

HARLON HILL TROPHY
All-time
History

1986 - 2015

30th Annual Harlon Hill Trophy

The Harlon Hill Trophy was created in 1986 as part of the move of the NCAA Division II Football Championship to the Shoals area of Northwest Alabama. The idea was to enhance the Division II Championship experience with other events surrounding the game that would recognize the division's student-athletes.

Now set to recognize its 30th winner, the Harlon Hill Trophy has grown in prestige over the last quarter century and is now among the most recognized awards in collegiate athletics.

The idea for the creation of the award came from the late Shoals National Championship Committee Chairman Grady Liles, and the initial proposal was produced by University of North Alabama Sports Information Director Jeff Hodges, who has served as the Chairman of the National Harlon Hill Award Committee for the last 29 years.

Since its creation, the Harlon Hill trophy has had a far-reaching impact on Division II football. There have been 591 different student-athletes nominated for the award since 1986, and those candidates have come from 155 different institutions. The national finalists for the Hill Trophy represent 94 different Division II schools and the 27 previous winners have come from 20 different institutions.

The sports information directors at the 168 Division II institutions should be thanked for embracing the award and supporting it for the last 30 years, as the SIDs nominate and then vote on the candidates.

The work of the local members of National Harlon Hill Award Committee has made it possible for the Hill Banquet to continue to be an important part of the annual Division II football experience. The hard work of numerous individuals has helped make the annual presentation possible, in particular Mike Curtis, Mike Goens and Don McBrayer.

Local sponsorship of the award has also been critical and has involved several companies over the last 29 years.

156 DII Schools Have Had a Candidate

The Hill Trophy has had a far-reaching impact on Division II football from coast-to-coast, as 156 different institutions have had a Hill Trophy candidate.

North Alabama and Texas A&M-Kingsville lead the way, with UNA having had a Hill Trophy candidate in 18 of the 30 years, while Kingsville has had 17.

From that 156 total, 100 different Division II schools have had a Finalist for the Hill Trophy.

607 All-time candidates

There have been 607 different student-athletes who have been candidates for the Harlon Hill Trophy since the award was created in 1986. Many of those players were candidates in more than one season.

While the names of the winners and many of the finalists are familiar ones, there are also some very familiar names among the other candidates who did not have a chance to come to Florence for the annual banquet.

Harlon Hill 1932-2013

HARLON HILL PASSES AWAY AT AGE 80

Harlon Hill, a former football All-American at the University of North Alabama, a National Football League Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player with the Chicago Bears and the namesake for the Division II College Football Player of the Year award, passed away on March 21, 2013. He was 80.

A native of Killen, Ala., Hill was born: May 4, 1932 and graduated from Lauderdale County High School and the University of North Alabama, then Florence State Teachers College, with a B.S. Degree in Education in 1955. He also earned a Masters Degree in Education from UNA in 1969.

He was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the 15th round (174th overall) of the 1954 NFL Draft and earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1954 after catching 45 passes for 1,124 yards and 12 touchdowns. In 1955 he became the first recipient of the Jim Thorpe Trophy as the NFL Most Valuable Player. In all he played nine seasons in the National Football League (1954-62) with the Chicago Bears, Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit Lions.

Following his professional football career he became a public school teacher and coach at Brooks High School in Killen, Ala., eventually becoming the school's principal.

In 1986 he became the namesake for the Harlon Hill Trophy, presented annually to the NCAA Division II College Football Player of the Year. The award has been presented for the last 27 years in December on the eve of the Division II Football Championship Game in Florence. Hill was inducted into the Lauderdale County Sports Hall of Fame, the University of North Alabama Athletic Hall of Fame, the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame and the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

More than 50 years after his playing career ended in Chicago, Hill's 4,616 receiving yards still rank second best in Bears history, as do his 40 career TD receptions. His 19 career 100-yard receiving games are still the most by any Bears receiver. His four receiving TDs in a game against the San Francisco 49ers on October 31, 1954 is tied for Bears record with Mike Dikta and his 214 receiving yards in that game is still a Bears record.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1953- As a senior at Florence State Teachers College (now the University of North Alabama) in 1953, Hill caught only 12 passes for a ground-oriented, single-wing attack. Hill received small college All-America acclaim as an end and was later drafted by the Chicago Bears in the 15th round of the National Football League Draft. The Bears felt they could afford to wait until the late rounds to draft Hill because they knew very little about him the other NFL clubs knew even less.

1954- As a rookie for the Chicago Bears, Hill caught 45 passes for 1,124 yards and 12 touchdowns to lead the club in all three categories. His performance also helped take the Bears from a 3-8-1 record in 1953 to an 8-4 mark in 1954. On Oct. 31 in San Francisco, Ca., Hill caught seven passes from quarterback George Blanda for 214 yards and four touchdowns in a 31-27 win over the 49ers. Hill's fourth TD catch of the day was a game-winning 66 yarder with only 33 seconds left in the game. The four TDs in a game still stand as a Bear's club record. At the conclusion of the season, Hill was selected All-Pro, played in the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles for the West squad that won 26-19, and was chosen as the National Football League Rookie of the Year.

1955- In his second NFL season, Hill again led the Bears with 42 catches for the 789 yards and nine touchdowns and became the first recipient of the Jim Thorpe Trophy - symbolic of the National Football League's Most Valuable Player. He also captained the West in a 31-30 Pro Bowl victory and was again named All-Pro.

1956- With 47 catches for 1,128 yards and 11 touchdowns in 1956, Hill helped Chicago to a 9-2-1 record and a spot in the NFL Championship Game against the New York Giants - where they were defeated 47-7. Hill was selected All-Pro for the third consecutive season and made his third straight Pro Bowl appearance as the West won again, 19-10.

1958- A severe ankle injury blunted the speed which had made Hill the NFL's most feared deep receiver and eventually prompted a shift to defensive back.

at 24.98 and career touchdowns with 40.

How the Winner is Selected

NOMINATIONS

The nomination of players for the Harlon Hill Trophy and the voting on these players is conducted by the sports information directors at the 168 NCAA Division II schools which compete in football.

Schools may nominate any player who has distinguished himself as being among the best players in the NCAA Division II during the current season.

To insure national representation on the voting for the Harlon Hill Trophy balloting, voting is first conducted on regional basis within the four NCAA regions.

Player nominations from the four Division II Super Regionals are sent to the Hill Voting Coordinator. They are then broken down into regions and are sent to the National Advisory Committee for review.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE MAKES THE FIRST CUT

The Advisory Committee is comprised of SIDs from each region who have a long-time involvement with the Hill Trophy and who have been through the process before.

The chairman of each regional advisory committee polls his members to determine who the top six players are from their respective region. Six players advance to the regional ballot.

The regional selections are then forwarded to the Voting Coordinator, who updates biographies on each nominee and compiles the regional ballot.

REGIONAL VOTING

The players who make the regional ballots are first voted on by the sports information directors in their region. These players are CANDIDATES for the award. SIDs vote on a first, second and third basis, with three points for a first-place vote, two points for a second-place vote and one point for a third-place vote. All votes are returned to the voting coordinator, who counts the votes. The top two selected in each region then move on to the national ballot.

NATIONAL VOTING

The eight players selected for the national ballot are then voted on nationwide by all sports information directors at Division II football-playing institutions. These eight are the FINALISTS for the award. Statistics and biographies are again updated and are mailed nationwide. SIDs again vote on a first, second and third basis.

The final vote count is compiled and kept secret until the presentation banquet. The top three vote-getters from that final voting are then invited to the Shoals for the Championship week activities. The voting is already completed at this point, but no vote totals are released until the actual presentation banquet. These players only know that they have finished among the top three, and the other five finalists must wait until the banquet to see where they placed.

A total of 38 players were candidates for the 2015 Hill Trophy, with nine advancing to the national ballot.

HILL TROPHY AND A NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

There have been five Harlon Hill Trophy winners who have then gone out and helped lead their team to an NCAA Division II National Championship the next day.

The first was the initial Hill winner, Jeff Bentrin of North Dakota State, who led the Bison to a 27-7 win over South Dakota in the Championship Game. Bentrin rushed for 111 yards and two TDs in that game.

In 1990 another NDSU quarterback, Chris Simdorn, won the Hill Trophy and then led the Bison to a 51-11 win over Indiana, Pa. in the title game. Simdorn rushed for 145 yards and two scores and threw three more TD passes in the game.

The following year, 1991, Pittsburg State's Ronnie West became the first receiver to win the Hill Trophy and also led the Gorillas to a 23-6 win over Jacksonville State in the Championship Game. West had eight catches for 129 yards and a touchdown against JSU.

Ronald McKinnon became the first defensive player to win the Hill Trophy in 1995 and also helped lead North Alabama to a third straight national championship the following day with a 27-7 win over Pittsburg State. McKinnon had 14 tackles in the game and recovered a fumble as UNA held the nation's top rushing team to just 99 yards on the ground and seven points.

The last player to celebrate the ultimate Division II football weekend was Grand Valley State quarterback Curt Anes in 2002. After winning the Hill Trophy, Anes led Grand Valley State to a 31-24 win over Valdosta State in the Championship Game, throwing for 361 yards and three TDs.

HILL TROPHY BUT LOST IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Ronald Moore won the Hill Trophy in 1992 but his Pittsburg State team lost in the Championship Game to Jacksonville State, 17-13. Moore ran the opening kickoff of that game back for a touchdown but it wasn't enough for the Gorillas to repeat as national champions.
