Tar Heel Sports Properties is UNC's longstanding athletics multimedia rightsholder. The Chapel Hill-based staff works in complete collaboration with the University and is entirely dedicated to extending the passion and affinity of the Tar Heel brand. This team manages all aspects of the comprehensive rights relationship and working with local, regional and national businesses on how they can extend their own brand visibility by partnering with the Heels. Some of the many ways businesses can align with the Tar Heels are through event sponsorship and promotion; venue signage; corporate hospitality; radio and television; digital engagement and visibility via the official athletics, GoHeels.com.

All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Mack Brown Live" call in show heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

Listeners can also tune in to the "Carolina Insider" podcast, a popular biweekly podcast hosted by Jones Angell and Adam Lucas focusing on all things Carolina athletics.

"Inside Carolina Athletics," is a half-hour television program seen each week on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

MACK BROWN

HEAD COACH
15TH YEAR AT UNC
(1988-97, 2019-PRESENT)

Mack Brown, whose charismatic style and disciplined approach propelled the University of North Carolina to the Top Five and the University of Texas to the 2005 BCS National Championship, began his second stint as head coach in Chapel Hill on Nov. 27, 2018.

A 45-year veteran of collegiate coaching, Brown has served as a head coach for 34 seasons with stops at Texas (1998-2013), North Carolina (1988-97, 2019-22), Tulane (1985-87), and Appalachian State (1983). Over his 34 seasons, Brown has posted a record of 274-144-1 (.655). Those 274 career victories rank eighth on the FBS all-time list and are the second most among active coaches. The 2005 Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year and the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Brown is one of a handful of coaches in college football history to lead two separate programs to Top-Five national finishes.

During Brown's fourth season in his return to Chapel Hill, UNC won nine games, was the ACC Coastal Division Champions, and qualified for the Holiday Bowl, the Tar Heels fourth consecutive bowl trip. Carolina won nine games for just the second time since Brown's first stint in Chapel Hill with 2015 being the other occurrence. It was UNC's sixth nine-win season since 1982 with Brown-led teams accounting for five of them. Carolina also produced a major turnaround on the road. The Heels went 6-0 in true road games for the first time in school history. UNC and TCU were the only schools across the country with six road wins. The six consecutive road wins are currently tied for the second longest active streak in the nation. The Heels produced two All-Americans in WR Josh Downs and LB Cedric Gray to go along with 11 All-ACC honors. QB Drake Maye claimed numerous conference honors including ACC Player of the Year and went on to be named National Freshman of the Year by both the Maxwell Award and the FWAA. Brown mentored four NFL Draft Picks in the 2022 NFL Draft, bringing UNC's total to 11 during his second stint, which is the most of any ACC school. UNC continued to recruit at a high level, producing another Top-25 signing class, while supplementing that with a strong group of nine transfers.

In year three of his return, Brown led the Tar Heels to their third consecutive bowl game, which hadn't happened since 2016 and occurred only one other time since his departure in 1997. Carolina snapped a four-game losing streak to Virginia, defeated Miami for the third consecutive season, and defeated a Top-10 opponent at home for the first time since 2004. UNC saw five of its Tar Heels selected in the 2021 NFL Draft with three of players going in the first three rounds. Carolina signed the No. 8 recruiting class in the country, the school's highest-ranked recruiting class in the internet era. Academically, Carolina produced the program's highest single-year APR score, a 997, which was 23 points higher than the previous best. The team also earned the program's two highest GPAs over the previous three semesters.

Brown completed a remarkable turnaround in year two of his return to Carolina, leading the Tar Heels from two wins in 2018 to the Orange Bowl in 2020. Carolina, which went 8-4, spent much of the season ranked in the Top 25, finishing the regular season at No. 13 in the College Football Playoff rankings and ending the year ranked 18th in the AP Poll and 17th in the Coaches Poll. This marked just the second time since Brown's departure in 1997 that Carolina finished a season in the Top 25. Under his guidance, Carolina produced four All-Americans, 13 All-ACC selections, a Top-15 recruiting class and averaged a 3.0 GPA over the spring and fall semesters.

In his first season back at the helm at North Carolina in 2019, Brown led the Tar Heels to a winning season and a resounding victory in the Military Bowl. The seven wins were two more than UNC had won in its previous two seasons combined (5) and the Heels won a bowl game for the first time since 2013. Carolina played close games seemingly all season. Its nine games decided by seven points or less were the most since 1936 and the Tar Heels' six losses came by a total of just 26 points. Brown's '19 UNC squad produced two NFL Draft picks, five NFL free-agent signees, 11 All-ACC honors and freshman QB Sam Howell was named ACC Offensive Rookie and Rookie of the Year before earning Freshman All-America honors.

Prior to returning to Carolina, Brown served as both a college football studio analyst and color analyst for ESPN.

At the completion of his Texas tenure in 2013, Brown was one of just four active coaches to reach the 200-victory plateau. He was also one of only two coaches nationally to lead his teams to 21 bowls in 22 seasons, and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in the previous 24 years. His 225 wins from 1990 to 2013, which combined the last eight years of his first stint at UNC and his entire Texas tenure, were the most of any coach in the country.

As a result, Brown was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2018. He was the eighth Tar Heel to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and the third coach. In addition to the College Football Hall of Fame, Brown is also a member of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Longhorn Hall of Honor, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame and the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame.

Brown has also succeeded in preparing his student-athletes for the next level. In the 34 NFL Drafts during Brown's time as a head coach, the NFL has picked 141 of his student-athletes, and at least one was selected in 29 straight drafts. In fact, Brown has had a player selected in the NFL Draft in 32 of his 34 drafts as a head coach. He had 20 players selected in the first round of the draft from 1998 to 2013. At Carolina, Brown has mentored 67 Tar Heels who have heard their names called in the NFL Draft, including 28 in the first three rounds.

With all of the success on the field, the primary emphasis has remained the same with Brown's squads -- maintaining a high level of achievement in the classroom and in the community. Eighty percent of his players at North Carolina received their degrees and he increased the pace at Texas, while more than a third of his players at UT regularly earned 3.0 grade point averages and achieved spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's and Athletics Director's Honor Rolls. During his second stint at Carolina, the program has produced the three highest single-year APR rates over the last three seasons (984 in 2021-22, 1,000 in 2020-21 and 997 in 2019-20) and the program's highest-ever multi-year APR rate at 982. UNC is one of just 10 Power 5 football programs to achieve a 984 APR or better over the last two years. In addition, Brown's players have earned the highest annual GPAs in over a decade leading to 97 Tar Heels earning their degrees over the last four years.

At UNC, Brown recruited and coached several of the finest players in school history. From his 1997 squad alone, DE Greg Ellis (No. 8, Dallas Cowboys), LB Brian Simmons (No. 17, Cincinnati Bengals) and DT Vonnie Holliday (No. 19, Green Bay Packers) were selected among the first 19 picks in the 1998 NFL Draft.

Along with that trio of first-rounders, Brown also helped develop several other Tar Heel standouts. CB Dré Bly, was a three-time All-American who recorded an ACC-record 20 interceptions during his career and played 11 seasons in the NFL. Corey Holliday, who currently serves as UNC's Associate A.D. for Football Administration, finished his career as the leading receiver in Carolina history, was a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete, and is a former member of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dwight Hollier, who currently serves as UNC's Senior Associate A.D. for Student-Athlete Health, Well-Being & Program Outreach, made more than 500 tackles during his Carolina career and also played in the NFL. RB Natrone Means, who is currently an offensive analyst on staff, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in his final two seasons at UNC and went on to lead the San Diego Chargers to Super Bowl XXIX and the Jacksonville Jaguars to the 1996 AFC title game.

QBs Jason Stanicek and Mike Thomas combined to rewrite Carolina's passing and total offense records. DT Marcus Jones, a consensus first-team All-American, earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1995. CB Thomas Smith came to UNC in 1989 as a walk-on from a small high school in North Carolina and departed as a first-round pick of the AFC Champion Buffalo Bills. RB Leon Johnson, one of the premier all-purpose offensive threats in ACC history, played eight seasons in the NFL. TE Freddie Jones, a second-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1997, was one of the NFL's top pass-catching tight ends and played eight seasons in the NFL.

During his 10 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels featured a Lombardi Award finalist, a two-time Thorpe Award finalist, a Butkus Award finalist and semifinalist, 16 All-Americans, 34 first-team All-ACC selections, an ACC Defensive Player of the Year and an ACC Rookie of the Year. Brown also helped his players with professional aspirations as 38 of his Tar Heels heard their names called in the NFL Draft, including 16 in the first three rounds. In addition to the three first-rounders in 1998, Marcus Jones (Tampa Bay Buccaneers '96) and Thomas Smith (Buffalo Bills '93) were first-round selections; Freddie Jones (San Diego Chargers '97), Rick Terry (New York Jets '97), Bucky Brooks (Buffalo Bills '94) and Natrone Means (San Diego Chargers '93) were second-round picks; and James Hamilton (Jacksonville Jaguars '97), William Henderson (Green Bay Packers '95), Jimmy Hitchcock (New England Patriots '95), Rondell Jones (Denver Broncos '93), Brian Bollinger (San Francisco 49ers '92), Kevin Donnalley (Houston Texans '91) and Darrell Hamilton (Denver Broncos '89) were chosen in the third round.

In 1988, Brown took over a North Carolina program that had suffered two losing seasons in its previous three years and three non-winning seasons in its previous four years. While rebuilding the foundation, Brown's Carolina squads posted back-to-back 1-10 seasons in 1988 and '89. In 1990, Carolina was 6-4-1 and UNC began a run of eight consecutive winning seasons and six straight bowl game appearances. Carolina's 54-18 (.750) record during his last six years ranked as the ninth-best nationally during that period.

The first campaign in that six-year run was the 1992 season that saw Carolina go 9-3, finish No. 19/18 in the polls and beat Mississippi St. in the Peach Bowl, its first bowl victory in 10 seasons. The Tar Heels posted victories over three ranked teams and closed the year winning five of its last six games. Means earned third-team All-America honors, racking up 1,195 yards and 13 TDs behind third-team All-America center Randall Parsons. Means, Parsons and punter Mike Thomas earned first-team All-ACC honors, while current co-defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Tommy Thigpen, DE Rondell Jones, OT Curtis Parker, and DB Bracey Walker claimed second-team honors.

The Tar Heels followed up the late run in 1992 with the first 10-win season of Brown's tenure in '93. Carolina earned a berth in the Gator Bowl and finished the year 10-3 and ranked No. 19/21 in the polls. Walker earned first-team All-America recognition for his play in the secondary, and the Heels had 14 All-ACC selections, the most for any Carolina team up to that point since the advent of All-ACC teams in 1953. In addition, Johnson was named league Rookie of the Year after posting 1,012 yards rushing and 14 TDs.

After going 8-4 in 1994 and 7-5 in '95, Brown revamped both sides of the ball and it led to the two most impressive seasons of his 10-year run. He compiled a 20-3 (.870) mark over the '96 and '97 seasons and posted two top-10 finishes.

Brown's '96 squad went 10-2, beat No. 25 West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, and finished the season ranked 10th in both polls. The Carolina defense led the nation in points allowed, was second in total defense, and third against both the run and pass. Offensively, the Tar Heels established school records for passing touchdowns, produced an all-conference quarterback for the first time in 22 years, had a record four receivers with 30 or more catches, and Johnson posted over 900 yards and scored 10 TDs. Brown was named the ACC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award.

UNC finished tied for second in the ACC and won on the road at both Syracuse and Houston. The Orangemen were ranked No. 9 in the country at the time and finished the year in a tie for the Big East Championship. Carolina held the Liberty Bowl-bound Cougars to more than 200 yards below their season average and passed for a school-record-tying five TDs. The Tar Heels held Florida State to its lowest point total in four years and lowest yardage mark in 10 years in a tightly contested battle against the nation's then No. 1-ranked team in Tallahassee.

Johnson set the ACC career record for all-purpose yards and Carolina marks for TDs and overall scoring. QB Chris Keldorf set numerous UNC passing marks and threw the fifth-most touchdown passes in ACC single-season history. Bly led the nation and set the ACC single-season record for INTs en route to first-team All-America and Thorpe Award Trophy (nation's top defensive back) finalist honors. Ellis was named a second-team All-American, while Simmons was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and a second-team All-American. TE Freddie Jones earned third-team All-America honors that year.

In 1997, Carolina posted a No. 4 final ranking in the USA Today/ESPN poll and a No. 6 ranking by the AP. Brown led Carolina to a 10-1 regular-season record, a second-place finish in the ACC, and a berth in the Gator Bowl, a game the Heels won under Carl Torbush.

Carolina started the year reeling off eight consecutive wins and soaring to No. 5 in the nation. UNC averaged almost 30 points per game, while holding opponents to just over 12 heading into a showdown with No. 3 Florida St. The Heels weren't able to break through against the Seminoles, but they rebounded to beat Clemson and Duke and secure the third 10-win season of Brown's tenure.

The defense was nearly impenetrable in '97, allowing just 13 points (No. 5 NCAA) and 209.3 yards per game (No. 2 NCAA). The unit produced three first-team All-Americans in Bly, Ellis and Simmons, along with LB Kivuusama Mays, who earned third-team honors. Bly was a finalist for both the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player) and the Thorpe Award, and Ellis was tabbed a finalist for the Lombardi Award (outstanding college lineman). Both Mays and Simmons were recognized by the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) with Mays being a finalist and Simmons a semifinalist. In total, Carolina notched 10 All-ACC honors, seven on defense and three on offense.

Following the '97 regular season, Brown was hired to be the head coach of the Texas Longhorns on Dec. 4, 1997 and spent the next 16 seasons in Austin (1998-2013). With a mark at Texas of 158-48 (.767), the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year and the 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year elevated the Longhorns program to new heights. During his tenure, the Longhorns won the 2005 BCS National Championship and two conference titles, while winning or sharing Big 12 South Division titles six times. Brown's 158 wins at Texas were the fourth-most in the nation from 1998-2013.

Brown took over a UT program that managed at least 10 wins just three times in the 16 years prior to his arrival in 1998, but did so nine times in his 16 seasons, including a streak of nine consecutive that is the third-longest in NCAA history. Brown also led the Longhorns to six seasons of at least 11 wins.

Under Brown, Texas won nine of its last 12 bowl games and had a 10-5 record overall, including a UT record streak of 12 consecutive bowl appearances. In the 16 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to nine bowls and was 2-7. The 10 bowl wins are the most in Texas history, eclipsing Darrell Royal's eight. In addition, the streak included a BCS National Championship, another BCS National Championship Game appearance and three BCS Bowl wins.

During Brown's tenure in Austin, the Horns finished the year ranked in the Top 15 for 10 straight seasons from 2000-09. They also had seven Top-10 finishes and five Top-Five rankings. Prior to Brown's arrival, the last time Texas had finished the year in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, from 1998-2013, Texas led the nation in all-time appearances in the BCS rankings with 104, ahead of both Oklahoma (100) and Florida (92).

Brown's 12 consecutive seasons of at least nine wins were a UT first, as were his three back-to-back 11-win campaigns (2001-02, 2004-05, 2008-09), nine 10-victory seasons in a row, and three 12-win seasons (2005, '08, '09). UT produced a streak of Top 25 finishes for 12 years in a row, a first since the Horns earned eight final Top 25 rankings in a row from 1968-75. The Longhorns also created a streak of 10 straight Top-13 finishes, which is a UT record. The Horns claimed or shared the Big 12 South Division title six times over a 12-year period (1998-2009), including four conference championship game berths and two Big 12 titles.

During his 16 seasons, the Longhorns featured a Heisman Trophy winner, two runners-up and a third-place finisher, three Maxwell Award winners, three WCFF Player of the Year Award winners, two Doak Walker Award winners, two Thorpe Award winners, two Nagurski Trophy winners, two O'Brien Award winners, two Hendricks Award winners, a Butkus Award winner, a Lombardi Award winner, two Manning Award winners, two Draddy/Campbell Trophy winners, a Wuerffel Trophy winner, a Disney Spirit Award winner, a FWAA Armed Forces Merit Award winner, 54 All-Americans, 73 first-team All-Big 12 selections, five Big 12 Offensive Players of the Year, six Big 12 Defensive Players of the Year and 12 Big 12 Freshman of the Year honorees.

Defensively, Brown transformed a unit that ranked 85th nationally in total defense in 1997 into a group that led the nation in total defense and led the Big 12 in rushing, passing and scoring defense in 2001. That came on the heels of a pair of seasons that saw UT rank sixth nationally in total defense in 1999 and seventh in 2000. The 2008 defense also led the Big 12 in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense (third NCAA), while the 2009 unit led the nation in rushing defense and was third in total defense. In 2011, Texas again led the Big 12 in almost every major statistical category, including total defense (11th NCAA), rushing defense (sixth NCAA), pass efficiency defense (10th NCAA) and pass defense, while finishing second in scoring defense by just .15 points per game.

During his tenure, Texas led the Big 12 in scoring defense three times, in total defense seven times, including four of his final six years, and rushing defense seven times, including five of his last eight seasons. The aggressive defensive style of the Brown era saw the Horns significantly increase their production in sacks, tackles for loss and turnovers forced, leading the Big 12 in each of those categories in 2012. In 2008, Texas led the nation in sacks and then tied for second in 2009, a year it also led the nation in turnovers gained and interceptions.

On offense, the Longhorns set 138 school records and featured the school's only 3,000-yard passers, 2,000-yard rusher, 1,000-yard receivers and 1,000-yard passer/rusher in a season. In 2008, Quan Cosby and Jordan Shipley combined to become the first duo in school history and just the 11th in NCAA history to each have 85-plus catches and 1,000-plus receiving yards in the same season. UT became just the second team in NCAA Division I-A history to boast a 2,000-yard rusher and passer as well as a 1,000-yard receiver in 1998. Brown became just the third head coach in NCAA Division I-A history to lead a player to a 3,000-yard passing season, a 2,000-yard rushing season and a 1,000-yard receiving season.

Texas also re-established its home field advantage and, as a result, dominance under Brown. In his 16 seasons, the Longhorns increased their season ticket sales by nearly 45,000, up to a school-best 84,071 in 2010, set school attendance records while playing in front of sellout crowds in 74 of his final 84 home games, and attracted the top 33 crowds in UT history. With a full house on hand, UT went 80-17 in games at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium, including a 46-12 mark in Big 12 home games, from 1998 to 2013. At one point, UT had a streak of 21 consecutive victories (third-longest in UT history) and the longest for UT since it won 42 straight from 1968-76 (No. 6 in NCAA history). The Longhorns also set the marks for the Big 12's longest intraconference winning streak (21 games) and the longest intraconference road winning streak (13).

Texas lost only 15 road games in Brown's 16-year tenure with two of them coming in his first three games at UT. The Longhorns won 54 of their last 64 true road games. The Horns set a UT-record streak with 17 consecutive road wins before falling to Kansas State in 2006. UT also won 12 consecutive road games from 2000-02. Texas was 58-15 (.795) overall on the road and 48-8 (.857) versus unranked road foes during the Brown era. In fact, UT had a school-record 13-game nonconference road winning streak snapped in 2013 (at BYU). The previous mark of seven was set from 1956-63. Texas won 41 of its last 50 Big 12 Conference road games, including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns were 45-11 (.804) in league road contests under Brown.

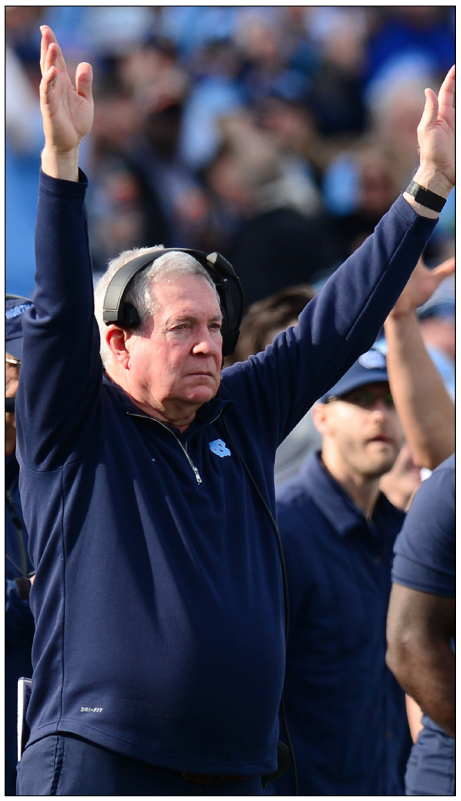
tunities as well. From 2001-13, two of his Longhorns were selected in the first round in six of the 13 NFL Drafts. When OT Mike Williams (Buffalo Bills) and CB Quentin Jammer (San Diego Chargers) were selected fourth and fifth, respectively, in 2002, it marked the first time in UT history that two Longhorns were chosen among the first five overall picks. Brown's Longhorns featured a pair of first-round picks in 2004 when Roy Williams (seventh pick) was taken by the Detroit Lions and Marcus Tubbs was selected by the Seattle Seahawks (23rd pick). The 2005 NFL Draft had Longhorns Cedric Benson (fourth pick) and Derrick Johnson (15th pick) in the first round. In the 2006 NFL Draft, Vince Young (third pick) and Michael Huff (seventh pick) were both first-round choices, and in 2007, Michael Griffin (19th pick) and Aaron Ross (20th pick) were selected in the opening round.

UT had four players selected in the first two rounds of the 2007 Draft with Justin Blalock and Tim Crowder chosen in the second round following Griffin and Ross. That marked the most Longhorns chosen in the first two rounds since 1982. Over his 16 years at UT, Brown had 71 players selected in the draft with 55 (77.5%) of those coming in the first four rounds.

A focus on academics also helped UT student-athletes produce all-time highs in the classroom over his final eight years. The Longhorns led the Big 12 in academic all-conference selections in five of his last eight seasons. From 2006-13, UT totaled 159 Academic All-Big 12 selections.

In 2010, DE Sam Acho became Texas' second winner of the Campbell Trophy, which has been likened to an "Academic Heisman." Acho also became the seventh Longhorn to be named two-time first-team Academic All-America. Texas registered two first-team Academic All-America honorees in Acho and OT Adam Ulatoski in 2009, after having also done so in 2007 with C Dallas Griffin and DT Derek Lokey. Griffin went on to earn UT's first Campbell Trophy, which at the time was named the Draddy Trophy. QB Colt McCoy was a finalist for that award in 2009 and recognized as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, as were Griffin and Acho. In 2008, RB Chris Ogbonnaya also earned second-team Academic All-America honors. In 2013, that group was joined by deep snapper Nate Boyer, who earned his first Academic All-America nod.



Alongside academics, Brown's life skills program featured numerous seminars to prepare student-athletes for life after football, while Longhorns players made countless visits to area children's hospitals and served as tutors and mentors at schools across Austin. Never was that as evident as with Acho, who was named the 2010 Wuerffel Trophy winner for all-around excellence, and the 2010 ARA Sportsmanship Award winner, along with being selected as a member of the AFCA Good Works Team. Emmanuel Acho then joined his brother as back-to-back honorees on the Good Works Team, giving Texas four in seven years along with Vince Young and Colt McCoy. Nate Boyer was also named the 2012 Disney Spirit Award winner as the most inspirational player in college football, and earned the 2013 FWAA Armed Services Award, while being named the 2013 NFF Legacy Award winner.

On the field, Brown guided the 2009 Longhorns to Texas' second National Championship Game appearance in five years and also matched the school record of 13 wins. The lone loss came in the title game to No. 1 Alabama after QB Colt McCoy was injured on the first series and did not return. Despite the loss of the National Player of the Year, Texas was within three points with the ball with just over three minutes remaining, and following the game, the polls kept the Longhorns ranked No. 2 -- their fourth Top Five ranking in six years. They also completed their ninth-consecutive 10-win season, which is the third-longest streak in NCAA history.

McCoy became UT's 20th unanimous All-American and won the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Football Foundation National Player of the Year Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Unitas Golden Arm Award. He also became a two-time finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Shipley was a consensus All-America honoree and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, while S Earl Thomas also earned consensus All-America honors and was a finalist for the Thorpe Award. Meanwhile, DE/LB Sergio Kindle became the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award and Hendricks Award, and also was named first-team All-America, along with C Chris Hall who was a finalist for the Rimington Trophy. In addition, K Hunter Lawrence was a semifinalist for the Groza Award and Sam Acho was a semifinalist for the Lott Trophy.

son in 2008, finishing 12-1 and ranked No. 4 in the AP poll and No. 3 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. The Longhorns capped the year with a Fiesta Bowl victory over No. 10 Ohio State, producing a school-record fifth-consecutive bowl win, including three BCS victories. McCoy, who set the NCAA single-season record for completion percentage (77.6), earned first-team All-America honors and was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. On defense, DE Brian Orakpo became UT's 19th unanimous All-American and won the Nagurski Trophy, Lombardi Award and Hendricks Award. Shipley also earned third-team All-America honors, while Cosby was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

In 2007, the Longhorns capped their seventh consecutive 10-win season with a Holiday Bowl victory over No. 12 Arizona State, while also securing their fourth bowl win in consecutive years, a UT first. The Longhorns finished the season with a No. 10 national ranking in both polls, marking the fifth time in seven seasons they had finished in the Top 10. Along with Dallas Griffin winning the Draddy Trophy and two Academic All-Americans, OT Tony Hills earned first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, RB Jamaal Charles was named a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award, S Marcus Griffin earned All-America honors from ESPN.com and DT Frank Okam was named third-team All-America by The Associated Press.

The 2006 Longhorns produced another 10-win season, finishing the year 10-3 after defeating Iowa in the Alamo Bowl. The Horns were ranked 13th in both polls at the end of year. Cornerback Aaron Ross won the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back, and offensive lineman Justin Blalock was a finalist for both the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award. Ross and Blalock earned first-team All-America honors, while Hendricks Award finalist Tim Crowder and Lott Trophy semifinalist Michael Griffin were recognized as second-team All-Americans. McCoy, a redshirt freshman, earned National Freshman of the Year honors as he tied an NCAA record with 29 touchdown passes.

Brown had the most successful season of his career in 2005, leading Texas to its first National Championship since 1970. Texas made a return trip to the Rose Bowl for its first appearance in the BCS National Championship game, where the Longhorns ended USC's 34-game winning streak and extended their own winning streak to 20 with a 41-38 victory. The team was led by Maxwell Award winner Vince Young. Young, who was also the Heisman runner-up and Davey O'Brien and Manning Award winner, finished his career as Texas' all-time winningest quarterback with a 30-2 record. Texas' offense set UT records in points scored (652) and total yards (6,657), while ranking first in the nation in scoring (50.2 ppg), second in rushing (274.9 ypg) and third in total offense (512.1 ypg). Texas was also highly ranked on defense. Led by UT's first-ever Thorpe Award winner Michael Huff, the Longhorns finished sixth in scoring defense (16.4 ppg) and 10th in total defense (302.9 ypg).

In 2004, the Longhorns managed their fourth consecutive 10-win season, while defeating six teams ranked in either the AP Poll or ESPN/USA Today Poll. It was also their third 11-win season in four years and was capped with Texas' first BCS selection and a Rose Bowl Championship over No. 13 Michigan. UT was led by All-Americans on both sides of the ball in senior RB and Doak Walker Award winner Cedric Benson and senior linebacker, Nagurski Trophy winner and Butkus Award winner Derrick Johnson.

Under his guidance in 2003, Texas rallied from a 4-2 start to post six straight victories and finished with a 10-3 record and a No. 12 national ranking. The Longhorns were led by a balanced offense and defense that was one of only four programs nationally that ranked among the NCAA's top 25 in total offense and total defense. Led by its first-ever Butkus Award finalist and consensus first-team All-American Derrick Johnson, UT's defense ranked 25th nationally allowing 329.9 yards per game.

Brown's 2002 squad finished with an 11-2 record and a No. 6 final ranking, posting back-to-back 11-win seasons for the first time in school history and consecutive Top 10 finishes for the first time since 1977-78. Texas capped the year with a victory over LSU in the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns also won or shared the Big 12 South title for the third time in the previous four seasons. Led by first-team All-American and Lombardi Trophy finalist DE Cory Redding and first-team All-Big 12 performers Johnson and CB Rod Babers, the Texas defense finished ranked among the nation's top 16 for the fourth straight year. WR Roy Williams and consensus first-team All-American OL Derrick Dockery both earned first-team All-Big 12 honors as the Horns averaged 33.8 points per game (16th NCAA).

In 2001, Texas claimed the Big 12 South title for the second time. The Horns were ranked among the nation's Top 10 in 16 of the 17 polls and only a narrow 39-37 defeat at the hands of No. 9 Colorado in the Big 12 Championship game prevented Brown's team from likely playing for the national title. With a victory against No. 21 Washington in the Holiday Bowl, Texas posted a school record-tying 11 victories (11-2) for the first time since '83 and just the fifth time in school history. The win also secured the program's first Top-10 finish since that year. Led by unanimous first-team All-American and UT's first-ever Thorpe Award finalist CB Quentin Jammer and All-Americans LB D.D. Lewis and Redding, the Longhorns topped the nation in total defense. Offensively, OT Mike Williams earned first-team All-America honors and was joined by Roy Williams as first-team All-Big 12 selections. Benson set freshman records for rushing yards and rushing TDs en route to Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year honors.

UT's 2000 team rallied from a 3-2 start to run off six consecutive victories. The Horns fell to No. 8 Oregon in the Holiday Bowl and closed out the year with a 9-3 record (7-1, Big 12) and a final No. 12 national ranking, its best finish in the polls since 1983. RB Hodges Mitchell, a first-team All-Big 12 choice for a second consecutive year, became the first player in UT history to gain 1,000 rushing and 300 receiving yards in a season. His path was paved by consensus first-team All-American and Outland Trophy finalist OT Leonard Davis. DT Casey Hampton earned his second first-team All-America honor and was Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Brown's 1999 squad registered a 9-5 record, claimed the Big 12 South Division Championship, and finished the year ranked No. 21 by the AP and No. 23 in the Coaches poll. WR Kwame Cavil set UT and Big 12 records with 100 receptions for 1,188 yards en route to second-team All-America and first-team All-Big 12 honors. QB Major Applewhite set UT marks with 3,357 passing yards and 21 TDs while earning co-Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year recognition.

In 1998, running back Ricky Williams ran away with virtually every major college football award. Williams claimed the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp and Associated Press Player of the Year honors and the Dr. Pepper Doak Walker Award as Brown's first Texas team finished 9-3 and ranked 15th nationally. The Horns snapped No. 7 Nebraska's 47-game home winning streak that year and defeated No. 25 Mississippi St. in the Cotton Bowl, the Longhorns' first New Year's Day bowl win since 1981.

Born in Cookeville, Tenn., Brown was a three-sport star at Putnam County High School, where he lettered three times in football. He went on to attend Vanderbilt (1969-70) and graduated from Florida State. He lettered twice as a running back for the Seminoles (1972-73). An injury sidelined him for much of the '73 season and that led to the start of his coaching career as he became a student coach. He completed his bachelor's degree in education in 1974 and went on to earn a master's degree in administration from Southern Miss in 1976.

Brown began his full-time coaching career in 1975 at Southern Mississippi, where he worked with the receivers for three seasons. He earned a master's degree in administration from Southern Miss in 1976. Brown then coached the wide receivers at Memphis State in 1978 and at Iowa State in '79. He was promoted to offensive coordinator at Iowa State in 1980, and in his time in Ames, the Cyclones broke 17 school and Big Eight Conference offensive records and produced league leaders in rushing and total offense. Brown went on to lead the quarterbacks at LSU in 1982, when the Tigers went 8-2-1 and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

In just his 10th season of full-time coaching, Brown became a head coach, taking over the Appalachian St. program in 1983. At the age of 32, he directed the Mountaineers to their first winning record in four years with a 6-5 slate. After one season, he left to become offensive coordinator at Oklahoma. In his only year on Barry Switzer's staff, the Sooners were 9-2-1, won the Big Eight title, and earned a berth in the Orange Bowl. Brown helped Oklahoma develop its best passing attack in years, as he coached quarterbacks Danny Bradley, a first-team All-Big Eight selection, and Troy Aikman, a three-time Super Bowl Champion signal caller with the Dallas Cowboys.

Brown became head coach at Tulane in 1985 and quickly went about rejuvenating the Green Wave's sagging football fortunes. Tulane had suffered three consecutive losing seasons before Brown's arrival, but by his third season in 1987, he led the Green Wave to a 6-5 mark and a berth in the Independence Bowl, just the program's fifth bowl game since 1940. That season, the Green Wave set school records for total offense and points, ranking 11th nationally in scoring (32.5 ppg). That remarkable season earned Brown a spot in the Independence Bowl Hall of Honor in 2002. He also served as athletics director his final two years at Tulane.

One of the most respected coaches in the game, Brown has served on numerous national committees, including president of the American Football Coaches Association. He has also served on the AFCA Ethics Committee and the AFCA Public Relations Committee. Brown has been a member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee and the NCAA Football Issues Committee. He has been chairman of the Football Coaches' Committee and a member of the Board of Directors of the College Football Association. Brown has been invited to coach in five postseason all-star games, including the Japan Bowl, Hula Bowl (twice) and East-West Shrine Game (twice). In March 2013, Brown was named the 2013 recipient of the Neyland Trophy, awarded annually by the Knoxville Quarterback Club for contributions to collegiate athletics.

Brown and his wife, Sally, have four children -- Matt, Katherine, Barbara and Chris -- and six grandchildren -- Tyler, Mack, Bailey, Caroline, Janie and Truett. Sally has enthusiastically involved herself in football team activities. In 1999, she retired as president of Marin Development in North Carolina. She is past president of the Public, Private Partnership (PPP), an organization that fostered improved relations between the University of North Carolina and the town of Chapel Hill. She also volunteered time to chair the fundraising efforts for the UNC Black Cultural Center and was a member of a Carolina Alumni Advisory Committee.

Brown's human touch and dedication to family is also evident in his involvement in the Austin community with Sally. In May 2012, they were named Couple of the Year at the Tenth Annual NFL Alumni Caring for Kids Banquet for their continued commitment to children, and for their overall commitment to be a charitable force in central Texas. The Browns served as honorary co-chairpersons of the Capital Campaign for the Helping Hands of Austin. They were instrumental in the opening of The Rise School of Austin (an early childhood education program that integrates children who have disabilities with their typically developing peers) and served on the school's Board of Directors. Because of the Browns' dedication and longstanding personal commitment to the Rise School, a plan to build a permanent 20,000 square foot facility was announced on August 26, 2011, called the "Sally and Mack Brown Rise School of Austin." They lent their name along with the late legendary UT QB James Street to the annual James Street/Mack Brown Golf Tournament benefiting The Rise School.

BROWN AND THE NFL DRAFT

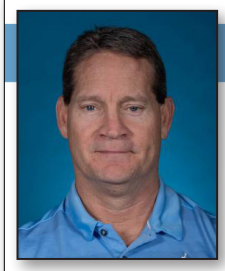
- Dating back to 1986 when he was the head coach at Tulane, Mack Brown had a player selected in 28 straight NFL Drafts prior to 2014. In fact, Brown has had a player selected in the NFL Draft in 32 of his 34 drafts as a head coach.
- In 34 drafts as a head coach at Texas (1998-2013), North Carolina (1988-97, 2019-23), Tulane (1985-87) and Appalachian State (1983), Mack Brown has seen 141 of his former players selected in the NFL Draft.
- There have been 63 Tar Heels drafted under Mack Brown.

The Browns also have contributed privately to numerous other causes in Austin, and in April 2011, Brown was named the Lady Bird Johnson Humanitarian Award Winner by the American Red Cross. In September 2008, he and Sally were named the Citizens of the Year for Caritas of Austin, which provides meals and aid for the homeless. The Browns themselves spent many hours serving food at Caritas.

Earlier that year, The University of Texas honored Brown with The Mack Brown Distinguished Chair for Leadership in Global Affairs. The Chair is part of the Robert S. Strauss Center for International Security and Law, a university-wide global affairs research center named for renowned lawyer and public servant Ambassador Robert S. Strauss. The center is part of the LBJ School of Public Affairs.

In June 2007, Brown paired with Attorney General of Texas Greg Abbott to commend fathers who provide a nurturing home for their children, and asked dads from across the state to join in the fight against domestic abuse. In May 2009, Brown went on an eight-day trip to visit U.S. troops in Germany, Turkey, Iraq, Kuwait, Djibouti and Spain as part of the Coaches Tour.

The Browns endorsed a Texas license plate, which was designed to raise public awareness for child abuse and neglect and the need for Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) volunteers. After the Bonfire tragedy at Texas A&M in 1999, the couple initiated a blood drive on the UT campus that attracted more than 250 blood donors.



GENE CHIZIK

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR DEFENSE
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC
(2015-16, 2022-PRESENT)

Gene Chizik, a 27-year veteran of collegiate coaching, returned to North Carolina for his second stint on Jan. 8, 2022. Chizik, who has won National Championships as a head coach at Auburn and a defensive coordinator at Texas, serves as the Assistant Head Coach for Defense on Mack Brown's staff. He returned to college coaching after spending the previous five years in the media with ESPN and the SEC Network.

In addition to his pair of National Championships, Chizik has also collected a number of top coaching awards. He's been the recipient of the Bear Bryant Award, the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, the Home Depot Coach of the Year Award, the Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year Award, the Amos Alonzo Stagg Coaching Award, the SEC Coach of the Year Award and the Broyles Award. Chizik was also a finalist for the Broyles Award during his first stint at Carolina.

In two seasons as defensive coordinator at UNC from 2015-16, Chizik turned around a unit that ranked No. 120 in yards per game the season prior to his arrival. Carolina was the nation's most improved Power 5 defense in 2015, averaging 14.5 points per game fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game. Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls.

In 2016, Chizik led a defensive unit that continued to improve, lowering its yards per play to 5.37 and its yards per game to 408.1. The Tar Heels led the ACC and ranked 16th nationally in passing yards allowed. The unit also allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the ACC and ranked fourth nationally in the category. Carolina allowed just 24.9 points per game, which was an improvement of 14.1 points per game from when he took over after the '14 season.

Prior to his work in Chapel Hill, Chizik served as head coach at Auburn from 2009-12 and led the Tigers to three bowl victories, including the 2011 BCS Championship, which followed an undefeated 2010 season. He achieved unparalleled success at Auburn in his first three years as head coach. He won more games (30) than any other coach in the school's rich football history, including the school's first National Championship in more than 50 years. In addition, Chizik had an Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 970 or above in three of his four seasons, including a 985 in his third year and a 978 in his final season.

Chizik's second season at Auburn was one for the ages as the program won BCS and SEC Championships, while he earned Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year honors, as well as AP SEC Coach of the Year accolades. The 2010 Auburn squad went a perfect 14-0, recording the program's first title since 1957, and its first conference crown since 2004.

Players under Chizik's tutelage earned several national awards, including the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Lombardi Award and Thorpe Award. In fact, he is the only coach in college football history to coach three consecutive Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back) winners from 2004-06.

After leaving Auburn in 2012, Chizik served as an analyst for ESPN, working primarily with the SEC Network. He also worked as a college football analyst with Sirius/XM radio.

Chizik was also heavily involved in college football reforms. In August of 2014, the NCAA invited him to serve on a 12-person committee tasked with examining the recruiting culture in college football and evaluating national letter of intent signing dates. The committee was organized in conjunction with the NCAA and reported to the Collegiate Commissioners Association.

Before being named Auburn's head coach, Chizik served two seasons as head coach at Iowa State (2007-08), two as Texas' defensive coordinator (2005-06), and three as Auburn's defensive coordinator (2002-04).

Chizik was the defensive coordinator at Texas under Coach Brown when the Longhorns captured the 2005 National Championship. The Longhorns ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, 10th in total defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense. In 2006, Chizik's Longhorn defenders were second nationally against the rush (58.8 ypg.) after 12 games, including limiting No. 1 Ohio State to just 79 yards on the ground. His aggressive schemes resulted in 100 tackles for loss, 96 quarterback hurries and 30 takeaways during the 2006 regular season.

Chizik coached six Longhorns to All-America honors in his two seasons, including Aaron Harris, Michael Huff and Rod Wright in 2005, and Tim Crowder, Michael Griffin and Aaron Ross in 2006. His defensive players earned 18 All-Big 12 awards during his tenure.

In three years at Auburn as defensive coordinator, Chizik helped the Tigers to a 30-9 mark including an 18-6 Southeastern Conference record. During those 39 games, the Tigers were able to defeat nine Top 10 programs, win three bowl games, and hold 24 of 39 opponents to two touchdowns or less, including 14 that managed single digits against his aggressive, physical defenses. He also tutored three All-Americans in Karlos Dansby, Carlos Rogers and Junior Rosegreen and had nine players earn 10 first-team All-SEC honors. Chizik had 10 players over three seasons that went on to be NFL draft picks.

His run as Auburn's defensive coordinator culminated in 2004, when he helped guide the Tigers to a 13-0 season, an SEC Championship, and a Sugar Bowl victory, while earning the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. That unit led the nation in scoring defense (11.3 ppg) and was fifth nationally in total defense, allowing just 277.6 yards per contest. Not only did they lead the nation in scoring defense, but they surrendered just four rushing touchdowns all season, including allowing none over the first eight games of the season. That vaunted 2004 defense featured eight of 11 starters that went on to play in the NFL, including 2005 first-round draft pick cornerback Rogers and defensive lineman Jay Ratliff, who earned All-Pro honors with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

In 2003, Auburn's defense saw eight of 11 starters go on to play in the NFL. Led by first-team All-SEC picks Dansby, DeMarco McNeil and Dontarious Thomas, Auburn was fifth nationally in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and ninth in the country in scoring defense. By allowing less than 300 yards of total offense in consecutive seasons in 2003 (281.6 ypg) and 2004 (277.6 ypg), it marked the first time at Auburn since a six-year run from 1985-90, that an Auburn defense had accomplished the feat in back-to-back campaigns.

In his first season at Auburn, Chizik took a club that was 39th nationally in total defense the season before he arrived and improved it to 26th in the country while holding three Top 10 teams - LSU, Alabama and Penn State - to less than 10 points each en route to victory.

Prior to his first stint at Auburn, Chizik was the defensive coordinator for four seasons (1998-01) at UCF, where he improved a unit that was 81st nationally in total defense before his arrival to one that was 16th in the country in 2001.

Chizik spent six seasons at Stephen F. Austin from 1992-97, overseeing the linebackers (1992-94) and secondary (1995-97). He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator (1986-88) at Seminole High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., before becoming a graduate assistant at Clemson for a pair of 10-win teams in 1988-89. Chizik then became the outside linebackers coach at Middle Tennessee State from 1990-91, where the Blue Raiders made consecutive I-AA playoff appearances and won 21 games in his two-year stint.

Chizik earned his bachelor's degree in education from Florida in 1985 and his master's in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1991.

A Clearwater, Fla., native, Chizik and his wife, Jonna, have identical twin daughters, Landry Grace and Kennedy Danielle, and a son, Cally.

LONNIE GALLOWAY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Lonnie Galloway, considered one of the nation's top developers of wide-receiver talent and one of the top recruiters, joined Mack Brown's staff as wide receivers coach on Dec. 11, 2018. Galloway was promoted to assistant head coach prior to the 2021 season and passing game coordinator prior to the 2023 season. He came to Chapel Hill after serving as co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Louisville for three seasons from 2016-18.

An Eden, N.C. native, Galloway has been an assistant at the collegiate level for the last 26 seasons, including stops at Elon (1996-02), East Carolina (2003-04), Appalachian State (2005-07), West Virginia (2008-10, 2013-15), and Wake Forest (2011-12).

During the 2022 season, Galloway led a receiving corps that drove the Carolina offense to a No. 11 ranking nationally in passing offense and a No. 26 ranking in scoring offense. Star pupil Josh Downs led the ACC in receptions (94), receptions per game (8.5) and receiving yards per game (93.5) en route to second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. A two-time Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, Downs finished his UNC career ranking third all-time in receptions (202), fourth in receiving yards (2,483) and second in receiving TDs (22). With a second 1,000-yard season for Downs, Galloway has now mentored five receivers to 1,000-yard seasons over the past four years, which is tied for the most nationally. Antoine Green was the team's second-leading receiver, making 43 catches for 798 yards and seven TDs to earn third-team All-ACC recognition.

Galloway mentored a receiving unit in 2021 that helped UNC rank 10th nationally and third in the ACC in total offense (468.2 ypg) and 19th nationally and third in the ACC in scoring offense (35.2 ppg). The group was led by first-team All-ACC performer and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist Josh Downs, who caught 101 passes for 1,335 yards, both UNC single-season records. Downs is the fourth UNC receiver over the last three seasons under Galloway to eclipse 1,000 yards, which is tied for the second most in the country over that stretch. Downs became just the fourth player in ACC history to catch at least 100 passes in a season, and his 101 receptions are tied for third all-time on the ACC's single-season list. Antoine Green flashed his potential, finishing with by far the best numbers of his career. Green caught 31 passes for 612 yards (19.7 ypc) and five TDs, which included a mid-year stretch that saw him combine for 14 catches for 274 yards and four TDs against Notre Dame, Wake Forest and Pitt.

During the 2020 season, Galloway and his wide receivers were critical components in one of the nation's most explosive offenses. The unit averaged 537.2 yards per game and 41.7 points per game, both UNC records. In the passing game, the Tar Heels posted 301.4 yards passing per game (18th NCAA/2nd ACC) and ranked sixth nationally in 10+ yard plays (146), 7th in 30+ yard plays and tied for second in both 50+ and 60+ yard plays (10/5). Junior Dyami Brown became the first Carolina player to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons, finishing 2020 with 1,099 yards, a 20-yard-per-catch average and eight TDs. His 1,099 yards ranked first in the ACC and sixth nationally, while his eight TDs ranked second in the ACC and 18th nationally. Brown earned third-team AP All-America honors, was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, and claimed unanimous All-ACC first-team recognition. An early NFL Draft entrant, Brown finished his career seventh on UNC's all-time list in receiving yards (2,306) and tied for second in receiving TDs (21). Meanwhile, Dazz Newsome posted 54 receptions for 684 receiving yards and six TDs to finish his career with 188 catches for 2,435 yards and 18 TDs. Newsome's 188 career receptions rank third all-time at UNC, his 2,435 yards rank fifth, and his 18 TDs are tied for seventh.

In his first season at UNC, Galloway mentored a wide-receiving corps that helped Carolina rank 12th nationally in total offense at 474 yards per game and 25th in passing offense at 285.8 yards per game. The receiving trio of Dazz Newsome, Dyami Brown and Beau Corrales combined for 163 receptions, 2,627 yards and 28 TDs. The 28 TDs are tied for the third most in the Power 5 by a trio. Both Newsome and Brown were recognized on All-ACC teams after becoming the first receiving tandem in Carolina history to post 1,000-yard seasons. Newsome ranked third in the ACC and 23rd nationally in receptions per game (6.0), and both Brown (1,034) and Newsome (1,018) ranked in the top 40 nationally in receiving yards. Brown's 12 TDs tied the school record, ranking second in the ACC and tied for 12th nationally. Newsome's 10 scores ranked sixth in the league and were tied for 25th nationally.

At Louisville, Galloway helped produce one of the nation's highest-scoring offenses in 2016 and '17 as the Cardinals ranked among the top-five units in total offense and among the top 11 in scoring offense. The Cardinals averaged 538.8 yards and 40.3 points per game thanks in large part to Galloway's receiving corp and Lamar Jackson, who won the Heisman Trophy in 2016.

In 2017, Louisville set school records for most total yards, while finishing fourth in passing yards and points. The Cardinals scored over 25 points and produced at least 400 yards of offense in 12 games, while passing for over 300 yards in nine contests.

Galloway saw his wide-receiver unit post outstanding numbers in 2017, with Jaylen Smith leading the way. A first-team All-ACC selection, Smith led the club with 60 receptions for 980 yards -- the highest total since 2007 -- and seven scores.

The 2016 campaign also was one of the most prolific in school history, finishing third in the nation in total offense, while scoring over 40 points seven times. The Cardinals averaged 532.7 yards per game and 42.5 points per game.

Spending two different stints at West Virginia (2008-10, 2013-15), Galloway enjoyed tremendous success in guiding the wide receivers at West Virginia. He was instrumental in developing an explosive Mountaineer offensive attack. In 2015, West Virginia was ranked 23rd nationally in total offense with 479.7 yards of offense, including 251 yards through the air.

Galloway, who has had four wide receivers drafted since 2012, tutored 2014 NFL Draft picks Kevin White and Mario Alford. White was one of the nation's top players in 2014, when he helped lead the ninth-ranked WVU passing offense in the country and the 12th-ranked offense nationally. Following the season, White was named to 16 different All-America teams and was the No. 7 pick by the Chicago Bears.

White, who was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award and a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, set six school records, finished No. 6 nationally in receptions per game and receiving yards per game and No. 12 in receiving touchdowns.

Alford, an All-American and a seventh-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, was No. 9 in the Big 12 in receptions per game and receiving yards per game and was No. 1 in receiving touchdowns.

In his first go-around at WVU, Galloway helped the Mountaineers to three bowl appearances, including a win over North Carolina in the 2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl. Three of WVU's touchdowns versus the Tar Heels came via the pass in a 31-30 win. The Mountaineers were co-BIG EAST champions in 2010 and also reached the 2010 Konica Minolta Gator Bowl.

During Galloway's first stint at West Virginia, the Mountaineers went 27-12 with three consecutive 9-4 seasons. In 2010, the Mountaineers ranked second in the BIG EAST in both passing offense and total offense while leading the league in passing efficiency. WVU receiver Jock Sanders ranked second in the BIG EAST in receiving in both 2009 and '10.

Galloway was named the 2010 BIG EAST Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com. While recruiting South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, Galloway, signed a pair of first-round selections, wide receiver Tavon Austin and defensive end Bruce Irvin.

Before joining the Mountaineers' staff, Galloway spent two seasons at Wake Forest, serving as wide receivers coach and co-passing game coordinator.

In his first season with the Demon Deacons in 2011, Galloway's wideouts were on the receiving end of a school-record 3,291 passing yards. Chris Givens was named first-team All-ACC after leading the conference in receiving yards per game (102.3). Givens also set the school record for receiving yards in a season with 1,330 on 83 catches and caught nine touchdowns. He was picked by St. Louis – now Los Angeles – in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Galloway coached for three seasons at Appalachian State, where he oversaw the split ends from 2005-07. He helped the Mountaineers to three FCS National Championships and coached three receivers who earned All-America honors.

From 2003-04, Galloway was the wide receivers coach at East Carolina, where he tutored Terrence Copper, who earned All-Conference USA honors while setting school records for receptions and receiving yards in a season.

A 1994 graduate of Western Carolina, Galloway was a four-year letterman who threw for 5,545 yards, the second-highest total in school history. He was a first team All-Southern Conference selection in 1993, when he led the Southern Conference in total offense with 231.9 yards per game. Galloway was a 2015 inductee into the Western Carolina Hall of Fame.

Galloway finished second in the nation in passing efficiency as a junior in 1992 with a 167.4 rating. He earned three SoCon Offensive Player of the Week awards and produced a 322-yard passing game against Georgia Southern in 1993. Galloway finished his career with 6,832 career total yards, while completing 355-of-639 career passes for 5,545 yards and 30 touchdowns.

After spending the 1995 season with the Charlotte Rage of the Arena Football League, Galloway started his coaching career in 1996 at Elon, where he served as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach through 2002.

TOMMY THIGPEN

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ILB
(1998-99, 2005-08, 2018-PRESENT)

Former All-ACC linebacker and veteran coach Tommy Thigpen joined the Carolina football staff in January of 2018 to serve as safeties coach under then-head coach Larry Fedora. When Mack Brown was hired following the '18 season, Thigpen was retained and elevated to co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. Thigpen, who played at Carolina for Mack Brown, was a graduate assistant under Carl Torbush and spent four seasons coaching linebackers under John Bunting and Butch Davis.

In addition to being a standout coach, Thigpen is widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football. He was named National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com in 2013 after helping to sign the No. 5 recruiting class in the nation at Tennessee. Thigpen was also honored by Rivals as one of the nation's top-25 recruiters in 2007 while at Carolina.

During the 2022 season, Thigpen mentored an inside linebacker group headlined by Cedric Gray and Power Echols. Gray, who earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors, led the Power 5 in tackles (145) and solo tackles (82). He also led the team with 12 TFL to go along with a sack, two INTs, six PBU, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Echols garnered honorable mention All-ACC honors after ranking sixth in the Power 5 in solo tackles with 70. He finished the year with 103 total tackles, two sacks, five TFL, seven pressures, an INT, two PBU and a forced fumble.

Thigpen's inside linebacker group was a bright spot for the Carolina defense in 2021. Jeremiah Gemmel and Gray combined to post 175 tackles, four sacks and 13.5 TFL. Gemmel finished second on the team with 75 tackles to go along with 1.5 sacks, 6.5 TFL, an INT, three PBU, seven pressures and a forced fumble en route to third-team All-ACC honors. Gray led the team in tackles with 100, which was tied for the fourth most in the ACC. He added 2.5 sacks, seven TFL, two INTs, three PBU, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

In his third year at Carolina, Thigpen helped coordinate a defense that produced 36 sacks, the most for a Carolina defense since 2000 and tied for fifth nationally. The scoring defense, total defense and rushing defense all ranked in the Top 35 nationally of teams that played at least 10 games. The unit produced a first-team All-American in linebacker Chazz Surratt and four players who earned All-ACC honors. Thigpen's inside linebackers led the team in tackles with Surratt posting 91 and Gemmel notching 78. The duo also combined for 8.5 sacks, 13.5 TFL and 13 pressures.

Thigpen helped engineer a number of improvements in the Tar Heel defense, which was one of the nation's top five most improved units in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense, in his second year at Carolina in 2019. UNC allowed 373.2 yards per game, which was almost a 75-yard per game improvement over the previous season, and bolstered its ranking by 56 positions. The scoring defense improved by 63 spots after holding opponents to 10.8 points less per game, and the rushing defense jumped 60 spots after allowing 75.3 yards fewer per game. In addition, the defense surged up 60 spots in opponent third-down percentage and tallied seven more INTs than the prior year. Individually, Thigpen mentored a trio of inside linebackers in Gemmel, Surratt and Dominique Ross that combined for 243 tackles, 11 sacks, 26.5 TFL, 16 pressures, two INTs and five forced fumbles. Thigpen tutored QB-turned-LB Surratt to first-team All-ACC honors.

Thigpen came to Carolina after spending five seasons at Tennessee (2013-17) as the linebackers coach and, beginning in 2016, the defensive run game coordinator. In Knoxville, Thigpen coached linebackers A.J. Johnson, Curt Maggitt and Jalen Reeves-Maybin to All-SEC honors. The Volunteers won three straight bowl games in his time at UT.

Prior to heading to Knoxville, Thigpen spent four seasons at Auburn, where he mentored the safeties (2009-11) and linebackers (2012). Under former Carolina defensive coordinator Gene Chizik, Thigpen helped the Tigers to the BCS National Championship in 2010, a season during which Auburn ranked ninth in the country in rush defense at 109.1 yards per game.

Safety Zac Etheridge registered 69 tackles, second-most on the team. Etheridge earned All-SEC honorable mention honors. As a group, Thigpen's safeties combined for 186 tackles, 2.5 tackles-for-loss and three interceptions. In Auburn's two biggest games that year, Thigpen directed a unit that helped hold South Carolina to just 17 points in the SEC Championship Game and Oregon to 19 points in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tigers defense held the high-powered Ducks 28 points under their season average and produced a pair of interceptions.

During his first season at Auburn, the Tigers ranked 17th in the nation in opponent third down conversion percentage (32.8) and forced 24 turnovers. His safeties helped the Auburn defense rank 31st nationally in pass defense efficiency and picked off 17 passes, tied for third most in the SEC. Thigpen instructed Daren Bates in 2009, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman team after starting all 13 games and ranking fourth on the team with 70 tackles as a true freshman.

Prior to his tenure at Auburn, Thigpen coached the linebackers at North Carolina for four seasons from 2005-08. He tutored UNC's leading tacklers in each of his four seasons in Chapel Hill, coaching eventual standouts including Zach Brown, Bruce Carter and Quan Sturdivant.

Thigpen coached for two years at Illinois, serving as the cornerbacks coach in 2003 and the linebackers coach in 2004.

In 2001-02, he coached cornerbacks and was the special teams coordinator at Bowling Green State. At Bowling Green State, Thigpen helped coach one of the Mid-American Conference's top defenses, leading the MAC in turnover margin in 2002. BGSU also finished second in the MAC in pass efficiency defense, while Thigpen's special teams also were impressive, blocking seven punts and one field goal.

Thigpen began his coaching career as a UNC graduate assistant in 1998-99. He then coached linebackers at Tennessee State in 2000.

A Parade All-American and Virginia Defensive Player of the Year at Potomac High School in Dumfries, Va., Thigpen earned four letters at North Carolina from 1989-92 and secured his bachelor's degree in political science. He was a three-time All-ACC linebacker, earning first-team honors in 1991. Thigpen was co-captain of the 1992 team that went 9-3 and beat Mississippi State in the Peach Bowl, the first of six bowl games for the Tar Heels in the 1990s. Thigpen went on to play professionally for the New York Giants in 1993-94 and the Barcelona Dragons in 1995-96 before beginning his coaching career.

CHARLTON WARREN

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE BACKS
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Charlton Warren, an 18-year veteran of collegiate coaching, joined Mack Brown's staff on Jan. 8, 2022 as co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Warren, who was named one of the nation's top recruiters by 247Sports, brings eight years of defensive-coordinator experience and 16 years of experience coaching in the secondary. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous season as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Indiana.

Prior to his time at Indiana, Warren spent two seasons on the Georgia defensive staff coaching the defensive backs. During that time, he helped the Bulldogs to two SEC East titles and two New Year's Six bowls. In 2020, the Georgia defense finished second in the SEC and 12th in the nation in total defense, and they were second in the SEC and 16th nationally in scoring defense. In addition, Warren's secondary produced four NFL Draft picks, including first-rounder Eric Stokes and second-rounder Tyson Campbell.

In his first season at Georgia, Warren was part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to their third straight season with 11 or more wins. Georgia led the nation in scoring and rushing defense, ranking among FBS leaders in several other categories. The leader of Warren's first group in the secondary was safety J.R. Reed, a 3-year starter who earned first-team All-America status and was a finalist for the Thorpe Award.

Warren spent the 2018 season coaching cornerbacks at Florida and the 2017 season coaching Tennessee's defensive backs and serving as the program's special teams coordinator. In addition to stops at North Carolina (2015-16) and Nebraska (2014), Warren worked at the U.S. Air Force Academy, his alma mater, from 2005-13 in a variety of roles.

With the addition of Warren on staff, Florida's defense made huge improvements in 2018 compared to the prior season, including going from T-81st in the FBS for takeaways with 17 to T-11th with 26 and shooting from T-125th in fumble recoveries with three to T-12th with 12. The Gators' pass efficiency defense (112.69 - 17th), scoring defense (20.0 - 20th) and sacks per game (2.85 - T-20th) also all improved with Warren's help. During that year, Warren developed C.J. Henderson, who went on to be selected ninth overall in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Off the field, Warren proved to be one of the Gators' top recruiters during his one-year stop. He is credited with helping Florida sign Trey Dean III in 2018 and defensive backs Jaydon Hill, Chester Kimbrough and Chris Steele in 2019.

Warren molded Tennessee's pass defense into one of the stingiest in the SEC during the 2017 season, allowing the second-fewest passing yards (1,950) and yards per game (161.7). The Volunteers pass efficiency defense (127.8) was good enough for seventh in the league. The Volunteers were also one of just five SEC schools to return a kickoff for a touchdown in 2017.

Under Warren's watch at UNC, the Tar Heels posted the 10th best passing defense in the NCAA in 2016, allowing only 180.8 yards per game through the air.

In his first year in Chapel Hill, Warren played a major role for a Tar Heel defense that allowed 14.5 fewer points from the previous season, the best improvement of any Power 5 program. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both pass efficiency and yards per pass attempt. The Tar Heels led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained and passes defended while posting an 11-3 record and earning a berth in the ACC Championship Game. The 2015 Tar Heels allowed only 11 passing touchdowns, the fourth fewest in the NCAA.

In 2014, Warren helped Nebraska's defense rank fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense and 32nd in passing yards allowed. The Huskers ranked second nationally in completion percentage (48.5), 13th in yards per passing attempt (6.1) and 19th in touchdown passes (15).

Warren began his coaching career at his alma mater, Air Force, where he spent nine seasons beginning in 2005. He spent three seasons as secondary coach/recruiting coordinator, three seasons as co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach/recruiting coordinator, and was promoted to associate head coach/defensive coordinator in 2012.

In 2011, the Air Force pass defense ranked third in NCAA passing yards allowed at 166.8 yards per game and was second in 2010 by allowing 147.8 yards per game.

The 2009 Falcons defense ranked seventh nationally with 20 interceptions and led the nation in turnover margin. In addition, that 2009 defense ranked in the top 20 nationally in passing yards allowed (5th), total defense (11th) and pass efficiency defense (17th).

In addition to his coaching experience on the collegiate level, Warren participated in the NFL minority internship program in 2007 with the Houston Texans. He spent training camp with the Texans, and assisted with the defensive and special teams units.

Warren graduated from Air Force in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in Human Factors Engineering. While stationed at Warner Robins AFB from 2000-03, where he was a C-130 avionics program manager, he earned an MBA from Georgia College and State University. Before returning to the Academy in 2005, Warren was stationed at Eglin AFB, Fla., as an air-to-ground weapons program manager for the Air Armament Center.

During his time at Air Force, Warren was a three-year letterman at defensive back for the Falcons, helping the program achieve consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and '98, including a 12-1 record and an outright conference title in 1998.

Warren has three children, Jayree, Teya and Chase.

CHIP LINDSEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
QUARTERBACKS
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Chip Lindsey joined the Carolina football program in December of 2022 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A 26-year coaching veteran, Lindsey is one of the nation's most innovative offensive minds and brings experience as a head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach to UNC. He's overseen offenses that have averaged at least 30 points per game in eight of his 11 seasons as a full-time staff member at the collegiate level. Lindsey came to Chapel Hill after one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UCF.

During his lone season as offensive coordinator at UCF, Lindsey guided an offense that ranked 26th nationally in scoring (34.4 ppg), 11th in total offense (480.6 ypg), and eighth in rushing offense (236.1 ypg). The Knights' rushed for 200 or more yards in nine games in 2022 and their 33 rushing TDs led the AAC and tied for 10th nationally.

Lindsey spent the previous three years as head coach at Troy. During his second season, Troy ranked 21st nationally and second in the Sun Belt in passing yards per game (290.2). The Trojan offensive line ranked third nationally in Pro Football Focus pass blocking efficiency ratings, allowing just nine sacks, six quarterback hits and 45 hurries for 60 total pressures.

In Lindsey's first season at Troy, the Trojans topped the 500-yard mark in total offense on six different occasions to tie the program's DI record and scored 35-plus points eight times, which was the second most in program history and fourth most in Sun Belt history. The Trojans finished ninth nationally in passing offense (313.2), 25th in scoring offense (33.8) and 18th in total offense (456.3).

Lindsey guided quarterback Kaleb Barker to one of the best seasons in Troy history. Barker finished third nationally in completions per game (24.92), fifth in yards per game (302.3), fourth in 300-yard passing games (six) and 14th in touchdown passes (30).

During the 2017-18 campaigns, Lindsey served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn. The Tigers defeated Pac-12 Champion Washington and nationally-ranked Texas A&M during the 2018 campaign en route to thumping Purdue in the Music City Bowl.

In 2017, Auburn became just the eighth team in SEC history, and the first in Auburn history, to rush and pass for 3,000 yards in a season. The Tigers ranked 26th nationally in total offense and set an Auburn record scoring 327 points in SEC play. Auburn won the SEC West Division after knocking off a pair of top-ranked teams in Georgia and Alabama over a three-week period.

All-SEC quarterback Jarrett Stidham, the second Auburn player ever to throw for 3,000 yards in a season, led the conference and ranked ninth nationally in completion percentage. Running back Kerryon Johnson was SEC Offensive Player of the Year, and Ryan Davis set an Auburn receiving record with 84 catches. Lindsey's first stint at Auburn as an offensive analyst in 2013 resulted in the Tigers winning the SEC Championship and an appearance in the BCS National Championship game.

Lindsey returned to Auburn from Arizona State, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016. The Sun Devils started 5-1 (before losing three quarterbacks to injury), while running back Kalen Ballage tied an NCAA record scoring eight TDs in a 68-55 win over Texas Tech.

As offensive coordinator at Southern Miss from 2014-15, he developed Conference USA 2015 Offensive Player of the Year and NFL quarterback Nick Mullens, who ranked second in the league in passing yards (4,145) and TD passes (36) and ranked in the top eight nationally.

The Southern Miss offense broke five single-season school records in 2015: completions (312), passing yards (4,263), total offense yards (6,758), TDs (67) and points (528), as the Golden Eagles recorded nine wins, a Conference USA West title and a berth in the Heart of Dallas Bowl against Washington.

Lindsey's 2015 Golden Eagle offense ranked fifth in the nation in total TDs, seventh in total points, eighth in total passing yards and completions and 12th in points per game and passing yards per game. The national leader with 102 explosive plays, Southern Miss was just the second school in FBS history with a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and two 1,000-yard rushers.

Prior to his first stint at Auburn, Lindsey served as head coach at Spain Park (Alabama) High School in 2011 and 2012, leading the school to its first 6A regional championship.

Lindsey served as quarterbacks coach at Troy in 2010, following a long and distinguished career as a prep coach in Arkansas, Alabama and Georgia (1997-2009) in football and baseball. At Troy, he coached the Sun Belt Freshman of the Year Corey Robinson and helped guide the Trojans to their fifth consecutive Sun Belt Championship. Robinson set a school record for completions (321) that season while his 3,726 passing yards rank as the second most in Troy history. The Trojans totaled the second most passing touchdowns (33) and most completions (340) in a season in school history.

A two-time Coach of the Year honoree (2008-09) at Lassiter (Georgia) High School, Lindsey guided the development of Parade All-American Hutson Mason, who broke every single-season state passing record in 2009, including passing yards (4,560) and TDs (54). The Trojans went 12-1 and won a regional championship in 2009--and Lindsey received state Coach of the Year honors from the Atlanta Falcons and the Cobb County Touchdown Club. The Associated Press, Marietta Daily Journal and Cobb County Touchdown Club named him the 2008 Georgia Coach of the Year.

Lindsey served as offensive coordinator at Hoover (Alabama) High School in 2007 as the team finished 10-2 and advanced to the third round of the state playoffs. Lindsey's first experience as a head coach came from 2005-06 at Colbert Heights (Alabama) High School, where he earned 2006 Coach of the Year honors from the Florence Times-Daily. He spent the 1997-2004 seasons as an assistant coach, including Deshler and Sparkman high schools in Alabama and Springville High School in Arkansas.

Lindsey played football at the University of North Alabama before transferring as a student to Alabama, where he received his bachelor's degree in history and English in 1997.

He earned a master's in educational leadership from the University of Phoenix in 2005. A native of Madison, Alabama, Lindsey graduated from Bob Jones High School, where he was a three-sport letterman.

He and his wife Cecily have four children: Claire, Caroline, Cooper and Conner.

LARRY PORTER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR /
RUNNING BACKS
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Larry Porter, a 27-year coaching veteran and two-time national recruiter of the year, was hired to coach running backs at UNC by Mack Brown on Jan. 29, 2021. This is the second time Coach Brown and Porter have worked together having done so at Texas during the 2013 season, and the second stint for Porter at Carolina.

Aside from being a top recruiter, Porter is a three-time Broyles Award nominee, has developed numerous NFL prospects both at his position and through his work on special teams, and has been part of 19 bowl teams since 2002. He returned to Carolina after a four-year stint at Auburn, where he coached tight ends and H-backs and served as the special teams coordinator for the previous three seasons.

Porter's running back room was ravaged by injury during a 2022 season that saw four different backs earn a start, which doesn't take into account presumed starter British Brooks, who missed the entire season after picking up an injury in fall camp. As a team, the Heels rushed for 153.5 yards per game, which ranked sixth in the ACC. Elijah Green started the final six games of the season and rushed for 558 yards and eight TDs. True freshman Omarion Hampton added 401 yards and six TDs, while Caleb Hood, D.J. Jones and George Pettaway combined to contribute 467 yards and three TDs.

The Heels saw marked improvements on special teams during 2022. Punter Ben Kiernan finished the year averaging 46.8 yards per punt, which would have ranked fourth nationally and first in the ACC had he qualified on attempts. He also ranked sixth nationally in net punting en route to third-team All-ACC honors. The return teams excelled as well, finishing 13th nationally and second in the ACC in punt return average (13.3 ypr) and ninth nationally and fourth in the league in kickoff return average (23.7 ypr). Overall, Carolina improved 63 spots to No. 20 in ESPN's Special Teams Efficiency rankings.

During his first season back at Carolina, Porter led a running back room that helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in rushing yards. Ty Chandler was the team's leading rusher in his lone year in Chapel Hill, finishing the season with 1,092 rushing yards and 13 TDs on 182 carries (6.0 ypc). He also caught 15 passes for 216 yards and a TD. An All-ACC second teamer, Chandler produced the third-most rushing yards in the ACC and the most rushing TDs by a running back in the league. British Brooks came on strong towards the end of the year, tallying 285 yards and three TDs over the final three games of the season.

A Broyles Award nominee in 2020 at Auburn, Porter's special teams units were led by Groza Award semifinalist Anders Carlson, who went 20-of-22 on the season, and Tank Bigsby, who led the SEC in kickoff returns with a 23.5 yards-per-return average. Meanwhile, his collection of tight ends increased their production from previous seasons combining for 20 receptions.

Porter mentored Christian Tutt and Noah Igbinoghene, a first-round NFL Draft selection of the Miami Dolphins, on special teams and both were among the national leaders as return specialists in 2019. Additionally, H-back Spencer Nigh (Pittsburgh) and punter Arryn Siposs (Detroit) signed as NFL free agents.

In 2018, Auburn ranked fifth nationally in net punting, recorded a national-best seven blocked kicks and was one of only two schools to rank in the top 50 in kickoff return average and defense, net punt and punt return average, earning Porter a Broyles Award nomination. H-back Chandler Cox, who was a four-year starter, was drafted by the Miami Dolphins.

In his first season at Auburn in 2017, the Tigers became just the eighth team in SEC history to rush and pass for 3,000 yards in a season. They set a school record for points in SEC play (327), won the SEC West, and played in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Porter went to Auburn from Carolina, where he spent three seasons as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. During his tenure, UNC made three consecutive bowl appearances and won the ACC Coastal Division in 2015. During that time, Porter was instrumental in the recruitment of Michael Carter, Dazz Newsome, Jason Strowbridge and many others.

In 2016, Porter was nominated for the Broyles Award after tutoring All-ACC running backs Elijah Hood and T.J. Logan. The duo combined to rush for 1,508 yards and 15 TDs. Hood (Oakland) and Logan (Arizona) were both selected in the 2017 NFL Draft. On special teams, the Tar Heels ranked first in the nation in punt return defense (0.22) and second in the nation in kickoff return average (26.97). Logan ranked second nationally in kickoff return average at 32.9 yards per return and scored two TDs.

Under his guidance in 2015, Carolina's running game ranked 18th nationally, averaging 224.4 yards per game. That was the highest average on the ground at UNC since 1994. Carolina had the nation's most improved rushing attack, averaging 1.99 more yards per carry than it did the previous year. Hood rushed for 1,463 yards and 17 TDs and was an All-ACC performer. As an offense, the Tar Heels finished ninth nationally and set a then-school record at 40.7 points per game. The group set 62 team and individual school records on offense.

In his first season at UNC, Porter was part of an offensive staff that set several school records and gained more than 5,000 yards of total offense. Rotating three running backs, the group produced 1,119 rushing yards and scored 11 TDs.

Porter came to UNC after one season as running backs coach at Texas, one year as running backs coach at Arizona State and two seasons as head coach at Memphis, his alma mater.

Porter spent five years on the LSU coaching staff from 2005-09, coaching running backs while also holding two key roles on staff as assistant head coach and chief recruiter. He was elevated to the position of assistant head coach during the spring of 2006 and was twice named National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com (2007, '09). Part of LSU's 2007 National Championship team, Porter developed two 1,000-yard rushers at LSU in Jacob Hester (2007) and Charles Scott (2008) and produced six NFL Draft selections (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday, Stevan Ridley).

Porter coached 1,000-yard rushers for three straight seasons while at Oklahoma State. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards and 12 touchdowns. A year earlier, Tatum Bell earned first team All-Big 12 honors with 1,286 yards and 16 touchdowns. Morency was a third-round pick of the Houston Texans in 2005 and Bell was a second-round pick by the Denver Broncos in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. He began his coaching career at Wooddale High School in Memphis, Tenn., before moving to the collegiate ranks, coaching the running backs at Tennessee-Martin in 1998.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Porter lettered for four years (1990-93) at Memphis, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education in 1996. He is a member of the Memphis Athletics M Club Hall of Fame. Porter and his wife, Sharmane, have three children; sons, Brandon and Omari, and daughter, Olivia.

RANDY CLEMENTS

OFFENSIVE LINE
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Randy Clements joined the Carolina football program in December of 2022 as the offensive line coach. A 35-year coaching veteran, Clements is a renowned offensive line coach, who has spent 20 seasons mentoring the position group at the collegiate level.

Clements has a track record of being one of the top offensive line coaches in the country. From 2010-20, he was part of nine offenses that ranked among the top 13 in the country including three straight No. 1-ranked units from 2013-15 at Baylor. He comes to Carolina after spending the last two years at North Texas.

During the 2022 season, Clements' unit was one of the toughest in the country, running a scheme similar to the UNC attack. The Mean Green offensive line paved the way for 201.7 rushing yards per game, which ranked 24th nationally and second in Conference USA. The group ranked ninth nationally in both sacks and tackles-for-loss allowed, giving up just 11 sacks all season and four TFL per game. As a result, UNT averaged 33.9 points per game and 453.8 yards per game, which ranked 29th and 20th nationally, respectively.

In Clements' first season with UNT, he worked as a volunteer coach with the offensive line. That unit helped the Mean Green rush for 233.5 yards per game, which ranked fifth nationally and first in the conference. The group also finished the year ranked 10th nationally in sacks allowed and 21st in tackles-for-loss allowed.

In 2020, Clements served as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Ole Miss. While in Oxford, the Rebels paced the SEC in total offense (555.5 ypg) and broke the conference record for total offense in conference play (562.4 ypg). Clements' unit paved the way for Ole Miss to score 39.2 points per game, which ranked 14th nationally, and run for 210.6 yards per game, which ranked 26th nationally and first in the SEC.

Clements spent one year as the offensive line coach at Florida St. in 2019 and one year at Houston in 2018. During the '18 season in Houston, the Cougars averaged 43.9 points per game, ranking fifth in the nation, and 512.3 yards of total offense, the seventh-highest total in the FBS. Clements unit blocked for 217.1 rushing yards per game, which ranked 24th nationally. He spent 2017 at NAIA Southeastern University leading the offensive line as the unit scored 55.1 ppg and averaged 557.4 ypg.

A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Clements served as offensive line coach at Baylor from 2008-16, holding the co-offensive coordinator title from 2008-11 and serving as run game coordinator from 2012-16. He produced the Big 12's Offensive Lineman of the Year four straight seasons from 2012-15 and mentored eight NFL Draft picks, including No. 2 overall pick Jason Smith in 2009 and first-round pick Danny Watkins in 2011.

Clements helped elevate the Baylor program to historic heights, including back-to-back Big 12 championships, behind a record-setting offense. While with the Bears, he coached linemen who earned a combined 13 All-Big 12 accolades and six All-America recognitions, including three unanimous selections.

The Bears led the nation in both total offense and scoring for three consecutive years from 2013-15, becoming only the second team in FBS history to accomplish that feat and the first since BYU from 1979-81.

Prior to Baylor, Clements spent five seasons at Houston from 2003-07. The UH offense was consistently ranked as one of the nation's most prolific. The Cougars ranked No. 4 nationally in total offense (513.2) in 2007, boasted the country's No. 6 offense (446.1 ypg) in 2006 en route to a Conference USA title. The 2004 offense finished the year No. 12 (458.3 ypg) in FBS.

Clements went to Houston after 12 highly successful seasons at Stephenville (Texas) High School, where he served as offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and head power lifting coach.

As a player, Clements earned all-conference honors at Tyler Junior College before transferring to Stephen F. Austin. While there, he played on the Lumberjacks' 1988 team which went 10-2 and reached the I-AA quarterfinals. He began his coaching career at SFA as a student assistant (1986-87) and then later received his bachelor's degree in education from SFA in 1989.

TIM CROSS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Tim Cross joined Mack Brown's staff at North Carolina as the defensive line coach on Nov. 30, 2018. Cross is a two-time assistant head coach at Minnesota and Air Force and also has experience in the NFL after interning with the Broncos, Texans and Vikings. He was named the Rivals Big 10 Recruiter of the Year while at Minnesota and was also a member of the Rivals Top 25 Recruiters of the year list.

During his career, Cross has helped develop 56 players that went on to the NFL. He previously spent five seasons at Air Force as the defensive line coach, while also serving as assistant head coach over his final two years.

In 2021, Cross helped mentor two All-ACC honorees in Myles Murphy and Ray Vohasek. Murphy claimed second-team honors, while Vohasek earned honorable mention recognition. Murphy was a disruptive force, finishing the year with 38 tackles, four sacks, nine TFL and three PBU. Vohasek also posted 38 tackles to go along with a sack, four TFL, four pressures and three PBU.

In his second year at Carolina, Cross mentored a defensive line that helped produce 36 sacks, the most for a Carolina defense since 2000 and tied for fifth nationally. The scoring defense, total defense and rushing defense all ranked in the Top 35 nationally of teams that played at least 10 games. Individually, Ray Vohasek and Tomari Fox combined to post 7.5 sacks and 13 TFL with Vohasek claiming All-ACC honorable mention honors.

Cross mentored a defensive line that helped the Tar Heels become one of the nation's most improved units in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense during his first season. UNC allowed 373.2 yards per game, which was a nearly 75-yard per game improvement over the previous season, and bolstered its ranking by 56 positions. The scoring defense improved by 63 spots after holding opponents to 10.8 points less per game, and the rushing defense jumped 60 spots after allowing over 75 yards fewer per game. In addition, the defense surged up 60 spots in opponent third-down percentage. Two of Cross' linemen, Aaron Crawford and Jason Strowbridge, earned All-ACC recognition after combining for 91 tackles, six sacks, 14.5 TFL and six pressures. Strowbridge went on to play in the Senior Bowl and was invited to the NFL Combine before being drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the fifth round of the NFL Draft. Crawford signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens.

Cross made a positive impact on the Academy's defensive unit. In 2018, his defensive line helped Air Force rank 16th nationally in rushing defense at 119.8 yards per game, and his 2016 group finished 10th in the same category at 114.2 yards per game. In his first year in 2014, the Falcons improved in scoring, rushing, passing and total defense, including having one of the nation's most improved scoring defenses with an average of 24.2 points per game, a nearly 16 point-per-game improvement. The defense ranked among the conference leaders in each category in 2015, despite being one of the youngest units in the nation with just one returning starter.

Up to the time of his departure, Air Force had produced six All-MWC first or second team defensive linemen with three coming under Cross' mentorship. Alex Hansen was a two-time All-MWC performer, including a first-team selection in 2015. Jordan Jackson earned second-team honors in 2018, while Ryan Watson led the MWC in sacks en route to first-team honors in 2016.

Prior to his time at Air Force, Cross completed his second stint at Texas, where he served as a strength and conditioning coach from 2011-13.

While serving as associate head coach and defensive line coach at Minnesota from 2007-10, Cross helped the Gophers to a +.92 turnover margin, which ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 16 in the nation in 2008. That same year, his defensive line recorded 20.5 sacks and 44 tackles for loss which ranked in the top three in the conference and in the top 25 nationally in both categories.

Cross coached defensive end D.L. Wilhite to Big Ten All-Freshman honors from The Sporting News in 2009 and saw his defensive line rack up 32 tackles for loss. He also coached defensive end Willie VanDeSteeg to first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2008. VanDeSteeg became the first Gopher defender to be named First-Team All-Big Ten since 2004.

Prior to his stint at Minnesota, Cross coached the defensive line at Syracuse from 2005-06, when he helped the Orange lead the Big East and finish seventh in the nation in turnover margin at +.92. His front line at Syracuse averaged 2.8 sacks per game, which was among the nation's top 20. A big reason for the Orange's success in getting to opposing quarterbacks was Cross' work with 2006 Big East sack leader Jameel McClain. Cross also coached NFL Draft selections James Wyche and Ryan LaCasse while at Syracuse.

Cross first began working at Texas prior to going to Syracuse, serving as assistant strength coach for the Longhorns from 2001-04. He assisted in the development and implementation of the strength and speed programs for the UT football squad. Cross was responsible for creating training programs for a Doak Walker, a Butkus and a Nagurski Trophy winner. Cross also played a key role in the development of numerous All-Americans and All-Big 12 performers, and the Longhorns won at least nine games each season.

Cross began his coaching career in Colorado at Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver, serving as head coach from 1997-2000. He also spent one season as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at TJHS. Cross led the school to four straight league titles and a 42-game conference winning streak. While at TJHS, he mentored 14 high school All-Americans, 20 all-state selections and 31 first team all-conference players. Cross coached two consecutive Gold Helmet Award winners, an honor bestowed to high school football all-state honorees who are successful on and off the field. He also coached two future NFL first-round draft picks during his time at TJHS in Daniel Graham (New England Patriots) and Andre Woolfolk (Tennessee Titans).

A native of Clarksville, Tenn., Cross attended Gateway High School in Aurora, Colo. and is a 1990 graduate of Northern Colorado, where he was a four-year letterman in football and earned all-North Central Conference honors as a linebacker. Cross and his wife, Natalie, have four children, Keion, Mariah, Tiana and Keira.

JASON JONES

CORNERBACKS
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Jason Jones joined the Carolina football program in January of 2023 as the cornerbacks coach. A 20-year coaching veteran, Jones has spent his entire career coaching the secondary and also has six years of defensive coordinator experience. He is reunited at UNC with his former defensive coordinator at Indiana Charlton Warren.

During his career, Jones has coached nine first-team all-conference honorees and 20 all-league selections. He's mentored four Jim Thorpe Award semifinalists and a Bronko Nagurksi Award finalist. Jones has been on the staff of five conference championship teams and has coached in 14 bowl games, including two New Year's Six games and a Fiesta Bowl championship.

Jones came to Chapel Hill after spending three seasons as the safeties coach at Indiana. During his time as a Hoosier, he mentored Jamar Johnson (first team) and Devon Matthews (third team) to All-Big Ten recognition. Johnson became the first IU safety to earn first-team honors since Eric Allen in 1996. He tied for third in the conference and eighth nationally with four interceptions before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the fifth round of the 2021 NFL Draft, the first Hoosier safety drafted since 1996. During the 2020 season, the Hoosiers led the league and finished second nationally with 17 interceptions.

In 2019, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at FAU. Meiko Dotson earned first-team all-conference honors and shared the national lead with nine INTs. The Owls led the nation in takeaways (33) en route to Conference USA and Boca Raton Bowl championships.

Jones spent six seasons at Ole Miss as co-defensive coordinator with a focus on the secondary. He helped convert wide receiver Derrick Jones into a defensive back. He ranked second on the team with five passes defended and two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown against Georgia. The transformation led to Jones getting selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

In 2015, Jones assisted in coordinating a Rebel defense that returned four interceptions for touchdowns, including a pick-six by cornerback Tony Bridges in the Egg Bowl. The four pick-sixes tied a school record that dates back to 1938. In total, Ole Miss ranked second in the SEC with 15 interceptions and third with 23 turnovers throughout the 2015 season. Jones mentored All-SEC DB Mike Hilton, a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist who led all SEC defensive backs with 12.5 tackles for loss.

In 2014, Jones was tabbed the National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year by FootballScoop. He turned one of the most inexperienced units the previous year into one of the most dominant. His cornerbacks helped Ole Miss lead the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24). Ole Miss ranked third in the SEC and 16th nationally in passing defense (192.1 ypg). The Rebels also led the SEC and ranked eighth nationally, forcing 32 turnovers, including 22 interceptions, the most in the SEC and fifth-most in the nation.

One of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Award, presented annually to the national defensive player of the year in college football, cornerback Senquez Golson was a consensus first team All-American. He led the SEC and ranked second nationally with a school record-tying 10 interceptions. He was also tied for first in the SEC and fourth nationally with 18 passes defended.

Jones arrived in Oxford after five seasons at Oklahoma State, where his teams amassed a 49-16 record. During his time in Stillwater, Jones coached three different Cowboy corners to first-team All-Big 12 honors and a pair of Thorpe Award semifinalists in Perrish Cox (2009) and Brodrick Brown (2011). Cox was a first-team All-American in 2009, as well.

With Jones serving as position coach, Cox led the nation in passes defended per game in 2009 and Brown ranked third in the same category in 2011. As a team, OSU led the nation with 44 turnovers forced in 2011 and was fifth with 34 in 2010. Jones also helped develop former high school QB Justin Gilbert, who became the eighth overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft as a cornerback.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense was among the nation's most opportunistic from 2009-12, as the Cowboys forced 130 turnovers to rank second nationally in that span.

Jones went to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2007. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA Championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA Championship and an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

Jones' first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearance in the Music City Bowl.

Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. He was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three bowl teams, an SEC West championship in 1996 and SEC championship in 1999. He went on to earn a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005.

Jones and his wife Kysha have four children, Andrew, Jace, Jarah and Jathan.

FREDDIE KITCHENS

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Freddie Kitchens joined the Carolina football program in February of 2023 as run game coordinator and tight ends coach. A 24-year coaching veteran, Kitchens came to Chapel Hill after spending one season as a Senior Football Analyst at South Carolina following a 16-year run in the NFL that included a stint as the Cleveland Browns head coach and a trip to the Super Bowl with the Arizona Cardinals.

While in the NFL, Kitchens worked for the New York Giants, where he served as the tight ends coach in 2020 and as a senior offensive assistant and interim offensive coordinator in 2021 under head coach Joe Judge.

On January 12, 2019, Kitchens became the 17th head coach in Cleveland Browns' history. He posted a 6-10 mark in his lone season as the Browns' head coach, defeating all three of their AFC North rivals (Baltimore, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh) in the same season for the first time since the division came into existence in 2002. During the '19 season, the Browns produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard running back for only the second time in franchise history with the other coming in 2007. Jarvis Landry tallied 1,174 receiving yards, which ranks fourth all-time in Browns' history, en route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. He was the first Browns receiver selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Paul Warfield in 1969 and '70. Odell Beckham amassed 1,035 yards on the year, a feat he had not accomplished with another 1,000-yard receiver on the team. Nick Chubb rushed for 1,494 yards, which ranks fifth all-time in Browns' history and was the most in franchise history since Jim Brown had 1,544 in 1965.

Kitchens joined the Browns in 2018 as the associate head coach and running backs coach. He was promoted to offensive coordinator midway through that 2018 season and was credited with helping Baker Mayfield have a successful rookie season in which he was runner-up for Rookie of the Year honors. The Browns surrendered just five sacks in the eight games Kitchens served as offensive coordinator, while scoring TDs on 19-of-23 red zone trips (79.2%).

Kitchens moved to the professional ranks in 2006 as a tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys under Bill Parcells. While in Dallas, he worked with Jason Witten, who caught 64 passes for 754 yards en route to Pro Bowl honors.

In 2007, Kitchens joined the Arizona Cardinals for an 11-year run, working with the tight ends (2007-12), quarterbacks (2013-16) and running backs (2017), that included a trip to the Super Bowl in 2008. In his first season with the Cardinals, his tight-end group combined for eight TD receptions, which was the most for the franchise's tight ends since 1988. Kitchens mentored Pro Bowler Carson Palmer in 2015, when Palmer set franchise records in passing yards (4,671) and TDs (35).

In addition to his work with tight ends and quarterbacks, Kitchens coached several of the NFL's best running backs, including Nick Chubb, Kareem Hunt, Chris Johnson and Adrian Peterson.

Kitchens began his coaching career in the college ranks, working as the running backs and tight ends coach at Glenville State (W.Va.) in 1999, before joining LSU as a graduate assistant in 2000 under Nick Saban. He also logged collegiate stints at North Texas as a running backs coach (2001-03) and at Mississippi State as a tight ends (2004) and running backs (2005) coach.

While at North Texas, Kitchens guided running back Patrick Cobbs to one of the Mean Green's most impressive seasons. Cobbs led the nation in rushing yards per game (152.7 ypg) and scoring (11.5 ppg) in 2003, while setting three UNT single-season rushing records and the Sun Belt single-season rushing mark. During the 2004 season at Mississippi St., Kitchens mentored redshirt freshman Eric Butler to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Born Nov. 29, 1974 in Gadsden, Ala., Kitchens was named Mr. Football in Alabama following his senior season at Attalla's Etowah High School. He attended the University of Alabama, where he played quarterback for the Crimson Tide. A three-year starter (1995-97), he threw for 4,668 yards and 30 touchdowns, and led the Tide to wins in the 1995 Citrus Bowl and in the 1997 Outback Bowl. He finished his collegiate career ranked third in the school's history in career passing attempts, fourth in career passing yards, and fifth in career completions. He also played baseball during his freshman and senior seasons at Alabama.

Kitchens and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters, Bennett and Camden.

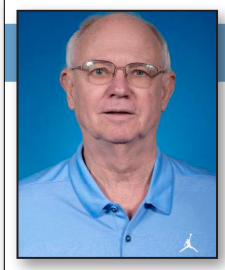
SENIOR ADVISORS TO THE HEAD COACH



DARRELL MOODY

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE HEAD COACH
16TH YEAR AT UNC

Darrell Moody, who has spent the better part of two decades as an NFL scout, returned for his third stint at UNC on Jan. 10, 2019, and will serve as Senior Advisor to the Head Coach. During his coaching career, Moody served as the offensive coordinator at Tulane, North Carolina and Clemson.

Moody spent 11 seasons on the UNC coaching staff, including eight years with Brown from 1988-95. A respected offensive mind, Moody primarily coached running backs in his time at Carolina.

In total, Moody spent 31 years as a collegiate coach with stops at NC State (1973-74, 77-79, 97), Southern Miss (1975), LSU (1980-83), Appalachian State (1984), Tulane (1985-87), North Carolina (1988-95, 1998-2000) and Clemson (1996). Moody also coached at Asheboro H.S. (1971-72) and served as the offensive coordinator at Eastern Randolph H.S. in Ramseur in 2001.

After three decades on the sidelines, Moody became a scout for the San Diego Chargers in 2002. He worked for 17 years as a national and regional scout for the Chargers (2002-09), Buffalo Bills (2010-14) and San Francisco 49ers (2015-18).

A native of Asheboro, N.C., Moody played quarterback and shortstop on the baseball team at NC State from 1968-70, where he earned a degree in economics and a master's in vocational education.

SPARKY WOODS

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE HEAD COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Sparky Woods, a 40-year veteran in coaching with over a decade worth of head-coaching experience, was hired by Mack Brown on Jan. 10, 2019, to serve as Senior Advisor to the Head Coach. Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Woods coached running backs and was the co-special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond.

During his four seasons in Richmond (2015-18), one of which ended in the FCS Semifinals, Woods mentored Deontez Thompson, who became the first freshman in program history to rush for over 1,000 yards, earning Freshman All-America accolades. Thompson was just the 13th player in program history to reach 1,000-plus yards rushing, while also piling up nearly 500 yards receiving. Woods also guided Jacobi Green, who earned All-America and All-CAA accolades after gaining over 1,600 yards and 21 touchdowns, two of the best single-season marks in program history. Woods also served as Richmond's recruiting coordinator in 2015 and 2016, helping the Spiders to back-to-back high-profile recruiting classes.

Prior to Richmond, Woods spent seven seasons as the head coach at VMI (2008-14) and four years coaching running backs at Alabama (2003-06). While in Tuscaloosa, Woods coached Crimson Tide running back Kenneth Darby to two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons and Shaud Williams, who led the SEC in rushing yardage in 2003 and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tide led the SEC in rushing for three consecutive seasons (2003-05).

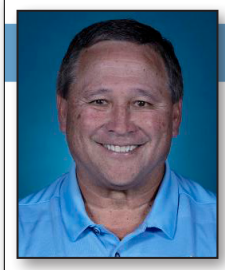
Before his time in Tuscaloosa, Woods served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Memphis (1995-96), Virginia (1997-98) and Mississippi State (1999-02). In 1994, he was part of the New York Jets staff as an offensive assistant.

Woods' first head coaching experience began in 1984, when he turned Appalachian State into a I-AA power, guiding the Mountaineers to a 38-19-2 mark, two Southern Conference titles and two I-AA playoff appearances over his five seasons (1984-88). The Southern Conference tabbed Woods as Coach of the Year three consecutive times (1985-87) and he was also named Kodak Region II Coach of the Year in 1986.

After his time at Appalachian State, Woods took over at South Carolina, guiding them to back-to-back six-wins seasons to start his five-year tenure in Columbia (1989-93).

Woods is a 1976 graduate of Carson-Newman, where he played quarterback and defensive back. He began his coaching career at Tennessee later that year. In 1977, he moved to Kansas before serving one year as defensive backs coach at North Alabama in 1978. From 1979-82, he coached at Iowa State, handling the receivers, before joining Appalachian State in 1983 as offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and running backs coach under Mack Brown. One year later, Woods was named head coach at Appalachian State.

Woods and his wife, Jean Ann, have two children, a daughter, Emily, and a son, Casey who is on the UAB football staff. Casey and his wife, Lauren, have two children, Waverly and Sawyer.



CLYDE CHRISTENSEN

VOLUNTEER OFFENSIVE ANALYST

Clyde Christensen joined the Carolina football program as a volunteer analyst in March of 2023. Christensen brings 43 years of coaching experience to UNC, including 27 years in the NFL, where he won two Super Bowls and coached quarterbacks Tom Brady, Peyton Manning, Andrew Luck and Jameis Winston. He came to Chapel Hill following a four-year stint as the quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

During the 2022 season, Christensen helped Brady lead the league in attempts (733) and completions (490), while finishing third in passing yards (4,694), fourth in passing yards per game (276.1) and eighth in passing TDs (25).

Under Christensen's guidance in 2021, Brady led the NFL in passing yards (5,316), passing touchdowns (43), pass completions (485) and pass attempts (719), joining Drew Brees (2008) and Peyton Manning (2013) as the only players to have led the league in all four categories in a single season since 1991. He also earned his NFL-record 15th Pro Bowl selection. His 5,316 passing yards marked a career high and the third-most in NFL history. In addition, Brady's passing and yardage totals in 2021 each set new single-season franchise records. With Christensen's assistance, Brady also led the NFL in 2021 in passing first downs (269), completions of 20+ yards (75) and completions of 25+ yards (42), while tying for first in both 300-yard passing games (nine) and 400-yard passing games (three).

In 2020, Christensen coached Brady through his first year with Tampa Bay, after spending 20 seasons with the New England Patriots. With Christensen's assistance, Brady led the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory in his first season with the team, setting a franchise record with 40 passing touchdowns during the regular season. Brady's 40 touchdown passes tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2020 and he also ranked second in completions (401), third in passing yards (4,633), sixth in passing touchdown percentage (6.6) and seventh in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.33). He was the only quarterback in 2020 to finish in the top three in both passing yards and passing touchdowns. As a team, Tampa Bay ranked third in the NFL in points scored per game (30.8), fourth in passing yards per game (298.5) and seventh in total offense (384.1).

In his first year working with Christensen, Brady set an NFL record with his 40 touchdown passes – the most by a player in his first season with a team. Additionally, Brady's 4,633 passing yards stand as the second-most by a player in his first season with a team. The tandem's success carried over into the postseason during which Brady's 10 touchdown passes, 1,061 passing yards and 81 completions all set franchise records for the most by a player in a single postseason.

Christensen mentored quarterback Jameis Winston in 2019, who guided an offense that led the league in passing at 302.8 yards per game and ranked third in total offense at 397.9 yards per contest. Under Christensen's guidance, Winston set franchise records with 5,109 passing yards, 33 touchdowns and 380 completions. In 2019, Winston led the NFL in passing yards, ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns and finished tied for fifth with an 8.2 yards per attempt mark.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Christensen spent time with the Buccaneers (1996-2001), Indianapolis Colts (2002-15) and Miami Dolphins (2016-18). His first NFL coaching experience came with Tampa Bay, serving as the team's tight ends coach (1996-98), before becoming the quarterbacks coach (1999-2000). In 2001, Christensen worked as the Buccaneers' offensive coordinator, helping wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson set a franchise record with 106 receptions.

Following his first stint with Tampa Bay, Christensen spent 14 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, helping the team win Super Bowl XLI. He first worked as the wide receivers coach (2002-07) before adding assistant head coach (2008-09) to his title. During his time coaching the receivers, Christensen tutored Hall of Famer Marvin Harrison and perennial Pro Bowler Reggie Wayne, who rank first and second in nearly every receiving category in Colts history. During that time, Harrison was a two-time first-team AP All-Pro and earned five Pro Bowl berths, while Wayne earned four Pro Bowl berths and a first-team AP All-Pro selection. Wayne also earned Pro Bowl berths in 2009 and 2010, when Christensen was the Colts' offensive coordinator.

Christensen spent two seasons as the Colts' offensive coordinator (2010-11), working with quarterback Peyton Manning in 2010, who set then-career-highs and then-single season franchise records for completions (450), attempts (679) and yards (4,700).

Christensen took over as quarterbacks coach for his final four seasons with the Colts (2012-15), coaching Andrew Luck, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Luck set NFL rookie records in passing yards (4,374) and 300-yard passing games (six), while breaking the league record for single-game passing yards by a rookie (433, 11/4 vs. Miami). In 2014, Luck set the single-season franchise record for passing yards (4,761) and led the NFL in passing touchdowns, with 40, earning his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection and helping lead the Colts to the AFC Championship Game.

Christensen spent 17 years as a college coach before entering the NFL, working at Clemson (1994-95), Maryland (1992-93), South Carolina (1991), Holy Cross (1989-90), East Carolina (1986-88), Temple (1983-95), East Tennessee State (1980-82) and Mississippi (1979).

A native of Covina, Calif., Christensen played at Fresno City Junior College before finishing his collegiate career at North Carolina (1977-78).

TED MONACHINO

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ANALYST

Ted Monachino joined the Carolina football program as a defensive analyst in March of 2023. Monachino has been coaching for 32 years at all levels of football, including 16 years in the NFL, with an emphasis on outside linebackers and defensive line. During his time in the league, Monachino mentored some of the game's most dynamic pass rushers in Terrell Suggs, Khalil Mack, Elvis Dumervil and C.J. Mosely. He won a Super Bowl with the Ravens and served as the defensive coordinator for two seasons with the Indianapolis Colts. Monachino came to Chapel Hill after spending two seasons as the outside linebackers coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

During the 2022 season in Atlanta, Monachino's outside linebackers combined for 8.5 sacks led by Lorenzo Carter, who had four. Carter also contributed 58 tackles on the season. In 2021, veteran outside linebacker Dante Fowler recorded a team-leading 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. Under Monachino's tutelage, fifth-round rookie Ade Ogundeji started 11 games and finished with 32 total tackles, 1.0 sack, five tackles for loss, two quarterback hits, one fumble recovery and one blocked field goal.

Monachino has coaching experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, including a Super Bowl XLVII championship with the Baltimore Ravens. He came to Atlanta having most recently spent two seasons (2019-20) as a senior defensive assistant and outside linebackers coach for the Chicago Bears. In two years under Monachino, Bears outside linebacker Khalil Mack recorded the sixth-most sacks (17.5) and tied for the second-most forced fumbles (eight) among linebackers in the NFL over that span and earned Pro Bowl honors in each of those seasons.

In 2018, Monachino returned to his alma mater – the University of Missouri – as a senior defensive assistant where he helped defensive lineman Terry Beckner Jr., linebacker Cale Garrett and defensive back DeMarkus Acy earn second-team All-SEC honors.

From 2016-17, Monachino served as the defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts after spending six seasons coaching linebackers (2012-15) and outside linebackers (2010-11) for the Baltimore Ravens.

Over his final two seasons in Baltimore, Monachino helped develop Ravens linebacker C.J. Mosley into one of the most productive young players at the position. In 2014, Mosley became the first rookie in Ravens history to be named to the Pro Bowl. Monachino also coached Pro Bowler Elvis Dumervil to a franchise-record 17.0 sacks in 2014 as he and Terrell Suggs (12.0) combined for the most sacks of any duo in the NFL (29.0) that season. In 2013, Suggs (10.0) and Dumervil (9.5) totaled 19.5 sacks on the season and Suggs was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl.

In Monachino's first season as linebackers coach in 2012, Baltimore ranked second in red zone defense and allowed the second-fewest passing touchdowns (15) en route to the Super Bowl XLVII victory. In 2011, Suggs was named The Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year, First Team All-Pro and a Pro Bowler after leading the AFC with a career-high 14.0 sacks and an NFL-best seven forced fumbles. The defensive unit allowed the league's third-fewest points (16.6 avg.) for the fourth-straight year (tying an NFL record for finishing in the top three) and finished with the league's second fewest rushing yards allowed (92.6 avg.).

In his first season in Baltimore in 2010, the Ravens allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.9 avg.) for the third consecutive year as Suggs led the team with 11.0 sacks and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

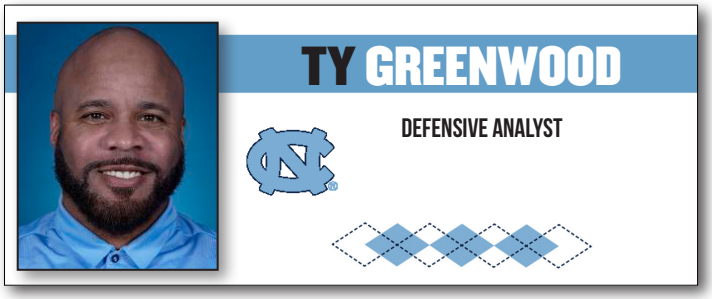
Prior to his tenure in Baltimore, Monachino coached the defensive line for the Jacksonville Jaguars for two seasons (2008-09) and served as an assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07.

Monachino coached for five seasons (2001-05) at Arizona State, serving as the defensive line coach for the Sun Devils. He was pivotal in the development of Suggs, who was drafted by the Ravens in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. Suggs set the NCAA single-season record for sacks (24.0) and tackles for loss (31.5) in 2002 en route to winning the Bronko Nagurski and Lombardi Awards and the Morris Trophy for the Pac-10's top lineman.

Monachino also had coaching stints at Boise State (2000), Missouri State (1999), James Madison (1998) and Texas Christian (1996-97). He began his coaching career in Missouri at the high school level at Hannibal (Mo.) High School (1994-95) and Pacific (Mo.) High School (1991-93).

Monachino earned a degree in health and physical education from Missouri in 1990. He was a three-year letterman for the Tigers and received Academic All-Big 8 honors twice before serving as a graduate assistant at TCU from 1996-97.

Monachino and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Sam and Michael, and a daughter, Mikalee, who is married to Preston Brunz. They also have three grandchildren, Sawyer, Henley and Nash.



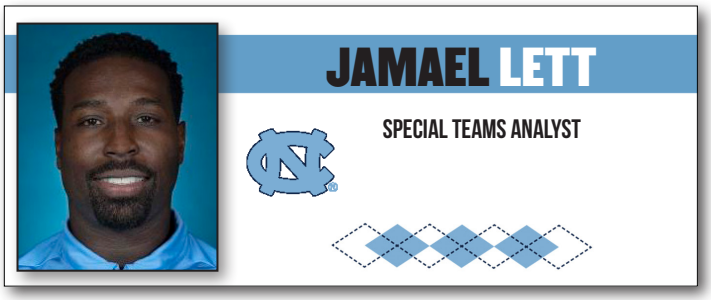
Ty Greenwood joined the Carolina football staff in March of 2023 as a defensive analyst. Greenwood came to Chapel Hill after spending one season as the defensive pass game coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Elon.

Prior to his year at Elon, Greenwood spent three years (two seasons with the cancelation of 2020) at North Carolina Central, where he served as cornerbacks coach, defensive pass game coordinator and recruiting coordinator. In 2021, the team ranked second in the MEAC in passing yards allowed per game. The 2019 squad ranked 11th nationally in passing yards allowed at just 170.0 per contest and was 20th in the country with 14 interceptions.

Under Greenwood's tutelage, cornerback Bryan Mills flourished, leading the MEAC with five interceptions and being named Phil Steele First Team All-Conference as well as BOXTOROW All-America, recognizing the top HBCU players. Mills earned an invitation to the NFL Combine, played in his first NFL game with the Minnesota Vikings in 2021, and is currently playing with the Birmingham Stallions of the USFL.

From 2015-18, Greenwood worked with the cornerbacks and linebackers at Delaware State University. Prior to that, he was a quality control coach at Kansas for the 2013-14 seasons. Greenwood also spent six seasons as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Pierce College in Los Angeles.

A 2004 graduate of Delaware State, Greenwood was a three-year starter at defensive back. He earned All-MEAC honors and was the team's defensive MVP in 2003, totaling 68 tackles.



Jamael Lett joined the Carolina football program in March of 2023 as a special teams analyst. Lett came to Chapel Hill after spending two seasons as the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant at South Alabama.

While at South Alabama, Lett led a kickoff return unit that finished 27th nationally, while improving the Jaguars' national ranking in a number of other categories in 2022. Kicker Diego Guajardo went 18-of-19 on field goals and 46-of-48 on PATs. In 2021, Guajardo finished the season with 69 points on 12-of-17 field goals and 33-of-35 extra point attempts. He also recorded 23 touchbacks on 59 kickoffs.

A Mobile, Ala. Native, Lett has coached at the collegiate level since 2015, including serving as the secondary coach at Akron in 2020.

Lett also worked with the secondary at Samford from 2017-19, helping the Bulldogs go 8-4 overall and 6-2 in the Southern Conference in his first year on the staff as they qualified for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoffs after defeating three top-25 teams during the campaign. His efforts also helped Samford post a winning record the following fall after earning victories over No. 8 Wofford and 17th-ranked East Tennessee State.

While he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line at Ohio in 2016, Lett helped Tarell Basham become the Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year as the Bobcats won the league's East Division title with a 6-2 mark. They would finish 8-6 after earning a berth in the conference championship game as well as receiving an invitation to play in the Dollar General Bowl.

He was an assistant at Tennessee-Martin during the 2015 season as the Skyhawks went 7-4 overall and 6-2 in the Ohio Valley Conference, with his efforts guiding a secondary, which featured all-league selection Marquis Clemons, that recorded six interceptions and 30 additional pass breakups.

Lett has also served as an assistant coach at Davidson (Ala.) High, where two of his players would go on to compete at the NCAA Division I level, and Brainerd (Tenn.) H.S.

A four-year letterwinner in the secondary at Samford, he received his undergraduate degree in sports medicine in 2011 before going on to add a master's degree in curriculum and instruction from Tennessee Tech the following year. In 2019, Lett was selected to take part in the NCAA-NFL Coaches Academy.

Lett and his wife, Julia, have two children, son David and daughter Madison.

NATRONE MEANS

OFFENSIVE ANALYST

Natrone Means, a Tar Heel legend and 19-year coaching veteran, joined Mack Brown's staff at North Carolina as an offensive analyst on March 22, 2021. Means came to Carolina after spending one year as the offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and running backs coach at Fayetteville St.

Prior to making the move to Fayetteville St., Means served as the running backs coach at Winston-Salem St. for six seasons and was promoted to associate head coach for his final season with the Rams in 2019.

Means began his collegiate coaching career at Livingstone College in 2005 as running backs coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2006. He honed his coaching skills while participating in the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program with the Atlanta Falcons.

In 2007, Means became offensive coordinator at the historical powerhouse West Charlotte High School and went on to serve as offensive coordinator at Hopewell High School. He returned to the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program with the Carolina Panthers during 2008 training camp, focused primarily on running backs De'Angelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart. The duo had a record-breaking season as they became the first set of teammates to each rush for 1,100 yards in NFL history.

From 2008-10, Means served as the Regional Scouting Director for Collegiate Sports of America, assisting qualified high school student-athletes market themselves for scholarship consideration to colleges of all competitive levels across the country. In 2010, he became the Running Back Lead for the Nike Football Training Camps.

Means had a stellar career in the NFL, where he enjoyed a seven-year career that included a trip to Super Bowl XXIX. He became the youngest player (22 years old) to score a touchdown in the Super Bowl. He was drafted by the Chargers in the second round (41st overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft. For his career, he totaled 5,215 yards and 45 touchdowns. In the 1994 season, Means rushed for 1,350 yards and 12 touchdowns and earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. In 2009, he was honored as a member of the San Diego Chargers' 50th Anniversary Team and was a finalist in 2012 to be inducted into the San Diego Chargers Hall of Fame.

Prior to playing in the NFL, Means attended North Carolina, where he enjoyed a great collegiate career. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and finished his career with 3,074 rushing yards and 34 touchdowns on 605 attempts. He also had 61 receptions for 500 yards as well.

Means is married to Shonda Means. They have four children.

TIM MCGRATH

SPECIAL TEAMS
QUALITY CONTROL

Tim McGrath joined the North Carolina football staff as a special teams quality control coach in March of 2022. McGrath came to Chapel Hill after spending two years in the same role at Texas Tech.

During his time at Texas Tech, McGrath mentored two specialists to three All-Big 12 honors. Placekicker Jonathan Garibay earned first team All-Big 12 in 2021 and punter Austin McNamara earned first and second team all-conference honors. McNamara led the league in punting average at 46.3 yards per punt in 2020, which ranked fifth among FBS punters. Additionally, it was the second-highest season average in program history, placing McNamara in an exclusive category as the only punter with two of the top-five marks as a Red Raider. McNamara's season was highlighted by 87- and 74-yard punts against West Virginia with the 87-yarder setting Tech and Big 12 records.

McGrath arrived in Lubbock following one season in as a special teams quality control coach at UMass and five seasons as a special teams assistant at Georgia Tech. During his one season at UMass, kick returner Isaiah Rodgers garnered first-team All-America and All-Independent honors by Pro Football Focus after returning 53 kickoffs for 1,295 yards, both of which ranked first among all FBS players during the 2019 season. Rodgers, who also earned All-Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) first-team honors, set the program single-season and career records for kick returns and kick return yardage during his senior year before being selected in the sixth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. McGrath was also involved in place kicker Cooper Garcia's progress as he finished his career with the second-highest career field goal percentage in program history.

McGrath was a coaching assistant for with the Yellow Jackets for 5 years working primarily with Georgia Tech's special teams units where he helped mentor NFL placekicker Harrison Butker, NFL punter Pressley Harvin III, a Freshman All-American in 2017 and Ray Guy Award winner, and kick returner Juanyeh Thomas, a Freshman All-American in 2018.

Butker helped Georgia Tech lead the ACC in field goal percentage and PAT percentage in 2016, while Harvin led all FBS freshmen with a 44.1 punting average a year later en route to earning third team All-ACC honors. Harvin followed his Freshman All-America season by earning second team All-ACC accolades in 2018. Thomas, meanwhile, was named a True Freshman All-American by 247Sports and first team All-ACC by Pro Football Focus in 2018 after returning 24 kickoffs for 606 yards and two touchdowns.

McGrath joined the Georgia Tech staff after serving as video coordinator and special teams quality control assistant at his alma mater, Villanova. As an undergraduate at Villanova, McGrath was a student assistant for the Wildcats' nationally-prominent FCS program. He also served on staff at Episcopal Academy during that time, helping the prep squad to an 8-3 record in 2013.

In addition to his experience at the college level, McGrath has worked with various professional indoor football leagues. He coached the 2013 and 2014 seasons with the Harrisburg Stampede, winning an American Indoor Football Championship in his first year. He was also on the staff of the Indoor Football League's Reading Express during the 2012 season.

A native of Andover, Mass., McGrath graduated from Villanova in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering and a minor in mathematics.

JAMESHA CLANTON
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Jamesha Clanton joined Carolina Athletics in September of 2021 as the Assistant Director of Business Operations for Football. Prior to joining UNC, Clanton spent two years at George Washington University as a Financial Analyst, where she managed the budget for 18 teams and units within the athletics department.

Clanton started her career in tax accounting, working for both KPMG and Robert C. Gottke, CPA, PLLC. While maintaining her accounting career, Clanton interned with the Washington Redskins as a PR Game Day Intern and also worked with Separation Sports Management, assisting with their budgeting, planning, and execution of elite basketball showcases and tournaments across the country.

Clanton earned her bachelor's degree in accounting from Howard University in 2011. While attending Howard, she worked with the football program as a student manager. Clanton is the daughter of UNC alum, Patricia Jackson Clanton.

KEVIN DONNALLEY
DIRECTOR OF THE KOMAN
GAME PLAN FOR SUCCESS
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Carolina Football Family member and NFL veteran Kevin Donnalley joined Mack Brown's staff as director of high school relations on March 23, 2020. Donnalley transitioned into the role of Director of the Koman Game Plan for Success in January of 2022. Donnalley returned to Chapel Hill after spending four years as the director of student-athlete development at Charlotte.

As the Director of the Koman Game Plan for Success, Donalley focuses on the development of student-athletes "off the field. He coordinates initiatives in leadership, career development, and community service.

While the Director of High School Relations, Donnalley provided outreach to all high school coaches by establishing, maintaining and improving relationships between them and the football staff. He fostered strong relationships with those coaches to enhance the recruiting efforts of the program. In addition, Donnalley oversaw all high school communications, served as the practice guest liaison, and assisted with recruiting events and visits.

Donnalley served in a number of roles at Charlotte since the program started in 2013 before settling into his director of player development position. He worked in strength and conditioning initially and was set to move into player development but was thrust into coaching the offensive line during the 2015 season. Donnalley moved into player development in 2016, where he led the strategic planning for development and worked closely with student-athletes. He was heavily involved in camps and increased attendance through relationship building with coaches locally, regionally and nationally. In addition, Donnalley developed strong relationships with local schools, hospitals and non-profits to diversify community-service opportunities.

In addition to his work at Charlotte, Donnalley has also been a long-time philanthropist and public speaker. He founded the March Forth with Hope Foundation in 2005 to provide support for families with children facing life threatening medical conditions. He's also served as a committee chair for the Charlotte Christian School and an advisory board member for the Make a Wish Foundation. As a speaker, Donnalley has presented at various conferences, corporate events and professional development sessions on topics such as leadership, teamwork and overcoming adversity.

Donnalley played 13 seasons in the NFL as an offensive lineman. He was selected in the third round of the '91 NFL Draft by the Houston Oilers and went on to play there from 1991-96, a time that included three playoff runs. In 1997, Donnalley played for the Tennessee Titans before heading to the Miami Dolphins from 1998-2000 for three seasons of playoff football. He completed his career by playing three seasons for the Carolina Panthers that included a run to Super Bowl XXXVIII following the 2003 season.

A 1991 graduate of North Carolina with a degree in economics, Donnalley played for Mack Brown and was a three-year letterman and captain for the Tar Heels. He earned All-America and all-conference honors as a senior in 1990 and was part of the group that laid the foundation for Carolina's unprecedented success during the ensuing decade.

JEREMY SHARPE
ASSISTANT A.D./FOOTBALL
COMMUNICATIONS AND BRANDING
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Jeremy Sharpe joined the North Carolina athletics department in March 2019 as the Director of Football Communications and Branding. In this role, Sharpe serves as the primary media relations contact for Carolina football and head coach Mack Brown, while overseeing all external branding initiatives for the program. He also oversees all football social media and serves as the primary liaison between the football program and GoHeels Productions and Creative Services, Athletic Communications, Athletics Marketing and other supporting units.

Sharpe spent the previous five years as the Associate A.D. for Communication Services for Arizona Athletics. His primary duties included the implementation of all communication strategies for the athletics department and managing budget and resource allocation for communication services, while overseeing seven full-time staffers and 10 student assistants. He worked with all arms of the external operations staff to provide messaging for the Wildcat Club, C.A.T.S. Academics, marketing, ticketing and other strategic initiatives. Sharpe also oversaw the production of Wildcat Wednesday, the Athletics Director's weekly e-mail communication sent to over 180,000 subscribers. In addition, in the fall of 2016, he was appointed as sport liaison for soccer and worked closely with the soccer staff and administration to support the program.

From 2010-13, Sharpe worked at the University of South Florida in Tampa, where he served as the Assistant A.D. for Communications. While at USF, he oversaw all aspects of communications for the athletics department, while serving as the primary contact for the football program. As part of the external leadership team, Sharpe developed messaging and strategic advice for communications, marketing, ticket operations, IMG sponsorship and broadcasting and donor functions. He also led a restructuring of the communications office resulting in the hiring of a full-time writer and the creation of a multimedia department. Those changes, and an increased focus on internal coverage, produced an increase of five million page views, helping to enhance USF's brand.

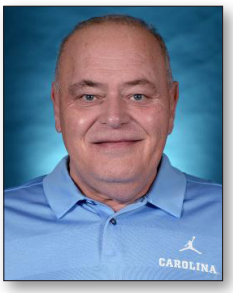
Prior to USF, Sharpe spent six years as Assistant and Associate Media Relations Director at Texas. During his time with the Longhorns, he served as a media relations liaison between the Texas athletics department and all media outlets for football, track and field and the prestigious Texas Relays. He also developed and maintained external messaging for the athletics department and managed social media elements for both football and track and field. In addition, he assisted in all facets of communications, including media campaigns for players, coaches and the department. Sharpe worked on numerous national award campaigns that helped produce 27 All-Americas, three Heisman Trophy finalists, two National Players of the Year and numerous other individual athletic and academic awards.

A 1999 graduate from Susquehanna University in Selinsgrove, Pa.,

with a bachelor's degree in communications, Sharpe went on to earn a master's degree from George Washington University in 2004. While earning his master's degree in Tourism Administration (with a concentration in Sports Management), he served as a graduate assistant and managed the day-to-day communications for the Colonials' nationally-ranked women's basketball team, men's and women's cross country, gymnastics, men's and women's tennis and softball teams.

Sharpe started his career in public relations at Edelman Public Relations in September 1999, where he managed the day-to-day coordination of one of the firms' pharmaceutical clients, coordinating activities of both junior and senior-level staff. In addition, he designed and developed a website for Wash America, a PR Week and Sabre-award-winning campaign to raise money for victims of 9/11.

A Hummelstown, Pa., native, Sharpe is married to Amy McMillan Sharpe, who serves as a Senior Vice President with global public relations and integrated marketing communications firm FleishmanHillard. The couple has two daughters, Addison and Sydney.



JAMES SPURLING
DIRECTOR OF KENAN STADIUM AND KENAN FOOTBALL CENTER
17TH YEAR AT UNC

James Spurling is the director of Kenan Stadium and Kenan Football Center, where he has served since 2006.

His daily role encompasses the operation of these two facilities. This includes: booking events, collecting revenue for the facilities, collaborating with university entities on special events held in the stadium, as well as assisting with away game travel for the football team.

Spurling currently serves on the desired behaviors committee for the Athletic Department, the honors and awards committee and the University commencement committee.

In December of 1998, Spurling was chosen by the Governor's office and the Colonel of the North Carolina State Highway Patrol as an honorary lifetime member.

In the past, he has served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Educational Foundation and was chosen board member of the year by the foundation in 2004.

As a former business owner in Chapel Hill for 23 years, Spurling has built a great relationship with the University and the Athletic Department. He was a volunteer with the UNC football program for many years prior to becoming a full-time staff member. Spurling is eternally grateful to the late Ernie Williamson for helping him form life-long relationships with the Rams Club and Athletic Department over the years. In 2003, Paul and Sydna Rizzo endowed a full football scholarship in Spurling's name to express their appreciation for his life-long commitment to the University of North Carolina. Subsequently, in 2009 the Athletic Department honored him with the Ernie Williamson award for his love and loyalty for the University, the Athletic Department and its student-athletes.

RICK STEINBACHER
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
23ND YEAR AT UNC

A 23-year veteran as a senior administrator, Rick Steinbacher joined the North Carolina Athletics Department in 2000 and now serves as Senior Associate Athletics Director, Capital Projects and Facilities. In addition, he serves as a sport administrator for football and women's lacrosse, overseeing all facets of student-athlete life, while developing career planning and networking opportunities for both programs.

During his tenure, Steinbacher has been heavily involved in building the department's culture and strategic planning. He helped lead all facets of "UNC: A Better Blue Begins with You," a culture and service initiative developed in partnership with the Disney Institute for the entire department including academic services, sports medicine, the Rams Club and all athletics department administrative units. He also designed curriculum for a two-year culture change engagement with the Disney Institute. In addition, Steinbacher helped lead the creation and implementation of "Carolina Leads, A Strategic Plan for Carolina Athletics" and "Together We Win," both five-year department strategic plans. In doing so, he participated in all facets of strategic-plan development including assessment, design, installation, management and tracking.

From 2012-19, Steinbacher held the title of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Communications, managing the department's marketing, new media and gameday customer relations. In that role, he oversaw department-wide revenue generation for ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, concessions, merchandise and other sources of revenue. His work helped grow department revenues from $46 million in 2006 to $93 million in 2018. Steinbacher also negotiated a $151 million agreement with Learfield Sports for multi-media rights; including TV, radio, event signage and hospitality, and corporate partnerships. He helped lead the planning for Carolina's Media and Communications Center and oversaw phase one and two of an $88 million football stadium renovation, which included the construction of the Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

A 1993 Carolina graduate and football letterwinner, Steinbacher began his professional career at UNC working with the football program from 2000-06, then serving as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and New Media from 2006-12. Steinbacher also spent time as the color analyst and sideline reporter for UNC football broadcasts as part of the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A Greenville, S.C., native, Steinbacher graduated with a degree in business administration. He was also a four-year football letterwinner at Carolina from 1990-93, starting 30 games and making over 300 tackles at inside linebacker and earning All-ACC honors as a senior, when he captained the team to a 10-3 record. After graduation, Steinbacher spent five years in sales and marketing with Procter and Gamble, based in Charlotte, and then joined Tar Heel Sports Marketing, where he was a Vice President for Account Development.

Steinbacher and his wife, Valerie, a 1989 UNC graduate, have two daughters, Donna and Kiersten. Donna earned her bachelor's degree in 2017 from UNC in chemistry and is currently seeking her doctorate in UNC's Eshelman School of Pharmacy. Kiersten also attends UNC, majoring in sports administration, while serving as a manager for the men's basketball team. Steinbacher's brother Steve was also a football player at Carolina from 1984-88, his sister Donna was a swimmer from 1986-87 and his sister-in-law Erika Steinbacher was an All-ACC diver at Carolina from 1984-88.

PATRICK SUDDES
ASSISTANT A.D./GENERAL MANAGER
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Patrick Suddes joined the Carolina football staff in February 2022 and serves as the programs Assistant A.D. and General Manager. An Atlanta native, Suddes came to Chapel Hill from Georgia Tech, where he served as the Yellow Jackets' General Manager for three seasons. In that role, he was responsible for directing the recruiting office and roster management.

During his time at Tech, Suddes oversaw the efforts that led to consecutive nationally-lauded recruiting classes. Georgia Tech's 2020 class was ranked No. 24 nationally by Rivals, which marked only the second time in school history and the first time in 13 years that Tech landed a top 25 recruiting class. The Yellow Jackets' 2021 class was also a top-20 class, including the rankings of 11 highly-ranked transfers. In all, Georgia Tech added 18 four- or five-star recruits and 13 of the 45 highest-ranked recruits in program history while Suddes served as general manager.

Suddes, who has worked exclusively with Power Five conference programs and NFL organizations over the course of his 16-year career, arrived at Georgia Tech after three seasons at Auburn (2016-18), first as the Tigers' director of player personnel, then as Assistant A.D. for Football. In his role at Auburn, he oversaw player personnel and worked directly with head coach Gus Malzahn on roster management.

Prior to his three-year stint at Auburn, Suddes spent two seasons as Assistant A.D. for Recruiting at Arizona State, one season as Director of Player Personnel at Texas (2013) under current UNC Head Coach Mack Brown, and six seasons as Associate Director of Football Operations at Alabama (2007-13).

Before his arrival at Alabama, Suddes worked under Nick Saban with the Miami Dolphins, first as a defensive assistant (2005), then as an offensive assistant (2006). His career began under Saban as a recruiting intern at LSU in 2004.

Suddes graduated from Marist H.S. in Atlanta, before attending Alabama, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business management in 2005. He and his wife, Rachel, have a son, Lawson, and a daughter, Lucy.

SECOND YEAR AT UNC

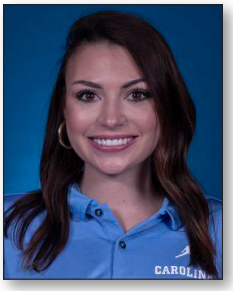
Matt Verderosa joined the Carolina football program in July of 2022 as the Director of Video Services. Verderosa came to Carolina after spending three seasons at Texas A&M as the Assistant Video Coordinator. While at A&M, he managed a 100+ client Catapult network, assisted the coaches with all game film and game preparation needs, and maintained all data associated with self and opponent scouting. Verderosa spent the 2017 and '18 seasons at North Texas, working as the Assistant Video Coordinator.

A native of Apex, N.C., Verderosa is a 2017 graduate of N.C. State University. During college, he spent four seasons as a student video operations assistant with the football program. He also spent one season as a scouting intern with the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes.

MARY VOELKEL
RECEPTIONIST
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Mary Voelkel joined the Carolina football staff as the a.m. receptionist in 2022. Voelkel comes to the program with extensive experience in environments that require customer service and integrity. She spent 15 years in sales and marketing, and seven years as an assistant second-grade teacher. Voelkel has volunteered her time with many organizations on UNC's campus, including UNC Hospitals, the Lineberger Hematology Clinic and Carolina Fever Lacrosse Club, highlighting her passion for the University and understanding of the goal of the athletics department to inspire through athletics.

Voelkel is originally from Baltimore, Md. and moved to Chapel Hill in 1995. She has three children, a daughter currently in nursing school at UNC, a son who is a general contractor in Chapel Hill, and another son in graduate school. Both of her sons played collegiate lacrosse.



ALEX WHITE
DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Alex White returned to her alma mater and joined the Carolina football staff in January of 2021 as the coordinator of the head coach's external relations. She assists Mack Brown with his recruiting and donor relationships, coordinates donor events, and collaborates with the recruiting department for special projects.

White spent the 2020 season as the director of on-campus recruiting at Virginia Tech. She coordinated all virtual visits due to the Covid-19 pandemic, oversaw the student recruiting staff, managed the recruiting database and developed a strategic communications plan for the coaching staff.

Before joining the Hokies, White served as the recruiting and operations assistant at Appalachian State. Her duties included overseeing all official and unofficial visits, assisting in player evaluations and creating relationships with recruits, players, parents and high school coaches.

White is a 2019 UNC graduate. She worked in the football recruiting office as a student for four seasons while majoring in exercise and sport science.

BRIAN HESS

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Brian Hess was named head strength and conditioning coach for the North Carolina football program on Jan. 2, 2019. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, Hess came to UNC after spending three years at Army (2015-18), two of which were as the head football strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to his time at West Point, Hess spent two seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at Sam Houston State (2013-15). He worked with six different teams with the Bearkats - football, volleyball, women's basketball, tennis, bowling and the throwers of the track and field squad.

Before his time at SHSU, Hess led the strength and conditioning efforts at Delaware from 2011-13, when he was responsible for more than 575 student-athletes representing the Blue Hens' 21 sport programs.

Hess earned his first full-time position at Harvard, where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2009-11. While at Harvard, he worked as the second assistant for football and directed efforts for the track and field, men's and women's soccer, women's lacrosse, women's swimming, Nordic skiing, men's and women's water polo, fencing and women's tennis teams.

Prior to his time at Harvard, Hess spent one season as an intern at Georgetown (2008-09) working with Augie Maurelli. His duties included the football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, crew and women's lacrosse programs. He also designed and led strength and conditioning programs for the field hockey and sailing teams.

Hess began his coaching career as an intern at the University of Iowa under head strength and conditioning coach Chris Doyle in 2008.

A native of Kingston, Mass., Hess earned his degree in applied exercise science from Springfield (Mass.) College in 2008. After beginning his college career at Trinity College, he moved on to Springfield and was a two-year starter at linebacker for the football team, serving as team captain in 2007. In 2006, Hess helped lead the team to a 10-2 record and a berth in the NCAA Division III football playoffs.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

A.J. Blue joined the North Carolina strength and conditioning staff in 2015, serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football program.

A Dallas, N.C., native, Blue graduated from North Gaston High School in 2008 and earned a communications degree from UNC in 2013. A letterwinner and team captain for Carolina football, Blue played primarily at running back during his four seasons with the Tar Heels.

SIMON HAAKE
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Simon Haake joined the North Carolina strength and conditioning staff in 2022, serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football program.

Haake came to North Carolina after spending three years at Texas A&M working with Olympic Sports as a sports performance coach. Prior to Texas A&M, Haake was an assistant strength and conditioning coach with football at North Carolina from 2011-2018.

Haake graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill in 2013 with a Master's Degree in Exercise Physiology. He is certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (CSCS) in addition to being USA-Weightlifting certified.

AMBER RINESTINE
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Amber Rinestine joined the Carolina football staff as the Director of Football Performance Nutrition in May of 2023. Rinestine returns to Chapel Hill after a two-year stint as the Head Football Performance Dietitian at Michigan St. She spent the 2020 season as Carolina's football fellow working in nutrition.

Previously, Rinestine spent time at the IMG Combine (2020), the New York Jets (2019), the Philadelphia Eagles (2019 training camp) and the University of Oklahoma (2017-19).

Rinestine started her academic career in 2013 with an Associate degree in biology from Oklahoma City Community College before earning a bachelor's degree in biology and chemistry from Southwestern Oklahoma State University in 2015. In 2019, she received a Masters of Arts in dietetics from the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, adding a Master's of Science in Nutritional Sciences from the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center in 2020.

Rinestine is married to Tripp Ressa. The couple has two dogs, Sweets and Sealee

DEAN MOEGE
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Dean Moege is an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football and the University of North Carolina. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Moege heads the performance analytic technologies for the staff. He has been a full-time staff member since the 2014 season.

Prior to his full-time position, Moege served as a performance coach at Triangle Sports Performance Center (2014), where he trained athletes in a variety of sports including football, olympic weightlifting, basketball and track.

Moege earned his degree in exercise and sport science from North Carolina. During his time at the University, he started his coaching career as a strength and conditioning intern (2012-2014).

Immediately following high school, Moege joined the United States Army (2005-10). During that time, he served in combat deployments to both Iraq and Afghanistan.

Moege is a native of Paxico, Kan. and resides in Durham with his wife Kelly and daughter.

QUENTIN WILLEY
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Quentin 'Q' Willey joined the Carolina football program as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in May of 2023. Willey is a Doctor of Physical Therapy, who graduated in 2021 from Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions. Willey owned and operated his own clinic, which included both in-person and online treatment options.

Before becoming a physical therapist, Willey worked at the University of North Carolina as a strength and conditioning coach while earning a master's degree in Exercise Physiology. While at UNC, he also co-authored 13 articles covering various topics. Willey also played lacrosse at UNC and is a former member of the USA Olympic National Bobsled Team.

Since the beginning of his career, Willey has worked closely with diverse groups in the strength sports community and alongside other sports performance companies within the fitness and rehab space including Barbell Medicine and the Athletic Truth Group.

Dr. Jeff Spang is a team orthopaedic surgeon and is an associate professor of orthopaedics with the UNC School of Medicine.

Dr. Spang earned his bachelor's degree in biology from Duke University and his medical degree from the Wake Forest University School of Medicine. He completed his surgical internship at Temple University Hospital and his residency in orthopaedics at the University of North Carolina. Dr. Spang also completed a fellowship in sports medicine at the University of Connecticut and a research fellowship at the Technical University of Munich in Munich, Germany.

Dr. Spang's practice is focused on sports medicine with an interest in soft tissue trauma of the shoulder and knee. He and his wife Ruth have three daughters, Emily, Julia, and Annika.

DR. ALEX CREIGHTON
ORTHOPAEDIC PHYSICIAN

Dr. Alex Creighton is a team orthopaedic surgeon and is a faculty member of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at UNC.

Creighton, a native of Haddonfield, N.J., received his bachelor's degree in biology from the College of William and Mary. He was a member of the Tribe baseball team and was an all-conference third basemen his junior and senior seasons.

He received his medical degree from the Medical College of Virginia/Virginia Commonwealth University and graduated a member of Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Society.

After finishing his surgical internship and residency in Orthopaedics at the University of North Carolina School of Medicine, he completed his fellowship in sports medicine/shoulder at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago.

While at Rush, he helped take care of the Chicago White Sox baseball team, Chicago Rush arena football team, and the Chicago Steel hockey team.

LUKE ROSS
HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Luke Ross joined the athletic training staff in 2013 and began serving as the head athletic trainer for football in 2017 after serving as a staff athletic trainer for football, fencing and cheerleading for four years. Ross earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Boston University in 2006 and his master's degree in exercise and sport science - athletic training from UNC in 2008. While earning his master's, Ross served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, working mainly with the Tar Heel football and women's rowing programs.

Ross returned to UNC in 2013 after spending four seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for football at the University of Connecticut. Prior to his time at UConn, he also completed a year-long athletic training internship with the Carolina Panthers.

He is a proud NATABOC certified athletic trainer (ATC). Ross and his wife Megan reside in Chapel Hill with their two sons, Benjamin and Theodore.

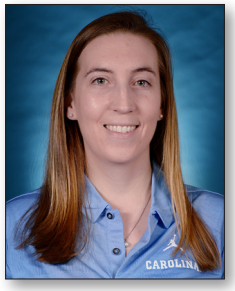
JJ JOHNSON
STAFF ATHLETIC TRAINER

John "JJ" Johnson joined the UNC Sports Medicine staff in February 2022 as an athletic trainer for the football team.

Prior to UNC, Johnson spent three years in Miami at Florida International University working with the football and track & field/cross country teams. He has also interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars for the 2019 training camp and preseason. In addition, he completed the 2018-19 season as an athletic training student intern with the Washington Commanders.

Johnson received his bachelors' degree in biology in 2016 from Christopher Newport University in Newport News, Va. While at Christopher Newport, Johnson was a student-athlete who played football. He went on to pursue a master's in athletic training from George Mason University and graduated in 2019.

A native of Northern Virginia, Johnson now resides in Chapel Hill. In addition to being a licensed & certified Athletic Trainer (LAT/ATC), Johnson is also a certified personal trainer (CPT), corrective exercise specialist (CES), and a fitness nutrition specialist (FNS) through the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM).



ALESSA LENNON
STAFF ATHLETIC TRAINER

Alessa Lennon joined the UNC Sports Medicine staff in the spring of 2019. Lennon spent the previous four years at the College of William and Mary, spending her last season as head athletic trainer for football.

While at W&M, Lennon was involved in the care and coordination of long term injuries, movement efficiency testing and injury prevention programs, as well as the continuing education provider for the Sports Medicine staff.

Lennon graduated from UNC with a Post Professional Master's Degree in Athletic Training in 2015. While at UNC, she worked with the Tar Heels' football and fencing programs, and completed a master's thesis on the measurement of head impact biomechanics.

Lennon has been active in the athletic training profession. From 2013-15, she was an advisor to the Mid Atlantic Athletic Trainers' Association (MAATA) Student Senate and also served on the North Carolina Athletic Trainers' Association (NCATA) Leadership Institute. Additionally, she spent a summer working with the Carolina Panthers for OTA's and mini camps. In 2018, Lennon became the VA representative for the MAATA Young Professionals Committee and currently serves as a preceptor for multiple athletic training education programs.

While completing her undergraduate education at Western Carolina University, Lennon served as a student athletic trainer for W&M and the University of Virginia.

DAVID MINCBERG
STAFF ATHLETIC TRAINER

David Mincberg returned to UNC in 2017 to serve as an assistant athletic trainer for football and fencing. Mincberg spent the previous year as an athletic training fellow at the University of Colorado, where he worked with the football program as well as the "Ralphie Handler" Live Mascot program. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Tar Heels from 2014-16, providing medical care to both football and fencing.

Mincberg is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's in athletic training and spent time with the Gamecock football, swimming and beach volleyball teams. He is originally from Madison, Wis.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
12TH YEAR AT UNC

Since Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham officially began his duties as Carolina's director of athletics on November 14, 2011, UNC has graduated more than 1,500 student-athletes while consistently competing for championships in an array of different sports – exciting, motivating and influencing along the way. Under Cunningham's leadership, the athletic department has accomplished numerous academic and athletic achievements:

- The Tar Heels have won 21 national titles and made an additional 14 runner-up finishes.
- More than 3500 student-athletes have made the ACC Academic Honor Roll -- which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the year.
- More than 46 student-athletes have been named to Phi Beta Kappa honors society.
- Twelve student-athletes have been NCAA Elite 90 recipients.
- Fifteen Tar Heel teams scored a perfect 1000 in the NCAA's APR for 2021-22. Seven teams registered perfect 1000s for the four-year rate, which measures 2018-19 through 2020-21, with all of Carolina's teams reaching 950 or higher, with 16 of the teams hitting more than 990.
- The Tar Heels finished in the top 10 of the NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup eight times, including a top-ten finish in 2023.
- And student-athletes have logged more than 50,000 hours of community service, helping at hospitals and local schools, and partnering with a variety of local and national groups.

Cunningham has led by supporting, challenging and innovating. Shortly after beginning his tenure as Carolina's athletics director, he led a strategic planning process that defined the department's mission statement: "We educate and inspire through athletics."

And that's just what UNC has done during his 12 years in Chapel Hill.

Among Carolina's many achievements during his tenure are a student-athlete degree completion program called Complete Carolina; a full compliance review by an outside firm; a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; the creation of the RAMMYs, a celebratory end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff; a commitment to youth sports with the National Fitness Foundation; a partnership with The Brandr Group to create a first-of-its-kind group licensing agreement for Tar Heel alumni; commemorating 50 Years of Carolina Women's Athletics with a year-long celebration; and the launch of a Name, Image and Likeness initiative to help Tar Heel student-athletes navigate the changing landscape of college athletics.

He also has been committed to upgrading facilities to give student-athletes the best experience possible. In 2018-19, Carolina finished construction on a new field hockey stadium, track and field complex, a new football practice facility and lacrosse/soccer stadium as well as a new media and communications center. In 2021, Carolina opened the updated Eddie Smith Field House, and in 2022-23 it launched key capital projects at Finley Golf Course and Kenan Football Center while beginning construction on a new women's basketball practice gym, installing new video boards at Carmichael Arena and adding state-of-the-art LED lighting to Carmichael, Kenan Stadium and the Smith Center. Carolina also completed updates to the women's basketball locker room, and opened the state-of-the-art Chewning Tennis Center in 22-23.

Also in 2023, the department launched "Together We Win," an updated strategic plan and vision for Carolina Athletics – the third strategic plan of Cunningham's tenure at Carolina.

Cunningham's leadership has also extended outside of Chapel Hill. In 2020, he was named to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, and he also earned the 2019-20 AD of the Year Award from The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

In 2018 he accepted an invitation to serve on the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee (USOPC) Advisory Council. He is the past president of NACDA and sits on the board of LEAD1, an association representing the ADs from the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools. He is in his eighth year on the ACC Television Committee, which helped lead the launch of the ACC Network in the fall of 2019. He also is currently serving on the ACC Autonomy Committee and has served on numerous NCAA committees over the last two decades.

AD Bubba Cunningham

His commitment to student experience extends beyond – and before – college. In 2020, with support from the University, UNC Health and UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health, Cunningham announced a partnership with the National Fitness Foundation to recognize a "National Signing Day" for youth sports. Cunningham and all 21 of Carolina's head coaches pledged to support the importance and expansion of youth sports across the country. Cunningham himself played just about everything growing up – basketball, football, golf, soccer, track – and those experiences of learning how to lead while also being part of a team helped shape who his is today.

He has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the ongoing conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level.

Cunningham is in his 20th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the AD at the University of Tulsa, where he guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative.

Tulsa won 34 league championships during his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA, and the football program played in five bowl games in his final six years. He was the NACDA 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year.

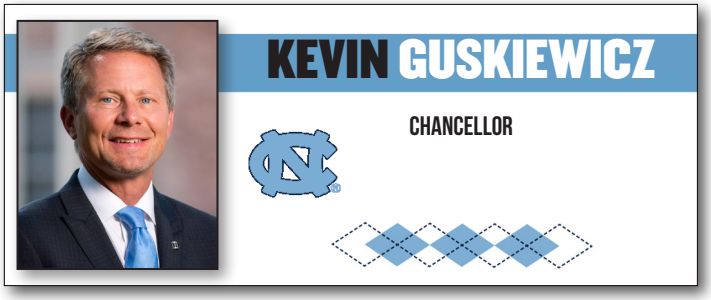
He also served as Ball State University's athletic director from 2002-05. There, he led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

Cunningham, who earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Notre Dame in 1984 and 1988, respectively, worked in his alma mater's athletics department from 1988-2002. A former member of the Irish golf team (1982-83), Cunningham served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

He also has served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and LEAD1 conferences.

Cunningham was born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla. He and his wife, Tina, have four grown children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah, and two daughters-in-law, Erica and Emily.

The Tar Heels have won 18 national titles under the leadership of Bubba Cunningham.



Kevin M. Guskiewicz, a neuroscientist, academic leader and concussion researcher, is the 12th chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

For 22 consecutive years, Carolina has been ranked a top five public university with over 30 programs among the top ten overall. As chancellor, Guskiewicz has led the implementation of Carolina's new strategic plan, Carolina Next: Innovations for Public Good, that outlines a roadmap for the University's priorities moving forward. He leads Carolina's $1.2 billion research enterprise, the nation's 13th largest research university in total research expenditures. He has launched several initiatives, including the Institute for Convergent Science, the History, Race and a Way Forward Commission, the Carolina Economic Development Council and the Rapidly Emerging Antiviral Drug Development Initiative. He led the university community through the COVID-19 pandemic, including the transition to remote learning in March 2020 and the implementation of the Carolina Together Testing Program.

As the Kenan Distinguished Professor of Exercise and Sport Science, he has been a member of Carolina's faculty since 1995. He is the founding director of the Matthew Gfeller Sport-Related Traumatic Brain Injury Research Center and serves as the director for the Center for the Study of Retired Athletes. Guskiewicz is a nationally recognized expert on sport-related concussions. He maintains an active research portfolio as a principal investigator and collaborator on several projects. His groundbreaking work has garnered numerous awards and has influenced concussion guidelines in the NCAA and the NFL.

In his installation address, Guskiewicz emphasized the importance of strengthening the partnership of the University with the citizens of North Carolina. Toward that effort, he relaunched the Tar Heel Bus Tour with 90 faculty and campus leaders in 2019, demonstrating Carolina's commitment to the state. The Bus Tour has served as a catalyst for initiatives and programs throughout the university, including Carolina Across 100, which focuses on partnering with communities to solve problems and address current challenges.

Guskiewicz served as dean of the College of Arts & Sciences – Carolina's largest academic institution – from January 2016 until February 2019. With more than 16,000 undergraduate students and 2,500 graduate students, Guskiewicz made interdisciplinary teaching and research a cornerstone of his tenure. He championed the use of high-structure active learning techniques, and Carolina is a national leader in implementing these highly effective educational strategies. He significantly increased study abroad, academic internships and other experiential learning opportunities for Carolina students and oversaw work on a major revamp of UNC-Chapel Hill's General Education curriculum.

In 2011, Guskiewicz received the prestigious MacArthur Fellowship (often called a "genius grant") for his innovative work on the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of sport-related concussions. In 2013, Time magazine named him a Game Changer, one of 18 "innovators and problem-solvers that are inspiring change in America."

Guskiewicz earned a B.S. in athletic training from West Chester University, M.S. in exercise physiology/athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh and Ph.D. in sports medicine from the University of Virginia. Born and raised in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, he lives with his wife Amy and children Jacob, Nathan, Adam and Tessa in Chapel Hill.

CAROLINA™ FOOTBALL

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

BELL TOWER WALK

The Carolina Football tradition that Coach Brown started in 2019, the Bell Tower Walk, will resume for the 2023 season. The Bell Tower Walk will take place two-and-a-half hours before kickoff for each home game. The team will be dropped off on South Rd. in front of the Bell Tower and proceed to march through the Bell Tower quads, down the new football center stairs and into the Kenan Football Center.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!

2023 CAROLINA FOOTBALL
KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Stadium, one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

In 2020, the field at Kenan Stadium was named Chris Smith Field at Kenan Stadium. The naming of Chris Smith Field acknowledges the incredible generosity of the Eddie and Jo Allison Smith Family and honors their son Chris, a 1987 graduate of the University.

The stadium has been altered several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The most recent project was completed prior to the 2023 season with the installation of a Musco Sports Lighting Total Light Control – TLC for LED theatrical lighting system. Kenan now has nearly 200 TLC for LED game lights atop the north and south sides of the stadium. In 2019, the playing surface was changed to synthetic grass. In 2018, a majority of the bleacher seats in the stadium were converted to Carolina Blue chairback seats. With the installation of the new seats, Kenan Stadium now has a capacity of 50,500.

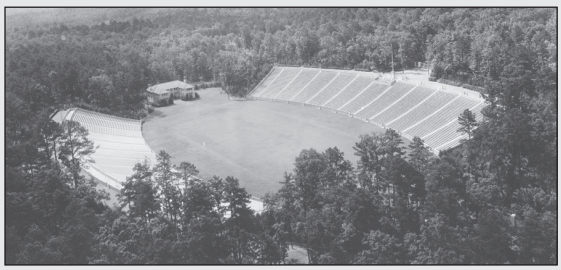
In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a naming gift backed by the generosity of hundreds of other donors to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's 800+ student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, funded through a generous gift from the John William Pope Foundation. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Lounge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project added 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also tied the north and south concourses together and pro-

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out … The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."
– Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927



Kenan Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago – quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings – single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house – the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

Bryn Renner completed 22-of-23 passes vs. JMU in 2011, the best single-game percentage in Kenan Stadium history (.957).

vides the stadium with 360-degree concourse to enhance fan movement.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, coaches' offices and player meeting rooms.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth-floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996. Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member

CHRIS SMITH FIELD

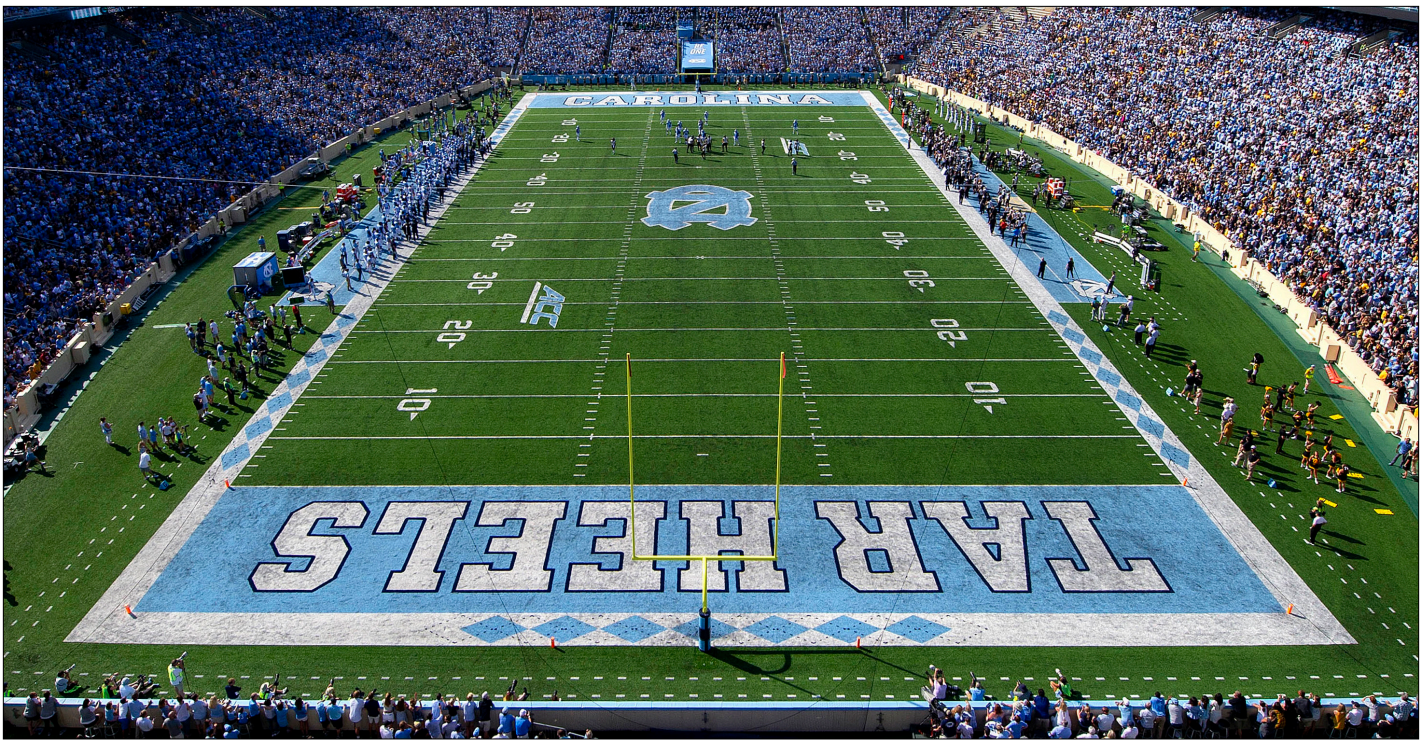
"Our family believes in the positive impact the University of North Carolina and its athletic program can have on our communities. Watching the Tar Heels play in Kenan Stadium has been a family affair for over 60 years, and it was important to us to support Coach Mack Brown and his vision for Carolina Football. To be able to honor my son Chris – someone who has shared my passion for Carolina and for promoting positive leadership qualities – is very special. It's a blessing for us to be able to provide a lasting legacy for Carolina and its football program."
– Eddie Smith, Spring 2020

The Eddie and Jo Allison Smith Foundation made a transformational gift in 2020 to support the Carolina football program with resources to build on its recent success and secure future excellence. The field at Kenan Stadium is now Chris Smith Field, recognizing the Smith Family and their son Chris, a 1987 graduate of Carolina.

The family foundation is headed by longtime Carolina leader and benefactor Eddie Smith Jr. '65 of Greenville, North Carolina, and was cofounded with his late wife Jo Allison Smith. Their gift will support staffing needs, fund facility improvements and help build an endowment to cover future operating costs.

"Eddie and Chris are dear friends of Sally and me, as was Eddie's wife and Chris' mother Jo Allison. They share our vision for Carolina football," said Mack Brown. "We often talk about our Carolina Football Family, and the Smiths have been a major part of that for a long time. We're honored to share in their legacy and thankful for their continued support of our program. We have asked everyone in our program to 'Be The One' and the Smith family is doing that. They are the best."

The Smiths have generously supported many areas beyond athletics at the University, including the UNC School of Medicine, the UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School, the UNC College of Arts & Sciences and the University Libraries, among many other areas. Their generosity to Carolina Athletics includes gifts to the Scholarship Endowment, multiple facilities, and other projects throughout the program.



of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Dyami Brown tied the Kenan Stadium record for touchdown catches with three against Virginia in 2019.

The premium seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium is named for the John W. Pope Family. It features outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators and includes the Chancellor's Box on its second level.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan assisted in experiments that discovered calcium carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career, he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company. He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

Construction on the stadium began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000. Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. The pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, moved Kenan to make the naming gift. Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime, making additional gifts to construct a second deck on the stadium and to enlarge and modernize the Kenan Fieldhouse.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in 2013, when UNC beat Old Dominion 80-20.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a longtime friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk remained as chairman of the company in 2012. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

THE KENAN FAMILY

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

Kenan Stadium was funded by a gift from William Rand Kenan Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate, a Tar Heel halfback, and later, a professor in chemistry. Kenan Jr. made his fortune in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads, and hotels.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan, a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate, and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking, and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today, the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State, and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Carolina 56, Florida A&M 24
Aug. 27 · Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Drake Maye threw four of his five touchdown passes in the first half in his first collegiate start and North Carolina beat undermanned Florida A&M 56-24 to open the season Saturday night.

Six different North Carolina players scored touchdowns, with Josh Downs making two touchdown catches.

"It was fun out there," Maye said. "We've got a lot of talent. We just have to put it together."

Maye, a redshirt freshman and younger brother of former Tar Heels basketball standout Luke Maye and son of ex-North Carolina quarterback Mark Maye, completed 29 of 37 passes for 294 yards – some coming in a light rain.

"He thinks this is what he's supposed to be doing," North Carolina coach Mack Brown said. "One of the best first games I've ever seen."

The young quarterback had a couple notable achievements. He's the first North Carolina player to throw five touchdowns in a season opener and the first to connect for five touchdowns in a first career start.

"That's kind of how the game worked out," Maye said of the records.

North Carolina running back Omarion Hampton scored on touchdown runs of 2 and 25 yards in his debut. He finished with 101 rushing yards on 14 carries.

Earlier, Maye connected with Kamari Morales for a 19-yard touchdown pass for the game's first points. It came one play after Maye dodged defenders on the way to a 42-yard run.

"It was a perfect opening game for us," Brown said.

Brown, who turned 71 on Saturday, has 266 career coaching victories.

BOONE, N.C.—Redshirt freshman Drake Maye continued his torrid start to the season, throwing for 352 yards and combining for five touchdowns as North Carolina outlasted Appalachian State 63-61 on Saturday despite surrendering 40 points in the fourth quarter.

Maye, the younger brother of former Tar Heels basketball star Luke Maye, has thrown a school-record nine touchdown passes in two career starts. He also ran for a score against the Mountaineers.

Chase Brice threw for 376 yards and six touchdowns for Appalachian State (0-1).

The two teams combined for 62 points and 504 yards — in the fourth quarter.

With the game tied at 49, Maye lofted a ball over the middle to D.J. Jones for a 42-yard touchdown pass on an all-out blitz by the Mountaineers to give North Carolina (2-0) the lead with 2:50 left in the game.

App State responded with Brice throwing his fifth TD pass of the game, a 28-yard strike to Deshaun Davis with 31 seconds left. The Mountaineers went for the 2-point conversion — and the apparent win — but Brice's pass sailed just over Davis' head.

It seemed the game would end there, but UNC's Bryson Nesbit returned the ensuing onside kick for a 43-yard touchdown — a mistake that gave the Mountaineers 31 seconds to try to score again. Sure enough, Brice found Kaedin Robinson for a 26-yard TD strike with 9 seconds left to cut the lead to 63-61.

The Mountaineers went for 2 but Brice was stopped short of the end zone.

The Tar Heels fell behind 21-7 before rattling off 34 straight points and silence a record crowd of 40,168 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Maye threw three TD passes in the first half, including a 10-yard TD strike to Nesbit to give the Tar Heels a 28-21 lead with 1 second left.

Maye made it 28 straight unanswered points for UNC with a 12-yard touchdown run to start the second half, receiving congrats from former Tar Heels and current Washington Commanders quarterback Sam Howell in the end zone after tiptoeing the sideline.

UNC pushed its lead to 41-21 after two Noah Burnette field goals entering the fourth quarter before the Mountaineers battled back with six touchdowns.

It was the most points ever scored in a UNC game since the school started football in 1888.

Carolina 35, Georgia State 28
Sept. 10 · Center Parc Credit Union Stadium
Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA—Drake Maye passed for two touchdowns, Omarion Hampton ran for a pair of scores and North Carolina escaped another upset bid from a Sun Belt Conference team Saturday, rallying for a 35-28 victory over Georgia State after squandering an 18-point lead.

The Tar Heels (3-0) were coming off a wild 63-61 victory at Appalachian State despite giving up a staggering 40 points in the fourth quarter.

The Atlantic Coast Conference school hit the road again to face Georgia State (0-2), which was hosting a Power 5 team in Atlanta for the first time in the 13-year history of its program.

The Panthers ripped off 25 straight points to grab a 28-21 lead late in the third quarter.

But Hampton broke a 58-yard touchdown run right down the middle of field to tie the game before the end of the third.

He won it on a 2-yard scoring plunge with 10:42 remaining, ensuring the Tar Heels escaped another close call and moved to 3-0 for the first time since 2011.

"I'm happy to have two wins on the road," coach Mack Brown said. "Both of them tough wins, which really helps us grow up."

Hampton finished with 110 yards rushing on 16 carries.

North Carolina appeared headed for a more comfortable win after the previous week's craziness, building a 21-3 lead midway through the second quarter.

Maye threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Kamari Morales and a 28-yarder to Kobe Paysour.

But North Carolina's offense finally got going again, sparked by Hampton's long run.

"I just read the hole," Hampton said. "When it opened up, I knew I had to take it."

Sept. 24 · Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.—Drew Pyne threw three touchdown passes and Notre Dame finally clicked on offense in a 45-32 victory over North Carolina on Saturday.

The Tar Heels (3-1) were denied their first 4-0 start to a season since 1997.

"All of us are trying to catch them," Carolina head coach Mack Brown said after the game. "They've got a great program. They do it right. They do it within the rules, and they're really good. I think you just give credit to them.

"We could not stop the run, and they just lined up and hit us right in the face," Brown continued. "They kept running it and running it and we couldn't get them off the field.

North Carolina quarterback Drake Maye threw five touchdown passes, two going to Josh Downs in the first half and two more – covering 144 yards -- to Antoine Green in the second half. Maye was 17-for-32 for 301 yards.

Pyne threw second-quarter touchdown passes of 10 yards to Michael Mayer and 30 yards to Lorenzo Styles. The Irish led 24-14 at halftime after Blake Grupe's 40-yard field goal with 23 seconds left. Notre Dame held a 301-161 edge in total yards in the first half.

North Carolina fumbled on its first second-half snap when Maye dropped the ball in pass formation, giving the Irish the ball at the Tar Heels' 15. One play after a fourth-down defensive pass interference penalty followed by an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on Tar Heels coach Mack Brown, Notre Dame converted on Estime's 1-yard lunge.

The Tar Heels took the first gamble of the game on the opening possession and it paid off with Maye's fourth-and-goal pass of 4 yards to Downs. Maye threw for 39 yards and rushed for 33 on the opening drive. Downs had been out since he suffered a lower-body injury in the Aug. 27 opener.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.—Drake Maye threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more to continue his strong start to the season and North Carolina opened up Atlantic Coast Conference play with a 41-10 victory over Virginia Tech on Saturday.

Maye, a redshirt freshman, was able to consistently throw downfield, with 13 of his 26 completions going for at least 15 yards. He finished with 363 yards, going 26 of 36.

Josh Downs led UNC (4-1, 1-0 ACC) with eight catches and 120 yards, and tight end Bryson Nesbit added 98 receiving yards on four receptions.

Grant Wells completed 16 of 26 passes for 139 yards and ran for a touchdown, but the Hokies (2-3, 1-1) struggled overall against a Tar Heel defense that turned in its best performance of the season.

Linebacker Cedric Gray picked off Wells in the second quarter, which set up a 16-yard touchdown pass by Maye to Antoine Green one play later to give UNC a 21-3 lead, and the Hokies never never got closer than 11 points.

The Tar Heels gave up nearly 500 yards per game in their first four contests, but UNC limited the number of big gainers by Virginia Tech. Wells never got in an extended rhythm, as the Hokies finished with only 273 yards.

Carolina 27, Miami 24
Oct. 8 · Hard Rock Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.—Drake Maye passed for 309 yards and two touchdowns, one of them a 74-yarder to J.J. Jones, and North Carolina overcame a stellar performance by Tyler Van Dyke to beat Miami 27-24 on Saturday.

Josh Downs had a receiving touchdown and Omarion Hampton ran for another score for North Carolina (5-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Van Dyke completed 42 of 57 passes for 496 yards — the second-most in Miami history, behind Stephen Morris' 566 in 2012 — and three touchdowns for Miami (2-3, 0-1).

Down 27-24, Miami initially appeared to recover an onside kick with about 2 minutes left; Al Blades Jr. dove along the sideline to knock the ball inbounds and the Hurricanes seemed poised to take over. The play was overturned by replay, which saw that Blades had stepped out of bounds and therefore couldn't touch the ball.

North Carolina punted the ball back to Miami with 1:14 left, but Van Dyke was picked off with 8 seconds remaining.

Caleb Hood rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries for the Tar Heels, who have won four straight over Miami for the first time. Jones' way-too-easy score capped a game-opening 95-yard drive, and Hampton's score finished off a 99-yard drive that was bolstered by a 52-yard pass from Maye to Antoine Green.

The Hurricanes had first-and-goal from the North Carolina 2 in the second quarter, got one yard on three carries and then saw Van Dyke's fourth-down heave fall incomplete. In the third quarter, after intercepting Maye for the second time the Hurricanes' drive stalled near midfield after going for it on fourth down. And in the fourth quarter, Jaylan Knighton got enough yards to convert on fourth-and-1 at the North Carolina 26 — but fumbled the ball away.

The Heels went 81 yards in 17 plays, and Noah Burnette's chip-shot field goal put North Carolina up 27-17 with 4:10 remaining.

Carolina 38, Duke 35
Oct. 15 · Wallace Wade Stadium
Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C.—Drake Maye connected with Antoine Green on the right side of the end zone for an 8-yard score with 16 seconds left to lift North Carolina past rival Duke 38-35 on Saturday night.

Maye's throw capped a nine-play, 74-yard drive for a touchdown that stood on the slimmest of margins. Replays showed Green's left foot land barely inside the sideline — with only a sliver of grass detectable between Green's foot and the white paint — before officials declared after a review that the touchdown call would stand for the Tar Heels (6-1, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Duke (4-3, 1-2) drove to midfield in the desperate seconds for a possible tying field goal, but UNC's Noah Taylor batted Riley Leonard's pass skyward for teammate Will Hardy to make a clinching diving interception with 2 seconds left.

That sent UNC fans int o wild cheers with a still-unbeaten record in Atlantic Coast Conference play as the Coastal Division leaders, not to mention the chance to keep the Victory Bell that goes to the winner of the longstanding rivalry for a fourth straight year.

Maye threw for 380 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Tar Heels, while Josh Downs had nine catches for 126 yards that included a couple of spectacular grabs.

Leonard threw for 245 yards and a touchdown to go with a 74-yard scoring keeper to lead the Blue Devils. Jordan Waters ran for 91 yards and two scores, including his own highlight-reel moment with a 38-yard cutback run past multiple UNC defenders for a score and a 35-31 lead with 10:12 left.

Yet this one ended like each of the three since Mack Brown returned for a second stint leading the UNC program: with the Tar Heels jubilantly clanging the Victory Bell again on their way off the field.

Oct. 29 · Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL — Drake Maye threw for five touchdowns and Antoine Green had a career night with 180 yards receiving as No. 21 North Carolina overcame a 10-point deficit in the second half to defeat Pittsburgh 42-24 on Saturday.

UNC (7-1, 4-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) is 4-0 in league play for the first time since going 8-0 in 2015. Green, a fifth-year senior, hauled in a pair of touchdowns and set career highs in yards receiving and receptions (10).

The loss was Pitt's second straight, and the Panthers (4-4, 1-3 ACC) are 1-3 in their last four games after starting 3-1.

UNC went down 24-14 early in the third quarter on the third touchdown of the night by Pitt running back Israel Abanikanda before scoring 28 unanswered points.

The Tar Heels took their first lead on a 2-yard run by Elijah Green less than a minute into the fourth. On the ensuing Pitt drive, Abanikanda lost a fumble at midfield and the Tar Heels capitalized with a 25-yard touchdown reception by Josh Downs a few plays later to take a two-score lead they didn't relinquish.

Pitt wideout Jared Wayne had a career-best 161 yards receiving as the Panthers relied on big pass plays to power their strong start. But after going up by 10 on its first drive of the second half, Pitt gained only 60 yards on its final four possessions.

Carolina 31, Virginia 28
Nov. 5 · Scott Stadium
Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.—Drake Maye threw for two touchdowns and ran for another and No. 17 North Carolina outscored Virginia 21-7 after halftime to rally for a 31-28 victory Saturday.

Elijah Green scored twice and Josh Downs caught 15 passes, including a touchdown, for the Tar Heels (8-1, 5-0 Atlantic Coast Conference, No. 17 CFP), now 5-0 in league play for the first time since 2015, when they qualified for their lone appearance in the ACC championship.

The Cavaliers (3-6, 1-5), playing without three starting wide receivers, lost for the fifth time in six games and need to win their final three games to qualify for a bowl game.

Virginia started fast, getting a touchdown on its opening drive for the first time this season and led 14-10 at halftime. But Maye led the Tar Heels downfield in just 2:55 to start the third quarter, Green finishing the drive with a 4-yard run. Virginia answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive of its own to retake the lead, but Maye found Downs from 19 yards before the quarter was over and hit Green with a 22-yard pass in the flat with 13:19 left.

Brennan Armstrong pulled Virginia within a field goal with his second scoring run with 3:24 left on a drive that covered 71 yards in just 59 seconds, but Virginia was offsides on the ensuing onside kick, giving UNC the ball at the Cavaliers 23. One more completion to a diving Downs converting a third-and-2 allowed the Tar Heels to run out the clock.

Maye finished 26 for 37 for 293 yards and ran for 74 yards. Downs' catches went for 166 yards, giving him 23 catches for 369 yards and three TDs in the last two years against Virginia.

Carolina 36, Wake Forest 34
Nov. 12 · Truist Field
Winston-Salem, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — No. 15 North Carolina didn't squander its first chance to clinch a trip to the Atlantic Coast Conference championship game.

Noah Burnette kicked a 33-yard field goal with 2:12 left and UNC's defense came up with key fourth-quarter stops to beat Wake Forest 36-34 on Saturday night, a win that claimed the league's Coastal Division title.

The Tar Heels (9-1, 6-0) earned it with a road win in a marquee matchup of star quarterbacks Drake Maye of UNC and Sam Hartman of Wake Forest.

As a result, the Tar Heels' locker-room celebration included ACC associate commissioner for football Michael Strickland coming in to present the team with the trophy for winning the Coastal.

The game-turning play came with the Tar Heels facing a one-point deficit and Wake Forest's offense pushing across midfield. But Cam'Ron Kelly jumped in front of Hartman's throw over the middle for an interception to set up the drive for Burnette's go-ahead kick.

Then, the Tar Heels pressured Hartman into a fourth-down incompletion with 64 seconds left. The Tar Heels killed the rest of the clock to seal the program's second trip to the ACC title game and first since 2015 — this one coming with Mack Brown in his second tenure with the school.

Maye threw for 448 yards and three touchdowns, each going to Downs who continued his tear of late. Downs finished with 11 grabs for 154 yards, with all three of his scores coming before halftime.

Hartman threw for 320 yards and four touchdowns for Wake Forest (6-4, 2-4). Donavon Greene had two of those scores, including a 60-yarder late in the third quarter for a 34-33 lead.

The UNC defense came up big in key moments, which also included a fourth-down stop inside its own 10-yard line earlier in the fourth. The Tar Heels improved to 6-0 on the road for the first time in program history and earned a date with No. 12 Clemson for the ACC title in Charlotte on Dec. 3.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — Zach Gibson threw for 174 yards and Georgia Tech scored 21 unanswered points for a 21-17 road win against No. 13 North Carolina on Saturday.

Georgia Tech (5-6, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 17-0 late in the first half, but started to methodically move the ball. All three of its scoring drives were for 68-plus yards and culminated with rushing touchdowns.

A 6-yard score on the ground by Hassan Hall with just over 11 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter proved to be the ticket for the Yellow Jackets, who kept their bowl hopes alive and improved to 4-3 under interim coach Brent Key.

North Carolina (9-2, 6-1 ACC) was riding a six-game winning streak and clinched the ACC's Coastal Division last week. The Tar Heels had a chance to regain the lead late in the fourth quarter, but Josh Downs dropped a 4th-and-11 pass from quarterback Drake Maye in the end zone with just over four minutes remaining.

Maye, who had emerged as a possible Heisman contender as a redshirt freshman, failed to score a touchdown for the first time this season. He was also sacked a season-high six times by Georgia Tech, three of which came via Keion White.

After UNC went ahead 17-0 with a little more than three minutes left in the first half, Georgia Tech held the Heels to 97 yards of offense on their final 33 plays.

NC State 30, Carolina 27 (2 OT)
Nov. 25 · Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.—Ben Finley threw for 271 yards and two touchdowns in his first career start, and North Carolina State held on to beat Drake Maye and No. 17 North Carolina 30-27 on Friday when Noah Burnette duck-hooked a 35-yard field goal try in the second overtime.

Maye connected with Antoine Green from 4 yards out on the final play of regulation to tie the game at 24-all, but N.C. State (8-4, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) kept the ACC Coastal Division champion Tar Heels (9-3, 6-2) out of the end zone in the first overtime.

Burnette — who also missed from 27 yards in the fourth quarter — made a 26-yarder in the first OT and the Wolfpack tied it on Christopher Dunn's 31-yarder. Dunn was good from 21 yards in the second overtime and N.C. State, which never trailed, held on to hand North Carolina its second straight loss.

Carter caught Finley's back-shoulder pass just outside the end zone and backed in for a 26-yard touchdown with 3:54 remaining in regulation for the Wolfpack's first points of the second half.

Finley became N.C. State's fourth starting quarterback in a seven-game span. He completed 27 of 40 passes for 271 yards.

The Tar Heels and freshman sensation Maye closed the regular season with dispiriting one-score losses to Georgia Tech and the Wolfpack ahead of the ACC title game clash with No. 8 Clemson next Saturday.

Maye finished 29 of 49 for 233 yards, one interception and the tying TD toss on fourth-and-goal to Green, which followed an apparent touchdown catch by John Copenhaver that was overturned on a replay review.

CHARLOTTE—Backup quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 20 of 24 passes for 279 yards and a touchdown and ran for another score and No. 10 Clemson reclaimed the Atlantic Coast Conference championship with a 39-10 victory over No. 24 North Carolina on Saturday night.

Cornerback Nate Wiggins broke up two passes in the end zone, blocked a field goal and returned an interception 98 yards for a touchdown to help the Tigers win their seventh ACC title in eight seasons.

Clemson (11-2, No. 9 CFP) won six straight ACC championships from 2015 to 2020 before failing to reach the title game last season. But coach Dabo Swinney's Tigers rebounded in a big way, going 9-0 against ACC foes this season to reach the Orange Bowl.

They have Klubnik to thank for that.

With Clemson down 7-0, Swinney benched two-year starter D.J. Uiagalelei after the Tigers failed to pick up a first down on their first two possessions, Swinney turned to Klubnik, a 5-star recruit from Austin, Texas. He responded by leading the Tigers to four straight scores and a 24-10 lead at halftime.

Clemson stretched it to 39-10 heading into the fourth quarter.

Swinney has never been shy about replacing veteran QBs with less experienced players. He did it in 2014, sitting Cole Stoudt for Deshaun Watson, and again in 2018 replacing Kelly Bryant with Trevor Lawrence.

ACC player of the year Drake Maye was limited to 268 yards passing and turned the ball over three times for North Carolina (9-4, No. 23 CFP), which was seeking its first ACC championship since 1980 when Lawrence Taylor was wreaking havoc on quarterbacks.

Maye got things started on the right foot for the Tar Heels, capping an 11-play, 78-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead on UNC's first possession.

But the Tar Heels repeatedly sputtered on offense inside the red zone after that, the biggest blow coming when Maye misfired near the goal line and Wiggins — who had struggled in Clemson's 51-45 win over Wake Forest — returned his pass for a touchdown to give Clemson a 32-10 lead with 5:05 left in the third quarter.

Klubnik provided an immediate spark for Clemson.

He led the Tigers on a nine-play, 71-yard drive, culminating in a 1-yard TD pass to Davis Allen. After Maye's fumble, Klubnik caught a 19-yard pass from Phil Mafah to set up Mafah's 4-yard touchdown run — Clemson's second TD in a span of 40 seconds.

Klubnik then showed off his arm strength with a 68-yard pass to fellow freshman Cole Turner to set up his own 1-yard TD run for a 21-7 lead.

Dec. 28 · Holiday Bowl
San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO — The Holiday Bowl emerged from a two-year pandemic hiatus with a new home and the same reputation for thrilling finishes.

Bo Nix threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Chase Cola on fourth down with 19 seconds left and Camden Lewis' PAT bounced off the left upright and went through to give No. 15 Oregon a wild 28-27 victory against North Carolina on Wednesday night at Petco Park.

Cota caught the ball at about the 1 and got it across the goal line as he was being tackled by Don Chapman. The play was upheld on review. Lewis then banked in the PAT.

Nix called it "just one of our favorite plays" that the team practices a lot.

"It's an option route and there's a lot of different angles, so it's hard to stop," Nix said. "That's what I want to call because we have the most reps at it and I know exactly where each guy is going to be, and Chase did a good job getting over across the field in man coverage and hooking the ball in and catching it and getting in the end zone. Extremely proud of Chase, he deserved that one."

Cota said that when he saw the Tar Heels bringing a house blitz, "I knew. It was perfect and Bo saw it. Just an easy touchdown from there."

Said coach Dan Lanning: "All we needed was time on the clock. It took every fourth down, it took every yard, it took every inch, it took every ounce of effort that our guys had to finish the way they needed to finish."

North Carolina (9-5) got the ball to the Oregon 42 with one second left before Drake Maye's desperation heave into the end zone fell incomplete.

"Very disappointed that we didn't win, but we've got to make a play here or there, and they're a great football team," said North Carolina coach Mack Brown, who brought Texas to the Holiday Bowl five times between 2000 and 2011. "Nobody gave us a chance in the game and we had a chance with one second left. That's all we could ask for in this situation."

The Ducks finished 10-3 thanks to Nix, who came up big late in the fourth quarter after being held in check much of the second half. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to Troy Franklin with 6:58 to go to pull the Ducks to 24-21.

The Tar Heels took a 27-21 lead with 2:34 to go on Noah Burnette's 44-yard field goal, his second of the quarter.

Nix then moved the Ducks 79 yards in eight plays for the win, with the drive being aided by a pass interference call.

Nix was 23 of 30 for 205 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception.

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Charlie Justice (left) and Art Weiner, both members of the College Football Hall of Fame, helped lead the Tar Heels to back-to-back New Year's Day bowl games in 1949-50.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

RYAN SWITZER, PUNT RETURNER, 2013; ALL-PURPOSE, 2015

In 2013, Ryan Switzer became the first Carolina true freshman in program history to earn first-team All-America honors. Switzer emerged as one of the nation's elite punt returners in his first season at Carolina. The Charleston, W.Va., product tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns. He also became just the second player in NCAA history to return a punt for a score in three consecutive games. Switzer set the UNC single-season record for punt return yards per game at 20.9 with a school-record 502 yards on just 24 returns. He repeated as a first-team All-America selection after an outstanding season as a wideout and punt returner. He tied for the team lead with 55 receptions and returned two punts for touchdowns.

ERIC EBRON, TIGHT END, 2013

Tight end Eric Ebron earned first-team All-America honors from ESPN.com in 2013 after setting single-season school records for receptions (62) and yards (973) by a tight end. His 973 receiving yards are also an ACC record by a tight end.

HONORED JERSEYS

#99 George Barclay*	#71 Marcus Jones
#59 Andy Bershak*	#87 Greg Ellis
#46 Bill Sutherland*	#41 Brian Simmons
#22 Charlie Justice*	#31 Dre' Bly
#50 Art Weiner*	#49 Julius Peppers
#10 Danny Talbott	#44 Kelvin Bryant
#23 Don McCauley	#67 Harris Barton
#62 Ron Rusnak	#60 Brian Blados
#68 Ken Huff	#25 Irv Holdash
#44 Mike Voight	#85 Bob Lacey
#71 Dee Hardison	#20 Amos Lawrence
#98 Lawrence Taylor	#87 Paul Severin
#95 William Fuller	#64 Jonathan Cooper
#12 Ethan Horton	*retired jersey

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON McCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

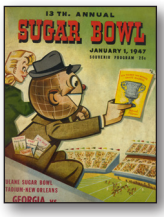
1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947



The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

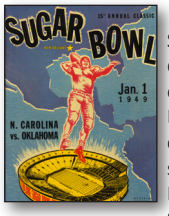
1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949



The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

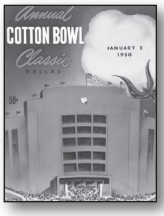
1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950



Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

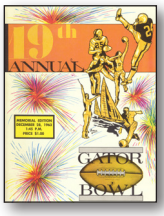
1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963



It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

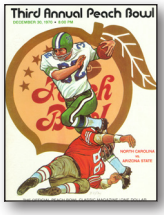
1970 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970



The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

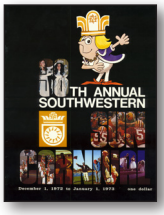
1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972



Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

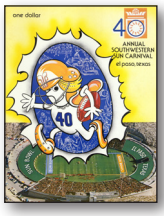
1974 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974



Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

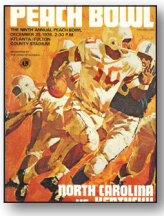
1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976



Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl
Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 Gator Bowl

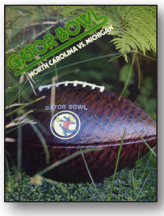
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979



Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

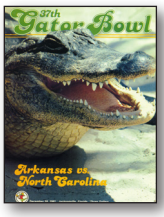
1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981



Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

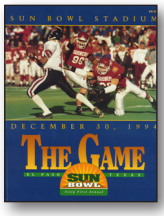
1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982



North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl

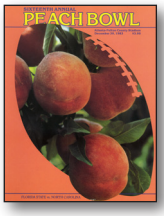
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983



Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

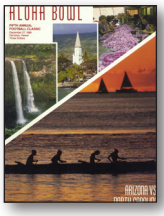
1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986



Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

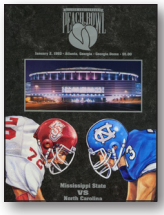
1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993



Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

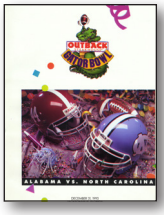
1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993



Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

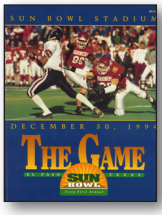
1994 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Texas 35, Carolina 31
December 30, 1994



Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

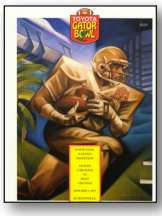
1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997



Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl. Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

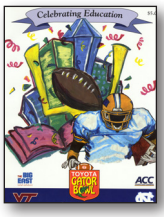
1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998



Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

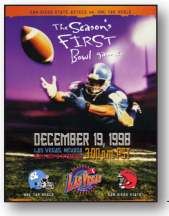
1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998



Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played with winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

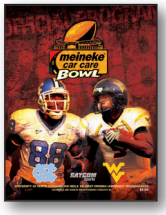
2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008



Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl
Nashville, Tenn.
Carolina 30, Tennessee 27
December 30, 2010

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl
Shreveport, La.
Missouri 41, Carolina 24
December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

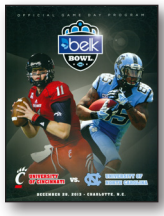
2013 Belk Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Carolina 39, Cincinnati 17
December 28, 2013



Freshman Ryan Switzer capped a memorable season by returning a punt 86 yards for a touchdown to help North Carolina beat Cincinnati 39-17 for its first Belk Bowl title in four tries. It was Switzer's fifth punt return of the season for a TD, tying an NCAA record.

T.J. Logan returned a kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown, Marquise Williams threw for 171 yards and a score and Romar Morris had two short TD runs as the Tar Heels (7-6) won a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

The victory also capped a huge turnaround for the Tar Heels, who started the season 1-5.

Cincinnati (9-4) was looking to become the bowl's first back-to-back champion since Virginia did it 10 years ago, but Brendon Kay - the MVP last year - was limited to 181 yards passing and no touchdowns.

The Tar Heels brought relentless pressure and had five sacks, including one for a safety.

North Carolina came in having lost its previous three in-state Belk Bowl appearances, but bolted to a 23-3 halftime lead behind a pair of long touchdown drives led by Williams and Logan's nifty kickoff return.

After Morris scored on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0, Brandon Ellerbe and Kareem Martin sacked Kay in the end zone for a safety - the first of three sacks in the opening half. On the ensuing kickoff, Logan put the Tar Heels in control by fielding the ball near the left sideline and cutting back up the middle of the field for the score.

Williams made it 23-3 in the second quarter, hitting Tabb on a quick slant for a 3-yard touchdown strike.

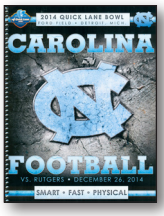
Detroit, Mich.
Rutgers 41, Carolina 20
December 26, 2014



Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown and Rutgers beat North Carolina 40-21 in the inaugural Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field.

Owned and operated by the NFL's Detroit Lions, the bowl replaced the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which had been played in Detroit under various names since 1997.

Rutgers led 40-7 before the Tar Heels (6-7) scored twice in the final seven minutes. North Carolina also had two second-half touchdown passes taken away because of interference penalties.

Marquise Williams was never able to get going, although he did throw for one score and run for another.

The Scarlet Knights lost the coin toss, but got the ball when North Carolina deferred. They only needed 2:17 to take the lead, with Gary Nova hitting a wide-open Andre Patton for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

Carolina got into Rutgers' territory its first two drives, but turned the ball over on the first and punted on the second. The Tar Heels blocked a punt to take over at the 30, but the drive stalled at the 5 and a fake field goal was buried for a 4-yard loss.

The Scarlet Knights answered with a 91-yard drive that ended with Hicks' 21-yard run that made it 14-0 early in the second. Rutgers then turned another Tar Heels fumble into a quick touchdown — Martin's 8-yard run — but missed the extra point, leaving it 20-0.

The Tar Heels missed a field goal, then shanked a punt 20 yards, allowing Rutgers to kick a 19-yard field goal that made it 23-0 at halftime.

2015 Russell Athletic Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Baylor 49, Carolina 38
December 29, 2015

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

North Carolina (11-3) tried to match Baylor's scoring output but had a key fumble in the third quarter that stifled its comeback efforts.

Marquise Williams passed for 243 yards and three scores, and rushed for two more. Elijah Hood added 118 yards rushing.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at quarterback, five different players — Johnson, his backup Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Terence Williams — all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

North Carolina kept pace as best it could and scored on its opening possession of the second half to cut what had been an 18-point first-half deficit to 28-24.

Baylor needed just eight plays to go back up 35-24 following 3-yard touchdown run by Williams.

The Tar Heels started their next drive with a 67-yard run by Hood to get back into the red zone.

But two plays later T.J. Logan fumbled at the goal line after being hit by Aiavion Edwards and it was scooped up by Baylor's Orion Stewart for a touchback.

The Bears took advantage, and on their first play after the changeover scored on an 80-yard scamper by Jefferson that put them in front 42-24.

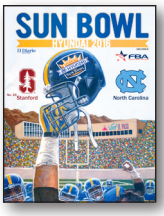
2016 Hyundai Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Stanford 25, Carolina 23
December 30, 2016



North Carolina native Bryce Love took over for the absent Christian McCaffrey in the Stanford backfield, running for 119 yards and catching a 49-yard touchdown pass to help the No. 16 Cardinal beat North Carolina 25-23 in the Sun Bowl.

Stanford (10-3) held on after North Carolina (8-5) pulled within two with 25 seconds left on Mitch Trubisky's 2-yard pass to Bug Howard, sacking Trubisky on the 2-point conversion try.

McCaffrey skipped the bowl game to focus on his NFL career.

Stanford took a 25-17 lead on Conrad Ukropina's 27-yard field goal with 3:23 left. North Carolina was forced to punt on its next series, but used two timeouts to get the ball back.

After taking over at their own 3, the Tar Heels drove 97 yards in 10 plays and 1:11. After competing passes of 44 and 27 yards, Trubisky capped the drive with the 2-yard scoring pass to Howard.

Stanford then sacked Trubisky on the 2-point try, a rush led by Solomon Thomas forcing the quarterback to retreat before being taken down. Thomas was selected the game's MVP, and the Cardinal defense also got a big game from safety Dallas Lloyd.

Lloyd intercepted Trubisky's pass in the first half, then again early in the fourth quarter. He returned that one 19 yards for a touchdown to give Stanford a 22-17 lead. That stalled a North Carolina rally that saw it go from being down 13-7 at the half and 16-7 early in the third to taking a 17-16 lead. That came after a 37-yard field goal by Nick Weiler and a 5-yard TD run by Jordon Brown.

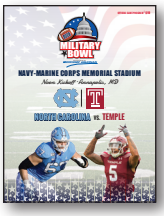
BOWL GAME HISTORY

2019 Military Bowl
Annapolis, Md.
Carolina 55, Temple 13
December 27, 2019



Freshman Sam Howell threw for 294 yards and three touchdowns in addition to catching a TD pass, and North Carolina blew out Temple 55-13 in the Military Bowl to cap a satisfying return season for coach Mack Brown.

Howell completed 25 of 34 passes and ran for 53 yards on three carries to help the Tar Heels (7-6) secure their first bowl victory since 2013. North Carolina was 4-6 before winning its last two regular-season games to qualify for a bowl bid.

Temple (8-5) has gone to a bowl game five years in a row — and lost four of them. This was the Owls' first trip under coach Rod Carey, who came to Temple after a run of six-plus seasons at Northern Illinois in which he was 0-6 in the postseason.

North Carolina went 3-9 in 2017 and 2-9 last year before hiring Brown, who coached the Tar Heels from 1988-97 prior to heading to Texas for a 16-year stay.

Closing out a sensational debut season at the college level, Howell threw a pair of touchdown passes before halftime to stake the Tar Heels to a 20-6 lead. UNC pulled away early in the third quarter by scoring two touchdowns in a 12-second span, the last on a 20-yard interception return by Storm Duck.

Howell completed the third-quarter blitz by catching a 2-yard TD pass from wide receiver Rontavius Groves at the end of a razzle-dazzle reverse to make it 41-6.

The Tar Heels then moved 75 yards on eight plays, going up 17-6 when Dazz Newsome got behind safety Amir Tyler on a 16-yard touchdown catch.

Newsome made an even better catch early in the fourth quarter, snaring the ball in the left back corner of the end zone behind two defenders and getting one foot in before tumbling backward at the end of a 29-yard score.

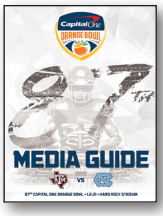
2021 Orange Bowl
Miami Gardens, Fla.
Texas A&M 41, Carolina 27
January 2, 2021



Devon Achane had two late touchdown runs, including a 76-yarder with 3:44 left that put Texas A&M ahead to stay, and the fifth-ranked Aggies beat No. 14 North Carolina 41-27.

Sam Howell passed for 234 yards and three touchdowns, two of them to Josh Downs, for the Tar Heels (8-4). North Carolina was without leading rushers Javonte Williams and Michael Carter, leading receiver Dyami Brown and top tackler Chazz Surratt — all of whom opted out of the bowl game.

Kellen Mond passed for 232 yards and ran for a score for the Aggies (9-1), who were in the Orange Bowl for the first time since 1944.

Achane's go-ahead score came on a play where he darted left, nearly tripped over one of his own blockers, broke a tackle and then got loose down the sideline. The Aggies got a fourth-down stop on the ensuing possession, and Achane sealed the win on a 1-yard run with 1:34 left.

Howell tied North Carolina's career TD passing record of 68 with his three scoring throws, all of which gave the Tar Heels leads.

The first saw Dazz Newsome make a diving 28-yard grab with 4:56 left in the half to put the Tar Heels ahead 13-10. The next was a 10-yarder to Downs with 8:01 left in the third for a 20-17 lead, a drive extended when Texas A&M had an interception in the end zone waved off by penalty. And the third was a 75-yarder to Downs early in the fourth, when Howell saw him break free, point to him and let the ball fly.

2021 Duke's Mayo Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
South Carolina 38, Carolina 21
December 30, 2021

South Carolina coach Shane Beamer had a bucket of mayonnaise dumped over his head Thursday, putting a memorable and messy finish on the Gamecocks' 38-21 victory over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl.

Jaheim Bell had five catches for 159 yards and two touchdowns for South Carolina (7-6), which rebounded nicely after it lost 30-0 to Clemson in its regular-season finale on Nov. 27. Kevin Harris added 169 yards rushing and a score, helping secure the mayo bath for Beamer.

The sophomore tight end got free for a 69-yard touchdown reception from converted wide receiver Dakereon Joyner and hauled in a 66-yard TD catch from former graduate assistant coach Zeb Noland on South Carolina's first two possessions.

Juju McDowell added a 35-yard TD run in the second quarter as South Carolina averaged 11.6 yards per play while opening a 25-13 lead in the first half.

Sam Howell threw for 205 yards and a touchdown for the Tar Heels (6-7), and reserve running back British Brooks had a bowl record 63-yard touchdown run for the Tar Heels.

Joyner was named the game's Most Valuable Player, he finished 9-of-9 passing for 160 yards and also ran for 64 yards. Noland was 3-of-6 passing for 82 yards as the Gamecocks went nearly three quarters before their first incomplete pass.

The Tar Heels cut the lead to 11 midway through the third quarter on a double-reverse flea flicker, but South's Carolina's offense proved too much for a porous North Carolina defense as the Gamecocks racked up 543 yards on offense.

2022 Holiday Bowl
San Diego, Calif.
Oregon 28, Carolina 27
December 28, 2022

The Holiday Bowl emerged from a two-year pandemic hiatus with a new home and the same reputation for thrilling finishes.

Bo Nix threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Chase Cola on fourth down with 19 seconds left and Camden Lewis' PAT bounced off the left upright and went through to give No. 15 Oregon a wild 28-27 victory against North Carolina on Wednesday night at Petco Park.

Cota caught the ball at about the 1 and got it across the goal line as he was being tackled by Don Chapman. The play was upheld on review. Lewis then banked in the PAT.

North Carolina (9-5) got the ball to the Oregon 42 with one second left before Drake Maye's desperation heave into the end zone fell incomplete.

"Very disappointed that we didn't win, but we've got to make a play here or there, and they're a great football team," said North Carolina coach Mack Brown, who brought Texas to the Holiday Bowl five times between 2000 and 2011. "Nobody gave us a chance in the game and we had a chance with one second left. That's all we could ask for in this situation."

The Ducks finished 10-3 thanks to Nix, who came up big late in the fourth quarter after being held in check much of the second half. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to Troy Franklin with 6:58 to go to pull the Ducks to 24-21.

The Tar Heels took a 27-21 lead with 2:34 to go on Noah Burnette's 44-yard field goal, his second of the quarter.

Nix then moved the Ducks 79 yards in eight plays for the win, with the drive being aided by a pass interference call.

CAROLINA DRAFT FIRST-ROUND DRAFT NOTES

• During Mack Brown's first stint at UNC, he produced six Tar Heels who would go on to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, including three in 1998 (Greg Ellis, Vonnie Holliday and Brian Simmons). Brown also produced an additional seven second-round selections.

• Mitch Trubisky was selected No. 2 overall by the Chicago Bears in the 2017 NFL Draft. That matches the highest selection ever for a UNC player. Ken Willard (1965), Lawrence Taylor (1981) and Julius Peppers (2002) were also selected No. 2 overall.

• Trubisky was the ninth player in UNC history taken in the top 10 of the NFL Draft. Carolina's other top 10 draft picks are Ken Willard (No. 2 in 1965), Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981), Julius Peppers (No. 2 in 2002), Ken Huff (No. 3 in 1975), Ryan Sims (No. 6 in 2002), Jonathan Cooper (No. 7 in 2013), Greg Ellis (No. 8 in 1998) and Eric Ebron (No. 10 in 2014).

• North Carolina has produced eight first-round draft picks since 2008. That is the third-highest total of any ACC school. Clemson (12) and Florida State (11) have the most in that time frame, while no other in-state school has more than two first-round draft picks since 2008.

• Carolina's 24 all-time first-round draft picks are the most of any school in the state, ahead of NC State (17), Duke (6) and Wake Forest (5).

Includes Carolina players who have played in at least one game as a member of a professional football team. Listing includes the NFL, AFL, USFL and AAFC.
