cast. Fans can listen to the game on the Maryland Sports Radio Network with Voice of the Terps Johnny Holliday calling the action alongside Chris Knoche and Walt Williams.

WHERE WE'VE BEEN ...

- The Terps are coming off a 78-74 loss to No. 15 Marquette on Friday night snapping a 12 game home non-conference win streak. Ja'Kobi Gillespie and Derik Queen each scored 24 points to lead the Terps.
- Maryland has won 18 consecutive games against unranked non-conference foes heading into the Canisius game.

THE BIG NOTE ... SPREADING THE WEALTH

- For the first time dating back through 1980-81, Maryland has had four different 20-point scorers through the first four games of the year. For the 2024-25 season, only five Division I teams have accomplished this: Maryland, Northeastern, Prairie View A&M, UIW, and Tennessee State. In the Big Ten, this is the sixth time it has happened over the last decade (back to 2014-15): Maryland, Michigan (2023-24), Illinois (2022-23), Purdue (2021-22, 2017-18), and Northwestern (2015-16).
- For the Terps, Derik Queen opened the year with 22 points against Manhattan before adding his second 20-point effort with 24 against No. 15 Marquette. Rodney Rice had 28 against Mount St. Mary's, while Julian Reese had 21 points against Florida A&M. Ja'Kobi Gillespie became the fourth player to hit the mark with 24 points (matching Queen) against No. 15 Marquette.
- The last time this happened for Maryland was 1980-81: Buck Williams (27 vs Navy), Ernie Graham (21 vs. American), Greg Manning Sr. (29 vs. Wagner), Albert King/Williams/Manning (21/20/21 vs. Syracuse).

BIG NUMBERS

1,051 - Career points for Julian Reese through 101 career games.

724 - Career rebounds for Reese - ranks 16th all-time at Maryland.

+54 - Points off turnovers difference which is second-best in Big Ten behind Penn State (+73) this season. UMD has an 83-29 advantage in points off turnovers this year through four games..

20/20 - Derik Queen had the first 20/20 double-double for Maryland since Joe Smith in 1995.

18 - Straight wins over unranked, non-conference foes.

- For the first time since the 1947-48 season, several Terrapins will wear the numbers 6 (Tafara Gapare), 7 (Malachi Palmer), 8 (Jay Young), 9 (Selton Miguel).
- The numbers were previously not allowed to be worn because of referee hand signals when calling fouls. Double-digit numbers that also contained 6, 7, 8, and 9 were also not permitted. The NCAA changed the rule prior to the 2023-24 season.
- In 1947-48, Walt Pritchard wore 6, Ron Siegrist wore 7, J.P. Young wore 8, and Spencer Wright wore 9 as the last known players to don the two-handed digits.

MARYLAND VS. CANISIUS SERIES HISTORY

LAST TIME THEY MET - DECEMBER 3, 1983

COLLEGE PARK, MD - Maryland defeated Canisius, 77-55, at Cole Field House in a game many will dismiss as just another December encounter. But it wasn't. Maryland was led to victory by a point guard. Not a guy who just brings the ball up court butat real, true-to-life point guard -- Keith Gatlin, a 6-foot-5 freshman reserve from Greenville, N.C.

He came off the bench and made all four shots, scored 11 points and handed out five assists in only 14minutes. Gatlin also made three steals, one of which came at the end of the first half and helped to break open what had been a close game.

Jeff Adkins led the Terrapins in scoring with 14 points, and Len Bias had 12. But Gatlin, Maryland's most talented point guard since Brad Davis, gave his team the direction it didn't have in Thursday night's loss to Ohio State. The Terrapins, in general, played much better than they did against Ohio State. They shot 58 percent, led by Adkins' seven for 11, Ben Coleman's four for five and Bias' five for eight.

Guard Ray Hall, who led Canisius with 18 points, scored on a jumper and two free throws to close his team to 22-20 with three minutes left in the half, with Maryland having trouble solving a 2-3 zone defense. Enter Gatlin. His jumper made it 24-20. His assist to Bias helped raise it to 26-20. He fed Bias a minute later for 28-22 and bounced a pass to Coleman for 30-24. And Gatlin wasn't finished. He stole the subsequent inbounds pass and made a free throw for 31-24. And when he missed the second foul shot, forward Herman Veal put the ball back in for a 33-24 halftime lead.

Canisuis, which lost to Maryland by just one point last season in Buffalo, was never in the game thereafter. (From the Washington Post archives)

RARE DOUBLE-DOUBLE SEASON

- Julian Reese nearly averaged a double-double last season as a junior. If he does so in 2024-25, he would become just the fifth Terp since 1992-93 to average a double-double for a season. Overall, in that span, it has happened six times with Joe Smith doing so during both the 1993-94 and 1994-95 seasons.

DHS LOOKING TO BUILD UPON ROOKIE YEAR

- DeShawn Harris-Smith played in every game for Maryland last year as a true freshman with 30 starts. He was the program's top rookie scorer since the trio of Jalen Smith (11.7 ppg), Eric Ayala (8.6), and Aaron Wiggins (8.3) in 2018-19.
- Against Iowa, Harris-Smith became the second Maryland freshman in the last 15 years to record 15+ points and 5+ rebounds off the bench while shooting 70.0 percent or better from the field (Diamond Stone vs. Marshall in 2015-16).
- Harris-Smith played at least 20 minutes in all 33 games, tied for the second-longest streak by a Division I freshman this season (Drake's Kevin Overton – 33).
- Harris-Smith's 7.3 points/game was better than several notable Terps in their rookie seasons (back to 1992-93):

SELTON MIGUEL, BRUNO FERNANDO REUNITE

- Over the summer, newcomer Selton Miguel and fellow Angolan (and Terp favorite) Bruno Fernando reunited as part of the Angolan National Team which played in the FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Madrid.
- Miguel averaged 7.0 points, 2.0 rebounds, and 2.0 assists in two games for Angola during the tournament. Against Spain, he scored 11 points while adding three rebounds and three assists.
- Miguel was the only college player and the youngest on the Angolan team. It was also his first year with the national team after playing with the senior team at the FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament in 2021.
- Miguel adds a high-level of experience to Maryland this season after spending two seasons at Kansas State and the past two seasons at South Florida. Last year he was an All-AAC Second Team honoree and chosen as both the AAC Sixth Man of the Year and the AAC Most Improved Player after averaging 14.7 points per game.

THE CHEAT CODE - JA'KOBI GILLESPIE

- Ja'Kobi Gillespie joined the Terps after a strong two years at Belmont in Nashville, Tenn. The Greeneville, Tenn., native was named to the All-MVC Second Team, All-MVC Defensive Team, and tabbed the league's Most Improved Player last year after averaging 17.2 points per game, 4.2 assists, and 3.8 rebounds. He shot 51.1 percent from the floor including 34.8 percent from three-point range in his two seasons in Nashville.
- Earned the nickname Cheat Code with the Bruins.
- In high school, he was also a football standout with SEC and ACC offers. He was a wide receiver, defensive back and kick returner who once scored touchdowns on offense, defense, and special teams in a high school playoff game.

QUEEN WILL HAVE YOU IN CHECKMATE

- Derik Queen became the second-highest rated recruit (No. 12 nationally) to sign with the Terps and will be a headline piece to the 2024-25 campaign. The McDonald's All-American and consensus five-star recruit was named the Co-MVP of the McDonald's All-America Game after scoring 23 points while adding eight rebounds, five assists, three steals, and two blocks. He was the first Terp since Adrian Branch to earn MVP honors.
- Only Diamond Stone (No. 8, 2015) was a higher ranked recruit than Queen. Jalen Smith, now with the Chicago Bulls after starting his career with the Indiana Pacers, was ranked No. 15 nationally when he signed in 2018.
- When on the floor with fellow Baltimore native Julian Reese, the duo will harken shades of David Robinson and Tim Duncan of the San Antonio Spurs in the late 90's through early 2000's as Twin Towers.

NEWCOMERS ADDRESS SHOOTING NEEDS, ADD EXPERIENCED PLAYMAKERS

- Maryland used the offseason to add a number of shooters into the line-up while also bringing in experienced players. In addition to Miguel and Gillespie, Rodney Rice came back home after playing a season at Virginia Tech. The DeMatha grad did not play in 2023-24 after going through an injury riddled freshman campaign the year before. At DeMatha, Rice averaged 18.5 points per game over three years under former Terp assistant coach Mike Jones.
- Jay Young and Tafara Gapare each bring athleticism to the Terps. Young is known as a strong defensive presence who will fit into Willard's scheme and can also see time at point guard. Gapare is a long-athletic small forward who can play four different positions while also serving as a rim protector. Young played at both UCF and Memphis, while Gapare has played at UMass and Georgia Tech.
- Malachi Palmer joined Queen as the only two freshman additions this year. Palmer is a big, physically athletic guard who has shown well during the preseason. He also holds the team's highest deadlift mark this year at 645 pounds.

THE SNIPER RETURNS; LONG WILL MISS TIME

- One of the additions last season that could have helped Maryland's shooting was Chance Stephens who had transferred to College Park from Loyola Marymount where he had 49 threes on 37.4 percent shooting as a freshman. A knee injury in the preseason sidelined him for the season.
- Now healthy, Stephens looks to get back on track as a long-range threat for the Terps. His personal record during shooting drills from beyond the arc - 82 straight made three-pointers. During his rehab, often shared videos of his shooting workouts where he continuously would go 50-of-51, 75-of-76, etc., before moving to the next position.
- While Stephens returns, the Terps will be without guard Jahari Long for much of the season. Long, who still has a year of elgibility remaining from COVID, injured his knee in the Big Ten Tournament. While he could possibly return in the second half of the year, a potential redshirt year is also probable.

WILLARD'S FULL COURT PRESS

- Head coach Kevin Willard became the newest Maryland coach to receive an ice cream flavor from the UMD Dairy. The name for the ice cream, as selected in an online fan vote, will be Willard's Full Court Press.
- Coach Willard's ice cream is made up of blackberry, peanut butter cups, banana and vanilla. The flavor will officially be available on Nov. 6 before the home opener against Mount Saint Mary's.
- Select Maryland head coaches enjoy the unique perk of having their own custom ice cream flavor created in their honor. While not every coach has one, there is no hard-and-fast rule on who gets one, success of the program does play a role.
- Current head coaches who have their own flavor include Mike Locksley (Pop, #LockedIn, Drop It), women's basketball head coach Brenda Frese (Brenda's Peanut butter Frese), women's lacrosse head coach Cathy Reese (Cathy Reese's Victory Swirl), men's soccer head coach Sasho Cirovski (Sasho's Crew Crunch), and field hockey head coach Missy Meharg (Terpresso).
- The ice creams are created by University Dining Services' Executive Pastry Chef Jeff Russo for the Maryland Dairy. Housed in the student union, the Dairy uses milk from local cows along with the specialized ingredients for each head coach. The first coach-inspired variation actually began in 2004 with Ralph Friedgen (vanilla, fudge, brownies, chocolate-covered cashews).

WILLARD HITS 300 CAREER WINS

- Last season, Willard captured his 300th career win thanks to a 69-60 road victory at UCLA on Dec. 22, 2023. That made him the fifth active coach in the Big Ten to hit that mark before the additions this year of the West Coast four. Rutgers' Steve Pikiell did so last year in his 18th overall season meaning Willard did so a year faster.
- Oregon's Dana Altman now has the most career wins of any B1G coach, while UCLA's Mick Cronin also joined the list of league coaches with 300-or-more career wins.
- Willard also joined his father, Ralph Willard, who won 336 games between his time at Western Kentucky, Pittsburgh, and Holy Cross.

- For the first time in program history, Maryland started a season with three consecutive 30-point wins. The closest the Terps came prior was in 1972-73 (127-82 vs. Brown, 82-50 at Richmond, and 107-80 at Canisius) and 1975-76 (127-84 vs. East Carolina, 99-42 vs. DePauw, 98-71 at Richmond).

HEAD COACH KEVIN WILLARD

Pittsburgh '97 • 3rd Year at Maryland, 18th as Head Coach

Willard was named the new head coach of the Maryland men's basketball program by Damon Evans, Barry P. Gossett Director of Athletics on March 21, 2022.

Overall in his career, he has 308 victories after capturing his 300th at UCLA (69-60) during the 2023-24 campaign. He is the fifth active Big Ten coach to surpass 300 career victories. Entering the 2024-25 season, Willard holds a 308-240 overall record.

During his first two seasons, Willard has produced eight All-Big Ten selections which are the most for back-to-back years in nearly a decade.

In his first season at the helm, the 16-year veteran led the Terps to a 22-13 overall record, a NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance, and a national Top-25 ranking throughout the season. Willard became the first coach in program history to achieve 20 wins, a national ranking, and a berth to the NCAA Tournament in his first season. Additionally, he was also the first coach in Maryland history to start their tenure 8-0 and was the first coach in Big Ten history to win each of his first seven games by at least 15 points.

The 2022-23 campaign was also highlighted by five Top 25 wins including a 68-54 sellout win over No. 3 Purdue, a perfect 10-0 record in home Big Ten games, and a 16-1 mark at the XFINITY Center which saw three sellouts overall. The Terps finished the year ranked No. 32 in the NET (NCAA Evaluation Tool) after being as high as No. 6 and spent 11 weeks ranked or receiving votes in the Top 25 with a high of No. 13 in the AP Poll.

With a renewed focus on recruiting the DMV, Willard and his staff assembled a top-15 recruiting class leading into the 2023-24 season and has found success through the transfer portal in players like Jahmir Young, Patrick Emilien, and Don Carey who all played key roles in 2022-23.

Over the last six seasons, Willard has been one of the winningest coaches in terms of NET Quad 1 victories. His teams have combined for 32 Quad 1 wins in that span which ranks among the Top 20 for active coaches since 2018-19.

In his career as a head coach, his teams have 34 wins over Associated Press Top-25 teams including 20 wins over Top-15 teams, 16 wins over Top-10 teams, and seven wins over Top-5 teams.

Overall, teams under Willard have reached the NCAA Tournament seven times with nine 20-win seasons.

Before taking over in College Park, Willard returned Seton Hall to its status as one of the premier programs in the Big East during his tenure from 2010-22. He reached five NCAA Tournament appearances in the last six events that were played. He led the Pirates to the Big East Tournament Title in 2015-16 and the regular-season title in 2019-20. He was the 2016 Big East Coach of the Year and the 2020 USBWA District II Coach of the Year during those runs. Additionally, he was a three-time Peter A. Carlesimo Met Writers Coach of the Year (2016, 2017, 2019) and the 2019 NABC District 5 Coach of the year. He also has the most non-conference wins of any coach in the nation against Big Ten teams since 2014-15.

In addition to his coach of the year accolades, he was also named one of Forbes Top 10 NCAA Basketball Coaches for the Next 10 Years in 2017. His teams won the prestigious NABC Team Academic Excellence Award for five straight years (2016-20) and earned three NCAA Academic Progress Rate Public Recognition Awards.

In a six-year span from 2016-17 through 2021-22, he was one of 10 active head coaches in the Power 6 conferences to achieve a regular-season championship, a conference tournament championship, and a conference coach of the year honor. He also finished in the top-four in the Big East on six occasions. In 2018, he led the Pirates to their first victory in an NCAA Tournament since 2004.

Through his 12 seasons at Seton Hall, Willard produced a 225-161 overall record. He ranks second all-time in victories (225) in Seton Hall basketball history and has the most wins in conference play in program history (110). He is also the 11th all-time winningest coach in Big East history, dating to the conference's inception in 1979. The Pirates also had 82 combined wins between the Big East regular-season and postseason, second only to Villanova in the conference, since the 2015-16 season.

His teams at Seton Hall were ranked in the Top 25 in five of his last eight seasons with a high ranking of No. 8 in the 2019-20 season. In 2020-21 the Pirates were ranked as high as No. 15 and spent eight weeks in the polls.

Willard's Seton Hall teams also posted an 11-5 record against Big Ten teams over his last eight seasons, which included wins over Maryland in 2018 and 2019. Willard's teams also won road games at Michigan, Iowa, Penn State and Rutgers and beat Indiana at home. Willard held the most non-conference wins over Big Ten teams of any coach since 2014-15.

In 2021-22, Willard led the Pirates to a 21-11 overall record and an 11-8 mark in conference play. That included wins over No. 4 Michigan and No. 7 Texas as part of six NET Quad 1 victories.

Willard coached the Big East Player of the Year in two of his last three years in Myles Powell (2020) and Sandro Mamukelashvili (2021). He mentored two Big East Most Improved Players of the Year in Powell (2018) and Romaro Gill (2020). He coached the Big East Tournament MVP, Isaiah Whitehead (2016); the Big East Defensive Player of the Year, Fuquan Edwin (2014) and Gill (2020); the Big East Rookie of the Year, Angel Delgado (2015) and the Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Michael Nzei (2019) and Ike Obiagu (2021).

Whitehead, Delgado, Powell and Mamukelashvili all earned All-American honors and Consensus First-Team All-Big East honors, and all in the last seven years. All four went on to play in the NBA with Powell playing for the Philadelphia 76ers this season and Mamukelashvili playing for the Milwaukee Bucks.

Powell was Seton Hall's first Consensus First-Team All-American since 1953. This past season, Jared Rhoden was named to the All-Big East First Team marking the sixth time in seven years that Willard coached a first-team all-conference honoree. Overall, he mentored 15 All-Big East selections and three Big East All-Rookie Team honorees.

Making a huge emphasis on effort in the classroom, Willard's student-athletes combined for 72 BIG EAST All-Academic team selections, and the program boasted a perfect single-year academic progress rate in six of the nine NCAA reports since he served as head coach as well as perfect multi-year APR scores in 2016 and 2017. The NCAA has also recognized Seton Hall with NCAA APR Public Recognition awards for boasting an APR in the top 10 percent in the country three consecutive years from 2015-17. The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) gave the program the Team Academic Excellence Award for five consecutive years from 2016-20 after finishing the academic year with a grade-point-average above 3.0.

Willard showed to be a strong evaluator and recruiter of talent, as he brought in a consensus top-15 national recruiting class in 2014, led by Whitehead, the program's first McDonald's All-American since 2001 and just the fifth all-time. His 2021-22 recruiting class was also rated in the top 25 by 247Sports.

The 2020-21 season marked Seton Hall and Willard's sixth consecutive top-four finish in the Big East Conference, one of the best basketball conferences in the country. Only Villanova also completed six straight top-four finishes in the same span.

Willard was named head coach of the Seton Hall men's basketball program on March 29, 2010. He became the 19th head coach in Seton Hall history joining the Pirates after three years serving as the head coach at Iona. In 2007, he had inherited a Gaels team that had won just two games the prior season. In his first year at the helm, the Gaels had a 10-win improvement, ranking as one of the top turnarounds in NCAA Div. I. Then in year three in 2009-10, Willard guided Iona to a 21-10 overall record, and he was named MAAC Coach of the Year.

Prior to the start of his career as a head coach, Willard was an assistant and associate head coach for six years at Louisville, where he was mentored by Naismith Basketball Hall of Famer Rick Pitino. Willard also credits his father, Ralph, as one of his coaching influences. Ralph Willard enjoyed a successful 19-year run as the head coach at Western Kentucky, Pittsburgh and Holy Cross, winning 336 games and advancing to six NCAA Tournaments.

At Louisville, Willard was responsible for assisting with the Cardinals' game preparations, scouting and preparing game plans. He also served as chief recruiting coordinator. During his tenure, Louisville was ranked in the Top 25 for five seasons and reached the postseason in each of his six years. The squad reached the NCAA Tournament on four occasions including a visit to the 2005 Final Four, the first time in 19 years that the Cardinals had advanced that deep into the postseason. In his six seasons at Louisville, the Cardinals posted a phenomenal 142-58 record averaging nearly 24 wins per season.

Prior to Louisville, Willard worked with Pitino as a coaching associate with the Boston Celtics for four years. His duties with the Celtics included game and practice preparation, scouting and assisting the coaching staff in all facets of basketball operations. He also provided advance scouting, videotape breakdowns and assisted with individual workouts prior to games.

A basketball lifer, Willard played point guard on the Division I level for four years; the last three coming at the University of Pittsburgh. He earned Big East All-Academic honors while appearing in 60 games for the Panthers. He spent his freshman season at Western Kentucky, where he played in the backcourt and sank over 40 percent of his three-point field goal attempts.

Willard hails from New York and was born in Huntington on Long Island, but played his high school basketball at Bowling Green High School (Ky.) while his father was the head coach at Western Kentucky. He earned second-team All-State honors as a senior and helped his team to a combined 76-15 record in his final three prep seasons.

Willard is married to the former Julie Wagner and they have two sons, Colin, who was born in August 2006 and Chase born in June 2008.
