QUICK HITS

OLD FOES FACE OFF

- ▶ Carolina Field Hockey climbs back on the bus once again for a Sunday afternoon showdown with Old Dominion at the LR Hill Sports Complex in Norfolk, Va.
- ▶ The sport's two most storied programs are set for their annual face off. The 20 national championships between them are only four titles shy of the rest of country combined.
- ▶ The Monarchs held the top spot for most of history thanks to a dominant run in the 80s and early 90s, but a three peat from 1995-97 began to turn the tide toward Carolina.
- ▶ The UNC title in the chaotic 2020 season tied the two teams at nine before the Heels went back to back in 2022 and 2023 to stand two clear of their historic foe.

CONFERENCE CRUNCH TIME

- ▶ The Tar Heels split their ACC games over the weekend, dropping a tight 2-1 contest at No. 13 Wake Forest on Friday night in 2OT before bouncing back with a 2-1 win at Boston College on Sunday.
- ▶ Eliza Perrin's late fourth quarter score looked to have won it for the Heels in Winston-Salem, but the home team equalized and then found the net first in overtime. Both Wake goals came with UNC a woman down.
- ▶ Against the Eagles, Carolina had to climb back from a goal down in the fourth quarter to bring the victory home. Isabel Boere tied it before Ryleigh Heck earned a stroke that Sanne Hak put away nicely for the winner.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

- 4 Carolina has 4 wins over top-15 opponents already this year, the most in the country.
- 5 Ryleigh Heck scored 5 goals against Stanford, tying the UNC single-game record last hit in 2015 by Gab Major.
- 11 UNC has won 11 national championships, more than any other program in the country. Old Dominion is second with nine.
- 373 Katie Wimmer leads all active goalkeeper in the country with 373 career saves, 354 at Columbia and 19 now at UNC.
- 4.00 Carolina's 4.00 goals per game average is the best in the ACC, with a whole 0.5 gap between them and second.

HECK MATCHES HISTORY

- ▶ The captain came to play in Carolina's conference clash against the Cardinal, scoring five times to tie the program record for goals in a game.
- ▶ The last Tar Heel to hit the mark was Gab Major against Virginia in 2015.
- ▶ One of the few scoring record Matson herself was unable to achieve, topping out at four on four different occasions.
- ▶ In the sport's history, only 14 people have scored more than 5 goals in a game all-time.
- ▶ The scoring outburst also catapulted her into the top-10 on the Carolina career goals list.

5. Kelsey Kolojchick	2009-12	97	68
Louise Hines	1982-85	74	68
7. Kristen McCann	1997-00	89	59
8. Ryleigh Heck	2022-25	71	58
9. Julie Blaisse	1986-88	62	57

HEELS CLAIM THREE STRAIGHT POTWS

- ▶ Heck rightfully earned ACC Offensive Player of the Week honors for her performance, giving Carolina an award winner in three consecutive weeks.
- ▶ Before Heck, true freshman goalkeeper Merritt Skubisz earned ACC Defensive Player of the Week for her efforts against App State and No. 9 Liberty.
- ▶ The Houston, Texas native refused to surrender a goal in either game across 60:00 minutes of play.
- ▶ In, Friday night's face off with the Mountaineers, she was the second half keeper and maintained the team's shutout. In her third career start against the highly-touted Flames, Skubisz held her own and then some to keep Liberty off the board in the first half.
- ▶ Skubisz was the first freshman under head coach Erin Matson to win the award.
- ▶ The first Heel to claim the conference's weekly award in 2025 was transfer midfielder Dani Mendez.
- ▶ An impressive weekend against Penn and Princeton continued what was a very hot start. She scored a goal and added two assists to claim both ACC and NFHCA Offensive Player of the Week honors.

CHARLY B AND THE B STANDS FOR BACK

- ▶ The Tar Heels got a big boost over the weekend in Princeton as star forward Charly Bruder returned to the lineup after missing the team's first two games.
- ▶ The nation's leading scorer in 2024 with 27 goals (the fourth most in a single-season at UNC), Bruder battled through an injury sustained in the offseason to get back on the field.
- ▶ Her 2024 was a year stocked full of well deserved accolades as she earned NFHCA First Team All-America, All-South Region, All-ACC First Team, and ACC Tournament MVP honors.
- ▶ In her first game of the new campaign, she got right back to her old self by scoring a pair of penalty corner goals in her signature overpowering style.

GUIDED BY THE GOAT

- ▶ Head coach Erin Matson heads in to her third season at the helm of the program she spent five years leading on the field. As a player, she won four national championships, three Honda Awards, and five ACC titles.
- ▶ She is the only player in any sport to earn ACC Player of the Year five times and is the all-time scoring leader in ACC history and NCAA tourney play.
- ▶ The reigning ACC Coach of the Year became the youngest head coach in the ACC in any sport to win a national title when she captured the title in her inaugural season in 2023.

THE FORTRESS SHELTON

- ▶ Karen Shelton Stadium officially opened August 25, 2018 and has been host to countless Carolina Field Hockey core memories since then.
- ▶ Named after the Heels' hall of fame coach of 42 seasons, it is the only UNC athletic playing facility named in honor of a woman and was just the second time in school history that an individual coached in a facility named for him or her.
- ▶ KSS has played host to numerous postseason contests, including the 2018 ACC Championship as well as the 2020 & 2023 NCAA Championship & Final Four (the Tar Heels won all three tournaments).
- ▶ The team is 69-4 in the seven seasons of play in the place they affectionately refer to as "Heaven."

BACK, BACK AGAIN

- ▶ Carolina Field Hockey returns to the turf for its 52nd season, looking to reach the summit of the sport once again. The Tar Heels come in to 2025 with a team full of new faces anchored by a core of veterans.
- ▶ 13 letterwinners from the 2024 ACC Championship team are gone, replaced by 11 newcomers in the form of eight true freshmen and three transfers.
- ▶ ACC Offensive Player of the Year and 2023 Honda Award winner Ryleigh Heck enters her senior season on the precipice of the all-time program top-10 lists for goals (10 shy), assists (15 shy), and points (17 shy).
- ▶ Heck and fellow senior Sietske Brüning will captain the Tar Heels in 2025.

FULL FIELD FIREPOWER

- ▶ Carolina buttered its bread in 2024 on both sides of the ball, leading the country in both goals per game (3.86) and goals against average (0.55), averaging a 3.31 goals difference between the two.
- ▶ The Heels and the Wildcats of Northwestern were the only two squads to be in the top eight of both categories.
- ▶ Forward Charly Bruder paced the nation in goals (27) and goals per game (1.29).
- ▶ Her goals total put her in a tie for the fourth most in a single season in program history, level with her head coach's junior and senior seasons.
- ▶ On the defensive, graduated goalkeeper Abigail Taylor along with a host of backs including Kelly Smith (graduated), Ciana Riccardo (graduated), and Grace Pottebaum finished with the best goals against average in the NCAA at 0.52.
- ▶ Transfer Katie Wimmer and true freshman Merritt Skubisz will compete to defend the nets this season.

SCOUTING REPORT

FHockey Heels vs. the Monarchs

► Friday's game will be the 85th all-time meeting between the two programs.

► Last time they met: Carolina relied heavily on their dynamic duo of Heck and Bruder to get them the win over the Monarchs last season. Bruder scored the first and last goals of the game to make it three straight contests with multiple scores for her. Heck claimed the game winner early in the fourth with a chip of the ODU keeper.

► These teams have unsurprisingly met on the nation's biggest stage many times. UNC won its first and fourth national championships by beating the Monarchs.

► Carolina is 5-9 in postseason play against ODU between NCAA Championship matches and old AIAW tournaments.

► In the 84 games played, the two teams gave two ties all-time between the them, both came in 1993.

► ODU's last win over the Tar Heels came in Chapel Hill in September of 2011, a 3-1 result for the Monarchs. UNC won the return leg in Norfolk that year 3-2 in OT.
