FIRST PITCH

GONE TO THE GOLDEN COAST

- > The Diamond Heels head west where they will take on Cal in their first true road trip of the season.
- > It will be Carolina's first chance to take on the Golden Bears since the former PAC-12 participants jumped to the ACC. It will also be the program's first trip to Berkeley with all other previous meetings taking place in Chapel Hill or at a neutral site. UNC leads 5-3 in the all-time ledger.
- > The Heels don't often travel this far from home. It will be the team's first time west of the Rockies since winning an opening weekend series at UCLA in 2016.
- > Carolina is 21-10 all-time in the state of California.

BATTLED THE BISON

- > The Tar Heels took on Bucknell in the midweek, looking for a tune up before heading out on the road.
- > UNC came away with a 13-3 win in seven-innings, putting up an eight run bottom of the seventh to secure the team's eight run-rule victory this season. That is already the most they've ever had in a single campaign.
- > The offensive highlight came from the bat of Macon Winslow. The Carolina catcher launched the team's longest home run of the season 427 feet over the scoreboard in left to put them up 2-0 in the first.
- > Up two entering the seventh, the Heels put up eight runs to "walk-off" the game thanks to five walks, three hits, and two HBPs. All eight runs were scored with two outs with Colin Hynek's single producing the final blow.
- > Sophomore reliever Walker McDuffie finished the game and earned the win, throwing 3.0 shutout frames with four strikeouts with just one hit.

AROUND THE HORN

NEW FACES SAME STANDARD

- ▶ The Carolina offense heavily features new faces, as the team looks to replace 76.3% of its scoring from 2025. Gavin Gallaher (more on him later) is the only returner to have started more than half the games.
- ▶ So far, 20.3% of the 158 runs produced by the Heels have come from newcomers.
- ▶ The first to make his name was Jake Schaffner, the new starting shortstop in from North Dakota State, who's bat has popped early in the leadoff spot. He leads the team in batting average, slugging, extra base hits, and stolen bases.
- ▶ He also currently stands alone as the nation's leader in triples with four. The UNC record is eight from Brian Goodwin in 2010. Kane Kepley came one shy of that mark last season.
- ▶ Big Erik Paulsen, new from Stony Brook, brings both elite bat and glove to first base. He leads the team in home runs with five, already almost halfway to his career total of 13.
- ▶ Paulsen and Schaffner both won Defensive Player of the Year awards from their respective conferences in 2025.
- ▶ Duke transfer Macon Winslow has also quickly gotten comfortable in the better blue, responsible for an 11th inning homer in the finale against Indiana that gave UNC its first opening-weekend walk-off win since 2020.
- ▶ His catching partner Colin Hynek has also started every game, switching with Winslow between DH and behind the dish.
- ▶ Hynek knocked what he described as "the first triple I've had in my life" against Indiana before adding another on Friday night against Le Moyne. He also leads the team in doubles.

GAVIN GALLAHIM

- ▶ The junior star Gavin Gallaher is the biggest returning piece on the offensive end for the Tar Heels. The now captain has earned a reputation for coming through in big moments throughout his career.
- ▶ He is the reigning back-to-back Chapel Hill Regional Most Outstanding Player thanks to a pair of unbelievable performances in those vital weekends.
- ▶ His 2024 regional was punctuated by the moment of the season in a year that was full of magic for the Heels, blasting a walk-off grand slam against LIU in the team's opening round win.
- ▶ 2025's regional saw him go absolutely nuclear, averaging .722 at the plate with 13 hits, seven runs, three doubles, his first career triple, three home runs, and 10 RBIs.
- ▶ The hits and RBIs were the most by a Heel in a regional this century and the three homers were the most since 2006. He failed to reach safely just four times all weekend.
- ▶ He finished the season with team highs in hits (77) and RBIs (68) while being second in home runs (17). Those totals were enough to see him into third in the ACC in RBIs and eighth in home runs.

FULL CIRCLE FOR GALLAHER AND WINSLOW

- ▶ The history behind Carolina's starting catcher and second baseman spans much further back than Winslow's arrival in Chapel Hill this summer.
- ▶ Winslow spent the final two seasons of his high school career at Pro5 Academy under coach Sean Gallaher (Gavin's dad) while living with Gav during that time.
- ▶ Their relationship played a part in Winslow's willingness to cross rivalry lines and join the Heels.

THAT DUDE DECARO

- ▶ Carolina's superstar junior has carried the weight of high expectations since the then 17 year old made his first start in the first midweek of 2024 before moving into the weekend rotation by week three. Eventually elevating himself to be the Friday guy.
- ▶ Named a Freshman All-American with a 3.81 ERA and a 6-1 record as he helped the team to Omaha. He got the start for UNC's College World Series opener against Virginia, striking out six and giving up just one run as the Heels took a 3-2 victory.
- ▶ He was just as dominant in 2025, earning second team All-ACC honors for the second straight year as a staple in the weekend rotation once again.
- ▶ The North Port, N.Y. really turned it on down the stretch. He was sensational, going 6.0 IP with just one run allowed, in an 11-1 run-rule at No. 2 Florida State. Then, two weeks later, he would out duel eventual top-10 pick Kyson Witherspoon to lead Carolina to a pivotal 11-5 win in the regional.
- ▶ He's been electric thus far in 2026, becoming just the sixth Tar Heel to start back-to-back Opening Day games since 1999.
- ▶ In week two against ECU, he tossed a complete game eight-inning shutout with seven strikeouts while only allowing five hits and one walk. Only two ECU runners even managed to reach third.
- ▶ It was the team's first eight inning complete game since Kent Emmanuel against Miami in May 2013 and only the second time over the last 12 seasons a Carolina pitcher has thrown eight or more shutout innings on the road (Austin Bergner, May 2019).

FINISHED STRONG AGAINST VIRGINIA

- ▶ The Tar Heels opened ACC play over the weekend at home against Virginia, dropping the first two games before battling back for a 12th inning marathon win in the series finale.
- ▶ Friday's contest was all Hoo's, winning 13-3 in seven innings to hand Carolina its first ever home run-rule.
- ▶ The opener of the doubleheader on Saturday was more of a fight, but ultimately ended with Virginia pulling away for a 9-2 win. Gavin Gallaher and Owen Hull got some late momentum back for the Heels with solo home runs to get a spark going before the series finale. It was Hull's first long ball of the season.
- ▶ The weekend's final game was entertainment enough for the whole series. The 12 inning marathon had five lead changes with Carolina needing game tying runs in both the 9th and 12th just to keep the game alive.
- ▶ True freshmen were the heroes of the day. Righty Caden Glauber logged career highs in innings pitched (5.1) and strikeouts (8) to quiet the rolling Virginia offense long enough for UNC to tie the game back up. Then it was Tyler Howe who hit a solo shot to tie the game in the 9th before smoking a grounder past a five-man infield in the bottom of the 12th to walk off the game.

AROUND THE HORN

YOUNG BUCKS BRING THE HEAT

► Carolina called upon three true freshman arms to deliver in big spots last season, each becoming vital members of an elite 2025 arm barn.
► First to appear was the Lee County legend Walker McDuffie, who eventually earned himself the team's closer role on his way to Freshman All-American honors.
► His first save was the first by a Carolina true freshman since Shawn Rapp's against Elon on Feb. 18, 2020.
► McDuffie finished 2025 leading the team in saves with seven. The last true freshman Heel to record more than one in a season was Trent Thornton, who had eight in 2013.
► Flamethrower Ryan Lynch led the regular relievers in ERA with 2.93 and was one behind McDuffie for the most appearances. He had two saves and a 5-1 record on 73 strikeouts.
► It was the first time UNC had multiple freshmen with more than one save in a season since at least 1997.
► Lynch's seven strikeouts in his collegiate debut were the most by a Carolina pitcher since Max Carlson racked up eight on Feb. 20, 2021.
► In the ACC tournament final against Clemson, Lynch got his first collegiate start and delivered in a big way. His final line had him at 4.0 IP of shutout work with seven strikeouts and just two hits.
► The highest ranked recruit of the group was Ellerbe, N.C. native Camron Seagraves, the first of the trio to get a start.
► Punching out two to finish off history, he is the first freshman on record to be involved in a UNC no-hitter.
► The trio, alongside the young Jason Decaro, owned 18 of the Tar Heels' 44 wins. Lynch is the oldest of the group while Decaro, the sophomore, was the youngest player on the 2025 team.

GAINES & HICKS EARN PROMOTIONS

► Over the offseason, Forbes announced the promotions of Bryant Gaines to associate head coach and Carter Hicks to general manager.
► Gaines, who will enter his 16th total season with the program in 2026, has solidified himself as one of the best coaches in college baseball. He led the Carolina pitching staff to the ACC's best ERA for the second straight year and the third best in the nation overall.
► Hicks, who has served as the team's director of player and program development since 2022, moved into the general manager role to take charge of revenue sharing, NIL, roster management and any other new challenges presented by the ever-changing landscape of college athletics.
► He is the first in program history to hold the general manager title and one of the first in college baseball history.

HEELS EARN PRESEASON HONORS

► A number of Tar Heels have been tabbed for big things this season, receiving a litany of preseason honors to reflect the high expectations.
► Four stars in Jason Decaro, Gavin Gallaher, Ryan Lynch, and Walker McDuffie were named preseason All-Americans by various outlets.
► Decaro and Gallaher made all three lists. McDuffie clocked in with the NCBWA and D1Baseball while Lynch was honored by Perfect Game.
► The duo of Decaro and Gallaher were also named to the Golden Spikes Preseason Watch List, recognizing the best players at any position heading into the season.
► Macon Winslow was one of just 10 in the nation to be named to the Buster Posey Catch of the Year preseason watch list.

NON-CON COMBAT

► The Heels have compiled a 114-35-1 (.763) record in games against non-ACC opponents under Forbes. This team is currently 13-1-1 out of conference.
► Last season, they were 25-4 against out of conference foes. The 2024 team was 24-6.
► Since 2020, UNC has won (or split) 13 of its 14 three-game non-conference weekend series with a 33-7-1 mark in that span.
► Forbes vs. out of conference foes:
- SEC: 7-8
- Big 12: 7-3
- Big 10: 5-2
- American: 14-8-1
- A10: 9-1
- ASUN: 2-0
- Big East: 5-2
- Big South: 12-0
- CAA: 28-2
- CUSA: 1-3
- Horizon: 0-1
- Ivy: 3-0
- NEC: 7-0
- Patriot: 1-0
- Pac 12: 1-1
- SoCon: 2-1
- Sun Belt: 8-4

NO PLACE LIKE THE BOSH

► The Tar Heels have won 77.3 percent of their home games under Scott Forbes, going 154-45-1.
► The 2025 squad racked up a 29-9 (.763) home record, winning five of seven series.
► The Tar Heels boasted a 37-3 record at Boshamer Stadium in 2024, winning a program record 92.5 percent of its games at home.
► It was the 13th time in program history the Tar Heels won 30 or more home games.
► Originally opened in 1972 before reopening in 2009 after a $26 million renovation, the Bosh has been the site for many magical memories. Since '09, the Heels have hosted 10 regionals and eight supers in their palace affectionately referred to as the "Augusta National of College Baseball."

POTENT (P)NOTABLES

► Carolina had four triples in their first two games of the season, it was the team's most in back-to-back contests since March of 2015 in a pair of games against Duke and the most triples they've had in a single series since Long Beach State in March 2017.
► Jake Schaffner had two of those triples, the first Heel to have a three-bagger in back-to-back games since Danny Serretti did it against Georgia Tech in April 2022.
► The series finale against ECU was the first tie for UNC since April 17, 2005 when a 10th inning game against Miami was called early due to a set curfew. Before that, the most recent draw was back in 1989.
► At one point between games three and four, Macon Winslow had three straight swings go home run, double, home run.

AROUND THE HORN

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET

- ▶ Never one to shy away from a challenge, Forbes and company have laid out yet another stacked schedule in front of them.
- ▶ 17 of the 28 opponents the team is set to face finished 2025 inside the top-100 of the RPI, 12 were inside the top-75.
- ▶ Seven of the teams made the NCAA postseason, three advanced to the Super Regionals, and two more (Louisville and Coastal Carolina) played in the College World Series.
- ▶ 22 of those 26 non-con matchups will be played in the friendly confines of Boshamer Stadium.
- ▶ It's a very favorable schedule for local Diamond Heels fans. 37 home contests with 48 of the team's 56 games being played within the Tar Heel state. And that number doesn't include the ACC tournament, which will once again be held in Charlotte at Truist Field.

STARTING STRONG

- ▶ UNC is 90-44-2 all-time on opening day and have won seven of the last eight openers.
- ▶ Especially strong at Boshamer Stadium, Carolina is 46-8 in home openers dating back to the park's opening in 1972.
- ▶ This is the eighth straight season the Heels have opened up at home, going 7-1 in those contests.
- ▶ It will be a second consecutive year facing a power four foe opening weekend, sweeping Texas Tech in 2025 by a combined score of 17-6.
- ▶ The Tar Heels have won their opening weekend series 12 years in a row, a stretch spanning back to 2015. They are 33-3 in such games.
- ▶ UNC has won all 17 of their opening series at the Bosh since its renovation in 2009.
- ▶ The last time Carolina lost its first home series of the year was in 2002 to Seton Hall.
- ▶ A hot start has been a staple of the Forbes era. The team has won its first five games five of the six seasons under Forbes.

2025 REWIND

UNC PUNCHES 37TH NCAA TOURNEY TICKET

- ▶ North Carolina qualified for the NCAA tournament for the 37th time in its history and for the eighth year in a row, the longest active streak in the ACC.
- ▶ The Heels were tabbed as the No. 5 national seed, the first they had ever been given that particular number and the second straight top-5 seeding. It was the 10th time in program history earning a top-10 seed.
- ▶ Carolina leads the nation in the number of times hosting regionals since 2006, sitting in a tie with Florida State at 13 in that span. It marked the 14th overall time hosting a regional and sixth in the last eight seasons.
- ▶ Forbes has lead the Tar Heels into the postseason each of his first five seasons, the only coach in program history to do so.
- ▶ UNC would go 3-1 in the Chapel Hill Regional to advance to the program's 12 all-time super regional. It was the ninth time Boshamer Stadium played host in the super regional round.
- ▶ The postseason run came up one win shy of Omaha, as the Heels couldn't quite get past Arizona in the three-game Chapel Hill Super Regional.

TAR HEEL'S CLAIM NINTH TOURNAMENT TITLE

- ▶ The Diamond Heels ran away with a 14-4 win over Clemson to earn the program's ninth ACC tournament championship, their first since 2022 and second under head coach Scott Forbes.
- ▶ UNC's offense exploded to amass the program's largest ever margin of victory in a title game. They now sit in a tie for the second most tournament titles in conference history.
- ▶ Sophomore standout Luke Stevenson earned ACC Tournament MVP honors after mashing two crucial home runs in the first two games of the weekend. Jake Knapp and Jackson Van De Brake joined him on the all-tournament team. Van De Brake's towering three-run shot highlighted an eight-run fifth that sealed the game.
- ▶ Cardiac Carolina was alive and well in Durham as the team battled back from deficits in both of their final two contests.
- ▶ The Heels rallied late on Friday night to take a 7-2 win over Boston College in the quarterfinals.
- ▶ UNC put up seven unanswered runs across the seventh and eighth innings to overcome a two-run Eagles advantage. The crushing blow came once again from Van De Brake, who delivered a two-strike, two-RBI double that tied the game in the seventh.
- ▶ The team then needed some ninth inning heroics on Saturday night, but came out on top of a back-and-forth affair with Florida State 7-5. Eventually Carolina got a two RBI single from Kane Kepley in the top of the final frame to take their third win over the Noles in the last 10 days.

KNAPP NAMED NATIONAL PITCHER OF THE YEAR

- ▶ Captain Knapp, back from a season-ending elbow injury the year prior, put together arguably the greatest single season on the mound in program history.
- ▶ He finished 2025 with a UNC record, perfect 14-0 record to go with a ACC best 2.02 ERA and 88 strikeouts with just 16 walks.
- ▶ His phenomenal year earned him the College Baseball Foundation's National Pitcher of the Year award as well as ACC Pitcher of the Year honors.
- ▶ He is the first Tar Heel to be named the nation's top arm since Andrew Miller in 2006 and the fifth to win the conference's honor, the first since J.B. Bukauskas in 2017.

FOUR EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS

- ▶ Knapp and Stevenson highlighted the postseason awards for Carolina, becoming the program's 67th and 68th All-America award winners.
- ▶ Knapp was a unanimous selection across all six national lists, earning four first-team nods. He and Vance Honeycutt are the only two six-team honorees in Forbes tenure at the helm.
- ▶ Freshman phenoms Ryan Lynch and Walker McDuffie were also recognized for their incredible debut seasons, giving Carolina two Freshman All-Americans in back-to-back season for the first time since 2007-08.

HISTORY ON THE HILL

- ▶ Against Gardner-Webb North Carolina baseball did what it had not done yet this century, throwing a no-hitter in its run-rule 11-1 win.
- ▶ It was the program's first combined no-no since Chris Elmore and Ryan Earey kept Towson off the board in March of 1999. It's just the program's third no-hitter of any kind since at least 1978.
- ▶ UNC is now one of just three schools to have thrown a no-hitter in both baseball and softball in 2025.
- ▶ Forbes was a volunteer assistant for UNC's last no-no in 1999. It was the first time being a part of one for pitching coach Bryant Gaines.
- ▶ Folger Boaz (3.0), Olin Johnson (3.0) and Camron Seagraves (1.0) were phenomenal, recording eight strikeouts and just one walk on the historic night.
- ▶ While the pitchers were busy shoving on the mound, the Carolina bats were carrying their weight to wrap this game up in seven on Tuesday night. 11 runs on 10 hits powered the Heels to their third run-rule win of the season.

THREE STRAIGHT 40 WIN SEASONS FOR FORBES

- ▶ Sixth year head coach Scott Forbes has his program in a great place, securing 40+ win seasons in three consecutive years for the first time in his tenure.
- ▶ UNC has won 40 or more games in seven of the last nine seasons and in 17 of Forbes' 25 years as a member of the Tar Heels' coaching staff.
- ▶ The program now has 27 40-win seasons in its history with its first 40-win season posted in 1983 (42-10).

FOUR HEELS TAKEN IN 2025 MLB DRAFT

- ▶ North Carolina had two players selected on day one and two more on the final day to give Forbes 21 draftees as head coach.
- ▶ Stevenson's first round selection highlighted the bunch. Taken 35th by the Seattle Mariners, his selection gave Carolina 26 first-round picks in program history, including 13 since 2006.
- ▶ He was also the first Carolina catcher to be taken in the first since College Baseball Hall of Famer B.J. Surhoff went 1.01 in 1985.
- ▶ Kepley followed close behind with an early second round selection by the Cubs. The pair are the first Heels to be selected in the first two rounds of the same draft since 2019.
- ▶ Aidan Haugh and Knapp followed in the 6th and 8th to the Rays and Cubs respectively. Their selections made it the most Tar Heels taken in the first eight rounds of a draft since 2015.
