Face-off Sunday at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium will be at 2:30 p.m. The game is the second of a quarterfinal doubleheader at Navy with second-seeded and ACC champion Syracuse meeting Big 10 Conference champion Johns Hopkins at 12 noon.

Fans can also order tickets in advance by visiting the U.S. Naval Academy athletics website at www.NavySports.com.

CAROLINA VS. MARYLAND: Sunday's game will mark the 66th meeting between the Tar Heels and the Terrapins. Maryland leads the all-time series 41-24.

The two teams met earlier this season with the Terrapins defeating the Tar Heels 10-8 on March 22, 2015 in the Pacific Coast Lacrosse Shootout at Santa Ana Stadium in Santa Ana, Calif. The Terps built a five-goal lead in the third quarter at 7-2 before the Tar Heels staged a late rally that fell short.

The game will be the third NCAA Tournament meeting between Carolina and Maryland. The Tar Heels beat Maryland 12-10 in the NCAA quarterfinals in 1986 at College Park, Md. The Terrapins defeated UNC 13-6 in the NCAA Tournament first round in 2011 in Chapel Hill, N.C.

THE TAR HEELS IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: Carolina has earned an NCAA Tournament bid for the ninth straight year and the seventh straight year under coach Joe Breschi.

The Tar Heels are appearing in the NCAA Tournament field for the 30th time since the beginning of the tournament in 1971. Carolina's initial tournament appearance came in 1976 under coach Paul Doty.

Carolina's all-time NCAA Tournament record is 29-25 heading into the game Maryland. UNC is one of just five schools to have qualified for

CAROLINA'S #3

SEED: North Carolina is the No. 3 seed in the 2015 NCAA Tournament. That is the highest seed for the Tar Heels since 1993 when they were the #1 seed. That is also the last season in which the Tar Heels advanced to Memorial Day championship weekend.

Since then Carolina had been the #4 seed in 1994, 1996, 2008 and 2010.

UNC will be looking for its first NCAA Tournament quarterfinal win since 1993 versus the Terrapins on Sunday. The Tar Heels have fallen in their last seven NCAA Tournament quarterfinal games (1994, 1996, 2004, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2013).

VERSUS THE NCAA FIELD: Carolina played 11 of its 16 games in 2015 against teams which qualified for the NCAA Tournament field this year, going 8-3 in those games.

Carolina holds wins over NCAA participants Colgate, High Point, Johns Hopkins, Denver,

Bitter of Stowe, Vt., and senior midfielder Chad Tutton of Courtice, Ontario were tapped for the second straight year. Senior close defenseman Jake Bailey (Fairport, N.Y.) and senior long-stick midfielder Ryan Kilpatrick (West Chester, Pa.) earned honors for the first time.

Sankey has 31 goals and 37 assists in 2015. He is second on the team in assists (37) and is second in points (68). He has scored three game-winners and in the win over Syracuse on April 11 he passed Marcus Holman as Carolina's all-time leading scorer. Sankey is also third all-time in assists at Carolina.

Jimmy Bitter leads Carolina in points with 75 and in assists with 39. He has also scored 36 goals and he needs three goals to tie the school record for goals in a career at 128 held by Bert Fett (1971-74). Bitter currently ranks second in all-time goals at UNC. He is fourth all-time in points in UNC history.

Chad Tutton has 33 goals and six assists this season. He has 104 career goals and against Notre Dame on April 18 he became the 12th Tar Heel to break the century in career goals. He leads UNC with seven man-up goals this season.

Jake Bailey has started 30 games in a row at close defense. This season he has 43 ground balls, the most among UNC close defensemen, and 17 caused turnovers, the second highest number on the squad. Coming into this season, he had career totals of 43 ground balls and 19 caused turnovers.

Ryan Kilpatrick is considered one of the nation's top long-stick middies. He has played in 64 games in his career, missing only one. This season he has 39 ground balls and he has caused 11 turnovers. He has three goals and one assist. Earlier this year he passed the century mark in ground balls and now has 119 in his career to go along with 35 caused turnovers.

Jason Wade had 55 points.

• Carolina has four players with 30 plus goals this season, the first time in school history Carolina has had a quartet of players reach that plateau in a single season.

Both the 2013 and 1973 Tar Heel teams had a trio of 30-goal scorers.

Currently, Luke Goldstock has 49 goals, Jimmy Bitter has 36 goals, Chad Tutton has 33 goals and Joey Sankey has tallied 31 goals.

• For the first time in school history, UNC has had two players in the same season record 30 or more assists. Jimmy Bitter has 39 assists this year. Joey Sankey has 37 assists this season. The 1997 team had two players with 29 assists each - Merrill Turnbull and Spencer Deering.

• Of Carolina's 237 goals this season, a total of 147 of them have been assisted. A total of 62.0 percent of Carolina's goals this season have been assisted as compared to just 47 percent during the 2014 season.

• UNC is currently 43-30 against nationally ranked teams in Coach Joe Breschi's seven years as head coach. The Tar Heels are 75-13 in games in which they have scored 10 or more goals under Coach Joe Breschi. The Tar Heels are 4-4 against #1-ranked teams during Coach Breschi's tenure.

• After its 19-12 win over Colgate on April May 10, North Carolina has now won 15 straight home games. That's the longest home winning streak since UNC won 26 games in a row in Chapel Hill more than two decades ago. That streak started with a 26-13 win over Duke on April 21, 1990 and was ended by Virginia on April 9, 1994 when the Cavaliers won 16-6 at Fetzer Field. The Tar Heels are 11-0 at home in 2015 and last lost in Chapel Hill on March 1, 2014 versus Notre Dame, 11-10.

- Carolina has played 10 nationally ranked opponents this season (based on rank at the time game was played). The Tar Heels have played 11 of 16 games against teams which qualified for the 2015 NCAA Tournament.

- Carolina has recorded 10 or more wins for the seventh straight season, a school first. UNC had won 10 or more in six straight seasons from 1989-94 for the only other time with as many as six successive double-digit win seasons.

- Carolina's 13 wins this season are the most since it went 13-4 in 2013. The last time a UNC team won more than 13 games in a season was 1993 when the Tar Heels finished with a 14-2 record.

- UNC's starting attack unit of Jimmy Bitter, Luke Goldstock and Joey Sankey has combined for 116 goals, 93 assists and 211 points in 16 games this season. A year ago, the starting attack unit (Jimmy Bitter, Joey Sankey, Pat Foster) had 81 goals, 50 assists and 131 points in 15 games. UNC's attack has scored 35 more goals than a year ago while recording 43 more assists and 80 more points in just one more game than it played last season.

- The following Tar Heels have all recorded season highs for ground balls in their careers

- Ran in Carolina's second midfield unit as a sophomore, notching five goals and five assists.

- Recorded the first hat trick of his career in Carolina's victory over Bucknell on March 11, 2014. Had a four-point game versus the Bison, matching his career high for points in a match. Also had four points in UNC's season-opener against Furman in 2014. His three assists against the Paladins in that game were a career high.

Stephen Kelly, Sophomore Midfielder, Lutherville, Md.

- Kelly won 202 face-offs this year, the fifth most in a season in UNC history.

- Kelly has won 10 or more face-offs in 11 games this year. He has 10 games with five or more ground balls. Leads 2015 team with 97 ground balls.

- His 22 face-off wins against Duke were a career high (previous was 15 versus Princeton in 2014). The total was one shy of the school record of 23 by Shane Walterhoefer versus Ohio State in 2008. It marked only the fourth time in school history a player has won as many as 22 face-offs and the first time since Walterhoefer versus UMBC in 2009.

- He won 20 face-offs versus Colgate, the second highest total of his career. That marked only the eighth time in school history a Tar Heel player has won 20 or more face-offs in a game.

- Kelly's 11 ground balls versus Duke and versus Colgate marked his second highest totals ever. He had a career best 13 versus Princeton last year.

- Kelly had 18 face-off wins versus Notre Dame, the third highest total of his career. He matched his career best for ground balls in a game with 13 versus the Fighting Irish.

- Scored goals this year versus High Point and UMass and assisted on goals versus Manhattan and Bryant.

- Ranks seventh in career face-offs won at Carolina with 276. His 144 career ground balls rank 51st in UNC history.

- Has seven games in his career with 15 or more face-off wins.

- Has three of the top 10 individual ground ball totals in a game in Tar Heels.

- Ranks 12th in ground balls per game this season in NCAA Division I at 6.06.

- ACC Co-Defensive Player of the Week after Tar Heel win over Duke.

- Had a then career high 15 face-off wins against Princeton on March 7, 2014. Won 15 of 26 face-offs against the Tigers and had a career-high 13 ground balls in the game.

- His 13 ground balls against Princeton were the most by a Tar Heel in a game since Shane Walterhoefer had 15 against Providence on March 11, 2009. It was only the eighth time in UNC history a player has had as many as 13 ground balls in a game.

Ryan Kilpatrick, Senior Long-Stick Midfielder, West Chester, Pa.

- Standout Carolina long-stick defensive midfielder.

- 2015 All-ACC selection.

- Team captain.

- Has scored three goals this season (one each versus Furman, Denver, Manhattan) after scoring twice in his first three years combined. Has assists this year versus Virginia and Syracuse.

- Kilpatrick matched his career high for ground balls in a game with five at Virginia on April 3. He also had five versus Fairfield on February 23, 2013.

- Had four ground balls and three caused turnovers in victory over Duke.

- Has 39 ground balls, the most he has ever had in a season. (He had 36 in 2013).

- Has missed only one game in his career, playing in 64 of 65 games.

Peyton Klawinski, Sophomore Midfielder, Memphis, Tenn.

- Has had a breakout year for the Tar Heels.

- As a scout team player in 2014, he played in four games, scoring three goals. The sophomore midfielder from Memphis, Tenn., was elevated to the first midfield at the start of the 2015 season and has responded with 19 goals and three assists for 22 points in 16 games.

- Has started 13 of 16 games this season in the first midfield unit.

- Recorded hat tricks versus High Point, UMass, Richmond and Notre Dame. Also had a pair of goals in win over Syracuse.

- Has seven career multi-goal games and eight career multi-point games.

- Klawinski has scored on .452 percent of his total shots this year, the second best shooting percentage on the team. Nineteen of his 26 shots on goal have resulted in goals.

Jake Matthai, Junior Short-Stick Defensive Midfielder, Baltimore, Md.

- Has played in all 48 games in his Tar Heel career.

- Matthai posted a career high six ground balls against Furman in season opener.

- Has played in all 16 games this season. Scored goals against Furman and UMass and had assists against Manhattan, Harvard and Notre Dame.

- Has 21 ground balls, the most he has had in a single season (14 as a sophomore). His four caused turnovers are the most he has had in a single season.

- Scored five goals last season on just 12 shots.

Austin Pifani, Sophomore Defenseman, Roslyn, Pa.

- Has started all 31 matches on close defense in his career.

- Notched his second career goal versus UMass.

- Pifani tied his career high for ground balls in a game with five versus High Point.

- He equaled his career high for caused turnovers in a game with three versus UMass. He has 18 caused turnovers this year after having 10 in 2014.

- Has 39 ground balls this year. Had just 32 ground balls in his freshman year.

- 2014 USILA honorable mention All-America selection

- Named ACC Defensive Player of the Week on March 25, 2014 after leading strong defensive effort in an 11-8 win over #1 Maryland and a victory over Harvard earlier in the week. Had a career high five ground balls against Harvard. Held Harvard attackman Ian Ardrey to no goals and no assists and a season-low one shot in UNC's 13-10 win. Helped lead the Tar Heels' defense against then #1 Maryland, limiting the Terps to what was then a season-low 8 goals for them and handing them their first loss of the season. Guarded standout Maryland attackman Matt Rambo and held him to 0-for-7 shooting.

Steve Pontrello, Junior Midfielder, Marlton, N.J.

- Started in the first midfield unit his first three years. He was limited earlier this year by lower body injury

- Has played in 10 games.

- Has earned three starts in first midfield in second half of season.

- Has nine goals and four assists this year for 13 points.

- Matched his career high for goals in a game with three versus Colgate. Also had a career-high four points in the win over the Raiders.

- Scored back-to-back goals in the third quarter to break open 10-6 win at Virginia. Also had two-point games versus Duke and Syracuse.

- In his career he has eight multi-goal games, three multi-assist games and 14 multi-point games.

- Recorded the first hat trick of his career in Carolina's 13-10 win over Harvard on March 18, 2014.

- Scored two goals each in back-to-back wins over Johns Hopkins and Virginia as a sophomore. Tallied the game-tying goal with 2:33 to play in 11-10 come-from-behind win over Virginia.

- Had three multi-goal games as a freshman with two goals each against Notre Dame, Virginia and Lehigh.

Zach Powers, Junior Defenseman, Columbus, Ohio

- Has played in all 16 games this season, including 11 games as a starting close defenseman.

- Scored the first goal of his career in NCAA Tournament first round win over Colgate.

- Powers has 23 ground balls and 13 caused turnovers this season after having 11 and eight, respectively, in his first two years combined

- Against High Point he had career highs for ground balls with seven and caused turnovers with three. Had five ground balls versus Harvard and four against Richmond.

- Has played in all 48 games in his Tar Heel career.

- Had a then career-high five ground balls in victory over #1 Maryland on March 22, 2014.

Joey Sankey, Senior Attackman, Warminster, Pa.

- 2015 Senior CLASS Award finalist.

- Team captain.

- Named All-ACC for the third successive year.

- Tewaaron Trophy Watch List honoree and was named to 25-man nominee list in late April.

- Shared ACC Offensive Player of the Week honors after 10-6 victory at Virginia.

- Sankey's 52-game point streak is the longest active streak in NCAA Division I.

- Sankey has 21 career hat tricks, matching Jimmy Bitter for the team lead in that category. That includes seven hat tricks this season.

- Has recorded assists in every game this season as well as points in every game. He has three or more points in 14 of 16 games this season. Has scored goals in 13 of 16 games this year.

- Sankey's 37 assists this year are the most he has had in a single season in his career and the fourth time in four years he has exceeded 20 assists in a season. He had 22 as a freshman, 20 as a sophomore and 24 as a junior. The 37-assist total is the sixth most in a season in UNC history.

- He has 68 points this season, the best season total of his career. He had 57 points last season after recording 56 points in 2013. His 68 points this year are the seventh most in a season in UNC history.

- Sankey has 225 career points. He broke Marcus Holman's school record for career points with a goal with 9:17 to play versus Syracuse on April 11. Holman had 213 points from 2010-13. Sankey earned the 200th point of his career when he scored against Maryland on March 21 with 23 seconds left in the third quarter.

- Sankey now has 122 career goals, which is the third highest total in UNC history behind Bert Fett (128) and Jimmy Bitter (125). He passed Marcus Holman (121 career goals) in the win over Colgate.

- Sankey currently has 103 career assists.

That is the third highest assist total in UNC history behind Bruce Ledwith (119 from 1970-73) and Michael Burnett (106 from 1980-83).

- During the 2015 season, Sankey currently ranks ninth in NCAA Division I in assists per game at 2.31 while he is 16th in points per game at 4.25.

- Joey Sankey's 225 career points are the fourth most amongst active players. Sankey's 121 career goals are the 13th most amongst all active NCAA Division I players. Sankey's 103 assists are seventh amongst active NCAA Division I players.

- Sankey matched his career highs for assists in a game with four against UMass and Maryland. His seven points versus the Minutemen matched his career best as well. He has had seven points in a game four times in his career.

- In his career he has 39 multi-goal games, 33 multi-assist games and 56 multi-point games.

- Third-team USILA All-America in both 2013 and 2014.

- Has scored at least one goal in 46 of the past 52 games dating back to his freshman season.

- Scored a career high five goals in Carolina's victory at Johns Hopkins in his junior year. His seven points versus the Blue Jays equaled his career high total.

- Was one of 28 nominees for the 2014 Tewaaron Award.

- Had 58 career goals through two seasons, the second most by a sophomore in UNC history.

- Has had goal scoring streaks in his UNC career of 20 games and 14 games.

- Has recorded an assist in 16 straight games. That matches the fourth longest streak in Tar Heel history.

Shane Simpson, Sophomore Midfielder, Hamilton, Ontario

- Was limited by a lower body injury early in the year.

- Has played in the last nine games and started the last five games in the first midfield unit. Started 13 games in the first midfield as a freshman.

- Has five goals and two assists. Had two goals and an assist versus Syracuse in Chapel Hill.

- Had 11 goals and six assists last season for 17 points.

Michael Tagliaferri, Redshirt Sophomore Short-Stick Defensive Midfielder, Danville, Calif.

- After running in the second midfield as a freshman, he has moved into a key role as a short stick defensive midfielder this year.

- Has seen action in 14 games after missing the first two games with an injury.

- Tagliaferri recorded his second career hat trick versus Manhattan.

- Has five goals and five assists for 10 points, second amongst short-stick defensive midfielders.

- He has recorded a career high three ground balls in a game four times this year (Richmond, Maryland, Duke, Syracuse).

- Tags has 23 ground balls this season, despite missing the first two games with injury. He had four ground balls all of last year.

- Had an injury prone freshman year, seeing action in only nine games.

- Recorded the first hat trick of his career in Carolina's game at Duke on March 15, 2014.

Chad Tutton, Senior Midfielder, Courtice, Ontario

- Named All-ACC for second straight year.

- Tapped for All-ACC Tournament Team.

- Named to Tewaaron Trophy Watch List and then was one of the 25 nominees for the award.

- ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week after win over Duke when he matched his career high with four goals.

- Named NCAA.com National Offensive Player of the Week on April 1.

- Chad Tutton's 33 goals this season are the third most in a season by a Tar Heel midfielder in history. Jason Wade had 45 goals in 1996 and Sean DeLaney tallied 35 goals in 2009.

- Chad Tutton has 104 career goals which places him in ninth place in UNC history.

- Holds the UNC school record for goals by a midfielder with 104. The old record was 95 goals by Jason Wade (1993-96).

- Tutton has scored 33 goals this season. This is the fourth successive season in which the Canadian midfielder has reached the 20-goal plateau. He had 20 goals as a freshman, 28 goals as a sophomore, 23 goals as a junior and now 33 as a senior.

- The last time a UNC midfielder had more than 33 goals in a season was 35 by Sean DeLaney in 2009.

- Chad Tutton's 104 career goals are the 24th most amongst active NCAA Division I players.

- Tutton tied his career high for goals in a game with four versus Duke. He has done it three times in his career, twice against Duke.

- Tutton has six hat tricks this season and 18 for his career. Had a hat trick in win over #1 Denver and had three goals and an assist in win over Syracuse.

- Has scored goals in 14 of 16 games this year, only being quieted by Bryant and Colgate.

- Tutton equaled his career high for assists with two each versus Johns Hopkins and Richmond.

- He leads UNC with seven man-up goals.

- Tutton has 29 multi-goal games in his career, five multi-assist games and 36 multi-point games.

- Named second-team USILA All-America in both 2013 and 2014.

- During his career he has had goal scoring streaks of 19 games and 12 games.

- Four-year starter in Carolina's first midfield unit.

- Has played in all 65 games during his UNC career.

- Has scored at least one goal in 51 of the

- Named to All-ACC Tournament Team three times in his UNC career (2012, 2013, 2015).

GOLD-STOCK'S AMAZING RUN:

Sophomore attackman Luke Goldstock scored 17 goals and passed for six assists in a three-game span against Manhattan, Bryant and Richmond in early March. In the process, he tied the school record for goals scored in a three-game span and fell one point short of tying the school record for points in a three-game span (within a single season).

Goldstock had five goals and four assists against Manhattan on March 7, six goals against Bryant on March 10 and six goals and one assist against Richmond on record for goals in a three-game span held by Bert Fett who had six versus William & Mary, seven versus Washington College and four versus Duke in successive games during the 1974 season. In those same three games, Fett had nine points versus William & Mary, eight points versus Washington College and six points versus Duke, giving him 23 points in three games, one more than the 22 points Goldstock totaled.

The actual school record for most points in a three-game span belongs to Marcus Holman. He had 26 points in three successive games spanning two seasons. He had 10 points and eight points in games against Michigan and Denver to close the 2012 season and then had eight points in the 2013 season opener versus Air Force.

BACK-TO-BACK SIX GOAL GAMES FOR GOLDSTOCK:

For three successive games, sophomore attackman Luke Goldstock set or tied his career high for goals scored in a game. The Niskayuna, N.Y. native came into the season with a career-high three goals versus Bucknell on March 11, 2014. He matched that total this season tee times early on versus Furman on February 7, versus UMass on February 14 and versus Johns Hopkins on February 21. Goldstock set a new career high with five goals against Manhattan on March 7 and then bettered that mark by scoring six times versus Bryant on March 10 and six times again against Richmond on March 14. Goldstock's four assists against Manhattan stand as a career high and his nine points versus the Jaspers are a career best. The nine points against Manhattan were the most by a Tar Heel player since Marcus Holman had 10 points versus Michigan on May 5, 2012.

SHARING THE BALL: Against Richmond on March 14, the Tar Heels recorded assists on 14 of their 16 goals, an amazing clip of 87.5 percent. That was the highest percentage of assisted goals the Tar Heels recorded in a game since April 22, 2012 when UNC had assists on eight of its nine goals against Duke, a percentage of 88.9 percent.

UNC topped that percentage when all eight of its goals against Maryland on March 21 were of the assisted variety, albeit in a loss. The Tar Heels currently are ranked second in the country in assists per game with 9.19 per game, a figure which also leads the ACC. UNC has 147 assists on 237 goals this season. That's a percentage of assisted goals of 62.3. A year ago, UNC recorded assists on only 47.0 percent of its goals.

POINTS STREAKS FOR JIMMY AND JOEY

CONTINUE: Carolina senior attackmen Jimmy Bitter and Joey Sankey have long held two of longest point streaks active in NCAA Division I.

Jimmy Bitter recorded points in 55 successive games dating back to March 16, 2012 before he went scoreless against Syracuse on April 24. That was the second longest streak in the nation behind only Shayne Adams of Detroit, who recorded points in 60 successive games. Adams' season is currently over after he reached 60 successive scoring games.

During his 55-game stretch, Bitter recorded

114 goals and 74 assists for 188 points. Bitter broke the school record for consecutive games with a point against Maryland on March 21. The previous school record was 50 successive games with at least one point. Attackman Dennis Goldstein (February 28, 1989 to May 27, 1991) and midfielder Ryan Wade (May 11, 1991 to May 21, 1994) shared the previous record.

Joey Sankey has recorded at least one point in a game in 52 consecutive contests. That is the longest active streak in the nation. Sankey's scoring streak began on April 20, 2012. During that span, Sankey has recorded 104 goals and added 90 assists for 194 points those 52 games. Sankey's 52-game point streak is now second in the Tar Heel record book behind Bitter's 55-game streak. Ironically, if the Tar Heels were to advance to the NCAA championship game and Sankey record points in all three games, he and Bitter would end up sharing the school record for successive games with a point at 55, a fitting accomplishment.

TAR HEEL GOAL SCORING STREAKS:

Four current UNC players have combined for eight of the 21 longest goal-scoring streaks in UNC history. Jimmy Bitter saw his 21-game goal scoring streak come to an end against Richmond March 14 in a game in which he contributed to the victorious cause with a career high five assists, career high seven ground balls and career high two caused turnovers. Bitter's goal scoring streak from February 16, 2014 through March 10, 2015 ranks as the sixth longest streak in UNC history.

Joey Sankey had a 20-game goal-scoring streak for the Tar Heels from May 19, 2013 through February 21, 2015. That equals the seventh longest streak in UNC history. Senior midfielder Chad Tutton's 19-game streak from March 3, 2013 through March 11, 2014 is the ninth-longest streak. Luke Goldstock has a current goal-scoring streak of 16 games dating back to the season opener against Furman. That is the 10th longest goal-scoring streak in UNC history.

Those are the longest streaks for each of those four players. In addition, Sankey scored in 14 straight games from February 8, 2013 through April 26, 2013 (tied for 14th in UNC history); Jimmy Bitter scored in 12 straight games from April 1, 2012 through March 9, 2013 (tied for 17th in UNC history); Chad Tutton scored in 12 straight games from March 21, 2012 through February 23, 2013 (tied for 17th in UNC history); and Jimmy Bitter scored in 10 straight games from March 18, 2013 through May 11, 2013 (tied for 20th in UNC history).

BITTER & SANKEY'S ASSIST STREAKS:

During the course of the 2015 season, Joey Sankey and Jimmy Bitter have produced two of the seven longest assist streaks in Tar Heel history.

Sankey has had at least one assist in every game this season. That 16-game streak is tied for the fourth longest in UNC history. The school record is 22 games set by Bruce Ledwith from March 11, 1972 through April 7, 1973.

Jimmy Bitter recorded at least one assist in every game this season until he failed to notch one against Syracuse on April 24. Bitter's 14-

March 14.

With the 17 goals, Goldstock tied the school game assist streak matches the sixth longest in Tar Heel history. Marcus Holman had a similar streak from March 10, 2012 through February 23, 2013.

SANKEY NAMED A SENIOR CLASS

AWARD FINALIST: Ten NCAA® men's lacrosse student-athletes who excel both on and off the field were selected as finalists April 8 for the 2014-15 Senior CLASS Award® for collegiate lacrosse. Among the finalists is University of North Carolina senior attackman Joey Sankey of Warminster, Pa. To be eligible for the award, student-athletes must be classified as NCAA Division I seniors and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their athletic platforms to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The finalists were chosen by national media from the list of 30 candidates announced in March. Nationwide fan voting began immediately to help select the winner. Fan votes will be combined with those of the media and Division I head coaches to determine the winner. The Senior CLASS Award recipient will be announced during the 2015 NCAA Men's Lacrosse National Championships® in Philadelphia, May 23-25. For more information on each of the finalists, visit seniorCLASSaward.com.

SANKEY NAMED ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

North Carolina's Joey Sankey and Notre Dame's Conor Doyle shared Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Lacrosse Offensive Player of the Week honors on April 6. Sankey totaled five points on four goals and an assist in North Carolina's 10-6 win at No. 6 Virginia. The senior attackman's first goal gave the Tar Heels a 3-2 lead early in the second quarter. Sankey then scored three of North Carolina's final four goals en route to the victory.

TUTTON & KELLY SHARE ACC AWARDS

MARCH 31: North Carolina's Chad Tutton and Syracuse's Dylan Donahue were named the Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Lacrosse Co-Offensive Players of the Week March 31, 2015, while the Tar Heels' Stephen Kelly and Notre Dame's Matt Landis shared Defensive Player of the Week honors.

Tutton, who was also named the NCAA.com National Offensive Player of the Week on April 1, matched a career-high with four goals as he helped rally North Carolina past Duke, 15-14, on March 29. The senior midfielder from Courtnice, Ontario was efficient with his opportunities as he scored his four goals, including three in the fourth quarter, on seven total shots for the day. With UNC trailing 11-10 entering the fourth quarter, Tutton's goal with 12 minutes to play put the Tar Heels ahead 12-11, and after Duke tied the game at 12-12, Tutton scored back-to-back goals that gave North Carolina the lead for good. The Tar Heels' home win over the Blue Devils marked the first time they had defeated Duke at Fetzer Field since the 2003 season. Kelly had the best game of his North Carolina career in winning 22-of-33 face-offs – one shy of the school record – and helping the Tar Heels dominate the face-off X in the 15-14 win over Duke. Kelly also picked up a game-high 11 ground balls to help North Carolina control the second half en route to the win. The 11 ground balls were the second highest career total for Kelly.

JOZOKOS NAMED NCAA.COM & ACC

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Sophomore short stick defensive midfielder Tate Jozokos was named both the NCAA.com and the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Week following Carolina's win over Denver on February 27. Jozokos played the best game of his career in the 12-10 upset of the pre-season #1 Pioneers. He scooped up a career-high five ground balls and limited the Pioneers' first-string midfielders to two goals on only four shots. Two ground balls that Jozokos earned off face-off wins proved especially important for North Carolina. On those possessions, Jozokos assisted a second-quarter goal by Ryan Kilpatrick that cut into a three-goal deficit and he then scored his second career goal early in the third quarter to put the Tar Heels in the lead for good in the game. Jozokos was the first Tar Heel short-stick defensive midfielder to ever win ACC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Previous winners from UNC included face-off men, close defensemen and goalkeepers but this was the first time a SSDM has won the award.

BITTER NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

North Carolina's Jimmy Bitter was named the ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on February 24, 2015. Bitter had a five-point game to lead the No. 4 Tar Heels to a 13-11 victory over No. 9 Johns Hopkins on Saturday, Feb. 22. Bitter scored four goals, one shy of his career high, and added an assist in UNC's victory. Bitter scored his four goals on just six shots, five of which were on goal. When he scored late in the first period it was his 100th career goal, putting the Tar Heels up 4-1 in the game. He had three goals in a scoring run, which lifted UNC from a 3-1 lead to a 7-2 advantage, a lead Carolina would never surrender.

TAR HEEL SENIOR TRIO NAMED TO

TEWAARATON LIST: The Tewaaraton Foundation announced the 2015 Tewaaraton Award men's watch list February 26. The list included the top players across NCAA Division I lacrosse and highlighted the early contenders for the 2015 Tewaaraton Award, presented by Under Armour. Three outstanding senior members of the 2015 University of North Carolina men's lacrosse team, currently seeded #3 in the NCAA Tournament, were initially named to the Watch List. The group included senior attackman Jimmy Bitter of Stowe, Vermont, senior attackman Joey Sankey of Warminster, Pa., and senior midfielder Chad Tutton of Courtnice, Ontario. Sophomore Luke Goldstock of Niskayuna, N.Y. was added to the Watch List on March 20.

HAT TRICKS FOR THE HEELS: Carolina's three starting attackmen all recorded hat tricks in the Tar Heels' 19-4 season-opening victory against Furman. Joey Sankey had four goals and Jimmy Bitter and Luke Goldstock each had three tallies. The last time all three Tar Heel starting attackmen produced hat tricks in the same game had come on April 24, 2009. Billy Bitter, Gavin Petracca and Bart Wagner each totaled three goals in a 16-10 ACC Tournament semifinal victory over Maryland that day.

After not having accomplished that feat for five years, the Carolina starting attack went on to pull off a trio of hat tricks twice more this season as Bitter, Sankey and Goldstock all recorded three plus goal games versus both UMass and Johns Hopkins.

On six other occasions, UNC attackmen and midfielders have combined for three hat tricks in a game. In UNC's win over High Point, Carolina got a trio of hat tricks with Jimmy Bitter scoring four goals and Peyton Klawinski and Chad Tutton each scoring three times as the first midfield got into the act. Against Manhattan on March 7, the Tar Heels again had a trio of players with hat tricks. Attackman Luke Goldstock led the way with five goals while midfielders Michael Tagliaferri and Chad Tutton scored three times each. Against Richmond, attackman Luke Goldstock had six goals while attackman Joey Sankey had three and midfielder Peyton Klawinski added three. In the win over Duke, Chad Tutton matched his career high with four goals while Jimmy Bitter and Joey Sankey each scored three times. In the NCAA first round win over Colgate, Goldstock led Carolina with five goals while Sankey had four and Steve Pontrello added three.

In the game at Notre Dame, four Tar Heel players had hat tricks – Luke Goldstock with four goals and Chad Tutton, Jimmy Bitter and Peyton Klawinski with three each. That was the second time this year UNC had four hat tricks in a game. Sankey, Bitter, Goldstock and Klawinski each had three goals versus Massachusetts.

Here are the total number of career hat tricks for active Tar Heel players: Jimmy Bitter 21, Joey Sankey 21, Chad Tutton 18, Luke Goldstock 10, Peyton Klawinski 4, Michael Tagliaferri 2, Steve Pontrello 2, Shane Simpson 1, Patrick Kelly 1 is now in his seventh season as the head coach at his alma mater. Breschi has led the Tar Heels to double-digit win totals in each of his seven seasons as head coach and NCAA Tournament bids in each of his first seven seasons in Chapel Hill.

Breschi Coaching Facts:

- 82-33 in seven seasons at UNC (71.3)
- 174-96 in 18 seasons overall (64.4)
- 11-13 in ACC regular-season games
- 4-5 in ACC Tournament games
- 4-6 in NCAA Tournament games at UNC;
- 5-9 in NCAA Tournament games overall
- 17-15 in one-goal games at UNC
- 43-30 versus ranked teams at UNC; 39-3 versus unranked teams at UNC
- 65-11 versus non-conference teams at UNC
- 53-8 in home games at UNC

ANOTHER DOUBLE DIGIT WIN SEASON

UNDER COACH BRESCHI: Despite playing against the nation's fourth toughest schedule in 2015 (source LaxPower), the Tar Heels have reached a double digit win total for the seventh successive year under the tutelage of head coach Joe Breschi, who was hired in June 2008. Breschi is the first head coach in UNC history to post double digit win totals in each of his first seven years mentoring the Tar Heels. Other than Breschi, Dave Klarmann (1991-94) is the only other coach to win 10 or more games in each of his first four seasons. Under Breschi's leadership, UNC went 12-6 in 2009, 13-3 in 2010, 10-6 in 2011, 11-6 in 2012, 13-4 in 2013, 10-5 in 2014 and 13-3 so far in 2015. The 2009-15 streak marks the first time UNC has won 10 or more games in a season in seven straight years. UNC won 10 or more in six straight seasons from 1989-94.

UNC VERSUS RANKED OPPONENTS

UNDER COACH BRESCHI: North Carolina has played nationally-ranked opponents 73 times in Joe Breschi's seven-year coaching tenure. UNC is 43-30 in those games, a winning percentage of 58.9 percent. Conversely, the Tar Heels are 39-3 against unranked opponents in his seven seasons (92.9 percent). Breschi is 82-33 overall at Carolina in his seven seasons as head coach. During Breschi's tenure, UNC's only losses to unranked teams came at Ohio State in 2011, at home to Lehigh in 2012 and at Pennsylvania in 2012.

CAROLINA'S IMPROVEMENT IN ONE-

GOAL DECISIONS: Prior to Joe Breschi taking over as head coach in 2009, UNC went 1-7 in games decided by one goal from midway through the 2004 season through the end of the 2008 campaign. Carolina has improved tremendously in one-goal games since Breschi arrived for the 2009 season. UNC is 17-15 in games decided by one goal over the past seven years.

THREE TAR HEELS CHOSEN IN 2015 MLL

DRAFT: Three members of the 2015 UNC lacrosse team were chosen January 24 in the 2015 Major League Lacrosse Draft. The trio will start their respective MLL careers this summer at the conclusion of their senior years in college. UNC senior attackman Joey Sankey of Warminster, Pa. was the first Tar Heel chosen as he went in the second round to the Charlotte Hounds. Sankey was the ninth player picked overall. Tar Heel senior midfielder Chad Tutton of Courtice, Ontario was chosen in the second round by the Florida Launch. Tutton was the 13th pick overall. Senior attackman Jimmy Bitter was selected in the third round with the 22nd pick by the Ohio Machine. The Stowe, Vt. native will reunite with former Tar Heel Marcus Holman, UNC Class of 2013, when he joins the Machine. Holman has played for the Machine the past two years. Holman and Bitter started on the UNC attack together with Joey Sankey in the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

CAROLINA'S STELLAR MARK IN NON-

CONFERENCE GAMES: UNC's record in non-conference games continues to be one of the best in the nation over the past nine seasons. The Tar Heels have won 87 of their past 102 games against non-conference teams dating back to April 15, 2006. In Joe Breschi's seven seasons as head coach, the Tar Heels are 66-11 against non-conference teams. The only losses were to Notre Dame in 2009, to Ohio State and Johns Hopkins in 2011, to Lehigh, Pennsylvania and Denver in 2012, to Massachusetts, Notre Dame and Denver in 2013, to Denver in 2014 and to Maryland in 2015.

CAROLINA'S DOUBLE DIGIT SCORING

GAMES: In Coach Joe Breschi's seven years as head lacrosse coach at UNC, Carolina's success has clearly been tied to hitting the 10-goal plateau in a game. In fact UNC's 15-14 loss at Notre Dame on April 18, 2015, marked only the 13th time in Breschi's coaching tenure that the Tar Heels have lost when they have reached the 10-goal plateau. UNC has scored at least 10 goals in a game in 88 of 115 games under Coach Breschi's direction dating back to the opening game of the 2009 season. Carolina is 75-13 in those 88 games. As would be expected, in the 27 games under Coach Breschi's tutelage in which the Tar Heels have not reached the 10-goal mark, UNC has not fared nearly as well as when it scores in double figures. In fact, the Tar Heels' record in those 27 games is just 7-20.

NEAR DOMINANCE AT HOME UNDER

BRESCHI: UNC is 53-8 in home games in Coach Joe Breschi's seven years at the helm of the Tar Heels. That's a winning percentage of 86.9 percent. UNC's only home losses during Breschi's four-year tenure include regular-season and ACC Tournament games to Duke in 2009, a regular-season loss to Duke in 2011, an NCAA Tournament loss to Maryland in 2011, regular-season losses to Lehigh and Virginia and an NCAA Tournament loss to Denver in 2012, a regular-season loss to Duke in 2013 and a regular-season loss to Notre Dame in 2014.

TAR HEELS FINISH FEBRUARY UNBEAT-

EN: North Carolina played five games in the month of February, going 5-0 and finishing the month off with a 12-10 over top-ranked Denver at Navy Field on February 27. The five games in the month were the most games UNC has played in the opening month of the season since the 2009 squad started off with five February contests. UNC also went 5-0 in the month of February in 2009.

CAROLINA IN HOME GAMES: North Carolina has an all-time record of 278-120-2 in home games. That included a 6-1 home record in 2014 and a 11-0 record so far in 2015. UNC has a 69.6 winning percentage all-time in history in home games.

THE ALL-TIME RECORD: North Carolina has an all-time record of 468-281-2 in the sport of men's lacrosse. That is a winning percentage of .625.

SIX TAR HEELS NAMED PRESEASON

ALL-ACC: Six Tar Heels were chosen for the preseason All-ACC Team for 2015. The team was selected in a vote by the ACC's five head coaches. Tar Heels on the preseason team included senior attackman Joey Sankey, senior midfielder Chad Tutton, senior long-stick midfielder Ryan Kilpatrick, sophomore face-off man Stephen Kelly, sophomore defenseman Austin Pifani and junior goalkeeper Kieran Burke.

Sankey, Tutton and Kilpatrick all made the All-ACC in April, joined by Jimmy Bitter and Jake Bailey.

INSIDE LACROSSE PRESEASON ALL-

AMERICAS: Six members of the 2015 University of North Carolina men's lacrosse team were named to the preseason All-America Teams chosen by Inside Lacrosse magazine. A trio of Tar Heels were named to the second-team preseason All-America Team – senior attackman Joey Sankey, senior midfielder Chad Tutton and sophomore defenseman Austin Pifani. Another three Carolina players were named to the honorable mention preseason All-America unit – senior attackman Jimmy Bitter, senior long-stick midfielder Ryan Kilpatrick and junior goalkeeper Kieran Burke.

UNC CLAIMS ANOTHER SEASON OPEN-

ING WIN: The Tar Heels beat Furman 19-4 in their 2015 season opener on February 7. UNC has won every season opener since the 1999 season, running its streak to 17 seasons in a row with the win over the Paladins. Carolina's last loss in a season opener came on February 22, 1998 when the Tar Heels fell to Butler 13-12 at Fetzer Field.

CAROLINA VERSUS NUMBER ONE: The 2015 season marked the fourth straight year UNC has defeated a team ranked #1 in the nation in the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association coaches' poll. Those wins came against Johns Hopkins 13-9 on April 1, 2012, against Maryland 10-8 on March 23, 2013, against Maryland 11-8 on March 22, 2014 and against Denver 12-10 on February 27, 2015. Prior to the win against Johns Hopkins in 2012, Carolina had not beaten a #1-ranked team since April 6, 1996 when UNC beat Virginia 19-18 at Fetzer Field.

BALKAM'S FIRST CAREER START:

Tar Heel redshirt freshman Brian Balkam

made the first start of his career in goal for UNC against Furman in this year's season opener. Balkam played the first half for the Heels, making six saves and allowing three goals while facing 22 shots. He also started against High Point and made seven saves while allowing only four goals while playing the first half in the 15-9 win over the Panthers.

Balkam started his third straight game against UMass, playing 30 minutes and making six saves and allowing four goals. He went on to make four more starts.

Junior Kieran Burke, who started all 32 games for the Tar Heels in 2013 & 2014, missed the first two games of this season with an injury. He played as a backup to Balkam the first seven games of the season. Burke has started the last eight games of this campaign and now has started 40 games overall in his three years as a Tar Heel.

CAROLINA THIS YEAR ON ESPN

FAMILY OF NETWORKS: A total of nine University of North Carolina men's lacrosse games were televised on the ESPN family of networks during the regular season. Carolina again appears on ESPNU Sunday in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Six of UNC's games were televised on ESPNU - Denver on February 27, Duke on March 29, Virginia on April 3, Syracuse on April 11, Notre Dame on April 18 and Syracuse on April 24. Three additional UNC games were shown on ESPN3 - all games played at Fetzer Field. Carolina's non-conference games against High Point, Bryant and Harvard were aired on ESPN3. Those three games are midweek contests scheduled on Tuesdays. Carolina games versus Furman, UMass and Johns Hopkins were aired on GoHeelsTV.

BE BALL BOYS AT FETZER FIELD: If you are interested in being a ball boy or having your local club team play at halftime, please contact Alexis Barlow at alexisb@unc.edu (youth 8th grade and below). Come enjoy a fun afternoon/evening at Fetzer Field and be a part of the action.

UNC SHOOTERS ABOVE 33 PERCENT:

North Carolina is shooting 33.4 percent as a team this year, the eighth best shooting percentage in NCAA Division I.

Carolina has a host of players scoring on more than one-third of their shots at this point of the season. Of those players who have taken 10 or more shots, Luke Goldstock is shooting at 48.0 percent, Peyton Klawinski at 45.2 percent, Steve Pontrello on 36.0 percent, Duncan Hutchins at 35.7 percent and Walker Chafee at 33.3 percent.

SHARING THE LOAD: Carolina has 10 players with double figures in points this season, achieving that total in 16 games.

Last year, Carolina has 10 players reach double digits in points. UNC had nine players with 10 or more points in 2013.

UNC's dynamic attack trio has tilted this year's numbers so far.

Tar Heels with double digits in points are Jimmy Bitter with 75, Joey Sankey with 68, Luke Goldstock with 66, Chad Tutton with 40, Peyton Klawinski with 22, Patrick Kelly with 13, Steve Pontrello with 13, Walker Chafee with 13, Tate Jozokos with 10 and Michael Tagliaferri with 10.

THE POLLS: The final two regular season polls were released this past Monday. North Carolina is ranked fifth in the USILA coaches' poll heading into the post season. Carolina is ranked fourth in the media poll sponsored by Inside Lacrosse.

THIRTEEN DOUBLE DIGIT SCORING

GAMES: North Carolina has scored in double digits in 14 of the first 16 games of the 2015 season, including the first nine games of the season.

Dating back to the 2013 season, Carolina has scored in double digits in goals in 38 of the past 42 games.

The only teams to hold UNC under 10 goals since March 13, 2013 were Duke and Denver in 2014 and Maryland and Syracuse in 2015.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION VERSUS JAS-

PERS: North Carolina's 26-goal offensive effort versus Manhattan on March 7 marked the largest goal output for UNC in head coach Joe Breschi's six years as head coach. The Tar Heels had scored 21 goals against Manhattan in 2014 and had scored 20 goals in a game five times other during his tenure.

The 26 goals were the most for UNC in a game since April 26, 2001 when UNC beat NCAA Division II school Pfeiffer 27-7 at Henry Stadium. The last time Carolina had scored more than 21 goals against an NCAA Division I team was April 16, 1997 in a 22-2 victory at VMI.

UNC has scored as many as 20 goals in a game seven times during Coach Breschi's tenure including twice this season (Massachusetts and Manhattan).

HIGHEST SCORING AVERAGE IN 19

YEARS: North Carolina averaged 14.81 goals this season. That is the highest scoring average for the Tar Heels since the 1996 team scored 15.29 goals per game. In 2014, UNC scored 12.91 goals per game so this year's team has improved by almost two goals per game. UNC is ranked third in scoring offense this year behind Albany's 17.50 goals per game and Syracuse's 14.87 goals per contest.

FOUR TAR HEELS EARN WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS: Four current Tar Heel players won gold medal rings at the U19 World Championships in Finland in July 2012. Junior midfielders Brent Armstrong and Steve Pontrello, redshirt sophomore midfielder Michael Tagliaferri and sophomore midfielder Stephen Kelly all played for the U.S. side. Carolina senior midfielder Chad Tutton was a member of Team Canada, which captured the silver medal.
