WHERE WE ARE ...

► Maryland kicks off the 2025 campaign at home on Thursday night in College Park as the Terps host Lehigh at Ludwig Field. It will begin a three-game homestand for Maryland as the month of September features five of its six games on the home pitch.

SERIES HISTORY WITH LEHIGH

► Maryland is 2-0 all-time against Lehigh with both wins coming by 2-0 decisions. Maryland won the first-ever meeting in 2007 between the two sides. Last year, Maryland also opened the 2024 campaign against the Mountain Hawks in Bethlehem as Kennedy Bell and Ava Morales each notched goals for the win.

SEASON OPENING SUCCESS

► Maryland has experienced a lot of success in season opening games. Maryland is unbeaten in its last eight season openers. The Terrapins hold a record of 5-0-3 in those season opening games. The Terps extended their unbeaten run in season openers during the 2024 season with the 2-0 win at Lehigh.

► Dating back to the 1995 season, the Terps are 21-4-5 in season opening games. That stretch started with a 6-0 win over Virginia Tech in College Park on Sept. 3, 1995.

MARCHIANO ENTERS FIRST FULL SEASON

► Michael Marchiano was officially named the Terps' head coach in December 2024 after serving as interim head coach during the late part of the season where he was 1-3-1 overall.

► His first career win leading Maryland came 2-0 over Nebraska at Ludwig Field for the Terps' first Big Ten win of the season and the first since defeating Purdue, 3-1, on October 23, 2022. It also marked Maryland's first win over Nebraska.

TERPS TO WATCH

► Prior to the start of the season, the Big Ten named Kelsey Smith, Emily Lehnard, and Tahirah Turnage-Morales as Maryland's trio of Big Ten Players To Watch for the upcoming season.

► Smith has played in 37 matches with two goals and two assists for Maryland, while Lehnard led the squad in assists (3) last season. Turnage-Morales has started 26 of 28 matches for Maryland over the last two seasons logging nearly 2,300 minutes on the back line.

TERRAPIN TEAM NOTES

RETURNING VETERANS

- ▶ Maryland returns six starters from a year ago and 19 overall letterwinners.
- ▶ Peyton Bernard, Emily Lenhard, Ava Morales, Taryn Raibon, Kelsey Smith, and Tahirah Turnage-Morales were all featured among the Starting XI last year. Turnage-Morales started all 19 matches, while Raibon started 18 in 2024.
- ▶ The one spot that will officially welcome a brand-new starter for the first time in two years will be at goalkeeper after Liz Beardsley started all 37 matches over her two years as a Terp.

THE NEWCOMERS

- ▶ Maryland's roster features just three freshmen for the 2025 season: goalkeeper Meredith Fisher, defender Mikayla Gray, and forward McKinley Heaven. Both Gray and Heaven were ranked three-star prospects for the Terps.
- ▶ Additionally, the Terps added a pair of transfers in goalkeeper Maya Cheeseboro (Boston College) and defender Alyssa Abramson (Kentucky/Syracuse).

OLIMPICO!

- ▶ Emily Lenhard got on the scoresheet last year in a big way during Maryland's 1-1 draw with James Madison on Aug. 25. Lenhard scored directly off a corner for the Terrapins in the 83rd minute for an Olimpico. The goal was the first of her collegiate career and came on her lone shot of the game.

MITCHELL LAYING DOWN THE LAW

- ▶ During the summer, Mia Mitchell took part in an internship program with law enforcement through the Maryland Made's InTERPship Academy. Mitchell, who is a criminal justice major, served as an intern for the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office in Lancaster, South Carolina.
- ▶ Her main focus was with the Violent Crimes Task Force, which investigates murders and other violent crimes. She also worked with the Crime Scene Investigations Unit.
- ▶ Mitchell described her role during the internship with UMTerps.com - "Whether it be on a closed crime scene or an active investigation, I watch investigators and learn how they work. On scenes, sometimes I am asked to track the evidence log, and on patrol, I may run license plates through the system to look for stolen vehicles. I talk to inmates when we go to jail, and I assist officers in serving warrants. I basically just do whatever I am asked to do."

LENHARD AND BELL NAMED TO UNITED STATES U-20 NATIONAL TEAM ROSTER

- ▶ Last March, Emily Lenhard and Kennedy Bell were named to the United States U-20 Women's National Team Training Camp roster. Maryland was one of only seven programs to have multiple players named to the U-20 national team roster and one of only two programs from the Big Ten. The training camp took place from March 31-April 7 at the Kansas City Current's University of Kansas Health System Training Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

BEARDSLEY SIGNS WITH NWSL'S HOUSTON DASH

- ▶ A mainstay between the pipes for the Terps last season, goalkeeper Liz Beardsley signed a professional contract with the Houston Dash of the NWSL in March.
- ▶ In her two-year career in College Park, Beardsley played and started in 37 matches and logged over 3,300 minutes of game action. Beardsley made 141 saves in her time at Maryland, which ranks as the 10th-most in program history. Beardsley set a career-high with 74 saves in 2024 and put up five shutouts. Beardsley had 11 shutouts in her time with the Terps, which are the ninth-most for a goalkeeper in program history. Beardsley had a career-high eight saves in three matches with the Terps, with the last coming against Northwestern on Sept. 24, 2024. Beardsley protected the net throughout her time with the Terps, making five or more saves in a game 13 times over her two years in College Park.

ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT TERPS

- ▶ Six Maryland women's soccer student-athletes earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District selection following the 2024 campaign.
- ▶ Liz Beardsley, Kennedy Bell, Halle Johnson, Ava Morales, Kelsey Smith, and Tahirah Turnage-Morales were each honored for their outstanding athletic and academic achievements. The CSC Academic All-District Teams recognizes the nation's top student-athletes annually for their performances on the field and in the classroom. Academic All-District honorees are considered for advancement to the CSC Academic All-America ballot. First-, second- and third-team Academic All-America honorees will be announced in early December.

HEAD COACH MICHAEL MARCHIANO

1-3-1 (.300) • 2nd Season (1st full)

Maryland alum and two-time National Champion, Michael Marchiano '09 was named the new head coach of the Maryland women's soccer program on December 10, 2024.

Marchiano served as the team's interim head coach since mid-October after returning to his alma mater in Nov. 2023 as an assistant coach with the women's program. Marchiano was a midfielder for the Terrapins men's soccer team from 2005-08 and was a member of both the 2005 and 2008 national championship teams. He was a two-time team captain.

Marchiano previously served as the head coach of the Drexel Dragons men's soccer team from 2020-22. In his first season as head coach, Marchiano guided the Dragons to a 6-3-2 record and their first conference tournament appearance in seven seasons. In his second season as head coach, Marchiano guided the Dragons to their second consecutive CAA tournament appearance, the first time the program had two consecutive postseason appearances since the 2012 and 2013 seasons. Marchiano helped lead Chris Donovan to become the program's second CAA Player of the Year in 2021, in addition to five All-CAA selections and an All-Region performer. Donovan was selected by the Columbus Crew in the MLS SuperDraft, becoming only the second player in program history to be drafted to the MLS.

Before becoming the head coach at Drexel, Marchiano spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Loyola University in Maryland for six seasons under head coach Steve Nichols. While at Loyola (MD), Marchiano was responsible for the day-to-day operations of training, scouting, and recruiting. Over his final four seasons with the Greyhounds, Marchiano helped lead the team to a 27-6-3 record in Patriot League matches. Loyola won or shared three straight regular-season titles from 2017-2019. During that historic stretch, the Greyhounds lost just five league matches over the course of three seasons. The team posted the biggest turnaround in Patriot League history, going from last place in 2015 (0-8-1) to second place in 2016 (6-1-2). In 2018 while an assistant at Loyola (MD), Marchiano was named one of the top assistant coaches in the country by TopDrawerSoccer.

The Greyhounds had a 41-23-7 record over Marchiano's last four seasons after compiling a 7-21-6 mark in his first two years. Loyola had won 10 or more matches in each of the last three seasons, the first time that has happened at the school since 2009, when the Greyhounds were a member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. Marchiano was also an integral part of the Loyola (MD) recruiting efforts. College Soccer News rated Loyola's 2020 class as the 13th-best recruiting class in the nation. It was the first time a Loyola recruiting class was ever ranked by the publication.

Over Marchiano's final four seasons, 32 players have earned All-Patriot League honors, including 15 first team selections and 12 second team picks. The Greyhounds have had the Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year and the Midfielder of the Year on three occasions each and have had three of the last four Patriot League Rookies of the Year. He assisted in the development of multiple All-Americans, a Scholar All-American and had two players selected in the 2020 MLS SuperDraft.

Marchiano was an assistant coach for two seasons at Army West Point. In those seasons, Marchiano helped the Black Knights go from a 4-10-3 record in 2012 to a 12-3-3 mark and a second-place finish in 2013, their best season since 1996. Marchiano also spent two seasons as an assistant at Maryland. During those two seasons in College Park, the Terrapins compiled a 34-9-3 and made back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Quarterfinals.

In his playing days, Marchiano featured in 59 games at Maryland from 2005-08 under head coach Sasho Cirovski. A midfielder, Marchiano's teams were 68-18-8 and won a pair of NCAA Championships in 2005 and 2008. A two-time team captain, he was awarded the team's Peter Lowry Award as a senior, an honor given to the team member who exemplifies academic excellence, leadership and distinguished citizenship on campus.

In addition to his work with the Terrapins, Marchiano is currently the Girls ECNL Technical Director with Pipeline SC in Maryland.

Marchiano's wife, Kelley, was also a member of the Terrapins Track & Field team. She holds multiple top-10 marks in program history including the tenth-fastest women's outdoor 800m time (2:10.09), the sixth-fastest time as a member of the 4x800m relay (8:54.45), and the tenth-fastest time as a member of the Sprint Medley Relay (3:57.19).

A USSF A licensed coach, Marchiano is a native of Bel Air, Maryland and graduated from the University of Maryland in 2009 with a bachelor's of arts degree in economics. Michael and Kelley have a daughter, Mila, and a son, Nico.
