TERPS TANGLE WITH NO. 12 GONZAGA IN PLAYERS ERA TOURNAMENT ...

- ▶ Coming off a late night 74-67 win over UNLV, the Terps return to action on Tuesday night as they take on No. 12 Gonzaga in day two of the Players Era Championship Tournament in Las Vegas. The Zagags defeated No. 8 Alabama, 95-85, on Monday night.
- ▶ The game will tip off at 9:30 PM ET (6:30 PM PT) and will be televised on truTV. Fans can also listen to the game on the Maryland Sports Radio Network with Josh Maurer and Chris Knoche calling the action.

TIME ZONE MATH, "DOUBLEHEADER" TURNAROUND ...

- ▶ Monday's game against UNLV tipped around 9:20 PM PT tip - after midnight for the East Coast crowd and technically Tuesday morning. Tuesday's game against Gonzaga will tip at 6:30 PM PT (9:30 PM ET) nearly 21 hours following the win over UNLV. So not a doubleheader by local time zones, but it would be one by East Coast time.
- ▶ The last time an NCAA Division I team played twice on the same day was March 15, 2008 in the SEC Tournament as Georgia won both a quarterfinal and semifinal game due to a tornado damaging the Georgia Dome. Since 1980-81, that is the only recorded time a team has played twice on the same day.
- ▶ For Maryland, the only time listed as the Terps playing on the same day was Feb. 22, 1930 which featured wins over Johns Hopkins and VMI.

TERPS RALLY PAST UNLV BEHIND PAYNE'S 20 POINTS ...

- ▶ The Terps' offense surged in the second half after trailing by three at the break and Maryland used six threes in the second half to defeat UNLV. Pharrel Payne returned to the lineup and scored 20 points to surpass the 1,000-career point mark just five games into his senior season.

PALPABLE BUZZ ...

- ▶ Buzz Williams was named head coach at Maryland on April 2, 2025 after re-building Texas A&M into a program that reached three consecutive NCAA Tournaments. For his career, he is seeking to become one of just three NCAA Division I head coaches to post 100 career wins at four different institutions joining Maryland Hall of Fame Coach Lefty Driessell (Davidson, Maryland, James Madison, Georgia State) and Steve Alford (Iowa, New Mexico, UCLA, Nevada).
- ▶ Williams is one of 12 active Division I head coaches to win at least one NCAA Tournament game at three different programs. He has coached in 23 NCAA Tournament games, winning 12, both of which rank among the Top 25 among all Division I head coaches.

MARYLAND VS. GONZAGA SERIES HISTORY

SERIES RECORD

LAST TIME THEY MET - NOVEMBER 28, 2008

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. - Greivis Vasquez hit the 1,000-point plateau in his career by scoring 16 points, but Josh Heytvelt had 22 points and No. 9 Gonzaga beat Maryland 81-59 on Friday in the semifinals of the Old Spice Classic.

Gonzaga (4-0) opened an 18-point lead midway through the second half on the play of subs Robert Sacre and Steven Gray and pulled away for the win.

Vasquez was the high scorer for Maryland (4-1), which upset No. 5 Michigan State in the first round. No other Terrapin finished in double figures.

Gonzaga finished a close first half with a 10-2 run to take a 38-29 halftime lead.

Maryland shot only 38 percent and made one of 13 3-pointers.

The Bulldogs advanced to the tournament championship Sunday against Tennessee, a 90-78 winner over Georgetown in the other semi.

Landon Milbourne opened the second half with a reverse layup to cut Gonzaga's lead to seven, but the Bulldogs scored 19 of the next 26 points. Matt Bouldin's two free throws with just over 10 minutes left put Gonzaga ahead 57-40.

The Terps' 3-point shooting, which carried them to their win over Michigan State, deserted them against the Bulldogs. Maryland made nine of 19 3s against the Spartans.

The Terrapins went the final 6 minutes of the first half without a field goal, and trailed 38-29 at the break.

Vasquez made a 3 early in the game to become the 47th Maryland player to reach 1,000 career points.

The Terrapins were shooting for their second win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 2003. Their first was Thursday against Michigan State.

BUZZ WILLIAMS SIGNS NO. 3 RECRUITING CLASS IN THE NATION

- ▶ Head coach Buzz Williams announced on Nov. 20 the signing of Austin Brown (Lufkin, TX), Kaden House (Phoenix, AZ), Adama Tamedou (Senegal, Africa/Springfield, MA), and Baba Oladotun (Silver Spring, MD).
- ▶ The addition of the quartet gives Maryland the No. 3 ranked recruiting class in the country and makes Maryland one of seven programs over the last three years to have a top-25 player in each of those recruiting classes. The other six programs to have signed a top-25 player in each of the last three seasons: Arkansas, Baylor, Duke, Kansas, Miami, and North Carolina. In just his short time at Maryland, Williams has now signed three of the Terps top nine overall ranked recruits in the past 15 years.
- ▶ Brown is a 6-foot-8 power forward from Lufkin High School who is a composite four-star recruit and was the first commitment in the 2026 class. He is the No. 116 overall recruit in the class who also held offers from Iowa, Minnesota, SMU, and Texas A&M among others. In addition to his prep career at Lufkin, Brown also played for JL3 Elite, coached by Maryland alum and all-time great John Lucas, on the Nike EYBL AAU circuit. During his time at Lufkin, he was named the 2024 District 16-5A MVP as well as to the 2024 All-Region Team. He ranks third all-time in scoring at Lufkin with 1,853 career points heading into his senior season.
- ▶ "We've known Austin for some time now and have a long-lasting relationship with him and his family. He is a terrific fit for our style of play as well as a great culture fit," said Williams. "At 6-foot-8, he is a dynamic wing player who will be ready physically to compete in the Big Ten. Austin will be able to play a number of positions in our system and is a physical rebounder as well. His relationship with John Lucas has already introduced him to the history of Maryland and he's excited to be a part of that next chapter."
- ▶ House is a four-star combo guard from Compass Prep which plays on the EYBL circuit. He is a top-50 overall recruit in the 2026 class. Overall, he is the 247sports No. 37 player in the class. He is the son of former NBA player Eddie House who was a standout at Arizona State. The 6-foot-3 guard averaged 13.5 points last season to lead Compass Prep as well as 3.5 rebound and nearly three assists and three steals per game. House also held offers from Vanderbilt, TCU, LSU, and Michigan among others. His twin brother Kalek committed earlier in the year to Xavier. House began his prep career at Scottsdale Desert Mountain before transferring before his junior year to Compass Prep. Earlier this month, House was named to the 2025-26 Naismith Trophy Boys High School Player of the Year Watch List.
- ▶ "Kaden is someone who really wants to be a part of what we do as a program and how we develop not just players, but people. He is a downhill guard who can defend and score at the rim with a unique ability to draw and play through contact," said Williams. "Growing up with a father who was an NBA player gives him perspective on the processes needed to develop and the work it takes. The relationship he's built with us and the trust he has in how we structure our development of players was a major factor for him in his decision."
- ▶ Tamedou, who won a national championship title with Putnam Science Academy last season, is a four-star forward who ranks No. 108 nationally and No. 2 in the state of Connecticut. He also plays for the Rhode Island Elite AAU program on the Puma circuit where he averaged 15.6 points, 10.9 rebounds and 2.5 blocks through 14 games last season. He chose Maryland over Iowa State among others. Tamedou was a key piece of Putnam's fifth prep national championship title in the last seven years last season with the Mustangs posting a school record 41-2 overall record. He averaged 7.0 points, 6.0 rebounds, one block and one steal per game, while shooting 61 percent from the floor. Early this season, Tamedou has increased his productivity to 15 points and eight rebounds per game.
- ▶ "Adama has really developed into a strong, physical player who can stretch the floor. He is one who wants to work hard, develop, and be in a system that will maximize him as a player and a person," said Williams. "He's had a unique journey and path, but has found success in each turn and used his experiences to make him an exceptional young man. We think he'll add tremendously to our ability to space the floor, rebound, and score in a multitude of ways."
- ▶ Oladotun is a five-star wing from James Hubert Blake High School in Rockville. The Silver Spring native is the No. 10 overall recruit in the nation, the No. 1 prospect in Maryland, and the No. 3 ranked small forward. He is the second-highest rated recruit to sign with Maryland behind Diamond Stone (No. 8) and ahead of Derik Queen (No. 12), Jalen Smith (No. 15), and Darius Adams (No. 15). He chose Maryland over Arkansas, Georgetown, and Kentucky. The 6-foot-10 wing also played in AAU for Team Durant on the EYBL circuit. His father, Ibrahim, played at Virginia Tech from 1989-91 and professionally in England and Greece. Oladotun is the third five-star signee over the last three seasons joining Derik Queen (2024) and Darius Adams (2025). Originally, Oladotun was part of the 2027 high school class, but reclassified in August. He will turn 17 in December. Last season for Blake, he averaged 22.5 points per game, 7.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists, and 2.8 steals. Oladotun entered the 2025-26 season as a Max Preps Preseason All-America Second Team selection after earning Max Preps Sophomore All-America honors last season.
- ▶ "While Baba is relatively young for his age as a player compared to his peers, as a person he is wise beyond his years. That's not just a credit to how he has gone through his process, but to how his family has raised him and his siblings," said Williams. "He will be a terrific fit for our program in how he wants to grow as a player and a person. Baba has a high potential and will make an impact from the first day. His length, athleticism, and high basketball IQ make him one of the top players in the country. For him to continue his career close to his family, friends, and those who have supported his journey is incredibly special."

GAMEDAY VIBES

- ▶ During gameday shoot-arounds, the Terps will traditionally vibe to The Commodores Pandora station.

BIRTHDAY SHENANIGANS

- ▶ On player or staff member's birthdays, Buzz Williams honors the occasion with an emoji-filled tweet that always includes a wrong number of birthdays for the celebrator.

TURKEYS & SOCKS

- ▶ In the team vernacular, a "turkey" is when an opponent is held scoreless on three straight possessions. When the team has posted consecutive stops, the bench calls out "turkey, turkey" to implore the five on the floor to get another stop.
- ▶ Taking charges on defense is valued by Terp Basketball, and the team rewards a charge taken by presenting a pair of socks to the charge taker from the special socks treasure chest.

CULTURE WALL

- ▶ After road game shoot-arounds, everyone on the trip gets on the court for a fun photo. If the Terps win, the photo will be posted on Williams' X and Instagram (@teamcoachbuzz) and added to the "Culture Wall" in the locker room.

READING IS FUN

- ▶ Buzz Williams is a voracious reader, generally completing 4-5 books every month. For the last 13 years, Williams has selected and gifted a book to every player, staff member and their family on the initial road trip of the season. Describing his commitment to reading, Williams has said, "Who you are today and who you will be five years from today are the people you meet and the books that you read. Regardless of the genre of book that you read, they say it's worth five years of experience."

QUOTE SHIRTS

- ▶ During the course of a season, Williams distributes 12 "Quote Shirts" to his players and staff that carry a life lesson or story behind its design for which the people within the men's basketball family can relate.

BEING THANKFUL

- ▶ A staple of every road trip under Buzz includes Thank You letters. Each coach/player/staff member on the trip writes a Thank You letter to someone in their life at the first team meal of the roadie.

BUZZ'S BUNCH

While Maryland is known for its traditions and rich history of success, head coach Buzz Williams has a tradition of his own with his program, Buzz's Bunch.

Buzz's Bunch is a program with a primary objective of helping children with special needs come together socially while hopefully falling in love with game of basketball. The camp opens the door to new friendships, unforgettable memories, and the powerful impact of connection through the sport of basketball!

Buzz's Bunch began in 2008 when Williams was the head coach at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisc., and it continued to flourish during his time in Blacksburg, Va., at Virginia Tech.

The completely free program held the annually on the first Saturday of August has blossomed into a community with more than 300 members across the nation, many of whom remain in close contact with Coach Buzz and many of the players.

Since he began the program, Williams has continued holding the events throughout his stops at Marquette, Virginia Tech, Texas A&M, and now Maryland.

Among the benefits of joining Buzz's Bunch are a pair of opportunities to interact with Coach Buzz, his staff, and members of the Maryland men's basketball team.

During the season, one non-conference home game will be designated as the Buzz's Bunch Game where members will receive free tickets and will have the opportunity to spend time with players and staff on the court before warm-ups.

For more information on Buzz's Bunch or how to get involved, email kayhack@umd.edu.

HEAD COACH BUZZ WILLIAMS

Oklahoma City '94 • 1st Season At Maryland • 19th As Head Coach

Buzz Williams was named the head coach of the Maryland Men's Basketball program on Wednesday, April 2, 2025. Williams has led his programs to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances and 13 20-win seasons in 18 years as a head coach.

Most recently, Williams served as the head coach for six seasons at Texas A&M from 2019-25, leading the Aggies to the NCAA Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 2019-20 and 2022-23. Williams served as head coach at Virginia Tech (five years, 2014-19), Marquette (six years, 2008-14) and New Orleans (one year, 2006-07). His overall record after 18 seasons as a head coach is 373-228 (.621).

Williams has won at least 100 games at Marquette, Virginia Tech and Texas A&M. He is seeking to become just the third coach in Division I head coach to win at least 100 games at four different institutions, along with Maryland Hall of Fame coach Lefty Driesell (Davidson, Maryland, James Madison, Georgia State) and Steve Alford (Iowa, New Mexico, UCLA, Nevada).

In 2024-25, Williams led the Aggies to a 23-11 record as they advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round. A&M was ranked as high as No. 7 during the year.

Williams is one of 12 active Division I head coaches to win at least one NCAA Tournament game at three different programs. He's coached in 23 NCAA Tournament games, winning 12, both of which rank among the Top 25 among all Division I head coaches.

For his age (53) and his number of years as a head coach (18), Williams is the active leader in total victories and ranks No. 2 in NCAA Tournament games and NCAA Tournament victories.

His teams averaged nearly 21 wins per season for his career. Williams' teams have suffered just two losing conference records – his first season at Virginia Tech in 2014-15 and his second squad at Texas A&M in the COVID-19-marred 2020-21 season. With a 25-23 record on the road under Williams, Texas A&M has the second-highest road winning percentage among SEC teams since 2019-20 and are one of only four programs with winning road records in that span.

Over his last 17 seasons as a head coach, his teams have advanced to the postseason 13 times with 11 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT invitations, including four career NCAA Sweet 16 appearances (three at Marquette, one at Virginia Tech), one Elite Eight appearance (2013 Marquette) and one appearance in the NIT Championship game.

Entering his 32nd season as a college basketball coach, including 31 seasons at the Division I level, Williams' coaching history includes stints as an assistant, associate head coach and head coach. In addition to his head coaching stints at Texas A&M, Virginia Tech, Marquette and New Orleans, Williams served on staffs at Marquette (2007-08), Texas A&M (2004-06), Colorado State (2000-04), Northwestern State (1999-2000), Texas A&M-Kingsville (1998-99) and UT-Arlington (1994-98).

During his time as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M on Billy Gillispie's staff, Williams helped bring two nationally-ranked recruiting classes to the Aggies and was part of the basketball renaissance for the program. The 2004-05 team posted the top turnaround in the nation with a 14-game improvement from the previous year and posted the Aggies' first postseason victory in more than 20 years. In 2005-06, the Aggies posted 22 wins and earned their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1980.

Williams has recruited and coached more than 20 players who have earned all-conference accolades, including two league Players of the Year, two conference Freshman of the Year and four Associated Press All-Americans. In 2023-24, Wade Taylor IV became the first Aggie to earn first-team All-SEC honors in consecutive seasons and Andersson Garcia received a spot on the league's All-Defensive Team.

HEAD COACH BUZZ WILLIAMS

Williams has coached, recruited or developed 16 NBA players over the course of his career, totaling over $400 million in total salaries and nearly 3,000 games played.

Brent Langdon Williams was born in Greenville, Texas and grew up in the small Texas town of Van Alstyne (population 4,369), which is located 50 miles north of Dallas, Texas. He is one of the few NCAA Division I head coaches that did not play college basketball. Instead, he was a student assistant at Navarro JC from 1990-92 and Oklahoma City University from 1992-94.

He received the nickname "Buzz" while working as an energetic student assistant for longtime Navarro College coach and mentor Lewis Orr. Williams was inducted into the Navarro College Bulldog Hall of Fame in 2021 as the school honored Williams' climb from "floor maintenance manager" to head coach.

Perhaps the most impactful initiative by Williams was the founding of "Buzz's Bunch," which connects young people with special needs to the game of basketball with an annual Buzz's Bunch game in the fall and a summer clinic. Originally founded during William's time in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at Marquette, Buzz's Bunch continued during his time in Blacksburg, Virginia at Virginia Tech and now at Texas A&M. Every player, coach and staff member has been lucky to develop a relationship, learn and grow from these children as Buzz's Bunch has grown to more than 500 members spanning all three cities.

As part of "Buzz's Bunch," the Williams family endowed scholarships at Virginia Tech and Texas A&M, which are awarded annually to students with a disability. Additionally, Williams' wife, Corey, helped endow a scholarship -- The Buzz and Corey Williams Family Student-Athlete Scholarship -- which is awarded to a female student-athlete at Virginia Tech.

Always seeking to connect to young people, Williams has guest-lectured for the School of Military Science (SOMS) class at Texas A&M the past two fall semesters and he co-taught Sports Management (SPMT) class in the fall of 2024. His lectures for SOMS 380, originating from the Rudder Forum inside the historic Rudder Theatre Complex, featured topics such as "Learning How You Learn," "Leading Through Change," "The Birthday Paradox," "The Principal-Agent Problem" and "Never Assume Anything." Williams also taught similar classes at Virginia Tech.

Williams is married to the former Corey Norman and the couple have two daughters, Zera and Addyson, and two sons, Calvin and Mason. He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Oklahoma City University in 1994 before completing his master's work in the same field at Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1999.
