Nathan Watt

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

HEAD COACH ANDY MCNAB

In his fourth season at the helm in 2024, McNab led the program to four wins and the program's first berth in the Big South Conference Tournament since 2016, earning the No. 6 seed on the final day of the regular season with a 1-0 win at Charleston Southern. Freshman Mercedes McNabb earned Offensive Player of the Week honors on Sept. 23 after becoming the first Bulldog freshman since 2012 to score a hat trick, while McNabb was later named to the All-Conference Second Team along with team captain Anna Doane. Ava Bjorkman-Tracy was selected as All-Conference Honorable Mention, and also named to the All-Academic Team. Bjorkman-Tracy, Daysha Chaney, Addie Cooper, Doane and Shae Hassig also each earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors.

In his third season in 2023, McNab led the program to its first winning season since 2015 as the Bulldogs posted a record of 7-6-4. Asheville also tied a program record this season going seven matches without a loss (Aug. 20-Sept. 23). Asheville collected five weekly awards along the way, beginning with Karlee Benz earning Big South Conference Co-Freshman of the Week honors (Aug. 21) and Lexi Dooley earning Defensive Player of the Week honors that same day. Nao Kawasaki (Aug. 28), Shae Hassig (Sept. 5) and Anna Doane (Sept. 11) would also earn Big South Conference weekly honors throughout the season. McNab also boasted six College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors, and the team earned the United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Award for the second straight season.

In his second season in 2022, McNab coached three All-Conference selections in Azalea Mihalovich (Second Team and All-Freshman Team), Anna Doane (Second Team) and Bronwyn Luitwieler (All-Academic Team). McNab also featured six College Sports Communicators Academic All-District selections on his roster in Jasmine Barry, Ava Bjorkman-Tracy, Carson Bogan, Barrett Eidson, Olivia Lenderman and Luitwieler.

UNC Asheville Athletics announced the hiring of Andy McNab as the head coach of its women's soccer program on Tuesday, May 18, 2021. McNab, who is the sixth head coach in program history for the Bulldogs, was chosen after a national coaching search and spent the last two seasons as the head coach of Barton College.

In his first season leading Asheville, McNab led the Bulldogs to their most conference wins since 2004 (five) and their most overall wins since 2016 (six). After winning three of their last four matches, Asheville went 6-11-1 overall and 5-5 in Big South play. The Bulldogs had three players earn All-Big South Honors in Gillian Oyos (Second Team), Kaiya Boyd (Honorable Mention), and Taylor Gardner (All-Freshman), while Courtney O'Malley was named to the All-Academic squad.

For the past two years, McNab guided Barton College to a 16-8-2 record as the head coach, competing in the NCAA Division II Conference Carolinas. In his first season as head coach (2019), McNab coached the Bulldogs to a 12-6-1 record, going 8-3-1 and reaching the league semifinals. This past spring, Barton College posted an even 4-4-1 record overall in the COVID-shortened season. The Bulldogs outscored and outshot its opponents throughout the course of the year, ranking second in the league in scoring average (2.2) and second in shots per game (17.67).

Prior to his time at Barton, McNab spent six years at Seton Hill University in Pennsylvania, serving as the head coach from 2015-18, helping the program post its best two seasons at the Division II level in 2017 (12-6-1) and 2018 (12-5-1) and while ranking in the top 25 for parts of both seasons. Additionally, McNab served on the United Soccer Coaches Atlantic Regional Committee while at Seton Hill.

McNab, who earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Salem International in 2008, began his coaching career as an assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Greenville (Illinois) in 2009, before returning to Salem as an assistant in 2010-11. A four-year letter-winner with the Tigers, McNab was part of the 2004 WVIAC Regular Season Championship squad and the 2005 and 2006 WVIAC Tournament Championship teams.

A native of Glasgow, Scotland, McNab was a four-year letter-winner at Salem. McNab was part of the one WVIAC Regular Season Championship squad and two WVIAC Tournament Championship teams. In addition, McNab played against the USA and Canada National Teams as part of the Scotland U19 Team.

While at Seton Hill, McNab earned his MBA in 2015 and served on the United Soccer Coaches Atlantic Regional Committee.
