THE LION KINGS...

The UNA Class of 1995 Could Stand Alone in Division II History

With two national championships and a 34-5-1 record already in hand, the University of North Alabama Lions Class of 1995 could take its place as the all-time "Kings" of Division II football with an unprecedented third straight national title. With 19 starters and more than 40 lettermen returning for the two-time defending champions, the final chapter of this group's collective playing careers could be one for the history books.

UNA IS THIRD TO REPEAT AS CHAMPION IN DIVISION II

UNA is one of just three schools to win back-to-back NCAA Division II Football Championships. The first was Southwest Texas State in 1981-82 and the other was North Dakota State in 1985-86.

REPEATS ARE UNUSUAL IN ALL DIVISIONS

There have been very few back-to-back national champions in any division of football. It has been done six times in the polls in Division I, twice in I-AA, three times in Division II and by one school in Division III

DIVISION II NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1993, 1994

BACK-TO-BACK . . . THE 1994 CHAMPIONSHIP

North Alabama Successfully DEFENDS its Division II National Championship

Offense won the University of North Alabama its first NCAA Division II football national championship in 1993, and so it was only appropriate that the Lions title defense should fall upon the Defense.

In 1993, runningbacks Tyrone Rush and Brian Satterfield were featured on the cover of the team's media guide, proclaiming "Double Trouble" for the Lions opponents. The Lions then went 14-0 behind an offense that shattered virtually every school and conference rushing and scoring record.

And even in the Division II National Championship Game, it was a 27-point fourth quarter by the Lions offense, including a touchdown with just 10 seconds left against Indiana-Pennsylvania, that gave UNA its first football national championship.

In 1994, linebackers Ronald McKinnon and Keith Humphrey scowled on the cover of the Lions pre-season media guide as they DEFENDED the 1993 championship trophy, making it clear to any challengers that the Lions were intent on retaining the championship.

And defend they did.

While UNA's triple-option offense rolled up record numbers through the first four games, the Lions Purple Swarm defense looked untouchable, posting three shutouts in the first four games.

By season's end, UNA was second in the nation in two defensive categories, fourth in two others, and ready to defend its championship in the Division II playoffs.

With narrow wins over Carson-Newman and Valdosta State in the first two rounds and a romp of North Dakota in the semifinals, only Texas A&M-Kingsville stood between the Lions and a share of Division II history.

The Lions found themselves in a similar situation as in 1993. Clinging to a 16-10 lead late in the fourth quarter over Texas A&M-Kingsville, the UNA defense had its back to the wall. The Javelinas were driving and chewing up the clock.

Then, almost as scripted, with just 2:22 left in the game, McKinnon stepped in front of a Wilson Scott pass at the UNA 18-yard line, tipped it twice, got it under control, and raced 27 yards in the other direction.

Another interception by Paul Sanders in the final minute closed the door for good on the Javelinas and the Lions had their second straight championship.

Not only did North Alabama become just the third school in NCAA Division II history to win back-to-back national championships, joining Southwest Texas State (1981-82) and North Dakota State (1985-86), but also became the first school in the history of NCAA competition on any level to have won two national championships in both football and basketball. UNA claimed Division II basketball titles in 1979 and 1991.

The Lions finished 13-1 in 1994, with the only loss coming on the road to eventual I-AA national champion Youngstown State, 17-14.

UNA's record run pushed the school's winning streak against Division II opponents to 27 straight and the Lions ranked No. 1 nationally in the Division II poll for the entire season, running that streak to 17 consecutive polls in the top spot.

The Lions became just the third school to win back-to-back Gulf South Conference titles, and the team would produce an unprecedented 12 first-team All-GSC selections and seven All-Americans, with five players from the Purple Swarm named to All-America teams.

UNA opened the season with a 35-0 romp of Fort Valley State on the road, pounding the Wildcats with 618 total yards and 494 yards rushing. Kenyatta Jones rushed for 161 yards and scored three touchdowns, while the Lion defense allowed just 41 yards rushing on 31 attempts and surrendered just 87 total yards.

Game two was a similar story. Playing at home at Braly Stadium for the first time since winning the 1993 championship, and in front of a sell-out crowd of more than 14,000, UNA raced to a 58-0 lead over Alabama A&M with 7:22 left in the third quarter. The Lion offense rushed for 333 yards and had 395 total yards, but the defense caused four turnovers and held the Bulldogs to a minus 19 yards rushing. A&M scored twice late in the game on the Lions reserves, but UNA was 2-0 with a 58-13 win.

The Lions opened the Gulf South Conference portion of their schedule the following week at home against Mississippi College and ripped the Choctaws 24-0 and gave up just 58 yards rushing.

The next week at Delta State UNA posted a 38-0 win to go 4-0, giving up just 51 yards rushing. Jones rushed for 106 yards and scored twice for the Lions.

An open date the following week gave the Lions time to prepare for the defending I-AA national champion Penguins of Youngstown State.

It didn't start well for the Lions, as Youngstown State took its opening possession and marched 72 yards in seven plays to score. But that would be it for the Penguins until the fourth quarter. The UNA defense, behind the play of McKinnon and tackle Marcus Keyes, closed the door on YSU, and UNA finally tied the game late in the third quarter on a one-yard run by quarterback Cody Gross.

The Penguins went on top again early in the final period, but Gross responded with a 62-yard scoring pass to Michael Edwards to make it 14-14 with 12:59 left. The outcome was finally decided when Paul Massaro booted a 30-yard field goal with 7:33 left to give Youngstown a 17-14 lead. UNA marched back to midfield but was stopped on a fourth down try, and the Lions 18-game winning streak had stopped.

With the impressive showing against a I-AA power, UNA held its spot atop the Division II poll, however, and the quest for the Division II title continued.

First UNA romped Henderson State 41-7 on the road, then the Lions turned their attention to a powerful Central Arkansas squad for Homecoming. Everything went UNA's way in the first half as the Lions rolled to a 28-0 lead behind 112 yards rushing and 135 yards passing from Gross. But the offense failed to gain a first down in the second half and the Bears rallied for 21 points before UNA's defense closed the door on a 28-21 win.

A 50-7 rout of Livingston set up the much anticipated matchup between the No. 1 ranked Lions and the No. 2 ranked Blazers of Valdosta State. UNA brought in the premier defense in Division II to meet the most explosive offense, led by eventual Harlon Hill Trophy winner Chris Hatcher. But this one was a mismatch as UNA crushed the Blazers on a soggy field, rolling to 31-7 and 38-13 leads before settling for a 38-21 win. Hatcher and the Blazers spent most of the night on the run from UNA's Purple Swarm, as the Lions intercepted four passes, recovered two fumbles, recorded three sacks and had five tackles for loss.

A 37-25 win over West Georgia closed the regular season at 9-1, and UNA turned its attention to the Division II playoffs.

Carson-Newman was the Lions opening round opponent for the second straight year, and the Eagles and Lions battled to a scoreless tie at halftime. UNA broke on top 10-0 in the second half on a Jamie Stoddard field goal and a Jarius Hayes end-around for a touchdown, but Carson-Newman struck for two quick touchdowns and held a 13-10 lead with 11:20 left in the game. The Jamie Stoddard's 17-yard field goal against Valdosta State gave UNA a 27-24 double-overtime win.

Lions drove down to the Eagles 16-yard line, where they faced a fourth-and-six call. Stoddard booted a 33-yard field goal to tie the game, but the Eagles were offside, and UNA's Bobby Wallace decided to take the points off the scoreboard and go for a fourth-and-one at the 11. Senior Anthony Brooks, who missed the 1993 championship drive with a knee injury, burst through the left side and went 11 yards for a game-winning touchdown as UNA downed the Eagles 17-13, and advanced to the second round.

The Valdosta State Blazers were primed for their second chance at the Lions, but the game appeared headed in the same direction as UNA held a 17-3 lead in the fourth quarter. VSU rallied for two scores and suddenly the two GSC rivals were looking at the first overtime game in either's football history. Both scored touchdowns on their opening possessions in the extra period to make it 24-24, but Keyes blocked a Blazer field goal attempt in the second overtime, setting the stage for a game-winning 17-yard field goal by Stoddard for a 27-24 Lion win.

North Central Conference champion North Dakota was no match for UNA in the semifinal as the Lion's Michael Edwards returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown and UNA built a 35-0 lead before allowing a late score.

In the championship game, UNA played on a wet field for the fourth time, but Kenyatta Jones didn't slip in the first quarter when he went 90 yards for a touchdown on the longest run in championship game history.

A Stoddard field goal and a Gross one-yard run made it 16-3 at the half, but again the offense sputtered in the second half, and it was up to the Purple Swarm to hold the line on the national title - and it did, once again.

Closing the season with 159 tackles, McKinnon became one of the most honored athletes in school history. He was a first-team All-America selection by the Associated Press, the American Football Coaches Association, the Football Gazette, the Division II Sports Information Directors and C.M. Frank. He was also first-team All-GSC for the third straight year, named GSC Defensive Player of the Year, and was selected as Division II National Player of the Year by CNN's College Football Preview show, as selected by Danny Sheridan.

Joining McKinnon on the various All-America teams were linebacker Keith Humphrey, defensive linemen Israel Raybon, Marcus Hunter and Marcus Keyes, and offensive linemen Kin Taylor and Jon Thompson.

Stoddard, punter Lee Morris, defensive back Gerald Smith, tight end Jarius Hayes and split end Michael Edwards were also first-team All-GSC picks.

Head coach Bobby Wallace was named Division II National Coach of the Year by ABC and Chevrolet, the American Football Coaches Association, the Football Gazette and College Sports magazine.

Cody Gross ran his record as a starter to 28-2, with two NCAA Division II National Championships

BACK-TO-BACK . . . THE 1993 CHAMPIONSHIP

UNA's Perfect Season Earns 1993 National Championship

Cody Gross stood on the sideline, apparently done for the day. His helmet was under his arm as back-up quarterback Cale Manley began hurriedly loosening up.

The University of North Alabama offense that had dominated opponents all season had lost all momentum in the second half and the Lions trailed in the 1993 NCAA Division II Championship Game 24-14 in the fourth quarter.

But suddenly a blocked punt by Israel Raybon gave UNA new life and some 11 minutes later, Gross would be lying face down in the end zone after capping a 27-point fourth quarter rally that netted the Lions a 41-34 win and the Division II National Championship.

With Raybon giving the Lions a spark, Gross was again given the chance to bring the Lions back, and did he ever.

First he fired a 24-yard touchdown pass to Demetrea Shelton to make it 24-20, then directed a 66-yard drive that ended with a seven-yard Satterfield TD run that gave UNA a 27-24 lead.

Another 78-yard touchdown drive put UNA up by 10 points but Indiana-Pennsylvania rallied to tie the game at 34-34 with just 45 seconds left.

But Gross again met the challenge, taking UNA 69 yards in six plays.

First he carried on an option run to put UNA into IUP territory, then he passed to Shelton to the Indians one-yard-line.

A one-yard dive by Gross with just 10 seconds left gave UNA the win and its first football national crown.

It was the perfect end to the first perfect season in school and Gulf South Conference history.

In all UNA would break or tie 85 school and Gulf South Conference records.

The Lion players would receive 54 individual awards, including four players who were selected first-team All-American.

It was an amazing season that saw UNA score on its first play from scrimmage, and its last.

It was a season of unprecedented accomplishments for the Lions that followed a solid run at the national championship that fell short in 1992.

UNA left little doubts about its intentions in 1993 when fullback Brian Satterfield raced 48-yards on the teams first play from scrimmage of the season and scored against Fort Valley State.

The floodgates opened and UNA romped the Wildcats 36-14 behind Satterfield's 243 yards that included a school-record 97-yard TD run.

The next week at Alabama A&M, the UNA offense again set the tone, scoring seven touchdowns in a 49-7 rout of the Bulldogs.

And with more than 1,000 total yards in the team's first two games of the season, the UNA offense was just getting warmed up as it churned out 646 yards in week three in a 58-17 mauling of the Delta State Statesmen.

All-American tailback Tyrone Rush, who would finish as the runner-up for the Harlon Hill Trophy as the Division II

Player of the Year, surpassed Satterfield's two-week-old record with 248 yards and scored three touchdowns.

That set up the first major test of the season as the Lions traveled to Portland, Ore., for a national headliner with the Portland State Vikings.

UNA entered the game ranked No. 2 nationally behind North Dakota State, while Portland State was tied for third with New Haven.

The Bison of NDSU lost to Mankato State and by kickoff time on the west coast, everyone realized the Lion-Viking match-up was for the nation's number one ranking.

Portland State struck quickly behind star quarterback Bill Matos, racing to a 14-0 lead. The Lions managed a 10-play, 67-yard drive to make it 14-7, but PSU scored again to go ahead 20-7.

Another PSU score early in the third quarter made it 26-14 and the Lions chances appeared slim. But the defense began to stiffen and Kenyatta Jones, playing in place of an injured Satterfield, began to take charge of the offense.

After UNA rallied for 10 points in the third quarter to make it 26-24, a three-yard TD run by Rush gave the Lions their first lead at 30-26 with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

A pair of touchdowns by Jones on runs of 55 and 17 yards made it 44-26 before UNA allowed a late score and settled for a 44-32 win.

The following Monday UNA claimed the nation's top ranking for the first time in the history of the program and would hold that spot for the remainder of the season.

Mississippi College was the first to challenge UNA's No. 1 ranking and the Choctaws battled to take a 28-27 lead over UNA with 12:20 left in the game in Clinton, Miss.

A 55-yard TD run Jones and a 20-yard Jamie Stoddard field goal brought the Lions back and gave UNA a 38-28 win to go 5-0 overall and 2-0 in the GSC.

A 17-0 win over Henderson State and a 27-10 win on the road at Central Arkansas on the Bears' Homecoming gave UNA a 7-0 record entering its own Homecoming against Livingston.

That game would again shatter numerous school records as UNA rolled to a 65-15 win with 565 yards of offense.

The Lions clinched the GSC title for the first time since 1985 the following week at Valdosta State as the UNA defense picked off five Chris Hatcher passes and helped pave the way for 21 second half points as UNA won 31-21 on the Blazers home field.

A 41-14 win at home over West Georgia closed the first perfect regular-season in school history and, by virtue of UNA's No. 1 ranking, guaranteed the Lions the home field for every Division II playoff game.

In the opening round, South Atlantic Conference champion Carson-Newman couldn't meet the challenge as UNA raced to a 21-0 lead and settled for a 38-28 win over the Eagles with 455 yards of offense.

In the quarterfinal round, unbeaten Hampton hoped to avenge a home playoff loss to UNA in 1992 by downing the Lions on their home field. But the Pirates, although hanging close in the first half, were no match for the Lions as UNA recorded a 45-20 win and moved on the semifinals.

The Lions gained 570 yards offensively and totally stifled Hampton in the final two periods.

Needing just one more win to reach the Division II Championship Game in had hosted since 1986, UNA faced a Texas A&M-Kingsville team that started the season 0-5 before winning seven straight. The Javelinas continued to ride that momentum against UNA, blocking a punt for a touchdown just before halftime and adding three second half touchdowns to make it 27-25 with just 2:42 left in the game.

A successful two-point conversion would likely send the game to overtime, but Louis Fikes halfback pass fell incomplete in the end zone and UNA marched on to the title game.

The championship week in the Shoals area was a true extravaganza as the community turned out in full force to urge the Lions on.

An overflow crowd of almost 16,000 was in Braly Stadium for the title game and an additional national television audience watched on ESPN.

When it was all over, Doug Porter, the chairman of the Division II Football Committee said "Division II football will never be the same again. This day has taken NCAA Division II football to a level it has never seen before. What a great feeling it is to be a part of something like this.

"This game had all the elements of a great championship," Porter added. "The stadium was sold out, the atmosphere and enthusiasm was great and the best two teams in the country put on a great show."

Numerous awards followed for the Lions, with head coach Bobby Wallace selected as NCAA Division II Coach of the Year by Kodak, Chevrolet and the Football Gazette.

Rush, linebacker Ronald McKinnon, offensive linemen Jeff Surbaugh and defensive end Jeff Redcross were all selected first-team All-American, with Redcross chosen as the GSC Defensive Player of the Year and Rush being named the league's Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season.

1995 FOOTBALL PREVIEW

With 19 returning starters and 45 lettermen back from its 1994 NCAA Division II National Championship team, the University of North Alabama should be the odds-on favorite to make Division II history in 1995 with a third straight national championship.

UNA finished 13-1 in 1994, with its only loss coming on the road to I-AA national champion Youngstown State, 17-14, and will carry a 27-game winning streak against Division II opponents into 1995.

In addition, UNA has ranked as the No. 1 team in Division II in the last 17 consecutive polls, or since October of 1993.

The Lions return 10 starters on its Purple Swarm defense that dominated opponents last season. Included in that group are four All-Americans and five All-Gulf South Conference performers.

Offensively, an extremely experienced offensive line that includes a trio of four-year starters will lead the way, along with senior quarterback Cody Gross (5-9, 166).

Gross has directed UNA to a 28-2 record as a starter and has a 9-1 record in post-season play, scoring 12 touchdowns in the NCAA playoffs.

The few question marks for UNA will be at running back and punter, and the Lions coaches will need to find depth at some positions early.

The defense provides few unanswered questions, however.

Harlon Hill Trophy candidate Ronald McKinnon (6-0, 235) heads a linebacking corp that is one of the best in college football. McKinnon made 159 tackles last season and should become UNA's first three-time All-American in 1995. Also returning to the defense are All-American linebacker Keith Humphrey (6-2, 228) and All-American linemen Marcus Keyes (6-3, 310) and Israel Raybon (6-6, 268).

UNA, which had only one senior on its entire defensive unit a year ago, finished second nationally in total defense and pass efficiency defense last season and was fourth in scoring defense and rushing defense. The Lions allowed just 78 yards rushing, 198 total yards and 11 points per game in 1994, while shutting out three opponents and holding six to a touchdown or less.

With all three starters back at linebacker, all four starters back in the secondary and three starters back on the defensive front, the Lions should be solid defensively.

On offense, UNA should again have plenty of weapons, lead by a triple-option ground attack that has led the GSC in rushing three straight years, and a solid passing attack directed by Gross and a stellar group of receivers.

Senior quarterback Cody Gross has a 28-2 record as a starter at UNA.

UNA's offensive line returns five starters, including All-American guard Jon Thompson and All-GSC tight end Jarius Hayes (6-3, 246). The Lions also have back All-GSC split end Michael Edwards (5-10, 188), who made 48 catches for 955 yards and eight touchdowns last season.

A.J. Lamar (6-0, 212) and Eric Groom (5-6, 174) are the lone experienced running backs returning, but they should combine with transfer Jermaine Roberts (5-7, 180) to form a solid ground attack.

Punting will be a question mark, with two-year starter and All-Gulf South Conference selection Lee Morris passing up his senior year of eligibility to enroll in dental school. The place-kicking duties will fall on junior Jamie Stoddard, who is himself a two-time All-GSC pick.

QUARTERBACK

Starters Returning: 1
Lettermen Returning: 3
Lettermen Lost: 0

There is no question that the Lions will look to Gross for leadership offensively, and he has been there to provide it for the last three years.

Gross has held the starting quarterback's job since the 1992 NCAA playoff opener against Hampton and has crafted a 28-2 record as a starter that includes a 9-1 record in NCAA playoff competition. He has directed the Lions to back-to-back Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II championships.

Senior Cale Manley (5-10, 175), who also saw some starting action in 1992, has played the back-up role each of the last two seasons and put up some impressive numbers.

Gross threw for 1,050 yards and five touchdowns and rushed for 638 yards and 12 touchdowns last season. For his career, he has rushed for 28 TDs and passed for 17 and accounted for 4,067 total yards.

Manley threw for 330 yards and seven touchdowns last season and added 178 yards rushing. Charles Hogan (5-7, 168) has also seen limited duty as a back-up.

RUNNING BACKS

Starters Returning: 1
Lettermen Returning: 4
Lettermen Lost: 5

The backfield will be one of the Lions' few question marks. Senior Eric Groom is a returning starter at slot back, and junior A.J. Lamar will move into the starting fullback slot after gaining 434 yards and scoring seven touchdowns last season as a back-up to Anthony Brooks.

Junior college transfer Jermaine Roberts earned the starting tailback job in the spring and will be counted on to carry much of the load.

Stacy Garrett (5-11, 180) should also be in contention for playing time at tailback.

1995 FOOTBALL PREVIEW

RECEIVERS/TIGHT ENDS

Starters Returning: 2
Lettermen Returning: 5
Lettermen Lost: 2

While UNA's ground attack has chewed up opponents over the last three seasons and gained the majority of the attention for the Lions success, a group of extremely talented receivers has helped make that success possible.

All-Gulf South Conference selections Michael Edwards and Jarius Hayes headline a receiving corp that is among the best in the country. Edwards caught 48 passes for a school record 955 yards last season and eight touchdowns. Hayes added seven catches at his tight end spot, and is a devastating blocker in UNA's triple-option scheme.

Also returning is UNA's leading receiver from 1994, Demetrea Shelton (6-1, 160), who made 31 catches for 596 yards and six touchdowns as a freshman in 1993.

Brad Pierce (6-3, 255) and Ashley Ingram (5-11, 220), will back-up Hayes at tight end.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 4
Lettermen Returning: 9
Lettermen Lost: 4

The Lions offensive line should be as talented and experienced as any in Division II. The nine returning lettermen include six seniors, and the returnees have earned 19 letters between them. Jon Thompson (6-1, 253) and Michael Williams (6-0, 262) are slated to start for their fourth consecutive seasons, while Willie Jones (6-3, 286) and Eddie Evans (5-11, 226) already have two years of starting experience. UNA has led the Gulf South Conference in rushing three straight years and the front line has paved the way for much of that success.

Thompson, who was a second-team All-GSC pick as a freshman, could become one of just 29 players in the 24-year history of the GSC to be selected either first or second-team All-GSC four straight years. He has also been named to numerous All-America teams over the last two years.

Scott Basden (6-0, 255) started for the Lions as well in 1992, missed the 1993 season with an injury and played a back-up role last season.

In addition to the returning starters, UNA can also count on experienced backups in Josh Eads (6-4, 245), Thomas Moore (6-0, 300), Shane Stearns (6-0, 222) and Joe Washington (6-2, 312).

All-American linebackers Ronald McKinnon (44) and Keith Humphrey (42) lead UNA's Purple Swarm defensive attack.

LINEBACKERS

Starters Returning: 3
Lettermen Returning: 7
Lettermen Lost: 0

All three starters return at linebacker for the Lions, with All-Americans McKinnon and Humphrey leading the way. But also back are two-year starter Sam Graham (5-9, 197), who made 48 tackles last season, and starter Paul Sanders (6-0, 224), who began 1994 on the defensive line and moved to linebacker after breaking his hand. He finished with 96 tackles.

In all, the Lions seven returning linebackers made 465 tackles last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 3
Lettermen Returning: 8
Lettermen Lost: 1

The loss of All-American defensive end Marcus Hunter - the lone senior on UNA's 1994 defensive unit, should be covered by the Lions returning corp on the defensive front. That group includes All-Americans Keyes (6-3, 310) and Raybon (6-6, 268), and GSC Freshman of the Year Reginald Ruffin (5-9, 226). Raybon will move to end from the tackle spot he played last season, and senior Charles Duckworth (6-0, 250) will anchor the other interior line position, beside Keyes. Raybon and Keyes are both considered as National Football League draft choices for 1995 as they hope to again dominate the Lions opponents.

SECONDARY

Starters Returning: 4
Lettermen Returning: 7
Lettermen Lost: 1

The secondary should be extremely solid, with all four starters returning from last season. Safeties Edgar Parnell (6-2, 204) and Zack Phillips (5-8, 160) and cornerbacks David Herring (5-9, 162) and Gerald Smith (5-7, 160) helped UNA finish second nationally in passing efficiency defense last season, allowing just 122 yards passing per game, while picking off 21 passes.

Sophomore Tyrone Bell (6-2, 198), who missed part of last season with appendicitis, took over one of the starting cornerback slots in the spring, and Earl Mack (5-9, 175) and Kenny Loftin (6-0, 188) should provide some experienced depth. Loftin was UNA's leading tackler in 1991 but has been out of school for the past three seasons.

KICKERS

Starters Returning: 1
Lettermen Returning: 2
Lettermen Lost: 1

Two-time All-GSC kicker Jamie Stoddard is back after scoring 182 points over the last two seasons, hitting 113-of-123 extra-points and 23-of-33 field goal attempts.

Senior Chris Thornton, who has kicked off for the Lions for each of the last two seasons, is also back and should again handle the kickoff duties.

The Lions will have to find a punter to replace two-time All-GSC selection Lee Morris, who passed up his senior season of eligibility to enroll in dental school at the University of Alabama-Birmingham.

HEAD COACH BOBBY WALLACE

In seven seasons at the University of North Alabama, Bobby Wallace has taken the Lions' football program through a major rebuilding process and placed it at the top of the NCAA Division II.

Over the last two years, Wallace has taken UNA to a combined 27-1 record and back-to-back Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II National Championships, making UNA just the third school in the 22-year history of the Division II championship to win back-to-back national titles.

In 1993, Wallace led UNA to the first perfect season in school and Gulf South Conference history and claimed the NCAA Division II National Championship with a 14-0 record and a 41-34 championship game win over Indiana-PA.

It was the first football national championship in the 45-year history of the Lion program, with the team smashing more than 70 school and conference records in the process. And although it was the GSC's fifth Division II football championship, UNA became the first school in the league's 22-year history to post a perfect record.

For his efforts, Wallace was named Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year and Kodak Region 3 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

He was later named NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year by Kodak, Chevrolet and the Football Gazette, and received the Sington Trophy.

In 1994, Wallace led UNA to a 13-1 record that included a 16-10 win over Texas A&M-Kingsville in the championship game. He was also named GSC Coach of the Year for the second straight year, as well as National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, Chevrolet and ABC, the Football Gazette and College Sports magazines.

In fact, Wallace has taken four of his last five Lion squads to the NCAA playoffs and now has a 53-28-1 record at UNA.

Entering the 1995 season, Wallace's club will carry numerous streaks, including a 27-game winning streak against NCAA Division II opponents, a 17-game winning streak at Baly Stadium, a 14-game Gulf South Conference winning streak, a 13-game winning streak against nationally ranked Division II opponents, a nine-game winning streak overall and an eight-game winning streak in the playoffs.

Having lost more than 50 players from the program prior to beginning the 1988 season, Wallace and the Lions fought to a 2-8 finish. The majority of that squad returned in 1989 to go 6-5, losing two games in the final seconds.

In 1990 UNA took the next step, finishing 8-3 and advancing to the first round of the Division II playoffs, while finishing second in the Gulf South Conference.

In 1991 the Lions suffered through a disappointing 3-7 campaign but wasted little time getting back on track as they went 7-4-1 in 1992 and reached the quarterfinal round of the Division II playoffs before dropping a 14-12 decision to the eventual national champion.

Wallace became the fifth head football coach in school history on December 15, 1987, at the conclusion of a nationwide search.

Although the move to UNA presented Wallace with his first head coaching position, he brought impressive credentials from 12 years as an assistant coach on the collegiate level in some of the nation's premier programs.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Wallace was a multi-sport athlete at Callaway High School, lettering three years each in football, basketball, baseball and track. He also earned prep All-America honors before enrolling at Mississippi State University.

After lettering three years in football at MSU under Bob Tyler, Wallace earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education in 1976 and stayed the following year to serve the Bulldogs as a graduate assistant coach.

In July of 1977, Wallace joined the staff of Pat Dye of East Carolina University and would coach under Dye for the next eight years.

Wallace coached defensive backs at East Carolina from 1977-79, helping lead the team to an Independence Bowl championship in 1978.

In January of 1980, Wallace went to the University of Wyoming to serve on Dye's staff there and again coached the defensive secondary.

In 1981, Wallace went to Auburn University and coached defensive backs there until 1985. During that time the Tigers won the Southeastern Conference championship in 1983 and won bowl championships in 1982 (Tangerine), 1983 (Sugar) and 1984 (Liberty).

Wallace also recruited eventual Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson to Auburn.

In 1986, Wallace returned to his alma mater to serve as defensive coordinator under Rocky Felker at Mississippi State and then moved to the University of Illinois in 1987 to coach the defensive secondary under Mike White.

Wallace then joined the head coaching ranks when he accepted the position at North Alabama.

While at UNA, Wallace has produced 10 All-Americans, 37 first-team All-Gulf South Conference selections and more than a dozen Academic All-GSC picks.

Assistant Coach

Defensive Coordinator

Coaching Experience: Bill Hyde rejoined the UNA staff as defensive coordinator in 1992 after spending three years as defensive coordinator at Valdosta State University.

Hyde was the architect of some of the premier defensive units in UNA and Gulf South Conference history in his first stint with the Lions from 1977-87. His units led the GSC in scoring defense for five consecutive seasons from 1981-85 and led the league in all four defensive categories in 1985 as the Lions advanced to the NCAA Division II National Championship Game. In his first 11 years at UNA, Hyde's defensive units finished first in the GSC in total defense five times.

In 1992, a UNA defense which had finished near the bottom of the GSC in virtually every category in 1991 rebounded to again lead the league in both scoring defense and total defense - the sixth time for each, with all coming under Hyde's direction.

In 1993 the Lions defense led the GSC again in scoring defense and in rushing defense, and last season's Purple Swarm defense led the GSC in rushing defense, pass defense and total defense and was in the top four nationally in all four defensive categories.

Since his return to UNA, the Lions have a 34-4-1 record and have won two NCAA Division II National Championships.

In his 13 seasons at UNA, Hyde has coached teams with a combined 116-40-7 record and the Lions have won 23 league statistical championships.

He began his coaching career at Samford University, his alma mater, in 1962. He worked with receivers, defensive ends and linebackers and directed the defense which helped the Bulldogs win the Division III National Championship in 1971.

After Samford dropped football in 1973, he went to Delta State as defensive coordinator for four seasons before coming to UNA in 1976.

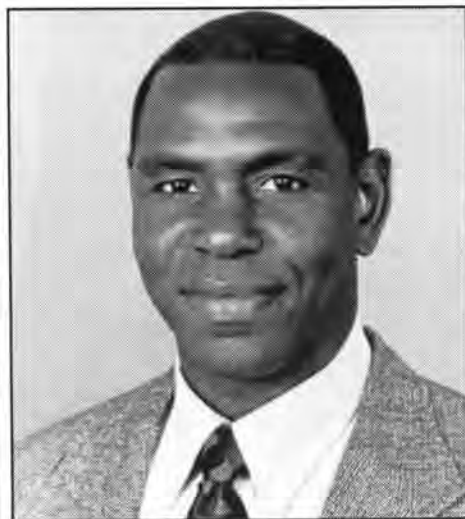

Following his departure from UNA in 1987, Hyde became head coach at Red Bay High School and led the Tigers to a 7-4 record and a state playoff appearance for the first time in 12 years. He was named Alabama's AAA Coach of the Year.

While at Valdosta State as defensive coordinator from 1989-91, his units set school records for fewest passing yards allowed and fewest total yards allowed.

Playing Experience: An outstanding quarterback during his playing days at Haleyville High School, he played two years of college football at Itawamba Junior College in Fulton, Miss.

Education: Received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in Education from Samford University.

Personal: 55 years old. Born on October 7, 1939. Wife's name is Yvonne.

WILLIE SLATER

Assistant Coach

Offensive Coordinator

Coaching Experience: Slater joined the UNA staff at the end of July 1992 to take control of the offense and directed a new option attack that season that led the Gulf South Conference in rushing and set a school record at 298.8 yards per game. Those numbers helped the Lions reach the NCAA Division II playoffs for the fifth time in school history, and it marked Slater's fourth playoff team in Division II.

In 1993 his offensive unit demolished virtually every record in the books as UNA went 14-0 to win the GSC and NCAA Division II National Championships. The Lions averaged 371 yards rushing, 481 total yards and 39.7 points per game. UNA led the nation in rushing, was sixth in scoring and eighth in total offense.

Last season the Lions again led the GSC in rushing and were ranked fifth in Division II in rushing en route to a 13-1 record and a second Division II national championship.

It was Slater's sixth NCAA playoff team and his fourth national championship, to go with two at Troy State.

The Lions have a 34-4-1 record in Slater's three years at the school.

Slater came to UNA from Livingston University where he coached quarterbacks and receivers in 1991. He was a graduate assistant coach at LU in 1978 and moved on to Jess Lanier High School in Bessemer where he served as an assistant coach in 1979 and 1980. He moved to T.R. Miller High School in Brewton as an assistant coach in 1981 and 1982 before becoming an assistant at Troy State in 1983. He served as running back coach all eight years at Troy State and was the offensive coordinator from 1988-1990. He helped guide the Trojans to Gulf South Conference titles and NCAA Division II playoffs in 1984, 1986, and 1987 and to Division II National Championships in 1984 and 1987.

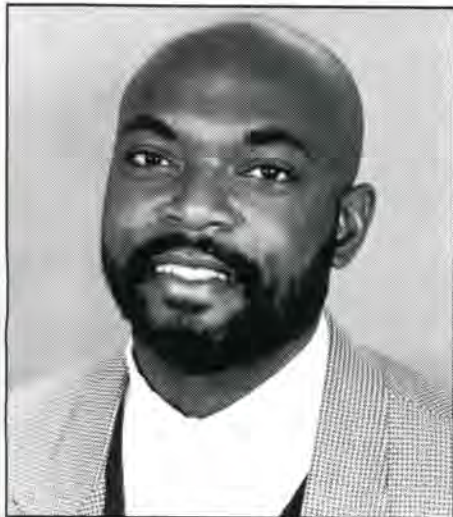

Playing Experience: Slater is a 1974 graduate of Coffeetown High School where he was a prep All-American quarterback and the Most Valuable Back in the state in Class A. He was also a three-time all-conference basketball and football selection.

He was a four-year letterman and starter at Livingston from 1974-77, helping guide the Tigers to a third place finish in the 1975 NCAA Division II playoffs. He still ranks sixth in career rushing at LU with 1,582 yards and 20 touchdowns and is ninth in career total offense with 2,081 yards. His 90-yard run against Troy State in 1975 is still a school record for the longest run from scrimmage.

Education: Received his B.S. degree in Business Education from Livingston in 1979.

Personal: 39 years old. Born on January 27, 1956. He is married to the former Patricia Bumpers of Coffeetown and they have two daughters, Dedre, 18 and Kim, 12, and a son, Micah, five.

DEREK HILL

Assistant Coach

Defensive Secondary

Coaching Experience: Derek Hill joined the UNA staff in July of 1992 as the defensive backfield coach, after spending four years at Central State University in Xenia, Ohio.

In his three seasons with the Lions, he has helped make the UNA secondary one of the best in Division II, with the Lions finishing second nationally in passing efficiency defense last season. UNA allowed just 122 yards per game passing and picked off 21 passes last season on the way to a 13-1 record and a second straight NCAA Division II National Championship.

In 1993, with an entirely new secondary, the Lions held their own against some of the nation's premier passing squads on their way to a perfect 14-0 record and the Gulf South Conference and Division II National Championships. That secondary included GSC Freshman of the Year Gerald Smith.

In 1992, he directed a group of UNA defensive backs that produced three All-Gulf South Conference performers, an All-American and a Division II National Player of the Week.

In all, Hill has been a part of three collegiate national championship teams.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Eastside High School in Gainesville, Fla., in 1985. He then went to the University of Illinois in 1987 as a graduate assistant, working with the inside linebackers.

In 1988 he became secondary coach at Central State University of Ohio and in his four seasons with the Marauders they posted a combined 44-8 record. Central State went 11-2 in 1988 and was a semifinalist in the NAIA playoffs, went 11-3 in 1989 and was a playoff participant, then went 11-1 in 1990 and won the NAIA National Championship. The Marauders went 11-2 in 1991 and finished as the national runner-up. He coached Vince Buck who was a second round draft pick by the National Football League's New Orleans Saints in 1989, and Art Hunter, a defensive back for the World League of American Football's Birmingham Fire.

Playing Experience: He played defensive back at Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Ga., where he was a first-team All-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association selection as a junior and senior in 1981 and 1982. He led the conference in interceptions both seasons with 11 and nine respectively. He played in the Black Sheridan All-Star Game and the Senior Bowl in 1982 and was later drafted by the Tampa Bay Bandits of the United States Football League and played in the USFL until 1985.

tin worked as a student coach in 1989 and 1990.

Last season he helped direct an offensive line that paved the way for 394 yards of total offense and 296 yards rushing per game as the Lions went 13-1 and won a second straight Division II National Championship. The Lions offensive line produced two All-Americans last season in center Kin Taylor and guard Jon Thompson. In 1993, UNA averaged 371 yards per game rushing, 481 total yards per game and 39.7 points. Guards Jeff Surbaugh and Thompson were both selected first-team All-GSC and Surbaugh went on to first-team All-America honors.

In 1992 Martin directed an extremely young offensive line that was instrumental in the Lions' leading the Gulf South Conference in rushing, setting a school record of 298.8 yards per game. That mark was smashed in 1993 as UNA not only led the GSC in rushing but also Division II.

Playing Experience: Martin was a two-year starter on the offensive line at North Alabama in 1987 and 1988. He played his senior season under coach Bobby Wallace. He transferred to UNA from Marion Institute where he played football and baseball.

He played center and guard on the offensive line and end and linebacker on defense at Holtville High School as the team went to the state playoffs in 1981, 1982, and 1983. Last season the UNA defensive front had three All-Americans in tackles Israel Raybon and Marcus Keyes and end Marcus Hunter. The Lion defense finished second nationally in pass defense and total defense and was second in rushing and scoring defense as UNA went 13-1 and won a second straight Division II National Championship.

In 1992 the UNA defensive line produced two All-Gulf South players and was the key to the Lions' leading the GSC in both scoring defense and total defense.

RONALD MCKINNON
Linebacker
3 Letters

5-11, 230, Senior
Elba, Alabama

Career at UNA: Could become just the third player in the history of the Gulf South Conference to be selected first-team All-GSC four consecutive years. The only two previous four-time picks were Ken Watson of Livingston (1985-88) and Randy Fischer of Valdosta State (1986-89). He has 482 career tackles, including 307 primary stops. His 307 career primary tackles is a school record, surpassing the mark of 297 set by James Davis from 1987-90. Davis still holds the all-time tackle mark with 528. McKinnon needs 47 tackles to break that mark as well. 1994: He was named first-team All-Gulf South Conference for a third straight year, and was the Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Week vs. Youngstown State and the Football Gazette National Defensive Player of the Week vs. Texas A&M-Kingsville. He was selected first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, first-team Associated Press Little All-American, first-team All-American by Football Gazette, first-team CoSIDA NCAA Division II All-American and first-team All-American by C.M. Frank. He was also C.M. Frank Small University Defensive Player of the Year, CNN College Football Preview NCAA Division II Player of the Year (as selected by Danny Sheridan), Football Gazette Defensive Back of the Year, first-team NCAA Division II All-South Region (as selected by Division II SIDs) and a candidate for the Harlon Hill Trophy as NCAA Division II Player of the Year. Selected team's Most Valuable Player as a junior. He led the team with 159 tackles, which included 110 primary stops, had two fumble recoveries, 11 tackles for a loss of 24 yards, two sacks for 14 yards and had four interceptions on the year, including one with 2:22 left in the Division II National Championship game to preserve a 16-10 win over Texas A&M-Kingsville. 1993: Selected first-team on the Division II SIDs All-America team, first-team on the C.M. Frank All-America team, first-team Football Gazette All-American, third-team Associated Press All-American, first-team All-Gulf South Conference and first-team All-South Region. Selected Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Week against Valdosta State, and Football Gazette/USA Today Division II National Defensive Player of the Week for the NCAA Division II Championship Game against Indiana, Pa. He broke the individual school record with 175 tackles in a season. Had 106 primary stops, caused five fumbles, broke-up three passes, had three quarterback pressures, three tackles for 11 yards in losses, three interceptions and blocked one kick. Returned the interceptions for 35 yards, including one for a touchdown against Valdosta State.

Had 10 or more tackles in nine games last season, including 20 against Mississippi College and 17 against Henderson State, Valdosta State and Indiana, Pa. 1992: Selected Gulf South Conference Freshman of the Year in 1992 by the GSC's head football coaches. It marked the third straight year that a Lion defender had claimed the award, following O.J. Patrick in 1990 and Marcus Hunter in 1991. McKinnon was also selected first-team All-Gulf South Conference as a freshman. Led the team with 148 tackles, including 91 primary stops. He had 60 more tackles than any other Lion defender. Added four tackles for eight yards in losses, caused and recovered two fumbles, broke-up two passes and had one sack for seven yards. Made an immediate impact on the collegiate level, earning a start in his first game against Central Missouri State. He responded with 13 tackles and five assists and recovered two fumbles, which he returned 40 yards. For his efforts he was named Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Week. A red-shirt at UNA in 1991. HS: Played linebacker, running back, tight end and defensive back for Elba High School under coach Mack Wood. The Tigers reached the state playoffs in 1989. Was a two-way starter and was named all-state at linebacker and to the All-Coffee County Wiregrass team. McKinnon made 130 solo tackles and 30 assists at linebacker and had 20 receptions for 400 yards and two touchdowns at tight end. Also lettered in basketball and baseball. PERSONAL: Full name is Ronald Keith McKinnon. Born on September 20, 1973. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Rubin McKinnon and has three brothers and two sisters. CODY

3 Letters

5-9, 166, Senior
Rogersville, Alabama

Career at UNA: Has a 28-2 record as a starting quarterback and has started 10 NCAA playoff games, with a 9-1 post-season record. The two losses UNA has suffered with Gross as a starter were both to eventual national champions by a combined five points. In 1992 UNA lost 12-10 to eventual Division II champion Jacksonville State, and last season UNA lost 17-14 to eventual I-AA champion Youngstown State. He ranks second in career touchdowns responsible for with 45, trailing Don Cornelius mark of 55. Gross is sixth in career touchdown passes (17), fifth in career rushing touchdowns (28) and career touchdowns scored (28), third in career total yards (4,067), fifth in career passing yards (2,717), eighth in career pass completions (142) and eighth in career pass attempts (280). 1994: He started all 14 games last season as UNA went 13-1 and won the Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II championships for a second straight year. He rushed for 638 yards and 12 touchdowns and added 1,050 yards passing and five TDs. He was selected GSC Offensive Player of the Week against Central Arkansas after rushing for 112 yards and two touchdowns and passing for 135 yards and two other scores. Was later selected GSC Offensive Player of the Week again against Valdosta State in a 38-21 UNA win, rushing for 44 yards and one touchdown and passing for 128 yards on six-of-eight passing. Selected as the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player. 1993: Started all 14 games for the Lions in 1993 as UNA went 14-0 to win the Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II National Championships. His 2,091 total yards set a school single-season record and his 166.9 passing efficiency rating also set a school single season record. Selected as the Gulf South Conference Player of the Week on November 14 against West Georgia, and on November 28 against Hampton he was the Football Gazette/USA Today Division II Regional Offensive Player of the Week. Against West Georgia he was 8-of-13 passing for 205 yards and two touchdowns and he rushed for 76 yards and another touchdown. Against Hampton he was 6-for-13 for 98 yards and a TD and rushed for 126 yards and two TDs. For the season he completed 71-of-132 passes for 1,441 yards and 11 touchdowns, completing 53.8 percent of his passes. Rushed 112 times for 650 yards and 11 TDs, with a 74-yard touchdown run against West Georgia. Passed for at least one touchdown in last five consecutive games of the season and accounted for nine post-season touchdowns last season. The only time he attempted 10 or more passes in a game in 1993 was in the final five games. 1992: Started just two games for the Lions in 1992, but both were NCAA playoff games against Hampton University and Jacksonville State. After seeing limited action as a back-up most of the season, Gross was inserted into the regular-season finale at Valdosta State where a loss would have kept the Lions out of the NCAA playoffs. With UNA down 14-0, Gross led four consecutive scoring drives and helped the Lions rally for a 24-24 tie that was good enough to secure a playoff bid. In that game, Gross was 4-of-5 passing for 63 yards and threw his first collegiate touchdown pass, an 18 yarder to Lawrence Haynes. He also scored on a one-yard run. The next week at Hampton, in his first collegiate start, Gross led UNA to a relatively easy 33-21 win, rushing for 36 yards on eight carries and completing 3-of-8 passes for 105 yards. He also scored three touchdowns on runs of 27, one and two yards and passed for a two-point conversion. In the final game of the season Gross again earned the start in the playoff quarterfinal game against Jacksonville State. He rushed 13 times for 14 yards and scored one of UNA's two touchdowns on a four-yard carry. He was 2-of-7 passing for 21 yards. For the season, Gross played in 10 games, rushing 36 times for 62 yards and five touchdowns. He was 12-of-27 through the air for 226 yards and one TD. HS: Played quarterback and free safety at Lauderdale County High School under coach Ronnie Ritter. The Tigers advanced to the state playoffs three times, reaching the quarterfinals in 1989 and 1990 and the semifinals in 1991. LCHS won the 1991 county championship and the 1989-91 area championships. Gross was All-Lauderdale County in 1990 and 1991, Lauderdale County Offensive Player of the Year in 1991, all-area in 1990 and 1991, area Most Valuable Player, all-state and state Class 3A Player of the Year in 1991. He was also selected to the Alabama Sports Writers Association Super 12 list. As a senior he rushed for 1,205 yard and 22 touchdowns, passed for 872 yards and nine touchdowns and added 45 tackles and nine interceptions on defense. As a junior in 1990 he rushed for 200 yards and 12 TD's, passed for 1,176 yards and 13 touchdowns and made 42 tackles and picked off six passes. Lettered three years in basketball, earning all-area honors twice. A three-year all-area pick in baseball as well. Selected Lauderdale County Male Student of the Year in 1991-92. Named LCHS Male Student of the Year three straight years, was Student Council President and captain of the Scholars Bowl team. PERSONAL: Full name is Cody Lane Gross. Born on October 24, 1973, Son of Charles and Dianne Gross and has one sister. Majoring in Secondary Education-Social Science.

UNA has developed into a regional university providing quality educational opportunities for students from the three-state region of Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee.

The Gourman Report, which ranks the nation's universities, selected UNA as one of the better schools in Alabama. Of the 26 Alabama schools rated, UNA ranked first behind Alabama's five doctoral degree-granting institutions.

Using the Gourman criteria, North Alabama, if located in any of the other 53 U.S. territories or states, would rank first in five states, second in 12, third in 13, fourth in 10 and fifth in one. The Gourman scores ranked North Alabama first among Gulf South Conference schools.

North Alabama's academic role has expanded through the years. Bachelor's degrees are offered in majors in various areas of arts and sciences, business, education and nursing.

Preprofessional preparation for medicine, dentistry, optometry, podiatry, pharmacy, law, agriculture and forestry, engineering, veterinary medicine, medical technology and other allied health professions is offered. Various master's degrees are offered in the education and business fields.

North Alabama is the first major university to offer a four-year degree program in commercial music. Majors have interned in record industry offices in Nashville, Memphis, New York, Los Angeles, London, and nearby Muscle Shoals. UNA is one of 11 schools nation wide offering an undergraduate degree in industrial hygiene. Foreign language, nursing and science students also have opportunities to study abroad.

Numerous faculty and staff members hold positions of distinction in various national, regional and state professional organizations. Many have written books and/or published articles in newspaper, magazines and professional journals. The Journal of Legal Economics is published on campus.

Various centers have been established at North Alabama to serve its constituency. Operated by faculty and staff, they give undergraduate and graduate students excellent opportunities for research and public services.

They include the Occupational and Environmental Health Laboratory. Its scientific research has attracted national and international attention in the health field. The Geographic Research Center, in cooperation with the National Geographic Society, has increased the profile of geography in the state and has opened doors for students to partake in mapping and demographics research for various governmental agencies. Science faculty and students teach and study marine biology-related courses at Dauphin Island Sealab near Mobile, Alabama.

North Alabama also houses the northwest Alabama Education Research and Inservice Center, which provides inservice training for elementary and secondary educators in a six-county region. North Alabama has the only state university-operated kindergarten and grammar school, which afford education students a professional development laboratory experience in teaching.

Serving a nine-County region, the Small Business Development Center provides information, counseling and assistance to small businesses or to people planning to start small businesses. The Rare and Endangered Species Research Center personnel are conducting research on several endangered species in the region. The Wellness Research and Service Center researches areas of wellness, exercise programs, nutrition, stress management, health education counseling and environmental support.

North Alabama works closely with various southern universities and many local, state and federal agencies on a myriad of projects and activities.

Supporting the faculty are the extensive resources of the Collier Library system, a federal records depository. It is computerized and tied into various library loan research networks.

North Alabama students excel in academics, student activities and athletics. Often they are recognized nationally for their achievements in specific areas.

North Alabama's alumni are equally successful. Among them are a Pulitzer Prize winner for literature, two Alabama governors, a Texas governor, numerous U.S. Congressmen, thousands of educators, and special assistant to the President of the United States.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

ROBERT L. POTTS

Robert L. Potts was named President of the University of North Alabama on August 13, 1990, after serving as Interim President for seven months. He had previously served for six years as General Counsel for the University of Alabama System.

During the Potts tenure, the University of North Alabama has made significant progress. Under his leadership, the administrative structure of the University has been streamlined, admissions standards have been adopted, a University Development and Advancement office has been established which has resulted in more than doubling the University's endowment, an innovative day care center has been created at Kilby Laboratory School, an annual fall convocation for new students is now held, and the University has enhanced its presence in the State Capital through a cooperative effort with other state universities. Additionally, a campus master plan has been completed, an automation project has modernized the computing capability on campus, an Academic Resource Center has been established, and significant steps have been taken to improve student recruitment and retention.

Potts previously served on the Board of Trustees of Alabama State University and Oakwood College. He has taught at Boston University, the University of Alabama and at UNA. Presently, he is a member of the Board of Trustees of the National Conference of Bar Examiners, where he serves as Chair. He is a former Chairman of the Alabama Board of Bar Examiners. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Alabama Motorists Association and the Alabama Women's Hall of Fame. On January 3, 1994, United States Secretary of Education Richard W. Riley appointed Potts to the National Advisory Committee on Institutional Quality and Integrity.

Potts attend Newbold College in England and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree cum laude from Southern College in Tennessee. He obtained a Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Alabama School of Law, where he served as Alabama Editor of the Alabama Law Review. After clerking for the U.S. District Court Chief Judge for the Northern District of Alabama, Potts received a Master of Laws Degree from Harvard University in 1971. Before entering higher education on a full-time basis in 1984, Potts practiced law in Florence, Alabama, where educational issues were a significant part of his practice. He has lectured widely on legal and education topics and is the author of several articles which have been published in professional journals.

DIVISION II NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1993, 1994

BEHIND THE LIONS

Athletic Director Dan Summy

The University of North Alabama concluded a four-month national search on December 20, 1995, with the naming of Dan Summy as the school's athletic director.

Summy, who took on his athletic director duties at UNA on January 16, came to the school from North Dakota State University where he was serving as associate athletic director and had been since 1990.

Summy is a 1971 graduate of Simpson College in Iowa, with a B.S. degree in history and education. He later received his Master's degree in mass communications from Iowa State University in 1978.

Prior to going to NDSU, Summy served as director of athletic marketing at Western Michigan University from 1986-90, and as executive director of the Pirate Club booster organization at East Tennessee State University from 1984-86.

He served as an assistant football coach at Lincoln High School in Des Moines, Iowa, from 1971-74 and then accepted a position as defensive coordinator at Iowa Lakes Community College in Estherville, Iowa in 1978, after having taught at the school for three years.

He and his wife Mary have a son and a daughter.

Sports Information Director Jeff Hodges

Jeff Hodges is in his 12th year as Sports Information Director at the University of North Alabama and concluded a three-year term on the Board of Directors of the College Sports Information Directors of America in June.

He has served as media coordinator for the NCAA Division II Football Championship Game since 1986 and serves as chairman of the National Harlon Hill Award Committee, which presents the Division II College Football Player of the Year award.

Hodges served as a press officer for the United States Olympic Committee at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival in North Carolina, the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival in San Antonio, Tex., and the XVII Olympic Winter Games in Lillehammer, Norway.

A 1982 graduate of UNA with a B.S. degree in journalism and history, Hodges was a member of the Lions 1981 Gulf South Conference championship tennis team.

Following his graduation from UNA, Hodges worked for one year as a sports writer at the Florence Times Daily before being hired as the full-time SID at UNA in July of 1983.

In addition to his duties at UNA, Hodges is a member of the CoSIDA Special Awards Committee, serves on the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame selection committee, handles the balloting for the Alabama Sports Writers Association's Small College Athlete of the Year award and serves as administrator for the UNA Athletic Hall of Fame.

He received the UNA Faculty and Staff Service Award in 1994.

UNA's athletic publications have received more than 50 awards from CoSIDA since 1985.

Hodges has worked the last 142 consecutive UNA football games, dating back to 1983.

He and his wife Karen have one son.

Athletic Trainer Phil Cross

Phil Cross is in his seventh year as the Lions athletic trainer, after being hired in August of 1989.

A graduate of Deshler High School in Tuscumbia, Cross served as a student trainer at UNA until 1985 when a position as a graduate assistant was created. He filled that spot until 1987 when he was hired full-time as assistant trainer.

He received his B.S. degree in physical education and biology from UNA in 1986.

Cross replaced Johnny Long as head trainer at UNA, after Long had held that position from 1971-89.

He has worked the last 213 consecutive UNA football games, dating back to his time as a student trainer in 1976.

Cross also served for several years on the training staff for the Blue-Gray All-Star Classic in Montgomery.

He and his wife Michelle have two sons.

BRALY MUNICIPAL STADIUM

Overflow crowds have attended the 1993 and 1994 NCAA Division II National Championship games held in Braly Stadium. An additional national audience watched on ESPN and ESPN2.

Braly Municipal Stadium is recognized across the nation as one of the top college football facilities in the NCAA Division II.

The 13,000 seat stadium has been the site of numerous University of North Alabama football victories and has served as host for 15 of UNA's NCAA playoff games. In all but three of the NCAA playoff games that UNA has participated in, the Lions and Braly Municipal Stadium, have been chosen as the host. One of those was at a predetermined site - the 1985 Division II Championship Game in McAllen, Tex.

But nine years ago, Braly Municipal Stadium began hosting the NCAA Division II Championship Game as well, and will host it for a record 10th consecutive year this December.

Since the Division II title game was created in 1972, no city has served as the host for more than five years until the Shoals area and Braly Stadium did it from 1986 to 1994, with the current contract extending to 1996.

Renovated in 1980, the stadium now seats 13,000 and has a playing surface to rival any in the country. It's foundation is comprised of sand which enables the field to withstand six inches of rain at one time without altering the footing.

In addition Braly Municipal Stadium features two ultra modern dressing rooms, concession stands, restrooms and a three-level press box. The first level can hold up to 30 sports writers in the press room, and there is a VIP Suite. The Second level houses coaching staffs from both schools, the public address announcer, the clock operator and both home and visiting radio crews. The third floor is used by television and film crews.

The UNA Lions currently have a 17-game winning streak at home and have gone 159-83-8 in 46 seasons at Braly Stadium.

Another of the UNA football facilities is the Flowers Hall Annex, which provides almost 18,000 square feet of space for the Lions' football program, with coaches' offices, equipment rooms and indoor practice facility, a modern weight room and more.

Spacious dressing rooms, a sauna, walk-in whirlpool and an expanded training room and other extras give UNA plenty of room to supervise the care of its student athletes.

The UNA athletic facilities have kept pace with the Lions' athletic program as UNA continues to prove it has one of the premier programs in the country.

UNA'S LIONS

LEO AND LEO II A Living Tradition at North Alabama

The Lion has been the official mascot of athletic teams fielded by the University of North Alabama for more than 40 years. And beginning in 1974, then UNA President Dr. Robert M. Guillot established a new tradition by making the school the only one in the country to have a live lion mascot living on campus.

Leo, a 35-pound cub at the time, was acquired by Dr. Guillot on July 22 of that year and spent the next 14 years "roaring" UNA on to victory.

Growing to a 540-pound supporter of the university, Leo lived in the center of the UNA campus as a majestic symbol of a proud university.

But on January 20, 1988, Leo died, leaving a void at the school.

In memory of the impact Leo had at UNA and on the community as a whole, a bronze monument was placed near the compound that served as his home for 14 years.

A great out-pouring of support from businesses and individuals in the Shoals area followed and resulted in Leo II being brought to UNA to take his place as "King of Lion Country."

Leo II, an orphaned lion cub, came to UNA in July of 1988 from a Texas ranch after his mother died giving birth.

Now living in the renovated compound that once housed Leo, Leo II has been hand-raised from birth and has grown to a weight of 600-pounds by his sixth birthday.

Leo II celebrates his birthday in April with a party that became an area-wide tradition with the original Leo and is now being carried on by the new "King of Lion Country."

UNA's other mascot, a student who dons a lion costume to cheer the Lions and entertain the crowd, also represents the school at athletic games and other university functions. Tryouts are held each year and the identity of the student is kept secret for as long as possible.

NCAA DIVISION II CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Braly Municipal Stadium
December 9, 1995

For the 10th consecutive year, the Shoals area will host the NCAA Division II National Championship Football Game at Braly Municipal Stadium in Florence, with the University of North Alabama serving as the host institution.

It is the longest period that the game has remained at one site since its inception in 1973.

In 1994 an overflow crowd of more than 13,000 people watched as the University of North Alabama became just the third school in the championships history to win back-to-back titles.

An additional audience watched on ESPN2 as the game was carried on nationwide television by the sports network.

The championship game moved to the Shoals in 1986 after five years in McAllen, Texas, where it was known as the Palm Bowl.

With the move to the Shoals, the game was renamed simply the NCAA Division II National Championship Game, emphasizing that the game is more than a bowl game - it is a national championship contest.

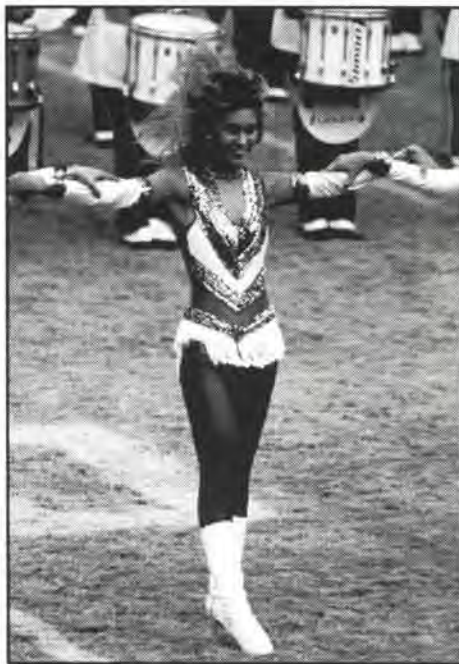

The NCAA has had 22 Division II football championships, beginning with the Camelia Bowl in Sacramento, California, in 1973. Since then, the game has been played in six locations under five different names.

Previous national champions include:

1973	Louisiana Tech
1974	Central Michigan
1975	Northern Michigan
1976	Montana State
1977	Lehigh
1978	Eastern Illinois
1979	Delaware
1980	Cal Poly-SLO
1981	Southwest Texas State
1982	Southwest Texas State
1983	North Dakota State
1984	Troy State
1985	North Dakota State
1986	North Dakota State
1987	Troy State

1989	vacated
1990	North Dakota State
1991	Pittsburg State
1992	Jacksonville State
1993	North Alabama
1994	North Alabama

For the last seven years, the playoff field has consisted of 16 teams and will again in 1995.

The Shoals is assured of hosting the championship in 1996 as well, with a two-year revolving contract to host the championship game.

THE GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE

The Gulf South Conference is recognized as one of the premier Division II conferences in the nation, boasting 30 national champions in eight sports since 1970, winning 13 national crowns during the 1980's and eight already in the 1990s.

In addition, the GSC annually places teams in the championship tournaments of virtually every sport in NCAA competition.

The GSC was born in the summer of 1970 when representatives from six institutions - Delta State University, Florence State University (now North Alabama), Jacksonville State University, Livingston University, the University of Tennessee-Martin and Troy State University - convened in Birmingham, Ala., to form the Mid-South Conference, the forerunner of today's GSC.

Scheduling problems in the first year permitted competition only in football, with Jacksonville State winning the league's first championship.

In 1971, Southeastern Louisiana and Nicholls State joined the conference, bringing the membership to eight. The league also changed its name to the Gulf South Conference.

The following year, Mississippi College and Northwestern Louisiana were admitted to the conference. Northwestern withdrew two years later, followed by Southeastern Louisiana and Nicholls State in 1979.

The conference continued with seven schools until 1981, when the league's presidents voted to admit Valdosta State College. A ninth member, West Georgia College, joined in June of 1983.

The GSC continued with nine schools until the 1991-92 academic year when Troy State and Tennessee-Martin departed to pursue Division I status.

Jacksonville State departed the league following the close of the 1992-93 academic year, but the GSC has since added Lincoln Memorial (Tenn.), Alabama-Huntsville, Central Arkansas, Henderson State, the Mississippi University for Women, West Florida, Southern Arkansas, Arkansas Tech, Arkansas-Monticello and Montevallo to bring the membership to 16 schools.

The GSC sponsors championships in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, golf and tennis. In addition, women's teams compete in basketball, volleyball, softball and tennis.

Banner seasons have become common for the GSC. Numerous student athletes continue to be honored on All-America and Academic All-America teams.

The GSC's first commissioner, Stan Galloway, retired in 1979 and, with the naming of Jim McCullough as commissioner, the league office moved to Birmingham from Hammond, La.

Hayden Riley was the third commissioner, serving from 1982-84, followed by Ralph McFillen from 1984-87 and Sonny Moran from 1987-1992.

The current GSC commissioner, Nathan Salant, is in his second year as commissioner.

LION FOOTBALL HONORS

ALABAMA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Perhaps the two most prominent figures to ever play football for the Lions also hold membership in the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame. Harlon Hill, a letterman from 1950-53 who was an NAIA All-American and was named Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the National Football League while playing with the Chicago Bears, was the school's first inductee when he was chosen for membership in 1976. Then, in 1983, George "Goober" Lindsey, a football letterman in 1950 and 1951 who went on to television fame on the Andy Griffith and Hee Haw shows, was selected for membership. Another Lion, former basketball standout Winfrey "Wimp" Sanderson, has also been inducted.

ASWA SMALL COLLEGE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

University of North Alabama defensive back Daryl Smith was named Alabama Small College Athlete of the Year in 1984 by the Alabama Sportswriters Association. He has since been followed by a trio of Lion football players who have also claimed the award. Linebacker James Davis received the award in 1990, running back Tyrone Rush was the recipient for 1993 and linebacker Ronald McKinnon won the 1994 award.

Smith was named to the Kodak, Associated Press and Football News All-America teams and was also the first athlete in school history to play in the Blue-Gray Classic and Senior Bowl All-Star games.

Davis was a first-team Kodak, Associated Press and Football Gazette All-American and finished his career as the leading tackler in UNA and Gulf South Conference history. He was a two-time All-GSC pick and was the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 1990.

Rush became UNA's all-time leading rusher, was a three-time All-GSC performer and was the runner-up for the 1993 Harlon Hill Trophy as the NCAA Division II Player of the Year. He also helped the Lions to a perfect 14-0 record and a Division II National Championship.

McKinnon was a consensus All-American in 1994 and helped lead UNA's Purple Swarm defense that powered the Lions to a second straight Division II National Championship.

ALL-STAR GAMES

Defensive back Daryl Smith was a consensus All-America pick in 1984 and became the first athlete in school history to play in post-season all-star competition at the Blue-Gray Classic in Montgomery, Ala., and the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

Another UNA defensive back, Lewis Billups of Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., was selected for post-season competition in 1985. Billups was selected for the Blue-Gray Classic and the Senior Bowl and was a starter in the secondary for the South squad in both games.

In 1990, senior offensive tackle Mike Nord of Louisville,

Ky., played in the Senior Bowl to become the third Lion to participate in the game and the first to play in the East-West Shrine Game.

In 1993, running back Tyrone Rush and offensive guard Jeff Surbaugh were selected for the inaugural Snow Bowl Division II All-Star Game in Fargo, N.D., followed by center Kin Taylor and defensive end Marcus Hunter last season.

CHEVROLET SCHOLARSHIPS

Excellence on the football field has benefited UNA off the field as well as quarterbacks Fred Riley, Rusty Towery and Bobby Duncan each had $1,000 scholarships donated in their names to the university by Chevrolet. In 1980 and 1981, UNA received $1,000 scholarships in Riley's name, who earned MVP acclaim in televised games against Eastern Illinois and Troy State. Towery was selected Most Valuable Player by Chevrolet in UNA's 42-21 win over Troy State in 1983 in a game that was televised by CBS. Duncan was named MVP in UNA's 27-24 loss to Central State of Ohio in the NCAA playoffs later that season in a game televised by ABC.

In 1993 and 1994 the university received another $2,500 each year from Chevrolet when coach Bobby Wallace was named as Chevrolet's National Coach of the Year.

In all, UNA has received $9,000 from Chevrolet through its scholarship program.

KNOWLES SET SCORING RECORD

Former UNA place-kicker James Knowles held the all-time NCAA Division II record for points scored by kicking with 263 from 1982-85. The record was broken in 1988 by California-Davis kicker Eddie Loretto, who finished with 266 points. Knowles made 45 field goals and 128 extra-points during regular season competition to place his name in the record book. Knowles also ranks among the best in Division II history in career field goals made, hitting 45 of 77 for 58.4 percent during his career.

LIONS HOLD TURNOVER MARGIN RECORD

The 1990 UNA Lions set and still hold the national Division II record for best turnover margin per game in a season at 2.5. UNA had a plus 25 turnover ratio in 10 games, with just 14 giveaways and 39 takeaways.

HARLON HILL

A native of Killen, Ala., Harlon Hill is a prime example of the unknown small college player with tremendous talents who went on to prove his greatness in the National Football League - competing with top players in the game.

A small college All-American receiver at Florence State Teachers College (now the University of North Alabama), Hill was drafted in the 15th round of the NFL draft by the Chicago Bears - a team willing to take a chance on a player that scout Clark Shaughnessy only heard about from a man in the press box at the annual Blue-Gray Classic in Montgomery.

The Bears didn't have to wait long for the skinny boy from Florence State to make their gamble pay off, however.

In 1954, Hill caught 45 passes for 1,124 yards and 12 touchdowns and was named National Football League Rookie of the Year. The following year he caught 42 passes for 789 yards and nine touchdowns and was the recipient of the Jim Thorpe Trophy as the NFL Most Valuable Player.

In nine years in the NFL, Hill caught 233 passes for 4,717 yards and 40 touchdowns and is still regarded as one of the greatest receivers to ever play the game.

He played in the Pro Bowl in 1955, 1956 and 1957 and was an All-Pro selection in 1954, 1955 and 1956.

He spent his first eight seasons, from 1954-61, with the Bears and split his final season between the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Detroit Lions.

Hill played in relative obscurity for the Lions as an end in a powerful single-wing offense.

He caught only 54 passes in four years with the Lions but they went for 1,020 yards and a school record 19 touchdowns. He averaged 18.8 yards per catch.

Hill was inducted into the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame in 1958, into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 1976 and into the UNA Athletic Hall of Fame in the initial class in 1990.

Hill, now 63, retired two years ago as principal at Brooks High School in Killen.

THE HARLON HILL TROPHY

Creation of the Hill Trophy

The top player in college football each season has long been honored with the presentation of the Heisman Trophy.

An award symbolic of the best.

But while that award may have recognized the top player in NCAA football, no one playing at a school below the Division I level had ever received recognition for their accomplishments in the voting.

Players like Walter Payton, Neil Lomax, Ken O'Brein, John Stallworth and others played in the NCAA Division II, and would have never achieved recognition, had they not gone on to outstanding careers in professional football.

That began to change in 1986, however, when a group of Shoals area residents, with sponsorship of Coca-Cola, worked to establish the Harlon Hill Trophy-to be presented each year to the top player in the NCAA Division II.

The originators of the award didn't feel that accomplishments in professional football should have to be the measuring stick for talent in Division II. So the award was created to honor players whose achievements have placed them among the top players to ever play the game.

The Harlon Hill Trophy is an award that is given annually to the player selected as the "best" in Division II by the sports information directors at the 100-plus Division II schools which play football, and is presented during the week of the NCAA Division II Football Championship Game in the Shoals.

This year, the 10th annual Harlon Hill Trophy will be presented to the Division II Player of the Year on December 8.

How the Winner is Selected

Nominations for the Hill Trophy are accepted from the sports information directors at NCAA Division II football-playing institutions. The criteria stipulates that the player must have distinguished himself nationally as being among the top players in the game.

1994 Winner Chris Hatcher

Past Winners:

1986-Jeff Bentrin (SR)
Quarterback, North Dakota State

1987-Johnny Bailey (SO)
Running Back, Texas A&I

1988-Johnny Bailey (JR)
Running Back, Texas A&I

1989-Johnny Bailey (SR)
Running Back, Texas A&I

1990-Chris Simdorn (SR)
Quarterback, North Dakota State

1991-Ronnie West (SR)
Receiver, Pittsburg State

1992-Ronald Moore (SR)
Running Back, Pittsburg State

1993-Roger Graham (JR)
Running Back - New Haven

1994-Chris Hatcher (SR)
Quarterback, Valdosta State

The nominations are screened regionally by the National Harlon Hill Advisory Committee and the top six candidates from each region advance to the regional ballot.

Then there are two actual votes for the Hill Trophy.

The players nominated are first voted on by the sports information directors within their respective NCAA region. There are four regions (Northeast, South, Midwest, West) with approximately the same number of schools in each region. The top two vote-getters from each of the four regions then advance to the national ballot where they are voted on by all 120-plus Division II SIDs. On both the regional and national ballots, the SIDs vote for a first, second and third basis.

The top three finishers from the national voting are then invited to the Shoals for the championship week activities and the Hill Banquet.

The Trophy

The Harlon Hill Trophy, created by Herff Jones, Inc., is 30 inches tall and weighs 63 pounds. The football is a life-size replica of a real football and sits on a solid walnut base. It is sponsored by Coca-Cola, the Florence Gas Department and SouthTrust Bank.

The 1995 Presentation

The Tenth Annual Harlon Hill Awards Banquet is set for December 8.

The banquet is set for 6:30 p.m. and tickets are $30.00 per person or $225.00 for a table of eight.

Tickets may be purchased by calling Shirley Tucker at (205) 764-4661.

For more information on the Hill Trophy or the presentation, contact Jeff Hodges at (205) 760-4595.

LION FOOTBALL GLOSSARY, 1949-94

The ACC

No it's not the Atlantic Coast Conference. At least not for this reference. It was the Alabama Collegiate Conference, which the Lions competed in during the 1960's. The four state supported colleges - Florence State (now UNA), Troy State, Jacksonville State and Livingston - formed the ACC in 1960. The Lions won the conference football crown in 1960 and 1961 and shared the title in 1962 and 1963 with Jacksonville State. The Lions produced numerous All-ACC players throughout the 1960's but those records are incomplete.

All-Americans

The Lions have had numerous All-Americans, including an unprecedented seven players selected to various All-America teams last season, and four first-team picks in 1993. The school's first All-American was end Harlon Hill in 1953. In all UNA has had 30 players chosen first or second-team All-American, with linebackers James Davis and Ronald McKinnon and running back Tyrone Rush as the only players to have been named first-team All-American in two different seasons. Safety Harvey Summerhill was named second-team as a junior and first-team as a senior. UNA has had two or more All-America selections in each of the last six years.

All-Star Games

Seven Lion players have participated in post-season all-star games. Defensive back Darryl Smith played in both the Blue-Gray Classic and the Senior Bowl in 1984 and defensive back Lewis Billups followed in 1985, also playing in both games. In 1990, offensive tackle Mike Nord was selected for the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine game. In 1993, running back Tyrone Rush and offensive guard Jeff Surbaugh played in the inaugural Snow Bowl/NCAA Division II All-Star Game in Fargo, N.D., followed by center Kin Taylor and defensive end Marcus Hunter last season.

Board of Trustees

UNA Board of Trustees members Phil Logan and Billy Don Anderson are former Lion football players. Logan was a quarterback and lettered from 1967-69. Anderson was a lineman and earned three letters from 1959-61.

Brains and Brawn

Eight different UNA football players have been selected first-team All-Gulf South Conference and Academic All-GSC as well. That list includes Dexter Rutherford, James Knowles, Steve Rogers, James Davis, Sherman Johnson, Kin Taylor, Lee Morris, and Jon Thompson. Former Lion offensive lineman Don Smith did that one better, however, being named All-American and Academic All-American in the same season (1982).

The Catch

The single most recounted play in UNA football history. On Nov. 22, 1980, UNA and Jacksonville State were tied 28-28 with the Gulf South Conference championship on the line. UNA faced a third-and-13 situation with just 36 seconds remaining from its own 17 yard line. Quarterback Fred Riley dropped back, faked once and lofted a pass down the right sideline. Jerry Hill ran under the pass and raced to the end zone for a dramatic 83-yard score that gave UNA a 35-28 win and its first GSC football championship. As a result of the win, the Lions also received their first NCAA playoff bid in 1980 and advanced to the semifinals.

Championship Game

UNA is the host for the NCAA Division II Football Championship Game and has been since 1986. The 1995 game will mark the tenth time the game has been played at Braly Municipal Stadium - the most at any one site since the game was created in 1973. UNA and the Shoals area's quest for the game began in 1985 when the Lions advanced to the title game which was then played in McAllen, Tex., as the Palm Bowl. Following the game, the Shoals National Championship Committee was formed under the leadership of Grady Liles to try and bring the game to Florence and was successful in doing so. The current contract with the NCAA calls for the game to be played in Florence in 1995 and 1996. The 1995 game is scheduled for 1 p.m. on December 9.

Coaches

The University of North Alabama has produced hundreds of coaches on both the high school and collegiate level and has had numerous coaches pass through the Lion program on the way to jobs at other collegiate and professional programs. At one point, when Hal Self was near the end of his 20-year career as the Lions' head coach, he had 142 coaches in the field.

Consecutive Streaks

When it comes to dedication to their jobs, three current members of the UNA athletic staff have had more than a decade of consecutive service to the Lions' football program. Athletic trainer Phil Cross has worked 213 consecutive Lion football games, dating back to his time as a student trainer in 1976. Equipment manager Lyndel Rhodes has worked 152 straight games since 1982 and sports information director Jeff Hodges has worked 142 straight since 1983.

LION PRIDE

A Tradition with Stars

The University of North Alabama football program has been awarding stars to its players for the last three years. The stars help adorn the Lions solid purple helmets, and can be awarded for individual or team accomplishments.

On offense, everyone who plays receives a star when the team: rushes for 300 yards, has zero turnovers, scores 30 points or controls the time of possession for four minutes more than the opponent. Individual stars can be earned for any of the following: grading as a WINNER, for every five knockdowns, for two knockdowns on one play, rushing for 50 yards after contact, for being selected offensive player of the week, for every five pass catches, for every big hit, for a tackle after a turnover or for a game-winning play.

On defense, the team goals are: a first-and-goal situation where a TD is not surrendered, a third down conversion percentage of less than 33 percent, a stop on fourth and short, holding a team to less than 10 points or controlling the ball for four minutes more than the opponent. Individually, stars are awarded for grading a WINNER, causing a turnover, recovering a turnover, a sack, a big hit, a game winning play, being defensive player of the week or for earning a percentage of bonus points on plays played.

Specialty team members also earn a star for every 10 extra-point attempts without a block, a net punt of over 40 yards, a pooch kick downed inside the 10, holding an opponent to under a 25-yard return average, and for under a 90-yard kickoff return average for the season. Stars are also awarded for blocked kicks or scoring off a blocked kick.

LION FOOTBALL GLOSSARY, 1949-94

James Davis

A four-year letterman at linebacker for UNA from 1987-90, Davis became one of the most honored football players and athletes in school history. In addition to setting the school records for tackles in a game and career, the native of Clanton, Ala., closed his career as the leading tackler in Gulf South Conference history with 528 stops. He was selected All-GSC, Academic All-GSC and first-team All-American by Kodak, the Associated Press and the Football Gazette. He was a three-time GSC Defensive Player of the Week pick in 1990 and was twice National Defensive Player of the Week by Football Gazette and USA Today. He was chosen state Small College Athlete of the Year by the Alabama Sports Writers Association. He was named permanent team captain, Most Valuable Player on the football team and the school's Male Athlete of the Year for 1990-91. He was also the recipient of the Gulf South Conference Commissioner's Trophy as the top male student-athlete in the league for 1990-91.

Defensive Backs

It has become the most renowned position at North Alabama over the years with a spectacular tradition. Since the GSC was formed in 1971, UNA defensive backs have been first-team All-GSC picks 16 times. Former UNA defensive backs Darryl Smith and Lewis Billups played in both the Blue-Gray Classic and the Senior Bowl and later played in Super Bowl XXIV as members of the Cincinnati Bengals. Smith, Bruce Jones, Wendell Phillips, Sedric Barnett and Harvey Summerhill all received All-America acclaim as DBs at UNA and nine Lion defensive backs have been drafted or signed by professional football teams. On the GSC Team of the Decade for the 1980s, three of the four defensive backs selected for first-team honors were from UNA (Smith, Billups and Jones). The most recent to follow in that tradition is junior cornerback Gerald Smith, who was selected as the GSC's Freshman of the Year in 1993 and was All-GSC in 1994.

Goober and Wimp

Their nicknames may not show it, but Goober and Wimp are two of the most highly regarded graduates of the University of North Alabama. George "Goober" Lindsey, star of television's "Andy Griffith Show," Mayberry R.F.D. and "Hee Haw," is a former Lion football player. Lindsey was quarterback and a two-year letterman for the Lions in 1950-51. He is one of three former Lion athletes enshrined in the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame. Another is former Lion basketball standout Winfrey "Wimp" Sanderson. A three-year letterman for the Lions from 1957-59, Sanderson scored 1,076 points and averaged 14.9 points for his career. After 20 years as an assistant basketball coach at the University of Alabama, Sanderson became head coach for the Crimson Tide in 1981. In 12 seasons, he directed Alabama to 10 NCAA events. He is also a member of the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame and is the current head basketball coach at Arkansas-Little Rock.

The Gulf South Conference

North Alabama is a charter member of the Gulf South Conference and was one of six schools to help create the league in 1970. UNA, Delta State and Livingston are the only three charter members still in the league. UNA has won four GSC football crowns, in addition to titles in basketball, women's basketball, baseball, tennis, volleyball, softball and women's cross country. The GSC is regarded as the toughest NCAA Division II conference in the nation and has produced 29 national champions.

Since 1991 the GSC has lost Troy State, Tennessee-Martin and Jacksonville State, but they have been replaced by Central Arkansas, Henderson State, Southern Arkansas, Arkansas-Monticello and Arkansas Tech, as well as non-football playing schools in Lincoln Memorial, Alabama-Huntsville, the Mississippi University for Women, the University of West Florida and the University of Montevallo.

Hall of Fame

UNA created a Hall of Fame in 1990, with former football coach Hal Self, former basketball coach and athletic director Eddie Flowers, All-America end Harlon Hill and All-America basketball player Dabbs Earnest the four initial inductees. Twenty former Lions are currently in the Hall of Fame, with four more former Lions inducted each fall at Homecoming. The Athletic Hall of Fame is on permanent display in Flowers Hall.

LION PRIDE

The Pride Rock

The University of North Alabama's Pride Rock tradition began in 1994, with the rock making its first appearance at a Lion football game on Sept. 10 at Braly Stadium against Alabama A&M.

Pride Rock is a 60-pound, engraved granite stone with an actual paw print from Leo, UNA's live lion mascot. The rock is used as a motivational tool for the Lion players. It is placed just behind the north end zone at all Lion home games and the players file past and touch the rock on their way to the field. It serves as a reminder to the current Lion players of the proud tradition that has been established at the school and of all the former players who have played a part in building that tradition. It also symbolizes the pride and unity of the team and the university.

Pride Rock is also carried to all away football games and was at the Lions last 13 consecutive games last season, including flying to Youngstown State. UNA's record with Pride Rock is 12-1.

UNA sports information director Jeff Hodges originated the idea of the Pride Rock after the home of the Pride of Lions in the movie the Lion King.

Leo's trustee, Joe Wallace, designed the rock, and it was crafted and donated to the university by Richard Beckman of Florence Marble Works.

Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary defines pride as, 1: The quality or state of being proud; a: delight or elation arising from some act, possession, or relationship; 2: a source of pride: the best in a group or class; 3: a company of lions.

LION FOOTBALL GLOSSARY, 1949-94

Harlon Hill Trophy

The NCAA Division II College Football Player of the Year award is named for former Lion end Harlon Hill and presented every December in the Shoals. UNA sports information director Jeff Hodges serves as chairman of the National Harlon Hill Award Committee. Hill was an All-American end for the Lions in 1953 and was later Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the National Football League with the Chicago Bears.

The award was created in 1986, with North Dakota State quarterback Jeff Bentrin as its first recipient. The 1995 award will be presented on December 8 at the tenth annual Harlon Hill Awards Banquet.

Five UNA players have been nominated for the Hill award: Marvin Marsh (RB) in 1986, Tommy Compton (QB) in 1988, James Davis (LB) in 1990, Tyrone Rush (RB) in 1992 and 1993 and Ronald McKinnon in 1994. Rush finished second in the voting in 1993 behind New Haven running back Roger Graham.

UNA faced the 1994 Hill Trophy winner twice, defeating Valdosta State and Chris Hatcher both times. UNA's defense dominated Hatcher in the first meeting, a 38-21 UNA win. In the second meeting, Hatcher led VSU back from a 17-3 deficit to force the first overtime game in school history, but UNA prevailed 27-24 in two extra periods.

Leo II

UNA boasts the only live Lion mascot in the country living on campus. On July 22, 1974, former UNA president Dr. Robert M. Guillot brought a 35-pound lion cub to the campus and Leo spent the next 14 years "roaring" the school to victory. The original Leo died on Jan. 20, 1988, and a great outpouring of support from the Shoals community resulted in Leo II being brought to UNA in July of 1988. Leo II lives in the compound that once housed the original Leo and he has grown to a weight of more than 600 pounds at seven years of age.

National Championships

The Lion football program has had the chance to play for seven in the NCAA playoffs and won its first in 1993 with a dramatic 41-34 win over Indiana-Pennsylvania in the Championship Game at Braly Stadium. UNA followed with a second straight Division II football crown last season, becoming just the third school in Division II history to win back-to-back titles. The UNA basketball program has won two Division II titles, in 1979 and 1991, and that makes UNA the only school in the history of NCAA competition on any level to have won two national championships in both football and basketball. Only five other NCAA schools have ever even won one championship in each sports (Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State, Jacksonville State and Wittenberg).

UNA has had teams compete in the NCAA Division II championship tournaments in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and men's tennis, and has had individuals compete in the national championship events in golf and women's cross country. The members of the UNA football coaching staff also have a vast experience with national championships. All five full-time assistants have been a part of the Lions national championships in 1993 and 1994, but most have also been a part of other championship teams.

Defensive coordinator Bill Hyde was assistant coach for a Division III national championship team at Samford in 1971 and has coached UNA to all 13 of its Division II playoff victories. Offensive coordinator Willie Slater has been a part of four national championships, two as running back coach at Troy State in 1984 and 1987 and two at UNA in 1993 and 1994. Defensive backfield coach Derek Hill helped Central State of Ohio win the 1990 NAIA national championship as a secondary coach.

The Gulf South Conference has produced five of the last eight Division II national champions and six Division II championship teams overall in football.

Off the Sidelines

That's where two Livingston players came from to tackle L.L. Whitten in 1952. Whitten had broken away and was running for an apparent touchdown when two Livingston players jumped off the sidelines and tackled him. The Lions led 27-6 at the time and went on to a 34-6 win when Whitten was awarded a touchdown, despite being tackled at the Tigers' 28 yard-line. Walter Henders, the current head coach at Chipley High School in Florida, was the 13th man who finally brought Whitten down. The play was even more significant because it happened two years before Alabama's Tommy Lewis made the well known off the sidelines tackle of Dickey Moegle of Rice in the Cotton Bowl.

Overtime

The Lions played the first overtime game in school history on November 25 against Valdosta State at Braly Stadium in the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. UNA led 17-3 in the fourth quarter before a Blazer rally tied the game and forced overtime. Each team scored a touchdown on its first possession, forcing a second overtime with the score tied at 21-21. In the second extra period, VSU lined up for a 40-yard field goal attempt that was blocked by Lion All-American tackle Marcus Keyes. UNA then moved to the Blazers one-yard line on its possession before Jamie Stoddard was called on to kick a 17-yard field goal that gave the Lions a 24-21 victory.

LION PRIDE

The UNA Lion

The University of North Alabama saw the arrival of another Lion on its campus just prior to the 1994 football season, but this one weighed a full ton more than UNA's live lion mascot Leo. This Lion, a 2,700 pound concrete statue, was presented to the university by the UNA Sportsman's Club in honor of the school's three national championship teams (1979 and 1991 basketball, 1993 football). But no sooner than the statue went up, the Lions won a fourth title with the 1994 Division II football championship. The Lion was purchased from the Ornamental Concrete Company in Mississippi and came from a die created in Germany. The Lion is four feet high, two feet wide and seven feet long and stands on a 3'x8' base. A plaque adorns the side of the monument in honor of UNA's NATIONAL CHAMPIONS, and lists the year and team records for each of the Lions national championship teams. With the Lions two national championships in both football and basketball, the school is the only one in the history of NCAA competition on any level to have won two championships in both football and basketball.

The Lion stands beside Pine Street, directly in front of Flowers Hall.

The Lion has been the official mascot of all UNA teams since the school began athletic competition in the 1930s. The school has had a costume mascot for decades, and has been the only school in the country to have a live lion mascot living on campus since 1974.

LION FOOTBALL GLOSSARY, 1949-94

The Perfect Season

That's what UNA had in 1993. The Lions went 14-0 for the first perfect season in school and Gulf South Conference history. The 1993 Lions are one of just five NCAA Division II teams to ever claim the national championship with a perfect record and one of just four to have ever gone 14-0.

Playoffs

The Lions have been to seven NCAA football playoffs (1980, 1983, 1985, 1990, 1992, 1993, 1994) and have a 13-5 record in post-season action. UNA advanced all the way to the Division II Championship Game at the Palm Bowl in McAllen, Tex., in 1985. In 1993 and 1994, the Lions became the first team in the history of the Division II playoffs to play for the championship on their home field. UNA has hosted 15 of the 18 playoff games it has been in.

Professional Football

The Lions have had numerous players drafted and signed by professional teams in the National Football League, the World Football League, the United States Football League and the Canadian Football League. The most prominent has been Harlon Hill, who was Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the NFL with the Chicago Bears. Lewis Billups and Darryl Smith played for the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIV. Stevie Hobbs was a team captain for the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XXVI, and defensive tackle Shawn Lee started for the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX. Hobbs, former Lion runningback Tyrone Rush and former Lion defensive end Marcus Hunter play for the Washington Redskins, Lee plays for the San Diego Chargers and former Lion fullback Brian Satterfield has signed with the Green Bay Packers.

Publications

The University of North Alabama's athletic publications have won numerous national awards, including more than 50 since 1984. Among those, the Lions football media guide has been judged among the top four in the nation in nine of the last 11 years. In judging by the College Sports Information Directors of America, the UNA football guide was third in the nation in 1984, fourth in 1986, third in 1987, second in 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992, and third last season. The awards were presented for Division B, which includes all NCAA Division II and NAIA Division I schools.

Punt Blocking

The Lions have had some of the best kick blockers in Division II history in Bruce Jones and Daryl Smith. Jones blocked a Gulf South Conference record five punts in 1985 and had six in his career. Smith blocked a total of eight kicks during his career. But the most famous blocked punt in school history came on Dec. 11, 1993, when sophomore Israel Raybon blocked a John McGehee punt with 12:17 left in the NCAA Division II National Championship Game and UNA trailing 24-14. He recovered the blocked kick at the IUP 28 and UNA scored three plays later. The Lions went on to score 27 points in the final period and won their first national championship, 41-34.

Ranked Opponents

The Lions have faced numerous nationally ranked opponents over the years and have been particularly impressive in recent years, posting a 14-1-1 record over the last three years against nationally ranked Division II opponents. UNA currently has a 13 game winning streak against nationally ranked Division II teams.

In 1994 UNA also faced the No. 3 ranked team in Division I-AA, with UNA falling at Youngstown State 17-14.

UNA has finished among the top 10 teams in the Division II final poll in 1980, 1983, 1985, 1993 and 1994.

Tyrone Rush

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Gulf South Conference selection, Rush finished as the runner-up for the Harlon Hill Trophy in 1993. He is the all-time leading rusher in UNA and Gulf South conference history (4,421) and scored 37 career touchdowns. He also set UNA records with yards rushing in a game (248) and season (1,466), rushing attempts in a season (237) and career (791), touchdowns (19) and points in a season (116), career all-purpose yards (6,020) and career (21) and season (8) 100-yard rushing games.

LION PRIDE

The Championship Tree

The University of North Alabama planted a national championship tree early in the spring of 1994 to commemorate its first NCAA Division II football championship. The tree was a gift from J.D. Varner, the mayor of Indiana, Pennsylvania, and was part of a wager made with Florence Mayor Eddie Frost over which school would win the championship. North Alabama defeated Indiana, Pa., 41-34 and the mayor of Indiana sent the tree to the city of Florence.

The Christmas tree was wagered by Varner because his county is known as the "Christmas Tree Capital of the World."

Frost wagered a case of Jogging-in-a-Jug and a basket filled with assorted items from the area, and his wager appeared in jeopardy in the fourth quarter with UNA trailing 24-14. But in one of the greatest comebacks in school history, UNA rallied for 27 points in the fourth quarter and scored the game-winning touchdown with just 10 seconds left on a one-yard dive by Cody Gross.

The tree, now just over a year old, is planted beside the UNA football practice field as a reminder to all present and future Lion players of the first national championship claimed by the Lions and the work and dedication that went into that championship drive.

University Bookstore manager Melissa Green also wagered the bookstore manager at IUP over the outcome of the game, with the losing school's manager having to wear a sweat shirt from the opposing school for a week following the game.

LION FOOTBALL GLOSSARY, 1949-94

Hal Self

Henry "Hal" Self served as the Lions first head football coach of the modern era when the sport was revived at UNA in 1949. Over the next 21 seasons he posted a 109-81-8 record, compiling 13 winning seasons against a rugged schedule that included numerous Division I schools, and with a staff that, for the majority of that time, consisted only of Self and George Weeks. From 1952-63 Self led UNA to a combined 31-0-2 record against state rivals Livingston, Troy State and Jacksonville State. Self served 33 years at UNA as a coach, athletic director and member of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation faculty.

Statistical Champions

The UNA Lions football teams have had two individual NCAA Division II national statistical champions. Place-kicker Nelson McMurrain led the nation in field goals in 1980 with 1.40 made per game. He connected on 14 of 22 attempts. Running back Clarence Johnson was the division's top scorer in 1983 with 9.6 points per game or 16 touchdowns in 10 regular-season games. In 1993, UNA won two team statistical championships as well, leading the nation in rushing (371.5) and net punting (36.8).

Streaks

The Lions have numerous current winning streaks, the most of amazing of which is a 27-game winning streak against NCAA Division II opponents. The Lions have also won 17 straight games at Braly Stadium, 13 straight over nationally ranked Division II opponents, 16 straight over non-conference Division II opponents, 14 straight regular-season Gulf South Conference games, nine straight overall and eight straight in Division II playoff games.

Team of the Decade

The UNA Lions dominated the Gulf South Conference Team of the Decade for the 1980s with seven first-team selections. UNA had four players selected to the defensive squad, including three of the four defensive backs. Bruce Jones, Daryl Smith and Lewis Billups were chosen in the secondary, while James Davis was selected at linebacker. Chosen for the offensive unit were lineman Don Smith, running back Clarence Johnson and place-kicker James Knowles.

Television

The Lions have made numerous appearances on regional or national television over the years, including a record five times in 1994. UNA's regular-season games against Alabama A&M and Central Arkansas were broadcast regionally by WAAY-TV (ABC) in Huntsville, while the Lion's regular-season game against Valdosta State was carried on SportSouth. UNA's semifinal NCAA playoff game was carried by Midwest SportsChannel and UNA's appearance in the NCAA Division II National Championship Game was broadcast by both WAAY-TV and ESPN2. Over the years, Lion football games have been telecast nationally by ABC, CBS, ESPN and

ESPN2.

Triple-Option

UNA head coach Bobby Wallace switched the Lions to a triple-option offense for the first time in 1992 and the results have been incredible. Since UNA made the switch to the triple-option, the Lions have a 34-5-1 record, have made three straight NCAA playoff appearances and won back-to-back Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II National Championships. UNA has led the GSC in rushing three straight years and led Division II in 1993. UNA offensive coordinator Willie Slater was a triple-option quarterback during his playing days at Livingston University and helped lead Troy State to two Division II National Championships with the Wishbone during his time as an assistant coach on the Trojans staff.

George Weeks

"The Bull," as he was known to the Lion players and fans during the 1950s and 60s, played an integral part in helping to lay the foundation for the Lion football program. Weeks served as an assistant to Hal Self on the Lion football teams from 1949-69, and was the only assistant coach for the majority of that time. Weeks also served as the Lions head baseball coach from 1949 until 1971.

1912

That's the year of the first recorded score of a Lion football game, and it wasn't pretty. Florence State Normal School, as UNA was then known, played only one football game that season, and lost 101-0 to Sewanee. The Lions continued to play for 16 more seasons before dropping the sport in 1928 after losing twice to Marion Institute, 86-0 and 85-0.

March 30, 1949

Florence State Teachers College President Dr. E.B. Norton called a student assembly to announce that football would be renewed and that the Lions would jump headlong into collegiate competition that fall.

No. 1 vs. No. 2

A meeting between the No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams in the NCAA Division II has happened twice in UNA history, with both coming in 1994. The first meeting was on November 5, with UNA ranked No. 1 at 7-1 and Gulf South Conference rival Valdosta State ranked No. 2 at 9-0. The Lions dominated the Blazers 38-21 at Braly Stadium. On December 10, UNA faced Texas A&M-Kingsville in the NCAA Division II Championship Game at Braly Stadium and won 16-10. Kingsville had ranked No. 2 in Division II in the final poll following the regular-season, while the Lions had maintained their No. 1 ranking.

1980s

It was a fantastic decade for North Alabama football. UNA had the best record of any Gulf South Conference school and the 12th best record nationally among NCAA Division II schools. The Lions won three GSC titles and made three NCAA playoff appearances in 1980, 1983 and 1985.

LION PRIDE

Head Coach Bobby Wallace

Set to begin his eighth season as head coach of the Lions, Bobby Wallace has already etched his place in Lion football history. Pictured above with the Sears Trophy he received at the American Football Coaches Association 1995 convention, Wallace has led UNA to four NCAA playoff appearances in the 1990s, including two NCAA Division II National Championships. His 53-28-1 record during his time at UNA includes a 34-5-1 record over the last three seasons.

In 1994, Wallace was named Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year for a second straight season and was named National Coach of the Year by Chevrolet and ABC, the American Football Coaches Association, the Football Gazette and College Sports magazines.

Wallace is just the fifth head football coach in school history and ranks third in wins at the school after only seven years.

By being named as the AFCA's College Division I National Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1994, Wallace became just the third coach in the 35-year history of the award to have received it in back-to-back years, joining William Edwards of Wittenberg in 1962-63 and Tubby Raymond of Delaware in 1971-72.

During Wallace's time at UNA, the program has produced 37 first-team All-Gulf South Conference players, including an unprecedented 12 first-team picks in 1994. UNA has also had 16 different players selected for All-America honors, including seven All-Americans in 1994.

THE CLASS OF 1995: A-Z

UNA's Class of 1995 - 19 Seniors from A to Z

Scott Basden • Charles Duckworth • Josh Eads • Eddie Evans • Nate George • Sam Graham • Eric Groom • Cody Gross • Jarius Hayes • Keith Humphrey • Willie Jones • Marcus Keyes • Cale Manley • Ronald McKinnon • Israel Raybon • Paul Sanders • Jon Thompson • Chris Thornton • Michael Williams

All Americans - The Lions senior class of 1995 includes five players who were named to All-America teams last season. Linebackers Ronald McKinnon and Keith Humphrey, defensive tackles Marcus Keyes and Israel Raybon and offensive guard Jon Thompson were all named to a variety of All-America teams in 1994. McKinnon was a consensus All-America pick, named to the Associated Press, American Football Coach Association, Division II Sports Information Directors, the Football Gazette and C.M. Frank All-America teams.

Braly Stadium - The Lions have a 21-3 record at home at Braly Stadium over the last three seasons, that includes a current 17-game winning streak at home. The Class of 1995 went 4-3 at home in 1992, 9-0 in 1993 and 8-0 last season.

Class - The Lions Class of 1995 should finish as the winningest senior class in school history. UNA has posted a 34-5-1 record over the last three seasons, with marks of 7-4-1, 14-0-0 and 13-1-0. The most wins by any previous Lion class is 37, set by the classes of 1985 and 1994.

Defensive Line - Among the Lions 1995 seniors are two of the premier linemen in college football. All-American tackle Marcus Keyes (6-3, 310) and All-American tackle/end Israel Raybon (6-6, 268) are both considered professional football prospects. Charles Duckworth, who is slated to start at tackle alongside Keyes, is also a member of the Class of 1995.

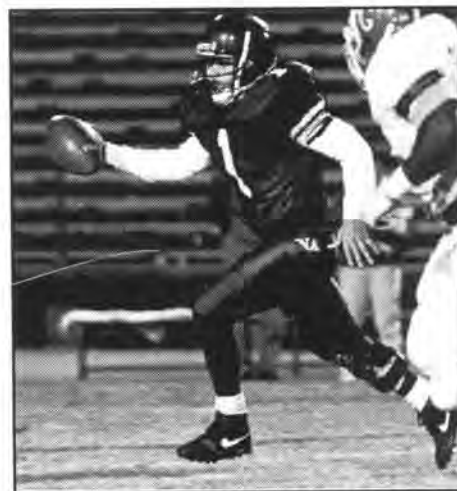

Execution - That's what UNA's senior class has done over the last three years. Offensively the Lions have rushed for a combined 12,926 yards, scored 1,236 points and rolled up 16,259 total yards over the last three years. That's 7.3 miles rushing and 9.2 miles of total offense for the Class of 1995.

Five Years - That's how long Eric Groom has been involved in the UNA football program. When the 1995 season is over, Groom will have five years of statistics to show for his time at UNA. Just two games into his freshman season in 1990, Groom suffered a knee injury and was granted a medical red-shirt. After rehabilitating his knee, Groom came back to play in 1991 and 1992 before another knee injury apparently ended his career. But he again worked to rehabilitate his knee and came back to start last season at slot back. During his career at UNA, Groom has played tailback, split end, quarterback and slot back and has started at three positions.

Gulf South Conference - UNA's senior class owns two Gulf South Conference championships and a 14-game GSC regular-season winning streak entering 1995. UNA is 17-2-1 in the GSC over the last three seasons. The Lions were 3-2-1 in 1992, 7-0 in 1993 to win the GSC crown, and 7-0 to last season to take a second straight GSC title.

THE CLASS OF 1995: A-Z

Honors - They abound among the members of UNA's Class of 1995. Five of the players are All-Americans, nine were selected first-team All-Gulf South Conference last season.

Israel Raybon - The 6-foot-6 defensive lineman has been a fixture on the UNA defensive line for the last three years and made one of the biggest plays in school history. With UNA trailing 24-14 in the fourth quarter of the 1993 NCAA Division II National Championship Game, Raybon blocked an Indiana-Pennsylvania punt and ignited a 27-point fourth quarter for the Lions that took UNA to a 41-34 win and its first Division II National Championship.

Injuries - Several members of the Class of 1995 have suffered injuries during their careers, but the most serious happened to Eric Groom and Scott Basden. Groom suffered knee injuries in both 1990 and 1992. After the 1990 injury he received a medical redshirt and returned to play in 1991. In 1992 he was injured in the eighth game of the season and missed the remainder of the season and sat out the 1993 season. Basden suffered a fractured eye socket in the 1992 game against Livingston and sat out the entire 1993 season.

Jarius Hayes - He's been the Lions starting tight end for each of the last three seasons. Although he has caught just — passes during his career, he has been a huge part of the Lions offense as a blocker, runner and receiver.

Kickoffs - Although Chris Thornton has scored just one point during his career at UNA, he has served an important role for the Lions over the last three years, handling the kickoff duties. After sharing the kickoff duties in 1992, Thornton has handled all kickoffs over the last two seasons, while Jamie Stoddard has kicked on extra-points and field goals.

Linebackers - Among the members of UNA's senior class are two of the top linebackers in Division II history. Ronald McKinnon and Keith Humphrey, both All-Gulf South Conference and All-America performers, McKinnon and Humphrey have combined for — tackles over the last three seasons. The Class of 1995 also includes outstanding linbackers in Sam Graham and Paul Sanders, who have also started for the Lions.

McKinnon - That's Ronald McKinnon. Number 44. Over the last three years he has placed his name among the lite in Division II history. McKinnon has been named first-team All-Gulf South Conference three times and should become just the third player in GSC history to be first-team all-conference four times. He has been named All-American in 1993 and 1994 and was selected as the Division II National Player of the Year by Danny Sheridan and CNN's College Football Preview last season.

National Champions - UNA's senior class owns two NCAA Division II National Championships, with back-to-back national titles in 1993 and 1994. UNA is now one of just three Division II schools to have ever won back-to-back national championships.

Nineteen - There are 19 members of the Lions Class of 1995.

Offensive Line - Six seniors lead the way on UNA's offensive line, including four-year starters in Michael Williams and Jon Thompson. Eddie Evans and Willie Jones have two years starting experience, while Scott Basden has started one year and Josh Eads has gained considerable experience as a back-up. Between the six seniors, they have earned 16 letters for the Lions.

Israel Raybon

Michael Williams

THE CLASS OF 1995: A-Z

Playoffs - The Lions senior class has been to the NCAA playoffs in each of the last three seasons, reaching the quarterfinals in 1992 and winning the national championship in 1993 and 1994. The Class of 1995 is 9-1 in the Division II playoffs.

Polls - The Class of 1995 has been a fixture in the NCAA Division II polls over the last three years, closing the 1992 season ranked No. 16 in the nation. Then, on October 4, 1993, UNA took over the No. 1 spot in the Division II poll and has held it ever since - in 17 consecutive polls.

Pride Rock - The senior class saw the creation of the Pride Rock tradition in 1994, with the rock making its first appearance at a Lion football game on Sept. 10 at Braly Stadium against Alabama A&M. Pride Rock is a 60-pound, engraved granite stone with an actual paw print from Leo, UNA's live lion mascot. The rock is used as a motivational tool for the Lion players.

Purple Swarm - Seven of the Lions seniors are members of the Purple Swarm defense that dominated opponents last season. The Purple Swarm is another part of the Lion football tradition that has become a part of the legacy of the Class of 1995.

Professional Football - That's where several members of the Class of 1995 may end up. Tight end Jarius Hayes and defensive linemen Marcus Keyes and Israel Raybon are considered the most likely pro prospects, with their combination of NFL size and speed. Linebackers Ronald McKinnon and Keith Humphrey are also drawing the attention of professional scouts Quarterbacks - The Lions have two who have combined for six letters over the last three seasons in seniors Cody Gross and Cale Manley. Manley was red-shirted in 1991, and he and Gross have each helped lead the Lions to three straight playoff appearances in 1992, 1993 and 1994. Gross has a 28-2 record as a starting quarterback. The Lions starting tailback, Eric Groom, was the team's starting quarterback for eight games in 1992 before suffering an injury. Manley then started the final two games of the regular-season and Gross drew his first start in the NCAA playoffs against Hampton.

Rogersville, Ala. - It's a town that has provided two members of UNA's Class of 1995 in quarterback Cody Gross and offensive tackle Michael Williams. Members of Lauderdale County High School's Class of 1992, both Gross and Williams came on to start for UNA in 1992 and are slated to start for their fourth straight year this fall. Gross has a 28-2 record as a starting quarterback, while Williams has been an Academic All-Gulf South Conference performer.

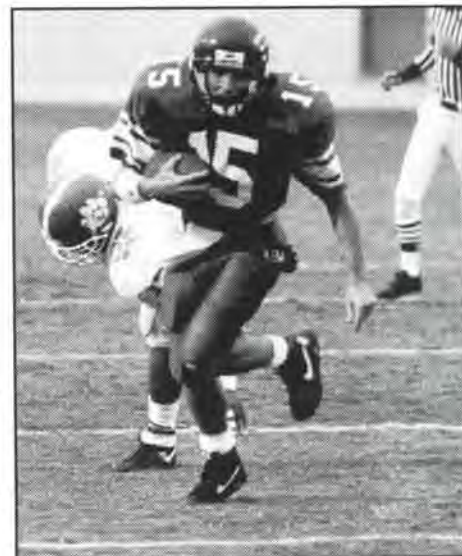

Ranked Opponents - During their careers, the Class of 1995 has played 18 games against nationally ranked opponents and have a 14-3-1 record in those games. UNA has won its last 13 straight games against ranked Division II opponents.

Streaks - You name it and the Lions have a streak for it. UNA has won 27 straight games against NCAA Division II opponents. The Lions have also won 17 straight at home, 14 straight Gulf South Conference games, nine straight games overall and eight straight NCAA playoff games.

Shutout - The Class of 1995 has never been shutout by an opponent. The Lions have scored in all 40 games that the members of the Class of 1995 have played in.

Jarius Hayes

Cody Gross

Cale Manley

THE CLASS OF 1995: A-Z

Triple Option - It's the offensive scheme that has helped make the Class of 1995 the best in school history. UNA switched to the triple-option offense in 1992 and has posted a 34-5-1 record since. UNA has led the Gulf South Conference in rushing three straight years and led Division II in rushing in 1993.

Three - As in three straight. That's how many consecutive Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II National Championships the Class of 1995 hopes to finish with. No school has ever won three straight titles in either the GSC or in Division II.

Undefeated - UNA's Class of 1995 has gone undefeated against NCAA Division II opponents and Gulf South Conference opponents over the last two years. In 1993, the Lions posted the first perfect season in school and GSC history at 14-0.

Victory- The Class of 1995 has won 34 times in 40 career games.

Wholehearted- As defined in Webster's dictionary means undivided in purpose, enthusiasm, or will. UNA's senior class has certainly demonstrated its unity and given a wholehearted effort over the last three years. The Class of 1995 has crafted a 34-5-1 record, that includes two GSC and NCAA Division II championships.

Winningest - North Alabama is the winningest NCAA Division II program over the last three seasons, with a 34-5-1 mark. Pittsburg State is second at 32-5, followed by New Haven (30-5), Ferris State (30-5-2) and Indiana, Pa. (30-6-1).

Xtra-ordinary- The members of UNA's senior class of 1995 have enjoyed extraordinary careers, having already made three trips to the Division II playoffs and claiming back-to-back GSC and NCAA Division II championships. A third straight national championship would make UNA the first school in Division II history to win three straight national titles.

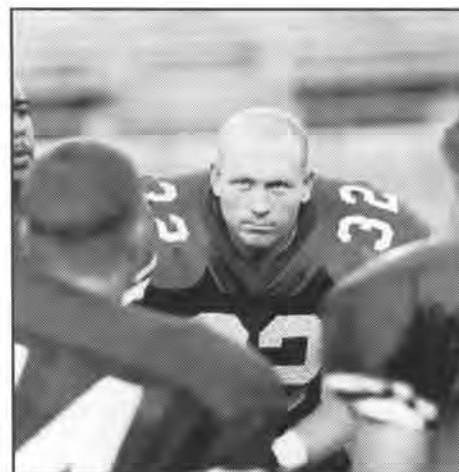

Youth- The members of the Class of 1995 showed flashes of greatness, even in their youth. When the Lions traveled to Hampton, Va., for the opening round of the 1992 Division II playoffs, seven freshmen were in the starting lineup - Ronald McKinnon, Sam Graham, Israel Raybon, Jon Thompson, Michael Williams, Cody Gross and Jarius Hayes. Of the 19 members of the Lions senior class of 1995, 14 have already earned 3 letters each. Among those are linebacker Ronald McKinnon and offensive lineman Jon Thompson, who are three-time All-Gulf South Conference selections. McKinnon, the 1992 GSC Freshman of the Year could become just the third player in GSC history to be first-team All-GSC four straight years. Thompson, who was selected second-team All-GSC as a freshman could become one of 28 players in the conference's 24 year history to be first or second-team all-conference four times.

Zero - That's how many games the Lions have lost to NCAA Division II opponents over the last two years.

Zest - Defined as keen enjoyment, that's what the Class of 1995 has given to Lion fans during their collective careers.
