FIRST AND TEN

- Carolina is in its 135th season of football (138th year) in 2025.
- Entering the matchup with UCF, the Tar Heels hold an all-time record of 753-577-54.
- Saturday afternoon's game between the Tar Heels and Knights will be live on FOX, with Eric Collins (PxP) and Spencer Tillman (Analyst) on the call.
- On December 11, 2024, Carolina announced the hiring of eight-time Super Bowl champion Bill Belichick as the program's new football coach.
- Belichick became the 40th coach in program history, the 12th to lead the program since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1953.
- Belichick's ties to UNC date back to his father, Steve, who was an assistant coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-55.
- With the coaching transition, the 2025 Carolina Football coaching staff features more than 240 years of combined NFL experience.
- At the start of 2025, the Tar Heel roster features 38 returners and 70 newcomers, including 40 transfers and 30 true freshmen.
- Last Saturday versus Richmond, the Tar Heels earned their first home victory of the season, a 41-6 verdict.
- Against the Spiders, freshman Demon June paced Carolina with 148 yards rushing and a touch-down.

TAR HEEL NOTES

A Win Over UCF Would.....

- Be Carolina's 754th all-time victory in program history.
- Give Coach Belichick his third win at the college level and his second on the road.
- Be Carolina's first all-time victory over the Knights in the first meeting between the two programs.
- Give the Tar Heels their second road victory of the 2025 campaign.
- Be Carolina's fourth-straight regular season win in the Sunshine State.
- Give the Tar Heels their first win over a Big 12 program since Oct. 5, 2002, a 38-35 victory at Arizona State.

Series History: UCF

- Saturday is the first all-time meeting between the two programs.
- The Knights will become the 56th different current Power Four program the Tar Heels have faced in program history.

Current P4 Programs UNC Has Yet To Face:

- Big 12: BYU, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, UCF (Saturday)
- Big Ten: Iowa, Purdue (scheduled for 2027), UCLA, Washington
- SEC: Ole Miss

Recent History In Florida

- Entering the matchup versus the Knights, Carolina has won three-straight regular season contests on the road against Florida schools, dating back to 2020.

Carolina's last three regular season games in Florida:

- Nov. 4, 2024 at Florida State - Win, 35-11
 - Omarion Hampton: 269 total yards and five touchdowns
- Oct. 8, 2022 at Miami - Win, 27-24
 - UNC with two 95+ yard scoring drives in first half
- Dec. 12, 2020 at No. 9 Miami - Win, 62-26
 - Michael Carter: 308 yards and two touchdowns rushing
 - Javonte Williams: 236 yards and three touchdowns rushing
 - Duo became the seventh all-time each ran for 200+ yards in a game
 - Highest ranked win since defeating No. 4 Miami in 2004

TAR HEEL NOTES

UNC-UCF Connection

- ▶ Saturday's game eatures a connection between the program's head coaches, as North Carolina head coach Bill Belichick was the defensive coordinator of the New York Jets when the organization drafted now UCF head coach Scott Frost, with the 67th pick (Third Round) of the 1998 NFL Draft.
- ▶ That team finished first in the AFC East and ended the season with a 12-4 record, falling in the AFC Championship to the Denver Broncos. Current New York Jets head coach was a member of the secondary that season, along with Frost.
- ▶ Additionally, North Carolina linebacker Mikai Gbayer started his career at Nebraska, where he was recruited by Scott Frost, and played for him during the 2021 campaign.

Getting Defensive

- ▶ Entering the matchup with UCF, the Tar Heel defense has not allowed a touchdown in two-straight games, for the first time since 2012 (Sept. 22, 2012 vs. East Carolina, Sept. 29, 2012 vs. Idaho)
- ▶ Two weeks ago, the Tar Heel defense limited Charlotte to three points on the night, as the 49ers were held to 21 yards on the ground:
 - Fewest points allowed since Sept. 29, 2012 versus Idaho (66-0)

From The Notes: Richmond Recap

- ▶ Carolina is 13-2 all-time against Richmond, and 9-0 in Chapel Hill. Saturday was the first meeting between the two programs since 1978.
- ▶ The Tar Heels have won 25-straight games versus FCS opponents, a streak that dates back to the 2000 campaign.
- ▶ North Carolina scored on each of its first four possessions. It was the first time the Tar Heels have scored on each of their first four possessions since scoring on the opening seven possessions against Syracuse on Oct. 7, 2023.
- ▶ The Tar Heels have posted seven-straight regular season games with at least one takeaway.
- ▶ North Carolina has stopped opponents from scoring a touchdown in back-to-back weeks for the first time since 2012, holding ECU to two field goals on Sept. 22nd, 2012 and Idaho scoreless the following week on Sept. 29th.
- ▶ Carolina posted its first fumble return for a touchdown since Trey Morrison against Duke in 2021 on Mikai Gbayer's 62-yard defensive score.

June Bursts On The Scene

- ▶ Freshman Demon June led the Tar Heels in the win over Richmond, posting 148 yards and a touchdown.
- ▶ June logged the first 100-yard game for Carolina this fall, becoming the first Tar Heel freshman to lead Carolina in rushing in back-to-back games since Michael Carter in 2017.
- ▶ The Jacksonville, N.C. native's 148 yards were the most for a freshman running back since Carter's 157 yards against Virginia in 2017.
- ▶ June's 50-yard rush on the opening drive was the longest by a Carolina freshman since Omarion Hampton's 58-yarder against Georgia State in 2022.
- ▶ As of Sept. 15, June ranks second nationally in freshman rushing yards this season:
 1. Bo Jackson (Ohio State): 217 yards
 2. Demon June (North Carolina): 200 yards

New Era In Chapel Hill

- On December 11, 2024, Bill Belichick was named head coach of the University of North Carolina football program.
- Belichick became the 12th head coach to lead the program since Carolina began play in the Atlantic Coast Conference (1953).
- An eight-time Super Bowl champion, Belichick won two titles as a defensive coordinator with the New York Giants, and six as the head coach of the New England Patriots.
- Belichick's father, Steve, was an assistant coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-1955, before going on to become an assistant coach for more than three decades at the United States Naval Academy.
- Belichick is the second Super Bowl winning head coach to become a college head coach after winning the Super Bowl, joining Bill Walsh.

New Faces, New Places

- The 2025 roster features 38 returners and 70 newcomers.
- Of the newcomers, 40 arrived in Chapel Hill via the transfer portal and the 2025 Tar Heel roster includes 30 true freshmen.
- The 40-player transfer class arrives at Carolina with 662 career games played at the Division I level (FBS or FCS) entering the 2025 campaign.

Southpaw Slingers

- Carolina enters the 2025 season with six quarterbacks on the roster, four who throw left handed:
 - Gio Lopez: No. 7
 - Au'Tori Newkirk: No. 10
 - Max Johnson: No. 14
 - Andres Miyares Jr.: No. 18
- The last Tar Heel left-handed quarterback who was the primary starter was Nathan Elliott (2018).

Belichick With Washington Last Season

- New Carolina defensive coordinator Steve Belichick spent the 2024 campaign in the same role at the University of Washington, leading the defense in head coach Jedd Fisch's first season with the Huskies.
- With the transition from Washington to Carolina, Belichick brought along Armond Hawkins as the Carolina cornerbacks coach, along with defensive transfers Thaddeus Dixon (No. 1), Khmori House (No. 7) and Peyton Waters (No. 17).
- A season ago, Dixon earned honorable mention All-Big Ten as a cornerback for the Huskies, and House collected College Football Network All-America recognition at linebacker.
- Washington's pass defense numbers nationally during the 2024 season:
 - Passing Yards Allowed: Fifth (166.8/game)
 - Opponent Yards Per Pass Attempt: Third (5.68/attempt)
 - Total Passing Yards Allowed: Fourth (2,001)
 - Total Completions Allowed: 14th (194)

Under Center

- The Tar Heels enter 2025 with two quarterbacks holding considerable experience under their belts, Max Johnson and Gio Lopez.
- Johnson, in his second year with the program, started for the Tar Heels in the season opening win at Minnesota a year ago, before suffering a season-ending lower-body injury.
- Johnson arrived in Chapel Hill after spending four years as the primary starter at LSU and Texas A&M.
- The son of Super Bowl champion Brad Johnson, Max's brother, Jake, is a tight end for the Tar Heels.
- Lopez begins his first season in the Carolina Blue, joining the program after the spring transfer portal window.
- In 2024 at South Alabama, Lopez started 11 of 13 games for the Jaguars, earning All-Sun Belt honorable mention honors.
- The quarterback tandem helps Carolina rank in the top-five as a team in the Atlantic Coast Conference entering the 2025 campaign in numerous categories (FBS stats only):
 - Career Games Played: Tied Fourth (47)
 - Career Starts: Second (35)
 - Career Passing Attempts: Third (1,176)
 - Career Passing Yards: Second (8,957)
- Carolina's quarterback depth chart also includes:
 - Bryce Baker (No. 2): True Freshman
 - Au'Tori Newkirk (No. 10): True Freshman
 - DJ Mazzone (No. 15): Sophomore
 - Andres Miyares Jr. (No. 18): Redshirt-Freshman

Protectors Up Front

- Carolina welcomed 11 new faces (eight transfers, three true freshmen) to the offensive line room entering the new year:
 - Daniel King (No. 52): Troy
 - Christo Kelly (No. 53): Holy Cross
 - Miles McVay (No. 54): Alabama
 - Jakai Moore (No. 55): South Carolina
 - Jordan Hall (No. 66): UAB
 - Chad Lindberg (No. 69): Rice
 - William Boone (No. 71): Prairie View A&M
 - Will O'Steen (No. 73): Jacksonville State
 - Byron Nelson (No. 70): Freshman
 - Eidan Buchanan (No. 72): Freshman
 - Trey Blue (No. 77): Freshman
- The Tar Heels return Jani Norwood (No. 56), Bo Burkes (No. 57), Austin Blaske (No. 58), Aidan Banfield (No. 68) and Trevyon Green (No. 78) who appeared or started in a game a season ago.
- The Carolina offensive line's average listed weight is 318.7 lbs, compared to 2024's average of 304.8 lbs.

TAR HEEL NOTES

On The Ground

► Since 2019, Carolina has the most 1,000-yard rushers in the country, with six:

1. North Carolina (6)

- Omarion Hampton (2024): 1,660 yards
- Omarion Hampton (2023): 1,504 yards
- Ty Chandler (2021): 1,092 yards
- Michael Carter (2020): 1,245 yards
- Javonte Williams (2020): 1,140 yards
- Michael Carter (2019): 1,003 yards

2. Oregon (5)

► A year ago, Hampton's 1,660 yards on the ground was third nationally, leading the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Replacing Omarion

► Carolina looks to replace running back Omarion Hampton, who scattered his name throughout the Tar Heel record book in three seasons.

► In his three-year career, Hampton rushed for 3,565 yards (fourth all-time) and 36 rushing touchdowns (third all-time).

► Last fall, Hampton posted 1,660 yards (second all-time) and 15 touchdowns, becoming the ninth Tar Heel with multiple seasons of 1,000-or-more yards.

► A two-time All-ACC selection and two-time Doak Walker Award Finalist, Hampton collected All-America honors 10 times during his final two years as a Tar Heel.

► Hampton was selected 22nd overall in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft in April, by the Los Angeles Chargers. Omarion became the third Carolina running back selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, the first since 1971:

- 2025: Omarion Hampton (22nd overall to the LA Chargers)
- 1971: Don McCauley (22nd overall to the Baltimore Colts)
- 1965: Ken Willard (2nd overall to the San Francisco 49ers)

The 33rd Team

► Since his hiring, Coach Belichick has detailed his vision to make Carolina the "33rd NFL team", with everything in the program centered around a professional mindset.

► The Tar Heels' staff in the Kenan Football Center embodies the message, with more than 240 years of combined NFL experience.

► Kenan Stadium is returning to its roots in 2025, as natural grass was reinstalled prior to the season.

► The footprint, which includes a synthetic turf perimeter, mirrors the look of Kenan Stadium's natural grass field from 2017-19.

► The project, funded by The Ram's Club, included 67,000 square feet of sod, installed by Carolina Green.

TAR HEEL NOTES

Lombardi's 2024 At Oregon

- Quarterback coach Matt Lombardi arrived in Chapel Hill after spending last season on staff at Oregon, as an offensive analyst working with the quarterbacks.
- Lombardi worked alongside former Ducks' signal caller Dillon Gabriel, who finished the season as a Heisman Finalist and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, throwing for a career-high 3,857 yards and 30 touchdowns.
- Last season with Lombardi on staff, Oregon secured the Big Ten Championship and the No. 1 seed in the College Football Playoff.
- Before his stop in Eugene, Lombardi worked with the Las Vegas Raiders (2023), Carolina Panthers (2020-22) and Miami Dolphins (2019) in the NFL, also working in the college ranks at Baylor (2017-18) and Louisville (2014-16).

Heading Abroad In '26

- Carolina will open the 2026 season against TCU in Dublin, Ireland, participating in the 2026 Aer Lingus College Football Classic at Aviva Stadium.
- The 2026 matchup against the Horned Frogs will be the fifth all-time meeting in the international series, as the Tar Heels will become the fourth ACC team to compete in the classic.
- Next year's opener will be the first international game in program history, and the second all-time game outside of the continental United States, joining the 1986 Aloha Bowl in Hawaii.

ACC Preseason Poll

- Carolina was picked eighth in the 2025 ACC Preseason poll, voted on by media members in July:

1. Clemson: 3083 (167)
2. Miami: 2679 (7)
3. SMU: 2612 (2)
4. Georgia Tech: 2397 (2)
5. Louisville: 2370
6. Duke: 1973
7. Florida State: 1920 (4)
- 8. North Carolina: 1611
9. Pitt: 1571
10. NC State: 1505
11. Virginia Tech: 1412 (1)
12. Syracuse: 1381
13. Boston College: 953
14. Virginia: 871
15. California: 659
16. Wake Forest: 576
17. Stanford: 426

- In the 2025 season, Carolina will face Clemson (No. 1), Duke (No. 6), NC State (No. 10), Syracuse (No. 12), Virginia (No. 14), California (No. 15), Wake Forest (No. 16) and Stanford (No. 17).

Weight Room Warriors

- Head coach Bill Belichick added former New England Patriots strength coach Moses Cabrera to staff as the program's Director of Sport Performance.
- Cabrera spent 13 seasons with the Patriots, as an assistant strength coach (2011-15) before being promoted to head strength coach (2016-23). Prior to this time in New England, Cabrera spent time in the college ranks at Fresno State (2004-09) and Colorado (2010).

Classroom Success

- In May, the NCAA announced its annual Academic Progress Rate, collecting a four-year rate of 996 (out of 1,000).
- The metric ranked first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and third nationally among football programs.

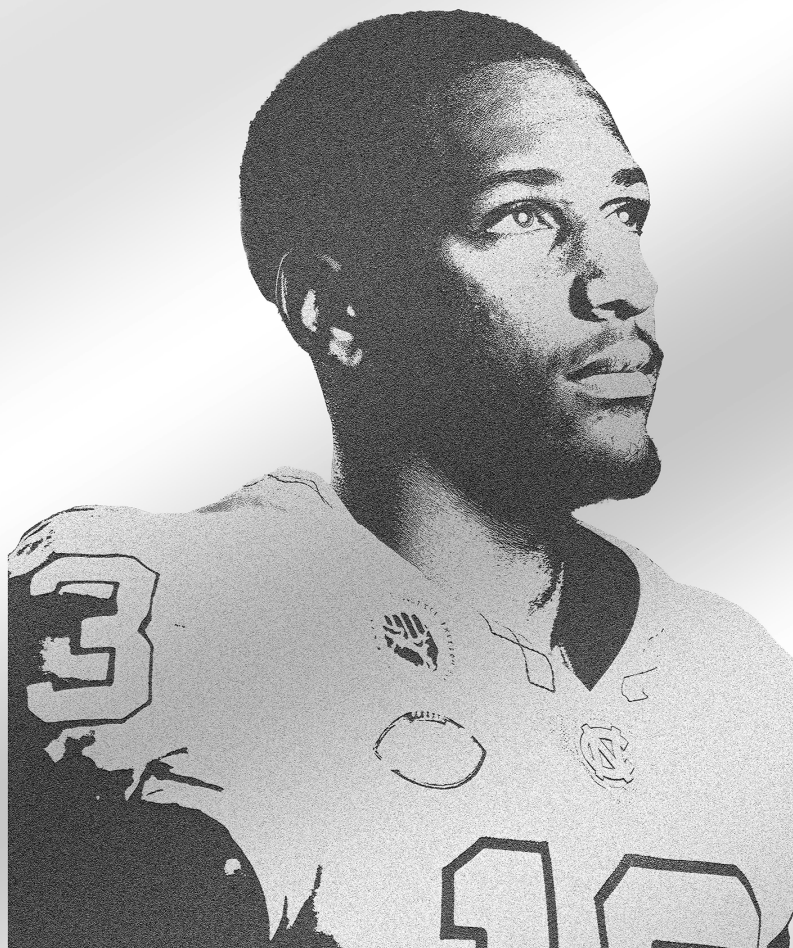

Multi-Sport Tar Heels

- Two members of the 2025 football roster are also affiliated with the Tar Heel men's lacrosse program, tight end Paul Barton and defensive back Jermaine Anderson.
- A member of the lacrosse program from 2022-25, Barton was a 2023 honorable mention All-America defenseman. Barton is the son of former Tar Heel offensive lineman Harris Barton, a 2021 College Football Hall of Fame member and two-time first team All-Pro for the San Francisco 49ers.
- Anderson, a freshman defensive back, begins his first season with the football and lacrosse programs at UNC, after graduating from Calvert Hall College High School in Maryland.

Pro Heels

- As of Aug. 27, the Tar Heels had 20 former players on active NFL rosters:

- British Brooks: Houston Texans
- Dyami Brown: Jacksonville Jaguars
- Ty Chandler: Minnesota Vikings
- Josh Downs: Indianapolis Colts
- Joshua Ezeudu: New York Giants

- Mitchell Trubisky: Buffalo Bills
- Devontez Walker: Baltimore Ravens
- Javonte Williams: Dallas Cowboys

IN LOVING MEMORY OF TYLEE CRAFT

◆◆◆ 2001-2024 ◆◆◆

Tylee Craft, a graduate student from Sumter, S.C. and wide receiver on the Carolina football team, passed away on Oct. 12, 2024 after a two-year battle with cancer at the tender age of 23.

As a player, Craft appeared in 11 games over his first two seasons in 2020 and 2021. He was diagnosed with stage four large cell neuroendocrine carcinoma, a rare form of lung cancer, in March of 2022. Craft was subsequently named the 2022 Disney Spirit Award winner as the most inspirational figure in college football and was also a member of the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Team.

Craft fought courageously and was an inspiration to UNC's campus, his coaches and teammates, and everyone who knew him and drew strength from his determination and spirit.

In his honor, the UNC football nutrition office was re-named the Tylee Craft Nutrition Center.

Eight-time Super Bowl champion Bill Belichick, architect of one of the greatest sports dynasties of all time and renowned as one of the top leaders to ever coach the game, was named the University of North Carolina's new head football coach on December 11th, 2024.

Belichick, the second-winningest coach in NFL history, agreed to a five-year deal.

"This is an exciting day for Carolina football and our university," said Chancellor Lee H. Roberts. "Carolina is committed to excellence and to creating an opportunity to succeed in everything we do, from the classroom to the field of competition. I know after speaking with Coach Belichick that he shares that commitment. His legacy speaks for itself, and we look forward to working together on the next chapter of Carolina football."

Said Carolina Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham: "We know that college athletics is changing, and those changes require new and innovative thinking. Bill Belichick is a football legend, and hiring him to lead our program represents a new approach that will ensure Carolina football can evolve, compete and win -- today and in the future. At Carolina, we believe in providing championship opportunities and the best experience possible for our student-athletes, and Coach Belichick shares that commitment. We are excited to welcome him to Chapel Hill."

Belichick, who holds the NFL record for most Super Bowl wins (six with the New England Patriots as head coach and two more with the New York Giants as a coordinator), said: "I am excited for the opportunity at UNC. I grew up around college football with my Dad and treasured those times. I have always wanted to coach in college and now I look forward to building the football program in Chapel Hill."

A three-time AP NFL Coach of the Year (2003, 2007, 2010), Belichick has an all-time NFL head coaching record of 333-178 (.652) and is only 14 NFL wins away from the overall wins record. He is a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s and the 2010s, and he also was a member of the NFL's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team and holds the record for most NFL Playoff victories (31).

Belichick began his coaching career in 1975 as an assistant for the Baltimore Colts and became the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants in 1985, where he won two Super Bowls under Bill Parcells. He was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and was at the helm for five seasons. He also coached with the New England Patriots and New York Jets before becoming the head coach of the Patriots in 2000.

In 24 seasons, New England won 17 AFC East titles, made 13 AFC Championship appearances, and nine Super Bowl appearances.

Belichick also has ties to North Carolina.

Belichick's father, Steve, was an assistant football coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-55 before going on to become assistant football coach for more than three decades at the United States Naval Academy. There, Bill Belichick attended team meetings and film sessions with his father. He knew how to diagram complex plays before he became a teenager and credits his dad for teaching him the details of football at a young age.

He graduated in 1975 from Wesleyan University, where he played football and lacrosse. He has three children: Amanda, Stephen and Brian. (Arkansas) High School.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.—TCU overcame an early deficit and scored 41 consecutive points to beat North Carolina, 48-14, on Monday night in Kenan Stadium, spoiling the college debut of first-year Tar Heel head coach Bill Belichick in the process.

The game proceeded according to a Carolina script in the early going. The Kenan Stadium faithful roared after a dominant opening drive by the Tar Heels, who marched 83 yards in seven plays for a 7-0 lead just minutes into the season.

Very little went right for UNC (0-1) afterward, however, as the Horned Frogs (1-0) dominated the rest of the first half and led, 20-7, at the break. The Tar Heels managed just 20 offensive yards before halftime after their opening drive.

On the first play of the second half, Kevorian Barnes ran off-tackle to the right side for a 75-yard score to make it 27-7 TCU and suck the life out of the Carolina crowd.

“There was a great atmosphere here for the game tonight,” Belichick said. “The fans had tremendous energy, and I know we played competitively, but then [we] just couldn’t sustain it. So obviously, we have a lot of work to do. We need to do a better job all the way around—coaching, playing, all three phases of the game. And I know we’re a lot better than that, so we need to work on those things and show it on Saturday and turn it around. But give TCU credit, they came in and did a good job, and they were clear that their team tonight deserved to win, and they did it decisively.”

Horned Frog quarterback Josh Hoover completed 20 of 25 passes in the first half and finished 27 for 36 for 284 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Jordan Dwyer caught nine passes for 136 yards and a TD, and Barnes ran 11 times for 113 yards and a score as the Frogs averaged 7.4 yards per carry and piled up 258 yards on the ground.

TCU out-gained Carolina, 542-222 (including 258-50 on the ground), and won its fifth game in a row.

Gio Lopez started under center for Carolina and completed 4 of 10 passes for 70 yards and an interception in two-plus quarters of work. He went to the injury tent after a sack in the third quarter and did not return to the contest.

Max Johnson relieved Lopez and led the Tar Heels to a score in his inspirational first appearance since nearly losing his leg after an injury in the 2024 season opener at Minnesota. Johnson connected with his brother, Jake Johnson, for a two-yard score to cap an 80-yard drive.

Jordan Shipp caught four passes for 84 yards to lead the UNC receivers. Caleb Hood led Carolina on the ground with 10 carries for 31 yards.

DEFENSE DOMINATES, 20-3, FOR BELICHICK’S FIRST WIN

CHARLOTTE— North Carolina limited Charlotte to 21 yards rushing and beat the 49ers, 20-3, on Saturday night at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

The victory was Bill Belichick’s first as a college head coach and improved Carolina to 1-1 this season. Charlotte fell to 0-2 before the largest home crowd in its history.

UNC allowed its fewest points since blanking Idaho in 2012 and didn’t permit a touchdown for the first time since 2020.

Four different Tar Heel players ran five or more times in a balanced offensive attack that posted 148 yards on the ground. Meanwhile, UNC’s defense held the 49ers to 21 yards on 29 rushing attempts (a paltry 0.7 yards per carry) after allowing 258 yards and 7.4 yards per carry in its loss to TCU.

Gio Lopez started again under center for Carolina despite leaving the TCU game with a second-half injury. On Saturday night, he began with a bang, connecting with Chris Culliver for a 51-yard touchdown in the opening minute. Lopez posted an efficient, 17-for-25 passing game, throwing for 155 yards and a score while also rushing nine times for 44 yards.

Nine different Tar Heels caught passes from Lopez, including three each by Culliver, Caleb Hood and Javarius Green.

Former Tar Heel Conner Harrell, who transferred to Charlotte after the 2024 season, started at quarterback for the 49ers and completed 17 of 29 for 140 yards. Grayson Loftis relieved Harrell and connected on 8 of 12 for 110 yards with two interceptions.

Carolina took a quick, 7-0 lead in the first minute on a 51-yard touchdown catch by Culliver and led the entire game. The Tar Heel defense held the 49ers under 25 yards rushing in the opening two quarters but allowed Charlotte to mount long drives while controlling the clock late in the half.

The Tar Heels seized momentum when Charlotte missed a field goal after a six-minute drive late in the second quarter. Carolina took over with 2:51 to go and punched the ball downfield for the biggest score of the game. Davion Gause’s 12-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds remaining in the second gave the Tar Heels a 17-3 lead at the break.

The UNC defense excelled in the final 30 minutes. The 49ers moved 55 yards on 10 plays before punting on the first possession of the second half, but Carolina held Charlotte to three consecutive punts and back-to-back interceptions on five second-half possessions.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — North Carolina dominated from the opening whistle and rolled past Richmond, 41-6, on Saturday afternoon at Kenan Stadium.

Carolina scored on its first four possessions and had out-gained Richmond by a margin of 169 to -2 by five minutes into the second quarter. The Spiders mounted a handful of offensive drives to make things more respectable the rest of the way, but the game's outcome was essentially decided before halftime.

The Tar Heels (2-1) won their second game in a row and gave first-year head coach Bill Belichick his first collegiate home victory. Richmond fell to 1-2.

In its last two games, the UNC defense has held back-to-back opponents to just three points each while allowing a combined 145 rushing yards on 77 attempts, an average of just 1.9 yards per carry.

The Tar Heels have held two consecutive opponents without a touchdown for the first time since 2012, and Carolina has won 26 consecutive games over FCS opponents since 2000.

UNC's defense controlled the action throughout on Saturday, overwhelming the Richmond offensive line for two early sacks and helping the Tar Heels out-gain the Spiders, 136-12, in the opening 15 minutes. Richmond eventually mounted some offense late in the first half, only to see Carolina lead, 20-3, at the break.

UNC scored three consecutive touchdowns to start the second half and had a goal line stand on defense to put the game away.

The Tar Heel offensive line played well and opened holes while wearing down the smaller Spiders on a warm afternoon in Chapel Hill. Richmond controlled time of possession by almost 16 minutes but averaged just 3.2 yards per play in a frustrating offensive day.

True freshman running back Demon June gutted the Richmond defense, running 14 times for 148 yards and a score, averaging 10.6 yards per carry to lead seven UNC rushers. June had 59 yards on his first two carries of the game and was equally dominant in the fourth quarter, when he dashed almost untouched for a 45-yard score.

Gio Lopez started at quarterback for the third game in a row for UNC, completing 10 of 18 passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns while also running 11 times for 40 yards and a TD.

Jordan Shipp caught four passes from Lopez for 52 yards and two scores. Five different Carolina receivers caught Lopez's 10 completions.

The UNC first-half defense gave Spider quarterback Kyle Wickersham fits until Ashton Snelsire replaced him midway through the second quarter. Wickersham eventually returned to the game before heading to the locker room at the end of the third quarter with an apparent injury. Richmond passers completed 9 of 15 attempts for 75 yards with an interception in the game.
