THE OPENING KICK

LUCKY13

➤ Charlotte Football enters its 13th season in program history in 2025 and its 11th competing at the FBS level.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

➤ The Niners have had 14 players make their first starts for an NCAA school this season after Tyler Gibson and Xavier Miles took the first for the first snaps from scrimmage on offense and defense, respectively, last week. Of the 14, eight have made their first start at any level of collegiate football this year.

FILLING THE STANDS

➤ Charlotte has two games with an over-capacity crowd at Jerry Richardson Stadium already this season and has played in front of a total of 97,647 fans in the city of Charlotte. With an average crowd of 15,482 at the 15,314-seat JRS, the 49ers rank fourth among non-Power 4 programs with a 101.10% average capacity percentage this season.

BOOMING KICKS FROM BRONSON

➤ Bronson Long averages 43.46 yards per punt this year, putting him 40th in the country among FBS punters and fourth in program history. He already has 11 punts of 50+ yards this season, which is the fifth-most in a single season in program history.

WAITING ON THE GOLDEN WIN

➤ If your "Golden Birthday" is the day you turn the age of the day of the month you were born on, then Charlotte's next victory will be the program's "Golden Win". The 49ers currently have 48 wins as a program, meaning the next victory will be the 49ers' 49th win as a program.

LAST MEETING

Oct. 10, 2020
Apogee Stadium • Denton, Texas

DENTON, TEXAS — One of only six games played that year due to cancelations from the COVID-19 Pandemic, the last meeting between Charlotte and North Texas came in a 49-21 victory for the 49ers in 2020.

Charlotte put up 599 yards of total offense in the game, which still stands as the second-most yards gained in a single game in program history and the most the Niners have had in a game as an FBS program.

Over 200 of those yards came from Aaron McAllister, whose 214 yards of total offense in the win are the eighth-most any 49er has recorded in a single game in program history. That included a 71-yard touchdown catch, tied for the 14th-longest touchdown play in program history, and a 66-yard touchdow run to tie for the seventh-longest rushing play for a score in program history.

With 11 punts of 50+ yards this year, he has the fifth-most 50-yarders in a season in program history and is just three away from moving into the top three.

RETURN SUCCESS

Looking at the four major aspects of special teams play, Charlotte ranks in the top 35 in three of the four return categories, ranking 10th in kick return defense (14.5), 32nd in punt return yardage (11.7), and 35th in kick returns (23.0). The Niners are one of 14 schools in the country ranking in the top 35 in at least three of the four return categories and one of only three non-Power 4 schools to do so, along with Fresno State and Temple.

PACKING THE STANDS

Niner Nation showed out in the home opener for the Green and White, setting a Jerry Richardson Stadium record with 19,233 fans in attendance. Aided by the construction of 2,400 temporary seats for the game, the attendance surpassed the previous benchmark from 2018 against App State by less than 100 fans and marked just the third time in stadium history that at least 18,000 fans have packed JRS for a game. With two games over capacity at home already this season, Charlotte ranks 20th in the nation with a 101.10% average capacity at home games, which ranks fourth among non-P4 programs.

WAITING ALL DAY FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night's game against North Texas marks Charlotte's fourth and final weekday game of the season. CLT played four non-Saturday games once before, in 2021, which is also the last time the Niners have won on a weekday after a 45-33 victory at FIU on a Friday night that season.

REID THE TACKLING MACHINE

Reid Williford had a monster game at Army, logging 17 total tackles and 12 solo stops - both career-highs. He finished the game tied with Nick Cook from 2015 for the most solo tackles in a single game in program history and tied with Ben DeLuca in 2017 for the second-most total stops in one game, just one behind Martay Mattox's record of 18 total tackles against James Madison in the program's first year of competition in 2013.

GOING FOR TWO DEJA VU

The Niners converted on a pair of two-point conversion attempts against South Florida with passCes from Zach Wilcke to Jake Young for the first time completing multiple two-point conversions in the same game. Young's two completions made him the third 49er to have multiple two-point receptions in their career, joining Hasaan Klugh and Colin Weber. Young and Wilcke also became the sixth and seventh Niners to be involved in multiple two-point successes in their careers, along with Chris Reynolds (3), Klugh (3), Austin Duke, Chris Montgomery, and Weber.

CAN I KICK IT?

Liam Boyd made three field goals in the first half against Rice for a career-high and matched the most field goals any 49er kicker has made in a home game at Jerry Richardson Stadium. It's the sixth time a Charlotte kicker has connected on three field goals at JRS and is one shy of Stephen Rusnak's program record of four field goals made last year at Florida Atlantic.

DOCTOR OCTOPUS

Scoring the eight points not from the foot of Boyd against the Owls was Nicholas, catching a touchdown pass in the fourth quarter before catching the two-point conversion on the ensuing try. The eight-point play is known as an "Octopus" in football circles and is just the third Octopus in program history.

BEST BIRTHDAY EVER?

The first win of the season for Albin and the 49ers also happened to take place on Albin's 60th birthday. Serving as a head coach on his birthday for the first time, Albin joked in the huddle in the fourth quarter that "this is the most exciting birthday I've ever had."

SLINGING THE ROCK

Conner Harrell's 382 passing yards against Monmouth finished as the fourth-most in a single game in program history but the most any Charlotte player and team has passed for in Richardson Stadium history. Overall, Harrell became the fourth different CLT QB to have a 300-yard passing game, just the 14th total 300-yard game the Niners have had, while turning in the 23rd game with a quarterback throwing for 3+ touchdowns.

YOU COMPLETE ME

Harrell also set a program record against Monmouth with an 86.7% completion percentage after going 26-30. He started the game off by completing his first 10 passes, tying for the fifth-longest completion streak in program history while making it back-to-back games with a double-digit completion streak after stringing together 12 completions in a row the week before.

E. JAI MAKING IT LOOK E-Z

Harrell's go-to target against Monmouth was E. Jai Mason, who hauled in all 10 of his targets for 228 yards in the game. It's the third-most receiving yards any player has had in a single game in program history, the fourth 200-yard receiving game CLT has ever had, and made him the third Niner to reach the 200-yard threshold (Austin Duke accomplished the feat twice in 2014).

BACK-TO-BACK DOUBLE-DIGIT CATCH GAMES

Mason's 10-catch effort came one week after teammate Javen Nicholas hauled in 11 catches for 122 yards against North Carolina. Nicholas has the third-most receptions in a single game while Mason is now tied with a pair of Victor Tucker games for the fourth-most grabs in a single game. The duo only trails Austin Duke's two 12-catch affairs from 2014 but Nicholas and Mason made it the first time Charlotte has had back-to-back games with a receiver collecting double-digit passes.

NINER NUGGETS

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Charlotte adopted the nickname "49ers" in honor of the importance of the year 1949. The school was founded in 1946 as The Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina as a temporary institution designed to handle the influx of servicemen returning from the war. In 1949, the state decided that these temporary institutions were no longer necessary and moved to shut them down but Bonnie Cone and her supporters saved the school and Charlotte College was founded in 1949. The school's nickname was the "Owls" in the early days, in reference to the origins as a night school, but the student body voted to adopt the nickname "49ers" in 1961 and then moved to change the school colors from maroon and gray to the current Green and White.

CHARLOTTE COINCIDENCES

Happenstance and a few lucky occurrences relate to the 49er nickname and the Gold Standard motto for the athletic program:

- The 1965 vote to transform Charlotte College to UNC Charlotte passed with a 49-0 tally, with State Senator and ardent University supporter Irwin "Ike" Bell intentionally abstaining to ensure the final vote was 49-0.
- The campus is located on NC Highway 49, more commonly known as University City Blvd in the area.
- The first discovery of gold in the United States occurred in 1799 when 12-year-old Conrad Reed discovered a 17-pound nugget at his family's farm in nearby Cabarrus County - almost 50 years before the California Gold Rush.

VICTORY BELL

Heard every time the 49ers score a touchdown at home, the campus Victory Bell is a staple at every big event on campus. Gifted to Bonnie Cone when the University moved to its current site in 1961, the bell is rung at every commencement ceremony and at every Charlotte home football game.

PICKS UP

A familiar signal from Niner Nation is throwing your picks up with one of your hands. Extending your pinky and thumb away from a closed fist, like a "hang loose" symbol, throwing your picks up is a quick way for Niner Nation to show their school pride.

49TH ACRE

Debuting for the 2023 season, the 49th Acre is a three-acre outdoor complex located a short distance from Jerry Richardson Stadium. The lot can accommodate more than 2,500 students to tailgate before football games and features an 8,000-square-foot entertainment pavilion.

FOURTH QUARTER SING-ALONG

Get ready for every fourth quarter at Jerry Richardson Stadium with a sing-along of "Revival" by Zach Bryan. Chosen by a fan vote before the 2024 season, Bryan's hit will play over the speakers while the words to the song flash across the videoboard for fans to sing along with while shining their flashlights in the sky. Once "Revival" is finished, a short video will play, followed by Mötley Crüe's "Kickstart My Heart" to get everyone's blood pumping for the fourth quarter.

WINNING A SHOOTOUT

The win over Monmouth snapped an 18-game losing streak when Charlotte had allowed at least 30 points in a game. Charlotte's last win before Monmouth when allowing at least 30 in a game came in a 42-41 thriller at Georgia State in 2022. Overall, it was just the seventh win for the Niners when surrendering 30 or more points.

PAYDIRT PARADE

The Niners found the endzone five times in five drives in the second half against Monmouth, outside of the single kneel down play at the end of the game. The 35 points scored after the break are the most second-half points CLT has ever scored in a game and tied for the third-most in a half in program history. It's also just the fourth time Charlotte has strung together five consecutive touchdown drives or scored on every possession in a half, and the sixth time scoring on at least five consecutive possessions, something that hadn't been done since against this week's opponent, Rice, in 2022.

A NEW ERA

Charlotte's 13th season of play begins a new era of football in the Queen City as Tim Albin takes over as the 49ers' fourth head coach. Albin comes to Charlotte after spending the last 20 seasons at Ohio, including serving as the Bobcats' head coach for the last four. Albin led Ohio to three consecutive 10-win seasons and a MAC championship this past fall. Albin coached in 13 bowl games while in Athens and led the Bobcats to victories in the Arizona Bowl and Myrtle Beach Bowl as the head coach in 2022 and 2023, respectively. His three straight seasons achieving double-digit victories marked the first time Ohio had 30+ wins in a three-year stretch and came on the heels of an impressive turnaround of seven wins from his first season as the head coach of the Bobcats. Albin also served as the head coach of his Alma Mater, Northwestern Oklahoma State, from 1997 to 1999, compiling a 25-8 record with the Rangers, including winning the 1999 NAIA National Championship with a 13-0 record on the way to being named the NAIA National Coach of the Year.

WHEREVER YOU MAY ROAM

Albin had quite the following coming to Charlotte, bringing five players and four coaches from his 2024 Bobcat squad with him to the 704. Albin also has another three coaches on staff that he shared time with in Athens but spent 2024 elsewhere.

ROSTER MAKEUP

Charlotte brings 50 players that were on the 2024 roster back into the fold in 2025 and has 57 newcomers on the roster. Captain Jonny King has been with the Niners the longest, first joining the team during the 2020 season. A pair of players, Jalar Holley and Henry Rutledge, joined one year later while four joined in 2022 and seven in 2023 - with the remaining 36 being newcomers a year ago. Of the 57 new players, 34 are coming from other NCAA institutions, seven are joining from the junior college ranks, and 16 are true freshmen out of high school.

STARTING EXPERIENCE

The Niners lost a lot of experience to graduation and the transfer portal last season, with only 21.8% of starts returning to this year's squad. That shakes out as 24.2% on offense and 18.9% on defense. Charlotte is bringing in players with a combined 212 starts at the NCAA level among the newcomers, accounting for 64.4% of the team's 329 total games started on the roster entering the season.

To build chemistry and foster teambuilding across the squad, Coach Albin has introduced the "Five Hs" to understand each member of the program's "why". Each player and the coach has gone around the room detailing their History, their Hero, a Highlight, a Heartbreak, and their Hope.

OH CAPTAINS, MY CAPTAINS

New for 2025 is the institution of season-long captains for the 49ers. A total of 14 players submitted applications to their peers on the team, and after a team-wide vote, five players were chosen to lead the Green and White on the field this season.

R1 RESEARCH CLASSIFICATION

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte received the highest recognition a research institution can earn in February when it was bestowed with Research1, or R1, status by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. Criteria for 2025 R1 status include annual institutional spending of at least $50 million on research and development and awarding at least 70 research doctorates per year - numbers that Charlotte meets and exceeds. Charlotte joins East Carolina, North Carolina (Chapel Hill), NC State, and Duke as the only universities in North Carolina with R1 classification. To commemorate this accomplishment, the football team will wear R1 stickers on the back of their helmets.

BRICK WORTHY

Aligning with the red brick design used throughout campus, Charlotte Football players earn a brick when they have shown exceptional commitment to their teammates and the program. It is one of the highest forms of recognition a player can earn. To date, 73 of the team's 107 players on the roster have earned their brick. The team's Unity Council was the first group to receive their bricks, followed by ones given out after the Spring Game. Another batch was given out on report day of fall camp for those that earned it over the summer while the latest recipients of bricks were awarded theirs following the team's second and final scrimmage this fall.

RICHARDSON STADIUM EXPANSION

The ceremonial pickaxes struck dirt on August 27 for the Jerry Richardson Stadium Expansion, part of Phase 1 of the EverGreen Master Vision. The expansion is for a new tower above the existing press box that will feature premium seating inventory, including suites, loge boxes, ledge seating, an indoor club, and an east and west deck patio space. The tower will also allow Charlotte Athletics to activate the stadium for additional community events and will have year-round usage by Charlotte student-athletes for dining purposes.

Repeat Scores
In Charlotte's limited 13 years of history, there have been 130 unique scores and 14 scores that have happened multiple times. Of those 14, two (27-24 & 34-10) have happened three times as the most frequent final scores in program history. Charlotte is 2-1 in both of those final score outcomes.

How do I read this chart?
The horizontal axis indicates the winning score while the vertical axis indicates the losing score. If that score has happened in program history, a number will be in that box. The darker the box, the more common the score has occurred. Cells shaded below the gold diagonal are impossible scores to have due to the winning score being lower than the losing score.

What is Scorigami?
Scorigami is a concept thought of by Jon Bois in an effort to find unique scores that have never been achieved in an NFL game. Each square represents a different final score and the number in that square represents the amount of times a Charlotte Football game has ended in that score. The concept was brought to college football in 2025 by Ken Landis at UCF.

What is Charlottigami?

Similar to Scorigami but with a Charlotte twist, Charlottigami was created by the Charlotte Strategic Communications office as a Scorigami chart focused specifically to Charlotte. While normal Scorigami only focuses on the end score no matter who wins, Charlottigami takes into consideration the outcome of the game for the 49ers. Put simply, a 28-24 win is different for 49er fans than a 28-24 loss and is reflected as such with two different boxes.

How do I read this chart differently?

The only "impossible" scores at the moment are the scores that result in a tie, denoted by the black line that cuts through the chart diagonally. Every score above and to the right of the line is a Charlotte win, with the greener the box meaning the more frequently that score happens, while everything below and to the left of the line is a loss, with the darker red boxes representing the same thing as the darker green boxes.

RECORD: 1-1

Charlotte has played twice before on October 24, both coming at home, and split those games with one win and one loss. The first game on this date came in 2015 during the program's first season at the FBS level and was a 44-10 loss to Southern Miss on Charlotte's homecoming. The next time October 24 appeared on the football schedule came during the COVID-19 season of 2020 and was one of only two home games for the Niners that season. It was a 38-28 victory for the Green and White over the Miners in that one, thanks to 24 unanswered points to erase a 14-7 deficit.

A two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year and the head coach of the 2024 MAC champions, Tim Albin was named Charlotte's fourth full-time head football coach by Director of Athletics Mike Hill on Sunday, December 8, 2025.

Albin came to Charlotte following four seasons as the head coach at Ohio where he posted a 33-19 record including a 23-9 mark against conference opponents. Over the past three seasons, Albin led the Bobcats to 30 wins including three straight 10-win seasons from 2022-24, and a 20-4 mark vs. MAC foes. The 30 wins marked the most successful three-year run in program history. For his efforts, Albin was named a semifinalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Munger Award given to the nation's Coach of the Year.

The consecutive 10-win seasons were program firsts for an Ohio program boasting over 130 years of college football existence. He has also led the Bobcats to three consecutive bowl game appearances and boasts a 2-0 record in the FBS postseason, winning the Arizona Bowl (2022) and Myrtle Beach Bowl (2023). He was recognized as the league's coach of the year during the 2022 and 2024 seasons.

The 2024 MAC Championship was the program's first since 1968, prior to the creation of the championship game. The 35-point margin of victory over Miami (Ohio) was the largest in the 28-year history of the MAC Championship game while the three points allowed were the fewest allowed in title game history. The Woodward, Okla., native was part of the Ohio staff as either the running backs coach and offensive coordinator or head coach for a 20-year span (2005-24). Over that period, the Bobcats flourished as one of the model programs in the MAC and one of the top in all of the Group of 5.

During his time in Athens, Ohio won six MAC East Division titles while re-writing the Bobcats' offensive record book. All 10 of the top-10 most prolific offenses in program history came during Albin's tenure as did seven of the top 10 highest-scoring offenses.

In the 130 years of Ohio Bobcat football, the program won eight or more games 12 times during Albin's time on staff and just eight times over the previous 110 seasons.

Individually, Bobcat running backs eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark six times during Albin's tenure, of 14 total instances in the history of the program. The top three players for career passing yards, five of the top six in career receiving yards, and three of the top six in career rushing yards all came during Albin's time coordinating Ohio's offense or serving as head coach.

Prior to joining coach Frank Solich to revitalize the Ohio program in 2005, Albin served as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at North Dakota State. During that 2004 season, the Bison's first at the Division I-AA (now FCS) level, Albin's offense averaged 192.4 yards per game on the ground, developed four offensive players into All-Great West Football Conference honorees, and saw the Bison – now an FCS powerhouse – achieve their first-ever FCS national ranking at No. 25.

Albin's tenure with Solich began at Nebraska where he spent four seasons (2000-03) as a graduate assistant for three seasons before a promotion to running backs coach and passing game coordinator in 2003. While working with the Cornhusker tight ends as a graduate assistant, Albin saw Tracey Wistrom develop into a third-team All-American in consecutive seasons (2000-01) and John Mackey Award semifinalist.

His head coaching tenure began, in fact, prior to his graduate assistant days in Lincoln when he spent three seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northwestern Oklahoma State (NAIA), in Alva, Okla. Albin spent six seasons in total (1994-99) on the Rangers' coaching staff, ultimately culminating in a 1999 NAIA National Championship and a perfect 13-0 record while earning NAIA Coach of the Year Honors by Rawlings and American Football Coach magazine.

Not confined to expertise on the gridiron, Albin was also named the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference (OIC) Coach of the Year twice while at NWOSU for his work leading the men's track and field program. While serving as an assistant football coach from 1994-96, Albin also served as the head coach for men's and women's cross country and track and field.

Albin began his climb up the coaching ranks at Northeastern State (Okla.) in 1989 where he won two conference titles as an assistant football coach and two more as head of the men's track program.

As a player, Albin was a three-time All-OIC first-teamer at NWOSU at wide receiver and became the first Ranger to earn All-District IX three times.

Albin graduated from NWOSU with a degree in Business Administration in 1989 and earned a postgraduate degree in Science from Northeastern State in 1991. Albin and his wife, Brooke, are the proud parents of two children - daughter Tori and son Treyce - and grandparents of Callen (Tori).

GAME 1

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
App State	0	17	10	7	-	34
Charlotte	3	0	0	8	-	11

CHARLOTTE -- An early field goal after a remarkable defensive hustle play by Ja'Quirious Conley saw the Niners lead 3-0 in the heart of the Queen City but untimely penalties stalled the offense in a 34-11 loss to App State in the season opener.

Charlotte committed a penalty either before the first play or on the second play of all three of its first-quarter drives, getting behind the sticks and stalling out the offense. The Niners' first points of the game came on a long drive after Conner tracked down a Mountaineer about to score and forced a fumble as the receiver was about to cross the goal line.

App State recovered after falling behind early and won the middle portion of the game, outscoring Charlotte 27-0 in the second and third quarters combined, scoring 13 points alone in the final five minutes of the first half and opening five minutes after the break.

Charlotte scored its lone touchdown of the game on a one-yard pass from Conner Harrell to E. Jai Mason and picked up the two-point conversion on a trick-play pass from receiver Justin Olson to tight end Gus McGee.

North Carolina	10	7	0	3	-	20

CHARLOTTE -- A three-play touchdown drive less than a minute into the contest put North Carolina ahead and the Tar Heels never looked back in a 20-3 victory in front of a stadium-record crowd of 19,233 at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

UNC led 10-0 after the first quarter before Liam Boyd got Charlotte on the board just over two minutes into the second quarter on a 39-yard field goal to extend CLT's streak to 18 consecutive field goals made. That streak unfortunately came to an end before halftime on a missed field goal from Boyd before the Tar Heels drove down the field and found the endzone with 13 seconds left before the break for the game's final touchdown.

Charlotte's defense held firm in the second half, holding the visitors to only 64 total yards after the break and a single field goal.

Javen Nicholas was the bright spot offensively for the Green and White with 11 receptions for 122 yards, catching the third-most passes in a single game in program history while becoming just the second player in program history to record at least 11 receptions in a single contest. Conner Harrell at one point threw 12 consecutive completions in the first half, the second-most consecutive completions any CLT QB has had in one game.

GAME 3

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Monmouth	7	7	7	14	-	35
Charlotte	0	7	21	14	-	42

CHARLOTTE-- Charlotte and Monmouth combined for nearly 800 yards of offense through the air but it was the 49ers who prevailed in a 42-35 game for Charlotte's and new head coach Tim Albin's first win of the season.

Conner Harrell spun a gem at quarterback, setting a program record with an 86.7 completion percentage from 26 completions on 30 attempts for 382 yards and three touchdowns. It was the fourth-most passing yards a CLT QB has had in a single game in program history and set a Jerry Richardson Stadium record. Harrell also added two touchdowns from 47 yards on the ground to become the first Charlotte player in the last four seasons to account for over 400 yards of total offense. Harrell started the game by completing each of his first 10 passes, making it back-to-back weeks that he has completed double-digit passes in a row.

Harrell's favorite target in the win was E. Jai Mason, who hauled in all 10 of his targets for 228 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the game. Mason became the third different player in program history to post a 200+-yard receiving game while turning in the third-most receiving yards in a game in program history. One week after Javen Nicholas caught 11 passes from Harrell, this marked the first time in program history Charlotte has had a receiver grab 10+ catches in two consecutive weeks.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Rice	7	7	7	7	-	28
Charlotte	3	6	0	8	-	17

CHARLOTTE -- Charlotte opened conference play in its third year in the American Conference with a 28-17 loss to Rice.

The Owls used a ground-and-pound attack with the triple option on the way to 255 rushing yards in the contest, the most the Niners have given up in a game all season. The 'middle eight' of the game hurt the Niners again in week four as Rice scored inside of the two-minute timeout and then found the enzone again early in the second half to retake the lead before the break and then extend the lead coming out of the locker room.

Liam Boyd was called on early and often in the first half, making three of his four field goal attempts before the break to account for all nine of Charlotte's points at halftime and match the most field goals a Niner kicker has made at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

GAME 5

Charlotte	0	7	3	16	-	26
South Florida	23	10	0	21	-	54

TAMPA, Fla. -- A fast start from 23 points in the first quarter by South Florida proved to be too much for Charlotte Football to handle in a 54-26 loss to the Bulls in Charlotte's first road game of the season.

The Niners had their best game of the season in the takeaway department, forcing four turnovers in the contest for the first turnovers forced of the season since the opening game against App State and the most turnovers forced in a game since getting four takeaways against Memphis in 2023.

CJ Stokes found the endzone for the first time this season with a rushing touchdown in the second quarter to get Charlotte on the board before two more TDs in the fourth. The Niners went for two on both scores, and were successful each time with a pass to Jake Young, for the first game in program history converting on multiple two-point attempts in the same game.

Zach Wilcke had both touchdown passes after entering the game in the second quarter, going 14-18 for 150 yards with his two scores to tie for the fifth-best single-game completion percentage in program history (.778).

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- Struggling to get the offense going until late, Charlotte Football lost 24-7 to Army in its second consecutive season facing a service academy on its homecoming game after battling Navy in a similar situation last year.

The Niners were staring at their fewest yards gained in a game heading into the fourth quarter against the Black Knights, with only 81 net yards gained after three quarters before outgaining Army 97-39 in the final 15 minutes. That also brought around the only score for the 49ers when Grayson Loftis found KD Hunter-Gibson in the endzone with less than 10 seconds remaining to get the Green and White on the board.

Charlotte also blocked a kick for the first time since 2022 with a field goal block in the fourth quarter while Reid Williford logged 17 total tackles with 12 solo stops to match the program record for solo tackles in a single game and finished tied for the second-most tackles in a single game by a 49er defender.
