CAROLINA COACHING STAFF

BUTCH DAVIS HEAD COACH

North Carolina head coach Butch Davis has brought energy and enthusiasm back to the Tar Heel football program with his ability to motivate, teach and recruit at the highest level. A man with a proven record of success and an unyielding commitment to excellence, Davis has a clear vision for building a championship program in Chapel Hill based on integrity, character and honor.

In three seasons at North Carolina, Davis has led the Tar Heels to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in more than a decade and produced 16 wins over the past two years - the most since consecutive double-digit wins in 1996-97. The former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, Davis is Carolina's 33rd head coach and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953.

Introduced as North Carolina's head coach on Nov. 13, 2006, Davis quickly rejuvenated the fan base and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium. Beginning with his first Carolina recruiting class in 2007, which many analysts ranked among the top 10 in the country, Davis has connected with student-athletes and fans alike with his brand of fast, hard-nosed, disciplined football.

Davis, who guided Miami out of NCAA probation and into the upper echelon of college football in the late 1990s, has likewise turned around the UNC program. Carolina improved from 4-8 in 2007 to 8-5 in 2008, which was the sixth-best turnaround in the country. A second consecutive eight-win season in 2009 gives the Tar Heels 20 wins under Davis, which is one more than they won in the five years (2002-06) prior to his arrival.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics. His teams have been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his nine seasons as a head coach, including six at Miami and three at UNC.

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 13 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. An excellent motivator and technician, Davis has recruited or coached 30 first-round draft picks as a college coach.
