FIRST AND TEN

- Carolina is in its 135th season of football (138th year) in 2025.
- Entering the rivalry matchup with Duke, the Tar Heels hold an all-time record of 755-582-54.
- The Tar Heels close the regular season versus the Big Four trio of Wake Forest, Duke and NC State, this weekend hosting Duke at 3:30 p.m.
- Saturday's game between the Tar Heels and Blue Devils will air live on ACC Network with Wes Durham (PxP), Steve Addazio (Analyst) and Dana Boyle (Sideline) on the call.
- On December 11, 2024, Carolina announced the hiring of eight-time Super Bowl champion Bill Belichick as the program's new football coach.
- Belichick became the 40th coach in program history, the 12th to lead the program since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1953.
- Belichick's ties to UNC date back to his father, Steve, who was an assistant coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-55.
- With the coaching transition, the 2025 Carolina Football coaching staff features more than 240 years of combined NFL experience.
- Defensive linemen Melkart Abou Jaoude leads the Atlantic Coast Conference with 10.0 sacks on the year, followed by teammate Tyler Thompson ranking third in the league, with seven sacks.
- Last time out, kicker Rece Verhoff drilled a 57-yard field goal, the longest in school history.

A WIN OVER DUKE WOULD...

- Be Carolina's 756th all-time victory in program history.
- Help Carolina earn their fifth win of the season.
- Give Belichick his fifth win at the college level, and his third Atlantic Coast Conference victory.
- Help the Tar Heels secure their fourth-straight victory over the Blue Devils in Chapel Hill.
- Be Carolina's longest home winning streak over the Blue Devils since its five-game win streak over Duke in the 1990's.

THE LAST MEETING...

CAROLINA (3-2, 0-1 ACC) 10 7 3 0 - 20

DUKE (5-0, 1-0 ACC) 0 0 7 14 - 21

SEPT. 28, 2024 | WALLACE WADE STADIUM | DURHAM, N.C. | ATTENDANCE: 35,018

Duke overcame a 20-0, third-quarter deficit and edged North Carolina, 21-20 at Wallace Wade Stadium in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

The loss snapped UNC's five-game winning streak in the series. Duke improved to 5-0 for the first time since 1994, while the Tar Heels lost their second game in a row and fell to 3-2. It was the Blue Devils' largest second-half comeback win since 1962.

Jacoby Criswell completed 21 of 39 passing attempts for 251 yards with two touchdowns and an interception for UNC. Omarion Hampton ran 29 times for 103 yards while also posting a career-high 50 receiving yards on four catches. J.J. Jones caught five passes for 89 yards and a score.

Star Thomas rushed for 166 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries for Duke. Maalik Murphy connected on 15 of 34 throws for 209 yards and a touchdown. Thomas scored two touchdowns as the Blue Devils outpaced UNC, 21-0, in the final 20:49 of the game.

UNC had two chances to try to retake the lead in the final minutes, but both drives came up short. Duke's defense stiffened in the second half and held Carolina to just a field goal after halftime.

Carolina took an early, double-digit lead while outgaining Duke, 138-29, in the first quarter. The Tar Heel defense limited the Blue Devils to 2.1 yards per play in the opening 15 minutes. Duke managed just 97 yards of offense in the first half with the Tar Heels taking a 17-0 lead into the break.

QUICK HITS

- Duke is led by Manny Diaz, who's in his second season at Duke. Last year in his first campaign, Diaz helped the Blue Devils to nine wins.
- Under center, Darian Mensah's 3,007 yards passing leads the Atlantic Coast Conference, and ranks fourth nationally. Mensah's 25 passing touchdowns is an ACC leader, and is tied for third in the country.
- The Blue Devil offense averages 432.7 yards per game, fourth best in the ACC.
- Last time out, Duke fell to No. 19 Virginia, 34-17, at home.
- Duke is 3-0 this season on the road in ACC play, collecting wins over Syracuse (38-3), California (45-21) and Clemson (46-45).

LAST TIME AGAINST DUKE

Duke defeated North Carolina, 21-20, in the ACC opener for both programs on Sept. 28, 2024.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Russell Wilson threw for two touchdowns and had a key run in the third quarter to set up another score that helped North Carolina State beat No. 25 North Carolina 41-10.

Wilson's 26-yard keeper set up Andre Brown's short touchdown run in a 21-point third quarter for N.C. State (5-6, 3-4 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Wilson finished with a career-high 279 yards passing to go with 50 yards rushing. The redshirt freshman also extended his interception-free streak to a school-record 203 passes, part of a turnover-free day against a defense that has been one of the nation's best at forcing mistakes.

N.C. State finished with 466 total yards and converted 8 of 17 third downs.

T. J. Yates completed 10 of 22 passes for 116 yards and an interception.

TAR HEEL NOTES

From The Notes: Wake Forest

- Quarterback Gio Lopez finished the game 21-36 for 201 yards. Saturday was Lopez's fifth-straight game with 200-or-more passing yards, his longest streak of the season and the longest streak in his career.
- Freshman running back Demon June led the Tar Heels in rushing, his fifth game this season pacing the Tar Heels on the ground. June's 452 yards rushing this season ranks second among ACC freshmen.
- Tight end Jake Johnson finished with five receptions for 54 yards. The five catches was the second-most in Johnson's career, and his UNC best. The 54 yards receiving was a career-high for the redshirt-junior.
- Linebacker Khmori House led the Tar Heels for the second-straight game with nine tackles, which included a sack and forced fumble.
- Defensive linemen Melkart Abou Jaoude and D'Antre Robinson each posted seven tackles, career-high's for both Tar Heels.
- Kicker Rece Verhoff had six field goal attempts in the game, tied for the Carolina single-game record. The six field goal attempts has occurred four previous times in program history, most recently by Noah Burnette versus Duke in 2023.
- Verhoff's four field goals made was the second-most in program history, tying a career-high for the Columbus Grove, Ohio native.
- With time expiring in the first half, Verhoff drilled a 57-yard field goal, breaking Carolina's school record for longest field goal made. The previous record, held by Dan Orner, was a 55-yarder versus Syracuse in 2002.

Stopping the Run

- The Tar Heels' defense ranks fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference in conference games, allowing 100.0 yards per game.
- In Carolina's first three ACC games, the Tar Heel defense held opponents under 100 yards in three consecutive conference games for the first time since 2009.
- Opponents have averaged just 3.0 yards per rush in ACC games.
- Two weeks ago versus Stanford, Carolina limited the Cardinal to just 36 yards rushing.

In-State Battles

- Last weekend started the first of three-straight games against Atlantic Coast Conference foes from the state of North Carolina. This weekend, Carolina hosts Duke in the second-leg of the in-state swing:
 - Saturday, Nov. 15: North Carolina at Wake Forest: Loss, 28-12
 - Saturday, Nov. 22: Duke at North Carolina
 - Saturday, Nov. 29: North Carolina at NC State
- Carolina will face the trio of Wake Forest, Duke and NC State in three consecutive games for the third time in program history, 1933, 1999 and 2025.
- In both of the previous occurrences, the Tar Heels went 2-1 in the three-game swing versus the Tar Heel State opponents.

Melkart's Last Four Games

- Over the last four games, defensive end Melkart Abou Jaoude has 22 tackles and 8.5 sacks.
- In the Tar Heels' stretch against Virginia, Syracuse and Stanford, Abou Jaoude had multiple sacks in all three games.
- Abou Jaoude's 10 sacks on the season is a career-high and atop the Atlantic Coast Conference, the most in a season by a Tar Heel since Kareem Martin's 11.5 sacks in 2013.
- The Newton, N.J. native's 10 sacks ranks sixth in the nation.

TAR HEEL NOTES

Smart Football

- North Carolina ranks third in the ACC in fewest penalties, with 56 on the season.
- The Tar Heels are averaging 5.6 per game under Coach Belichick, a mark that ranks fourth in the conference.

Defensive End Duo

- The tandem of Melkart Abou Jaoude and Tyler Thompson have combined for 18 sacks this season, 14 of which have come in the last four games.
- Abou Jaoude's 10 sacks leads the ACC, and Thompson's mark currently ranks tied for second.
- As a team, the Tar Heels are averaging 2.9 sacks per game, ranking second in the ACC and 13th nationally.

June Bursts On The Scene

- In the three games versus Charlotte, Richmond and UCF, freshman Demon June has led the Tar Heels in rushing with 250 yards on 33 carries.
- June led the Tar Heels in the win over Richmond on Sept. 13, posting 148 yards and a touchdown.
- June logged the first 100-yard game for Carolina this fall, becoming the first Tar Heel freshman to lead Carolina in rushing in back-to-back games since Michael Carter in 2017.
- The Jacksonville, N.C. native's 148 yards were the most for a freshman running back since Carter's 157 yards against Virginia in 2017.
- June's 50-yard rush on the opening drive was the longest by a Carolina freshman since Omarion Hampton's 58-yarder against Georgia State in 2022.
- Against Syracuse, June posted 182 total yards in the game (101 rushing, 81 receiving). June's 101 yards on the ground was his second time this season eclipsing the century mark.
- June has led the Tar Heels in rushing in five games this season.

New Era In Chapel Hill

- On December 11, 2024, Bill Belichick was named head coach of the University of North Carolina football program.
- Belichick became the 12th head coach to lead the program since Carolina began play in the Atlantic Coast Conference (1953).
- An eight-time Super Bowl champion, Belichick won two titles as a defensive coordinator with the New York Giants, and six as the head coach of the New England Patriots.
- Belichick's father, Steve, was an assistant coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-1955, before going on to become an assistant coach for more than three decades at the United States Naval Academy.
- Belichick is the second Super Bowl winning head coach to become a college head coach after winning the Super Bowl, joining Bill Walsh.

Johnson Brother Connection

- Tar Heel quarterback Max Johnson and tight end Jake Johnson have connected on seven passes for 55 yards and a touchdown this season.
- The Johnson brother duo's touchdown in the season opener versus TCU became the first brother-to-brother touchdown in program history.
- In 2023 while the tandem was at Texas A&M, Jake's first career touchdown catch came courtesy of Max, becoming the first brother-to-brother scoring connection in Aggie history.

TAR HEEL NOTES

New Faces, New Places

- At the start of the season, the 2025 roster featured 38 returners and 70 newcomers.
- Of the newcomers, 40 arrived in Chapel Hill via the transfer portal and the 2025 Tar Heel roster includes 30 true freshmen.
- The 40-player transfer class arrives at Carolina with 662 career games played at the Division I level (FBS or FCS) entering the 2025 campaign.

Belichick With Washington Last Season

- New Carolina defensive coordinator Steve Belichick spent the 2024 campaign in the same role at the University of Washington, leading the defense in head coach Jedd Fisch's first season with the Huskies.
- With the transition from Washington to Carolina, Belichick brought along Armond Hawkins as the Carolina cornerbacks coach, along with defensive transfers Thaddeus Dixon (No. 1), Khmori House (No. 7) and Peyton Waters (No. 17).
- A season ago, Dixon earned honorable mention All-Big Ten as a cornerback for the Huskies, and House collected College Football Network All-America recognition at linebacker.
- Washington's pass defense numbers nationally during the 2024 season:
 - Passing Yards Allowed: Fifth (166.8/game)
 - Opponent Yards Per Pass Attempt: Third (5.68/attempt)
 - Total Passing Yards Allowed: Fourth (2,001)
 - Total Completions Allowed: 14th (194)

Southpaw Slingers

- Carolina entered the 2025 season with six quarterbacks on the roster, four who throw left handed:
 - Gio Lopez: No. 7
 - Au'Tori Newkirk: No. 10
 - Max Johnson: No. 14
 - Andres Miyares Jr.: No. 18
- The last Tar Heel left-handed quarterback who was the primary starter was Nathan Elliott (2018).

Protectors Up Front

- Carolina welcomed 11 new faces (eight transfers, three true freshmen) to the offensive line room entering the new year:
 - Daniel King (No. 52): Troy
 - Christo Kelly (No. 53): Holy Cross
 - Miles McVay (No. 54): Alabama
 - Jakai Moore (No. 55): South Carolina
 - Jordan Hall (No. 66): UAB
 - Chad Lindberg (No. 69): Rice
 - William Boone (No. 71): Prairie View A&M
 - Will O'Steen (No. 73): Jacksonville State
 - Byron Nelson (No. 70): Freshman
 - Eidan Buchanan (No. 72): Freshman
 - Trey Blue (No. 77): Freshman
- The Tar Heels return Jani Norwood (No. 56), Bo Burkes (No. 57), Austin Blaske (No. 58), and Aidan Banfield (No. 68) who appeared or started in a game a season ago.

Under Center

- The Tar Heels have two quarterbacks holding considerable experience under their belts, Max Johnson and Gio Lopez.
- Johnson, in his second year with the program, started for the Tar Heels in the season opening win at Minnesota a year ago, before suffering a season-ending lower-body injury.
- Johnson arrived in Chapel Hill after spending four years as the primary starter at LSU and Texas A&M.
- The son of Super Bowl champion Brad Johnson, Max's brother, Jake, is a tight end for the Tar Heels.
- Lopez begins his first season in the Carolina Blue, joining the program after the spring transfer portal window.
- In 2024 at South Alabama, Lopez started 11 of 13 games for the Jaguars, earning All-Sun Belt honorable mention honors.
- The quarterback tandem helps Carolina rank in the top-five as a team in the Atlantic Coast Conference entering the 2025 campaign in numerous categories (FBS stats only):
 - Career Games Played: Tied Fourth (47)
 - Career Starts: Second (35)
 - Career Passing Attempts: Third (1,176)
 - Career Passing Yards: Second (8,957)
- Carolina's quarterback depth chart also includes:
 - Bryce Baker (No. 2): True Freshman
 - Au'Tori Newkirk (No. 10): True Freshman
 - DJ Mazzone (No. 15): Sophomore
 - Andres Miyares Jr. (No. 18): Redshirt-Freshman

Hardy's Football Lineage

- Defensive back Will Hardy's family history in college football dates back generations, as the Lawrenceville, Ga. native is a fifth-generation college football player:
 - Great-great Grandfather, Reid: Mercer
 - Great Grandfather, Tom: Georgia (All-America at UGA, NFL All-Pro with Green Bay)
 - Grandfather, Tom: Georgia (All-America at UGA)
 - Father, Tim: Wheaton (All-America quarterback)
 - Brother, Jackson: Richmond
 - Will Hardy: North Carolina

TAR HEEL NOTES

On The Ground

- Since 2019, Carolina has the most 1,000-yard rushers in the country, with six:

1. North Carolina (6)

- Omarion Hampton (2024): 1,660 yards
- Omarion Hampton (2023): 1,504 yards
- Ty Chandler (2021): 1,092 yards
- Michael Carter (2020): 1,245 yards
- Javonte Williams (2020): 1,140 yards
- Michael Carter (2019): 1,003 yards

2. Oregon (5)

- A year ago, Hampton's 1,660 yards on the ground was third nationally, leading the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Replacing Omarion

- Carolina looks to replace running back Omarion Hampton, who scattered his name throughout the Tar Heel record book in three seasons.
- In his three-year career, Hampton rushed for 3,565 yards (fourth all-time) and 36 rushing touchdowns (third all-time).
- Last fall, Hampton posted 1,660 yards (second all-time) and 15 touchdowns, becoming the ninth Tar Heel with multiple seasons of 1,000-or-more yards.
- A two-time All-ACC selection and two-time Doak Walker Award Finalist, Hampton collected All-America honors 10 times during his final two years as a Tar Heel.
- Hampton was selected 22nd overall in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft in April, by the Los Angeles Chargers. Omarion became the third Carolina running back selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, the first since 1971:
 - 2025: Omarion Hampton (22nd overall to the LA Chargers)
 - 1971: Don McCauley (22nd overall to the Baltimore Colts)
 - 1965: Ken Willard (2nd overall to the San Francisco 49ers)

Lombardi's 2024 At Oregon

- Quarterback coach Matt Lombardi arrived in Chapel Hill after spending last season on staff at Oregon, as an offensive analyst working with the quarterbacks.
- Lombardi worked alongside former Ducks' signal caller Dillon Gabriel, who finished the season as a Heisman Finalist and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, throwing for a career-high 3,857 yards and 30 touchdowns.
- Last season with Lombardi on staff, Oregon secured the Big Ten Championship and the No. 1 seed in the College Football Playoff.
- Before his stop in Eugene, Lombardi worked with the Las Vegas Raiders (2023), Carolina Panthers (2020-22) and Miami Dolphins (2019) in the NFL, also working in the college ranks at Baylor (2017-18) and Louisville (2014-16).

Heading Abroad In '26

- Carolina will open the 2026 season against TCU in Dublin, Ireland, participating in the 2026 Aer Lingus College Football Classic at Aviva Stadium.
- The 2026 matchup against the Horned Frogs will be the fifth all-time meeting in the international series, as the Tar Heels will become the fourth ACC team to compete in the classic.
- Next year's opener will be the first international game in program history, and the second all-time game outside of the continental United States, joining the 1986 Aloha Bowl in Hawaii.

Weight Room Warriors

- Head coach Bill Belichick added former New England Patriots strength coach Moses Cabrera to staff as the program's Director of Sport Performance.
- Cabrera spent 13 seasons with the Patriots, as an assistant strength coach (2011-15) before being promoted to head strength coach (2016-23). Prior to this time in New England, Cabrera spent time in the college ranks at Fresno State (2004-09) and Colorado (2010).

ACC Preseason Poll

- Carolina was picked eighth in the 2025 ACC Preseason poll, voted on by media members in July:

1. Clemson: 3083 (167)
2. Miami: 2679 (7)
3. SMU: 2612 (2)
4. Georgia Tech: 2397 (2)
5. Louisville: 2370
6. Duke: 1973
7. Florida State: 1920 (4)

8. North Carolina: 1611

9. Pitt: 1571
10. NC State: 1505
11. Virginia Tech: 1412 (1)
12. Syracuse: 1381
13. Boston College: 953
14. Virginia: 871
15. California: 659
16. Wake Forest: 576
17. Stanford: 426

TAR HEEL NOTES

Multi-Sport Tar Heels

- Two members of the 2025 football roster are also affiliated with the Tar Heel men's lacrosse program, tight end Paul Barton and defensive back Jermaine Anderson.
- A member of the lacrosse program from 2022-25, Barton was a 2023 honorable mention All-America defenseman. Barton is the son of former Tar Heel offensive lineman Harris Barton, a 2021 College Football Hall of Fame member and two-time first team All-Pro for the San Francisco 49ers.
- Anderson, a freshman defensive back, begins his first season with the football and lacrosse programs at UNC, after graduating from Calvert Hall College High School in Maryland.

The 33rd Team

- Since his hiring, Coach Belichick has detailed his vision to make Carolina the "33rd NFL team", with everything in the program centered around a professional mindset.
- The Tar Heels' staff in the Kenan Football Center embodies the message, with more than 240 years of combined NFL experience.

Grass Is Back

- Kenan Stadium returned to its roots in 2025, as natural grass was reinstalled prior to the season.
- The footprint, which includes a synthetic turf perimeter, mirrors the look of Kenan Stadium's natural grass field from 2017-19.
- The project, funded by The Rams Club, included 67,000 square feet of sod, installed by Carolina Green.

Classroom Success

- In May, the NCAA announced its annual Academic Progress Rate, collecting a four-year rate of 996 (out of 1,000).
- The metric ranked first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and third nationally among football programs.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF TYLEE CRAFT

◆◆◆ 2001-2024 ◆◆◆

Tylee Craft, a graduate student from Sumter, S.C. and wide receiver on the Carolina football team, passed away on Oct. 12, 2024 after a two-year battle with cancer at the tender age of 23.

As a player, Craft appeared in 11 games over his first two seasons in 2020 and 2021. He was diagnosed with stage four large cell neuroendocrine carcinoma, a rare form of lung cancer, in March of 2022. Craft was subsequently named the 2022 Disney Spirit Award winner as the most inspirational figure in college football and was also a member of the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Team.

Craft fought courageously and was an inspiration to UNC's campus, his coaches and teammates, and everyone who knew him and drew strength from his determination and spirit.

In his honor, the UNC football nutrition office was re-named the Tylee Craft Nutrition Center.

Eight-time Super Bowl champion Bill Belichick, architect of one of the greatest sports dynasties of all time and renowned as one of the top leaders to ever coach the game, was named the University of North Carolina's new head football coach on December 11th, 2024.

Belichick, the second-winningest coach in NFL history, agreed to a five-year deal.

"This is an exciting day for Carolina football and our university," said Chancellor Lee H. Roberts. "Carolina is committed to excellence and to creating an opportunity to succeed in everything we do, from the classroom to the field of competition. I know after speaking with Coach Belichick that he shares that commitment. His legacy speaks for itself, and we look forward to working together on the next chapter of Carolina football."

Said Carolina Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham: "We know that college athletics is changing, and those changes require new and innovative thinking. Bill Belichick is a football legend, and hiring him to lead our program represents a new approach that will ensure Carolina football can evolve, compete and win -- today and in the future. At Carolina, we believe in providing championship opportunities and the best experience possible for our student-athletes, and Coach Belichick shares that commitment. We are excited to welcome him to Chapel Hill."

Belichick, who holds the NFL record for most Super Bowl wins (six with the New England Patriots as head coach and two more with the New York Giants as a coordinator), said: "I am excited for the opportunity at UNC. I grew up around college football with my Dad and treasured those times. I have always wanted to coach in college and now I look forward to building the football program in Chapel Hill."

A three-time AP NFL Coach of the Year (2003, 2007, 2010), Belichick has an all-time NFL head coaching record of 333-178 (.652) and is only 14 NFL wins away from the overall wins record. He is a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s and the 2010s, and he also was a member of the NFL's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team and holds the record for most NFL Playoff victories (31).

Belichick began his coaching career in 1975 as an assistant for the Baltimore Colts and became the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants in 1985, where he won two Super Bowls under Bill Parcells. He was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and was at the helm for five seasons. He also coached with the New England Patriots and New York Jets before becoming the head coach of the Patriots in 2000.

In 24 seasons, New England won 17 AFC East titles, made 13 AFC Championship appearances, and nine Super Bowl appearances.

Belichick also has ties to North Carolina.

Belichick's father, Steve, was an assistant football coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-55 before going on to become assistant football coach for more than three decades at the United States Naval Academy. There, Bill Belichick attended team meetings and film sessions with his father. He knew how to diagram complex plays before he became a teenager and credits his dad for teaching him the details of football at a young age.

He graduated in 1975 from Wesleyan University, where he played football and lacrosse. He has three children: Amanda, Stephen and Brian.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.—TCU overcame an early deficit and scored 41 consecutive points to beat North Carolina, 48-14, on Monday night in Kenan Stadium, spoiling the college debut of first-year Tar Heel head coach Bill Belichick in the process.

The game proceeded according to a Carolina script in the early going. The Kenan Stadium faithful roared after a dominant opening drive by the Tar Heels, who marched 83 yards in seven plays for a 7-0 lead just minutes into the season.

Very little went right for UNC (0-1) afterward, however, as the Horned Frogs (1-0) dominated the rest of the first half and led, 20-7, at the break. The Tar Heels managed just 20 offensive yards before halftime after their opening drive.

On the first play of the second half, Kevorian Barnes ran off-tackle to the right side for a 75-yard score to make it 27-7 TCU and suck the life out of the Carolina crowd.

“There was a great atmosphere here for the game tonight,” Belichick said. “The fans had tremendous energy, and I know we played competitively, but then [we] just couldn’t sustain it. So obviously, we have a lot of work to do. We need to do a better job all the way around—coaching, playing, all three phases of the game. And I know we’re a lot better than that, so we need to work on those things and show it on Saturday and turn it around. But give TCU credit, they came in and did a good job, and they were clear that their team tonight deserved to win, and they did it decisively.”

Horned Frog quarterback Josh Hoover completed 20 of 25 passes in the first half and finished 27 for 36 for 284 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Jordan Dwyer caught nine passes for 136 yards and a TD, and Barnes ran 11 times for 113 yards and a score as the Frogs averaged 7.4 yards per carry and piled up 258 yards on the ground.

TCU out-gained Carolina, 542-222 (including 258-50 on the ground), and won its fifth game in a row.

Gio Lopez started under center for Carolina and completed 4 of 10 passes for 70 yards and an interception in two-plus quarters of work. He went to the injury tent after a sack in the third quarter and did not return to the contest.

Max Johnson relieved Lopez and led the Tar Heels to a score in his inspirational first appearance since nearly losing his leg after an injury in the 2024 season opener at Minnesota. Johnson connected with his brother, Jake Johnson, for a two-yard score to cap an 80-yard drive.

Jordan Shipp caught four passes for 84 yards to lead the UNC receivers. Caleb Hood led Carolina on the ground with 10 carries for 31 yards.

DEFENSE DOMINATES, 20-3, FOR BELICHICK'S FIRST WIN

CHARLOTTE— North Carolina limited Charlotte to 21 yards rushing and beat the 49ers, 20-3, on Saturday night at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

The victory was Bill Belichick's first as a college head coach and improved Carolina to 1-1 this season. Charlotte fell to 0-2 before the largest home crowd in its history.

UNC allowed its fewest points since blanking Idaho in 2012 and didn't permit a touchdown for the first time since 2020.

Four different Tar Heel players ran five or more times in a balanced offensive attack that posted 148 yards on the ground. Meanwhile, UNC's defense held the 49ers to 21 yards on 29 rushing attempts (a paltry 0.7 yards per carry) after allowing 258 yards and 7.4 yards per carry in its loss to TCU.

Gio Lopez started again under center for Carolina despite leaving the TCU game with a second-half injury. On Saturday night, he began with a bang, connecting with Chris Culliver for a 51-yard touchdown in the opening minute. Lopez posted an efficient, 17-for-25 passing game, throwing for 155 yards and a score while also rushing nine times for 44 yards.

Nine different Tar Heels caught passes from Lopez, including three each by Culliver, Caleb Hood and Javarius Green.

Former Tar Heel Conner Harrell, who transferred to Charlotte after the 2024 season, started at quarterback for the 49ers and completed 17 of 29 for 140 yards. Grayson Loftis relieved Harrell and connected on 8 of 12 for 110 yards with two interceptions.

Carolina took a quick, 7-0 lead in the first minute on a 51-yard touchdown catch by Culliver and led the entire game. The Tar Heel defense held the 49ers under 25 yards rushing in the opening two quarters but allowed Charlotte to mount long drives while controlling the clock late in the half.

The Tar Heels seized momentum when Charlotte missed a field goal after a six-minute drive late in the second quarter. Carolina took over with 2:51 to go and punched the ball downfield for the biggest score of the game. Davion Gause's 12-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds remaining in the second gave the Tar Heels a 17-3 lead at the break.

The UNC defense excelled in the final 30 minutes. The 49ers moved 55 yards on 10 plays before punting on the first possession of the second half, but Carolina held Charlotte to three consecutive punts and back-to-back interceptions on five second-half possessions.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.— North Carolina dominated from the opening whistle and rolled past Richmond, 41-6, on Saturday afternoon at Kenan Stadium.

Carolina scored on its first four possessions and had out-gained Richmond by a margin of 169 to -2 by five minutes into the second quarter. The Spiders mounted a handful of offensive drives to make things more respectable the rest of the way, but the game's outcome was essentially decided before halftime.

The Tar Heels (2-1) won their second game in a row and gave first-year head coach Bill Belichick his first collegiate home victory. Richmond fell to 1-2.

In its last two games, the UNC defense has held back-to-back opponents to just three points each while allowing a combined 145 rushing yards on 77 attempts, an average of just 1.9 yards per carry.

The Tar Heels have held two consecutive opponents without a touchdown for the first time since 2012, and Carolina has won 26 consecutive games over FCS opponents since 2000.

UNC's defense controlled the action throughout on Saturday, overwhelming the Richmond offensive line for two early sacks and helping the Tar Heels out-gain the Spiders, 136-12, in the opening 15 minutes. Richmond eventually mounted some offense late in the first half, only to see Carolina lead, 20-3, at the break.

UNC scored three consecutive touchdowns to start the second half and had a goal line stand on defense to put the game away.

The Tar Heel offensive line played well and opened holes while wearing down the smaller Spiders on a warm afternoon in Chapel Hill. Richmond controlled time of possession by almost 16 minutes but averaged just 3.2 yards per play in a frustrating offensive day.

True freshman running back Demon June gutted the Richmond defense, running 14 times for 148 yards and a score, averaging 10.6 yards per carry to lead seven UNC rushers. June had 59 yards on his first two carries of the game and was equally dominant in the fourth quarter, when he dashed almost untouched for a 45-yard score.

Gio Lopez started at quarterback for the third game in a row for UNC, completing 10 of 18 passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns while also running 11 times for 40 yards and a TD.

Jordan Shipp caught four passes from Lopez for 52 yards and two scores. Five different Carolina receivers caught Lopez's 10 completions.

The UNC first-half defense gave Spider quarterback Kyle Wickersham fits until Ashton Snelsire replaced him midway through the second quarter. Wickersham eventually returned to the game before heading to the locker room at the end of the third quarter with an apparent injury. Richmond passers completed 9 of 15 attempts for 75 yards with an interception in the game.

UCF DOWNS TAR HEELS, 34-9

ORLANDO - UCF dominated throughout and defeated North Carolina, 34-9, on Saturday afternoon at the Acrisure Bounce House.

Knights quarterback Tayven Jackson compiled 289 yards of total offense for UCF. He completed 25 of 32 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown while also running 10 times for 66 yards and score.

The Knights built a 20-3 halftime lead and never allowed the Tar Heels to mount a significant offensive threat in the first meeting between the two schools.

UCF (3-0) snapped Carolina's (2-2) two-game winning streak and starts its season with three consecutive wins for the second year in a row.

"I really liked the intensity our defense came out with to start the game," said Knights head coach Scott Frost afterward. "You know, the good thing on that side of the ball is that we got a lot of guys that can make game-changing plays and impact the game."

Gio Lopez threw two first-half interceptions to create short fields for UCF, while Jackson completed 16 of 20 passes in the first half for 148 yards and a touchdown.

In the second half, the Knights outscored Carolina, 14-6.

Overall, Lopez completed 11 of 14 attempts for 87 yards with two interceptions. Max Johnson replaced an injured Lopez late in the third quarter and finished 11 for 19 for 67 yards and a touchdown in mop-up duty.

UNC ran the ball 25 times for 63 yards, an average of 2.5 yards per attempt.

CLEMSON DOWNS TAR HEELS, 38-10

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Clemson exploded for a 28-3, first quarter lead and cruised to a 38-10 win at North Carolina on Saturday afternoon at Kenan Stadium.

The Tigers snapped their two-game losing streak, improving to 2-3 overall and 1-2 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Tar Heels dropped their second game in a row and fell to 2-3, 0-1 in their conference opener.

Clemson started with a splash, taking a 7-0 lead just 11 seconds into the game on its first play from scrimmage, a 75-yard scoring toss from wide receiver Antonio Williams to T.J. Moore on a double pass that started with quarterback Cade Klubnik.

After the Tar Heels responded with a field goal, the Tigers moved quickly for another touchdown, this one on a 35-yard pass from Klubnik to Adam Randall to cap a three-play, 75-yard drive and make it 14-3 Tigers just over six minutes into the first quarter.

Clemson made it 21-3 on another splash play, this time a 45-yard toss from Klubnik to Christian Bentancur. Another score with just a second left in the first quarter made the score 28-3, and the Tigers led, 35-3, at halftime.

"Today was a disappointing outcome for us," UNC head coach Bill Belichick said. "I thought we had a good week. I think we were ready to go, but unfortunately, we gave up some big plays early in the game and that really tilted the game, and we're just not ready to be able to recover. The big plays in the passing game, I mean, we probably gave up 200 yards of passing on five plays."

Clemson posted 367 total yards in the first half to 78 for Carolina with advantages of 326 to 66 in passing yards and 14 to 5 in first downs.

Things didn't get much better for UNC in the second half. Neither team scored in the third quarter. Clemson took a 38-3 lead on a field goal with 13:20 left in the game, and Carolina scored its only touchdown on an 11-yard rush by Benjamin Hall with 10:25 remaining to cut the deficit to 38-10.

Klubnik shined for the Tigers, completing 22 of 24 passes for 254 yards and four touchdowns before leaving the game in the third quarter. Thirteen different Clemson players caught passes in a dominant day through the air, including eight with multiple receptions.

With quarterback Gio Lopez missing the game due to injury, Max Johnson made his first start of the season, his second start as a Tar Heel and his first since his devastating knee injury in the 2024 season opener at Minnesota. Johnson finished 26 for 42 through the air for 213 yards without a touchdown or interception.

Jordan Shipp led Carolina with five catches for 41 yards, while Shanard Clower added four catches and Demon June had four grabs along with five carries for 16 yards.

LATE RALLY COMES UP SHORT AT CAL, 21-18

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Cal recovered a North Carolina fumble in the final four minutes just as the Tar Heels were poised to take their first lead, preserving a 21-18 win over UNC on Friday night at California Memorial Stadium.

With Carolina controlling the momentum and seemingly poised to take the lead with 3:48 to play, the Golden Bears forced Nathan Leacock to fumble at the one-yard line, just as it appeared he was ready to give the Tar Heels a late lead. Cal recovered the ball in the end zone to preserve its 21-18 advantage.

UNC played one of its better games of the season overall and put forth its best effort of the Fall against a major college opponent but dropped its third consecutive game to fall to 2-4, 0-2 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Cal improved to 5-2, 2-1 ACC.

"Obviously, a real competitive game here," Tar Heel head coach Bill Belichick said in his postgame press conference. "A couple of big mistakes hurt us, but a lot of things we could have done better in all three phases. So just came up a little bit short today, here, couple of inches, I guess, on the touchdown, on the fumble. But just keep working on things that obviously we need to do a better job of. Third-and-long on defense, third-down conversions on offense, ball security, things like that."

Carolina's second-half rushing attack gave it the advantage in time of possession by the late stages of the game despite Cal's early-game offensive success.

The Tar Heels mounted their second consecutive 11-play drive midway through the fourth quarter and were within a yard of taking the lead before Leacock's red zone fumble.

UNC ran for 120 yards, averaging 4.1 yards per carry, while limiting the Golden Bears to 2.6 yards per attempt.

Gio Lopez returned to the lineup at quarterback for Carolina, starting the game and going the distance after missing the Clemson game due to injury. Lopez completed 19 of 35 passing attempts for 167 yards. Benjamin Hall ran 14 times for 68 to lead UNC on the ground.

Jaron-Keawe Sagapolutele connected on 21 of 39 attempts for 209 yards and a touchdown for Cal. Kendrick Raphael ran it 22 times for 81 yards and a score, and Jacob De Jesus caught 13 passes for 105 yards and a TD.

FOOTBALL FALLS TO NO. 16 VIRGINIA IN OVERTIME, 17-16

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -Football is often called a 'game of inches'. Unfortunately that became a reality for North Carolina Saturday, as the Tar Heels came within a few inches of earning a ranked win against No. 16 Virginia, but the Cavaliers held on for a 17-16 overtime victory at Kenan Stadium.

After a Davion Gause touchdown reception to the trim the Carolina deficit to 17-16, the Tar Heels (2-5, 0-3 ACC) elected to go for the two-point conversion, but the Virginia (7-1, 4-0) defense stopped running back Benjamin Hall just inches shy of the goal line to escape with the one-point win and remain unbeaten in Atlantic Coast Conference play.

"In the end, we just came up a little bit short today," said Tar Heel head coach Bill Belichick. "It was a good effort in a lot of areas, but in the end, just not quite enough."

In a defensive battle with Virginia held to its fewest points of the season, Carolina was a play or two away from snapping its losing streak and giving Belichick his first conference win.

The Tar Heels compiled 353 yards of total offense to 259 for Virginia and held a 32:33 to 24:27 advantage in the time of possession, but two red zone turnovers proved to be the difference in the game. UNC had five trips to the red zone, but only scored points on three, while Virginia was 2-for-2 on its trips to the red zone.

Carolina's defense tallied a season-high six sacks against an offensive unit that had given up just five sacks on the year entering Saturday's matchup. Melkart Abou Jaoude led the defensive effort with a career-high three sacks and four tackles in the contest. Isaiah Johnson recorded his first sack as a Tar Heel, while Tyler Thompson had a sack for the second consecutive game and CJ Mims also tallied a sack.

Linebacker Khmori House led the Tar Heels in tackles with seven and Mikai Gbayor added six.

Offensively, quarterback Gio Lopez threw for a season-high 208 yards on 23-of-36 passing with a touchdown and Hall rushed for 50 yards on 11 attempts. Making his collegiate debut, freshman Madrid Tucker paced the wide receivers with eight catches for 41 yards and Jordan Shipp pitched in with seven catches for 67 yards.

North Carolina will have a short week, as the Tar Heels return to action at Syracuse on Halloween Friday night. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. on ESPN from JMA Wireless Dome.

STRONG SECOND HALF LIFTS CAROLINA PAST SYRACUSE, 27-10

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - Demon June accounted for two touchdowns and nearly 200 yards on offense, Gio Lopez threw for two scores, and Bill Belichick won his first Atlantic Coast Conference game when North Carolina came from behind to defeat Syracuse 27-10 Friday night.

"Feels good. Feels great," Belichick said. "We had a couple of opportunities the last couple of weeks that we couldn't capitalize on. It was good to get this one. So we look forward to all the rest of the games in the ACC."

"Things didn't go great great at the beginning of the game but then they just kept on battling and we had a really good second half defensively," he added of a defense that shut out the Orange after intermission. "We all know in football it's not who you play it's when you play them. We were probably fortunate to get them (now) as opposed to the week they played Clemson."

The win snapped a four-game losing streak for the Tar Heels (3-5, 1/3 ACC), while the Orange (3-6, 1-5) lost for the fifth consecutive time. North Carolina lost its previous two games by a combined four points.

The Tar Heels had not scored more than 20 points against an FBS team and trailed 10-6 when Lopez hit June for a short gain of 9 yards on the team's first play of the second half. June then broke a tackle and scampered 63 yards down the right sideline for a 72-yard scoring play to give the Tar Heels a 13-10 lead they would never surrender. On the team's next series, June ran it in from 5 yards out for a 20-10 margin. A 21-yard scoring strike from Lopez to Jordan Shipp gave the Tar Heels a 17-point lead and 21 unanswered points.

Lopez was 15-of-19 passing for 216 yards and two touchdowns. June had 101 yards on the ground and 81 yards on two receptions. Shipp had six catches for 64 yards.

"He did a great job giving us a spark tonight," Lopez said of June. "He does a great job in every aspect. He's picking up blocks better. That screen got us out of the funk we were having."

CAROLINA TURNS AWAY STANFORD WITH 20-15 WIN ON HOMECOMING

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. Headlined by a season-high nine sacks and 206 yards in the second half, the North Carolina football team earned a 20-15 win against the Stanford Cardinal Saturday night at Kenan Stadium.

The Tar Heels' (4-5, 2-3 ACC) defense constantly made it difficult for Stanford (3-7, 2-5) quarterback Elijah Brown to operate, resulting in the most sacks by an ACC team this season (9) and tying for the most by any FBS team in a single game this season.

"It's always good to win at home," said Carolina head coach Bill Belichick. "I'm proud of our team. We had two interesting halves. Had a tough start offensively, and then got things going a little bit in the second half. We played well defensively for three quarters and then gave up a few too many, two-minute drives at the end. We hung on with an onside kick recovery and got a stop on defense."

Continuing its stout play on defense, Carolina has now recorded 19 sacks over the last three games with six against Virginia, four at Syracuse and nine against Stanford. Additionally, the Tar Heels held opponents without an offensive touchdown for 148 minutes before seeing that stretch end in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run from Cole Tabb. Prior to that score, UNC had not allowed an offensive touchdown in regulation since the 6:36 mark in the second quarter of the Virginia game.

After earning ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and taking over as the conference's individual leader in sacks, Melkart Abou Jaoude did not take any time to rest on his laurels and tallied three more sacks against the Cardinal to push his season total to 10. He finished the game with five tackles, including four solo stops and an assisted tackle.

The teams traded field goals in the first half and went into the intermission knotted at 3-3. Despite having just 47 yards offensively through the first 30 minutes, North Carolina's defense kept the squad in the game even though Stanford had the ball 20:27 and the Tar Heels only had it 9:33.

Carolina took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 75 yards down the field on 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Gio Lopez to running back Davion Gause to take a 10-3 lead. Lopez was 10-for-13 in the third quarter, as the Tar Heels had possession for 11:30 of the 15-minute period.

Rece Verhoff pushed the UNC lead to 13-3 with a 48-yard field at the start of the fourth quarter and after the defense forced a three-and-out, wide receiver Jordan Shipp found the end zone for his fourth receiving touchdown of the year to give Carolina a 20-3 lead.

Stanford looked to make a comeback with a pair of scores to trim the deficit to 20-15, but the Carolina defense kept the Cardinal out of the end zone on their final possession as time expired with UNC earning a five-point win for its first home ACC win of the season.

"Like a lot of these games, they close, they're tight, similar to the games Stanford has played," Belichick added. "Fortunately, we made enough plays to come out on top today. That's a good feeling and a lot of things we can still improve on and keep working on."

FOOTBALL FALLS AT WAKE FOREST, 28-12

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Despite three trips to the red zone, North Carolina was unable to find the end zone on a frustrating night as the Tar Heels fell to Wake Forest, 28-12, Saturday night at Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium.

Carolina (4-6, 2-4 ACC) was held to 257 yards offensively, while Wake Forest (7-3, 3-3) tallied 414 yards and scored a touchdown in each quarter to earn its seventh win of the season.

"Just not good enough in any area," said head coach Bill Belichick. "Offense, defense, special teams, coaching, playing — we just didn't have a good night. So, we'll go back to work this week and see if we get back on track. We're a better team than we were tonight, but we just weren't very good."

Both teams had four scoring drives, and UNC held the advantage in the time of possession (30:02 to 29:58), but Wake Forest ended its drives with touchdowns and the Tar Heels were forced to kick field goals.

Kicker Rece Verhoff set the program record with a 57-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. His boot was two yards longer than Dan Orner's 55-yarder against Syracuse in 2002, which stood as the previous best.

The Columbus Grove, Ohio, native tied the school record for field goal attempts in a game with six and matched his career best with four field goals made, connecting from 40, 57, 42 and 47 yards. Verhoff is now 16-for-20 on the year after having a pair of kicks blocked against the Deacs.

Wake Forest's defense, which ranks among the nation's best, limited Carolina's offense to 4.2 yards per play and only three explosive plays of 15+ yards. Quarterback Gio Lopez finished the night 21-for-36 with 201 yards and Demon June was the team's leader rusher with 32 yards on nine attempts.

Khmori House led the defense and tied for a game high with nine tackles, including his first career sack. He had five solo stops and also forced a fumble. D'Antre Robinson and Melkart Abou Jaoude each set career highs with seven tackles in the contest.

Wake Forest grabbed momentum early in the contest, scoring on a wild play in its first drive of the game. Tar Heel defensive back Gavin Gibson forced Demon Deacon quarterback Robby Ashford to fumble after a rush up the middle and a few UNC players were unable to secure it before Carlos Hernandez picked it up and raced 51 yards down the field for a touchdown to give the Deacs a 7-0 lead.

After punting on its first drive of the game, Carolina put together a 13-play, 58-yard drive consuming 7:37 but the Tar Heels were unable to find paydirt. Verhoff put UNC on the board with a 40-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3.

The Demon Deacons countered with a long drive of their own, as Demond Claiborne capped a 5:40 drive with a 12-yard touchdown run to put his team ahead by two scores (14-3). A nice drive by Lopez with four consecutive completions helped get Carolina over midfield and into position to kick the long field goal before halftime.

UNC was forced to punt on its first drive of the second half, but House came up big for the Tar Heels with a fourth down stop, sacking Wake Forest's quarterback to give his team the ball back. A few plays later, Verhoff hit his third field goal of the
