CREDENTIALS

Media seating in the Smith Center will be limited to approximately 15 seats (not including broadcast and radio networks) due to the pandemic. Seats will be reserved in this order: media that regularly cover UNC Basketball, the visiting team and national media.

Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis (no season credentials).

Please make credential requests online at SportsSystems.com/UNCBasketball

Media will be able to request credentials beginning two weeks before each scheduled game for a window of time that ends one week prior to the game. For example, the system will accept credentials for the Jan. 23 game vs. NC State from 8 a.m. on January 9 to 5 p.m. on January 16.

UNC is not accepting photo or minicam requests for credentials. There are only a limited number of photo opportunities, which will be handled directly by Steve Kirschner.

Approved credentials may be picked up at media will call at Smith Center Entrance D, which will open one hour before the scheduled starting time. Entrance D is diagonally across the building from the media entrance last season. Entrance D is closest to the reserved parking lot behind the natatorium and the Smith Center/basketball offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search.

AWAY GAME CREDENTIALS

Iowa: check with Kirschner for online link to apply
CBS Sports Classic in Cleveland: check with Kirschner for online link to apply
ACC Games: email Kirschner (each school will have different access...the schools will let Kirschner know if, and how many, media/photographer seats will be available for the visiting team)

HEALTH & SAFETY

Acceptance of a credential acknowledges and assumes risks associated with Covid-19 and the bearer agrees not to use the credential in the event that he or she is sick or symptomatic.

An online health survey must be completed before media is allowed to enter the Smith Center. The survey will be emailed to you several days before the game; please go online and fill it out the day of the game (it takes about a minute to complete). Temperature checks will be conducted at the media entrance (Gate D). Once you have passed a temperature check and are allowed to enter the arena, please proceed to the media seating in section 212.

A mask must be worn at all times in the Smith Center. Media representatives must bring their own mask that fully covers their nose and mouth, plus any other personal protective equipment they wish to use. UNC asks that you do not attend the game if you are experiencing any symptoms of Covid-19.

Hand sanitizer dispensers will be available throughout the arena.

Individuals must sit in their assigned seat and adhere to physical distancing guidelines (at least six feet apart) while moving within the arena.

MEDIA WORK ROOM, MEDIA SEATING

The Smith Center media work room will be closed this season. Upon entering the arena, media should proceed directly to their assigned seats in section 212 and plan to work there for the duration of your visit to the Smith Center.

A limited number of photographers may be allowed to shoot from designated areas around the arena. Those assignments will be coordinated by Kirschner. Availability will be very limited and may change over the course of the season due to the pandemic. Other than a photographer and videographer who travel with each team and are tested on a regular basis, photo/video spots that are assigned will be at least 15 feet (and could be farther away) from the edge of the essential personnel perimeter established by the ACC.

There will be a pool photographer and pool videographer assigned to each game who will provide still and video images for media use through a digital sharing site managed by the Atlantic Coast Conference. Check with Kirschner for details.

ARENA WiFi

Wireless Internet access is available in the arena. Instructions for logging on will be emailed to credentialed media. Please do not publicize the network or password for WiFi access. Live stats are available at UNC.statbroadcast.com.

SMITH CENTER MEDIA PARKING

Media parking for games is located in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive, adjacent to Kenan-Flagler Business School. Most of the spaces are not reserved. Passes will be emailed to those media who request and are approved for parking passes.

Directions: NC Hwy 15-101 to Manning Drive, take the second left onto Bowles Drive and the Bowles Lot will be on your right at the bottom of the hill.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

All postgame interviews with Roy Williams and UNC players will be via Zoom or another digital platform. The raw files for UNC will be archived to GoHeels.com and a select number of quotes will also be posted and distributed.

NON-GAMEDAY INTERVIEWS

All interviews will be done this season via Zoom or by phone.

Throughout the season, Williams and players should be available via Zoom a day or two before select games. A schedule of these sessions will be posted in the game notes.

Interview requests should be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Williams. Due to contractual obligations, Williams is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers. Player interviews typically occur before practice. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Beginning in January, Williams will be available on most Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC teleconference. Coaches do not participate on the Monday call if their teams play that evening. Media should contact Kirschner or the ACC for the teleconference number.

Carolina's official website is GoHeels.com, which features the team's media guide, record book, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, archives and more. Archived recordings of the weekly and postgame Zoom press conferences will be posted to the site. Follow the Tar Heels on Twitter and Instagram at @UNC_Basketball. Roy Williams (signature)
Roy Williams
Head Coach • 18th Year at Carolina

Hall of Famer Roy Williams won his 879th game as a college head coach when the Tar Heels beat Yale on Dec. 30, 2019. It moved Williams into a tie for fourth place all-time in wins by a Division I head coach with Dean Smith, under whom Williams served as an assistant at Carolina for 10 seasons from 1978-88.

When he was asked to stay at midcourt after the teams shook hands so Tar Heel captains Garrison Brooks and Brandon Robinson and Smith's son, Scott, could present the coach a framed portrait of Smith and Williams in recognition of the milestone, Williams was visibly uncomfortable and more than mildly upset.

The reasons illustrate why he is widely regarded as the perfect choice to be Carolina's head coach and one of the sport's best-ever coaches: first, any mention of Williams tying and eventually surpassing his mentor's win total makes him cringe, because, regardless of the facts and figures, Williams feels undeserving of such high praise; and second, on that December night, his only priority was to rush off the court and check on freshman guard Anthony Harris, who had seriously injured his knee in the second half. Harris had missed most of his high school senior season due to a knee injury, and the initial diagnosis indicated he had just torn the ACL in his other knee.

Achievements, awards, photo ops and cheers from the Tar Heel faithful aside, all Williams wanted to do was to go hug his fallen player and help him deal with the disappointment and pain of another rehab he almost certainly faced.

"The only thing I'm thinking about right now is that young man," Williams said in his postgame news conference. "He's worked his tail off to get back in this position. My team is hurting for him right now."

Scott Smith told Williams that his father would have been happy to have Williams match his total. "I think Coach Smith would be. I've been very fortunate," said Williams. "I have been able to stay relatively healthy and I've had really good kids who made me look good for a long time and I'm very appreciative of them."

Carolina's 94-71 win over Miami on Jan. 25, 2020, gave Williams win No. 880 and sole possession of fourth on the wins list behind only fellow Hall of Famers and national championship-winning coaches Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim and Bob Knight.

Williams enters the 2020-21 season, his 33rd as a college head coach, with an overall record of 885-253. He is 15 wins from 900 and 18 from passing Knight for third place.

The Asheville native and 1972 Carolina graduate has led his alma mater to national championships in 2005, 2009 and 2017 and two other Final Four appearances. A 2007 inductee in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Williams is second among active coaches and sixth all-time in winning percentage (.778), second in 30-win seasons (12), fourth in 20-win seasons (29), has the most wins ever over No. 1 ranked teams in the AP poll (8) and has averaged more wins per season (27.7) than any coach with 800 or more wins.

Among ACC coaches all-time, he is second in winning percentage on the road in league play (.621), third in wins by an ACC coach (467), third in ACC regular-season and Tournament wins (229) and third in regular-season ACC titles (9).

On Feb. 25, 2020, Carolina beat NC State for his 200th regular-season ACC win in 287 games. He reached 200 wins in the second-fewest games in ACC history (Smith won his 200th in 278 games).

Williams is one of the most successful coaches in NCAA Tournament history, standing second in games (105), wins (79) and No. 1 seeds (13); third in appearances (29), winning percentage (.752), Final Four wins (9) and championship game appearances (6); and fourth in titles (3) and Final Fours (9). Over the last 19 years, spanning his last two seasons at KU and 17 in Chapel Hill, Williams' teams have 54 NCAA Tournament victories, more than any other coach in the nation. Carolina's 45 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams era are more than any other school has in that 17-year span (Kansas is second with 38).

His UNC teams have earned 10

Carolina beat Syracuse in 2017 for his 800th victory. That came in his 1,012th game in his 29th year. The previous record for 800 wins was 33 seasons by Smith and Krzyzewski; Rupp is the only coach to reach 800 wins in fewer games (972).

He is the only coach in college basketball history to win 400 games at two schools – 467 at Carolina and 418 at Kansas. He is second in wins at UNC and third at KU.

On Aug. 24, 2018, the University of North Carolina officially named the playing floor at the Dean E. Smith Center, home of the Tar Heels, as Roy Williams Court.

"Roy Williams is one of the greatest coaches of all-time, and in a society that judges things by counting championships, he's right there on the top shelf with the greatest of all-time," ESPN analyst Jay Bilas said after the Tar Heels won the 2017 national title, UNC's third in a 13-year span.

PLAYER IMPACT

Even greater is the impact he makes on the lives of the young men he coaches.

"Coming to UNC has been a dream come true," says Cole Anthony, who earned ACC All-Rookie team honors in 2020. "There's no group of coaches and teammates I'd rather go to battle with day in and day out."

"Coach Williams was more than just a coach to me—he was more like family," says Coby White, who was selected in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft after becoming the first Tar Heel freshman to score 30 points three times, and earned NBA All-Rookie honors as a Chicago Bull. "He helped me through a lot while I was in high school. He helped me not only become a better player on the court but a better man off the court. I am forever thankful for the way Coach Williams has, and continues to, impact my life."

"Coach isn't going to come into your home and say you'll be the face of the program," says 2020 captain Brandon Robinson. "That's not Carolina Basketball. Carolina Basketball is about team. It's about all of us in the locker room chasing a national championship. Coach always tells us if we do what he tells us and we win, our personal goals will take care of themselves. Certain programs just care about one individual or a certain group. Coach cares about every single guy and he's going to coach you. He will help you with anything no matter who you are. When you leave here, you're still going to be family. When guys come back to games, they're treated like they are one of the family."

"Coach treats everyone the same," says Luke Maye, 2017 NCAA South Regional MVP and an All-America and All-ACC selection. "Everyone gets the same opportunities. If you play well, he plays you. That's what I respect most about him. I had to earn my time. Coach wanted to make me the best I could be. I can't thank him enough for the man and the player

I've become."

"If I tried to put this into words, it wouldn't do it justice," said Kenny Williams on Senior Day in 2019. "To really know the feeling, the joy that you get playing here. You have to be a part of it to actually know the feeling. You come in with expectations and these past four years have blown that away."

"I look back now and I can clearly see Coach Williams has done a wonderful job helping raise Joel in a critical time in his life," said Joel Berry Sr., father of the 2017 Final Four Most Outstanding Player. "These are the years of 18 to 22, and they are such important years. Coach Williams has kept his promise to us, because he has made Joel a better man than when Joel first arrived at Carolina."

"He's made me become a man," said Kennedy Meeks, who finished his career fifth at UNC in rebounds and had 25 points and 14 rebounds in the 2017 national semifinal win over Oregon. "That hug (after the national championship game) was all for being grateful for the opportunities, putting me in the right positions, and also for being one of the greatest coaches that I'll ever be around. He's been a major figure in my life that I'll always remember."

"The biggest thing about Coach Williams is his loyalty," said Isaiah Hicks, who scored a key basket in the final minute of the 2017 title game vs. Gonzaga. "Coach would never lie to you. He is someone who is going to be straight up with you and be honest with you. He cares for us. When Coach says he's going to do something, he does it. He really listens to us and really takes time for the people he cares about."

"He always puts his players and his coaches before himself and he treats us like we're one of his sons, and you don't find that at too many programs," said Berry II. "When he promises us something, he really means it and he puts his all into it. A lot of coaches say they have it, but they really don't mean it like Coach Williams does."

"I feel like everything he says is for the good of me," said 2017 ACC Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America Justin Jackson. "There's no agenda with Coach. He is here to win basketball games, that's his No. 1 job. But, at the end of the day, he always considers us like his sons. And that's the way he tries to treat us. That's a big reason why I came here, and a big reason why I wouldn't change a single thing that I did."

Marcus Paige, who concluded his brilliant career in 2016 as Carolina's all-time leader in three-pointers and 11th in career scoring, said, "He cares about us as people, almost as much as he does about us as players, and that's one thing that separates him as a coach. He's a great coach. He develops our game and our skills, but at the end of the day he cares about us being ready for any aspect of life."

"Coach Williams has meant a lot to me; he's the closest thing I've had to a role model to my father," said 2016 consensus first-team All-America Brice Johnson. "My dad coached me in high school and Coach Williams tried to replicate how my dad pushed me as a coach for the past four years. He got on me more than anyone else on the team, but I thank him for that because he got me to be the player I am today because of his motivation and the little talks we would have here and there. But what I really appreciate even more is that he not only taught me to be the player that I am on the court, but the person I am off the court."

"A lot of people were doubting me as a freshman, but one thing is you always believed in me," Paige said in a memorable and emotional Senior Night speech in 2016 that was viewed more than 5 million times online. "You always told me: 'I believe in you, son. You're going to make shots; you're going to do fine. You're going to be a great player.' You just believed in me, and I can't thank you enough for that, because that allowed me to be a confident person and helped me grow as a person…And I've tried to be every bit the player you wanted me to be, but you've made me a better man. And that's the most important thing. I'm 10 times a better man than when I got here. Thank you."

"It starts with the kind of man Coach Williams is," says 2009 Final Four Most Outstanding Player Wayne Ellington. "Everyone talks about basketball when it comes to Carolina, but it's who Coach Williams is that is important. He really cares about his players, his staff and this University. Coach is an amazing coach, but he's also one of the best people I've been around in my life."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

The 2020-21 season is Williams' 48th as a basketball coach – five years as head coach at Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C.,

10 years as Smith's assistant at Carolina, 15 as head coach at Kansas and now 18 as head coach in Chapel Hill. UNC named him head coach on April 14, 2003, 10 days after he led Kansas to the NCAA championship game against Syracuse.

His teams have won regular-season titles 18 times in 32 seasons, which equals the fifth-most by any coach in college basketball history. Williams won nine titles at Kansas and nine at UNC, the third most in ACC history behind only Smith and Krzyzewski.

His Hall-of-Fame ledger also includes:
• 1,160-314 record in 42 seasons as a collegiate head coach and assistant coach
• 30-win seasons: 12, second most in NCAA history
• 20-win seasons: 29, tied for the fourth most in NCAA history
• national coach of the year: nine times (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2017, 2019)
• conference coach of the year: nine times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2011)
• Associated Press rankings: the Tar Heels have been ranked in the Top 25 in 270 of 328 polls, including 183 Top-10 rankings, 105 times in the Top 5 and 29 weeks as the No. 1 team in the country (his Kansas teams were also No. 1 in the AP poll 30 times);
• number one rankings: 13 seasons ranked No. 1 and 18 seasons ranked No. 1 or No. 2
• milestone wins: reached 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700 and 800 wins in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history

USA Today named Williams its National Coach of the Year in 2019 after he led the Tar Heels to 29 wins, a 16-2 ACC record that earned at least a share of the regular-season title in the best conference in America for the ninth time, and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Midwest Regional. Carolina ended the season ranked No. 3 in the country by the Associated Press, the 15th time his teams have finished in the top five in the AP poll.

NBA teams selected White (No. 7), Cameron Johnson (No. 11) and Nassir Little (No. 25) in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft, the fifth time multiple Tar Heels were selected in the first round in the Williams Era. In 2020, Cole Anthony became the 22nd Tar Heel and 33rd player overall to play for

Williams and get drafted in the first round.

Williams has set UNC coaching records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), eight years (228, 2011-18 and 2012-19), nine years (263 from 2005-13), 10 years (292 from 2008-17) and 15 years (434 from 2004-19).

Williams' teams play their best basketball late in the season when champions are crowned. The Tar Heels are 92-39 (.702) in the month of February and 102-35 (.745) in March and April.

His UNC and KU teams have dominated at home, posting a record of 434-56 (.886). He led the Jayhawks to a 201-17 record (.922) in Allen Fieldhouse, at one point winning 62 consecutive games. The Tar Heels are 233-40 at home under Williams (including 231-39 at the Smith Center) and set the UNC record for consecutive home wins with 31.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09 after he led Kansas and Carolina to 33 NCAA Tournament wins in that span, eight more than any other coach. The Tar Heels won a pair of national titles and Williams' teams played in three other Final Fours in the decade.

Remarkably, only five schools (Kentucky, UNC, Duke, UCLA and Kansas) have more NCAA Tournament wins than Williams. His teams are 79-26 in 29 appearances. In addition to nine Final Fours, the fourth most ever, his teams have reached the Sweet 16 in 19 seasons and the Elite Eight 13 times. The 2019 season marked the 13th time his teams entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 1 seed (five times at Kansas and eight times at Carolina). That's the second-most No. 1 seeds all-time.

Williams led the Tar Heels to back-to-back national championship games in 2016 and 2017. UNC lost the title to Villanova on a last-second three-pointer in '16 but overcame the loss of Johnson and Paige to return to the title game the following season, when it beat Gonzaga, 71-65. It marked the fourth time in NCAA history a school won the championship a year after losing in the finals.

The 2017 national title was Carolina's first in eight years, since his 2009 Tar Heels overpowered the field, winning six NCAA Tournament games by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years. The 2009 squad is considered one of the most dominant championship teams, becoming the first national champion to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina trailed in the second half just once in those six contests and led Michigan State, 51-30, at halftime in the national championship game.

In 2005, Carolina went 33-4 and won the NCAA title in just Williams' second year as head coach, just two years removed from back-to-back seasons in which the Tar Heels failed to make the NCAA Tournament field.

Carolina is 45-12 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .789 that is the highest in ACC history. The 45 wins under Williams are more than 13 other current or former ACC schools have won in their NCAA Tournament histories.

His teams made 20 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1990 to 2009, which is now the fifth-longest streak in NCAA history. He is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009) and is the only coach to have won 29 straight first-round games, an unprecedented feat UNC extended in 2019 with its win over Iona.

Although his teams are known for high-scoring offense, Carolina's defense paved the way to three NCAA titles under Williams. In the 2017 NCAA Tournament, the Tar Heels allowed only 70.5 points and the opponents shot a collective 39.6 percent from the floor. In Carolina's six Final Four wins en route to the 2005, 2009 and 2017 national championships, the Tar Heels held their opponents to a combined 35.9 percent from the floor; only Michigan State in the 2009 title game shot as high as 40 percent.

IN THE ACC

The Tar Heels are 202-88 in ACC regular-season play under Williams, the fifth-highest winning percentage (.697) in ACC history.

Williams has led UNC to ACC regular-season titles in 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2016, 2017 and 2019, claiming the top spot outright seven times. UNC's average ACC regular-season finish under Williams is 3.1, second best in the league over his tenure. In Williams' 17 seasons, only six schools – UNC (9), Virginia (5), Duke (3), Florida State (1), Maryland (1) and Miami (1) – have won outright or shared the regular-season title.

Carolina went unbeaten in nine ACC road games in 2019, tying the best road record in ACC history. Williams has an 90-55 record in ACC road games, a winning percentage of .621 that is the second-best in ACC history. The 90 road wins are the third most in league history behind Krzyzewski and Smith. The Tar Heels have posted winning ACC records on the road in 12 of his 17 seasons, including 9-0 in 2018-19, 8-0 in 2007-08 and 7-1 in 2005-06 and 2011-12.

PLAYER HONORS

Williams' players have won a slew of individual awards:

• four National Players of the Year – Drew Gooden (2002), Nick Collison (2003), Sean May (2005) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008)

• 17 first-team All-Americas, including 10 consensus first-team All-America honors – Raef LaFrentz (1997 and 1998), Paul Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Collison (2003), Hansbrough (2007, 2008, 2009), Brice Johnson (2016) and Justin Jackson (2017)

• 34 first-team all-conference players, such as Cameron Johnson, who transferred to Carolina after three seasons at Pitt and developed into a first-team All-ACC and first-round NBA Draft pick in 2019

• 44 academic all-conference selections

• two Academic All-Americas of the Year

• seven first-team

Academic All-Americas, including Paige, who became UNC's first three-time Academic All-America

• 32 NBA first-round draft picks – 21 at Carolina and 11 at Kansas

His players have earned nearly 1.3 billion dollars in NBA salary. In both 2005 and 2012, four Tar Heels were chosen in the first round. Pierce was the 2008 NBA Finals MVP after leading the Boston Celtics to the title; Danny Green set the NBA Finals record with 27 three-pointers in 2013, won a title with San Antonio in 2014, one with Toronto in 2019 and one with the Los Angeles Lakers in 2020; Harrison Barnes won a title with Golden State in 2015 and was a starter on the Warriors when they set the NBA single-season record with 73 wins in 2016.

Hansbrough became the most decorated player in Carolina Basketball history and set the all-time ACC scoring mark with 2,872 points. He is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors in each of his four seasons. He also became Carolina's all-time leading rebounder, set the NCAA record for free throws made, won an NCAA title and National Player of the Year honors and earned his degree.

On March 8, 2009, Senior Day at Carolina, an emotional Hansbrough thanked Williams for living up to a promise Williams made during his recruitment that the coach would always be honest with him.

"He always tells you the straight-up truth about what you need to hear, not just what you want to hear," said Hansbrough. "That helped me not only as a player but also as a person."

Green started at small forward for the 2009 Tar Heels and at shooting guard for the San Antonio Spurs when they won the 2014 NBA championship, joining Hall of Famers Michael Jordan and James Worthy as players who won NCAA titles at UNC and NBA rings. Green said the winning cultures of the Tar Heels and the Spurs were similar.

"It starts with the coaches – Coach Williams and Coach Pop (Gregg Popovich) are very professional in the way they carry themselves," said Green, who averaged 13.1 points for the 2009 national championship team and played in more wins (123) than any Tar Heel in history. "They recruit not just great players, but great people. They want people who have the mentality of wanting to win and compete and not just be about the individual. Coach Williams gets kids who will buy into the message of winning, being a team and doing things the right way without worrying about individual accolades.

"Coach Williams does a great job of getting everyone on the same page and molding them a certain way and doing things the right way," adds Green. "I learned that at Carolina. It was easy for me to adjust to the Spurs organization, because I was doing those same things here."

Williams is the only coach whose players have won more than one Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the nation. Felton led the Tar Heels to the 2005 NCAA title; Lawson won a national championship in 2009 and set the ACC single-season record for highest assist-error ratio; and Marshall led UNC to back-to-back regular-season league titles, set ACC records for most assists, highest assist average and most double-figure assist games in a season and posted the highest career assist-error ratio in ACC history.

Berry, a two-time Cousy Award finalist, was the ACC Tournament's Most Valuable Player in 2016 and became the first Tar Heel to ever earn All-Final Four honors in back-to-back seasons in 2016-17. Berry scored 20 points against Villanova in the 2016 title game and a game-high 22 in 2017 against Gonzaga, making him the first player to score 20 points in consecutive finals since Bill Walton in 1972-73.

Carolina averaged 85.8 points in 2019, third highest in the NCAA. Williams' teams have averaged at least 80 points per game in a season 23 times. Carolina has ranked in the top four nationally in scoring seven times and either first or second in the ACC in points per game in all but four seasons. Overall his teams have finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring 13 times, in scoring margin 18 times, in field goal percentage 12 times, in win-loss percentage 13 times and in field goal defense four times. Also, his teams have finished in the top seven nationally in assists per game in 14 of the last 19 years and in the top 10 nationally in rebounding margin in 17 of the last 24 years.

The Tar Heels have led the nation in rebounds in three of the last four seasons and in rebound margin in 2017 and 2019. The 2019 team was No. 1 in the country in total rebounds and rebound margin despite its shooting guard (6-9 Cameron Johnson) being the tallest player in the starting lineup.

Williams is one of 11 Tar Heels enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, joining a group that includes Smith, Michael Jordan, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, Worthy, Bob McAdoo, Charlie Scott and Bobby Jones. Twenty-three of his former players from Carolina and Kansas attended the induction ceremony in Springfield, Mass., in 2007.

"Carolina is number one," said Worthy, the 1988 NBA Finals MVP, at the ring ceremony for the 2017 national champions. "This is where it started for me. It all started with Coach Smith, with him treating every individual player and manager the same and reminding us to give back to the community in addition to being a basketball player. All of us from my era, we came back for Coach Smith. And we also came back to honor Roy, because what he's doing right now is an amazing feat."

COACHING CAREER PRIOR TO 2003

Williams was an assistant coach at Carolina from 1978-88. Working for Dean Smith, he helped coach such standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, Worthy, Sam Perkins, Matt Doherty, Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Steve Hale, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams. Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six ACC regular-season titles and three ACC Tournament championships.

Kansas hired Williams on July 8, 1988. Williams coached a number of the finest Kansas players in history, including Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan, Rex Walters, Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard, Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Nick Collison and Kirk Hinrich.

The Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins per season, including 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions.

In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first

ACADEMICS A PRIORITY

Williams emphasizes academic and personal development. He is the only NCAA coach to have two players (Zeller and Vaughn) earn Academic All-America of the Year honors. In 2016, Paige became the seventh to play for Williams to earn first-team Academic All-America. Williams is tied with Smith for fourth among coaches all-time whose players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors behind Wooden (13), Knight (10) and Ted Owens (9).

"What makes Coach Williams one of the great coaches isn't just his extraordinary record, but his dedication to his players," President Barack Obama said when the Tar Heels visited the White House after winning the 2009 championship. "He's just as serious about making these guys into men and into leaders as he is into making them champions."

Marvin Williams, who went to the NBA in 2005 after just one season, returned to Chapel Hill for classes in seven subsequent summers, and earned his degree in 2014.

"I think about what Coach Williams means to me a lot and I hope he's proud of me," said Marvin Williams. "I can't really put into words what he means to me.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT ROY WILLIAMS

"Coach Williams was more than just a coach to me—he was more like family. He helped me through a lot while I was in high school. He helped me not only become a better player on the court but a better man off the court. I am forever thankful for the way Coach Williams has, and continues to, impact my life."
—Coby White

"He always puts his players and his coaches before himself and he treats us like we're one of his sons, and you don't find that at too many programs. When he promises us something, he really means it and he puts his all into it. A lot of coaches say they have it, but they really don't mean it like Coach Williams does."
—Joel Berry II

"I feel like everything he says is for the good of me. There's no agenda with Coach. He is here to win basketball games, that's his No. 1 job. But, at the end of the day, he always considers us like his sons. And that's the way he tries to treat us. That's a big reason why I came here, and a big reason why I wouldn't change a single thing that I did."
—Justin Jackson

"He cares about us as people, almost as much as he does about us as players, and that's one thing that separates him as a coach. He's a great coach. He develops our game and our skills, but at the end of the day he cares about us being ready for any aspect of life."
—Marcus Paige

"You represent all that is good at North Carolina. This is my school, and I'm very proud of what I've accomplished there. But I'm just one of hundreds that Coach Smith prepared, not just for basketball, but for life. You have carried on his traditions of integrity, honesty and more importantly, loyalty."
—Charlie Scott to Roy Williams in his 2018 Naismith Hall of Fame induction speech

HEAD COACH ROY WILLIAMS

He came to Bremerton (Wash.) and gave a kid a chance to be something. I can't thank him enough for what he's meant to my family. I could never pay Coach Williams back for what he's done for me, and I mean that genuinely. He told my mother if I worked hard, I could get a degree from this university. When I called my mom to tell her (I was graduating), she instantly started crying. I hope I made my parents and my coach proud."

Williams' players have won first-team Academic All-America honors five times – the Jayhawks' Vaughn (twice), Jerod Haase and Ryan Robertson and Carolina's Zeller (twice) and Paige. Forty-four have made academic all-conference, including four-time recipients Zeller, Paige and Maye. Zeller is the only Tar Heel to be first-team Academic All-America twice and Paige is one of only three players in ACC history to earn first- or second-team Academic All-America honors three times.

In 2018 and 2019, Maye was a second-team Academic All-America and ACC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, two of six times since 2011 one of Williams' players won the award.

"I respect and admire Coach Williams—as a champion for the students we serve through the Carolina Covenant; as a leader and teacher of young men; as a person of great integrity," said Stephen M. Farmer, UNC's Vice Provost for Enrollment and Undergraduate Admissions. "I also respect and admire his love for this great university and his deep appreciation of the difference it makes in North Carolina and far beyond."

Zeller majored in business administration and became the first Tar Heel to be named the National Academic All-America of the Year.

"Coach Williams always emphasizes that we have to go to class and get an education, because that's why we are here," Zeller said during his senior year. "There might be times we wish we didn't have to do it. But down the road, we'll appreciate it. He lets us know that if we take it seriously, we will have a career outside of basketball."

The North Carolina Foundation for Public School Children honored Williams in 2018 at its Champions for Children Gala.

PERSONAL

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood in Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69 and earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973.

He began his coaching career in 1973 at Owen High School and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2010. He coached for USA Basketball teams in the 1991 World University Games, the 1992 U.S. Olympic Development Team, a U-22 tournament in Argentina in 1993 and the 2004 Olympics in Greece.

Several of his staff and players have gone on to head coaching positions, including Matt Doherty, Neil Dougherty, Jerry Green, Steve Robinson, Kevin Stallings, Mark Turgeon, Rex Walters, Wes Miller, Haase and C.B. McGrath.

"My dream is to have relationships with my players and my former players similar to what Coach Williams has with his players," said Haase, the fifth-year head coach at Stanford. "The way I look at him and respect him—the dream scenario is that someday my players look at me the same way."

Williams was born on August 1, 1950. He and his wife, Wanda, a 1972 Carolina graduate, have a son, Scott, and a daughter, Kimberly.

Scott earned a business degree from UNC and played point guard for the Tar Heels in 1997-98 and 1998-99. Scott and his wife, Katie (Wolford), live in Charlotte, with their sons, Aiden and Court. Katie is a 2001 Carolina graduate and former cheerleader. She earned a doctorate in physical therapy from Boston University.

Kimberly is a 2002 Carolina graduate with a degree in English, was a member of the UNC dance team in 2000 and 2001 and owns The Dance Spot in Huntersville. In 2016, she married Kurt Newlin, a 2003 UNC graduate who earned his master's in health administration from UNC Charlotte. They live in Huntersville with their son, Kayson Alexander, and daughter Kenzie Lyla.

The Williamses have contributed more than $425,000 to the Carolina Covenant, an initiative at UNC that allows low-income students to attend the University debt free. Roy and Wanda serve as honorary chairs of a multi-million-dollar campaign to endow the program. He hosts the annual Fast Break vs. Cancer breakfast that has surpassed $2.6 million in donations and directs the autographed basketball program that has directed more than $1.6 million to local charities.

In 2020, the Williamses gave more than $600,000 to Carolina Athletics to cover the funding so spring sport student-athletes whose seasons were canceled due to the pandemic could return to play another season in 2021.

Director of Operations · Sixth Year at Carolina

Sean May is in his sixth year on Roy Williams' staff and his fourth as Carolina's director of basketball operations. The 2005 Final Four Most Outstanding Player and NBA first-round draft pick's duties include scouting, on-campus recruiting, video services, team logistics and other behind-the-scenes duties.

May played at Carolina from 2002-05 and is one of seven Tar Heels to average a double-double in his career. The Bloomington, Ind., native averaged 15.8 points and 10.0 rebounds over his three collegiate seasons. He joins Bob McAdoo, Rusty Clark, Billy Cunningham, Doug Moe, Pete Brennan and Lennie Rosenbluth as the only Tar Heels to average double figures in both career scoring and rebounding. May is the only Tar Heel to accomplish that since McAdoo in 1972.

May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the 2005 national championship game victory over Illinois, a game played on his 21st birthday. He was Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year as a junior and also was the ACC's Top Male Athlete and a first-team All-America.

He posted eight consecutive double-doubles in 2005, including 26 points and 24 rebounds against Duke in his last home game, a 75-73 win that clinched the ACC regular-season title. The Dumfries, Va., native was one of the best passers in college basketball history. He moved into the starting lineup in January of his freshman season and led UNC to consecutive appearances in the ACC Tournament finals and NCAA Elite Eight, piling up assists in record time. As a sophomore, he earned first-team All-America honors (CBSSports.com) and ran a Tar Heel attack that earned a No. 1 seed in the Midwest Regional. Marshall suffered a broken wrist in Carolina's NCAA second-round win over Creighton and was unable to play in UNC's next two Tournament games.

He won the Bob Cousy Award in 2012 as the nation's top point guard, became Carolina's all-time leader in assist average with 7.96 per game and the ACC's career leader in assist-error ratio at 3.01. He is second in ACC history in assists per game and concluded his career eighth in UNC history in assists. Marshall recorded 10 or more assists 23 times.

As a sophomore he also earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and was a second-team All-ACC selection. He set the ACC single-season record for assists with 351, the fourth-most in NCAA history. He led the nation in assist-error ratio (3.5) and was second in assists per game (9.8). He established the ACC single-season record for highest assist average and had second-best assist-error ratio in ACC single-season history.

In 2011, he was a first-team Freshman All-America and was a third-team All-ACC after leading the ACC in assists with 6.2 per game.

Marshall was a high school All-America at Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Va., where he won the 2010 Virginia Independent Schools Division I championship.

THE CAROLINA WAY

PLAY HARD SMART TOGETHER

"When we were here, we were young and we had no idea what the world was about and how much you learn at Carolina. But it paved the way for me to accomplish what I've accomplished, both as a person and as a basketball player. It's all because of this university and that Carolina brotherhood."
— Antawn Jamison, National Player of the Year and NBA All-Star

KEVIN GUSKIEWICZ
CHANCELLOR

Kevin M. Guskiewicz, a neuroscientist, academic leader and concussion researcher, is the 12th chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Prior to his appointment as chancellor, Guskiewicz served as the interim chancellor from February 2019 until December 2019. In that role, he held over 25 listening and learning sessions with constituents across campus. He was instrumental in shaping Carolina's new strategic plan, Carolina Next: Innovations for Public Good that outlines a roadmap for the University's priorities moving forward. He relaunched the Tar Heel Bus Tour with 90 faculty and campus leaders, demonstrating UNC's commitment to the state.

A Kenan Distinguished Professor of Exercise and Sport Science, he has been a member of Carolina's faculty since 1995. He is co-director of the Matthew Gfeller Sport-Related Traumatic Brain Injury Research Center. Guskiewicz is a nationally recognized expert on sport-related concussions. He maintains an active research portfolio and is principal investigator or co-principal investigator on three active research grants totaling over $20 million. His groundbreaking work has garnered numerous awards and has influenced concussion guidelines in the NCAA and the NFL.

Prior to his appointment as interim chancellor in February 2019, Guskiewicz had served as dean of the College of Arts & Sciences – Carolina's largest academic institution – since January 2016. With more than 16,000 undergraduate students and 2,500 graduate students, Guskiewicz made interdisciplinary teaching and research a cornerstone of his tenure. He championed the use of high-structure active learning techniques, and Carolina is a national leader in implementing these highly effective educational strategies. He significantly increased study abroad, academic internships and other experiential learning opportunities for Carolina students and oversaw work on a major revamp of UNC-Chapel Hill's General Education curriculum.

In 2011, Guskiewicz received the prestigious MacArthur Fellowship (often called a "genius grant") for his innovative work on the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of sport-related concussions. In 2013, Time magazine named him a Game Changer, one of 18 "innovators and problem-solvers that are inspiring change in America."

Guskiewicz earned a B.S. in athletic training from West Chester University, M.S. in exercise physiology/athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh and Ph.D. in sports medicine from the University of Virginia. Born and raised in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, he lives with his wife Amy and children Jacob, Nathan, Adam and Tessa in Chapel Hill.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Since Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham officially began his duties as Carolina's director of athletics on November 14, 2011, UNC has graduated over 1000 student-athletes while consistently competing for championships in an array of different sports – exciting, motivating and influencing along the way. Under Cunningham's leadership, the athletic department has accomplished numerous academic and athletic achievements:

• The Tar Heels have won 13 national titles and 12 runner-up finishes.

• More than 2,700 student-athletes have made the ACC Academic Honor Roll -- which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the year – each of the past six years.

• More than 40 student-athletes have been named to Phi Beta Kappa honor society.

• Ten student-athletes have been NCAA Elite 90 recipients.

• Carolina's APR has steadily risen, and 15 teams scored a perfect 1000 in 2017-18. In 2018-19, nine teams received APR recognition, which marks the third consecutive year UNC has won the most recognition awards among public schools in the ACC and a first-place tie for the most teams honored among public schools in the Power 5 conferences.

• The Tar Heels finished in the top 10 of the NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup six times.

• And student-athletes have logged more than 40,000 hours of community service, helping at hospitals and local schools, and partnering with a variety of local and national groups.

Cunningham is in his 18th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa. He also served as Ball State University's Athletic Director from 2002-05.

Cunningham, who earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Notre Dame in 1984 and 1988, respectively, worked in his alma mater's athletics department from 1988-2002. A former member of the Irish golf team (1982-83), Cunningham served as Notre Dame's Associate Athletics Director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the Associate Director of Athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

Cunningham also has served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and LEAD1 conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four grown children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah, and daughter-in-law, Emily.

DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

Jeffrey Camarati

The 2020-21 season is the 36th in which the Tar Heels will play in the Dean E. Smith Center. UNC has played over 500 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of over 10 million fans. Carolina enters the 2020-21 season 426-80 in the Smith Center, a winning mark of 84.2 percent.

The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 32 of the last 33 seasons.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas, including naming the court after Roy Williams and upgrading the video boards in 2018. UNC completed full renovations of the lockerrooms, training room and the addition of a team video room and dining room prior to the 2016-17 season.

The building added a new ribbon board surrounding the court for the 2012-13 season. The basketball offices were overhauled and expanded in 2010.

The arena's lights and sound system were replaced and the training, weight and equipment rooms were expanded and renovated for 2009-10. A hydrotherapy room was added for the 2008-09 season.

In 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum opened in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium. The museum underwent a $1.5 million renovation in 2017.

In 2006-07, the seats in the lower level and upper level ring were replaced. The playing floor was completely refinished and refurbished for the 2007-08 campaign.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

"Every time I come in the Smith Center, I sneak a look up there every couple of minutes. I just have to make sure it's still up there, that the big number 33 is still hanging. When I see it up there, it takes me back to coming into Carolina with a bald head and a little mustache. Even at the time, you knew you were going to treasure those memories forever. When I was walking off the court the night of the alumni game (in 2009), I grabbed my son and took a second and pointed out that jersey with 'Jamison' on the banner. There are no words to describe what that felt like. I felt like I was showing him the past and the future all at the same time."

CAROLINA BASKETBALL TIMELINE
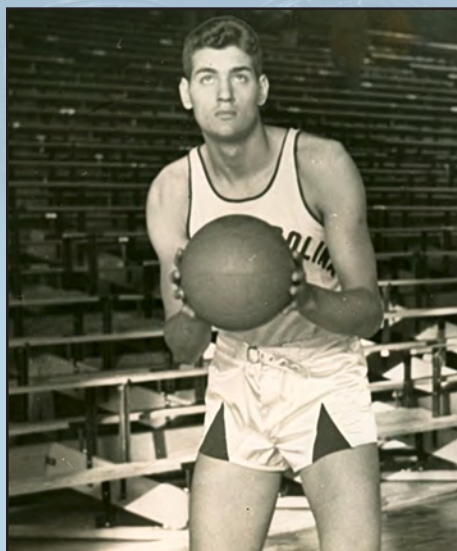

George Glamack won National Player of the Year honors in 1940 and '41.

Jan. 27, 1911: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game. Marvin "Philly" Ritch, considered the Father of UNC Basketball, is the team's first captain and leading scorer.

Feb. 22, 1913: Carolina plays the North Carolina College of Agricultural and Mechanic Arts (NC State) for the first time in any sport since 1906. The Tar Heels lost that first encounter, 26-18. The teams would not play again until the 1919 state championship.

Dec. 29, 1913: Meb Long, UNC's first great scorer, scored 23 points in a win over the Charlotte YMCA. Long became the first Tar Heel to score 20 points in a game. Two weeks earlier, Meb and Cyrus Long became the first brothers to play basketball for UNC.

Feb. 19, 1914: Ben Edwards plays for Guilford in a 38-13 UNC victory. Earlier in the year, Edwards played in six games for Carolina, thus becoming the first and only player to play for and against the Tar Heels in the same season.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA wins 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history.

Jan. 24, 1920: Billy Carmichael scored 16 points in a 36-25 win over Trinity in the first-ever basketball game between the two schools located eight miles apart. Carmichael led the team in scoring in 1919-20 (10.8 ppg) and was later the University's controller and acting president. Carmichael Auditorium is named in his honor.

Feb. 26, 1921: Cartwright Carmichael scored 15 points in a win over Virginia and sets UNC's single-season scoring record, surpassing Meb Long and ending the year with 286 points.

Feb. 28, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald lead UNC to a 40-26 win over Mercer for the Southern Conference Tournament title.

Feb. 29, 1924: En route to an undefeated season the Tar Heels play and beat Kentucky for the first time, a 41-20 win in the first round of the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta. Jack "Sprat" Cobb scored 17 points.

March 4, 1924: Jack Cobb's 15 points almost single-handedly outscores Alabama in a 26-16 win in the Southern Conference title game. UNC finishes 26-0 and the Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions. Cobb leads all scorers with a single-season school record 353 points. Cobb, Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald combine to average 28 of UNC's 36.9 points per game.

Jan. 24, 1925: John Purser scores 10 points to lead UNC to a 25-21 win at Duke's Memorial Gymnasium. It was the first game ever played between North Carolina and Duke as the school formerly known as Trinity changed its name less than four weeks prior to the game.

Feb. 12, 1925: Head cheerleader Vic Huggins introduces Rameses, the school's first ram mascot, at halftime of UNC's 28-27 loss to South Carolina.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the Southern Conference Tournament.

Feb. 27, 1932: Virgil Weathers' basket with less than 30 seconds to play gives Carolina a 43-42 win over Adolph Rupp's top-seeded Kentucky in the second round of the Southern Conference Tournament. It would prove to be the final time the two schools played one another as members of the same conference.

1933-34: The first season in which Carolina wore numbers on its jerseys. Also, Dave McCachren was captain, marking the first of four brothers from Charlotte (Jim 1936, Bill 1939 and George 1943) to captain the team.

Jan. 15, 1936: NYU beats the Tar Heels, 55-33, in Carolina's first game in Madison Square Garden.

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 95 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run was the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continued to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated and received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the ESPY Awards. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007. In November 2013, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the U.S.

He received the Naismith Good Sportsmanship Award in 2011. Upon the announcement of that honor, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski said, "Dean set the standard for basketball – and not just college basketball – that everyone is still trying to reach. He demanded that his teams play as one. And what he got in return from all these guys who played for him was the intense loyalty that they feel toward him. And that's something I've admired since I started coaching. It's really one of the great things in all of sport: that intense loyalty the Tar Heel players have for Coach Smith."

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say:

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the gold medal against a group of improving international teams.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack, but he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a man-to-man, pressure to speed up the action.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents did not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who went on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith also coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

When he retired, Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories. In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well— 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Smith died on February 7, 2015, in Chapel Hill.

Carolina won a classic 1982 ACC title game over Ralph Sampson and Virginia in Greensboro.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was MVP.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was named MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

1968

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Dick Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at in-termission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Naismith Hall of Famer Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP.

1975

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

1982

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Virginia's Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as UNC prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win. Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Rick Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, Freshman and ACC Tournament MVP Phil Ford cuts the nets in Greensboro in 1975.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine boards to lead UNC past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

1997

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

2008

Carolina beat Florida State, Virginia Tech and Clemson to win the 2008 ACC title, its second in a row and an ACC-record 17th overall. The Tar Heels have won back-to-back ACC Tournament titles five times — 1967-68, 1968-69, 1981-82, 1997-98 and 2007-08.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrendering the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in the only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

UNC 87, Davidson 85
March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71
January 19, 1974

The Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils on a last-second shot at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Tar Heels rallied to tie the score and Duke had the ball at half-court with four seconds left. Bobby Jones stole the inbounds pass and hit an off-balance lay-up with one second left to give Carolina a 73-71 win.

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT)
March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to

Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, N.C. State 69
January 17, 1979

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT)
November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63
February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74
January 9, 1985

Lefty Driesell's Maryland Terrapins seemed poised to knock off Carolina at Carmichael Auditorium. The Terps led 72-69 with 23 seconds left and Keith Gatlin on the line for a one-and-one. Dave Popson provided the winning points with a high-arcing jumper with nine seconds to play. Curtis Hunter's steal and free throws secured the win.

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58
March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

Walter Davis (No. 24, at right) capped an eight-point comeback in the final 17 seconds of regulation with this 25-foot shot at the buzzer on March 2, 1974. Carolina went on to defeat Duke, 96-92, in overtime.

The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

The Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 UC lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Final Four MVP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.

UNC vs. Clemson
2007-08 Regular Season

Carolina beat Clemson in a pair of close games during the 2007-08 regular season. In the first meeting on Jan. 6, 2008, in Clemson, Wayne Ellington hit a three-pointer with 0.4 seconds remaining in overtime to give UNC a 90-88 win. Ellington scored a career-high 36 points in the game, connecting on five three-pointers. The final shot by Ellington marked UNC's first late game-winner since David Noel rattled in a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left on Nov. 19, 2005, to beat Gardner-Webb in the Smith Center and marked Carolina's first overtime win under head coach Roy Williams.

In the return matchup in Chapel Hill on Feb. 10, Tyler Hansbrough scored 13 of his 39 points in the two overtime periods as Carolina rallied from 15 points down to beat the Tigers, 103-93, in double overtime. The Tar Heels trailed by 11 points with 3:12 left to play in regulation before scoring nine straight points to cut the lead to 79-77. Quentin Thomas hit a driving layup to force the first overtime and UNC eventually won in the second extra stanza.

UNC 80, Florida State 77
Jan. 28, 2009

Ty Lawson sank a game-winning three-pointer as time expired to beat Florida State, 80-77, in Tallahassee in a game in which UNC led by 11 at the half, but trailed by as many as five with less than seven minutes to play. Danny Green's steal and three-point play tied the game at 77 with 1:12

Marvin Williams' three-point play clinched the 2005 win over Duke.

Bob Donnan

to play, then Tyler Hansbrough forced a turnover by Toney Douglas with 3.2 seconds remaining. Hansbrough inbounded the ball to Lawson, who raced from his own free throw line to just outside the top of the key before launching a floater that found the bottom of the net as the buzzer rang.

2011 ACC Tournament

The Tar Heels trailed by 19 points against Miami in the quarterfinals but rallied for a 61-59 win on a buzzer-beating layup by Tyler Zeller after a drive and pass from freshman point guard Kendall Marshall. It was the largest comeback by UNC in ACC Tournament history. The Hurricanes led, 53-34, with 9:51 to play but Carolina scored 27 of the final 33 points.

The next day, fourth-seeded Clemson led the #1 seed Tar Heels, 38-28, at the half before UNC rallied again for a 92-87 win in overtime. The 10-point halftime deficit is the largest Carolina has ever overcome to win at the ACC Tournament. Harrison Barnes scored 40 points, including 14 in overtime, to tie the ACC freshman scoring record and set a record for freshman scoring in an ACC Tournament game.

UNC 85, N.C. State 84
February 26, 2014

Marcus Paige scored 31 of his 35 points in the second half and overtime including a coast-to-coast game-winning layup with 0.9 seconds to play. Paige outdueled eventual ACC Player of the Year T.J. Warren, who led the Pack with 36. UNC trailed by double digits in the first half and by six points both late in regulation and in extra time. Paige hit seven threes and J.P. Tokoto had 16 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC 75, Kentucky 73
March 26, 2017

Luke Maye came off the bench to score a career-high 17 points and hit the game-winning jumper with 0.3 seconds left to beat Kentucky, 75-73, in the NCAA South Regional championship in Memphis. The Tar Heels avenged a 103-

100 defeat to the Wildcats earlier in the season. The teams came into the game with a combined 244 NCAA Tournament wins, most ever by two teams in an NCAA Tournament game. All-America forward Justin Jackson led all scorers with 19 points and Kennedy Meeks grabbed a career-best 17 rebounds. Kentucky's Malik Monk tied the game with seven seconds to play on a three-pointer, but Meeks quickly got the ball inbounds to Theo Pinson, who raced upcourt and fed Maye. His 19-footer from the left wing sent UNC to its record 20th Final Four.

Luke Maye's jumper beat Kentucky and sent Carolina to the 2017 NCAA Final Four.

COACHING HISTORY & RECORDS

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

UNC COACHING RECORD
164-58, nine seasons

EDUCATION
✓ St. John's '36

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Is the only coach in history to win ACC championships at two different schools.
✓ Is a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame
✓ Coached Carolina to the 1957 NCAA championship
✓ Was a three-time national coach of the year.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

HEAD COACHING RECORD
80-28, three seasons

EDUCATION
✓ B.S., Mathematics Kansas State '60
✓ M.A., Education Kansas State '63

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Won more games (58) in his first two years than any coach in NCAA history and shares the NCAA record for most wins by a three-year coach (80).
✓ Was just the second coach in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach.
✓ Was the consensus national coach of the year in 1997-98.
✓ Was a part of 14 Final Fours, including one as a player, 11 as an assistant coach and two as a head coach.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins while on the staff at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98. That season, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

Dan Sears
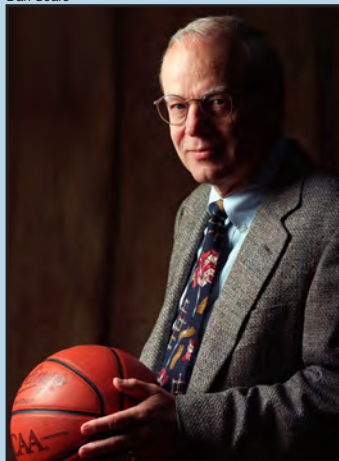

He coached 1998 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1999 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

In 2013, he was inducted into the N.C. Sports Hall of Fame. Guthridge died in May 2015.
