FIRST PITCH

THIS IS WHEN THE FUN BEGINS

- The Diamond Heels begin their 38th NCAA Tournament with a Friday face off against a familiar foe in the visiting VCU Rams. The entire regional is chalk full of recent rivals that also include 2024 College World Series foe Tennessee and annual opponents East Carolina.
- Bryson Field at Boshamer Stadium will play host to an NCAA Regional for the 14th time since 2006, tied for the most in the nation in that span. UNC has advanced to 11 Supers in that time frame, all from home regionals.
- Carolina have now made nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances, the longest active streak in the ACC.

BATTLE OF THE RAMS

- UNC and VCU saw each other at the Bosh three months ago when the Heels came away with a 13-3 run-rule win. Erik Paulsen was the star that day, getting a hit in all four of his at bats including a pair of home runs.
- Carolina had 13 hits, seven for extra bases, while only striking out twice.
- These programs also recently faced in the NCAA Tournament as both were slotted into the 2022 Chapel Hill Regional. The Diamond Heels won that weekend, but had to fight the long way through the losers bracket after losing their second game to VCU 4-3.
- UNC won their next three, one against Georgia and two more against VCU to advance to supers.
- Those three were the only games against VCU in tournament play. The Rams are making their 15th all-time appearance in the NCAA Tournament and have an 18-29 overall record.
- The Heels will be throwing sophomore righty Ryan Lynch, making his 15th start of the season but the first as the leading arm of the weekend. The big flamethrower made his big breakout in the postseason last year, picking up his first three career starts in the ACC Championship Game and two elimination games in the regional and super regional.

AROUND THE HORN

HEELS ON HISTORIC PACE

- ▶ Carolina is officially off to one of its best starts in program history, through 57 games it is the fifth best position they've won for themselves.
- ▶ The Heels have reached the 40 win mark for the 27th time in program history. It is the third year in a row and the fourth total time under Forbes.
- ▶ They have also reached 20 ACC wins for the 10th time in program history. UNC is the only school in conference history to hit the double digit mark. Florida State sits second with eight in total.

Year	GM56 Record	ACC	NCAA Finish
2013	49-8	1st (Coastal)	CWS
1990	47-10	1st	Regional
2008	46-11	2nd (Coastal)	CWS
2017	46-11	1st (Coastal)	Regional
2026	45-11-1	2nd	TBD
2006	45-12	1st (Coastal)	CWS
2007	45-12	1st (Coastal)	CWS
1984	44-13	1st	Regional
2011	44-13	3rd (Coastal)	CWS
2025	44-13	2nd	Super
2024	44-13	1st (Coastal)	CWS

ROAD DAWGS GOT BITE

- ▶ The Diamond Heels finished the regular season with a 14-3 (.823) road record in 2026, officially making it one of the best years away from home in program history.
- ▶ They will not have enough opportunities to match the win total from the 2008 team that went 17-4, but the .823 is the best road win percentage since before World War II when UNC went 8-0 on the road in 1934.
- ▶ .813 in 2017 was the previous best. It was also the last time Carolina won all five ACC road series in the same year.
- ▶ They got to this point in large part thanks to sweeps in their first two ACC series on the road. It was only the second time the program had done that since the three-game series format was adopted in 1990.
- ▶ Previously, UNC had lost its first true road game of the year in each season from 2018-2024.
- ▶ The prior best under Forbes was a 12-6 mark in 2025.

ARM TALENT

- ▶ The strength of this team lies with the Carolina Arm Barn, who have solidified themselves as the best unit in the conference in recent years and 2026 has proved to be no different.
- ▶ The Heels have led the ACC in ERA each of the last two seasons and are looking to be the first to go three in a row since Louisville's five year stretch from 2015-19. It would be the first time in UNC's history they had the best ERA three years in a row.
- ▶ On an individual level, ACC and National Pitcher of the Year Jake Knapp led the conference in ERA in 2025. With two weekends left, Tar Heels currently occupy the No. 1, 2, and 4 spots as Glauber, DeCaro, and McDuffie battle at the top.
- ▶ It would be the first time UNC pitchers have gone back-to-back years atop the conference since Robert Woodard and Jonathan Hovis did it in '05/'06.
- ▶ The dynamic duo of Glauber and McDuffie are in the top-3 in a number of conference categories, including batting average against, hits allowed, and runs allowed.
- ▶ The Heels currently have four arms in the top-20 of ERA in the ACC, no other team has more than two.
- ▶ Glauber has the third best ERA mark in the country and is the only freshman in the top-20.
- ▶ Coming into the weekend only nine arms in the country were under 2.30 in ERA. Carolina is the only team with two among those seven.

MAMBO NO. 5

- ▶ Carolina was tabbed as the No. 5 national seed for the second straight tournament, the only two times in their history they've slotted into that particular number.
- ▶ It's the 10th time the Heels have earned a top eight seed, advancing to the CWS in seven of those years.
- ▶ UNC has made the NCAA postseason in nine straight seasons, the longest active streak in the ACC. Wake Forest sits behind with five in a row and NC State snuck in for four.
- ▶ The Diamond Heels lead the nation in number of times hosting regionals since 2006, sitting tied with Florida State at 14 total. In those 14 years hosting, they hold a 38-8 record in the regional round while advancing to supers 12 times.
- ▶ Carolina holds an 88-50 all-time record in the regional/district round.
- ▶ Head coach Scott Forbes has led his program to the NCAA postseason in each of his six seasons at the helm. No other coach in program history did so in even each of their first four years.

GLOBE LIFE

- ▶ True freshman Caden Glauber (nicknamed "Globe" by his teammates) quickly emerged as a go-to arm for Forbes and company this season.
- ▶ The barely 18 year old skipped his senior prom to come to Chapel Hill early and went from unknown to the ACC Freshman of the Year (more on that below) thanks to elite velocity and a propensity to get out of sticky situations.
- ▶ Forbes has described him as a "future Friday guy" and "basically a starter waiting in the pen whenever we need him," often compared him to Tar Heel legend and big leaguer Trent Thornton.
- ▶ His elite, consistent performance has cemented him as the best freshman arm in the country. He is the only rookie on the Dick Howser Trophy Semifinalists list and owns the best record and ERA of all freshmen.
- ▶ He currently owns a 9-0 record, the most wins without defeat by a Carolina freshman this century.
- ▶ The Heels are also 23-0 in his appearances.
- ▶ His ERA (1.93), strikeouts (80), and opposing batting average (.180) all lead the ACC first years.
- ▶ UNC has a reputation for trusting young arms. DeCaro also graduated high school early.

DOUBLE 'EM UP

- ▶ Carolina's defense has been one of its biggest strengths in the 2026 season, as the Heels hold the ACC's best fielding percentage (No. 9 NCAA).
- ▶ Currently at .982, it would be the best fielding percentage in program history if it were to stand.
- ▶ One of their biggest weapons this year has been the double play. UNC currently has the 9th most DPs in the NCAA with 52, second only to Pitt (54) in the conference ranks.
- ▶ On three different occasions this season the Heels have successfully turned two three times in one contest. They have converted multiple DPs in 15 games and had at least one in 36/57.
- ▶ A lot of credit for the defensive efficiency can be given to the men up the middle. Gallaher and Schaffner have been a part of 32 and 27 of the double plays respectively.
- ▶ Gallaher leads all second basemen in the nation in Defensive Runs Saved with a 16.38 rate and is sixth overall. He is 2nd among infielders.
- ▶ Carolina has also gotten seven DPs from their outfield, including a rare unassisted two-out play from Owen Hull on a line drive to center against Cal.

AROUND THE HORN

THAT DUDE DECARO

- ▶ Carolina's superstar junior has carried the weight of high expectations since the then 17 year old made his first start in the first midweek of 2024 before moving into the weekend rotation by week three. Eventually elevating himself to be the Friday guy.
- ▶ Named a Freshman All-American with a 3.81 ERA and a 6-1 record as he helped the team to Omaha. He got the start for UNC's College World Series opener against Virginia, striking out six and giving up just one run as the Heels took a 3-2 victory.
- ▶ He was just as dominant in 2025, earning second team All-ACC honors for the second straight year.
- ▶ The North Port, N.Y. really turned it on down the stretch. He was sensational, going 6.0 IP with just one run allowed, in an 11-1 run-rule at No. 2 Florida State. Then, two weeks later, he would out duel eventual top-10 pick Kyson Witherspoon to lead Carolina to a pivotal 11-5 win over Oklahoma in the regional.
- ▶ To start 2026 he became just the sixth Tar Heel to start back-to-back Opening Day games since 1999.
- ▶ In week two against ECU, he tossed a complete game, eight-inning shutout with seven strikeouts while only allowing five hits and one walk. Only two ECU runners even managed to reach third.
- ▶ It was the team's first eight inning complete game since Kent Emmanuel against Miami in May 2013 and only the second time over the last 12 seasons a Carolina pitcher has thrown eight or more shutout innings on the road (Austin Bergner, May 2019).
- ▶ DeCaro set a new career high in strikeouts when he took out nine on the road at No. 23 Notre Dame earlier this season.
- ▶ In the home game against Duke, he recorded his 200th career strikeout. He is the first Tar Heel to surpass that milestone since Austin Bergner in 2019.

YOUNG BUCKS BRING THE HEAT IN 2025

- ▶ Carolina called upon three true freshman arms to deliver in big spots last season, each becoming vital members of an elite 2025 arm barn.
- ▶ First to appear was the Lee County legend Walker McDuffie, who eventually earned himself the team's closer role on his way to Freshman All-America honors.
- ▶ His first save was the first by a UNC true freshman since Shawn Rapp's against Elon on Feb. 18, 2020.
- ▶ McDuffie finished 2025 leading the team in saves with seven. The last true freshman Heel to record more than one in a season was Trent Thornton, who had eight in 2013.
- ▶ Flamethrower Rwyann Lynch led the regular relievers in ERA with 2.93 and was one behind McDuffie for the most appearances. He had two saves and a 5-1 record on 73 strikeouts.
- ▶ It was the first time UNC had multiple freshmen with more than one save in a season since at least 1997.
- ▶ Lynch's seven strikeouts in his collegiate debut were the most by a Carolina pitcher since Max Carlson racked up eight on Feb. 20, 2021.
- ▶ In the ACC tournament final against Clemson, Lynch got his first collegiate start and delivered in a big way. His final line had him at 4.0 IP of shutout work with seven strikeouts and just two hits.
- ▶ The highest ranked recruit of the trio was Ellerbe, N.C. native Camron Seagraves, the first of the trio to get a start.
- ▶ Punching out two to finish off history, he is the first freshman on record to be involved in a UNC no-hitter.
- ▶ The trio, alongside the young Jason Decaro, owned 18 of the Tar Heels' 44 wins. Lynch is the oldest of the group while DeCaro, the sophomore, was the youngest player on the 2025 team.

GAVIN GALLAHIM

- ▶ The junior star Gavin Gallaher is the biggest returning piece on the offensive end for the Tar Heels. The now captain has earned a reputation for coming through in big moments throughout his career.
- ▶ He is the reigning back-to-back Chapel Hill Regional Most Outstanding Player thanks to a pair of unbelievable performances in those vital weekends.
- ▶ His 2024 regional was punctuated by the moment of the season in a year that was full of magic for the Heels, blasting a walk-off grand slam against LIU in the team's opening round win.
- ▶ 2025's regional saw him go nuclear, averaging .722 at the plate with 13 hits, seven runs, three doubles, his first career triple, three home runs, and 10 RBIs.
- ▶ The hits and RBIs were the most by a Heel in a regional this century and the three homers were the most since 2006. He failed to reach safely just four times all weekend.
- ▶ He holds a career .514 batting average in the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament with five home runs, five doubles, and 17 RBIs in eight games.
- ▶ May in general is when the junior has historically started heating up, hitting .339 in the month in his three seasons in Carolina Blue.
- ▶ He finished the 2025 season with team highs in hits (77) and RBIs (68) while being second in home runs (17). Those totals were enough to see him into third in the ACC in RBIs and eighth in home runs.

NEW FACES SAME STANDARD

- ▶ The Carolina offense heavily features new faces, as the team looks to replace 76.3% of its scoring from 2025. Gavin Gallaher (more on him later) is the only returner to have started more than half the games.
- ▶ So far, 77.0% of the 479 runs produced by the Heels have come from newcomers.
- ▶ The first to make his name was Jake Schaffner, the new starting shortstop in from North Dakota State, who's bat has popped in the leadoff spot. He leads the team in hits, total bases, and steals.
- ▶ He currently sits atop in the ACC in triples with seven. The UNC record is eight from Brian Goodwin in 2010 and Rip Ryan in 1949.
- ▶ Erik Paulsen, new from Stony Brook, brings both elite bat and glove to first base. He is more than halfway to his previous career home run total (13) with 10 this year alone.
- ▶ He and Schaffner both won Defensive Player of the Year awards from the CAA and Summit League respectively in 2025.
- ▶ George Mason transfer outfielder Owen Hull started slowly at the plate, but has come on strong to lead the team in batting average. Since his three hit outing against NC A&T (48 games ago), Hull is slashing .406/.500/.615 with 26 extra base hits, 46 runs, and 74 RBIs.
- ▶ The Heels plucked their starting third baseman Cooper Nicholson from Iowa Central Community College and the Midwesterner has found a home in Chapel Hill. He leads the team in home runs (15) and continues to improve by the week.
- ▶ Duke transfer Macon Winslow has quickly gotten comfortable in the better blue. He just passed 10 home runs on the year, setting a new career high.
- ▶ Winslow was also responsible for an 11th inning homer in the finale against Indiana that gave UNC its first opening-weekend walk-off win since 2020.
- ▶ His catching partner Colin Hynek has started almost every game, switching with Winslow between DH and C.
- ▶ Hynek is second on the team in extra base hits and knocked what he described as "the first triple I've had in my life" against Indiana before adding two more so far this year.

AROUND THE HORN

NON-CON COMBAT

► The Heels have compiled a 121-36-1 (.769) record in games against non-ACC opponents under Forbes. This team is currently 20-2-1 out of conference.

► Last season, they were 25-4 against out of conference foes. The 2024 team was 24-6.

► Since 2020, UNC has won (or split) 13 of its 14 three-game non-conference weekend series with a 33-7-1 mark in that span.

► Forbes vs. out of conference foes:

- Big South: 13-0
- CAA: 31-2
- Big 12: 7-3

NO PLACE LIKE THE BOSH

► The Tar Heels have won 77.4 percent of their home games under Scott Forbes, going 169-49-1.

► The 2025 squad racked up a 29-9 (.763) home record, winning five of seven series.

► The Tar Heels boasted a 37-3 record at Boshamer Stadium in 2024, winning a program record 92.5 percent of its games at home.

► It was the 13th time in program history the Tar Heels won 30 or more home games.

► Originally opened in 1972 before reopening in 2009 after a $26 million renovation, the Bosh has been the site for many magical memories. Since '09, the Heels have hosted 10 regionals and eight supers in their palace affectionately referred to as the "Augusta National of College Baseball."

EIGHT HEELS EARN ACC HONORS

► Carolina led the conference in All-ACC awards with eight Tar Heels earning end of year recognition.

► Caden Glauber was named the ACC Freshman of the Year, the eighth UNC player and second pitcher to earn the distinction since its inception in 1991. Aaron Sabato was the most recent winner as a DH in 2019 with future big leaguer Daniel Bard the most recent Carolina pitcher back in 2004.

► Joining him on the All-ACC First Team were Jason DeCaro, Owen Hull, and Jake Schaffner, giving the Heels 124 all-time first team selections.

► Bullpen ace Walker McDuffie made the second team with Gavin Gallaher, Ryan Lynch, and Macon Winslow included on the third team. Glauber also obviously headlined this year's All Freshman Team.

► The eight total honorees were the most of any program and the second most in a single season in Carolina's history. Only the 2024 team had more with 11. It is the most first team members since 2017.

GOLDEN GLOBE WINS ACC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

► The hero of Carolina's 14-inning marathon win against Clemson, true freshman reliever Caden Glauber earned the team with the conference's best ERA their first ACC Pitcher of the Week award of 2026.

► He entered a tie game on the road in the bottom of the ninth and pitched all the way through the final out of the 14th to help the Heels pick up a crucial victory to even the series.

► The Fort Mill, S.C., native, who should still be in his senior year of high school, threw a career-high 6.0 high-leverage, shutout innings with six strikeouts while allowing just five hits and three walks.

► He is the first true freshman to claim a weekly award for the program since Jason DeCaro did so in 2024. He is also the first underclassman to win one for any team this season.

DYNAMITE BEHIND THE DISH

► Carolina's dynamic duo at catcher have been elite offensively and defensively, living up to the billing Coach Forbes gave as one of the best one-two punches behind the plate since Cody Roberts and current undergraduate assistant Brandon Martorano in '17/'18.

► Through 57 games, Winslow and Hynek have allowed just 19 steals on 30 attempts. That is second only to 2016 for the fewest stolen bases surrendered in that amount of games by UNC this century.

► Their 30 attempts faced in that stretch is the least since 2012, a team that had seen 24 attempts at this point.

► And its not like they've faced teams that don't run. The Heels have seen the ACC's top-3 in stolen bases: Duke, Boston College, and Louisville.

► Those three teams, who have over 430 attempts between them, went a combined 3-8 against Carolina.

► It was BC's only blank weekend of 2026 and it was the fewest for Louisville since 2024. Both BC and Duke have set their program's single season records for steals this year.

► Carolina leads the ACC in SBA by a wide margin. Louisville has the second fewest allowed with 33.

APPOINTMENT TELEVISION

► The opener against Louisville was UNC's first game of the season to appear on linear TV. The team is currently scheduled for 13 cable network selections, 11 on ACC Network and two on ESPN2.

► With a wild card pick up for the Friday night game against NC State, Carolina now surpasses Clemson for the most selections in the conference.

► It was already the most TV slots in program history before you factor in potential postseason fixtures.

► Last season, the Heels held a 12-4 record in TV games and were 8-1 in the regular season in such contests.

► This year they are 10-3 in their network games.

FULL CIRCLE FOR WINSLOW

► He may be new to the Heels, but his connections to this team run deep.

► Winslow spent the final two seasons of his high school career at Pro5 Academy under coach Sean Gallaher (Gavin's dad) while living with the Gallaher's throughout that time. Gavin and Macon are living with each other once again in Chapel Hill.

► Going even further back, Macon's father Leary played for Heels' assistant coach Scott Jackson when they were both at Barton.

JUST A COUPLE OF WEST DES MOINES HOOPERS

► Suddenly a hot bed of high-level athletes, Dowling Catholic High School has produced our own Cooper Nicholson as well as only slightly more famous women's basketball superstar, Caitlin Clark.

► As a freshman, Nicholson was on the men's team at Dowling. Part of the routine would be for his freshmen squad to practice against the varsity women's team.

► In these scrimmages, it was often Nicholson's unfortunate assignment to have to guard the two-time Gatorade Player of the Year. Safe to say this didn't go particularly well for the young Nicholson.

► "She's basically what made me realize basketball wouldn't be my sport."

AROUND THE HORN

FORBES AGREES TO CONTRACT EXTENSION

- Carolina baseball head coach Scott Forbes, who has led his team to five NCAA Regionals, three Super Regionals and one College World Series during his five-year tenure, has agreed to terms on a new contract extension.
- He is in the midst of another successful campaign in his sixth year in charge of the Heels since taking the head coaching reigns from the Hall of Famer Mike Fox.
- Forbes has led Carolina to the NCAA postseason in all five seasons of his tenure, the first coach in program history to do so.
- Named the ACC Coach of the Year in 2024, Forbes has also had tremendous success in conference competition. He has led the Heels to a pair of ACC Tournament championships (2022, 2025) and an ACC Coastal Division championship (2024).
- An incredible developer of talent, Forbes and his staff have coached nine All-Americans, had 26 named to an All-ACC team, and seen 21 taken in the MLB Draft.
- In his 25 years as a member of the Tar Heels' coaching staff, Forbes has helped lead UNC to 19 NCAA Tournament appearances, eight trips to the College World Series, eight ACC division titles, and five ACC Tournament titles.

GAINES & HICKS EARN PROMOTIONS

- Over the offseason, Forbes announced the promotions of Bryant Gaines to associate head coach and Carter Hicks to general manager.
- Gaines, who will enter his 16th total season with the program in 2026, has solidified himself as one of the best coaches in college baseball. He led the Carolina pitching staff to the ACC's best ERA for the second straight year and the third best in the nation overall.
- Hicks, who has served as the team's director of player and program development since 2022, moved into the general manager role to take charge of revenue sharing, NIL, roster management and any other new challenges presented by the ever-changing landscape of college athletics.
- He is the first in program history to hold the general manager title and one of the first in college baseball history.

STARTING STRONG

- UNC is 90-44-2 all-time on opening day and have won seven of the last eight openers.
- Especially strong at Boshamer Stadium, Carolina is 46-8 in home openers dating back to the park's opening in 1972.
- This is the eighth straight season the Heels have opened up at home, going 7-1 in those contests.
- It will be a second consecutive year facing a power four foe opening weekend, sweeping Texas Tech in 2025 by a combined score of 17-6.
- The Tar Heels have won their opening weekend series 12 years in a row, a stretch spanning back to 2015. They are 33-3 in such games.
- UNC has won all 17 of their opening series at the Bosh since its renovation in 2009.
- The last time Carolina lost its first home series of the year was in 2002 to Seton Hall.
- A hot start has been a staple of the Forbes era. The team has won its first five games five of the six seasons under Forbes.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET

- Never one to shy away from a challenge, Forbes and company have laid out yet another stacked schedule in front of them.
- 17 of the 28 opponents the team is set to face finished 2025 inside the top-100 of the RPI, 12 were inside the top-75.
- Seven of the teams made the NCAA postseason, three advanced to the Super Regionals, and two more (Louisville and Coastal Carolina) played in the College World Series.
- 22 of those 26 non-con matchups will be played in the friendly confines of Boshamer Stadium.
- It's a favorable schedule for local Diamond Heels fans. 37 home contests with 48 of the team's 56 games being played within the Tar Heel state. That number doesn't include the ACC tournament, which will once again be held in Charlotte at Truist Field.

POTENT (P)NOTABLES

- Carolina had four triples in their first two games of the season, it was the team's most in back-to-back contests since March of 2015 in a pair of games against Duke and the most triples they've had in a single series since Long Beach State in March 2017.
- Jake Schaffner had two of those triples, the first Heel to have a three-bagger in back-to-back games since Danny Serretti did it against Georgia Tech in April 2022.
- At one point between games three and four, Macon Winslow had three straight swings go home run, double, home run.
- The series finale against ECU was the first tie for UNC since April 17, 2005 when a 10th inning game against Miami was called early due to a set curfew. Before that, the most recent draw was back in 1989.
- Jackson Rose picked off a baserunner in three straight games, the longest streak by a Tar Heel since Adam Warren had four in three games in 2009. It's the most pickoffs for a UNC freshman since Zac Gallen had three in 2014. (s/o Pat James, D1Baseball for the note).
- UNC came back to win their series against Boston College and at Clemson despite dropping the opener. It is the first time they'd done that in back-to-back weekends since March 2019.
- At the time it happened, 68 relievers had faced Georgia Tech's Drew Burress and Vahn Lackey in the same game. Cam Seagraves is the only one to K both. (s/o Pat James, again).
- Carolina scored 22 in the series finale against Duke to put up its most runs since a 25-1 win over Princeton in 2010. It was also the most runs they'd amassed in an ACC game since beating Maryland 23-8 in 2000. It was the 11th time this century scoring 22 or more.

2025 REWIND

UNC PUNCHES 37TH NCAA TOURNEY TICKET

- ▶ North Carolina qualified for the NCAA tournament for the 37th time in its history and for the eighth year in a row, the longest active streak in the ACC.
- ▶ The Heels were tabbed as the No. 5 national seed, the first they had ever been given that particular number and the second straight top-5 seeding. It was the 10th time in program history earning a top-10 seed.
- ▶ Carolina leads the nation in the number of times hosting regionals since 2006, sitting in a tie with Florida State at 13 in that span. It marked the 14th overall time hosting a regional and sixth in the last eight seasons.
- ▶ Forbes has led the Tar Heels into the postseason each of his first five seasons, the only coach in program history to do so.
- ▶ UNC would go 3-1 in the Chapel Hill Regional to advance to the program's 12 all-time super regional. It was the ninth time Boshamer Stadium played host in the super regional round.
- ▶ The postseason run came up one win shy of Omaha, as the Heels couldn't quite get past Arizona in the three-game Chapel Hill Super Regional.

TAR HEEL'S CLAIM NINTH TOURNAMENT TITLE

- ▶ The Diamond Heels ran away with a 14-4 win over Clemson to earn the program's ninth ACC tournament championship, their first since 2022 and second under head coach Scott Forbes.
- ▶ UNC's offense exploded to amass the program's largest ever margin of victory in a title game. They now sit in a tie for the second most tournament titles in conference history.
- ▶ Sophomore standout Luke Stevenson earned ACC Tournament MVP honors after mashing two crucial home runs in the first two games of the weekend. Jake Knapp and Jackson Van De Brake joined him on the all-tournament team. Van De Brake's towering three-run shot highlighted an eight-run fifth that sealed the game.
- ▶ Cardiac Carolina was alive and well in Durham as the team battled back from deficits in both of their final two contests.
- ▶ The Heels rallied late on Friday night to take a 7-2 win over Boston College in the quarterfinals.
- ▶ UNC put up seven unanswered runs across the seventh and eighth innings to overcome a two-run Eagles advantage. The crushing blow came once again from Van De Brake, who delivered a two-strike, two-RBI double that tied the game in the seventh.
- ▶ The team then needed some ninth inning heroics on Saturday night, but came out on top of a back-and-forth affair with Florida State 7-5. Eventually Carolina got a two RBI single from Kane Kepley in the top of the final frame to take their third win over the Noles in the last 10 days.

KNAPP NAMED NATIONAL PITCHER OF THE YEAR

- ▶ Captain Knapp, back from a season-ending elbow injury the year prior, put together arguably the greatest single season on the mound in program history.
- ▶ He finished 2025 with a UNC record, perfect 14-0 record to go with a ACC best 2.02 ERA and 88 strikeouts with just 16 walks.
- ▶ His phenomenal year earned him the College Baseball Foundation's National Pitcher of the Year award as well as ACC Pitcher of the Year honors.
- ▶ He is the first Tar Heel to be named the nation's top arm since Andrew Miller in 2006 and the fifth to win the conference's honor, the first since J.B. Bukauskas in 2017.

FOUR EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS

- ▶ Knapp and Stevenson highlighted the postseason awards for Carolina, becoming the program's 67th and 68th All-America award winners.
- ▶ Knapp was a unanimous selection across all six national lists, earning four first-team nods. He and Vance Honeycutt are the only two six-team honorees in Forbes tenure at the helm.
- ▶ Freshman phenoms Ryan Lynch and Walker McDuffie were also recognized for their incredible debut seasons, giving Carolina two Freshman All-Americans in back-to-back season for the first time since 2007-08.

HISTORY ON THE HILL

- ▶ Against Gardner-Webb North Carolina baseball did what it had not done yet this century, throwing a no-hitter in its run-rule 11-1 win.
- ▶ It was the program's first combined no-no since Chris Elmore and Ryan Earey kept Towson off the board in March of 1999. It's just the program's third no-hitter of any kind since at least 1978.
- ▶ UNC is now one of just three schools to have thrown a no-hitter in both baseball and softball in 2025.
- ▶ Forbes was a volunteer assistant for UNC's last no-no in 1999. It was the first time being a part of one for pitching coach Bryant Gaines.
- ▶ Folger Boaz (3.0), Olin Johnson (3.0) and Camron Seagraves (1.0) were phenomenal, recording eight strikeouts and just one walk on the historic night.
- ▶ While the pitchers were busy shoving on the mound, the Carolina bats were carrying their weight to wrap this game up in seven on Tuesday night. 11 runs on 10 hits powered the Heels to their third run-rule win of the season.

ANOTHER 40 WIN SEASONS FOR FORBES

- ▶ Sixth year head coach Scott Forbes has his program in a great place, securing 40+ win seasons in three of the last four campaigns.
- ▶ UNC has won 40 or more games in seven of the last nine seasons and in 17 of Forbes' 25 years as a member of the Tar Heels' coaching staff.
- ▶ The program now has 27 40-win seasons in its history with its first 40-win season posted in 1983 (42-10).

FOUR HEELS TAKEN IN 2025 MLB DRAFT

- ▶ North Carolina had two players selected on day one and two more on the final day to give Forbes 21 draftees as head coach.
- ▶ Stevenson's first round selection highlighted the bunch. Taken 35th by the Seattle Mariners, his selection gave Carolina 26 first-round picks in program history, including 13 since 2006.
- ▶ He was also the first Carolina catcher to be taken in the first since College Baseball Hall of Famer B.J. Surhoff went 1.01 in 1985.
- ▶ Kepley followed close behind with an early second round selection by the Cubs. The pair are the first Heels to be selected in the first two rounds of the same draft since 2019.
- ▶ Aidan Haugh and Knapp followed in the 6th and 8th to the Rays and Cubs respectively. Their selections made it the most Tar Heels taken in the first eight rounds of a draft since 2015.

Carolina 2025 MLB Draft Picks

Player, Pos.	Club	Rd. (Pick)
Luke Stevenson, C	Seattle Mariners	1st (35)
Kane Kepley, OF	Chicago Cubs	2nd
Aidan Haugh, P	Tampa Bay Rays	6th
Jake Knapp, P	Chicago Cubs	8th

HEELS FALL ONE GAME SHORT OF ACC TITLE

ACC Tournament | 5.22-24 | Charlotte, N.C.

Quarters vs. VT: W, 10-4 | Semis vs. Pitt: W, 13-5

Championship Game vs. #3 Georgia Tech: L, 6-13

► Carolina advanced into the semifinals thanks a 10-4 win over the No. 7 seed Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals on Friday afternoon. Four RBIs from leadoff man Jake Schaffner and some clutch hitting from fellow All-ACC First Team honoree Owen Hull sparked an offense that scored eight of its 10 runs with two outs against them.

► Newly crowned ACC Freshman of the Year Caden Glauber picked up the win with a lengthy outing that went 5.1 innings with six strikeouts, three hits, and one run. It was the longest postseason appearance by a Tar Heel reliever since Will Sandy went 5.2 IP in the 2019 Chapel Hill Super Regional.

► Saturday saw the Heels win a 13-5 contest over Pitt thanks to a season-high six home runs. Rom Kellis V provided two of them from the nine-hole with UNC amassing 2,327 feet of home run.

► Schaffner was a star once again, knocking a double and a triple for the second straight game. He now sits one triple shy of tying the single-season program record with seven in 2026

► The Heels racked up their most hits in a game since 2010 and their most in an ACC Tournament game this century with 22 against the Panthers. They came just shy of tying the most by the program since at least 2000. Carolina put up 23 against Southern Miss. in 2009.

► UNC came up one game short of going back-to-back when they lost a 13-6 back-and-forth affair with Georgia Tech. It was the highest ranked conference tournament final in the sport in over 10 years.

HOME SWEEP SECURES 40 WIN SEASON

at NC State | 5.14-16 | Raleigh, N.C.

GM1: W, 9-4 | GM2: W, 17-7 (7) | GM3: L, 2-7

► The Heels won their final regular season series by taking the first two games against their rivals NC State on the road at Doak Field.

► A competitive opener was highlighted by a five-run fifth inning that helped seal the 9-4 victory.

► Jason DeCaro was ultra effective in picking up his 10th win of the season, striking out eight and allowing just four hits. He hadn't given up a run until the sixth where his two walks to that lead off the inning came around to score.

► A triple from Carter French led to the first run of the game for UNC before home runs from Tyler Howe and Owen Hull punctuated the win.

► The offense would then explode for a 17-7 thrashing of the Pack on Friday night. Three huge innings of five, four, and seven runs secured the series.

► The series win gave UNC nine in a row to finish the season, the most ACC series they've claimed in one year since winning all 10 in 2017.

► Carolina logged five doubles and three home runs to maximize their production.

HOME SWEEP SECURES 40 WIN SEASON

Pitt | 5.8-10 | Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 4-1 | GM2: W, 12-2 (8) | GM3: W, 7-3

► Carolina played host to Pitt for its regular season home finale and came away with their first ACC sweep in the Bosh in 2026.

► Jason DeCaro and Caden Glauber threw a combined 8.2 scoreless innings while striking out 12 Panthers to lead the team to a 4-1 win in Friday night's opener.

► It was the offense's turn to carry the weight on Saturday when the Heels ran away with a 12-2 run-rule victory, their 13th of the season. Nine hits (five for extra bases), four sac-flies, and seven free passes had the bases busy all afternoon.

► Senior Day Sunday resulted in a 7-3 win to complete the sweep and put Carolina at 40 wins for the third year in a row and the 27th time in program history.

► Folger Boaz was efficient on the mound in one of his best starts of the year and Colin Hynek powered the Heels at the plate with three RBIs. The Georgia State transfer finished hitting .400 in the series.

► The series win gave UNC eight in a row in conference since dropping their opener to Virginia. It was the longest streak of series wins under head coach Scott Forbes and the program's best since 2017.

DIAMOND HEEL DEMOLITION ON TOBACCO ROAD

at Duke | 4.23-25 | Durham, N.C.

GM1: W, 3-1 | GM2: L, 1-3 | GM3: W, 22-5 (7)

► Carolina faced off against their historic rivals Duke over the weekend in Durham and came away with their seventh straight ACC series victory thanks to wins on Thursday and Saturday.

► Jason DeCaro dazzled on Thursday to lead UNC to a 3-1 win. His second longest outing of the year, DeCaro finished his 7.2 IP with seven Ks, three hits and only one unearned run, scored on an error after he'd left the game. Including his last start vs. Georgia Tech, he's thrown 12.2 innings while giving up just one earned run.

► Friday saw another brilliant performance from the Carolina starter as Ryan Lynch racked up a career-high nine strikeouts in a loss where he gave up no earned runs. All three Blue Devil runs were scored on one error.

► Saturday was an offensive explosion, as the Heels won 22-5 in their highest scoring game since 2010 and the most they'd put up in an ACC contest since 2000 against Maryland.

► After a pair of scoreless frames to start, Carolina put up a crooked number in five straight innings to run away with the game. Duke deployed nine pitchers to try and slow them down, the most UNC had seen this year.

MADE A STATEMENT ON A NATIONAL STAGE

Georgia Tech | 4.17-19 | Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 5-2 | GM2: W, 14-4 (8) | GM3: L, 2-5

► Over the weekend it was a battle of No. 3 and No. 2 as Carolina hosted Georgia Tech in the highest ranked matchup of the season in college baseball and the highest in Boshamer Stadium history.

► The Heels emerged victorious with wins in the first two games to take the monumental series.

► A 5-2 victory led things off on Friday as Jason DeCaro and the Carolina bullpen shut down the highest scoring offense in the nation. Three home runs powered the UNC attack to a massive opening night victory.

► Saturday it was all Heels as the home team ran away with a loud 14-4 run-rule on ACC Network.

► Three more home runs, highlighted by Owen Hull's second inning two-out grand slam, paired with more excellent pitching from Ryan Lynch and Walker McDuffie secured the marquee series.

► GT battled back for a Sunday win 5-2, but the damage had already been done. Carolina had claimed its highest ranked home series win since sweeping No. 1 Virginia in 2011.

► UNC's arms were the story of the weekend, holding the highly touted Yellow Jacket offense well below their season averages in a number of categories (s/o to Grace Nugent, Inside Carolina for the note idea):

Category	Before	In Series	After
Batting	.362	.240	.354
Slugging	.630	.333	.620
On-Base	.477	.357	.470
Runs/G	11.2	4.7 (11 total)	10.7

GOT THE BOSH BUMPIN

► It was an electric atmosphere at Boshamer Stadium the weekend the Heels took on Georgia Tech.

► Friday night's crowd of 4,357 was the largest in the regular season in the stadium's history.

► Coaches and players alike gave credit to the energy the fans brought to helping them win the series. All three games were sold out and it showed.

► The combined attendance of 11,720 across the three days was the program's best over a weekend since 2009 when the stadium reopened after being renovated.

► That number came just 11 people shy of the record set in '09 during a sweep of No. 7 Miami.

► On the field, it was the first top-3 series for UNC since 2008 when it had two. No. 2 ranked Carolina won weekends against No. 2 Florida State in Cary and at No. 1 Miami in Coral Gables that year.

► With the Heels' '08 contests being played in Cary at the USA Baseball National Training Complex, the series against GT became the highest ranked regular season match up in the Bosh's storied history.

TAMED THE TIGERS

at Clemson | 4.10-12 | Clemson, S.C.

GM1: L, 5-9 | GM2: W, 6-4 (14) | GM3: W, 12-5

► For the second straight weekend, Carolina came away with an ACC series win despite losing in the first game. It was a reverse sweep for UNC with a 14-inning marathon win on Saturday afternoon before a controlled 12-5 victory on Sunday.

► It was the first time the road team had claimed a series between the two programs since 2012.

► Friday's game was close for the first half until Clemson four in the fifth to run out to a 9-5 win.

► Saturday's nearly 5 hour affair was highlighted by a Tyler Howe squeeze bunt that scored two and 6.0 shutout innings from Caden Glauber to finish it.

► Sunday was all Heels as a Gavin Gallaher first inning home run got the ball rolling for a season-high in hits (16) as Carolina became the third team in the country to hit 30 wins on the year.

SENT THE BIRDS BACK NORTH

Boston College | 4.2-4 | Chapel Hill

GM1: L, 1-6 | GM2: W, 5-2 | GM3: W, 8-7

► Carolina hosted Boston College and came away with a series win despite dropping the opener on Thursday night. 5-2 and 8-7 victories on Friday and Saturday gave UNC its fourth straight ACC series.

► The last time the Heels dropped game one and still won the series was at Duke in 2024, a weekend that helped Carolina lock up the ACC Coastal Division title.

► In Friday's bounce back game, UNC took an early lead off early RBIs from Jake Schaffner and Gavin Gallaher and never looked back. The trio of Jason DeCaro, Caden Glauber, and Walker McDuffie held BC without a hit until 7.2 innings of this game had already been thrown and just three total on the day.

► Down four in the finale, Carolina needed five unanswered runs and lock down pitching down the stretch to take the series. Owen Hull knocked the game winning single in the seventh that rewarded excellent work from Jackson Rose and Walker McDuffie who threw the final 3.2 frames and combined to surrender just one hit and no runs with four strikeouts.

NEVER NEEDED THE LUCK OF THE IRISH

at Notre Dame | 3.28-29 | South Bend, Ind.

GM1: W, 6-5 | GM2: W, 13-7 | GM3: W, 15-10

- ▶ Carolina traveled to the heart of the Midwest of the weekend for a showdown with the newly ranked No. 23 Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The result was three key wins for the Tar Heels who now have swept their first two conference road series for only the second time since the three game formatting began in 1990.
- ▶ The Heels put up 41 hits across the three games in South Bend, their most in a weekend since May 2024 against Louisville and the most on the road since putting up 45 against Boston College in 2017.
- ▶ The first game of the doubleheader was the closest of the weekend, finishing 6-5 after a wild pitch scored Tyler Howe in the top of the eighth for what would be the game winning run. Howe and Nicholson hit solo homers while starter Jason DeCaro racked up a career high nine strikeouts.
- ▶ A six run sixth propelled UNC to a 13-7 win in game two on Saturday. Erik Paulsen led the way in that one, going 4-6 with two doubles, two RBIs, and two runs scored.
- ▶ In the series finale, Jake Schaffner set the tone with a leadoff homer and the offense ran from there. Carolina put up 15 runs on 15 hits to complete the sweep.

GOT THE BETTER (OF THE) CARDS

Louisville | 3.20-22 | Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 11-1 (8) | GM2: L, 0-2 | GM3: W, 7-6

- ▶ Carolina played a tight series with Louisville over the weekend, eventually coming from behind on Sunday to win two of three in dramatic fashion.
- ▶ Friday, in UNC's first night game of the season, the arms and bats combined for a convincing 11-1 eight inning run-rule capped off my Cooper Nicholson's two-run homer to end it.
- ▶ The Cards took Saturday's contest 2-0 in a pitcher's duel. The teams combined for just eight hits.
- ▶ Sunday was swung by a massive five-run eighth for Carolina that propelled them to a 7-6 win to take the series. Erik Paulsen's bases-clearing double was the difference maker. UNC scored all of its runs with two outs.
- ▶ The Heels kept Louisville's potent offense, that came in as fourth highest scoring in the nation, quiet all series. Nine runs was the fewest for the Cards in a weekend since May of 2023.
- ▶ It was also the least stolen bases Louisville recorded in a series (1) since March of 2024.

BROUGHT THE BROOMS TO THE BAY

at Cal | 3.13-15 | Berkeley, Calif.

GM1: W, 8-1 | GM2: W, 6-2 | GM3: W, 10-2

- ▶ Carolina traveled out to Berkeley, Calif., for a showdown with the red-hot Cal Golden Bears, the first road trip of the season for Forbes team, and they emerged with an impressive sweep.
- ▶ Outscoring the home team 24-5 across the three games, UNC picked up their first road sweep since 2024.
- ▶ Friday night saw the Heels take an 8-1 win in the opener. Elite outfield defending paired with an efficient one-run night from Jason DeCaro on the mound got the weekend off on the right foot.
- ▶ Saturday ace Ryan Lynch kept the ball rolling in a 6-2 win, going a career long 8.0 IP while holding Cal to two runs on six hits and one walk. He also matched his career best with seven strikeouts.
- ▶ Sunday's finale was a 10-2 win highlighted by the bats. Carolina had 10 different players reach safely while racking up 10 hits and 11 walks. UNC had double digit hits in all three games.

FINISHED STRONG AGAINST VIRGINIA

Virginia | 3.6-8 | Chapel Hill

GM1: L, 3-13 (7) | GM2: L, 2-9 | GM3: W, 8-7 (12)

- ▶ The Tar Heels opened ACC play over the weekend at home against Virginia, dropping the first two games before battling back for a 12th inning marathon win in the series finale.
- ▶ Friday's contest was all Hoo's, winning 13-3 in seven innings to hand Carolina its first ever home run-rule.
- ▶ The opener of the doubleheader on Saturday was more of a fight, but ultimately ended with Virginia pulling away for a 9-2 win. Gavin Gallaher and Owen Hull got some late momentum back for the Heels with solo home runs to get a spark going before the series finale. It was Hull's first long ball of the season.
- ▶ The weekend's final game was entertainment enough for the whole series. The 12 inning marathon had five lead changes with Carolina needing game tying runs in both the 9th and 12th just to keep the game alive.
- ▶ True freshmen were the heroes of the day. Righty Caden Glauber logged career highs in innings pitched (5.1) and strikeouts (8) to quiet the rolling Virginia offense long enough for UNC to tie the game back up. Then it was Tyler Howe who hit a solo shot to tie the game in the 9th before smoking a grounder past a five-man infield in the bottom of the 12th to walk-off the game.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

Le Moyne | 2.27-3.1 | Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 16-3 (7) | GM2: W, 12-2 (7) | GM3: W, 21-1 (7)

- ▶ The Tar Heels faced DI debutants Le Moyne over the weekend and put together their most dominant weekend series this century, winning all three games via run-rule for the first time in program history.
- ▶ Carolina has won four straight via mercy rule, also the first time in program history accomplishing that feat.
- ▶ The 49 total runs was the most UNC has scored in a weekend series since at least 1990.
- ▶ It also reset the clock on a slew of series best number. UNC's .412 batting average was its best ever in a weekend under Forbes. The 35 hits is the most since 36 in the Louisville series in 2024.
- ▶ Seven Heels hit over .400 in their ABs against the Dolphins, led by Jake Schaffner (.625), Colin Hynek (.625), and Erik Paulsen (.600). That trio combined for 18 runs, eight extra base hits, and 18 RBIs.
- ▶ Sunday's finale especially brought the fireworks, as Carolina ran away with a 21-1 victory to secure the sweep. It was the most runs the team had scored in a game since a 21-6 win over Duke in 2021 and the 20-point margin was the largest since a 20-0 win over Virginia Tech in May of 2017.
- ▶ Biggest highlight was the sixth inning grand slam from Jady Nunez, his first collegiate hit. Carolina had not had a pinch-hit grand slam since Jackson Hesterlee did it against Georgia Tech on April 21, 2008.

CAROLINA CLASH

East Carolina | 2.20-22 | Greenville/Durham/Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 10-0 (8) | GM2: L, 3-10 | GM3: T, 3-3

- ▶ The Tar Heels took part in their annual home-neutral-home series with East Carolina on the weekend with the teams splitting the spoils as the games ended in a rare win-loss-tie.
- ▶ It was the first tie for UNC since April 17, 2005 when a 10th inning game against Miami was called early due to a set curfew. Before that, the most recent draw was back in 1989.
- ▶ The weekend started strong for Carolina with a 10-0 eighth inning run rule in the Jungle in Greenville.
- ▶ Everyone in the lineup recorded a hit and Cooper Nicholson especially was on top of his game, reaching safely in every plate appearance via a home run, a two-RBI double and two HBPs.

- ▶ But the real star was Jason DeCaro, who was sensational in enemy territory, tossing a complete game shutout with seven strikeouts while only allowing five hits and one walk. Only two ECU runners reached third.
- ▶ It was the team's first eight inning complete game since Kent Emmanuel against Miami on May 23, 2013.
- ▶ Saturday's game went ECU's way. Gavin Gallaher's three-run blast to tie it in the third was the highlight, but the Pirates got the runs down the stretch to take a 10-3 victory at the Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

SEE YA LATER HOOSIERS

Indiana | 2.13-14 | Chapel Hill

GM1: W, 9-4 | GM2: W, 12-2 (7) | GM3: W, 4-3 (11)

- ▶ The Tar Heels took on Indiana in their opening weekend series, completing their second sweep of a power four program to start a season in as many years.
- ▶ Game one saw a convincing win for the new look Carolina, who started eight new faces in their initial lineup, but still controlled from start to finish to claim a 9-4 victory.
- ▶ A Saturday doubleheader contained two wins of complete opposite variety. The first game was a 12-2 seven inning run-rule highlighted by a six-run sixth inning that broke the game open.
- ▶ The second game was a much tighter contest that needed a brutal throwing error from Indiana's second baseman to extend it into extra innings. From there, Macon Winslow's walk-off solo homer in the bottom of the 11th did the rest.
