FIRST PITCH

CAROLINA IN THE CHAMP SERIES FOR THIRD TIME

➤ The Diamond Heels have claimed their spot in the 2026 Men's College World Series Championship Series after sweeping through their half of the bracket with three decisive wins.

➤ It is the third time in program history UNC has made the MCWS Final alongside the 2006 and 2007 teams, who both fell short in losses to Oregon State.

➤ Carolina is 3-0 in Omaha for just the second time (2006) and is 1-1 in their previous opening games of the champ series. In '06 it was a tight 4-3 win over the Beavers whereas '07 saw n 11-4 defeat.

➤ UNC is looking to become 32nd different program to win a D1 baseball national championship.

➤ Since 1977, every four-year student enrolled at North Carolina has been on campus for at least one national title. With a win, this would be the 64th UNC team championship from the 10th different program.

OMAHA: WHERE THE HEELS PLAY

➤ UNC is tied for the most MCWS berths since 2006 with nine, square with only Florida in that span. The tie in third is between four teams at seven appearances.

➤ It is a second trip in three years for head coach Scott Forbes, who is the first coach in the program's history to earn a MCWS berth twice in his first six seasons. In total, the Heels have gone nine times with him on staff.

➤ A testament to both the parity of college baseball and the consistency of this program, Carolina is the only team to have made it to Omaha twice in the last three years. And it was one win away from going in 2025.

➤ All-time the Heels hold a 22-25 record in Omaha and are 5-5 against members of the Southeastern Conference in their 13 MCWS appearances.

➤ The Heels are led by four veterans who played in the 2024 trip to the CWS in Gavin Gallaher, Jason DeCaro, Matthew Matthijs, and Cam Padgett. Five more were on the roster, but did not take the field.

OMAHA RECAP: HOW UNC GOT TO THE FINAL

RAN OFF THE REBELS

W, 6-2 | W: Caden Glauber (11-0), L: Hudson Calhoun (5-4) | Tyler Howe: 2 H, 2 R, 1 2B

➤ Colin Hynek hit a three-run home run in the bottom of the eighth inning to lead North Carolina to a 6-2 win over Ole Miss in the team's opening game of the 2026 Men's College World Series.
➤ The Rebels led, 1-0, before UNC tied it at 1-1 in the bottom of the sixth through an Owen Hull solo shot.
➤ The Heels poured in five more in the seventh and eighth, with three coming on Hynek's homer to earn the come-from-behind win.
➤ Jason DeCaro started on the mound and allowed five hits and two earned runs in 6.2 innings for Carolina, striking out nine to tie his career high before leaving the game in the top of the seventh.
➤ Caden Glauber pitched the final 2.1 innings, blanking the Rebels while fanning two to pick up the win, improving to 11-0 in his rookie campaign.

HANDLED RED-HOT WEST VIRGINIA

W, 5-2 | W: Walker McDuffie (9-3), L: Maxx Yehl (9-3), SV: Caden Glauber (5) | Gavin Gallaher: 2 R, 2 RBI, 1 3B

➤ Carolina scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to break open a pitcher's duel and top #16 seed West Virginia, 5-2.
➤ The Tar Heels manufactured two runs in the bottom of the first inning to take a quick, 2-0 lead. WVU tied it with single runs in the third and fourth, then the game was a scoreless pitcher's duel until UNC took the lead in the bottom of the seventh by scoring three, taking advantage of two Mountaineer errors.
➤ Gavin Gallaher's two-run triple was the key blow and provided the game-winning RBI for the second straight game.
➤ Walker McDuffie pitched 3.2 scoreless, hitless innings and picked up the win for Carolina, striking out four.
➤ Caden Glauber pitched the final 0.2 frames to pick up his fifth save of the season, blowing away both batters he faced with strikeouts.

SURMOUNTED THE MOUNTAINEERS

W, 12-7 | W: Jackson Rose (5-0), L: Chansen Cole (10-2) | Owen Hull: 4 H, 3 R, 2 RBI, 3 XBH, Gavin Gallaher: 4 H, 4 RBI, 2 R

➤ The Diamond Heels exploded for 12 runs, jumping out to a 12-1 lead and holding off 16th-seeded West Virginia, 12-7, to advance to the championship series of the College World Series.
➤ With the victory, their fifth in a row, UNC advanced to the MCWS champ series for the third time and the first time in 19 seasons, joining the 2006 and 2007 squads. They improved to 3-0 in games to send themselves to the championship finals.
➤ Owen Hull went 4-for-5 at the plate with two doubles, a triple and two RBI to set the tone while Gavin Gallaher also went 4-for-5 and became the second Tar Heel with four hits and four RBI in a CWS game, joining Tim Federowicz (2006).
➤ Erik Paulsen added three hits, while Jake Schaffner went 1-for-3 with two walks and three runs scored in the leadoff spot.
➤ Jackson Rose was masterful in relief in picking up his fifth win, throwing 4.1 scoreless frames with a pair of strikeouts.
➤ Caden Glauber pitched for his third straight game, ending a WVU run and finishing the game with 2.1 IP and 3 K.

OMAHA REWIND: HOW UNC DID IN THEIR FIRST TWO FINALS

FIRST TRIP FALLS JUST SHORT IN 2006

vs. Oregon State | GM1 (6.24): W, 4-3 | GM2 (6.25): L, 7-11 | GM3 (6.26): L, 2-3

➤ The program's first trip to the championship series started off with a bang through a 4-3 come-from-behind win over the Beavers that was highlighted by Chad Flack's winning run off an eighth inning passed ball.
➤ Carolina's pitching staff, led by future big leaguers Andrew Miller and Andrew Carignan, battled through a rain delay that lasted over an hour to hold OSU to three runs and allow for another edition of heroics from Flack.
➤ Game two went the way of the Beavers, 11-7, as the Pac-10 outfit manufactured their own comeback to even the series.
➤ With UNC up 5-0 early, Oregon State scored seven runs in the fourth and four more in the sixth to take a hold of the contest they would not relinquish. The win would force the if necessary game three on Monday.
➤ The third and final game of the series came down to the wire, with an eighth inning throwing error from North Carolina's second baseman allowing the winning run in the bottom of the eighth. In total UNC committed four errors in the game and only allowed one earned run.
➤ Hall of Fame coach Mike Fox's crew put two runners on in the ninth with just one out, but could not scratch across the tying run even with the team's hero Flack back up at the plate.
➤ Oregon State became the Pac-10's first champion since USC's most recent title in 1998. They also became the first team in MCWS history to lose twice in Omaha and still win the national championship.
➤ The season ended in heartbreak for the Heels, who finished with a 54-15 record.

REVENGE BID BATTED AWAY BY BEAVERS IN 2007

vs. Oregon State | GM1 (6.23): L, 4-11 | GM2 (6.24): L, 3-9

➤ Both program's found themselves back in the Men's College World Series final that very next season, something that has only happened three times in the history of the sport (Southern Cal. vs. Arizona St., 1972-73 & Vanderbilt vs. Virginia, 2014-15).
➤ The Heels ran a much more difficult path to the finals in 2007, winning three straight elimination games to punch their ticket after losing in their second game of the MCWS.
➤ A freshman year Alex White gave up eight hits and five runs to dig Carolina into a hole they could not come back from. The '07 squad had made a habit of dramatic comebacks, doing so in five of their NCAA Tournament games that season.
➤ Oregon State starter Jorge Reyes allowed eight hits for just three runs in 6.1 innings to win for the second time in the CWS and third time in the NCAA tournament.
➤ The Beavers then came back on Sunday with a 9-3 victory to become the first team in a decade to repeat as champs.
➤ With the loss, Carolina became the fifth team in the sports' history to repeat as runners-up.
➤ UNC took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but gave up a two-run homer in the second to fall behind and never recovered.
➤ Dustin Ackley's third home run of the '07 MCWS pulled the Heels within two runs at 5-3, but the Beavers poured four more on to put the game away and win the series.

AROUND THE HORN

HEELS ON HISTORIC PACE

➤ The Heels have reached the 50-win threshold for the seventh time in their history ('90, '06, '07, '08, '11, '13 '26), the first time doing so with Forbes at the helm.
➤ Earlier in the season they hit the 40-win mark for the 27th time. It is their third year in a row doing so and the fourth time total under Forbes.
➤ They have also reached 20 ACC wins for the 10th time in program history. UNC is the only school in conference history to hit double digits in that stat. Florida State sits second with eight in total.

ARM TALENT

➤ The strength of this team lies with the Carolina Arm Barn, who have solidified themselves as the best unit in the conference in recent years and 2026 has proved to be no different.
➤ The Heels have led the ACC in ERA each of the last two seasons and are looking to be the first to go three in a row since Louisville's five-year stretch from 2015-19. It would be the first time in UNC's history it had the best ACC ERA three years in a row.
➤ Last year's ACC and National Pitcher of the Year Jake Knapp led the conference in ERA in 2025. Tar Heels currently occupy the No. 1, 2, and 6 spots as Glauber, DeCaro, and McDuffie battle at the top.
➤ It would be the first time UNC pitchers have gone back-to-back years atop the conference since Robert Woodard and Jonathan Hovis did it in '05/'06.
➤ At least one of the dynamic duo of Glauber and McDuffie have appeared in 14 of the last 15 games for Carolina down the stretch run.
➤ DeCaro and Glauber are both over the 10-win mark, giving Carolina its first pair of teammates to hit double digits since Trent Thornton and Kent Emanuel had 12 and 11, respectively, in 2013.
➤ UNC has held opponents to three or fewer runs 35 times this season, second only to Auburn (36) in DI, and has done so in six of its eight NCAAT games.

MAMBO NO. 5

➤ Carolina was tabbed as the No. 5 national seed for the second straight tournament, the only two times in its history UNC was slotted into that particular number.
➤ It's the 10th time the Heels have earned a top-eight seed, advancing to the CWS in eight of those years.
➤ UNC has made the NCAA postseason in nine straight seasons, the longest active streak in the ACC. Wake Forest sits behind with five in a row and NC State snuck in for four.
➤ The Diamond Heels lead the nation in number of times hosting regionals from 2006 onward, sitting tied with Florida State at 14 total. In those 14 years hosting, they hold a 41-8 record in the regional round while advancing to supers 13 times.
➤ Carolina holds an 91-50 all-time record in the regional/district round.
➤ The Tar Heels' all-time Super Regional record is 20-11. They are the only program in the country to host supers each of the last three seasons and one of two to reach the round three times (West Virginia).
➤ Head coach Scott Forbes has led his program to the NCAA postseason in each of his six seasons at the helm. No other coach in program history did so in even each of their first four years.

BACK SO SOON(ER)?

➤ The Heels face a familiar postseason foe in the MCWS Champ Series in Oklahoma, a team they hosted in the 2025 Chapel Hill Regional last year.
➤ Forbes' unit took two of three against the No. 2 seed Sooners to advance to the Super Regional round.
➤ UNC won the first contest 11-5 in Saturday winner's bracket game to move on to the regional final. Sam Angelo was the offensive star with a pair of home runs as Jason DeCaro out dueled eventual top-10 pick Kyson Witherspoon with eight Ks in 6.0 IP.
➤ Oklahoma won 9-5 on Sunday to force the if necessary game three where Carolina came back with a dominant 14-4 outing to win it.
➤ Gavin Gallaher, who was named the regional's Most Outstanding Player, finished off his red-hot weekend with four hits, four runs, and four RBIs featuring a pair of home runs that put the final nail in the coffin.
➤ In the three games against OU, he was 11-16 (.688) with three doubles, six runs scored, and nine RBIs.
➤ True freshmen on the mound shutdown the OU offense. Ryan Lynch got his second career start and went 5.0 with six strikeouts before Walker McDuffie came in for the final 4.0 and recorded seven punchouts.

THAT DUDE DECARO

➤ Carolina's superstar junior has carried the weight of high expectations since the then 17-year-old made his first start in the first midweek of 2024 before moving into the weekend rotation by week three. Eventually elevating himself to be the Friday guy.
➤ Named Freshman All-America with a 3.81 ERA and a 6-1 record as he helped the team to Omaha. He got the start for UNC's College World Series opener against Virginia, striking out six and giving up just one run as the Heels took a 3-2 victory.
➤ He was just as dominant in 2025, earning second team All-ACC honors for the second straight year.
➤ The Northport, N.Y. native really turned it on down the stretch. He was sensational, going 6.0 IP with just one run allowed, in an 11-1 run-rule win at No. 2 Florida State. Then, two weeks later, he would out duel eventual top-10 pick Kyson Witherspoon to lead Carolina to a pivotal 11-5 win over Oklahoma in the regional.
➤ To start 2026, he became just the sixth Tar Heel to start back-to-back Opening Day games since 1999.
➤ In week two against ECU, he tossed a complete game, eight-inning shutout with seven strikeouts while only allowing five hits and one walk. Only two ECU runners even managed to reach third.
➤ It was the team's first eight-inning complete game win since Kent Emmanuel against Miami in 2013 and only the second time over the last 12 seasons a Carolina pitcher has thrown eight or more shutout innings on the road (Austin Bergner, 2019).
➤ DeCaro set a new career high in strikeouts when he took out nine on the road at No. 23 Notre Dame earlier this season.
➤ In the home game against Duke, he recorded his 200th career strikeout. He is the first Tar Heel to surpass that milestone since Austin Bergner in 2019.
➤ Continually performing on the biggest stages, he threw 6.2 commanding innings in the Heels' 2026 College World Series opener. He tied his career high with nine strikeouts, the second most by a Tar Heel in a MCWS game all-time.
➤ He is just the second Carolina pitcher to start two Omaha openers, joining Alex White in '08 and '09.

DIAMOND HEELS COMPLETE SUPER COMEBACK

DUG THEMSELVES A HOLE

➤ Coming into the weekend, UNC had played host to the Super Regional round on nine previous occasions and had emerged victorious in seven of those years.

➤ In order to advance this time around though they were going to have to do something that had never been done in program history.

➤ In game one against USC on Friday afternoon, the Heels lost a 9-5 contest to the Trojans after holding a 5-1 heading into the sixth inning. Undoubtedly a tough blow to the team's bid for a 13th trip to Omaha.

➤ Prior to this Super Regional, no North Carolina team had ever come back to win a round of the NCAA Tournament after losing its first game. Not a regional. Not a Super.

DECARO DAZZLES IN MUST WIN GAME TWO

➤ If UNC was to pull off the unprecedented, it would need to start by winning game two to stay alive. Jason DeCaro made sure of that.

➤ DeCaro has pitched in innumerable big games in his three years as a starter for North Carolina. No performance can top the absolute masterclass he delivered in Saturday's complete game shutout.

➤ 9.0 innings, eight strikeouts, two hits, one walk, and no runs. That's what he worked in a 4-0 have-to-have it win for the Heels with their season on the line. Arguably one of the greatest outings in program history given the stakes.

➤ At no point in the contest did a Trojan make it past first base. DeCaro only allowed two base runners beyond the third inning, retiring 19 of the final 21 batters he faced.

➤ For the veteran ace, it was his second complete game of the season but first that went all 9.0 innings after throwing a flawless 8.0 frames in a 10-0 win at East Carolina back in February.

➤ The Heels had not had a 9.0 inning CG since Jake Knapp's at No. 2 Florida State and had not had a CG with two hits or less since Aidan Haugh's near no-hitter against Boston College, both in 2025.

➤ It is the fourth complete game shutout by a Carolina pitcher in an NCAA Tournament game in the Field of 64 Era and the first since Kent Emmanuel's against Texas in the 2011 College World Series.

➤ It is also the first CG shutty in Boshamer Stadium since current staff member Rodney Hutchison blanked NC A&T on March 13, 2018.

HEELS WALK IT OFF TO GO TO OMAHA

➤ DeCaro made sure the Heels saw Sunday, but more heroics would be required to send them to Omaha.

➤ True freshman phenom Caden Glauber got the ball to make his third-ever start and led the way for Carolina, setting new career highs in innings pitched (7.1) and strikeouts (11) while holding USC to three runs on six hits and one walk.

➤ The limiting of the Trojans was vital for the Heels as they were unable to get their own offense going. A third inning Owen Hull double (one his four on the day) tied the game up at 1-1 before USC jumped ahead 3-1 with solo shots in the fourth and fifth.

➤ For much of the game, it felt like the Carolina offense had dried up at the worst possible time. It only produced five hits in the first seven innings as USC's Andrew Johnson put on an incredible show of his own.

➤ A spark emerged in the eighth when the Heels finally put back-to-back hits together and a two-out Owen Hull double was followed by another two-bagger from Macon Winslow to cut the deficit to one.

➤ More youngsters emerged from the Carolina pen to support Glauber as fellow freshman Jackson Rose and sophomore Walker McDuffie came in to combine for 1.2 shutout innings to maintain striking distance.

➤ Then came the bottom of the ninth. Every baseball player's dream scenario to be the hero. Five straight simply clutch at-bats from Tar Heels delivered the drama in the Chapel Hill Super Regional.

➤ First it was Cooper Nicholson drawing a walk on an eight pitch at-bat after going down 0-2 quickly.

➤Then it was the defensive sub, former walk-on Carter French, whose K was the last out of the 2025 heart breaking Super loss to Arizona, who drew three straight balls and a mid-AB pitching change. An unforgettably calm demeanor as he chatted with Coach Forbes before stepping back up to the plate to knock a single through the right side that would send Nicholson to third.

➤ Jake Schaffner would follow with a sac-fly that tied the game at 3-3 and sent the Bosh into a fever pitch.

➤ And finally, up stepped Owen Hull, who lived to fight another pitch as USC couldn't come up with a pop up foul. He would take advantage of the extra life with yet another two-out double just past the sliding Trojan center fielder to score French and send North Carolina back to Omaha. Bosh Magic.

Caden Glauber

RHP | 6-4 | 210 | Fr. | Fort Mill, S.C.

GLOBE LIFE

➤ True freshman Caden Glauber (nicknamed "Globe" by his teammates) quickly emerged as a go-to arm for Forbes and company this season.

➤ The barely 18 year old skipped his senior prom to come to Chapel Hill early and went from unknown to the ACC Freshman of the Year thanks to elite velocity and a propensity to get out of sticky situations.

➤ Forbes has described him as a "future Friday guy," often comparing him to Tar Heel legend and current big leaguer Trent Thornton.

➤ His strikeouts (106) and record (11-0) lead all NCAA freshmen while sitting second in ERA (2.17) and third in opposing batting average (.191). He is best among ACC rookies in all four categories.

➤ Currently holding an 11-0 record, his 11 is the most wins without defeat by a Carolina freshman since at least the turn of the century.

➤ He is the only DI pitcher to have at least 10 wins and five saves this year and is the first Tar Heel since Thornton to do so.

➤ The Heels are also 28-0 in his appearances.

➤ Globe is one of five pitchers to log a win and a save in his team's first two CWS games since 2011.

➤ With 11 Ks in his Super Regional start against USC, he racked up the most punchouts for a Tar Heel in an NCAA tournament game in 15 years.

➤ It was also the most strikeouts for a UNC freshman in any outing since Gianluca Dalatri had 15 vs. Radford in 2017.

➤ His heroic 6.0 shutout frames to finish Carolina's 14-inning marathon win at Clemson earned him the team's only ACC Player of the Week honor in 2026.

GOLDEN GLOBE WINS ACC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

➤ Glauber was named the ACC Freshman of the Year, the eighth Diamond Heel and just the second UNC pitcher to earn the distinction since its inception in 1991.

➤ Aaron Sabato most recently won it as a DH in 2019 and future big leaguer Daniel Bard claimed the award as the most recent UNC pitcher in 2004.

➤ Overall, he is the 10th pitcher to win the award in conference history and the first since Parker Messick of Florida State in 2021.

➤ Of the nine previous arms to earn ACC FOTY, eight would go on to play in the major leagues and the one who didn't spent four seasons in AAA.

NATION'S BEST

➤ His accolades didn't stop at the conference level.

➤ The kid has been named Perfect Game's College Co-Freshman Pitcher of the Year while also being a finalist for Baseball America's Freshman of the Year Award.

➤ He is the first Tar Heel pitcher to win a national FOTY distinction, joining the likes of Brian Roberts, Dustin Ackley, Colin Moran, and Aaron Sabato in that section of the record book.

➤ He has also earned three first-team All-America honors (BA, PG, NCBWA) already with four in total (ABCA). He is the first UNC freshman since Sabato to reach AA status.

➤ Glauber is the seventh freshman in program history to be named All-America and only the second pitcher alongside Josh Hiatt in 2017.

➤ The NCBWA also named Glauber among its 14 finalists for the annual Stopper of the Year Award honoring the nation's top relief pitcher. He was one of two freshmen on the list.

TAR HEEL TIDBITS

FOLGER BOAZ
Junior | Left Handed Pitcher | Pilot Mountain, N.C.
➤ Became the first Tar Heel to make his Carolina debut as the opening-day starter since Ryan Snare in 1998.
➤ Father was a Tar Heel football letterman in 1994.
➤ His brother, Jefferson, was a quarterback for UNC from 2020-23.
➤ Two-time conference Player of the Year as a quarterback, finishing his career with the best completion percentage in NCHSAA history (.675).
➤ Eagle Scout.

TOM CHMIELEWSKI
Graduate | Left Handed Pitcher | Needham, Mass.
➤ His grandfather, Edward McCarty, played in the College World Series for Northeastern in 1966.
➤ Ironically, that was Carolina's first trip to the College World Series.

➤ Graduated high school a year early to come to Chapel Hill.
➤ Spent his entire freshman season as a 17-year-old. Was still the youngest player on the team in his sophomore campaign.
➤ Reads the same chapter from the same book before every start. Book has changed from season to season. All remain confidential.

BOSTON FLANNERY
➤ Changed his number to 42 this season to honor Jackie Robinson. Called friend and mentor Jake Knapp, who wore the number last year, for permission first.
➤ His grandfather met Jackie's wife and told her about Boston wearing the number as a young kid. Rachel Robinson wrote Boston a letter thanking him for honoring her late husband.
➤ His mom performed on Broadway for many years.

CARTER FRENCH
Senior | Outfielder | Tampa, Fla.
➤ Originally made the team as a walk-on after his high school coach called Forbes to speak to his merits as a good ball player.
➤ Got into Carolina on his own academic prowess, not easy for a school that has an 8.2% acceptance rate for out-of-state applicants.
➤ Graduated with a degree in biology and plans on going to medical school next year.
➤ Took the MCAT the day after the team played its non-conference home game against Duke.
➤ Wants to be an orthopedic surgeon.
➤ Self-proclaimed best ping pong player on the team.

GAVIN GALLAHER
Junior | Infielder | Apex, N.C.
➤ Father, was four-year letterman and assistant baseball coach at Wake Forest University.
➤ His brother Riley played football at South Carolina and Campbell.
➤ His sister, Gracen, played sand volleyball at UNCW.

Freshman | Right Handed Pitcher | Fort Mill, S.C.
➤ Graduated high school a year early to come to Chapel Hill. Decided less than a month before the start of his junior year and condensed two high school academic years into a semester each.
➤ Turned 18 less than a month before his first collegiate appearance.
➤ His dad, Keith Glauber, made seven appearances across two different seasons for the Cincinnati Reds and played eight seasons in the Reds' and Cardinals' farm systems as a pitcher with a career 3.91 ERA.

COLIN HYNEK
Graduate | Catcher | Rockmart, Ga.
➤ Only meaningful playoff experience before coming to Carolina was a play-in game for the 2023 Sun Belt tournament.
➤ His high school team never made the playoffs.
➤ Claims he had never had a triple in his entire playing career before having three this season.

OWEN HULL
Junior | Outfielder | Alexandria, Va.
➤ Has an athletic bloodline that runs deep, back to his grandfather, who played running back at Notre Dame.
➤ George Hull, Owen's father's father, was a member of the Fighting Irish football team "sometime in the early 1940s" for what ended up being a brief time, spending only his freshman year in South Bend before he enlisted in the U.S. Navy to go fight in World War II.
➤ Owen credits his athleticism to his grandfather, who was known as a "physical player with a lot of speed."
➤ Was a draft-eligible sophomore and heavily considered declaring before coming to Chapel Hill.
➤ Eagle Scout.
➤ Black belt in taekwondo by the time he was 10.
➤ Can juggle.
➤ Could dunk by his sophomore year of high school.

RYAN LYNCH
➤ Has picked up wood working as a hobby.
➤ Said if he wasn't playing baseball he'd like to work at Home Depot.
➤ Watches Pixar movies after starts.
➤ His sister, Grace, plays lacrosse at Ursinus College where she's been the team's leading scorer for three years.

MATTHEW MATTHIJS
Senior | Right Handed Pitcher | Greenville, N.C.
➤ Pitched in the 2017 Little League World Series for the Southeast Region champions from Greenville, including 2.2 innings in the first combined perfect game in LLWS history.
➤ Older sister, Makenna, was a three-time all-conference softball player at UNCG between 2018-22.

COOPER NICHOLSON
Junior | Infielder | West Des Moines, Iowa
➤ Suddenly a hot bed of high-level athletes, Dowling Catholic High School has produced our own Cooper Nicholson as well as only slightly more famous women's basketball superstar, Caitlin Clark.
➤ As a freshman, Nicholson was on the men's basketball team at Dowling. Part of the routine would be for his freshman squad to practice against the varsity women's team.
➤ In these scrimmages, it was often Nicholson's unfortunate assignment to have to guard the two-time Gatorade Player of the Year. Safe to say this didn't go particularly well for the young Nicholson.
➤ "She's basically what made me realize basketball wouldn't be my sport."
➤ Also played football for Dowling, shining in the slot as a receiver.
➤ Did not have a single DI offer to play baseball.

ERIK PAULSEN
Junior | Infielder | Massapequa Park, N.Y.
➤ Lost his dad to a battle with throat cancer last summer just before he moved to Chapel Hill.
➤ Erik Paulsen Sr. was a NYPD detective who was one of the first responders to September 11 terrorist attacks. Spent three straight days at Ground Zero initially before another 2.5 months there combing through debris.
➤ His disease, oropharyngeal cancer, is a diagnosis shared by many 9/11 responders linked to toxic dust exposure inhaled during recovery efforts.
➤ Erik Sr. founded a well known travel baseball program, the New York Longhorns, that Erik Jr. played for for many years.
➤ Erik Sr. was on the official visit to Chapel Hill after Erik Jr. hit the portal. They had other visits planned, but canceled them after a trip to the Bosh.
➤ In his second game since the passing of his father, Erik hit his first Carolina home run.

JAKE SCHAFFNER
Junior | Infielder | Janesville, Wisc.
➤ Only DI offer for baseball was to North Dakota State.
➤ Thought he would be a hockey player growing up. His family has a rink in the backyard.

LEE SOWERS
Sophomore | Infielder | Glen Allen, Va.
➤ Born in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil.
➤ Plays bass guitar.
➤ Committed to Virginia Tech before Perry Hargett helped convince him to come to North Carolina.

MACON WINSLOW
Junior | Catcher | Hertford, N.C.
➤ Winslow spent the final two seasons of his high school career at Pro5 Academy under coach Sean Gallaher (Gavin's dad) while living with the Gallahers throughout that time.
➤ Gavin and Macon are living with each other once again in Chapel Hill.
➤ Going even further back, Macon's father Leary played for Heels' assistant coach Scott Jackson when they were both at Barton.
➤ Believes he'd be working on his family farm if he weren't playing baseball.

AROUND THE HORN

FOUR HEELS EARN ALL-AMERICA STATUS

➤ The beginning of the College World Series means the ramping up of award season, and thus far a quad pack of Tar Heels have been given All-America honors.
➤ Jason DeCaro, Caden Glauber, and Jake Schaffner were all recognized by the NCBWA for their outstanding seasons, with DeCaro and Glauber making the first team and Schaffner landing on the third.
➤ Owen Hull joined that trio to be awarded the honor by the ABCA with Decaro, Hull, and Schaffner on the second team and Glauber on the third.
➤ DeCaro and Glauber, owners of the two best ERAs in the ACC and top-10 marks in the country, also made Perfect Game's list.
➤ Glauber is the first freshman Heel to earn AA status since Aaron Sabato in 2019.
➤ The program now has 72 total All-Americas (13 under Forbes) and 30 first-team honorees. Twenty seven of the 72 have been pitchers.

GAVIN GALLAHIM

➤ The junior star Gavin Gallaher is the biggest returning piece on the offensive end for the Tar Heels. The 2026 captain has earned a reputation for coming through in big moments throughout his career.
➤ He was named the Chapel Hill Regional Most Outstanding Player as a freshman and a sophomore thanks to a pair of unbelievable performances.
➤ His 2024 regional was punctuated by the moment of the season in a year that was full of magic for the Heels, blasting a walk-off grand slam against LIU in the team's opening round win.
➤ 2025's regional saw him go nuclear, averaging .722 at the plate with 13 hits, seven runs, three doubles, his first career triple, three home runs, and 10 RBIs.
➤ The hits and RBIs were the most by a Heel in a regional this century and the three homers were the most since 2006. He failed to reach safely just four times all weekend.
➤ He holds a career .500 batting average in the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament with 5 home runs, 7 doubles, and 20 RBIs in nine games.
➤ May in general is when the junior has historically started heating up, hitting .348 in the month in his three seasons in Carolina Blue.
➤ So far in the 2026 CWS, he has provided the go-ahead RBI in both of Carolina's wins with both coming in the seventh inning. An RBI single in the win over Ole Miss preceded a two-RBI triple against WVU.

ROAD DAWGS GOT BITE

➤ The 2026 Diamond Heels finished the regular season with a 14-3 (.823) road record, officially making it one of the best years away from home in program history.
➤ Finishing at .823, the 2026 team officially has the best road win percentage for the program since before World War II when it went 8-0 on the road in 1934.
➤ The winning percentage of .813 in 2017 was the previous best. It was also the last time Carolina won all five ACC road series in the same year.
➤ They got to this point in large part thanks to sweeps in their first two ACC series on the road. It was only the second time the program had done that since the three-game series format was adopted in 1990.
➤ Previously, UNC had lost its first true road game of the year in each season from 2018-2024.
➤ The previous best under Forbes was a 12-6 mark in 2025.

NEW FACES SAME STANDARD

➤ The Carolina offense heavily features new faces, as the team looks to replace 76.3% of its scoring from 2025. Gavin Gallaher is the only returner to have started more than half the games.
➤ So far, 76.3% of the 539 runs produced by the Heels have come from newcomers.
➤ The first to make his name was Jake Schaffner, the new starting shortstop in from North Dakota State, whose bat has popped in the leadoff spot. He leads the team in runs scored and steals.
➤ With 82 runs on the year, he sits just six shy of tying Vance Honeycutt's program record of 88 in 2024.
➤ He currently sits atop in the ACC in triples with seven. The UNC record is eight by Brian Goodwin in 2010 and Rip Ryan in 1949.
➤ Erik Paulsen, new from Stony Brook, brings both elite bat and glove to first base. He is close to eclipsing his previous career home run total (13) with 11 this year alone and was named an ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Finalist.
➤ He and Schaffner both won Defensive Player of the Year awards from the CAA and Summit League, respectively, in 2025.
➤ George Mason transfer outfielder Owen Hull started slowly at the plate (2-22), but has come on strong to lead the team in batting average. Since his three -hit outing against NC A&T (58 games ago), Hull is slashing .427/.520/.661 with 35 extra base hits, 54 runs scored, and 84 RBIs.
➤ Hull's 84 RBIs is closing in on the program record of 91 set by Colin Moran in 2013.
➤ The Heels plucked their starting third baseman Cooper Nicholson from Iowa Central Community College and the Midwesterner has found a home in Chapel Hill. He leads the team in home runs (16) and continues to improve by the week.
➤ Duke transfer Macon Winslow has quickly gotten comfortable in the better blue. He has hit a career high 10 home runs this year.
➤ Winslow was responsible for an 11th inning homer in the finale against Indiana that gave UNC its first opening-weekend walk-off win since 2020.
➤ His catching partner Colin Hynek has started almost every game, switching with Winslow between DH and C.
➤ Hynek knocked what he described as "the first triple I've had in my life" against Indiana before adding two more this year.

DOUBLE 'EM UP

➤ Carolina's defense has been one of its biggest strengths in the 2026 season, as the Heels hold the ACC's best fielding percentage (No. 7 NCAA).
➤ Currently at .983, it is on pace to be the best fielding percentage in program history if it were to stand.
➤ One of their biggest weapons this year has been the double play. UNC currently has the 4th most DPs in the NCAA and the most in the ACC with 60.
➤ On three different occasions this season the Heels have successfully turned a double play three times in one contest. They have converted multiple DPs in 16 games and had at least one in 41/66.
➤ A lot of credit for the defensive efficiency can be given to the men up the middle. Gallaher and Schaffner have been a part of 38 and 34 of the double plays, respectively.
➤ Gallaher leads all second basemen in the nation in Defensive Runs Saved with a 19.37 rating and is fourth overall, putting him ahead of all other non-catchers.
➤ Carolina has also gotten seven DPs from their outfield, including a rare unassisted two-out play from Owen Hull on a line drive to center against Cal.

AROUND THE HORN

NON-CON COMBAT

➤ The Heels have compiled a 129-37-1 (.775) record in games against non-ACC opponents under Forbes. This team is currently 28-3-1 out of conference.

➤ Last season, they were 25-4 against out of conference foes. The 2024 team was 24-6.

➤ Since 2020, UNC has won (or split) 13 of its 14 three-game non-conference weekend series with a 33-7-1 mark in that span.

➤ Forbes vs. out of conference foes:

- Big 12: 8-3
- Big 10: 7-3
- SEC: 9-8
- American: 17-8-1
- A10: 10-1
- ASUN: 2-0
- Big East: 5-2
- Big South: 13-0
- CAA: 31-2
- CUSA: 1-3
- Horizon: 0-1
- Ivy: 3-0
- NEC: 7-0
- Patriot: 1-0
- Pac 12: 1-1
- SoCon: 3-1
- Sun Belt: 8-5

NO PLACE LIKE THE BOSH

➤ The Tar Heels have won 77.6 percent of their home games under Scott Forbes, going 174-50-1.

➤ The 2025 squad racked up a 29-9 (.763) home record, winning five of seven series.

➤ The Tar Heels boasted a 37-3 record at Boshamer Stadium in 2024, winning a program record 92.5 percent of its games at home.

➤ It was the 13th time in program history the Tar Heels won 30 or more home games.

➤ Originally opened in 1972 before reopening in 2009 after a $26 million renovation, the Bosh has been the site for many magical memories. Since '09, the Heels have hosted 10 regionals and eight supers in their palace affectionately referred to as the "Augusta National of College Baseball."

EIGHT HEELS EARN ACC HONORS

➤ Carolina led the conference in All-ACC awards with eight Tar Heels earning end of year recognition.

➤ Caden Glauber was named the ACC Freshman of the Year, the eighth UNC player and second pitcher to earn the distinction since its inception in 1991. Aaron Sabato was the most recent winner as a DH in 2019 with future big leaguer Daniel Bard the most recent Carolina pitcher back in 2004.

➤ Joining him on the All-ACC First Team were Jason DeCaro, Owen Hull, and Jake Schaffner, giving the Heels 124 all-time first team selections.

➤ Bullpen ace Walker McDuffie made the second team with Gavin Gallaher, Ryan Lynch, and Macon Winslow included on the third team. Glauber also obviously headlined this year's All Freshman Team.

➤ The eight total honorees were the most of any program and the second most in a single season in Carolina's history. Only the 2024 team had more with 11. It is the most first team members since 2017.

APPOINTMENT TELEVISION

➤ The opener against Louisville was UNC's first game of the season to appear on linear TV. Including tonight against Oklahoma, the Heels have played in 22 cable network contests with 14 on ACC Network, three on ESPN2, and five on ESPN.

➤ Its 22 selections represent a program-high in a single season and far exceed anyone else in the ACC.

➤ Last year, the Heels held a 12-4 record in TV games and were 8-1 in the regular season in such contests.

➤ This year they are 17-4 in their network games.

➤ Game 3 of the Chapel Hill Super Regional against USC was the most watched Supers game of all time.

➤ Carolina's first two games in the MCWS against Ole Miss and West Virginia helped ESPN score the most-watched MCWS opening weekend on record. The contest with the Mountaineers was 3rd most-watched pre-finals game ever.

DYNAMITE BEHIND THE DISH

➤ Carolina's dynamic duo at catcher has been elite offensively and defensively, living up to the billing Coach Forbes gave as one of the best one-two punches behind the plate since Cody Roberts and current undergraduate assistant Brandon Martorano in '17/'18.

➤ Through 66 games, Winslow and Hynek have allowed just 23 steals on 36 attempts for a .348 steals per game rate. That is the second only to the 2016 team (.309) on a per game basis this century.

➤ Their 36 attempts faced is fewest in this number of games played since at least 1999.

➤ And its not like they've faced teams that don't run. The Heels played the ACC's top-3 in stolen bases: Duke, Boston College, and Louisville.

➤ Those three teams, who had 497 attempts between them on the year, went a combined 3-8 against Carolina.

➤ It was BC's only blank weekend of 2026 and it was the fewest for Louisville since 2024. Both BC and Duke set their program's single season records for steals this year.

➤ Carolina leads the ACC in SBA by a wide margin. Louisville has the second fewest allowed with 33.

POTENT (P)NOTABLES

➤ Carolina had four triples in their first two games of the season, it was the team's most in back-to-back contests since March 2015 in a pair of games against Duke and the most triples they've had a in a single series since Long Beach State in March 2017.

➤ Jake Schaffner had two of those triples, the first Heel to have a three-bagger in back-to-back games since Danny Serretti did it against Georgia Tech in April 2022.

➤ At one point between games three and four, Macon Winslow had three straight swings go home run, double, home run.

➤ The series finale against ECU was the first tie for UNC since April 17, 2005, when a 10-inning game against Miami was called early due to a set curfew. Before that, the most recent draw was back in 1989.

➤ Jackson Rose picked off a baserunner in three straight games, the longest streak by a Tar Heel since Adam Warren had four in three games in 2009. It's the most pickoffs for a UNC freshman since Zac Gallen had three in 2014 (s/o Pat James, D1Baseball for the note).

➤ UNC came back to win their series against Boston College and at Clemson despite dropping the opener. It is the first time they'd done that in back-to-back weekends since March 2019.

➤ At the time it happened, 68 relievers had faced Georgia Tech's Drew Burress and Vahn Lackey in the same game. Cam Seagraves is the only one to K both. (s/o Pat James, again).

➤ Carolina scored 22 in the series finale against Duke to put up its most runs since a 25-1 win over Princeton in 2010. It was also the most runs they'd amassed in an ACC game since beating Maryland 23-8 in 2000. It was the 11th time this century scoring 22 or more.

➤ The Heels have been hit by a pitch 115 times this season, far surpassing the team's previous record of 88 set in 2013.

➤ UNC has the lowest percentage of its roster makeup built by transfers of the CWS teams at 24%.

2025 REWIND

UNC PUNCHES 37TH NCAA TOURNEY TICKET
➤ North Carolina qualified for the NCAA tournament for the 37th time in its history and for the eighth year in a row, the longest active streak in the ACC.
➤ The Heels were tabbed as the No. 5 national seed, the first they had ever been given that particular number and the second straight top-5 seeding. It was the 10th time in program history earning a top-10 seed.
➤ Carolina leads the nation in the number of times hosting regionals since 2006, sitting in a tie with Florida State at 13 in that span. It marked the 14th overall time hosting a regional and sixth in the last eight seasons.
➤ Forbes has lead the Tar Heels into the postseason each of his first five season, the only coach in program history to do so.
➤ UNC would go 3-1 in the Chapel Hill Regional to advance to the program's 12 all-time super regional. It was the ninth time Boshamer Stadium played host in the super regional round.
➤ The postseason run came up one win shy of Omaha, as the Heels couldn't quite get past Arizona in the three-game Chapel Hill Super Regional.

TAR HEEL'S CLAIM NINTH TOURNAMENT TITLE
➤ The Diamond Heels ran away with a 14-4 win over Clemson to earn the program's ninth ACC tournament championship, their first since 2022 and second under head coach Scott Forbes.
➤ UNC's offense exploded to amass the program's largest ever margin of victory in a title game. They now sit in a tie for the second most tournament titles in conference history.
➤ Sophomore standout Luke Stevenson earned ACC Tournament MVP honors after mashing two crucial home runs in the first two games of the weekend. Jake Knapp and Jackson Van De Brake joined him on the all-tournament team. Van De Brake's towering three-run shot highlighted an eight-run fifth that sealed the game.
➤ Cardiac Carolina was alive and well in Durham as the team battled back from deficits in both of their final two contests.
➤ The Heels rallied late on Friday night to take a 7-2 win over Boston College in the quarterfinals.
➤ UNC put up seven unanswered runs across the seventh and eighth innings to overcome a two-run Eagles advantage. The crushing blow came once again from Van De Brake, who delivered a two-strike, two-RBI double that tied the game in the seventh.
➤ The team then needed some ninth inning heroics on Saturday night, but came out on top of a back-and-forth affair with Florida State 7-5. Eventually Carolina got a two RBI single from Kane Kepley in the top of the final frame to take their third win over the Noles in the last 10 days.

KNAPP NAMED NATIONAL PITCHER OF THE YEAR
➤ Captain Knapp, back from a season-ending elbow injury the year prior, put together arguably the greatest single season on the mound in program history.
➤ He finished 2025 with a UNC record, perfect 14-0 record to go with a ACC best 2.02 ERA and 88 strikeouts with just 16 walks.
➤ His phenomenal year earned him the College Baseball Foundation's National Pitcher of the Year award as well as ACC Pitcher of the Year honors.
➤ He is the first Tar heel to be named the nation's top arm since Andrew Miller in 2006 and the fifth to win the conference's honor, the first since J.B. Bukauskas in 2017.

FOUR EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS
➤ Knapp and Stevenson highlighted the postseason awards for Carolina, becoming the program's 67th and 68th All-America award winners.
➤ Knapp was a unanimous selection across all six national lists, earning four first-team nods. He and Vance Honeycutt are the only two six-team honorees in Forbes tenure at the helm.
➤ Freshman phenoms Ryan Lynch and Walker McDuffie were also recognized for their incredible debut seasons, giving Carolina two Freshman All-Americans in back-to-back season for the first time since 2007-08.

HISTORY ON THE HILL
➤ Against Gardner-Webb North Carolina baseball did what it had not done yet this century, throwing a no-hitter in its run-rule 11-1 win.
➤ It was the program's first combined no-no since Chris Elmore and Ryan Earey kept Towson off the board in March of 1999. It's just the program's third no-hitter of any kind since at least 1978.
➤ UNC is now one of just three schools to have thrown a no-hitter in both baseball and softball in 2025.
➤ Forbes was a volunteer assistant for UNC's last no-no in 1999. It was the first time being a part of one for pitching coach Bryant Gaines.
➤ Folger Boaz (3.0), Olin Johnson (3.0) and Camron Seagraves (1.0) were phenomenal, recording eight strikeouts and just one walk on the historic night.
➤ While the pitchers were busy shoving on the mound, the Carolina bats were carrying their weight to wrap this game up in seven on Tuesday night. 11 runs on 10 hits powered the Heels to their third run-rule win of the season.

ANOTHER 40 WIN SEASONS FOR FORBES
➤ Sixth year head coach Scott Forbes has his program in a great place, securing 40+ win seasons in three of the last four campaigns.
➤ UNC has won 40 or more games in seven of the last nine seasons and in 17 of Forbes' 25 years as a member of the Tar Heels' coaching staff.
➤ The program now has 27 40-win seasons in its history with its first 40-win season posted in 1983 (42-10).

FOUR HEELS TAKEN IN 2025 MLB DRAFT
➤ North Carolina had two players selected on day one and two more on the final day to give Forbes 21 draftees as head coach.
➤ Stevenson's first round selection highlighted the bunch. Taken 35th by the Seattle Mariners, his selection gave Carolina 26 first-round picks in program history, including 13 since 2006.
➤ He was also the first Carolina catcher to be taken in the first since College Baseball Hall of Famer B.J. Surhoff went 1.01 in 1985.
➤ Kepley followed close behind with an early second round selection by the Cubs. The pair are the first Heels to be selected in the first two rounds of the same draft since 2019.
➤ Aidan Haugh and Knapp followed in the 6th and 8th to the Rays and Cubs respectively. Their selections made it the most Tar Heels taken in the first eight rounds of a draft since 2015.

Carolina 2025 MLB Draft Picks

Player, Pos.	Club	Rd. (Pick)
Luke Stevenson, C	Seattle Mariners	1st (35)
Kane Kepley, OF	Chicago Cubs	2nd
Aidan Haugh, P	Tampa Bay Rays	6th
Jake Knapp, P	Chicago Cubs	8th

WEEKEND RECAPS

FAMILIAR RUN THROUGH THE REGIONAL
Chapel Hill Regional | 5.29-31 | Chapel Hill
GM1 vs. VCU: W, 8-0 | GM2 vs. ECU: W, 7-5
GM3 vs. ECU: W, 9-3

➤ Carolina won all three of their games in the 2026 Chapel Hill Regional, beating old foes along the way.
➤ They started with a comfortable 8-0 win over VCU on Friday. Ryan Lynch led the way for the shutout with 7.0 innings of two hit ball with five strikeouts. Erik Paulsen logged three RBIs on a double and a single.
➤ Saturday saw a much tighter game, a 7-5 victory over ECU to break the season tie. Colin Hynek's three-run bomb tied the game in the fourth before UNC scored seven unanswered. Caden Glauber was exceptional in picking up his 10th win, throwing 4.1 IP in relief with eight punchouts.
➤ They won the weekend without the if necessary game for the first time since 2019 with a 9-3 victory over ECU once again. A consistent flow of offense supported good work on the mound to see UNC to a quick win.
➤ Paulsen was named the Most Outstanding Player of the regional after hitting .500 with six RBIs and three doubles. He was joined by Owen Hull, Colin Hynek, Ryan Lynch, and Jake Schaffner on the All-Tournament team.

HEELS FALL ONE GAME SHORT OF ACC TITLE
ACC Tournament | 5.22-24 | Charlotte, N.C.
Quarters vs. VT: W, 10-4 | Semis vs. Pitt: W, 13-5
Championship Game vs. #3 Georgia Tech : L, 6-13

➤ Carolina advanced into the semifinals thanks a 10-4 win over the No. 7 seed Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals on Friday afternoon. Four RBIs from leadoff man Jake Schaffner and some clutch hitting from fellow All-ACC First Team honoree Owen Hull sparked an offense that scored eight of its 10 runs with two outs against them.
➤ Newly crowned ACC Freshman of the Year Caden Glauber picked up the win with a lengthy outing that went 5.1 innings with six strikeouts, three hits, and one run. It was the longest postseason appearance by a Tar Heel reliever since Will Sandy went 5.2 IP in the 2019 Chapel Hill Super Regional.
➤ Saturday saw the Heels win a 13-5 contest over Pitt thanks to a season-high six home runs. Rom Kellis V provided two of them from the nine-hole with UNC amassing 2,327 feet of home run.
➤ Schaffner was a star once again, knocking a double and a triple for the second straight game. He now sits one triple shy of tying the single-season program record with seven in 2026
➤ The Heels racked up their most hits in a game since 2010 and their most in an ACC Tournament game this century with 22 against the Panthers. They came just shy of tying the most by the program since at least 2000. Carolina put up 23 against Southern Miss. in 2009.
➤ UNC came up one game short of going back-to-back when they lost a 13-6 back-and-forth affair with Georgia Tech. It was the highest ranked conference tournament final in the sport in over 10 years.

RIVALRY ROAD SERIES SECURED IN RALEIGH
at NC State | 5.14-16 | Raleigh, N.C.
GM1: W, 9-4 | GM2: W, 17-7 (7) | GM3: L, 2-7

➤ The Heels won their final regular season series by taking the first two games against their rivals NC State on the road at Doak Field.
➤ A competitive opener was highlighted by a five-run fifth inning that helped seal the 9-4 victory.
➤ Jason DeCaro was ultra effective in picking up his 10th win of the season, striking out eight and allowing just four hits. He hadn't given up a run until the sixth where his two walks to that lead off the inning came around to score.
➤ A triple from Carter French led to the first run of the game for UNC before home runs from Tyler Howe and Owen Hull punctuated the win.
➤ The offense would then explode for a 17-7 thrashing of the Pack on Friday night. Three huge innings of five, four, and seven runs secured the series.
➤ The series win gave UNC nine in a row to finish the season, the most ACC series they've claimed in one year since winning all 10 in 2017.
➤ Carolina logged five doubles and three home runs to maximize their production.

HOME SWEEP SECURES 40 WIN SEASON
Pitt | 5.8-10 | Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 4-1 | GM2: W, 12-2 (8) | GM3: W, 7-3

➤ Carolina played host to Pitt for its regular season home finale and came away with their first ACC sweep in the Bosh in 2026.
➤ Jason DeCaro and Caden Glauber threw a combined 8.2 scoreless innings while striking out 12 Panthers to lead the team to a 4-1 win in Friday night's opener.
➤ It was the offense's turn to carry the weight on Saturday when the Heels ran away with a 12-2 run-rule victory, their 13th of the season. Nine hits (five for extra bases), four sac-flies, and seven free passes had the bases busy all afternoon.
➤ Senior Day Sunday resulted in a 7-3 win to complete the sweep and put Carolina at 40 wins for the third year in a row and the 27th time in program history.
➤ Folger Boaz was efficient on the mound in one of his best starts of the year and Colin Hynek powered the Heels at the plate with three RBIs. The Georgia State transfer finished hitting .400 in the series.
➤ The series win gave UNC eight in a row in conference since dropping their opener to Virginia. It was the longest streak of series wins under head coach Scott Forbes and the program's best since 2017.

DIAMOND HEEL DEMOLITION ON TOBACCO ROAD
at Duke | 4.23-25 | Durham, N.C.
GM1: W, 3-1 | GM2: L, 1-3 | GM3: W, 22-5 (7)

➤ Carolina faced off against their historic rivals Duke over the weekend in Durham and came away with their seventh straight ACC series victory thanks to wins on Thursday and Saturday.
➤ Jason DeCaro dazzled on Thursday to lead UNC to a 3-1 win. His second longest outing of the year, DeCaro finished his 7.2 IP with seven Ks, three hits and only one unearned run, scored on an error after he'd left the game. Including his last start vs. Georgia Tech, he's thrown 12.2 innings while giving up just one earned run.
➤ Friday saw another brilliant performance from the Carolina starter as Ryan Lynch racked up a career-high nine strikeouts in a loss where he gave up no earned runs. All three Blue Devil runs were scored on one error.
➤ Saturday was an offensive explosion, as the Heels won 22-5 in their highest scoring game since 2010 and the most they'd put up in an ACC contest since 2000 against Maryland.
➤ After a pair of scoreless frames to start, Carolina put up a crooked number in five straight innings to run away with the game. Duke deployed nine pitchers to try and slow them down, the most UNC had seen this year.

MADE A STATEMENT ON A NATIONAL STAGE
Georgia Tech | 4.17-19 | Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 5-2 | GM2: W, 14-4 (8) | GM3: L, 2-5

➤ Over the weekend it was a battle of No. 3 and No. 2 as Carolina hosted Georgia Tech in the highest ranked matchup of the season in college baseball and the highest in Boshamer Stadium history.
➤ The Heels emerged victorious with wins in the first two games to take the monumental series.
➤ A 5-2 victory led things off on Friday as Jason DeCaro and the Carolina bullpen shut down the highest scoring offense in the nation. Three home runs powered the UNC attack to a massive opening night victory.
➤ Saturday it was all Heels as the home team ran away with a loud 14-4 run-rule on ACC Network.
➤ Three more home runs, highlighted by Owen Hull's second inning two-out grand slam, paired with more excellent pitching from Ryan Lynch and Walker McDuffie secured the marquee series.
➤ GT battled back for a Sunday win 5-2, but the damage had already been done. Carolina had claimed its highest ranked home series win since sweeping No. 1 Virginia in 2011.
➤ UNC's arms were the story of the weekend, holding the highly touted Yellow Jacket offense well below their season averages in a number of categories (s/o to Grace Nugent, Inside Carolina for the note idea):

Category	Before	In Series	After
Batting	.362	.240	.354
Slugging	.630	.333	.620
On-Base	.477	.357	.470
Runs/G	11.2	4.7 (11 total)	10.7

GOT THE BOSH BUMPIN
➤ It was an electric atmosphere at Boshamer Stadium the weekend the Heels took on Georgia Tech.
➤ Friday night's crowd of 4,357 was the largest in the regular season in the stadium's history.
➤ Coaches and players alike gave credit to the energy the fans brought to helping them win the series. All three games were sold out and it showed.
➤ The combined attendance of 11,720 across the three days was the program's best over a weekend since 2009 when the stadium reopened after being renovated.
➤ That number came just 11 people shy of the record set in '09 during a sweep of No. 7 Miami.
➤ On the field, it was the first top-3 series for UNC since 2008 when it had two. No. 2 ranked Carolina won weekends against No. 2 Florida State in Cary and at No. 1 Miami in Coral Gables that year.
➤ With the Heels' '08 contests being played in Cary at the USA Baseball National Training Complex, the series against GT became the highest ranked regular season match up in the Bosh's storied history.

TAMED THE TIGERS
at Clemson | 4.10-12 | Clemson, S.C.
GM1: L, 5-9 | GM2: W, 6-4 (14) | GM3: W, 12-5

➤ For the second straight weekend, Carolina came away with an ACC series win despite losing in the first game. It was a reverse sweep for UNC with a 14-inning marathon win on Saturday afternoon before a controlled 12-5 victory on Sunday.
➤ It was the first time the road team had claimed a series between the two programs since 2012.
➤ Friday's game was close for the fist half until Clemson four in the fifth to run out to a 9-5 win.
➤ Saturday's nearly 5 hour affair was highlighted by a Tyler Howe squeeze bunt that scored two and 6.0 shutout innings from Caden Glauber to finish it.
➤ Sunday was all Heels as a Gavin Gallaher first inning home run got the ball rolling for a season-high in hits (16) as Carolina became the third team in the country to hit 30 wins on the year.

WEEKEND RECAPS

SENT THE BIRDS BACK NORTH

Boston College | 4.2-4 | Chapel Hill
GM1: L, 1-6 | GM2: W, 5-2 | GM3: W, 8-7

➤ Carolina hosted Boston College and came away with a series win despite dropping the opener on Thursday night. 5-2 and 8-7 victories on Friday and Saturday gave UNC its fourth straight ACC series.

➤ The last time the Heels dropped game one and still won the series was at Duke in 2024, a weekend that helped Carolina lock up the ACC Coastal Division title.

➤ In Friday's bounce back game, UNC took an early lead off early RBIs from Jake Schaffner and Gavin Gallaher and never looked back. The trio of Jason DeCaro, Caden Glauber, and Walker McDuffie held BC without a hit until 7.2 innings of this game had already been thrown and just three total on the day.

➤ Down four in the finale, Carolina needed five unanswered runs and lock down pitching down the stretch to take the series. Owen Hull knocked the game winning single in the seventh that rewarded excellent work from Jackson Rose and Walker McDuffie who threw the final 3.2 frames and combined to surrender just one hit and no runs with four strikeouts.

NEVER NEEDED THE LUCK OF THE IRISH

at Notre Dame | 3.28-29 | South Bend, Ind.
GM1: W, 6-5 | GM2: W, 13-7 | GM3: W, 15-10

➤ Carolina traveled to the heart of the Midwest of the weekend for a showdown with the newly ranked No. 23 Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The result was three key wins for the Tar Heels who now have swept their first two conference road series for only the second time since the three game formatting began in 1990.

➤ The Heels put up 41 hits across the three games in South Bend, their most in a weekend since May 2024 against Louisville and the most on the road since putting up 45 against Boston College in 2017.

➤ The first game of the doubleheader was the closest of the weekend, finishing 6-5 after a wild pitch scored Tyler Howe in the top of the eight for what would be the game winning run. Howe and Nicholson hit solo homers while starter Jason DeCaro racked up a career high nine strikeouts.

➤ A six run sixth propelled UNC to a 13-7 win in game two on Saturday. Erik Paulsen led the way in that one, going 4-6 with two doubles, two RBIs, and two runs scored.

➤ In the series finale, Jake Schaffner set the tone with a leadoff homer and the offense ran from there. Carolina put up 15 runs on 15 hits to complete the sweep.

GOT THE BETTER (OF THE) CARDS

Louisville | 3.20-22 | Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 11-1 (8) | GM2: L, 0-2 | GM3: W, 7-6

➤ Carolina played a tight series with Louisville over the weekend, eventually coming from behind on Sunday to win two of three in dramatic fashion.

➤ Friday, in UNC's first night game of the season, the arms and bats combined for a convincing 11-1 eight inning run-rule capped off my Cooper Nicholson's two-run homer to end it.

➤ The Cards took Saturday's contest 2-0 in a pitcher's duel. The teams combined for just eight hits.

➤ Sunday was swung by a massive five-run eighth for Carolina that propelled them to a 7-6 win to take the series. Erik Paulsen's bases-clearing double was the difference maker. UNC scored all of its runs with two outs.

➤ The Heels kept Louisville's potent offense, that came in as fourth highest scoring in the nation, quiet all series. Nine runs was the fewest for the Cards in a weekend since May of 2023.

➤ It was also the least stolen bases Louisville recorded in a series (1) since March of 2024.

BROUGHT THE BROOMS TO THE BAY

at Cal | 3.13-15 | Berkeley, Calif.
GM1: W, 8-1 | GM2: W, 6-2 | GM3: W, 10-2

➤ Carolina traveled out to Berkeley, Calif., for a showdown with the red-hot Cal Golden Bears, the first road trip of the season for Forbes team, and they emerged with an impressive sweep.

➤ Outscoring the home team 24-5 across the three games, UNC picked up their first road sweep since 2024.

➤ Friday night saw the Heels take an 8-1 win in the opener. Elite outfield defending paired with an efficient one-run night from Jason DeCaro on the mound got the weekend off on the right foot.

➤ Saturday ace Ryan Lynch kept the ball rolling in a 6-2 win, going a career long 8.0 IP while holding Cal to two runs on six hits and one walk. He also matched his career best with seven strikeouts.

➤ Sunday's finale was a 10-2 win highlighted by the bats. Carolina had 10 different players reach safely while racking up 10 hits and 11 walks. UNC had double digit hits in all three games.

FINISHED STRONG AGAINST VIRGINIA

Virginia | 3.6-8 | Chapel Hill
GM1: L, 3-13 (7) | GM2: L, 2-9 | GM3: W, 8-7 (12)

➤ The Tar Heels opened ACC play over the weekend at home against Virginia, dropping the first two games before battling back for a 12th inning marathon win in the series finale.

➤ Friday's contest was all Hoo's, winning 13-3 in seven innings to hand Carolina its first ever home run-rule.

➤ The opener of the doubleheader on Saturday was more of a fight, but ultimately ended with Virginia pulling away for a 9-2 win. Gavin Gallaher and Owen Hull got some late momentum back for the Heels with solo home runs to get a spark going before the series finale. It was Hull's first long ball of the season.

➤ The weekend's final game was entertainment enough for the whole series. The 12 inning marathon had five lead changes with Carolina needing game tying runs in both the 9th and 12th just to keep the game alive.

➤ True freshmen were the heroes of the day. Righty Caden Glauber logged career highs in innings pitched (5.1) and strikeouts (8) to quiet the rolling Virginia offense long enough for UNC to tie the game back up. Then it was Tyler Howe who hit a solo shot to tie the game in the 9th before smoking a grounder past a five-man infield in the bottom of the 12th to walk-off the game.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

Le Moyne | 2.27-3.1 | Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 16-3 (7) | GM2: W, 12-2 (7) | GM3: W, 21-1 (7)

➤ The Tar Heels faced DI debutants Le Moyne over the weekend and put together their most dominant weekend series this century, winning all three games via run-rule for the first time in program history.

➤ Carolina has won four straight via mercy rule, also the first time in program history accomplishing that feat.

➤ The 49 total runs was the most UNC has scored in a weekend series since at least 1990.

➤ It also reset the clock on a slew of series best number. UNC's .412 batting average was its best ever in a weekend under Forbes. The 35 hits is the most since 36 in the Louisville series in 2024.

➤ Seven Heels hit over .400 in their ABs against the Dolphins, led by Jake Schaffner (.625), Colin Hynek (.625), and Erik Paulsen (.600). That trio combined for 18 runs, eight extra base hits, and 18 RBIs.

➤ Sunday's finale especially brought the fireworks, as Carolina ran away with a 21-1 victory to secure the sweep. It was the most runs the team had scored in a game since a 21-6 win over Duke in 2021 and the 20-point margin was the largest since a 20-0 win over Virginia Tech in May of 2017.

➤ Biggest highlight was the sixth inning grand slam from Jadyn Nunez, his first collegiate hit. Carolina had not had a pinch-hit grand slam since Jackson Hesterlee did it against Georgia Tech on April 21, 2008.

CAROLINA CLASH

East Carolina | 2.20-22 | Greenville/Durham/Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 10-0 (8) | GM2: L, 3-10 | GM3: T, 3-3

➤ The Tar Heels took part in their annual home-neutral-home series with East Carolina on the weekend with the teams splitting the spoils as the games ended in a rare win-loss-tie.

➤ It was the first tie for UNC since April 17, 2005 when a 10th inning game against Miami was called early due to a set curfew. Before that, the most recent draw was back in 1989.

➤ The weekend started strong for Carolina with a 10-0 eighth inning run rule in the Jungle in Greenville.

➤ Everyone in the lineup recorded a hit and Cooper Nicholson especially was on top of his game, reaching safely in every plate appearance via a home run, a two-RBI double and two HBPs.

➤ But the real star was Jason DeCaro, who was sensational in enemy territory, tossing a complete game shutout with seven strikeouts while only allowing five hits and one walk. Only two ECU runners reached third.

➤ It was the team's first eight inning complete game since Kent Emmanuel against Miami on May 23, 2013.

➤ Saturday's game went ECU's way. Gavin Gallaher's three-run blast to tie it in the third was the highlight, but the Pirates got the runs down the stretch to take a 10-3 victory at the Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

SEE YA LATER HOOSIERS

Indiana | 2.13-14 | Chapel Hill
GM1: W, 9-4 | GM2: W, 12-2 (7) | GM3: W, 4-3 (11)

➤ The Tar Heels took on Indiana in their opening weekend series, completing their second sweep of a power four program to start a season in as many years.

➤ Game one saw a convincing win for the new look Carolina, who started eight new faces in their initial lineup, but still controlled from start to finish to claim a 9-4 victory.

➤ A Saturday doubleheader contained two wins of complete opposite variety. The first game was a 12-2 seven inning run-rule highlighted by a six-run sixth inning that broke the game open.

➤ The second game was a much tighter contest that needed a brutal throwing error from Indiana's second baseman to extend it into extra innings. From there, Macon Winslow's walk-off solo homer in the bottom of the 11th did the rest.
