NOTES:

* As a team, UNA earned its first regional ranking on the Division I level on August 30, 2022 when the Lions were ranked 10th in the United Soccer Coaches Association South Region rankings.

* First season that finished without a tie game since 2019.

* Through 17 games, 14 different lineups were used for Chris Walker and company due to differing injuries for varying players throughout the season.

* North Alabama had six true freshmen that combined for 80 games played with 23 starts during the 2024 campaign. The six include Ella Remy, Emerson Nieroda, Anna Fugarino, Gizelle El Assal, Abigail Witten and Langley Wallace.

* The 2,186 fans in attendance for the first ever ASUN matchup between West Georgia and North Alabama set a school record in attendance for program. The Lions split time between the Florence Sports Complex and the Cox Creek Sports Complex during the 2024 season.

BILL JONES ATHLETIC COMPLEX

UNA SOCCER'S FORMER HOME FIELD . . .

The 2008 season marked the first time since the UNA women's soccer program began in 1997 that the Lions played at an on-campus facility. The initial ProGrass field at the UNA Athletic Complex was part of a $1.25 million renovation. The field was replaced prior to the spring of 2022. UNA is 75-35-7 on the turf and had a 16-match home winning streak from 2009-10. The 2024 season saw the last of the Bill Jones Athletic Complex as North Alabama is building Bank Independent Stadium that plans to be ready for the 2026 season. Both the football and soccer programs will compete there.

BILL JONES ATHLETIC COMPLEX

UNA won the 2015 Gulf South Conference Championship on its home field in dramatic fashion, downing Lee 4-3 on penalty kicks. Stacey Webber (No. 9) provided the winning margin and goalkeeper Shelby Thornton (yellow) was tournament Most Outstanding Player.

Above, the Lions celebrate the 2015 Gulf South Conference Championship.
At right, the Lions hosted an NCAA South Regional Tournament for the first time in 2015 and again in 2017.

UNA'S BREAK-THROUGH FIRST SEASON IN DIVISION I

A 5-1 win over Alabama State on August 17, 2018 was not only the first soccer win for UNA in its Division I era but was also the first competition and first victory for the entire athletic program as a Division I member.

After winning their first five matches of the Division I era, the Lions suffered their first loss on the road at eventual SEC regular-season champion Vanderbilt. Vandy was one of two NCAA Tournament teams on UNA's 2018 schedule.

UNA'S BREAK-THROUGH FIRST SEASON IN DIVISION I

The Lions celebrate a 3-0 win over NJIT on the road in the ASUN Conference Tournament semifinal. With the win, UNA advanced to the conference championship match in its first season in the league.

Margarida Sousa's goal in the ASUN Championship match wasn't enough as the Lions lost 3-2 to host Lipscomb.
