FINLEY GOLF CLUB, OPENING OCTOBER 2023

- Love Golf Design, led by World Golf Hall of Famer and Carolina legend Davis Love III, Mark Love and architect Scot Sherman, in coordination and financial support from the Rams Club, has renovated Carolina's on-campus course with a targeted limited opening in mid-October 2023.

- The renovations include a complete overhaul of all 18 greens complexes, flipping the nines, building three completely new holes on what is now the front side, installing more heat and drought-resistant Bermuda turf and creating a state-of-the-art dedicated practice facility for the Tar Heel men's and women's golf teams.

clockwise from top left: the new 4th hole, a 331-yard uphill dogleg right par 4; the 5th hole (formerly the 15th), the 508-yard par 4 with new greenside bunkers; the new 6th hole, a 185-yard par 3 to a plateau green; and the 14th (formerly the 5th hole).

below left: a short-game strokes gained practice complex with 22 'greens,' ranging in approach distances from 67 to 220 yards

HEAD COACH AIMEE NEFF

Aimee Neff is in her third season as head coach of the UNC women's golf program.

Neff, who joined the Women's Golf Coaches Association Board of Directors in 2023, rejoined the Tar Heels after three seasons as head coach at Florida Atlantic University. She was the associate head coach at Carolina in 2017-18.

The Tar Heels have earned invitations to compete in NCAA regionals in each of Neff's two seasons as head coach. Other highlights from the past two seasons include:

- Kayla Smith earned All-ACC honors in 2022 and 2023, becoming the first Tar Heel to earn multiple all-conference awards since 2013;
- Smith, a fifth-year senior in 2023-24, is Carolina's all-time leader in stroke average (73.50), has a share of the single-season record (73.00 in 2022-23) and holds the third spot on the single-season list (73.04 in 2021-22);
- Krista Junkkari also set the single-season scoring record (73.00 in 2021-22) and is fourth in career average;
- Junkkari set the 18-hole UNC record with a 7-under 65 in the fall of 2021 at the Cougar Classic and tied the 54-hole UNC record with a 12-under 204 in that same event;
- Smith and Junkkari both were medalists last season, the first time two Tar Heels won individual titles in the same season since Meaghan Francella and Ashley Prange in 2003-04;
- Carolina won the 2022 Ivy Intercollegiate at Baltusrol Golf Club, UNC's first team championship in five seasons;
- the Tar Heels set the UNC 18-hole scoring record twice last season, firing 12-under-par 276s in the final rounds in the MountainView Collegiate in Tucson, Ariz., and the NCAA Pullman (Wash.) Regional. The latter was the lowest postseason round ever by the Tar Heels;
- seven of the 14-lowest individual rounds in UNC history have been produced in the last two seasons by five different Tar Heels;
- five of the 10-lowest team rounds in UNC history were shot in the last two seasons;

- Crista Izuzquiza shot 66 in round three in the 2023 ACC Championship, which tied the lowest round ever by a Tar Heel in an ACC Championship;
- Megan Streicher averaged 73.33 in 2022-23, the lowest ever by a Tar Heel freshman and the seventh best in school history;
- five of the seven-lowest single-season scoring averages have been set in the last two seasons;
- Carolina shot 1-over 865 at the Palouse Ridge Golf Club in Pullman, Wash., in the 2023 NCAA regional. That was the second-best 54-hole total and score to par by UNC in a regional;
- Streicher shot 7-under 209 in Pullman, which tied the best score and score to par by a Tar Heel in a regional;
- another freshman, Inez Ng, shot 67 in the third round of the 2023 regional, which tied the second-best round in a regional by a Tar Heel. Ng's 211 total was the fourth best by a Tar Heel in a regional;
- three Tar Heels shot rounds in the 60s in the Pullman Regional, the first time UNC ever accomplished that in a regional;
- the Tar Heels went a combined 4-2 in the NC State Match Play, advancing to the finals in each of the last two seasons.

Neff became the sixth head coach in Carolina women's golf history, joining Jean Eller (1973-74), Dr. Pam Robinson (1974-75), Dot Gunnells (1974-93), Sally Austin (1993-2009) and Jan Mann (2009-21).

"UNC is a special place because of its exceptional student-athletes and the men and women who work there and those who have been part of the program in the past," says Neff. "It truly is a community of people who want to be excellent in what they do. UNC has the total package of academic prowess, athletic greatness, being a member of the ACC, committed alumni, geographic location and outstanding facilities."

At FAU, Neff helped the Owls improve their Golfweek ranking from No. 189 when she was named head coach prior to the 2018-19 season to No. 94 in the nation in 2020-21. She coached Justine Fournand, who won Conference USA Freshman-of-the-Year and Player-of-the-Year honors over the past two seasons. In her three seasons in Boca Raton, FAU won two team tournaments and four individual events and improved its scoring average by more than 12 strokes per round.

In 2021, FAU shot the fourth- and fifth-best 54-hole totals in school history, and established school records for the third consecutive season in par 3, par 4 and par 5 scoring and stroke average. Fournand won twice and qualified for an NCAA regional.

Carolina has qualified for the NCAA regionals in both of Neff's two seasons in Chapel Hill, including 2022 as the head coach.

Prior to becoming the head coach at FAU, Neff served as the associate head coach at Carolina in 2017-18. The Tar Heels won the Briar's Creek Invitational with the second-lowest 54-hole score in Carolina history and played in the NCAA TPC Harding Park Regional in San Francisco. Kelly Whaley set the school single-season stroke average record and became the first Tar Heel to ever shoot three rounds in the 60s in a tournament, when she set the 54-hole UNC record at 12-under 204. Freshman Ava Bergner also set the Tar Heels' 18-hole scoring record with a 6-under 66.

Neff was an assistant for three seasons at her alma mater, Michigan State, from 2013-16 and for one season at Vanderbilt in 2016-17. She helped coach Vanderbilt's Alexandra Fransworth, who competed in the 2017 NCAA Tournament.

The Spartans were Big Ten Champions in 2014, played in two NCAA regionals and advanced to the 2014 NCAA Championship. She helped coach Allyssa Ferrell, who finished in the top 10 at the 2014 NCAA Championship, and Sarah Burnham, who played in the 2016 NCAA Championship and was an honorable mention All-America.

Neff's student-athletes have succeeded academically at each of her four coaching stops, earning 31 All-America Scholar Awards. FAU had the sixth-highest grade point average in DI in 2020.

A native of Carmel, Ind., Neff attended Michigan State from 2007-11 and became the third MSU women's golfer to earn All-Big Ten honors four times. She had 13 top-10 finishes, led the Spartans to the Big Ten championship as a senior and won the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor in 2011. She was an All-America Scholar and member of the Academic All-Big Ten team three times.

Neff won the Illinois Women's Open in 2008 and 2009 and the Indiana Women's Open in 2009 and 2010. She played in the 2012 U.S. Open in Kohler, Wis., and on the Symetra Tour from 2011-14, competing in the United States, Australia and New Zealand.

She holds Titleist Performance Institute Certification in Levels I and II and is certified in AimPoint Express and Trackman University.

KATHERINE HAMSKI Assistant Coach

Katherine (Perry) Hamski, a 2012 All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and seven-year veteran of the LPGA Tour, is joining the University of North Carolina women's golf team as assistant coach, head coach Aimee Neff announced today.

Hamski played in 41 tournaments as a Tar Heel from 2010-14 and was a member of Carolina's 2011 team that won the ACC Championship her freshman season.

The Cary, N.C., native tied for fifth in the 2014 ACC Championship, placed sixth in 2011 and played in two NCAA Championships, where she tied for 24th as a freshman and eighth as a sophomore. She earned seven top 10s, including third-place efforts at the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate as a sophomore and the UCF Challenge as a junior.

A two-time captain of the Tar Heels, she earned honorable mention All-America honors in 2012, made the ACC Honor Roll four times and was a three-time member of the Academic All-ACC team.

A 2014 UNC graduate (exercise and sports science and psychology), Hamski played two seasons on the Symetra Tour and joined the LPGA Tour in 2017. She also is a member of the Board of Directors at Girls Golf of America and is a tournament assistant with the Peggy Kirk Bell Golf Tour.

She has two career top-10 finishes on the LPGA Tour, including a tie for sixth in the 2019 Volunteers for America Classic, when she shot 66 in the third round.

Hamski attended Athens Drive High School in Cary where she won the 2009 North Carolina 4-A state championship. She and her husband, Kevin, have a two-year-old son, John.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

DOT GUNNELLS
Head Coach 1975-93

ALL-TIME: Women's golf gained varsity status at Carolina for the 1973-74 season. The Tar Heels have won 41 tournament team titles and 49 individual tournament championships.

NCAA: Carolina has played in the NCAA Championship 16 times and played in five AIAW Championships from 1977-82.

TOP FINISHES: Carolina has finished in the top 10 in the national championship nine times – seventh in NCAA Championship play in 2009, eighth in 1989, 1992, 1993, 1995 and 2011, ninth in 1017 and 10th in 1977 and 2012.

The Tar Heels have finished in the top 20 at nationals 18 times.

NCAA BESTS: Donna Andrews tied for third at the 1989 NCAA Championship at Stanford, the highest finish by a Tar Heel in the national championship. Katherine Perry tied for eighth in 2012 for UNC's other top-10 finish.

Those are among the 14 top-25 performances by Tar Heels in the NCAA Championship (and two more in AIAW championships in the 1970s). In addition to Andrews and Perry, Carolina's other top-

20s include T11 by Katie Peterson in 1989, T12 by Justine Richards in 1993, T16 by Allie White in 2009, T17 by Jessica Wood in 2017 and T19 by Page Marsh in 1983.

NCAA REGIONALS:

Tar Heels have won medalist honors at two NCAA Regionals. Kimberly Byham won in Baton Rouge in 1993 and Catherine O'Donnell won the NCAA West Regional in Erie, Colo., in 2012. The Tar Heels were second at the NCAA East Regional in Daytona Beach, Fla., in 2011.

The Tar Heels have played in 28 regionals, including 2023 in Pullman, Wash. Carolina shot 12-under 276 in the final round in Pullman, UNC's best round ever in a

ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS: Carolina has won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship in 1992 (head coach Dot Gunnells) and 2011 (head coach Jan Mann).

The Tar Heels have finished second six times and third on nine occasions.

ACC MEDALISTS: Debbie Doniger won the ACC title in 1992 and Meaghan Francella was medalist in 2003.

HEAD COACHES: Aimee Neff is in her third season as Carolina's head coach. An assistant coach in 2017-18, Neff came back to UNC after three seasons as head coach at Florida Atlantic. She follows Jan Mann (2009-21), Sally Austin (1993-2009), Dot Gunnells (1975-93), Dr. Pam Robinson (1974-75) and Jean Eller (1973-74).

Austin, a player on UNC's first team in 1973-74, received the WGCA's Gladys Palmer Meritorious Service Award in 2014.

ALL-AMERICAS:

Fifteen Tar Heels have earned 20 All-America honors, including three-time selection Catherine O'Donnell (2009, 2011 and 2012) and two-time selections Katie Peterson (1988 and 1989), Marcy Newton (1999 and 2000), Ashley Prange (2003 and 2004) and Casey Grice (2012 and 2013).

First-team All-Americans include Peterson in 1989, Kimberly Byham in 1993, Prange in 2004 and Meaghan Francella in 2004.

Other All-Americans include Linda Mescan (1982), Page Marsh (1983), Donna Andrews (1989), Kelly McCall (1997), Megan Morgan (1998), Allie White (2009), Katherine Perry (2012) and Jennifer Zhou (2019).

ALL-ACC: Twenty-one Tar Heel golfers have been selected to All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams a total of 34 times, including Kayla Smith in 2022 and 2023. All-ACC selections have been made in 1985 and 1986 and 1992 to present, except in 2020 when no team was named due to the pandemic.

Catherine O'Donnell is Carolina's only four-time All-ACC honoree, making the team from 2009-12. Marcy Newton (1997, 1999 and 2000) and Ashley Prange (2002-04) were three-time selections and Kimberly Byham (1992-93), Kelly McCall (1996-97), Meaghan Francella (2003-04), Allie White (2009 and 2011), Casey Grice (2012-13) and Smith earned a pair of all-conference awards.

Three players – McCall (1994), Newton (1997) and O'Donnell (2009) won ACC Freshman-of-the-Year honors and Dot Gunnells (1985) and Jan Mann (2011) were named ACC Coach of the Year.

Katie Peterson was Carolina's first women's golfer to earn first-team All-America honors in 1989. Peterson holds the UNC record for tournament victories with five.

Catherine O'Donnell is Carolina's only four-time All-ACC and three-time All-America.

Gunnells was also named the National Coach of the Year by the National Golf Coaches Association in 1993 and East Region Coach of the Year in 1989. She was inducted in the National Golf Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1993.

ACC ANNIVERSARY

TEAM: In 2004, the ACC announced all-time teams to honor the conference's first 50 years and 12 Tar Heels made the women's golf team, including Donna Andrews, Kimberly Byham, Debbie Doniger, Kandi Kessler, Stephanie Kornegay, Page Marsh, Kelly McCall, Linda Mescan, Megan Morgan, Marcy Newton, Katie Peterson and Jessica Wood.

Stephanie Kornegay was an early standout, winning four tournaments from 1977-80. Kornegay was one of 12 Tar Heels who were named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary team in 1994.

CHAMPS: Katie Peterson, who was Carolina's first-ever first-team All-America women's golfer, holds the record for tournament wins with five. The Plantation, Fla., native won once as a freshman and junior and three times as a senior in 1988-89, when she earned first-team All-America honors.

Stephanie Kornegay was a four-time champion. Linda Mescan, Page Marsh, Kimberly Byham, Kelly McCall, Marcy Newton, Ashley Prange and Catherine O'Donnell were three-time medalists.

UNC won five team titles in 1981-82 and 1988-89.

STROKE LEADERS: Fifth-year senior Kayla Smith is the Tar Heels' all-time stroke average leader at 73.50 in 28 tournaments. Casey Grice holds the record among those who played in at least 30 tournaments (73.85) and Catherine O'Donnell is the leader for 40 or more starts (73.98).

Smith, Jennifer Zhou,

Grace, Krista Junkkari,

O'Donnell, Meaghan Francella, Kelly Whaley, Leslie Cloots, Allie White and Brynn Walker are the 10 Tar Heels with career stroke averages under 75.00.

In 2022, Junkkari and Smith established the lowest single-season scoring averages in UNC history at 73.00 and 73.04, respectively (a single stroke apart). Smith then tied the low average in 2023.

Seven Tar Heels have led the team in scoring average three times, most recently Zhou from 2018-21; no Tar Heel has led in stroke average four times.

RECORD ROUNDS:

Krista Junkkari shot 7-under-par 65 in the first round of the 2021 Cougar Classic, the lowest round ever by a Tar Heel.

Prior to Junkkari's 65, the record was 66 seven times, most recently in 2017 by Ava Bergner and Leslie Cloots. Kelly Whaley, Ashley Prange, Allie White, Sydney Crane and Meaghan Francella also shot 66s.

Crista Izuzquiza shot 66 in the 2023 ACC Championship.

Bergner, Cloots, Whaley, Prange and Izuzquiza's

Kandi Kessler (above) and Katie Peterson represented UNC and the United States in Curtis Cup play. Kessler played for Team USA in the 1986 competition.

Junkkari also tied Whaley for the lowest 54-hole total in UNC history. Junkkari shot 12-under 204 last season at the Cougar Classic, while Whaley shot 12-under 204 in 2017 at the Briar's Creek Invitational. Whaley also shot 11-under 205 in 2016 at the Cougar Classic.

U.S. AMATEUR

CHAMPION: Marcy Newton, a two-time All-America and three-time All-ACC honoree, won the 2000 U.S. Amateur, winning the final match 8 & 7 at Waverley Country Club in Portland, Ore.

Amber Marsh Elliott won the 2003 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur.

CURTIS CUP: Kandi Kessler and Katie Peterson have represented Carolina and Team USA in the Curtis Cup, the prestigious international amateur event between the U.S. and Great Britain/Ireland. Kessler played in the Curtis Cup in 1986 and Peterson four years later.

WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES: Catherine O'Donnell played in the 2010 and 2011 World University Games for the United States, winning the title by a stroke in 2010 in Malaga, Spain.

PRO HEELS: A number of former Tar Heels have gone on to play on the LPGA Tour, including active members Meaghan Francella and Casey Grice. Other Tar Heel pros include Sally Austin, Donna Andrews, Cathy Johnston-Forbes, Stephanie Kornegay, Marcy Newton Hart, Katie Peterson, Suzy McGuire Whaley, Brynn Walker and Mindy Moore, who was president of the LPGA in 1987. Andrews won six times; Francella and Johnston-Forbes each had one win.

DONNA ANDREWS: Andrews was a second-team All-America as a senior in 1989, won six times on Tour, including a major title at the 1994 Nabisco Dinah Shore Classic. She was third at the U.S. Open in 1992 and tied for second in 1993. Andrews was president of the LPGA Player Executive Committee in 2003-04 and captained the 2007 U.S. PING Junior Solheim Cup Team in Bastad, Sweden. She earned more than $3 million playing on the LPGA Tour.

SUZY WHALEY: A senior in 1989, Suzy (McGuire) Whaley helped UNC win five team titles and finish eighth at the NCAA Championship. In 2019, she became the first female president of the PGA of America. A playing member of the LPGA Tour in 1990 and 1993, she also became the first female since Babe Zaharias in 1945 to qualify for a PGA Tour event. Whaley won the Connecticut PGA Section Championship in 2002, which earned her a berth in the 2003 Greater Hartford Open.

Marcy Newton earned second-team All-America honors in 1999 and won the U.S. Women's Amateur in 2000.

ORDER OF MERIT

The University of North Carolina established the Carolina Order of Merit in 1991 to honor former players, coaches, administrators and friends who have distinguished themselves in the game and for their overall contributions to the UNC golf program. Jim Ferree and Harvie Ward were the first inductees. Ceremonies take place each fall at the Executive Cup Golf Tournament banquet.
