QUICK HITS

- Carolina has won 19 of its last 27 games, including 13 of 16 ACC regular season games. The 19 wins are the most in back-to-back seasons since winning 21 in 1996 (10) and 1997 (11).
- Carolina has won nine of its last 10 true road games, including wins at Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh, Virginia Tech, Florida State, NC State, Illinois, Florida State, Miami and Virginia. In 2016, Carolina became just the second school in college football history to win at FSU and Miami in the same season.
- Carolina returns 13 starters in 2017, including seven on defense, five on offense and freshman All-America punter Tom Sheldon.
- Defensively, the Tar Heels return their three top tacklers in linebackers Cole Holcomb (115 tackles) and Andre Smith (113), and safety Donnie Miles (102). It is the first time Carolina has returned its top three tacklers since the 2010 season.
- The Tar Heels return just 12.7 percent yards of their total offense (passing, rushing, receiving) from last year, which is the lowest amount of any Power 5 program.
- Carolina must replace its top passer, two leading rushers and three standout wide receivers from last season. The only returning player with any experience at QB is sophomore Nathan Elliott, who connected on eight of nine pass attempts last year.
- Larry Fedora is one of just 12 active coaches averaging 35 points per game in his career. Carolina has scored 30 or more points in 43 of Fedora's 65 games at UNC, and 40 or more points in 26 of those contests.
- Carolina has averaged more than 170 rushing yards per game over the last five seasons. That is the highest five-year average since the Mack Brown era in the 1990s.
- Fedora has guided the Tar Heels to 40 wins since 2012. Only Dick Crum won more games (42) in his first five seasons in Chapel Hill since the ACC began in 1953.
- Fedora sports a sparkling 25-8 mark at Kenan Stadium during his first five seasons in Chapel Hill. His 25 wins are the most by any UNC coach in his first five seasons.
- Fedora-coached teams have been responsible for five of the top 10 offensive seasons in UNC history.
- Carolina has established more than 100 school single-season and career offensive records since 2012. In 2016, the Tar Heels established 36 individual records and six team records.
- Carolina has ranked among the top 20 in punt return defense in four of the last five years, including last season when the Tar Heels led the nation.
- UNC ranked second in the ACC and eighth in the country with six players selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, led by No. 2 overall pick Mitch Trubisky. Trubisky is the fourth first-round pick under Fedora at UNC.

JORDAN BRAND EXTENDS PARTNERSHIP TO FOOTBALL

Jordan Brand and the University of North Carolina, two brands with a history of greatness, agreed to expand their partnership to make UNC the second collegiate football program to represent the Jumpman on the gridiron.

The Tar Heels' successful and storied basketball history spans generations and includes numerous memorable moments like Michael Jordan hitting the game-winning shot for UNC in the 1982 National Championship game.

Now a new chapter in this celebrated partnership begins, as Jordan joined UNC head football coach Larry Fedora at halftime of the Carolina-Duke men's basketball game to officially announce plans to bring the Jumpman to Kenan Memorial Stadium this fall.

"I'm happy to extend the Jordan Brand relationship not only for the game of basketball but for the game of football," says Jordan. "I am extremely proud in terms of what Coach Fedora has done for the football team and I think bigger and better things are about to happen."

"We're excited to partner with Michael Jordan – the greatest athlete of all-time – to bring the Jumpman into the Carolina football program," says Fedora. "Michael's impact on the University of North Carolina and the sports landscape in this state is incredible. Our partnership will bring us a greater association with MJ and his brand on the football field moving forward."

Like the Jumpman, the argyle running down the shirts and shorts of UNC uniforms has become an iconic design synonymous with greatness in sport and unique to Chapel Hill.

Now, as on the hardwood, the argyle and Jumpman will bring a new level of style to the gridiron with a fresh, premium design that reflects the greatness of both brands.

The new look debuts on-field Sept. 2 during the Tar Heels' home opener against California.

2017 POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

Quarterbacks

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
14	Logan Byrd	QB	6-3	230	Fr.*
19	Jack Davidson	QB	6-3	220	Fr.
11	Nathan Elliott	QB	6-1	215	So.
6	Brandon Harris	QB	6-3	220	Gr.
16	Manny Miles	QB	6-0	215	Jr.
12	Chazz Surratt	QB	6-3	215	Fr.*

Notes

- North Carolina must replace Mitch Trubisky, who was selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. Trubisky set single-season school records for total offense, passing yards and passing touchdowns before foregoing his final year of eligibility and entering the draft.
- Sophomore Nathan Elliott is the only returning player with any collegiate experience at quarterback. He completed eight of nine pass attempts for 55 yards last season.
- Logan Byrd and Chazz Surratt redshirted last year and will compete for a starting spot this fall. Surratt, a native of Denver, N.C., was the 2016 Parade Magazine All-America Player of the Year.
- Brandon Harris transferred to UNC from LSU where he played in 25 games and started 13. Harris started every game as a sophomore and has thrown for 20 touchdowns in his career.
- Manny Miles, a walk-on from Baton Rouge, La., is the son of former LSU and Oklahoma State head coach Les Miles.

Running Backs

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
31	Antwuan Branch	TB	6-0	225	Fr.
2	Jordon Brown	TB	5-10	195	So.
3	Michael Carter	TB	5-9	195	Fr.
27	Darius Graves	TB	5-8	190	Jr.
33	Antonio James	TB	5-7	180	Jr.
32	Jacob Schmidt	TB	5-10	190	Jr.
54	Johnathon Sutton	TB	6-0	230	So.
1	Stanton Truitt	TB	5-9	185	Gr.

Notes

- Carolina must replace its top three running backs following the departure of Elijah Hood and T.J. Logan to the NFL. Hood, who ranks ninth all-time at UNC in rushing yards, elected to forego his final season of eligibility and enter the draft. Logan finished his standout career 14th all-time in rushing yards and fourth in all-purpose yards.
- Sophomore Jordon Brown is the leading returning rusher, but he had just 20 carries for 45 yards last season. In the Sun Bowl vs. Stanford, Brown scored his first career touchdown on a tough 5-yard run.
- True freshman Michael Carter, the 2016 USA Today Florida Offensive Player of the Year, enrolled in January and participated in spring practice. He had nine carries for 31 yards in the Spring Game.
- Stanton Truitt, a graduate transfer from Auburn, participated in spring practice, but did not play in the Spring Game. Truitt has a quick burst and is a good receiver out of the backfield. In two seasons at Auburn, he had 215 yards rushing, 113 yards receiving and scored three times.
- Johnathon Sutton came to Carolina as a linebacker, but moved to running back in the offseason.

WR Austin Proehl

Wide Receivers

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
18	Josh Cabrera	WR	6-3	205	Jr.
8	J.T. Cauthen	WR	6-1	220	Fr.
85	Austyn Chestnut	WR	5-9	160	Fr.
83	Austin Chrismon	WR	5-11	190	Fr.
88	Beau Corrales	WR	6-4	205	Fr.
15	Jordan Cunningham	WR	6-2	190	Sr.
28	Dante DiMaggio	WR	6-2	205	Jr.
4	Rontavius Groves	WR	5-11	175	Fr.*
48	Thomas Jackson	WR	5-11	200	Jr.
9	Roscoe Johnson	WR	6-1	190	Fr.*
5	Juval Mollette	WR	6-4	200	So.
21	Devin Perry	WR	6-2	200	Jr.
7	Austin Proehl	WR	5-10	185	Sr.
17	Anthony Ratliff-Williams	WR	6-1	205	So.

Notes

- Over the last two seasons, Carolina has produced some of the best receivers in school history. In 2015, Quinshad Davis finished as the team's career leader in receptions, a mark that stood just one season before Ryan Switzer supplanted him. Switzer, along with Mack Hollins and Bug Howard, all graduated and are now pursuing NFL careers.
- Carolina's top returning wideouts are senior Austin Proehl and junior Thomas Jackson. Proehl, son of former NFL receiver Ricky Proehl, ranked third on the team with 43 catches for 597 yards and three touchdowns. Proehl will also compete for punt return duties now that Switzer, the school record holder in punt return yards and touchdowns, is gone. Proehl has just one career punt return for 28 yards in a win at Illinois last season.
- Jackson, son of former letterwinner David Jackson (1968-69), was targeted 18 times last season and made 17 catches, 11 for first downs and four touchdowns.
- Jordan Cunningham saw limited time last year and finished with six catches for 82 yards.
- Looking to round out the starting lineup is a group of talent, yet inexperienced players who have patiently waited their turn. They include juniors Josh Cabrera and Devin Perry, and redshirt sophomores Juval Mollette and Anthony Ratliff-Williams. Mollette was impressive in the 2017 Spring Game with seven catches for 100 yards and three touchdowns. Ratliff-Williams returned seven kicks and had three receptions last season.

OG R.J. Prince

- Redshirt freshmen Rontavius Groves will likely miss the start of the season due to a knee injury this spring.
- J.T. Cauthen enrolled in January and participated in spring practice. He is joined in the freshman class by Texas native Beau Corrales.

Offensive Lineman

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.

51	William Sweet	OT	6-7	300	So.
70	Jonathon Trull	OG	6-4	310	Sr.
74	Jordan Tucker	OL	6-6	335	Fr.
72	Mason Veal	OG	6-5	305	So.

Notes

- Carolina returns three starters on the offensive line – OT Bentley Spain, OG R.J. Prince and OG Tommy Hatton – who have combined for 43 starts. Spain, an All-America candidate at left tackle, leads the way with 23 starts.
- Prince became a full-time starter last year when John Ferranto went down with an offseason injury. He continues to improve and is poised to have the best season of his career as a senior.
- Carolina welcomes two graduate transfers to the offensive line in Cam Dillard from Florida and Khaliel Rodgers from USC. Dillard, a two-year starter with the Gators, has the inside track on the center spot, while Rodgers will compete at guard.

- The Tar Heels must replace four-year starter Jon Heck at right tackle. The leading candidates are his brother, Charlie, or sophomore William Sweet. Both have great size and move well, but have primarily played on special teams.

Tight Ends

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
80	Jake Bargas	TE	6-4	245	So.
82	Brandon Fritts	TE	6-4	250	Jr.
86	Carl Tucker	TE	6-2	255	So.
87	Noah Turner	TE	6-3	250	Fr.*
84	Garrett Walston	TE	6-4	240	Fr.*
89	Jared Worley	TE	6-3	230	So.

Notes

- Brandon Fritts and Carl Tucker lead a young group of players who are likely to play a bigger role in the offense in 2017. Both have shown an ability to make a big play. Fritts was limited early in the season due to injury, allowing Tucker more opportunity to develop. Tucker finished his freshman campaign with nine catches for 130 yards and a touchdown.
- Jake Bargas played in all 13 games, primarily on special teams, and had two receptions.
- Garrett Walston and Noah Turner both redshirted in 2016.

DE Malik Carney

DT Aaron Crawford

DT Jalen Dalton

LB Andre Smith

LB Cole Holcomb

Notes

- An unlikely candidate to be the starter a year ago, defensive end Malik Carney was one of the Tar Heels' most consistent players, leading the team in tackles for losses (8.5) and sacks (5.5). He also forced two fumbles and had 47 tackles while starting 10 games.
- DE Dajaun Drennon has 25 career starts, but was slowed most of the 2016 season while recovering from a foot injury. He has all the skills to be an explosive pass rusher.
- Tackle Jalen Dalton has matured and is poised for a breakout season in 2017. He had a great spring and has begun to take on more of a leadership role. Last season, he had 27 tackles, broke up a pass and recovered a fumble.
- Senior Tyler Powell can play inside or outside and has showed glimpses of being a standout player. He had 19 tackles and three for losses last season.
- Aaron Crawford added stability to the lineup last year when he became the weekly starter at defensive tackle. A run stuffer, Crawford eats up space and finished with 42 tackles.
- Junior Jeremiah Clarke and sophomore Marlon Dunlap are part of the rotation at tackle, while sophomores Allen Cater and Jason Strowbridge provide plenty of depth at end.
- Tomon Fox played well in the first two games of the season, but injured his knee and received a redshirt season. He has the speed and physical ability at the quick end position to disrupt the passing game.
- Xach Gill, Jake Lawler and Jordon Riley were all highly recruited prospects who enrolled in January.

Notes

- Carolina returns all three starting linebackers – Cole Holcomb, Andre Smith and Cayson Collins. Holcomb (115) and Smith (113) led the team in tackles and were ranked among the top six in the ACC in tackles per game.
- A former walk-on from New Smyrna Beach, Fla., Holcomb has great speed and is, pound-for-pound, the strongest player on the team, according to UNC's Power Index formula.
- Smith, a native of Jacksonville, Fla., has grown into a vocal leader and should challenge for all-conference honors this season.
- Collins is a fast, athletic and powerful player who finished last season with 60 tackles and forced two fumbles.
- Sophomore Jonathan Smith played as a true freshman last season before going down with an injury.
- Ayden Bonilla has improved every season at Carolina, finishing last season with a career-best 21 tackles. He provides outstanding depth along with senior Hunter Crafford and Dominique Ross.
- Carolina signed three linebackers in the most recent class, including Jeremiah Gemmel, Kayne Roberts and Malik Robinson.

Notes

- Cornerback M.J. Stewart is an All-America candidate who has great cover skills and can compete with any receiver in the country. He ranks third at UNC with 29 career pass breakups with 25 coming in the last two seasons.
- Senior Donnie Miles has 230 tackles over the last two seasons – 128 in 2015 and 102 in 2016. He had nine-or-more tackles in the first six games last year.
- Sophomore Myles Dorn is penciled in as the starter at the other safety position. Last year, he had 32 tackles and made his first career start in the Sun Bowl vs. Stanford. Dorn is the son of Torin Dorn who played running back and defensive back at UNC from 1986-89.
- Carolina led the ACC and was 12th in the country in passing yards allowed in 2016, but finished with just one interception.
- Junior Corey Bell Jr. and sophomore Patrice Rene saw quality time last year at cornerback and enter the fall battling for a starting spot. K.J. Sails also has an opportunity for more playing time at cornerback.
- At safety, junior J.K. Britt, sophomore D.J. Ford and redshirt freshman Myles Wolfolk will all compete for playing time.

- Carolina has ranked among the top 20 in punt return defense in four of the last five years, including last season when the Tar Heels led the nation. Carolina allowed just two total punt return yards.
- Carolina returns freshman All-America punter Tom Sheldon, who averaged 42.7 yards on 50 punts. Nearly half (21) of his punts were fair caught and only nine were returned. A native of Echuca, Australia, Sheldon has excellent hang time on his punts and can angle kicks left or right.
- Carolina must replace three-year starter Nick Weiler, who ranks third all-time at UNC in points. Competing for the job are junior Freeman Jones, true freshman Noah Ruggles, and walk-ons Cooper Graham and Tolson Jeffrey. Jones is the only player with any collegiate experience (1 PAT).

1 What did you enjoy the most about spring practice? “That tends to be different each spring depending on the circumstances surrounding the program at that moment. Last spring was different than this spring because we had so many familiar faces at the top of the depth chart. We have that on the defensive side of the ball this year, but on offense we’re replacing a lot of guys that were here a long time and did a great job for us. This spring I really enjoyed watching the new guys step up to that challenge and work to develop themselves and make this team better.”

2 A key position in your offense, of course, is quarterback. You had guys competing this spring to take over the spot that Mitch Trubisky left. In what areas did the quarterbacks improve? – “I feel like from beginning to end they got better in every area. But that “end” is not where they need to be yet to say they’re ready to go in week one. They still have a long way to go to fully grasp the offense when their number is called and do all the things we want to do on that side of the ball. The biggest area they all improved on was their comfort level and confidence. That also showed in how they got better with their tempo, which usually does go hand-in-hand with their comfort level. The more comfort and confidence you have, the faster you can play.”

3 One of the new faces on the offense will be graduate transfer quarterback Brandon Harris. What are you expecting him to bring to that quarterback room when he arrives? – “He will bring a level of maturity and experience that can’t be taught. It can only be gained over time. He’s played in some big time games on a national stage and that’s something that can’t be recreated in practice with the young guys. We like the athleticism that he shows in his game and that can help us do certain things in the offense. We wouldn’t have brought him in here if we didn’t think the situation would make us a better team.”

4 The defensive side of the ball returns a lot of experience compared to the offense. Where do you think they made the biggest strides forward this spring? – “They were very comfortable within the framework of our defense and what we want from our scheme. This is the third year now for most of them in this defense so their knowledge level has increased each season. J.P. (John Papuchis) and his staff were able to add more to the defense because of that knowledge. They were able to expand beyond the base defense because guys could grow and absorb the information faster this spring. We brought in three new coaches on defense and I was happy with the seamless transition in that regard. I think the players on defense are a mature group which helped. The defense had a great spring.”

5 As the head coach, what specific areas are you focusing on heading into fall camp? – “We set up specific objectives for each position heading into the beginning phase of fall camp. When we start fall camp we are still working on us and improving what our guys can do as we prepare for the whole season. We’re trying to start to figure out which guys are emerging from those position battles and solidify our depth chart. As we move the second half of fall camp we will be preparing for Cal. We have to make sure we are protecting the ball on offense. With a lot of new guys stepping into the mix, decision-making by the quarterback will dictate most of that, but we also need our new skill position guys to hold onto the ball. On defense it’s about creating turnovers. You win a lot of games when you can get the other team to turn the ball over.”

EXTRA POINTS: CHANGE AFOOT FOR TAR HEELS

A year of transition—that's certainly the story line of the Tar Heel football program going from two years of 19 wins and an ACC Coastal Division title to one looking at significant personnel losses to graduation and NFL defections.

The first week of spring practice in early March was noted with the contrast of the Tar Heels watching from afar as seven of their 2016 teammates participated in the NFL Combine in Indianapolis while the coaching staff began rebuilding a team facing the loss of 12 starters plus kicking specialist Nick Weiler.

"Having all those guys at the Combine gives the younger guys inspiration of where we want to get to next year and years after that," said senior cornerback M.J. Stewart.

"It's great for recruiting for kids to see all of our guys getting that opportunity," offensive coordinator and line coach Chris Kapilovic added. "We've had a lot of fun with Twitter and those kind of things, getting our name out there and building our brand."

Then it was back to work, serious work.

"We're going to be a very young football team this year," head coach Larry Fedora says. "But we've got a lot of talented young guys. We've challenged them in the off-season and during the spring that they've got to grow up. Their time is now."

The sixth Carolina team that Fedora will field will certainly be different in one major respect from his first five—the defense is ahead of the offense coming out of spring.

Carolina lost dependable and durable defensive end Mikey Bart and defensive backs Dominique Green and Des Lawrence, and junior Nazair Jones opted for an early departure to the NFL. But still, three years of good recruiting has restocked the defensive line to standards closer to what the program was accustomed to during periods of acquiring the "D-Line U" moniker 20 years ago.

"I think the D-line could be the strength of our team," Fedora says. "We've been very young there as long as I've been here. But I have very high expectations for that group this year."

Tackles Aaron Crawford and Jeremiah Clarke missed spring ball with surgery recoveries, but that allowed Jalen Dalton and converted end Jason Strowbridge to play extensively. Marlon Dunlap, who played as a freshman last year, missed some time with an injury but participated in the spring game. The second team was manned by a pair of impressive January enrollees—Jordon Riley and Xach Gill.

Tyler Powell and Malik Carney are the first-team ends, with senior Dajaun Drennon, who missed some time last year with a foot injury, waiting in the wings. One key element to the puzzle will be freshman Tomon Fox, who played briefly early in 2016 before suffering a season-ending injury. Fox brings a level of speed to the edge Carolina hasn't had recently.

"I think we're going to have excellent depth inside when Crawford and Clarke come back," says Deke Adams, the defensive line coach. "Our first team has done a nice job putting pressure on the quarterback. As a group, we've worked hard on technique and we've worked hard on developing the proper mindset. I want our guys to be aggressive in shedding blocks and making plays. Don't just fit your gap. Destroy the block and go find the ball."

Carolina returns seven starters on defense in 2017

The offense could benefit from the addition of four graduate transfers. Stanton Truitt comes from Auburn and is a key addition at tailback given the departures of T.J. Logan, Elijah Hood and Khristian Francis. Two more will join the offensive line—Cam Dillard played three years at Florida and will play center, and Khalil Rodgers comes from USC and will play guard. Brandon Harris, a quarterback transfer from LSU, played in 25 games over three seasons with the Tigers and made 15 starts, including all 12 games as a sophomore in 2015.

Three young scholarship quarterbacks and one walk-on competed for the No. 1 job following the departure of Mitch Trubisky to the NFL. Sophomore Nathan Elliott and freshmen Chazz Surratt and Logan Byrd each showed sparks at various points during spring. Surratt opened some eyes with his running ability and knack for turning potential sacks into busted-play gains in one scrimmage, and Elliott showed a nice throwing touch in the Blue-White Game by connecting on 8-of-12 throws for 213 yards and three touchdowns.

"Nobody has separated themselves," Fedora says. "We've got several guys that are competing for the job right now. I think all four have made good progress. I don't think that any one of them is ready to go for us at this point. But, through all of the work over the summer and work through fall camp, we'll have somebody ready to play and to lead this team."

January enrollee Michael Carter was impressive in the spring. He'll be joined by Truitt, who missed the spring game with an injury, and by incoming freshman Antwan Branch, a big back at 215 pounds who'll give the offense some girth up the middle.

"Extra Points," written and published by Carolina alumnus Lee Pace (AB Journalism, 1979), enters its 28th season offering an informative and unique view of Tar Heel football. Pace's columns appear at least once a week throughout the football season at GoHeels.com as well as other times where applicable. Pace also serves as the sideline reporter on the Tar Heel Sports Network.

FACILITIES TRANSFORMATION: FOOTBALL PRACTICE COMPLEX

GOHEELS.COM - A new football practice complex (indoor facility and two outdoor fields) is currently under construction and scheduled for completion by the start of the 2018 season. The project is part of a major facility upgrade that includes a new soccer and lacrosse stadium, a new track and field complex and a new field hockey venue.

The new indoor practice facility will provide the football team with a 120-yard synthetic turf field that head coach Larry Fedora plans to use throughout the year regardless of the weather. This will allow other sports to continue to train simultaneously in the Eddie Smith Field House. A pair of outdoor 120-yard practice fields will be built adjacent to the indoor facility and Ridge Road.

"This is an important project for our football program," says Fedora. "It's not a facility that will only be used when we have bad weather. We'll use the facility as part of our normal practice routine in the fall, rotating between the indoor facility and the outdoor fields. This also gives our players a facility for offseason workouts and conditioning throughout the year."

In addition to the four major venues listed above, there are smaller-scale projects underway or in the planning stages. At Kenan Stadium, synthetic turf is being installed from the sidelines to the wall; the playing surface will remain grass. New individual seats in two sections of Kenan Stadium are being installed as the department continues to address fan comfort at the facility.

All of this construction takes financing, and as ever, The Rams Club has been instrumental in raising the funds necessary to support the new facilities.

"We're also working hard to provide a great student-athlete experience, and that's where these facilities come in," says Rams Club executive director John Montgomery.

LARRY FEDORA

HEAD COACH
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

- 2015 Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2015 FCA National Coach of the Year

North Carolina head coach Larry Fedora, who is entering his sixth season at UNC, has built a program in Chapel Hill that provides his student-athletes the chance to excel on the gridiron, in the classroom and in the community. Over the last five seasons, the Tar Heels have set records in bunches, electrified fans with their special teams play, produced numerous professional prospects and finished first in the Coastal Division on two occasions.

Fedora, who already ranks fifth all-time at UNC with 40 victories, signed a new contract extension in May to keep him in Chapel Hill through the 2022 season.

"I enjoy coaching at the University of North Carolina and I appreciate the trust Chancellor Folt and Bubba Cunningham have shown in the leadership of our program," Fedora said. "Our staff and players have worked diligently over the last five years to build a program that encompasses all aspects of the student-athlete experience, while simultaneously achieving success on the field."

Carolina has won 19 games in the last two years, including 13 of 16 ACC regular season contests. The 19 wins are the most in back-to-back seasons since winning 21 in 1996 (10) and 1997 (11). Fedora's .813 winning percentage in ACC games (13-3) over the past two seasons ranks in the top six nationally among Power 5 schools.

One of the first coaches in the country to implement the spread offense, a style now employed in a majority of major programs, Fedora was quick to brand his style of play as "smart, fast and physical." That style has paid dividends for UNC, which has averaged more than 425 yards of total offense per game under his watch and averaged more than 30 points. Fedora has coached the two most prolific offenses in UNC history. The 2015 team set school marks for most points (570), points per game (40.7) and touchdowns (73). The previous highs of 487 points and 62 touchdowns were set in 2012, Fedora's first season in Chapel Hill.

In 126 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 12 times. Five of those have come under Fedora's direction and it is the first time Carolina has averaged more than 400 yards per game in five straight years.

AT CAROLINA

Fedora's first season in 2012 was highlighted by a 6-1 mark at home, including a thrilling 43-35 victory over NC State and a 48-34 win against Virginia Tech. Giovani Bernard's 74-yard punt return in the final seconds of the NC State game ended Carolina's five-game losing skid to its nearby rival and set off a wild celebration on the UNC sidelines. The Virginia Tech game saw Carolina rush for 339 yards, its most since 2004, as the Tar Heels posted 533 yards of total offense. It was also the most points the Hokies had allowed in a game since joining the ACC. Carolina also posted home victories over Elon, East Carolina, Idaho and Maryland, and picked up road wins at Miami and Virginia. It marked the first time a UNC coach had won at Virginia in his first attempt since Dick Crum in 1979.

Statistically, Carolina finished eighth in the country in scoring in 2012, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels scored 30 or more points in nine of 12 games, and twice posted more than 60 points, including a school-record 66 against Idaho. Carolina was 14th in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 485.6 yards per game.

The Tar Heels also excelled on special teams, finishing 10th in net punting and 10th in punt return average. Bernard was second nationally in punt returns and fourth as an all-purpose runner.

In his second season, the Tar Heels stumbled to a 1-5 start, but won six of their last seven games, and captured the 2013 Belk Bowl with a 39-17 thumping of Cincinnati. The win ensured Fedora of his sixth-straight winning season as a head coach.

Carolina's offense set several more school records in 2013, including most points in a game (80), most plays in a season (943) and most passing yards in a season (3,606). It was the sixth consecutive year as a head coach that Fedora's offense has gained more than 5,000 total yards. Fedora takes pride in having outstanding special teams play and 2013 may have been his best yet. Punt returner Ryan Switzer tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt returns for touchdowns en route to first-team All-America honors as a true freshman. It was the first time a true freshman at Carolina had ever been named first-team All-America. Meanwhile kick returner T.J. Logan returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. Throw in an interception return for touchdown by safety Dominique Green and the Tar Heels set a school record for most non-offensive touchdowns with eight. Not surprisingly, the Tar Heels led the nation in punt returns and also finished 10th in the country in net punting.

The 2013 season culminated in a decisive 39-17 victory over Cincinnati in the Belk Bowl, the Tar Heels' first win in the Charlotte bowl game in four chances. It was Carolina's first bowl win since 2010.

In 2014, Carolina again had one of the top offensive units in the ACC, ranking third in scoring and fifth in total offense. The Tar Heels won four of their last six regular-season games to earn a second straight bowl bid. The season was highlighted by a 45-20 win at No. 25 Duke, which was televised nationally by ESPN on Thursday night.

Carolina had its best season in nearly two decades in 2015 as Fedora guided the Tar Heels to an 11-1 regular season and the school's first appearance the ACC Championship Game. Carolina won a school-record 11 consecutive games during the season, went 8-0 at home and swept its in-state opponents. It was another record-setting season as UNC posted more than 60 team and individual marks led by senior signal caller Marquise Williams. Williams was one of 17 Tar Heels to earn All-ACC honors as Carolina led the nation in yards per play and was among the top three in the league in scoring offense (1st), rushing offense (2nd), passing offense (3rd) and total offense (2nd). UNC also had the most improved defense in the country, allowing 14.5 fewer points per game than the previous year.

"I enjoy coaching at the University of North Carolina and I appreciate the trust Chancellor Folt and Bubba Cunningham have shown in the leadership of our program. Our staff and players have worked diligently over the last five years to build a program that encompasses all aspects of the student-athlete experience, while simultaneously achieving success on the field."

Fedora was named the 2015 Fellowship of Christian Athletes Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award.

A year ago, the Tar Heels won eight games, highlighted by back-to-back comeback wins over Pittsburgh and at Florida State. Carolina scored on its last offensive play to beat the Panthers, 37-36, and a week later won in Tallahassee on a 54-yard field goal as time expired. Quarterback Mitch Trubisky, in his only year as the starter, set multiple school records and led the team to a fourth consecutive bowl game.

COACHING THE BEST

Trubisky, who set single-season marks for passing yards and touchdowns, had arguably the greatest passing season in UNC history in 2016. Following the season, the elected to forego his final year of eligibility and enter the NFL Draft. He became the first quarterback in school history selected in the first round when the Chicago Bears made him the No. 2 overall pick.

Trubisky is the fourth first-rounder Fedora has coached in Chapel Hill. In 2014, tight end Eric Ebron was picked 10th overall by Detroit, and in 2013, offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams were taken in the first round by Arizona (No. 7) and Denver (No. 28), respectively. It was just the second time Carolina had produced multiple first-round picks in the same season.

Led by Trubisky and third round defensive tackle Nazair Jones, Carolina had six players selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and eighth in the country. In total, 10 players were either drafter or signed a free agent contract with an NFL team. Wide receivers Ryan Switzer and Mack Hollins, a former walk-on, were fourth round selections. Under Fedora's director, Switzer set the ACC record-holder in punt return touchdowns and became only the eighth player in UNC history to earn All-America on two occasions.

In five seasons at UNC, four tailbacks have been drafted or signed by an NFL team, including most recently T.J. Logan (fifth round to Arizona) and Elijah Hood (seventh round to Oakland) in 2017.

An All-America in 2013 after setting ACC records for most receptions and receiving yards by a tight end (single-season and career), Ebron flourished in Fedora's fast-paced offense. He was one of five Tar Heels selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and seventh in the country.

Cooper was a consensus first-team All-America and became the first Outland Trophy finalist in UNC history. Williams was a stout run-stopper who earned first-team All-ACC honors and played in the Super Bowl in two of his first three years in the NFL, capturing the coveted trophy in 2015.

Bernard, a fleet-footed runner from Ft. Lauderdale, led the league in rushing in 2012, earned first-team All-ACC honors at both running back and specialist and was the first tailback selected in the NFL Draft when Cincinnati took him in the second round. Nine Tar Heels from the 2012 squad signed professional contracts, including five draft picks and four free agent signings. All three senior offensive linemen were drafted, including Cooper in the first round, Brennan Williams in the third and Travis Bond in the seventh.

BUILT A PROGRAM AT SOUTHERN MISS

The 35th head coach in Carolina history and the 11th since the ACC was formed in 1953, Fedora came to Carolina after four seasons as head coach at Southern Miss where he compiled a 34-19 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012, and advanced to four consecutive bowl games. USM knocked off previously unbeaten and No. 6 Houston, 49-28, in the CUSA title game and then won its school-record 12th game of the year over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. The Golden Eagles reached double digits in wins for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1952. USM finished the season ranked No. 19 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the BCS standings.

Fedora's 2011 team was among the best in the country on both sides of the ball. Southern Miss was 17th in the nation in total offense, averaging 461.4 yards per game, and 14th in scoring offense with 36.9 points per contest. On defense, the Golden Eagles were seventh in pass efficiency defense, 26th in scoring defense and 29th in total defense.

Southern Miss developed into an explosive offensive program during Fedora's tenure, gaining more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of his four seasons, including a school-record 6,459 yards in 2011. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles established a school record for total offense. In addition, USM was one of only five schools to run more than 1,000 plays in 2010-11.

En route to an 8-win season in 2010, USM established 35 school records and finished 18th in the country in total offense – the highest finish for the Golden Eagles since becoming a member of the FBS. Fedora's Southern Miss offenses were 31st in the nation in 2009 and 20th in 2008.

While admired for his offensive style, Fedora also believes in an attacking defensive philosophy. The Golden Eagles forced turnovers in 46 games during the Fedora era and two or more in 36 contests. That turnover margin helped the Golden Eagles rank 10th in turnover margin nationally for the second consecutive year in 2009 and 20th in 2010. In 2011, Fedora's defense set an FBS record with eight interceptions returned for touchdown.

Off the field, Fedora's teams have succeeded in the classroom. Southern Miss's graduation success rate (GSR) ranked second in CUSA in the 2009-10 academic year and third during the 2010-11 academic year. In 2009, USM was recognized by the AFCA for its graduation success rate.

LEARNING AS AN ASSISTANT

The Southern Miss job was Fedora's first head coaching assignment after excelling in the collegiate ranks as an assistant. He spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2005-07 where the Cowboys raised their rushing, passing and total offensive yards each year with Fedora at the helm. In 2006, the Cowboys were one of just two teams - the other being Boise State - to average over 200 yards both rushing and passing.

The OSU offense averaged over 30 points per contest over his final two seasons as well. The Cowboys made the biggest improvement in the country in scoring following his second season of running the offense, jumping from 96th nationally in 2005 to seventh in 2006.

The Fedora Family: Larry, Peyton, Hallie, Sydney, Christi & Dillon

Prior to his stint at Oklahoma State, Fedora spent three seasons at Florida as run game coordinator (2002), perimeter game coordinator (2003) and offensive coordinator (2004). He also coached the running backs and receivers all three seasons.

In 2004, Fedora's Gators ranked first in the SEC in six different categories including passing offense (271.1), total offense (426.9), third down conversion percentage (47.8), touchdown passes (29), pass attempts (407) and pass completions (243).

Before going to Florida, Fedora was the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee from 1999-2001. In three seasons at MTSU, Fedora's offense averaged 424 yards of total offense, 181 rushing yards and 31 points per game. With Fedora as their offensive coordinator, the Blue Raiders set 43 school records over three seasons.

Fedora began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Austin College in 1986. He then served as an assistant coach at Garland (Texas) High School from 1987-90. Fedora returned to the collegiate ranks in 1991, serving as the tight ends, wide receivers and running backs coach at Baylor, where he stayed until 1996. He then spent two seasons (1997-98) at Air Force coaching the passing game and wide receivers.

PLAYING CAREER

As a player, Fedora was a wide receiver at Austin College from 1981-84. He played on the 1981 Kangaroo squad that won the NAIA championship. He earned academic All-America honors in 1983, and was honorable mention All-America in both 1983 and 1984.

FAMILY

Born Sept. 10, 1962, in College Station, Texas, Fedora is a 1985 graduate of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, where he also received his master's degree in 1986. He is married to the former Christi Wood, and the couple has one son, Dillon, and three daughters, Sydney, Peyton and Hallie.

DEKE ADAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Deke Adams, who was a member of Larry Fedora's initial coaching staff at North Carolina, returned to Chapel Hill as the Tar Heels' defensive line coach in 2017. Adams coached the UNC defensive line in 2012 and also spent three years with Fedora at Southern Miss from 2009-11.

Adams, who has played a key role in the development of six National Football League draft picks since 2013, including two first-round selections, spent the 2016 season as East Carolina's defensive line coach. Prior to ECU, he worked under Steve Spurrier for three years at South Carolina and helped lead the Gamecocks to a pair of bowl wins in 2013 and 2014.

Following his appointment as the Gamecocks' defensive line coach in 2013, tackle Kelcy Quarles and end Jadeveon Clowney each earned first-team All-America honors under Adams' tutelage. In addition, both players garnered first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the Associated Press and the league's 14 coaches. Quarles led the team with 13.5 tackles for loss, including 9.5 sacks, while Clowney was the first overall pick by the Houston Texans in the 2014 NFL Draft.

One of Adams' top 2015 performers, tackle Gerald Dixon Jr., accepted an invitation to participate in the East-West Shrine Game after completing an 84-tackle career.

During his initial stint in Chapel Hill, Adams had the opportunity to coach All-America tackle Sylvester Williams, a first-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. The Tar Heels went 8-4 that season and tied for first in the ACC Coastal Division.

In his final year in Hattiesburg, Adams, a former Southern Miss letterman, provided leadership for a front four that allowed just 112.6 rushing yards per game in 2011, which ranked 22nd nationally. He helped the Golden Eagles to the Conference USA title and an eventual 12-win season after a Hawai'i Bowl win over Nevada.

Among the players he mentored at USM were first-team All-Conference USA end Cordarro Law and 2013 second-round NFL Draft pick Jamie Collins.

In his initial campaign at Southern Miss in 2009, Adams inherited a young, but talented unit that progressively improved as the season continued. The Golden Eagle defense finished the year No. 18 nationally in sacks and No. 24 in tackles for loss after standing 93rd and 68th, respectively, in those two defensive categories a season earlier.

Adams went to Southern Miss after spending the previous year as linebackers coach and coordinator of player development at Louisiana-Monroe. Prior to his stint at ULM, he worked for two seasons at North Carolina A&T.

During his first season in Greensboro, Adams was elevated to interim defensive coordinator status after two games before earning the job on a permanent basis following the final contest. He coached the Aggies' defensive line in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007 in addition to his coordinator duties.

Adams spent the previous four years at Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) University, coordinating the defense and coaching the defensive line in his last season (2005).

He began his career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville (Ala.) State before moving on to Pearl River (Miss.) Community College, where he first served as the linebackers coach and later was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2001, he became the defensive coordinator and continued his duties as recruiting coordinator.

A three-year letterman, Adams was a pivotal part of the Golden Eagles' "Nasty Bunch" defense.

In the classroom, Adams was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List during his time as a student-athlete. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and sports administration in 1995 before following with a master's degree, also from USM, in 1996.

He is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn.

GUNTER BREWER

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
11TH YEAR AT UNC

Gunter Brewer enters his 11th overall season in Chapel Hill and sixth under head coach Larry Fedora as the Tar Heels' co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Brewer coached five seasons in Chapel Hill from 2000-04 before returning in 2012 after stops at Oklahoma State and Mississippi.

During his second stint in Chapel Hill, Brewer has helped the Tar Heels set several offensive records, while tutoring some of the most productive wide receivers in school history. The Tar Heels have finished first in the Coastal Division on two occasions and made their first appearance in the ACC Championship Game in 2015.

Considered one of the nation's top recruiters, Brewer added the responsibility and title of recruiting coordinator in 2017.

Most recently, three of Brewer's players were either drafted or signed a professional contract in the NFL. Mack Hollins, a former walk-on, was taken in the third round by Philadelphia, Ryan Switzer was a fourth-round pick by Dallas and Bug Howard signed a free agent deal with Indianapolis.

Brewer's pupils have flourished under his tutelage. Last season, Switzer set the single-season school record with 96 receptions, including an ACC-record 30 catches in back-to-back games vs. Pitt (16) and Florida State (14), and became UNC's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards. One of the top punt returners in NCAA history, Switzer was one of just eight players in UNC history to earn first-team All-America on two occasions.

Hollins, Carolina's most consistent deep threat over the last three seasons, led the nation in yards per catch in 2015 (24.8) and finished third at UNC with 20 scoring receptions before his senior season ended prematurely.

Switzer, Hollins and Howard's successes came on the heels of another standout Brewer product in Quinshad Davis. One of Brewer and Fedora's first recruits at UNC, Davis finished his brilliant career with 205 receptions (second only to Switzer) and a school-record 25 touchdown catches.

Under Brewer, Carolina has set the school record for passing yards in each of the last five seasons, throwing for more than 3,500 yards each year. Led by quarterback Mitch Trubisky and several talented wideouts, the Tar Heels passed for 3,811 yards in 2016.

In an 11-win season in 2015, Carolina led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game.

Brewer is coaching with Fedora for the second time in his career. The two were on Mike Gundy's Oklahoma State offensive staff for three years from 2005-07.

Brewer returned to UNC after serving one season as the associate head coach at Mississippi in 2011. Brewer was the lone assistant coach who remained on the Mississippi staff after Houston Nutt was dismissed at the end of the year. He headed up a transition team and had been asked to remain on the new Ole Miss staff.

Brewer spent six seasons (2005-10) at Oklahoma State and served in various capacities, including as co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, receivers coach and quarterbacks coach. His term in Stillwater included five bowl appearances and the program's first Big 12 South Championship in 2010.

Brewer recruited and served as the position coach for Justin Blackmon, a uni-mous first-team All-America who won the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver. Blackmon finished the 2010 season as the national leader in receiving yards per game and was second in receptions per game. His 1,782 receiving yards were the most ever for a sophomore in NCAA history, and he set another NCAA record with 12 consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Blackmon was the third Biletnikoff Award finalist Brewer has coached, joining Randy Moss (1997 winner) and Dez Bryant (2008 runner-up). Moss and Bryant are also among 21 Brewer pupils that have gone on to professional football careers.

Brewer's work with the Cowboy wide receivers was key in OSU finishing the 2010 season ranked second in the nation in passing offense and third in the nation in both total offense and scoring offense.

With Brewer as co-offensive coordinator, the Cowboys offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americans in Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, to go with first-round NFL Draft picks in lineman Russell Okung and tight end Brandon Pettigrew.

In 2008, Brewer's offensive unit finished top-10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency. He was also the position coach for quarterback Zac Robinson, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency and 18th nationally in total offense.

Brewer coached Biletnikoff semifinalist Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, while D'Juan Woods was a 2005 All-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.

Brewer's tenure at Oklahoma State was preceded by a five-year period at North Carolina (2000-04), where he coached three receivers who ranked among the top 20 in UNC history in receiving yards – Sam Aiken, Chesley Borders and Jaworski Pollock.

As the associate offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Marshall from 1996-99, Brewer coached Moss to stardom while helping the Thundering Herd to a 50-4 record over that time, including a perfect 13-0 mark and No. 10 final national ranking in 1999.

Brewer's other career stops include Wake Forest, East Tennessee State and Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he served as head coach in 1995.

Brewer was a two-year letterwinner as a receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Ole Miss.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Brewer and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Keaton, and a daughter, Lauren.

MIKE EKELER

LINEBACKERS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Mike Ekeler, who has coached at six Power 5 programs and most recently worked at North Texas, joined the UNC staff in 2017 as the linebackers coach.

Ekeler was North Texas' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2016, working for head coach Seth Littrell, a former UNC assistant. Ekeler also has ties to the current UNC staff having worked with current defensive coordinator John Papuchis at LSU and Nebraska. Ekeler, Papuchis and defensive backs coach Terry Joseph were all graduate assistants at LSU under Les Miles in 2006.

In his first season at North Texas, Ekeler oversaw a defense that held opponents to 8.7 points per game fewer than the previous year. That turnaround in scoring defense was the 13th-best mark in the country. He also oversaw a linebackers corps that included the team's sack leader Joshua Wheeler (5.5).

Prior to joining the Mean Green, he spent two seasons as inside linebackers coach at Georgia and has also worked at USC, Indiana, Nebraska, LSU and Oklahoma.

In two seasons at UGA, Ekeler coached some of the best defenses in the country. In 2015, Georgia's defense ranked seventh in the nation in total defense, allowing only 305.8 yards per game. In 2014, the Bulldogs ranked 17th in the country in total defense and were second in the SEC in passing defense efficiency. He coached three NFL draft picks in 2014, Leonard Floyd (first round), Ramik Wilson (fourth round) and Amarlo Herrera (sixth round). Ekeler also coordinated the defensive special teams at Georgia and the punt return team had six touchdown returns in two seasons.

At USC in 2013, Ekeler coached Hayes Pullard who was named to the All-Pac 12 second team. That year Pullard had 60 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, nine sacks and was drafted in the sixth round. While at Indiana, Ekeler served as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator from 2011-12.

A native of David City, Nebraska, he spent three seasons as Nebraska's linebackers coach (2008-10) under head coach Bo Pelini. During his three years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers won or shared the Big 12 Conference North Division title all three seasons.

As Nebraska's linebackers coach, he was involved with some of the nation's most successful defenses. In 2010, Nebraska was third nationally in pass efficiency defense, fifth in pass defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. In 2009, the Cornhuskers led the country in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense, and were seventh in total defense and ninth in rushing defense. He coached NFL draft picks Lavonte David, a 2010 and 2011 All-American first teamer when he set the school season tackles record, Phillip Dillard, Cody Glenn, Eric Martin and Will Compton. David is an All-Pro linebacker for Tampa Bay and Compton is Washington's defensive captain.

Ekeler worked as a graduate assistant at LSU (2005-07) and Oklahoma (2003-04). Oklahoma played for the BCS title in both of Ekeler's seasons in Norman, posting a two-year record of 24-3. While at LSU, the Tigers led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked nationally in four in 2006. The 2007 LSU team finished 12-2 and won the BCS National Championship marking the third time in five years that Ekeler had been part of a team playing for the BCS title.

Ekeler played linebacker for Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1991-94 and was named team captain as a senior.

Ekeler earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 1995. He and his wife, Barbie, have a son, J.J., and daughters Cameryn, Abigail, and Bella.

KEITH HECKENDORF

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR QUARTERBACKS COACH
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Keith Heckendorf is in his fourth season as North Carolina's quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. He spent three years at UNC from 2011-13, and returned to Chapel Hill after a brief stint as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State prior to the 2014 season.

Carolina's passing game has been among the nation's best under Heckendorf's leadership. The Tar Heels have set the school record for passing yards in each of his three seasons, passing for more than 3,500 yards each time. Last year, Carolina was third in the ACC and 22nd in the nation averaging 293.2 passing yards per game.

Heckendorf has tutored two of the most successful quarterbacks in school history in Marquise Williams and Mitch Trubisky. Williams led the Tar Heels to an 11-win season and the Coastal Division title in 2015, while setting more than 20 individual school records. A year later, Trubisky evolved into one of the nation's top signal callers in his one year as the starter. He set several single-season school records, including total offense (4,056), passing yards (3,748) and passing touchdowns (30) while leading the Tar Heels to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Sun Bowl vs. Stanford. Williams and Trubisky are the only two players in UNC history with more than 4,000 yards of total offense in a single season.

Following his redshirt junior season, Trubisky entered the NFL Draft where he was selected by the Chicago Bears with the No. 2 overall pick. He became the first quarterback in UNC history selected in the first round of the NFL Draft and the ninth player taken in the top 10. At No. 2, Trubisky equaled the highest draft pick in Carolina history along with Julius Peppers (No. 2 in 2002) and Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981).

Carolina has won 19 games in the last two seasons, which is the most in Chapel Hill since the 1996 and 1997 seasons. In 2015, the Tar Heels had one of their best seasons in two decades, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual offensive records. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game.

Williams, who played two seasons under Heckendorf, capped a phenomenal career, setting career marks for total offense, total plays and rushing yards by a quarterback. He finished with 10,423 total yards of offense, which ranked fourth in ACC history. Williams was also responsible for a school-record 99 career touchdowns, including 61 passing, 35 rushing and three receiving.

In 2015, Williams posted 524 total yards of offense in a win over Duke to eclipse the single-game record he had set a year prior against Old Dominion. Williams rushed for 13 touchdowns in both 2014 and 2015, the most by quarterback in UNC history.

In his first stint at UNC, Heckendorf helped tutor quarterbacks Bryn Renner and Williams. Renner set several school records, including the single-season mark for touchdown passes with 28 in 2012. He finished his outstanding career second at Carolina in touchdowns and third in passing yards. Williams came off the bench in 2013 when Renner went down with a season-ending injury to lead the team to wins in six of its final seven games.

Prior to his first tenure at Carolina, Heckendorf spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Carolina. He also spent three seasons at Nebraska that included trips to the 2005 Alamo Bowl and 2007 Cotton Bowl.

Heckendorf had a standout career as a quarterback at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., from 2000-03. He was a two-time finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which is given annually to the top player in NCAA Division II football, finishing second and third in the voting. He was also a consensus American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America pick, and a two-time Academic All-America. He was the Division II recipient of the prestigious National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in elective studies from St. Cloud State University in 2004, and he completed his master's in education administration from the University of Nebraska in 2014.

A native of Mosinee, Wis., Heckendorf is married to the former Ms. Mia Mauer of Saint Paul, Minn. They have twin sons Ethan and Elliott.

LOU HERNANDEZ

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
COACH FOR FOOTBALL
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Lou Hernandez is in his sixth season as North Carolina's head football strength and conditioning coach.

During his tenure in Chapel Hill, Hernandez has helped the Tar Heels become bigger, stronger and faster with his workout philosophy and techniques. Over the last five years, an average of 45 student-athletes per season have power cleaned 308 pounds or more, one of the many quantitative measurements used in Hernandez's program.

Hernandez's strength program played a key role in Carolina's success over the last two seasons as the Tar Heels have won 19 games, including a school-record tying 11 in 2015. That season Carolina captured the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual records.

During a career that has included stops at Carolina, Illinois, Florida and Houston, Hernandez has helped train several successful NFL players and nine first-round draft picks.

In 2017, six Carolina players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round quarterback Mitch Trubisky, third-round defensive tackle Nazair Jones, fourth-round wide receivers Mack Hollins and Ryan Switzer, fifth-round running back T.J. Logan and seventh-round running back Elijah Hood. The Tar Heels ranked second in the league and eighth in the nation with six picks. Another four players signed free agent contracts.

Carolina players have consistently proven their training abilities at the NFL combine workouts leading up to the NFL Draft. In 2017, Logan was the fastest tailback at the event, running the 40-yard dash in 4.37 seconds. In 2013 center Russell Bodine, now with the Cincinnati Bengals, had the most bench press reps (42) of any player, a mark achieved by only 15 players previously. Bodine also had one of the top five vertical jumps for an offensive lineman. Tre Boston was among the top safeties in bench and 40-yard dash, while defensive end Kareem Martin had the best broad jump of any lineman. Boston was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers.

Hernandez helped develop tight end Eric Ebron into a first-team All-America and a first-round draft pick. Ebron had the second fastest time in the 40-yard dash of any tight end at the NFL Combine and the third-best broad jump. He set ACC records for a tight end in receptions and receiving yards in 2013. Ebron was selected No. 10 overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Ebron was the fourth first-round draft choice Hernandez has tutored in Chapel Hill. He helped train offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams the previous year. Cooper, considered one of the most athletic guards in the recent history of the draft, improved his draft stock significantly after returning for his senior season under Fedora's staff and working with Hernandez. Cooper was taken No. 7 overall by Arizona and Williams was picked 28th overall by Denver and played in Super Bowl XLVIII. Trubisky became a much stronger quarterback under Hernandez' workout plan and matched the highest draft pick in UNC history when the Bears made him the No. 2 overall pick.

Hernandez was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2002-04 when Fedora was an offensive assistant under Ron Zook.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Hernandez spent seven years on the Illinois staff as the head strength coach under football coach Ron Zook. He coordinated the entire strength program for the football team as well as assisting with nutritional aspects of the players' diets. Illinois won back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011 for the first time in school history.

During his time at Illinois, Hernandez turned around the strength program. When he began in 2005, there was just one player with a 300-pound or better power clean. Five years later, the team averaged close to 35 a year. Only one player in 2005 could bench over 405 and by 2010 that number was in double figures.

Hernandez helped train five first-round NFL Draft picks in Champaign, including Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh) in 2008, Vontae Davis (Miami) in 2009, Corey Liuget (San Diego) in 2011 and Whitney Mercilus (Houston) and A.J. Jenkins (San Francisco) in 2012. That marked the first time Illinois had produced five first-round draft picks in a five-year span.

Hernandez worked for three seasons at Florida as the assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2002-04. He moved to Florida after serving on the New York Jets staff.

Prior to his one-year stint with the Jets, Hernandez spent 10 years at the University of Houston, including five years as the director of the program.

A native of Alice, Texas, Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Houston in 1992 and his master's degree in exercise and health-related fitness from Houston in 1994. Hernandez is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Hernandez and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Romy Ella and Katirena Rose.

TERRY JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Terry Joseph, who spent the last three seasons at Texas A&M, joined the North Carolina program as defensive backs coach in 2017.

Joseph tutored an Aggies' pass defense in 2015 that ranked No. 4 nationally in passing yards allowed per game and No. 18 in pass efficiency defense. Another highlight was the successful transition of lifelong running back to cornerback made by Brandon Williams in 2015. Williams was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft the following spring. In 2016, Joseph coached All-SEC strong safety Justin Evans who earned National Player of the Week honors for his performance against UCLA, was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award and was a second-round pick in the NFL Draft by Tampa Bay.

From New Orleans originally, Joseph coached at two high schools in the state of Louisiana for seven years before moving on to serve collegiate stints at LSU, Louisiana Tech, Tennessee and Nebraska.

In his two seasons at Nebraska from 2012-13, the Cornhusker secondary ranked among the best in the Big Ten Conference and the NCAA.

In 2012, the Cornhuskers led the FBS in pass defense and ranked No. 2 in pass efficiency defense. During the 2012 regular season, Joseph's secondary unit held opponents under 50.0 completion percentage. In 2013, the Cornhuskers again ranked among the nation's stingiest. NU allowed just 54.1 completion percentage and the 210 completions allowed were the fewest in the Big Ten. Joseph saw multiple players earn All-Big Ten honors, including two-time first-team pick Ciente Evans.

Before Nebraska, Joseph spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator. Joseph helped the UT defense rank among the nation's top pass defenses in both 2010 and 2011. In 2011, the Vols finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed with an average of just 177.8 yards per game. Joseph oversaw a young defensive backfield, including true freshman Brian Randolph, who earned SEC all-freshman honors in 2011.

In Joseph's first season in Knoxville in 2010, Joseph helped the Vols rank in the top 20 in the nation with 18 interceptions, and the group played a key role in a late-season run that earned Tennessee a trip to the Music City Bowl. Safety Janzen Jackson and cornerback Prentiss Waggner each earned second-team All-SEC honors. Waggner returned three interceptions for touchdowns to set a school record.

Joseph joined the UT staff after three seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2007 to 2009, where he served as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. Joseph played a key role in a defensive turnaround at Louisiana Tech. The highlight of Joseph's stint in Ruston came in 2008, when the Bulldogs earned their first bowl trip in seven seasons. Tech completed an 8-5 season with a 17-10 victory over NIU in the Independence Bowl. Joseph also coordinated Tech's recruiting efforts, and the 2009 class was ranked second in the WAC. Joseph was ranked as one of the top five recruiters in a non-BCS conference by Rivals.com.

Joseph worked as a defensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2006. During his one season in Baton Rouge, Joseph helped the Tiger defense rank third nationally in total defense, and LSU finished the year with a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Joseph began his coaching career in the Louisiana prep ranks, working as an assistant at two New Orleans area schools. Joseph worked at Archbishop Shaw from 1999 through 2002, and served as defensive coordinator at Destrehan High School from 2003 to 2005.

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree from Northwestern State in 1996. He was a baseball standout at the school, and is one of only 12 players in Southland Conference history to earn first-team all-conference honors three straight seasons. Joseph was the player of the year in 1995, when he was coached by current Arkansas baseball coach Dave Van Horn. A two-time Academic All-American with the Demons, Joseph owned 10 school records when he completed his collegiate baseball career.

The cousin of Denver Broncos head coach Vance Joseph, Terry was a 13th-round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs and played four seasons in the minor leagues with the Cubs and San Diego Padres.

Joseph and his wife, Amanda, are the parents of two daughters, Taylor and Lynleigh.

CHRIS KAPILOVIC

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OL COACH
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Chris Kapilovic (pronounced kuh-PILL-o-vick) enters his sixth season on the UNC staff as the offensive line coach. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2015 and offensive coordinator in 2016. Kapilovic is the longest tenured coach working with Larry Fedora (12th season), having served on his staff since Fedora first became a head coach at Southern Miss in 2008.

In five years at UNC, Kapilovic has been part of an offensive unit that has established more than 60 school records, including points per game (2012, 2014), total offense (2012, 2014), passing yards (2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016) and first downs (2014, 2015). Carolina has averaged more than 170 rushing yards per game, which is the highest five-year average since the Mack Brown era.

Last season, Kapilovic's offense, led by quarterback Mitch Trubisky, set the school passing yards mark for the fifth-straight season, won eight games and played Stanford in the Sun Bowl. Trubisky, who was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft, was one of 10 Tar Heels to either be drafted or signed by an NFL team.

In 2015, Kapilovic and the Tar Heels had a season to remember, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and made its third straight bowl game. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game. Carolina finished 18th nationally with 224.4 rushing yards per game. That was the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9).

UNC was a semifinalist for the 2015 Joe Moore Award, a new trophy which recognizes the entire offensive line. The o-line paved the way for tailback Elijah Hood to rush for 1,463 yards (second-highest in single-season school history) and quarterback Marquise Williams to run for 948 yards. Carolina led the ACC with a school-record 6.0 yards per carry and ranked first in the league in sacks allowed.

Carolina had what many outside observers called the best offensive line in the country in 2012. All three senior starting linemen were drafted, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, an athletic guard from Wilmington, N.C. Tackle Brennan Williams was picked in the third round and guard Travis Bond was a seventh round selection.

Holdovers James Hurst (LT) and Russell Bodine (C) led a solid unit in 2013 as the Tar Heels averaged more than 425 total yards per game. Bodine was taken in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Cincinnati, while Hurst signed a free agent deal with the Baltimore Ravens.

With the offensive line providing running room, Giovani Bernard led the league in rushing in 2012 and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest total at UNC since 1994. Carolina also led the league and finished ninth in the nation in sacks allowed.

Kapilovic came to Carolina after four years at Southern Miss. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss set the school record for total offense, including a mark of 6,459 yards in 2011. Under his direction, the offensive line helped the Golden Eagles reach the 5,000-yard mark in total offense in all four seasons. Kapilovic and company broke the previous total offense record of 5,894 they set in 2010. It was also the fifth-straight year Southern Miss had rushed for more than 2,000 yards.

In 2011, Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Kapilovic was promoted to run game coordinator in 2010, and in each of his two seasons in that capacity Southern Miss rushed for more than 200 yards per game. In 2011, USM was one of just 11 FBS programs that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Three Southern Miss offensive linemen were named All-CUSA in 2011, including first-team performer Lamar Holmes.

Kapilovic came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Missouri State, and five years at Alabama State.

Kapilovic started his coaching career as a student assistant at Missouri State. After leaving MSU, Kapilovic spent time as offensive coordinator at Deer Valley High in Glendale, Ariz., as offensive line and strength coach at Phoenix College and as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Kansas.

As a player, Kapilovic lettered for two seasons, 1989 and 1990, for the Bears and was a member of the school's only Gateway Conference championship teams those two seasons as they also made their only appearances in the Division I-AA playoffs. He was a starter and Gateway first-team selection during his senior campaign in 1990. He also played two seasons at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College.

Kapilovic and wife Fiona, have two children, Carsen and Colin.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

John Papuchis (pronounced puh-POO-chis) joined the Carolina defensive staff in 2015 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2017.

During Papuchis' two seasons in Chapel Hill, the Tar Heels have won 19 games, the most in back-to-back seasons since 1996 and 1997, and have gone to two straight bowl games.

A year ago, a pair of Papuchis' pupils – Cole Holcomb and Andre Smith – ranked first and second, respectively, on the team in tackles. Both were among the ACC top 10 in tackles. They were part of a Carolina defense that led the ACC and was 12th in the country in passing yards allowed. The Tar Heels allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the ACC and allowed the fewest touchdown receptions by wide receivers in the country. Over the last half of the 2016 season, Carolina's defense held its opponents to an average of just over 7.0 points in the second half.

Papuchis had an immediate impact in his first season in Chapel Hill as the Tar Heels had the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game.

Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls. The Tar Heels finished No. 12 in pass defense efficiency.

Before coming to Carolina, Papuchis served on Nebraska's staff from 2008-14, including the last three as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

Papuchis was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator when he was promoted to the position at Nebraska in 2012. Prior to joining Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff in 2008, he worked at LSU under Nick Saban from 2004-07, and was a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001-03.

Papuchis has plenty of big-game experience having coached at three other Power Five programs Nebraska, LSU and Kansas. In the past 11 seasons, he has coached in one national championship game (2007) and six conference title games, including the 2015 ACC title game in Charlotte.

Nebraska's defense ranked highly in Papuchis' seven seasons in Lincoln. The Blackshirts held opponents to 10 or fewer points in nearly one-quarter of the games he coached. In addition to holding 22 opponents to 10 or fewer points, NU also held 34 opponents to 14 points or fewer. In three seasons with Papuchis coordinating the defense, Nebraska held its opponent to 14 or fewer points 11 times.

Nebraska was especially strong defending the pass under Papuchis, holding opponents to a 48.5 completion percentage in 2014, which ranked second in the country. NU also was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense and fifth in third down defense.

Before being promoted to NU's defensive coordinator, Papuchis worked with a Husker defense that led the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' seven seasons and once in total defense.

In his last 11 seasons as a defensive assistant, Papuchis has coached four units that have ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense.

A pair of Huskers - Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara - are among six Papuchis players who have been drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2007. Working with the Husker defensive line, Papuchis helped Suh become a Heisman Trophy Finalist, in addition to winning the Outland Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

In addition to working with the Husker defense, Papuchis also coordinated Nebraska's special teams for four seasons from 2008 to 2011. In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-the-Year Award.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. Papuchis served as a defensive intern for the Tigers, assisting in every aspect of the defensive game plan and scouting reports.

The efforts of Papuchis helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses throughout his time with LSU. The Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2006, the LSU defense surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger defense since 1976. LSU led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked in the top five nationally in four major categories. LSU finished in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories in 2005, and allowed less than 270 total yards per contest. Papuchis also coached the Tiger punters. In 2007, punter Patrick Fisher led the SEC in punting with a 44.5-yard average and earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Papuchis first joined Nick Saban's LSU staff prior to the 2004 season, helping the team earn a berth in the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis had a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001 to 2003. In 2001, he worked with the Jayhawk secondary and then assisted with the linebackers. In his final season at KU, Papuchis helped the Jayhawks earn a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

Papuchis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kansas in 2003.

Papuchis is a native of Gaithersburg, Md. He and his wife, Billie, have three daughters, Addyson, Sophia and Rylee and a son, John.

CHAD SCOTT

TIGHT ENDS/HYBRIDS COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Chad Scott, a 2004 UNC graduate, was named Carolina's tight ends and hybrids coach in 2016.

Last season, Scott was part of an offensive staff that set more than 40 individual and team records, including passing yards and passing yards per game. Scott's tight ends were the most inexperienced position group on the team, but they made valuable contributions as the Tar Heels won eight games and played Stanford in the Sun Bowl. Redshirt freshman Carl Tucker and sophomore Brandon Fritts averaged more than 10 yards per reception. Tucker was also named first-team All-ACC freshman by Athlon.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley "Boom" Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 per attempt.

Scott spent three seasons at Texas Tech from 2010-12. While TTU was known for great success throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked 115th in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to 75th nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers both sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each. Texas Tech won the TicketCity Bowl over Northwestern following the 2010 season and defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2012.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked 66th in rushing offense and 77th in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to 35th nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and 16th in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked third in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris ranked second in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards and plays for the Minnesota Vikings. In Scott's last season at Troy he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, to Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

In his six seasons at Troy and Texas Tech, Scott's teams averaged 34.1 points per game.

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina and lettering in 2004 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with Cleveland and Pittsburgh before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

Scott graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky, and the couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

DeANDRE SMITH

RUNNING BACKS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

DeAndre Smith joined the UNC football staff as running backs coach in February 2017.

Smith, who played at Southwest Missouri State with UNC offensive coordinator Chris Kapilovic, was hired from UNLV where he had spent the last three months as the Rebels' running backs coach. He served as Purdue's running backs coach in 2016.

Prior to his year in West Lafayette, Smith spent three seasons as running backs coach at Syracuse. The Orange gained 1,958 yards and scored 15 rushing touchdowns on 445 attempts in 2015. Syracuse averaged 4.4 yards per carry and 163.2 yards per game on the ground in 2015, with freshman Jordan Fredericks rushing for a team-high 607 yards and four touchdowns on 107 attempts.

Smith has previously coached running backs at New Mexico (2012, 2008), Illinois (2010-11), UNLV (2009), Miami (Ohio) (2005-07) and Northern Illinois (2001-04), which produced four straight all-conference running backs during his tenure. He also served as the assistant head coach with the RedHawks and as a special teams assistant with the Huskies. He began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana State (1999-2000).

In 17 years of coaching, Smith has mentored four All-Americans and has had nine 1,000-yard rushers. Among the notable running backs to play for him are Mikel LeShoure at Illinois and Michael Turner and Garrett Wolfe at Northern Illinois. In 2010, LeShoure set Fighting Illini records for rushing yards (1,697), scoring (122 points) and touchdowns (20). He was a second team All-America, a first team All-Big Ten selection and would go on to be a second-round selection by the Detroit Lions. Turner was a two-time second team All-America for the Huskies (2002, 2003) after leading the Mid-American Conference in rushing, while Wolfe earned honorable mention All-America honors in 2004 after ranking fifth nationally in rushing (1,656 yards). Turner was a fifth-round selection by the San Diego Chargers and played eight years in the NFL. Wolfe was a third-round pick by the Chicago Bears.

A four-year letterwinner at quarterback for Southwest Missouri State, Smith was the 1990 Division I-AA Offensive Player of the Year as well as an All-American. He was named the Gateway Conference Player of the Decade

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in organizational communication from SMS in 2002.

A native of St. Louis, Smith and his wife, Lori, have two sons, Ryan and Donovan, and a daughter, Ashley. Ryan played wide receiver at Duke from 2013-16.

TONY GILBERT

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSE

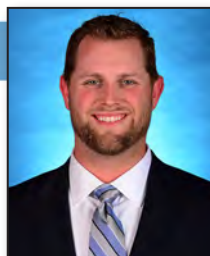

Tony Gilbert became a member of the North Carolina football staff in 2015. He served as a defensive quality control assistant for two seasons before moving into the role of graduate assistant coach in 2017.

Gilbert attended the University of Georgia where he earned All-SEC second-team honors and led the Bulldogs in tackles in 2000, 2001 and 2002. As a senior, he tied for the team lead with a career-high 114 tackles and recorded 2.5 sacks, 15 stops for losses, 13 quarterback pressures, one forced fumble and deflected two passes. That season, Gilbert captained the team that won the Southeastern Conference Championship with a 13-1 record. He finished his career with 328 tackles.

Gilbert was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft and also played for the Jacksonville Jaguars and Atlanta Falcons.

A native of Macon, Ga., Gilbert was inducted into the Macon (Ga.) Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

ZACH HANSON

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS

A former offensive line standout at Kansas State, Zach Hanson joined the UNC coaching staff in 2016, and works with the special teams units.

In 2016, Hanson helped develop some of the best special teams units in the country. The Tar Heels led the nation in punt coverage, allowing opponents to return nine punts for just two yards. Carolina also finished the season second in the nation in kickoff return average (26.97).

Under Hanson's tutelage, freshman punter Tom Sheldon earned USA Today Freshman All-American accolades, while ranking in the Top 20 nationally in net punting. Senior place-kicker Nick Weiler earned honorable mention All-ACC honors after booting 15 field goals, including a 54 yard game-winner at Florida State.

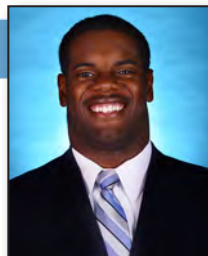

Hanson came to Chapel Hill after four seasons on Kansas State's coaching staff, including three as an offensive graduate assistant. Hanson served as K-State's offensive quality control coach in 2012 as he assisted in film breakdown and scouting reports among other duties. After working with the offensive line for his first three seasons on staff, Hanson spent the fourth working with K-State's wide receivers. As a member of the staff, Hanson helped the Wildcats to four bowl appearances, including a trip to the Fiesta bowl in the Big 12 Championship season of 2012.

Hanson, who played in 37 games as a Wildcat from 2009-11, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2011 as an offensive tackle, and was a second-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree as well. He started at left tackle for the Wildcats in 2011, helping K-State earn a 10-3 record and an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Hanson also started several games in 2010, playing significant time while rotating between left to right tackle throughout the season, earning honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

A native of Linden, California, Hanson originally signed with Nevada out of high school but opted to attend Sacramento City College prior to K-State. He obtained a degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 2010 and earned his master's degree in sociology in 2014.

He is married to Annie Hanson, Carolina's director of on-campus recruiting.

JARROD JAMES

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH OFFENSE

UNC alum Jarrod James joined the Carolina coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant in 2016.

James was a member of the UNC football team from 2011-13 and played in games at center during his redshirt freshman and sophomore seasons. He was granted a medical exemption for his final two seasons due to a neck injury. In 2014 and 2015, he served as an undergraduate student assistant coach working with offensive line coach Chris Kapilovic. James spent part of the 2016 season as a scouting intern for the Minnesota Vikings.

As a redshirt freshman in 2012, James was part of a UNC team that went 8-4 overall under first-year head coach Larry Fedora and tied for the Coastal Division with a 5-3 record. In 2015, the Tar Heels won the Coastal Division and competed in their first-ever ACC Championship Game.

Off the field, James was involved in several community service initiatives, including Single Fathers Due to Cancer, Read for Children, UNC Children's Hospital Visits, UNC Burn Center Visit, YMCA Hopes Camp, and UNC SWAG promoting bystander awareness for student-athletes.

James graduated from North Carolina in 2015 with a double major in exercise and sport science and communications while also minoring in Spanish. He is currently pursuing his masters in sport administration.

ROD OJONG

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSE

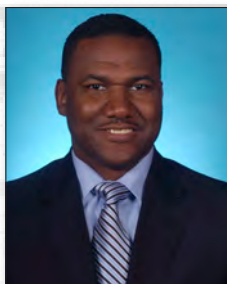

Rod Ojong joined the coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2016. He works primarily with the secondary.

Ojong, a 2012 graduate of Monmouth College, came to Chapel Hill after serving one season as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Memphis. He was part of a staff that guided the Tigers to a 9-4 mark and a berth in the Birmingham Bowl.

Ojong was a two-time all-conference linebacker at Monmouth, helping lead the Fighting Scots to back-to-back conference titles. He coached one season at Monmouth before coaching stops at Lindsey Wilson College (Ky.) and West Georgia.

Ojong is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y.

COREY HOLLIDAY
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
17th YEAR AT UNC

Corey Holliday joined the UNC staff in 2001 and serves as Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration, a position to which he was promoted in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Bubba Cunningham and head coach Larry Fedora.

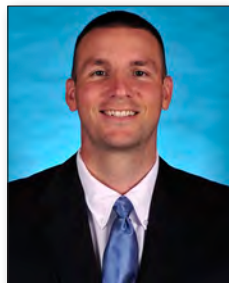

Holliday earned a B.S. in business administration from UNC in 1993 and returned to earn his master's in sport administration in 1997. He played football for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, finishing his career with the all-time record for receiving yards (2,447). He also ranked fourth in career receptions. Team co-captain as a junior and senior, he caught at least one pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93.

After UNC, Holliday went on to play four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, the UNC Ram's Club, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

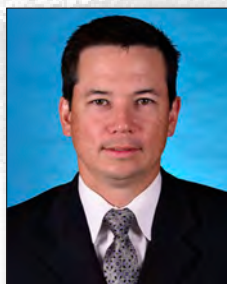

JOE HAYDON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
14th YEAR AT UNC

Joe Haydon joined the UNC staff in 2004 and serves as the football team's director of operations, a position he began in 2006. Haydon coordinates team travel, serves as the liaison with the compliance office, handles the onboarding of incoming football student-athletes and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006.

Haydon and his wife, Melissa, have a son, Bryce, and are expecting their second child in July.

KENNY BOYD
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Kenny Boyd was hired as North Carolina's head athletic trainer for football in 2014. Boyd joined the Tar Heels' sports medicine staff after 11 seasons as the head football athletic trainer at the University of Texas.

Boyd also has worked on the sports medicine staffs at Colorado, Mississippi State, and Northwestern. During his career, he has had the opportunity to work with football programs headed by Steve Spurrier (Florida), Jackie Sherrill (Mississippi State), Gary Barnett (Colorado and Northwestern) and Mack Brown (Texas).

While at Colorado, he worked primarily with the men's basketball and football teams, as well as with CU's golf and tennis programs.

Boyd earned his master's in sports administration degree from Mississippi State in 2000. During his tenure with the Bulldogs, he served as a graduate assistant athletics trainer. His duties at Mississippi State included working with the football team as well as coordinating rehabilitations with the team's physical therapist.

An active member in the National Athletic Trainers Association, Boyd has served on the national and regional level, including the College and University Athletic Trainer's Committee and the Council on Revenue. He has regularly presented on topics pertaining to the health and safety of the collegiate student athlete as well as topics on promoting the value of athletic trainers.

Prior to his time at MSU, Boyd served as an intern at Northwestern assisting with coverage of football and women's tennis. He is a 1998 graduate of the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science, specializing in athletic training.

A native of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., Boyd was a four-year letterman in wrestling and worked three years as the student athletic trainer at J.M. Tate High School in Pensacola, Fla. Boyd and his wife, Ellen, have three children - Taylor, Macy and Owen.

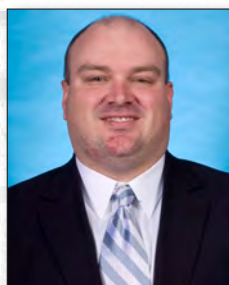

JASON FREEMAN
EQUIPMENT MANAGER
20TH YEAR AT UNC

Jason Freeman was promoted to head equipment manager for the UNC football program in 2016. He is responsible for directing, planning, organizing and implementing the football equipment room functions for football staff and student-athletes. He is also responsible for communicating needs and product feedback to Jordan brand and Nike representatives.

Freeman served as UNC's assistant football equipment manager from 1999-2015.

Freeman is a 1998 graduate of UNC with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science. As an undergraduate, he worked as a student manager in the equipment room beginning in 1995. After graduation, he served one season as an intern and was hired full-time in 1999.

Freeman is a native of Weaverville, N.C., and is married to the former Stacy Meiggs, a 2004 graduate of UNC.

CHRISTOPHER LUKE
DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & TECHNOLOGY
10TH YEAR AT UNC

Christopher Luke joined the UNC football program in July of 2008 and serves as Carolina's Director of Football Video and Technology. Luke manages all aspects of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Luke and his staff also produce the acclaimed Blue Dawn and Fedora's Freak Show videos, weekly team motivational videos, and many other recruiting videos for various social media platforms. UNC was also one of the first teams in the fall of 2011 to watch "all 22" game video on iPads under his tutelage. In a vote by his peers, Luke was named the 2011-12, and 2014-15 ACC Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). He received the 2011-12 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year Award in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at Missouri as the assistant director of video and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication/instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois as the student video coordinator in 1994, and graduated with bachelor of arts in speech communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is the President of the CSVA, after serving six years as its Vice President. CSVA promotes the role of the video professional in the sports industry.

Luke is a native of Hoopston, Ill., home of the Cornjerkers. He and his wife Sabra have two sons, Travis and Truman.

ANNIE HANSON
DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Annie Hanson joined the North Carolina football program as the Director of On-Campus Recruiting in 2015.

In that role, Hanson develops and monitors strategic planning for recruiting operations, built on the foundation of Carolina Football's defined core values, commitment to excellence and recruiting and operational goals. She plans, oversees and executes all on-campus recruiting efforts, with primary focus on official visits, unofficial visits, game day recruiting programming, junior days and special events.

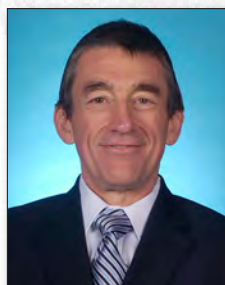

Hanson also serves as liaison for high school coaches, prospects and families by building meaningful relationships and exemplifying the Carolina Athletics mission of educating and inspiring through athletics. In addition, she oversees all forms of recruiting correspondence, including social media communication, recruit mailers, email and questionnaires, while organizing and logging recruit ticket lists for all recruiting events, film evaluations, weekly high school results, and recruiting correspondence.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels, Hanson worked three years for the University of Oklahoma Athletic Department. She was hired as the Assistant Director of Development after two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Sooners Club, and also assisted with OU's football operations. Additionally, Hanson has worked for programs at Kansas State and Nebraska and with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

A former student-athlete of Oklahoma, Hanson earned first-team All-Big 12 and Academic All-Big 12 honors as a captain of the OU track and field program and is a program record holder in the steeplechase. A native of Clay Center, Kan., Hanson graduated from OU in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and earned a master's degree in intercollegiate athletics administration in 2014.

She is married to Zach Hanson, Carolina's special teams and tight ends graduate assistant.

DOMINIC MORELLI
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL BUSINESS OPERATIONS
37th YEAR AT UNC

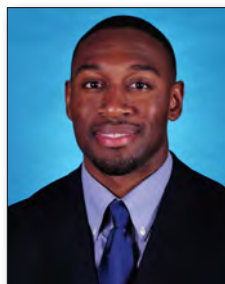

Dominic Morelli enters his 37th season with the Carolina football program as the team's director of business operations.

Morelli began as Carolina's equipment manager in 1980 under then head coach Dick Crum. He worked for seven Carolina head coaches in his tenure as equipment manager, including Crum, Mack Brown, Carl Torbush, John Bunting, Butch Davis, Everett Withers and Larry Fedora. Morelli earned Carolina's Ernie Williamson Award in 2003 as the athletic department's top employee.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Morelli earned his degree from Guilford College in 1980.

Morelli and his wife, Nana, have a son Troy Joseph. The Morellis' daughter, Kaitlin, passed away in October 2014 at the age of 27 after a courageous fight against a rare form of cancer. She was a volunteer on game days for more than 15 years and is greatly missed by the entire Tar Heel football family.

OCHUKO JENIJE
DIRECTOR OF
STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Ochuko Jenije (oh-CHOO-coe JEN-uh-jay) joined the football program as the team's director of student-athlete development in 2015. He previously worked as an assistant director in UNC's student-athlete development office at the Loudermilk Center.

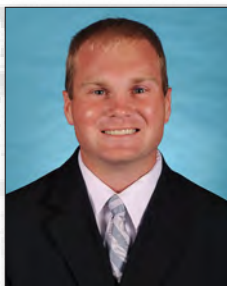

Jenije's primary charge is the personal and professional growth of each student-athlete to facilitate success both on and off the field and prepare them for life beyond their collegiate football experience. He also assists in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing and community service projects.

In his first year at UNC in 2014, Jenije assisted in administering the five services areas of Student-Athlete Development and was the primary contact for Carolina Outreach and UNC's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Prior to coming to UNC, Jenije served as Coordinator of Student Services at Florida State, his alma mater. Among his responsibilities, he managed the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole All-Sport Banquet; coordinated and developed the community service and activities for Florida State National Student-Athlete Day; facilitated and mentored student-athletes through R.E.A.L. (Leadership Program); designed PHAT (Peers Helping Athletes Transition), a 5-week program for all first year student-athletes; oversaw the Student-Athlete Exit Interviews; organized Summer and Winter Bridge programming for all student-athletes; and assisted with Student-Athlete Advisory Council meetings.

He also has worked at the University of Tulsa as Marketing and Promotions Assistant and has interned in the sports information office at FSU and in the marketing office at Oral Roberts University.

Jenije graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a B.S. in sport management and earned his master's degree in higher education with an emphasis in general administration in 2011, also from FSU. He played football for the Seminoles from 2006-10, serving as team captain as a senior and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll recognition all four years.

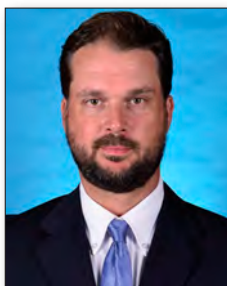

RORY POMMERENING
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
11TH YEAR AT UNC

Rory Pommerening, who has worked in the UNC football office since he was an undergraduate student, was named the team's director of player personnel in 2013. In that role, Pommerening helps coordinate Carolina's recruiting efforts. He helps arrange and manage recruiting visits and promotes and markets the high school coaches clinic and summer camps.

Pommerening, a native of Jensen Beach, Fla., earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from UNC in 2008. He worked as a student assistant in the Tar Heel football office in 2007 and 2008.

After graduating, he served as an operations assistant for the football program from 2009-11. He was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 2012.

JASON TUDRYN
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Jason Tudryn was named UNC's Director of High School Relations in 2014.

In that role, he is responsible for implementing strategic recruiting plans for prospective student-athletes for UNC's football coaches and maintaining effective relationships with high school coaches. A former high school football coach, Tudryn helps manage the UNC recruiting database, develops lists of summer camps and assists with organizing official campus visits.

Tudryn joined the UNC program after serving seven years as the head football coach at Carrboro High School, a program he started in 2007. Carrboro reached the state playoffs in four consecutive seasons from 2009-12 and advanced to the 2AA state championship game in 2012 before falling to South Iredell. Tudryn was awarded the NCHSAA's 2012 Homer Thompson Memorial Award, which is given annually to "Eight Who Make A Difference" in high school athletics.

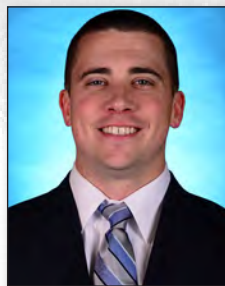

Prior to his stint at Carrboro, Tudryn coached in Florida and Massachusetts. He was the defensive coordinator at Naples Gulf Coast High School in Naples, Fla., where he worked for his father, from 2002-06. He was the head coach at Miami Coral Park High School for two seasons in 2000 and 2001 and was an assistant at Immokalee High School in 1999.

A native of Northampton, Mass., Tudryn was an assistant coach at American International College (Division II) in Springfield from 1997-98 and was an assistant coach at Curry College (Division III) in Milton, Mass., in 1996.

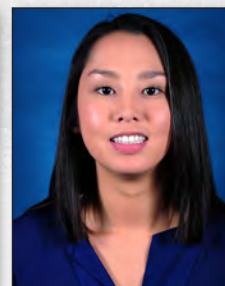

Tudryn was a four-year letterwinner at safety at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst where he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1996. He received a master's in special education from AIC in 1999.

Tudryn and his wife Barbie have two girls, Taliana and Ana, and a son, Phoenix. His father, Frank, coached high school football for more than 30 years and is a member of the Massachusetts High School Hall of Fame.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Since Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham officially began his duties as Carolina's director of athletics on November 14, 2011, UNC has graduated more than 750 student-athletes while consistently competing for championships in an array of different sports – exciting, motivating and influencing along the way. Among the department's accomplishments:

- The Tar Heels have won nine national titles and made an additional 10 runner-up finishes.
- More than 300 student-athletes have made the ACC Academic Honor roll -- which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the year -- each of the past five years.
- Carolina's APR has steadily risen, and 16 teams scored a perfect 1000 in 2015-16.
- The Tar Heels have finished in the top eight of the Learfield Directors' Cup five times.
- And students-athletes have logged more than 25,000 hours of community service, helping at hospitals and local schools, and partnering with a variety of local and national groups.

Cunningham has led by supporting, challenging and innovating. Shortly after beginning his tenure as Carolina's athletics director, he led a strategic planning process that defined a new mission statement: "We educate and inspire through athletics."

And that's just what UNC has done during his six years in Chapel Hill.

Among Carolina's many achievements during his tenure are a partnership with Disney to enhance customer service and organizational practices; the development of the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group; a compliance review by an outside firm; a student-athlete degree completion program called Complete Carolina; a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; and the creation of The Rammys -- an innovative end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff.

In the summer of 2017, the department was honing the final edits on an updated strategic plan and vision for Carolina Athletics for the next five years. And a transformative array of athletics facilities projects -- including a new football practice facility, lacrosse/soccer stadium, field hockey stadium and track and field complex -- are also underway and will be completed by the fall of 2018.

Cunningham has been busy outside of Chapel Hill, as well. He is the president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA); sits on the board of LEAD1, an association representing the ADs from the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools; is in his seventh year on the ACC Television Committee; and has served on many NCAA committees over the last two decades.

AD Bubba Cunningham (right) with Michael Jordan and head coach Larry Fedora at the Jordan Brand announcement in March, 2017.

He has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the on-going conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level.

Cunningham is in his 16th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa, where he guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative. Tulsa won 34 league championships during his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA, and the football program played in five bowl games in his final six years. He was honored as the 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year, an award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

He also served as Ball State University's AD from 2002-2005. There, he led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

Cunningham, who earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Notre Dame in 1984 and 1988, respectively, worked in his alma mater's athletics department from 1988-2002. The former member of the Irish golf team (1982-83) served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

Cunningham also has served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and LEAD1 conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four grown children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

Cunningham celebrated with the students by doing pushups after a Carolina touchdown in 2015.

WHEN CAROL L. FOLT became Carolina's 11th chancellor, and 29th leader in a lineage that dates back to Carolina's founding, she said: "As America's first public university, Carolina became the gold standard. The founders passed the baton and the future is up to us. How can we fulfill this honorable charge in a way that is ever fresh and relevant?"

An internationally recognized life scientist, award-winning teacher and accomplished academic leader, Folt has worked to fulfill that honorable charge by placing Carolina's students at the center, advancing the university's academic excellence, championing Carolina as a leading global public research university and focusing on innovation through the development of new avenues for entrepreneurship that are translating world-class ideas into real-world applications.

Carolina, which routinely ranks among the nation's top public universities and is noted as one of the best values in college education, is also one of the nation's top ten research universities and ranks 8th in the nation for federal research funding. In the last couple of years, the university has reached nearly $1 billion in annual research expenditures.

Under the chancellor's leadership, Carolina has continued to improve on the school's winning track record of undergraduate diversity, retention and graduation rates – particularly for low-income, first-generation and underrepresented students. With a historic commitment to ensuring affordability together with accessibility and excellence, Carolina is one of the few public universities that remains both need-blind and covers the full financial need of its students. Carolina is the least expensive of 14 peer public universities. The university's debt-per-student has remained nearly flat in inflation-adjusted dollars for more than a decade.

As leader of North Carolina's flagship public university, Folt and her leadership team champion attracting, developing and retaining world-class faculty that are focused on excellence in teaching and research. Carolina's faculty lead by doing, and each day they share their knowledge and excitement with the next generation who will face a rapidly evolving future as they embark upon impactful careers. Carolina is committed to benefiting its local and state communities and to cultivating the global outlook of its students. More than a third of Carolina undergraduate students study abroad – one of highest rates among public universities.

Folt believes a key mission of the chancellor is to broadly share stories about student and faculty excellence, demonstrating Carolina's value to the state and commitment to the future. An enthusiastic presence in classrooms and at campus events and athletic competitions, Folt brings students and faculty to every meeting of Carolina's Board of Trustees to discuss ground-breaking research and academic accomplishments. She also initiated significant investments in the communications team to share stories with new audiences across the state, nation and world.

A widely respected scientist, Folt came to Carolina from Dartmouth College where she was interim president in 2012–2013, served as a faculty member in the Department of Biological Sciences and was an academic leader. Folt and her students' pioneering work on the effects of dietary mercury and arsenic on human and ecosystem health led to numerous changes in national and global policy and consumption advisories around the world.

Folt graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara, earning both a bachelor's degree in aquatic biology and a master's degree in biology. She received her doctorate from the University of California, Davis, and undertook a postdoctoral fellowship at Michigan State University before joining the faculty at Dartmouth College.

When asked about the future, Folt said that while so much has been accomplished at the nation's first public university, the best is yet to come. "I know this because I witness it on campus every day," Folt said. "The future is studying in our classrooms, working in our labs and serving our communities right now. I couldn't be more proud and optimistic."

CAROLINA

FOOTBALL

KENAN STADIUM PROFILE

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact.

In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation funded the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project added 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also tied the north and south concourses together and provides the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out ... The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."

— Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927

Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago — quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multimedia history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box were the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf included an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the north side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in 2013 when UNC beat Old Dominion 80-20.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997, 60,000 in 1998 and 63,000 in 2011.

In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board

THE KENAN FAMILY

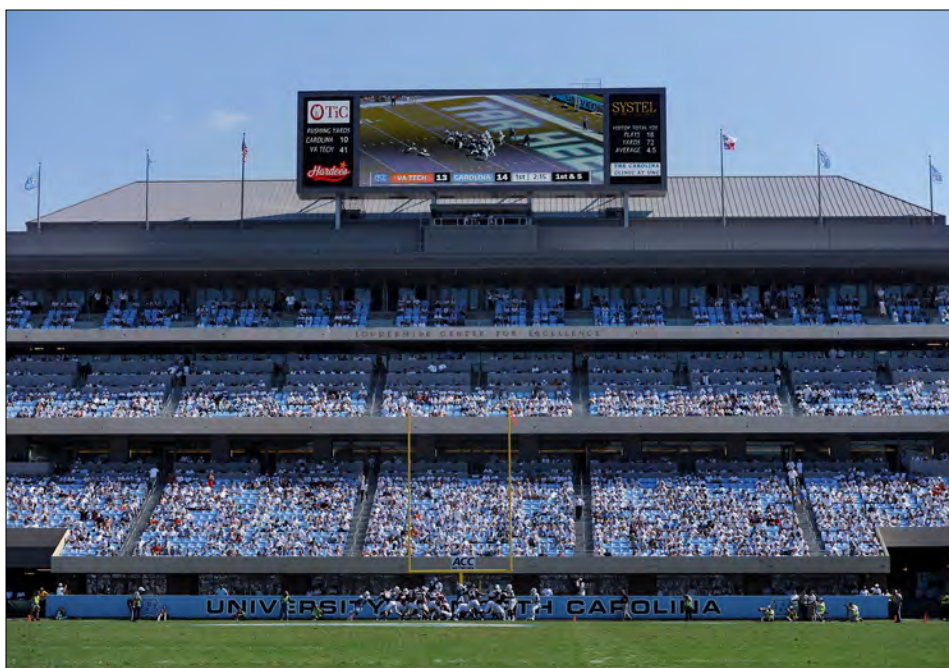

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

KENAN STADIUM POLICIES & STADIUM INFORMATION

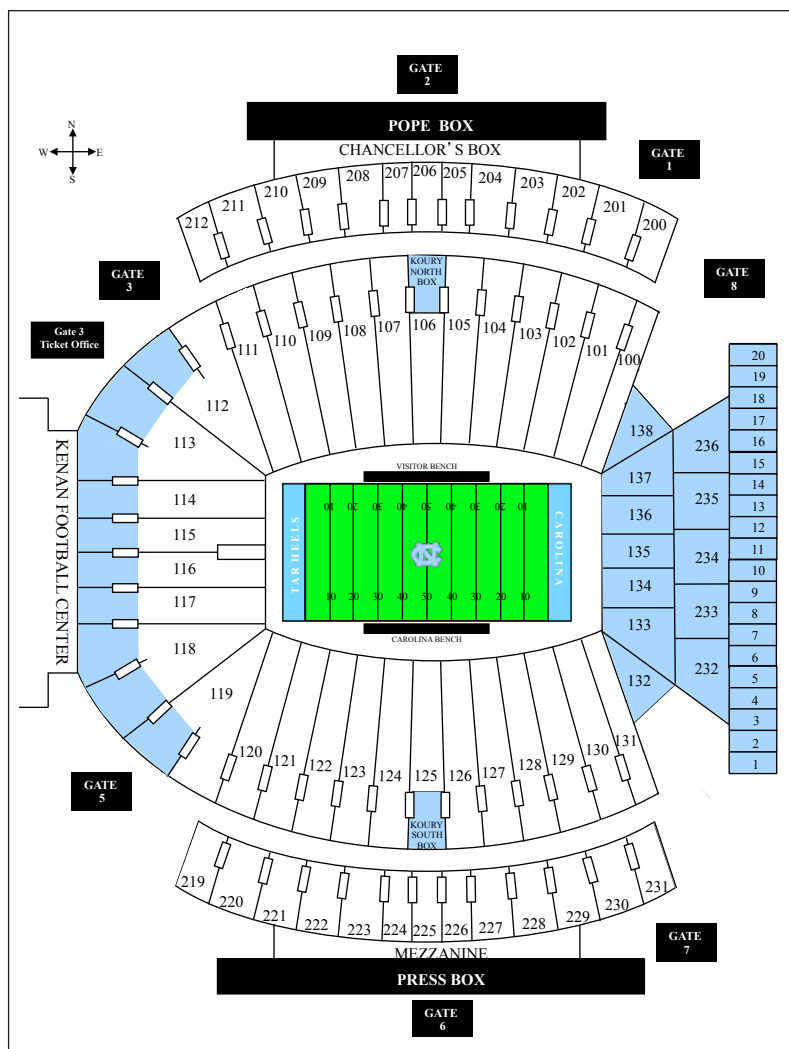

- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at Kenan Stadium. Individuals violating this policy will be issued the appropriate citation and escorted out of the stadium.
- ATM machines are located in Kenan Stadium behind Sections 114 and 117 on the west end concourse as well as near Gate 6 on the South Side and near Gate 2 on the North Side.
- Homemade banners and signs are not allowed inside Kenan Stadium without prior approval.
- In order to insure that everyone has a pleasant experience, it is up to each patron to act responsibly and to be considerate of those around them. Patrons should notify a member of the game management staff if someone is not complying with this policy.
- Event staff reserves the right to deem an act or behavior to be inappropriate based on available information and to take whatever action necessary.
- Seating for patrons with disabilities is available on game day by asking for the game supervisor as you enter Kenan Stadium.
- South Orange Rescue Squad provides first aid at Gates 2 (North Side) and Gate 6 (South Side) at Kenan Stadium.
- Patrons are not allowed to bring any food or beverages with them into Kenan Stadium. However, bottled water (sealed and unopened) is permitted.
- During an event you may check with game management staff at Gate 2 or 6 to see if an item of yours was found and turned in. After an event, all unclaimed items are turned over to Campus Police, and you may contact them at 919-962-8100.
- Parents/guardians with a lost child should contact the nearest police officer or event staff member. That person will then contact the proper personnel to insure the quickest resolution to the situation.
- On September 21, 2009 the Department of Homeland Security/Office of Intelligence and Analysis and the FBI released a joint Homeland Security Note to raise security awareness regarding terrorist interest in targeting sport and entertainment venues. The admission policy at Kenan Stadium prohibits "backpacks or large bags", and has since 2001.

Backpack: A container designed to hold a bulky/heavy load and be worn on the back. Typically characterized by wide shoulder straps, multiple zippers & pockets, and most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Simple draw string bags with thin shoulder straps, and purses designed to be worn on the back do not meet the criteria of a backpack.)

Large bag: A large container such as a duffel or gym type bag designed to carry a bulky/heavy load. Considered to be in the luggage family of containers and not the purse family. Most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Shopping bags or large purses do not meet the criteria of a large bag.)

- Effective January 1, 2008, there is NO SMOKING within 100 feet of any campus building. This includes all areas of Kenan Stadium.

UNC Athletics and the Department of Public Safety thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

SEASON IN REVIEW

North Carolina finished the 2016 season with an 8-5 overall record and tied for second in the ACC's Coastal division with a 5-3 mark. The Tar Heels lost the season opener to Georgia in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game, but rebounded to win seven of its next eight and moved up as high as No. 17 in the country. However, losses down the stretch to NC State, Duke and Stanford in the Sun Bowl, left the Tar Heels feeling a bit unsatisfied.

Carolina had another potent offensive team, led by quarterback Mitch Trubisky, senior wide receivers Ryan Switzer, Bug Howard and Mack Hollins, and two standout running backs Elijah Hood and T.J. Logan. The Tar Heels set more than 40 individual or team records, including most passing yards in a season. Trubisky set single-season records for total offense, passing yards and touchdowns. Switzer became Carolina's all-time leading receiver and set the single-season reception record.

The season was highlighted by back-to-back comeback wins over Pittsburgh and Florida State. Trubisky hit Howard with the game-winning touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone to cap a wild 37-36 win over the Panthers. The following week, Nick Weiler booted a 52-yard field goal as time expired to knock off the Noles in Tallahassee.

TRUBISKY IN THE RANKINGS

Carolina junior quarterback Mitch Trubisky had one of the greatest individual passing seasons in UNC history. He finished the year fifth in the nation in completion percentage (68.0), seventh in total completions (304), 10th in total yards (3,748), 11th in pass efficiency rating (157.9), 15th in passing yards per game (288.3) and 16th in TD passes (30). He was fifth in the ACC and 16th in the country with 312.0 total yards of offense per game. Trubisky was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Gold Arm Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.

NOTES ON THE 2016 SEASON

The 700 Club: Carolina, now in its 126th season of college football, won its 700th all-time game with a 35-14 victory at Virginia. UNC's all-time record is 702-521-54.

Scoring 28: Carolina was 7-0 this season when scoring 28-or-more points.

Wins In Florida: Carolina became just the second team in college football history to knock off Miami and Florida State on the road in the same season. The Tar Heels beat FSU, 37-35, in Tallahassee and won at Miami, 20-13. Virginia in 2011 is the only other school to beat both teams in the same season on the road.

Ranked Wins: Carolina's wins at No. 12 Florida State and at No. 16 Miami marked the first time the Tar Heels had won two games on the road over ranked teams in the same season.

Wins At Virginia: After enduring a losing streak at Virginia from 1983-2008, which included some of the most gut-wrenching losses in school history, the Tar Heels have now won four in a row in Charlottesville. Head coach Larry Fedora has guided the team to three of those wins, including this season's 35-14 victory.

Fresh Faces: Carolina played 17 freshmen in 2016, including 10 true freshmen and seven redshirt freshmen. True freshmen to see action were tailback Jordon Brown, safety Myles Dorn, defensive tackle Marlon Dunlap, safety D.J. Ford, defensive end Tomon Fox, cornerback Patrice Rene, linebacker Dominique Ross, cornerback K.J. Sails, punter Tom Sheldon and linebacker Jonathan Smith. The redshirt freshmen were tight end Jake Bargas, offensive tackle Charlie Heck, offensive guard Tommy Hatton, wide receiver Anthony Ratliff-Williams, tight end Carl Tucker, defensive end Jason Strowbridge and OT William Sweet.

New Starters: Carolina had 16 different players make their first career starts in 2016, including quarterback Mitch Trubisky.

2K Rushers: Elijah Hood (2,580) and T.J. Logan (2,165) finished their careers with more than 2,000 career rushing yards. It was the first time in school history Carolina had two players with 2,000 rushing yards on the team at the same time.

Third-Down Percentage: Carolina finished second in the ACC and 21st nationally in third down conversion percentage (45.5). Carolina converted 56.2 percent of its third downs in a three-game win streak over Miami, Virginia and Georgia Tech. In UNC's eight wins, the Tar Heels converted 53 of 101 third-down chances (52.5 pct.).

Trubisky Streak: Trubisky's school-record streak of consecutive pass attempts without an interception ended at 243 against Virginia Tech. His fourth pass of the game, which was intended for Mack Hollins, was tipped and then intercepted by Virginia Tech cornerback Greg Stroman. The previous record of 154 was set by Oscar Davenport in 1996-97.

Trubisky In Wins: In UNC's eight wins, Trubisky completed 74.6 percent of his pass attempts and threw for 2,677 yards with 22 touchdowns and no interceptions. In the five losses, he had eight touchdowns and six interceptions.

Trubisky's Top Three: In his first five games as a starter, Trubisky had three of the top 11 single-game passing performances in UNC history (453 vs. Pitt - ranks second all-time at UNC; 432 vs. JMU - ranks fourth; 405 vs. FSU - ranks 11th).

100 Point Scorers: Carolina had six players who scored 100 or more career points on the roster in 2015. They were PK Nick Weiler (273 points), TB Elijah Hood (174), TB T.J. Logan (162), WR Ryan Switzer (156) and WR Mack Hollins (120) and WR Bug Howard (108).

Offensive Line Experience: One of the most experienced offensive lines in the country when the season began, Carolina suffered a series of setbacks and injuries on the O-line throughout the year. Senior John Ferranto was lost in offseason workouts with a torn pec and senior Caleb Peterson played the first five games of the year before a back injury ended his season. Still, the Tar Heels had three starters – senior OT Jon Heck (50 career starts), senior center Lucas Crowley (40) and junior left tackle Bentley Spain (23) with significant experience. Junior R.J. Prince started 12 games this year at right guard and redshirt freshman Tommy Hatton made eight starts.

Rushing High: Carolina rushed for a season-high 283 yards in the win over Georgia Tech. The previous high was 197 at Illinois.

Hood's Breakout: Elijah Hood rushed for a season-high 168 yards and scored three touchdowns in the win over Georgia Tech. He averaged 14.0 yards per carry. North Carolina was 9-0 when Hood scores multiple touchdowns. It was the 11th time in his career he rushed for 100 yards and the second time in his career he rushed for three touchdowns.

Highest Rushing Average in 20 years: In the first five seasons under Larry Fedora, Carolina averaged 172.8 rushing yards per game. That is the highest four-year average since the 1992-95 seasons when Mack Brown's Tar Heels posted a 214.4 average.

Record-Holding WR: Ryan Switzer became Carolina's all-time leading receiver with 244 career catches. The previous mark of 205 was held by Quinshad Davis, who graduated in 2015. Switzer led the nation with 87 receptions against Power 5 opponents.

ACC Record 30 Receptions: Switzer made an ACC record 30 combined receptions in consecutive wins over Pitt and Florida State. He tied the ACC single-game record with 16 catches vs. Pitt and then had 14 vs. FSU.

Closing in On UNC Record: Switzer ranked ninth in the country with 96 receptions. He was third in the ACC and ninth in the country with 7.4 receptions per game. He was third in the league with 85.5 receiving yards per game.

Bug Catches: Bug Howard posted three-straight games of 100-or-more yards receiving in wins over Miami, Virginia and Georgia Tech.

Proehl's Breakout Season: Junior WR Austin Proehl, son of Carolina Panthers' wide receivers coach Ricky Proehl, entered the season with 27 career catches. He finished his junior season with 43 receptions for 597 yards and three touchdowns.

Second-Half Defense: Over the last half of the 2016 season, Carolina's defense held its opponents to an average of just over 7.0 points in the second half – at Miami 10 points; at Virginia 7 points; vs. Georgia Tech 3 points; at Duke 7 points; vs. The Citadel 7 points; vs. NC State 7 points; vs. Stanford 10 points. Carolina allowed an average of 16.5 points in the second half of the first six games.

Pass Defense Leads The League: Carolina led the ACC and was 16th in the country in passing yards allowed in 2016. UNC allowed the fewest touchdown passes (11) in the ACC, which ranked fourth in the country. The Tar Heels allowed the fewest touchdown receptions by wide receivers in the country (3).

Picking Off A Pass: Dominique Green had a 58-yard interception for a touchdown in the second quarter of Carolina's win over The Citadel. Carolina entered the game as the only school in any division of the NCAA (644 teams) without an interception. The Tar Heels were the only team in the country to return all of its interceptions for touchdowns.

Stewart Steps Up, Breaks Up: Cornerback M.J. Stewart was named honorable mention All-ACC. He has combined for 24 pass breakups over the last two seasons (11 in 2016, 14 in 2015). Overall, Stewart has 29 career pass breakups, which ranks third all-time at UNC. In 2016, Stewart ranked sixth on the team with 66 tackles, a team-high 11 pass breakups, a team-best three fumble recoveries and two fumbles forced.

Miles & Miles Of Tackles: Safety Donnie Miles has posted 100 or more tackles in back-to-back seasons. He had a team-high 128 in 2015 and followed that up with 102 in 2016.

Defensive Line Starters: Eight different players made at least one start on the defensive line in 2016, including DE Mikey Bart, who was the only player to start every game.

Sophomore Standout: Sophomore middle linebacker Andre Smith had double-digits in tackles five times in 2016. He had a career-high 15 vs. Virginia Tech, 14 vs. Illinois, 14 vs. NC State, 12 vs. Georgia Tech and 11 vs. Pitt. Smith ranked seventh in the ACC with 8.7 tackles per game.

Holcomb Leads Team: Junior linebacker Cole Holcomb, a former walk-on who earned a scholarship at the end of fall camp, entered the 2016 season with 15 career tackles. In 2016, he led the team with 115 tackles and ranked fifth in the ACC at 8.8 per game. He posted a career-high 13 tackles in the road win over No. 12 FSU.

Jones Builds Resume: Junior defensive tackle Nazair Jones was named the Sun Bowl Lineman of the Game after posting eight tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. He had 70 tackles in 2016, including a team-best 9.5 tackles for loss. He also had three pass breakups, a fumble recovery and a fumble forced. Jones twice earned third-team All-ACC honors.

Punt Return Defense: North Carolina led the nation in punt return defense. Only nine of Tom Sheldon's 50 punts were returned for a combined total of 2 yards. The longest return Carolina allowed was three yards at Illinois when the punt hit the returner in the leg and bounced forward and out of bounds three yards and another three yard return vs. NC State.

Second In The Nation: North Carolina was second in the country with a 26.9 kickoff return average. Senior T.J. Logan finished second in the nation with a 32.9-yard return average. Logan's 100-yard touchdown return vs. The Citadel was the longest by a Carolina player at Kenan Stadium and the third 100-yard kickoff return in stadium history. Logan set the UNC record with his fourth career kickoff return touchdown. He had two in 2013 and has two this season. In the season opener vs. Georgia, he had a 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

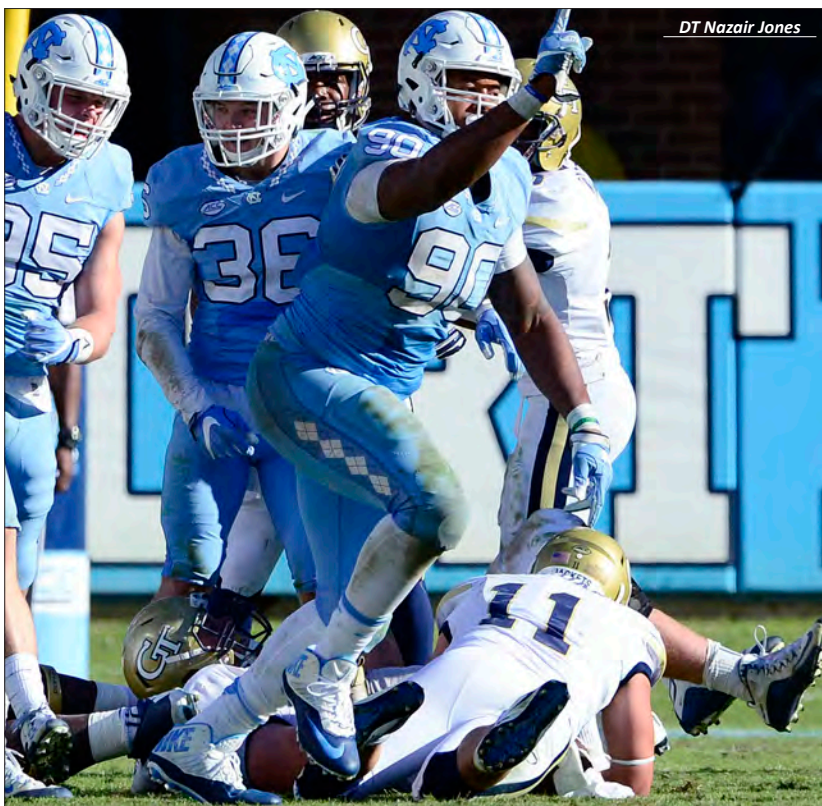

Career Punt Return Leader: Switzer finished with seven career punt return touchdowns, which is an ACC career record and is just one shy of the NCAA all-time record.

UNC Punt Return Yards Record: Switzer also holds the UNC career record for punt return yards with 1,082. The previous mark was set by Charlie Justice with 966 yards from 1946-49. Switzer is one of just nine players in ACC history with more than 1,000 yards on punt returns.

Weiler Game-Winner: Nick Weiler's 54-yard field goal vs. No. 12 Florida State was longest go-ahead field goal in the fourth quarter vs. a ranked team in last 10 seasons. (Courtesy of ESPN.com)

Georgia 33, Carolina 24
Sept. 3 • Georgia Dome
Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA (AP) — Nick Chubb rushed for 222 yards in his return from a gruesome knee injury, including a 55-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter that clinched No. 18 Georgia's 33-24 victory over No. 22 North Carolina in Kirby Smart's debut as the Bulldogs' coach.

Chubb scored a pair of touchdowns for Georgia (1-0), sending the largely red-clad crowd at the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game into delirium when he broke loose down the right sideline with 3:34 remaining and the Bulldogs clinging to a two-point lead over the Tar Heels (0-1).

Leaving no doubt he was fully recovered from a horrific knee injury that looked like it might be career-threatening, Chubb carried a staggering 32 times and was every bit as dominating as the Heisman-touted back he was before.

Georgia also got some promising play from freshman quarterback Jacob Eason, who didn't start but was on the field as the Bulldogs rallied from a 24-14 deficit in the second half.

North Carolina ripped off 17 straight points, including a pair of touchdowns by T.J. Logan that included a 95-yard kickoff return to start the second half.

But a pair of pass interference penalties on freshman cornerback Patrice Rene set up a touchdown that got Georgia back in the game, and two more penalties - one an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on coach Larry Fedora - backed the Tar Heels up deep in their own territory, leading to a safety when Elijah Hood caught a short pass in the end zone and was quickly knocked down for a safety.

Fifth-year senior Greyson Lambert started at quarterback for Georgia, but Eason - a touted freshman Georgia fans were clamoring to see - hooked up with Isaiah McKenzie on a 51-yard pass that set up William Ham's go-ahead, 29-yard field goal with 5:27 remaining.

Carolina 48, Illinois 23
Sept. 10 • Memorial Stadium
Champaign, Ill.

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. (AP) --- Nursing an eight-point lead with just over 12 minutes left Saturday, North Carolina quarterback Mitch Trubisky heaved the ball deep toward Ryan Switzer but instead connected with the back of an Illinois defensive back.

No problem, as it turned out. The ball bounced high and came down in the hands of Tar Heel tight end Jake Bargas for a first down that set up a touchdown that gave North Carolina a 38-23 lead.

Sometimes, it's just your night, and Saturday was Trubisky's.

The junior quarterback threw for 265 yards and two touchdowns and ran for two more scores Saturday to lead the Tar Heels to a 48-23 win at Illinois.

"We took what the defense gave us," Trubisky said. "We were just rolling; whoever was open was making plays. Our o-line did a good job all night. We just kept attacking the areas they were giving us on the field."

Trubisky was coming off a workmanlike performance a week earlier against Georgia that wasn't enough to deliver a win.

On Saturday, he was 19-24 passing and didn't throw an interception. And he carried the ball nine times for 42 yards.

"He played well tonight, he took care of the football," North Carolina coach Larry Fedora said. "He ran the ball effectively and I thought he was into it, sharp, focused and tough and that's what I expect from him."

Illinois (1-1) went up 7-0 on the opening drive on a 65-yard Ke'Shawn Vaughn touchdown run while North Carolina's offense started slow.

Trubisky jump-started the attack, rushing for two short touchdowns by the end of the first quarter and giving UNC a 17-14 lead it never gave up.

The Tar Heels held Illinois quarterback Wes Lunt to 127 yards and two touchdowns on 17-35 passing.

Illinois also struggled with penalties. They were flagged 13 times for 99 yards.

First-year Illinois coach Lovie Smith called the game a learning experience for his team, but had no explanation for the penalties.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) --- North Carolina quarterback Mitch Trubisky looked relaxed and made running the Tar Heels' high-powered offense look easy.

The first-year starter threw for a career-high 432 yards and three touchdowns while setting two school records, helping UNC beat James Madison 56-28 in the team's home opener.

"He's getting better and better, and more comfortable and more comfortable," UNC coach Larry Fedora said. "Now as you see him get more comfortable, you're seeing Mitch Trubisky come out now. You're seeing the guy that can do all the things that we think he can do."

Trubisky completed 24 of 27 passes for the Tar Heels (2-1), including a program single-game record of 18 straight before calling it a day in the fourth. He has thrown 156 passes without an interception, breaking a record that had stood since 1997.

The Tar Heels scored touchdowns on eight of the junior's nine drives, the exception being a one-snap possession before halftime. Each of those drives was at least 72 yards, with Trubisky connecting on a 75-yard flea flicker score to Ryan Switzer and a 71-yarder to Mack Hollins.

"I think it's just becoming more comfortable week to week," Trubisky said. "It's all about being better than the player I was last Saturday."

Meanwhile, Elijah Hood and T.J. Logan combined to rush for five scores for the Tar Heels (2-1), who finished with 635 yards and didn't punt until midway through the fourth quarter.

Khalid Abdullah ran for 116 yards and two touchdowns for the Dukes (2-1), who scored touchdowns on all three first-quarter drives. But they couldn't keep up with the Tar Heels' humming offense and didn't reach the end zone again until the third quarter after UNC led by 21.

"They've got some great athletes, but we made some mistakes there early that gave them some real cheap ones, some easy scores where they didn't have to work very much," JMU coach Mike Houston said. "That's our fault."

Carolina 37, Pittsburgh 36
Sept. 24 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Mitch Trubisky capped a huge day by throwing a 2-yard touchdown pass to Bug Howard with 2 seconds left to help North Carolina rally past Pittsburgh 37-36.

Trubisky threw for career highs of 453 yards and five touchdowns for the Tar Heels (3-1, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who never led until the final play and trailed by 13 midway through the fourth quarter.

But Trubisky coolly directed a 17-play, 63-yard drive that included three fourth-down conversions in a stunning finish that had UNC's players running onto the field to celebrate when stopping Pitt's last-play kick return.

"We had talked about before the game that we had an opportunity to establish the identity of this football team," UNC coach Larry Fedora said. "And I can say there's a lot of grit in this football team for one, a lot of toughness — all the intangibles that we need to be successful."

Ryan Switzer was the main target, tying a program record with 16 catches for 208 yards and a score in a matchup of the teams that finished 1-2 atop the ACC's Coastal Division last season.

Quadree Henderson ran for 107 yards to for the Panthers (2-2, 0-1), who ran for 281 yards but went three-and-out on their last two drives to give UNC its opening.

"When something like that (comeback) happens, you have to look at yourself first: Did I do everything I needed to do to get us a victory?" Pitt defensive end Ejuan Price said. "I think that answer is no."

Carolina 37, Florida State 35
Oct. 1 • Doak Campbell Stadium
Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA. (AP) — Nick Weiler made a 54-yard field goal as time expired to give North Carolina a 37-35 win over No. 12 Florida State, snapping the Seminoles' 22-game home winning streak.

It was the first field goal make by either team after their respective kickers missed their first four attempts. Weiler also atoned for a blocked extra point that allowed the Seminoles to take a late lead.

"I knew it was within his distance. That wasn't the issue," North Carolina coach Larry Fedora said. "He had something to prove. After the extra point got blocked I talked to him on the sideline and said he had to get it out of his head. He got his mind right and we gave him his shot."

After Florida State took a 35-34 lead with 22 seconds remaining on a Deondre Francois 2-yard touchdown run, the Tar Heels were able to drive 38 yards in three plays. They also took advantage of a pass interference call on Florida State's Tavarus McFadden to get them in range.

It is the second straight week that the Tar Heels (4-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) have won in the final seconds. Last Saturday, they defeated Pittsburgh 37-36 with two seconds remaining on a Mitch Trubisky touchdown pass.

Against Florida State, Trubisky had his third straight 400-yard game, completing 31 of 38 passes for 405 yards and three touchdowns. Ryan Switzer, who had 16 catches last week, had 14 receptions for 158 yards.

The Tar Heels took a 34-28 lead on a 34-yard touchdown reception by Thomas Jackson, but Florida State's Wally Aime blocked Weiler's point-after attempt. Florida State (3-2, 0-2) then drove 75 yards in nine plays, culminating in Francois' score. The freshman quarterback looked like he was going to be sacked at the North Carolina 8 but eluded tackles by Mikey Bart and Malik Carney to score.

Florida State had the nation's longest active home winning streak. It is the Seminoles first home loss since falling to Florida in 2011.

"We had some critical mistakes in games, didn't finish drives early in games. Had some penalties," Florida State coach Jimbo Fisher said. "We have to play better. We have to do better. In all three phases. There's a lot of good there. There's way too much bad."

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Jerod Evans threw for two scores and ran for another to help No. 25 Virginia Tech beat No. 17 North Carolina 34-3 in heavy rain and wind from Hurricane Matthew.

Sam Rogers and Chris Cunningham had scoring catches and the Hokies (4-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) dominated the reigning Coastal Division champion Tar Heels (4-2, 2-1) in a surprising romp.

"We're tired of hearing about everybody else," Evans said. "We're tired of hearing about UNC, Miami, Clemson, Louisville, etc. Those are great teams, don't get me wrong. ... But at the same time, we feel like we should be mentioned in those categories with those guys. So every week we have a statement we want to make."

The Hokies had their share of weather-related troubles, including seven fumbles, multiple bobbled snaps and a season-low 264 yards.

But Bud Foster's defense locked down on the Tar Heels and Mitch Trubisky, who entered as one of the nation's top passers. UNC finished with 131 yards, with Trubisky throwing his first two interceptions of the year, while the Hokies scored 20 points off four turnovers.

UNC, playing without injured top tailback Elijah Hood, failed to score a touchdown for the first time under fifth-year coach Larry Fedora.

Carolina 20, Miami 13
Oct. 15 • Hard Rock Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, FLA. (AP) — Mitch Trubisky threw two touchdown passes, Malik Carney forced a turnover with 1:31 left to thwart Miami's last chance at a rally and North Carolina knocked off the 16th-ranked Hurricanes 20-13.

Ryan Switzer and Austin Proehl had scoring catches for the Tar Heels (5-2, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). Bug Howard had 10 catches for 156 yards for North Carolina, which rebounded in a big way from last weekend's blowout loss against Virginia Tech.

Trubisky completed 33 of 46 passes for 299 yards for North Carolina, which went 2-1 in a three-week stretch against ranked foes.

"It's a huge bounce-back game for us, coming down on the road against a very good opponent," said Trubisky, whose team was embarrassed by Virginia Tech 34-3 last weekend while Hurricane Matthew poured down.

Brad Kaaya completed 16 of 31 passes for 224 yards for Miami, but he was hit by a blitzing Carney and lost the ball late in the game to send fans streaming for the exits. North Carolina took over and ran out the clock, sealing the deal when Elijah Hood rumbled 13 yards for a first down with 1:02 left — the 14th conversion in 23 third-down opportunities for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina now sits atop the ACC's Coastal Division, a half-game ahead of Virginia Tech and Pittsburgh.

"I'm pretty pleased with where this team is right now, where we sit and the job that they've done," said North Carolina coach Larry Fedora, whose club won the Coastal last season.

Miami's 2001 team — the last to win a national title for the Hurricanes and arguably one of the best college teams ever assembled — was honored at halftime, with coach Larry Coker running out of the traditional smoke first and followed by players who trotted from one of the end zones.

It was 10-0 North Carolina after one quarter, and Switzer made it 20-3 when he hauled in a 1-yard pass with 18 seconds left before halftime. Miami's defense didn't allow a point in the second half, highlighted by stopping the Heels on the Hurricane 1 to open the fourth quarter.

Carolina 35, Virginia 14
Oct. 22 • Scott Stadium
Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) —The last time Mitch Trubisky threw a pass in Virginia's Scott Stadium, two years ago, it was his only play of the game and he hit T.J. Thorpe with less than a minute to play to give North Carolina a victory.

He needed no such dramatics this time, throwing three touchdown passes as the No. 22 Tar Heels rode his accurate arm and a strong performance by their defense to a 35-14 victory, their seventh in a row in the series and ninth consecutive in true road games.

Trubisky hit Bug Howard for 40 yards on a trick play, Thomas Jackson for 10 yards and Austin Proehl for 46 yards for touchdowns for the Tar Heels (6-2, 4-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), and the trick play had everyone smiling at how well it worked. On the play, North Carolina set up in a wildcat formation, handed the ball off to wide receiver Ryan Switzer and he pitched it to Trubisky, who just had to make the throw.

The Cavaliers (2-5, 1-2) got their first touchdown on a trick play, too. They lined up for a field goal, had the entire offensive line split out far to the left, and snapper Evan Butts threw the snap 30 yards to his left to Matt Johns, the holder now acting as the quarterback.

Johns quickly hit Butts for an 11-yard touchdown strike, but Virginia didn't score again until just 9:01 remained.

The Tar Heels led 14-7 at halftime and limited Virginia to 39 yards in the third quarter while opening a 28-7 lead.

"That's when we felt like we got control of the game," Tar Heels coach Larry Fedora said. "We hated giving up that 13-play drive (for Virginia's second touchdown), because at that point, we felt like if we could put the ball in the end zone again, then we could put it away."

Elijah Hood ran for 107 yards and a 4-yard touchdown, and T.J. Logan scored on a 4-yard run for UNC.

Virginia has lost two in a row, making the upbeat feeling of a two-game winning streak before that seem a distant memory.

Coach Bronco Mendenhall lifted quarterback Kurt Benkert in the fourth quarter, using backup Conner Brewer.

"I felt it was necessary with the pressure that was going on Benkert, starting from the second half of the Pitt game through this game, it was wise just to have his step back and have him see it from a different perspective and take a breath and regroup," Mendenhall said.

Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Now that Elijah Hood is feeling his best, it was only a matter of time before he played like it. Hood ran for 168 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 18 North Carolina beat Georgia Tech 48-20.

The Tar Heels (7-2, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference, No. 21 CFP) piled up 636 total yards. They had a season-high 283 on the ground and scored the game's final 21 points.

Hood got some rest and recovery during North Carolina's open date, shaking off the effects of some nagging injuries that hampered his effectiveness the first half of the season.

"I'm just happy to be back and be able to move the way that I like to and not be worried about it," he said. "I'm having a lot more fun with it."

Hood had plenty of room to run against the Yellow Jackets (5-4, 2-4), breaking into the secondary untouched on several carries between the tackles.

He ran for 45 yards on his first carry of the game and put the Tar Heels ahead 17-7 with a 36-yard touchdown sprint on fourth-and-1.

"He ran wild," North Carolina quarterback Mitch Trubisky said. "That's kind of what we expect out of him."

Trubisky passed for 329 yards and a touchdown as the Tar Heels beat Georgia Tech for the third consecutive year — the first time that's happened since 1992-94.

Justin Thomas passed for 184 yards and a touchdown for the Yellow Jackets. He also rushed for 82 yards before suffering an upper-body injury near the end of a 21-yard run late in the third quarter.

Thomas received medical attention on the bench before heading to the locker room area prior to the start of the fourth quarter. He did not return to the game.

Duke 28, Carolina 27
Nov. 10 • Wallace Wade Stadium
Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) --- Duke waited until it was time to play No. 15 North Carolina to finally cut out all the mistakes that kept haunting the Blue Devils in close losses.

They ran the ball with a physical edge and tightened defensively, then ended their Senior Night by sprinting across the field as time expired to reclaim a lost rivalry trophy.

Daniel Jones ran for two scores and threw for another to help the Blue Devils upset the Tar Heels 28-27 to secure their first Atlantic Coast Conference win.

Duke (4-6, 1-5 ACC) was flirting with its first winless league record since 2007 after a tight loss at No. 5 Louisville and a pair of three-point losses to Georgia Tech and No. 18 Virginia Tech.

Jones, a redshirt freshman, ran for 94 yards as part of a ground game that kept moving the chains against the Tar Heels (7-3, 5-2, No. 17 CFP). Shaun Wilson ran for a game-high 107 yards and a score of his own, Duke finished with 227 yards rushing and converted 10 of 17 third-down chances.

Duke took more than 6 1/2 minutes off the clock with a long drive from its own 1 before punting back to UNC. The Blue Devils then came up with a final stop, with Alonzo Saxton II picking off Mitch Trubisky near midfield with 1:02 left on a night that ended with Duke players sprinting across the field to re-claim the Victory Bell presented to the winner of the long-running rivalry.

More surprisingly, Duke's defense gradually locked down the Tar Heels' high-scoring offense, which finished with just 31 yards in the final 15 minutes.

"Every time we would make a play, we would shoot ourselves in the foot on the next one or something would happen," Tar Heels coach Larry Fedora said. "There was no consistency whatsoever."

Carolina vs. The Citadel
Nov. 19 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- It was North Carolina's strangest blowout win in a long time.

Mitch Trubisky passed for 184 yards and three touchdowns to help the Tar Heels beat The Citadel 41-7.

T.J. Logan had a touchdown catch and a 100-yard kickoff return for a score for North Carolina (8-3), which forced a season-high four turnovers.

"We were worried about that football team," North Carolina coach Larry Fedora said. "We knew they were a really good football team, that they would control the clock and that our guys were going to have to steal a few possessions. Defensively, we did that."

North Carolina won even though its high-octane offense was quiet for much of the day. The Tar Heels converted just 1 of 8 third downs and were outgained by the Bulldogs 371-356.

Perhaps most surprisingly, the Tar Heels intercepted a pass.

Dominique Green ended North Carolina's interception drought when he picked off a pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. The Tar Heels had been the only FBS team not to intercept a pass this season.

Ryan Switzer added a 72-yard touchdown as North Carolina won for the 11th time in its last 12 home games.

The Citadel (10-1) rushed for 344 yards, possessed the ball for more than 42 minutes and ran 33 more plays than North Carolina.

Grant Drakeford had a 28-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter for the Bulldogs, whose school-record 10-game winning streak came to an end.

"We were nowhere near playing where we wanted today," Citadel coach Brent Thompson said. "We needed a day like today to remind us that if you don't play well and you turn the ball over and you make a lot of mistakes, you're not going to win very many football games."

Carolina vs. NC State
Nov. 25 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. --- Jaylen Samuels ran for one touchdown and threw for another on a trick play, and North Carolina State held on to upset North Carolina 28-21, earning bowl eligibility while also locking up a division title for Virginia Tech.

In what at times seemed like a replay of N.C. State's 35-7 rout here two years ago, Matt Dayes rushed for 104 yards and two touchdowns. The second of those put the Wolfpack (6-6, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference) up 21-0 early in the second quarter.

"It's about these players and these coaches hanging together amid a lot of heartbreaking days and negativity and doubt," coach Dave Doeren said. "Guys just kept fighting with each other and for each other and they knew where our program is headed. ... Today was about mastering ourselves and finding a way to win and doing it against our rival."

Samuels threw a 59-yard touchdown pass to Stephen Louis on a trick play on the opening drive, and ran 4 yards for the TD that made it 28-7.

Mitch Trubisky threw three touchdown passes for the Tar Heels (8-4, 5-3), including a 48-yarder to Bug Howard that made it a seven-point game with 7:52 left. But on their next possession, they were stopped on downs near midfield with 3:10 to go and N.C. State ran out the clock.

The Tar Heels, 10 1/2-point favorites, needed a win and a Virginia Tech loss to Virginia to earn a second straight ACC championship game berth. This loss locks the Hokies into next week's matchup with No. 4 Clemson in Orlando, Florida.

N.C. State largely kept it on the ground against the ACC's worst run defense, running it 53 times while throwing just 24 passes and rolling up 259 yards rushing and 492 total yards.

Stanford 25, Carolina 23
Hyundai Sun Bowl
Dec. 30 • Sun Bowl Stadium
El Paso, N.C.

EL PASO, Texas --- North Carolina native Bryce Love took over for the absent Christian McCaffrey in the Stanford backfield, running for 119 yards and catching a 49-yard touchdown pass to help the No. 16 Cardinal beat North Carolina 25-23 in the Sun Bowl.

Stanford (10-3) held on after North Carolina (8-5) pulled within two with 25 seconds left on Mitch Trubisky's 2-yard pass to Bug Howard, sacking Trubisky on the 2-point conversion try.

McCaffrey skipped the bowl game to focus on his NFL career.

Stanford took a 25-17 lead on Conrad Ukropina's 27-yard field goal with 3:23 left. North Carolina was forced to punt on its next series, but used two timeouts to get the ball back.

After taking over at their own 3, the Tar Heels drove 97 yards in 10 plays and 1:11. After competing passes of 44 and 27 yards, Trubisky capped the drive with the 2-yard scoring pass to Howard.

Stanford then sacked Trubisky on the 2-point try, a rush led by Solomon Thomas forcing the quarterback to retreat before being taken down. Thomas was selected the game's MVP, and the Cardinal defense also got a big game from safety Dallas Lloyd.

Lloyd intercepted Trubisky's pass in the first half, then again early in the fourth quarter. He returned that one 19 yards for a touchdown to give Stanford a 22-17 lead. That stalled a North Carolina rally that saw it go from being down 13-7 at the half and 16-7 early in the third to taking a 17-16 lead. That came after a 37-yard field goal by Nick Weiler and a 5-yard TD run by Jordon Brown.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snively. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snively and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americans on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

RYAN SWITZER, PUNT RETURNER, 2013; ALL-PURPOSE, 2015

In 2013, Ryan Switzer became the first Carolina true freshman in program history to earn first-team All-America honors. Switzer emerged as one of the nation's elite punt returners in his first season at Carolina. The Charleston, W.Va., product tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns. He also became just the second player in NCAA history to return a punt for a score in three consecutive games. Switzer set the UNC single-season record for punt return yards per game at 20.9

Jonathan Cooper earned consensus first-team All-America honors at offensive guard in 2012 and was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

with a school-record 502 yards on just 24 returns. He repeated as a first-team All-America selection after an outstanding season as a wideout and punt returner. He tied for the team lead with 55 receptions and returned two punts for touchdowns.

ERIC EBON, TIGHT END, 2013

Tight end Eric Ebron earned first-team All-America honors from ESPN.com in 2013 after setting single-season school records for receptions (62) and yards (973) by a tight end. His 973 receiving yards are also an ACC record by a tight end.

LONDON TURNER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2015

A four-year starter at guard, Landon Turner had an outstanding career at UNC and earned first-team All-America honors as a senior on a team that went 11-3, won the Coastal Division and played in the program's first-ever ACC Championship Game. Turner played in 52 games and made 42 career starts. As a senior, he was named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week four times and graded out at 90 percent or better in 11 of 14 contests. A captain in 2015, he led an offensive line that helped pave the way for Carolina to rush for more than 220 yards per game and set more than 50 offensive school records.

Ryan Switzer became the first true freshman in school history to earn first-team All-America honors. He returned an NCAA-record five punts for touchdowns in 2013.

#95 William Fuller	#64 Jonathan Cooper
#12 Ethan Horton	*retired jersey

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americans and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americans are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americans and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #131

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

Amos Lawrence is the only ACC player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

The Dawgs' Charley Trippi rushed for 77 yards, while Justice carried 18 times for 37 yards.

New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the run-away victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wing-back Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rocky Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterton. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterton chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl
Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl

December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi

State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl

December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played with winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl
Nashville, Tenn.
Carolina 30, Tennessee 27
December 30, 2010

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl
Shreveport, La.
Missouri 41, Carolina 24
December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

2013 Belk Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Carolina 39, Cincinnati 17
December 28, 2013

Freshman Ryan Switzer capped a memorable season by returning a punt 86 yards for a touchdown to help North Carolina beat Cincinnati 39-17 for its first Belk Bowl title in four tries. It was Switzer's fifth punt return of the season for a TD, tying an NCAA record.

T.J. Logan returned a kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown, Marquise Williams threw for 171 yards and a score and Romar Morris had two short TD runs as the Tar Heels (7-6) won a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

The victory also capped a huge turnaround for the Tar Heels, who started the season 1-5.

Cincinnati (9-4) was looking to become the bowl's first back-to-back champion since Virginia did it 10 years ago, but Brendon Kay - the MVP last year - was limited to 181 yards passing and no touchdowns.

The Tar Heels brought relentless pressure and had five sacks, including one for a safety.

North Carolina came in having lost its previous three in-state Belk Bowl appearances, but bolted to a 23-3 halftime lead behind a pair of long touchdown drives led by Williams and Logan's nifty kickoff return.

After Morris scored on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0, Brandon Ellerbe and Kareem Martin sacked Kay in the end zone for a safety - the first of three sacks in the opening half. On the ensuing kickoff, Logan put the Tar Heels in control by fielding the ball near the left sideline and cutting back up the middle of the field for the score.

Williams made it 23-3 in the second quarter, hitting Tabb on a quick slant for a 3-yard touchdown strike.

2014 Quick Lane Bowl Detroit, Mich. Rutgers 41, Carolina 20 December 26, 2014

Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown and Rutgers beat North Carolina 40-21 in the inaugural Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field.

Owned and operated by the NFL's Detroit Lions, the bowl replaced the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which had been played in Detroit under various names since 1997.

Rutgers led 40-7 before the Tar Heels (6-7) scored twice in the final seven minutes. North Carolina also had two second-half touchdown passes taken away because of interference penalties.

Marquise Williams was never able to get going, although he did throw for one score and run for another.

The Scarlet Knights lost the coin toss, but got the ball when North Carolina deferred. They only needed 2:17 to take the lead, with Gary Nova hitting a wide-open Andre Patton for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

Carolina got into Rutgers' territory its first two drives, but turned the ball over on the first and punted on the second. The Tar Heels blocked a punt to take over at the 30, but the drive stalled at the 5 and a fake field goal was buried for a 4-yard loss.

The Scarlet Knights answered with a 91-yard drive that ended with Hicks' 21-yard run that made it 14-0 early in the second. Rutgers then turned another Tar Heels fumble into a quick touchdown — Martin's 8-yard run — but missed the extra point, leaving it 20-0.

The Tar Heels missed a field goal, then shanked a punt 20 yards, allowing Rutgers to kick a 19-yard field goal that made it 23-0 at halftime.

2015 Russell Athletic Bowl Orlando, Fla. Baylor 49, Carolina 38 December 29, 2015

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

North Carolina (11-3) tried to match Baylor's scoring output but had a key fumble in the third quarter that stifled its comeback efforts.

Marquise Williams passed for 243 yards and three scores, and rushed for two more. Elijah Hood added 118 yards rushing.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at quarterback, five different players — Johnson, his backup Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Terence Williams — all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

North Carolina kept pace as best it could and scored on its opening possession of the second half to cut what had been an 18-point first-half deficit to 28-24.

Baylor needed just eight plays to go back up 35-24 following 3-yard touchdown run by Williams.

The Tar Heels started their next drive with a 67-yard run by Hood to get back into the red zone.

But two plays later T.J. Logan fumbled at the goal line after being hit by Aiaivon Edwards and it was scooped up by Baylor's Orion Stewart for a touchdown.

The Bears took advantage, and on their first play after the changeover scored on an 80-yard scamper by Jefferson that put them in front 42-24.

2016 Hyundai Sun Bowl El Paso, Texas Stanford 25, Carolina 23 December 30, 2016

EL PASO, Texas --- North Carolina native Bryce Love took over for the absent Christian McCaffrey in the Stanford backfield, running for 119 yards and catching a 49-yard touchdown pass to help the No. 16 Cardinal beat North Carolina 25-23 in the Sun Bowl.

Stanford (10-3) held on after North Carolina (8-5) pulled within two with 25 seconds left on Mitch Trubisky's 2-yard pass to Bug Howard, sacking Trubisky on the 2-point conversion try.

McCaffrey skipped the bowl game to focus on his NFL career.

Stanford took a 25-17 lead on Conrad Ukropina's 27-yard field goal with 3:23 left. North Carolina was forced to punt on its next series, but used two time-outs to get the ball back.

After taking over at their own 3, the Tar Heels drove 97 yards in 10 plays and 1:11. After competing passes of 44 and 27 yards, Trubisky capped the drive with the 2-yard scoring pass to Howard.

Stanford then sacked Trubisky on the 2-point try, a rush led by Solomon Thomas forcing the quarterback to retreat before being taken down. Thomas was selected the game's MVP, and the Cardinal defense also got a big game from safety Dallas Lloyd.

Lloyd intercepted Trubisky's pass in the first half, then again early in the fourth quarter. He returned that one 19 yards for a touchdown to give Stanford a 22-17 lead. That stalled a North Carolina rally that saw it go from being down 13-7 at the half and 16-7 early in the third to taking a 17-16 lead. That came after a 37-yard field goal by Nick Weiler and a 5-yard TD run by Jordon Brown.

CAROLINA DRAFT FIRST-ROUND DRAFT NOTES

- Mitch Trubisky was selected No. 2 overall by the Chicago Bears in the 2017 NFL Draft. That matches the highest selection ever for a UNC player. Ken Willard (1965), Lawrence Taylor (1981) and Julius Peppers (2002) were also selected No. 2 overall.
- Trubisky became the first quarterback in UNC history selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. The last time a Carolina quarterback was selected in the NFL Draft was T.J. Yates in 2011 (fifth round to the Houston Texans).
- Trubisky is the ninth player in UNC history taken in the top 10 of the NFL Draft. Carolina's other top 10 draft picks are Ken Willard (No. 2 in 1965), Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981), Julius Peppers (No. 2 in 2002), Ken Huff (No. 3 in 1975), Ryan Sims (No. 6 in 2002), Jonathan Cooper (No. 7 in 2013), Greg Ellis (No. 8 in 1998) and Eric Ebron (No. 10 in 2014).
- In Larry Fedora's five seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels have produced four first round picks – offensive guard Jonathan Cooper (seventh overall to Arizona in 2013), Sylvester Williams (28th overall to Denver in 2013), Eric Ebron (10th overall to Detroit in 2014) and Mitch Trubisky (second overall to Chicago in 2017).
- North Carolina has produced eight first-round draft picks since 2008. That is the third highest total of any ACC school. Florida State and Clemson rank first with nine. The only other in-state schools with a first-round draft pick since 2008 are Duke (1), Wake Forest (1) and ECU (1).
- Carolina's 24 all-time first-round draft picks are the most of any school in the state, ahead of NC State (15), Duke (6) and Wake Forest (5).

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Hundley. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press or scouting credentials at Carolina home football games should be made online via the Press Pass media credential system. Please visit SportsSystems.com/uncfootball to apply for credentials. Communication regarding your request will be made via email.

Please make requests at least two weeks prior to the game.

Visiting team media should contact the opponent athletic communications contact to be placed on their official list.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 4 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office at the Koury Natatorium. Those credentials not picked up by 4 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the first half.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and ACC guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. Equipment should not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance through the online credential system. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located in the Craige Deck off Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players and head coach Larry Fedora will be available in the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field communications representative.

Fedora is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network before addressing the other media in attendance. After night games, great care will be taken to get Fedora to the media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to players and coaches as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH LARRY FEDORA

Larry Fedora will meet with the media at 11:45 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 20 minutes. A recording of Fedora's Monday press conference will be available on GoHeels.com later that afternoon. Fedora is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC for the time and phone number. All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

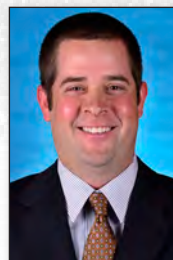

All player interviews should be arranged through Bobby Hundley. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted after football practice at Kenan Stadium. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows. Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. at Kenan Stadium. Practice will be open for the first 30 minutes each Tuesday. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday.

FOOTBALL IN A FOREST

Written by Lee Pace and first published in August, 2016, "Football In A Forest" has been roundly applauded for its words and images that bring to life the 90-year-old venue known as the most beautiful in college football.

The book is 240 pages and tells the story of the stadium chronologically and is augmented with beautiful vintage and current photography.

The book was underwritten by the Football Lettermen's Association and proceeds are circling back to benefit the lettermen.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravelly Drive. Press parking is either in the Bell Tower Deck on Ridge Road or the Craige Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

Learfield

Learfield Sports begins its 18th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 122 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Iowa, NC State, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 23rd year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

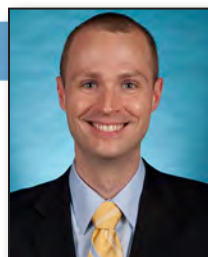

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's athletic entities including television, print products, internet, social media and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Larry Fedora Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball." When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official Football Yearbook.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Larry Fedora Live" call in show heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

Listeners can also tune in to the "Carolina Insider" podcast a popular bi-weekly podcast hosted by Jones Angell and Adam Lucas focusing on all things Carolina athletics.

"Inside Carolina Football with Larry Fedora," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

JONES ANGELL

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER
SEVENTH SEASON

Jones Angell enters his seventh year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Angell has worked in a number of roles at the network over the past 17 years. He served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for six years before taking over the play-by-play duties in 2011. Angell moved into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

Angell called play-by-play for Carolina baseball for nine seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. During his career, he has also called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell has been a member of UNC's broadcast team for more than 115 Tar Heel football games, including the 2015 ACC Championship Game, and more than 340 men's basketball games, including the 2009 and 2017 national championships.

Angell is the host for GoHeels.com broadcasts of Late Night with Roy Williams and football's Signing Day Celebration. He also produces and hosts features on the coaches' television shows.

Angell is as assistant director of GoHeels Productions at UNC where he helps produce video board and special internet features that are shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball and The Rammys, an end-of-the-year awards show. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

Angell and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Walker.

TAR HEEL TRADITIONS

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'n's heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

FOOTBALL

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

VICTORY WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team walks through a gathering of fans and into the Kenan Football Center. The pregame arrival tradition began in 2000 when the team would walk from the Bell Tower and into the stadium. The drop off point moved to the Old Well from 2001-12. The pregame walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kick-off of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina

Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.
