Numbers To Know

66

The 2023 campaign marks the 66th varsity season in North Carolina men's lacrosse history. After starting the program in 1949, the program would be relegated to a club program beginning in 1955, but would be reinstated as a varsity program prior to the 1964 campaign.

147

Through his 14 seasons as the leader in Chapel Hill, head coach Joe Breschi sits at a program best 147 wins at UNC. In his 25 seasons as a head coach thus far, Breschi sits at 239 career wins, fifth best among active Division I coaches.

25

Following the loss of 11 letterwinners from a season ago, the Tar Heels return 34.1 percent of point production from 2022. Most notably graduated in NCAA career point leader Chris Gray's 80-points (48-32).

10

North Carolina has won 25-straight season opening contests, a streak that started on Feb. 26, 1999 against Colgate. The last time UNC did not win the season opener was Feb. 22, 1998, a one-goal loss against Butler, 13-12.

15

This season marks year 15 for head coach Joe Breschi at the helm of the Tar Heels. A 1990 graduate and four-year member of the Tar Heel program, Breschi became the 12th head coach in program history on June 18, 2008.

34.1

Following the loss of 11 letterwinners from a season ago, the Tar Heels return 34.1 percent of point production from 2022. Most notably graduated in NCAA career point leader Chris Gray's 80-points (48-32).

21

The shakeup of the 2023 roster includes 21 new faces representing the Heels, including 15 freshmen and six graduate transfers.

#39 Collin Krieg

Junior goalkeeper Collin Krieg has anchored the Tar Heel defense thus far in 2023. The Stony Brook, N.Y. native holds a 5.71 goals against average, as Krieg stopped 14 shots in the Carolina victory over No. 9 Johns Hopkins Tuesday night.

The Last Time We Met

Ohio State 20, North Carolina 8

Feb. 19, 2022 | Chapel Hill, N.C.

- A big third quarter from the visitors put the No. 4 North Carolina men's lacrosse team in a hole as the fourth-ranked Tar Heels dropped their first game of the season, 20-8, to Ohio State Saturday afternoon.

- Chris Gray led North Carolina with three goals and four assists. Nicky Solomon and Jacob Kelly notched two goals, while Harrison Schertzinger added a goal and an assist.

- The first quarter was back and forth as both teams traded goals. The Buckeyes would score a goal with a minute to go in the first to tie it a two. Ohio State quickly scored back-to-back goals in the second quarter to go up 5-3. The Tar Heels would claw back as Jacob Kelly scored a last-second goal to make it a 6-5 Ohio State lead going into the break.

- Ohio State would record four of the next six goals to start the second half. The Buckeyes would then reel off seven unanswered goals to take a 17-7 lead with 9:50 left in the game. Jacob Kelly would score the Tar Heels last goal of the game before Ohio State scored three straight to end the game.

Scouting Ohio State

• The Buckeyes enter Sunday afternoon at 2-0 on the year, defeating Air Force (15-7) and in-state foe Cleveland State (19-12) to begin the 2023 campaign.

• One of the best players in the country, Jack Myers (5 G, 7 A) leads the Buckeye offense through two games, with Ed Shean (7 G, 1 A) as OSU's top goal scorer.

• Ohio State has had four different faces at the faceoff X this year, with Drew Blanchard leading the way with 34 wins.

• Between the pipes, Sylar Wahlund has both wins on the season, allowing just 13 goals through two games, averaging 7 saves per game.

Tuesday Night at Homewood

• The Tar Heels collected a key non-conference win Tuesday night at historic Homewood Field, defeating No. 9 Johns Hopkins, 11-7.

• After falling behind 6-3 after the opening half, UNC outscored the Blue Jays 8-1 in the second half to secure the victory.

• Four Tar Heels scored two goals and go-keeper Collin Krieg stopped 14 shots in the win.

Breschi Returns To Columbus

• Tar Heel head coach Joe Breschi returns to the Buckeye State this weekend, to face a program he once led.

• Breschi was the head man in Columbus from 1998-2008, winning 98 games during his 11 seasons as a Buckeye.

• Named the GWLL Coach of the Year three times (1999, 2003, 2004), Breschi helped lead Ohio State to four GWLL regular season titles (1999, 2003, 2004, 2008).

Breschi And Myers History

• Buckeye head coach Nick Myers served as an assistant under head coach Joe Breschi at Ohio State in two stints.

• Myers served as a volunteer assistant for two seasons (2002-03), returning to Columbus as the offensive coordinator for Breschi's final three years at OSU (2006-08).

• In 2003, Myers was apart of the staff who helped Ohio State to their first NCAA Tournament appearance.

• In 2008, Myers helped guide the Buckeyes offense to a share of the GWLL title, winning the first NCAA Tournament victory for the program. The team finished the third third in scoring offense (13.2 goals per game).

Year Five in Chapel Hill

• Graduate students Evan Egan, Connor Maher, Harrison Schertzinger and Henry Schertzinger enter year five representing the Tar Heels.

• The group are utilizing their extra year of athletic eligibility granted by the NCAA, in result of the COVID-19 pandemic, which forced the 2020 season to halt.

Transfer Production

• Graduate transfers Griffin Gallagher (Gettysburg), Andrew Geppert (Brown), Sean Goldsmith (Mercer), Logan McGovern (Bryant), JT Roselle (Marist), Harry Wellford (Bucknell) arrive in Chapel Hill for the 2023 campaign.

• The group are using their extra year of athletic eligibility granted by the NCAA, in result of the COVID-19 pandemic, which forced the 2020 season to halt.

• The six have combined for 219 games in their collegiate career, which includes 184 contests started.

• The grad transfer combined statistical production includes:

- 245 goals
- 148 assists
- 393 points
- 343 groundballs
- 131 caused turnovers

• Additionally, the following career records were broken by Sean Goldsmith and JT Roselle at their previous institutions:

- Goldsmith: Goals (111), Assists (43) and Points (154)
- Roselle: Caused Turnovers (59)

Tar Heel Family Tree

• There are five sets of brothers on this year's roster, including four sets of twins:

- Dewey and Evan Egan - Brothers
- Dominic and Nick Pietramala - Twins
- Alec and Graham Riddle - Twins
- Harrison and Henry Schertzinger - Twins
- Johnny and Tyler Schwarz - Twins

It's In the Genes

• A total of 8 members on this year's team had parents who played lacrosse collegiately, including two who had both parents play the sport in college.

• Ryan Levy and Caden Whaling had both parents play lacrosse in college.

• 13 Tar Heels have siblings who've played lacrosse in college, including Leif Hagerup, who's two sisters played lacrosse at Virginia and Brown, and brother played lacrosse at Fairfield.

Head Coach Joe Breschi

Joe Breschi's coaching philosophy is summed up in three words....

FAMILY • ACADEMICS • LACROSSE

Breschi has installed his philosophy at every level of the program and its outreach to alumni, student-athletes, their families, and the Chapel Hill community. Carolina men's lacrosse is achieving at the highest levels on the field, in the classroom, and in the community. The credit for that goes to Breschi, one of the sharpest minds in collegiate coaching circles.

Breschi enters his 15th year as the head coach of Carolina's men's lacrosse program in 2022-23.

Following the 2016 and 2017 campaigns, the words "big winner" were added to the resume. Breschi always had successful programs at Ohio State and UNC, but on Memorial Day weekend 2016, he took the Tar Heel program to heights it had not achieved since 1991 – the NCAA championship.

In December 2018, he signed his first-ever long-term contract at Carolina, inking a deal with athletic director Bubba Cunningham for an additional five-year tenure as the Tar Heels' head mentor.

Breschi, a 1990 Carolina alumnus and former assistant coach for the Tar Heels, became the 12th head lacrosse coach in Carolina history on June 18, 2008. Breschi came to Chapel Hill from Ohio State, where he had served as the head coach for the previous 11 seasons. Young men pursuing college lacrosse careers and college degrees want to play for a man with the character of Breschi. A solid recruiter, excellent tactician, and tremendous communicator, Breschi and his staff know they have put the Tar Heel program on sound footing talent-wise. The Tar Heel players have also achieved at high levels in the classroom being community service leaders.

A native of Baltimore and a 1986 alumnus of Loyola-Blakefield School, Breschi compiled a 92-63 record in his 11 years at OSU along with a 34-18 regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League mark. The Buckeyes shared GWLL regular-season titles in 1999, 2003, and 2008 and won the conference championship outright in 2004. The Buckeyes had seven winning seasons in Breschi's last eight years and made NCAA Tournament appearances in 2003, 2004, and 2008. Taking over a non-scholarship program in 1997, Breschi built the OSU program to prominence from scratch. Along the way, OSU had three double-figure winning seasons, going 10-3 in 1999, 12-4 in 2004, and 11-6 in 2008, when the program had the most significant wins in its history.

Breschi was one of the finest lacrosse players in the history of the ACC while playing for UNC from 1987-90. He was an All-ACC selection in 1989 and 1990 and was selected to play in the prestigious USILA North-South All-Star game in 1990. He was a first-team All-America pick on defense in 1990 and an honorable mention All-America in 1989. He was elected the sole team captain in 1990. Carolina has elected a single captain only three times since 1981, including Breschi's senior year.

After leading the Tar Heels his senior season to the NCAA semifinals and an ACC title, Breschi was selected as UNC's nominee for the 1990 Anthony J. McKevlin Award, given annually to the outstanding male athlete in the ACC. In 2002, Breschi was named to the prestigious ACC 50th Anniversary Men's Lacrosse Team, honoring the Top 50 players in league history. He was a member of U.S. National Teams that played in the World Lacrosse Games in 1994 and 1998. Breschi earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from Carolina in 1990. He was a member of two U.S. National Teams (1994 and 1998).

Breschi and his wife Julie have five children, the late Michael Breschi, and four daughters, Sam, Abby, Lucy, and Emily.
