THE COURTNEY BREAUT FILE

COURTNEY BREAUT

1ST SEASON · NEBRASKA '13

On June 24, 2024, Charlotte Director of Athletics Mike Hill announced the hiring of Courtney Breault as head softball coach.

"Courtney Breault is a highly accomplished coach and player who is the perfect fit to lead Niners softball," said Hill. "From her experience playing for Nebraska in the Women's College World Series to her outstanding coaching success at Clemson and Furman, she has the confidence and energy required to take our championship program and lead it to even greater heights. She is a fantastic recruiter, teacher, and most importantly, a coach who builds strong relationships with her student-athletes."

"Her fearlessness will translate onto the field, and Niner Nation will love watching this program blossom under her leadership."

Breault comes to Charlotte after serving as an assistant coach at Clemson for the past five years where she worked primarily with the Tigers' infielders and served as the program's recruiting coordinator. Breault helped guide Clemson's program, which began in 2020, to NCAA Regional appearances in each of their four full seasons in existence and back-to-back Super Regional berths in 2022 and 2023.

"I am extremely honored to have been chosen to lead the Charlotte softball team into this next chapter," said Breault. "I want to thank Director of Athletics Mike Hill and Executive Associate Athletic Director Chris Thomasson for their belief in me and their commitment to the success of the Charlotte softball program. I'm excited to get to work and build on the tradition of excellence."

In 2024, the Tigers ranked top-40 in the NCAA in home runs per game and on-base percentage and finished 26th in scoring (5.91 runs per game). The team had seven All-ACC selections, in addition to a pair of National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Americans in pitcher/utility player Valerie Cagle and infielder Maddie Moore.

In 2023, Clemson advanced to the Super Regionals for the second straight year and finished top-10 in the national polls with a 49-12 record. Breault played a helping hand in developing Cagle, the 2023 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, ACC Player of the Year, and NFCA First Team All-American. She also tutored five players who earned All-ACC laurels. The Tigers led the ACC in on-base percentage (.409) and scoring (6.08) and finished top-25 nationally in eight offensive categories.

In 2022, Clemson hosted their first-ever regional and advanced to the Supers after defeating a ranked Auburn team and mid-major power Louisiana. The Tigers also won the ACC regular season championship in 2021 in just their second year as a program.

Prior to Clemson, Breault served as an assistant coach at Furman from 2014-17. She helped guide the Paladins to three straight 30-win seasons and a share of the Southern Conference championship in 2017. She played a key role in developing AnnaRose Borrelli, the program's all-time home run leader, and produced a conference player of the year and freshman of the year.

A native of Roseville, Calif., Breault spent two years playing at Nebraska (2012-13) where she was a two-time All-Big Ten Second Team honoree and three-time scholar-athlete honor roll selection. As a senior in 2013, she helped the Cornhuskers to their first appearance in the Women's College World Series in a decade.

Breault began her playing career at Arkansas (2010-11) where she was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2010. She also garnered two SEC Academic Honor Roll selections.

Breault graduated from Nebraska in 2013 with a degree in Business Management. She completed her education with a Master's in Athletic Leadership from Clemson in 2021.

Outfield transfer Serena Smith led team in batting average (.363), hits (62), and RBI (37)... Jeffery, Smith, and Sarah Malene tabbed First Team All-Atlantic 10 members, and Malene and Smith also named to All-Academic Team.

2010 (40-18): Emily Jeffery struck out 342 batters, improving on her own single-season Charlotte record by 48... The 40 wins mark the third most in school history... Niners go 15-5 in conference play and seniors Keri Palma (utility), Serena Smith (outfield), and Jeffery received All-A10 honors... Outfielder Briana Gwaltney named to All-Freshman Squad... Outfielder Kendra McCall led team with a .355 batting average and outfielder Whitney Williams breaks single-season record after swiping 40 bags.

2011 (30-24): Senior pitcher Katy Hackett won 21 games, compiling an ERA of 1.89 to propel the 49ers to their sixth-consecutive 30-wins or better season... Catcher Tenaya Tucker led team offensively, batting .388 with 47 RBI on 66 hits... Tucker set a new school record with 12 homers and added 17 doubles, earning a spot on the All-Conference Team along with Bri Gwaltney, Hackett, Whitney Williams and utility player Kalie Lang is named to the All-Rookie squad... Charlotte's season ended in a 3-2 11-inning loss to Saint Joseph's in the A10 Tournament.

2012 (29-26): Charlotte captured its 11th 20 win season in program history as outfielder Bri Gwaltney, then a junior, performed a record-setting season, shattering the career record in HRs (28) and the single season mark (14)... Gwaltney earned All-Atlantic 10 recognition along with rookies Alex Rogers (outfield) and Lexi Betancourt (pitcher)... Rogers posted a .313 average (third-best on squad) and Betancourt won 14 games with three shutouts as the 49ers finished fifth in the conference tourney.

2013 (24-26): Niners recorded their 8th straight 20-plus win season... Infielder Natalie Capone led in BA and hits... Freshman outfielder Jessica Plemmons claims A10 All-Rookie team honors after a stellar season of a .350 clip and 49 hits with a team-high 14 doubles... Catcher/infielder Chelsea Ingersoll earns All-A10 Second Team recognition... Charlotte finishes ninth, narrowly missing the conference tournament.

2014 (20-29): Charlotte returns to Conference USA and records its ninth straight 20-plus win year... Lexi Betancourt notched 19 wins in the circle with a 2.20 ERA while fanning 211 batters... Catcher Jackie Kleinsmith leads club with a .349 batting average, posting 51 hits, and was second on the squad with nine doubles and 32 RBI... Infielder Samantha Slade led team in runs scored (33) and doubles (11)... Charlotte reaches C-USA Tournament and draws the No. 8 seed, facing nationally ranked Tulsa in the first round, where they fell 1-0.

2015 (24-27): The Niners reached the C-USA Tournament for the second straight year after a thrilling extra-inning walk-off win against FIU on Senior Day... Again, Charlotte drew the No. 8 seed, facing regular-season champs WKU, whom they lost to again 1-0... Infielder Chelsea Lisikatos led the team offensively with a .295 average and banded 10 homers... The Niners broke a single-season record for home runs, blasting 36... Freshman infielder Haley Pace starts every game and registered a team-high .548 slugging percentage with a second-best seven homeruns... Jessica Plemmons records team-best 30 RBI... Lexi Betancourt picks up 18 wins with a 2.59 ERA and pitches her first career no-hitter in March, a 3-0 win against Elon en route to earning Second Team All-C-USA recognition... She and infielder Natalie Capone are also named to the All-Academic Team.

2016 (32-23): Starting the season scorching hot with an 11-0 record, the Niners tallied their first 30+ win season since 2011, but had an up and down year in which they finished with an 11-13 record in conference play and missed the C-USA tournament for the first time since 2013... Senior Lexi Betancourt earned 20 victories with a 2.64 ERA on the mound to earn 2nd team All-C-USA... Emma Ocker broke the freshman record for runs scored at 39 to earn 1st team All-C-USA and C-USA All-Freshman... Betancourt and Haley Pace were tabbed as the programs 2nd and 3rd Academic All-Americans... Grace Beatty was one of four players to earn NCCSIA All-State honors... Six freshman played a huge role, playing in at least 22 games each.

2017 (30-23): Recorded the second consecutive 30+ win season, but finished with an 11-12 record in conference play, making the Conference USA Tournament after failing to do so in 2016. Junior infielder Haley Pace led the 49ers in batting average (.433), runs scored (53), hits (71), triples (5), home runs (15), RBIs (47), slugging percentage (.841) and on-base percentage (.487). She set single season program marks in batting average, slugging percentage, hits, runs scored and home runs. Pace earned All-Conference USA First Team honors, while junior pitcher Haley Wiseman garnered second team accolades. She appeared in 40 of the teams 53 games, starting 37, including 26 complete games. She tossed 224.0 innings, posting a record of 23-15, with ERA of 4.54. Wiseman recorded four shutouts and struck out 212 batters, while holding opponents to a batting average of just .226.

2018 (18-32): Senior shortstop Haley Pace completed her record-breaking career and the 49ers dedicated Jani-King Field/Susan M. Daughtridge Stadium as head coach Aimee DeVos notched her 600th career win. Pace, who was named first team all-Conference USA for the second straight year, completed her career with school records for hits (234), home runs (39), RBI (158), runs scored (144) and slugging pct. (.630). She earned CoSIDA First Team Academic all-America honors and batted .348 with a team-high eight homers and 36 RBI in her final season. Senior Bailey Rhoney, who led the 49ers with a .360 batting avg., was named Second Team Academic all-America. Senior pitcher Haley Wiseman (12-19; 2.87 ERA; 191 Ks) earned second team all-C-USA honors for the second straight year and became the fifth Charlotte pitcher to record 500 career strikeouts. She finished with 557 punch-outs in her three seasons to rank fourth in school history.

2019 (15-35): Sophomore Katie Manring was named the Conference USA Newcomer of the Year as she recorded a team-leading .345 batting average, 14 home runs, 44 RBIs, 99 total bases and .683 slugging percentage (ranks first all-time in Charlotte history). Manring also earned a spot on the C-USA All-Academic Team. Freshmen Bailey Vannoy and Imani Rochelle also set freshman records. Vannoy's .331 batting average, 22 RBIs and four home runs and Rochelle's 20 RBIs and 10 doubles all rank in the top-10, single season freshman records list. Meredith Harris' 34 career doubles ranks sixth all-time in Charlotte career history. The team ranks fourth overall in season doubles (72), second in home runs (33), fourth in total bases (568), second in slugging percentage (.433) and third in on base percentage (.360).

CHARLOTTE SOFTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

2020 (14-13): In a season shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic, it wasn't short of successful. In Ashley Chastain's first season as head coach of the 49ers, she helped the team to its first ever series win versus conference foe Florida Atlantic and picked up her first win as head coach against App State, 9-5. Sophomore Bailey Vannoy had a tremendous season at the plate, where she batted .480 (75 ABs), with 36 hits, six doubles, 12 home runs, 36 RBIs and a slugging percentage of 1.093. Vannoy ranked first in the nation in home runs, second in RBIs, slugging and total bases and 13th in on-base percentage with (.576). She also broke the school record in single-season batting average, slugging and on-base percentages. Freshman Madelyn Wright had a stellar season in the circle and at the plate as she ranked 10th in the nation in strikeout to walk ratio (7.50) and currently ranks first in single-season freshman history in batting average (.394).

2021 (31-19): In Ashley Chastain's second season at the helm, the Niners had their most successful season since 2010. The team finished with a 31-19 record and won its first C-USA East Division title in program history. The team also qualified for its first C-USA conference tournament since the 2017 season. Junior Bailey Vannoy was the first Charlotte softball athlete to be named C-USA Player of the Year, finishing the season with a .387 batting average, 13 homers, 36 RBI, and finishing tied for second in the nation in doubles with 23. Lindsey Walljasper led the Charlotte in the circle, as the pitcher finished the season with a 3.07 ERA and 15 wins. Five Niners collected All-Conference USA accolades, with Vannoy and Kourtney Gremillion named First Team All C-USA, while Nicole Bowman and Madelyn Wright garnering Second Team All C-USA distinction. Along with Madelyn Wright, Cori Henderson received C-USA All-Freshman recognition.

2022 (35-23): Bailey Vannoy once again led the Charlotte softball team to another successful season under head coach Ashley Chastain. Not only was Vannoy named C-USA Player of the Year for the second year in a row, the senior was also named Second Team All-American becoming the first Charlotte softball player to receive All-American recognition. Vannoy set single season records in hits (74), home runs (24), RBI (58), and runs scored (60). Vannoy also became the career leader in both runs scored (149) and home runs (53). Ella Chancey had an amazing freshman season for the Niners as she broke single-season freshman records in home runs (11) and RBI (38). Chancey was named to the 2022 Extra Innings All-Freshman team, while also being named to C-USA Second Team All-Conference and the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Catcher Stacy Payton joined Vannoy on the C-USA First Team list, while McKayla Frazier was named to the C-USA Second Team list.

2023 (35-23): Charlotte had one of its most successful seasons in program history, which culminated in the program's first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Niners finished with a 16-7 record in Conference USA to earn first outright regular season conference championship in program history. The 49ers also defeated three ranked opponents (#11 Virginia Tech, #13 Georgia Tech, and #23 Arizona State), all of which were happened on the road. This marks the first time that a Charlotte Softball team has defeated three ranked opponents in a single season. Four Niners were named First Team All-Conference USA (Ashleigh Washington, Bailey Vannoy, Cassidy Krupit, Sam Gress), which led the conference in 2023. Gress also took home the Newcomer of the Year Award during the season. Gress and Krupit also were named NFCA First Team All-Region selection, as both transfers made their mark in their first seasons in Charlotte. The Niners picked up their first-ever NCAA Tournament victory over Campbell by a score of 7-2 in their first game in the Durham Regional. In their first foray into the NCAA Tournament, the Niners made an appearance in the Regional Final against regional host #8 Duke. The Niners finished with a record of 2-2 in the regional.

2024 (39-18): In their debut season in the American Athletic Conference, Charlotte put together another historic year that saw them win their first conference tournament title in program history and make the NCAA Regionals for the second consecutive season. The Niners went 39-18 and 21-6 in The American to win a share of the conference regular season championship. The 39 wins were the fourth-most ever, while the 21 conference victories set a program record. CLT put together a school-record 16-game winning streak from April 12-May 11, culminating with a 10-1 victory over Wichita State in the AAC Championship Game. The Niners opened the season with an upset win over #4 Florida State, the program's first top-five win ever, and added ranked wins against #14 Kentucky and #12 Virginia Tech. A record seven Niners won all-conference recognition, highlighted by AAC Pitcher of the Year Georgeanna Barefoot and Defensive Player of the Year Lexi Winters at catcher. Barefoot, along with Arianna Rodi and Ella Chancey, were named First Team All-AAC, while Sam Gress and Cori Hoffler earned Second Team honors. OF Olivia Williams was tabbed to the All-Rookie team. In addition, four players record were named to the NFCA All-Region team: Rodi (First Team), Barefoot (First), Gress (Second), and Abigail Knight (Third). Rodi had one of the best offensive campaigns in school history, hitting .353 with 22 home runs and 55 RBI en route to being named a First Team All-American by Softball America.

2025 (30-27): 2025 marked the beginning of the Courtney Breault era for Charlotte Softball. The first-year head coach managed to lead the Niners to their fifth consecutive 30+ win season, and exceed expectations by finishing third in the American Athletic Conference after being picked as preseason eight. While the season may have gotten off to a slow start, the Niners exceeded once conference play rolled around, winning six of nine conference series and sweeping three. The offense was explosive leading the 2025 team to the third-highest slugging percentage and home run totals in program history. The offense was led by 2025 American Athletic Conference Player of the Year, Jenna Lord, who managed to hit 21 homers and slug .865%. Lord led both Charlotte and the American in nearly every batting statistic, and currently holds the Charlotte single season record for RBI (65) and Slugging Percentage (.865%), both of which were previously held by All-American Bailey Vannoy. Lord was not the only postseason honor as infielder Jaylah Jarrell was named American Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year and Kari Shedrick was named All-AAC Second Team. Jenna Lord and Teagan Ritchie were also named to the All-Mid-Atlantic Region teams, with Lord earning second team honors and Ritchie earning third team honors.

CHARLOTTE SLOW PITCH HISTORY

Charlotte had its inaugural slow pitch softball season in 1977. The first season featured only one win. The 49ers picked up its first win on April 1, 1977 defeating Sacred Heart 18-9 in Fairfield, Conn. Pam Bolick pitched the 49ers to its only win of the season. Charlotte finished the season 1-10.

In 1978, Charlotte improved its record from the previous year going 5-13. The 49ers picked up its first win of the season against Guilford 12-4. Charlotte picked up two more wins sweeping Sacred Heart at home 16-0 and 18-0. Charlotte picked up its final two wins of the season winning by forfeit against Saint Augustine's College.

In the third season of the program, Charlotte witnessed its first winning season in program history. Charlotte won 23 games and earning the second overall seed in the NCAAIAW Division II State Tournament. The Niners picked up the first two wins of the season against Saint Augustine's due to forfeits. The Niners first true win of the season came against Winston-Salem State, 16-6. Charlotte rattled off a 19-5 regular season record heading into the State Tournament. Charlotte dropped the first game to Elon 11-4, but bounced back with wins over Winston-Salem State, North Carolina Wesleyan, Pembroke State (UNC Pembroke) and Elon, before falling to Pfeiffer in the finals 12-2.

Charlotte followed up the finals appearance in 1979 by earning the top seed in the 1980 NCAAIAW Division II State Tournament. The Niners finished the season going 22-5 winning its first eight to open the season. Charlotte dropped a double-header to Western Carolina to end the winning streak. The 49ers won 13 of its final 14 games before the NCAAIAW Division II State Tournament. The Niners won the opening round of the tournament against UNC Wilmington, 14-2, before being eliminated dropping back-to-back games by one run.

In 1981, Charlotte hosted the inaugural UNCC Invitational Softball Tournament at Horner's Nest Park. Charlotte kept moving in the right direction winning a season high 29 games. Charlotte opened the season winning 15-2 before losing four straight. The 49ers rattled off 12 more wins heading into the NCAAIAW tournament. Charlotte picked up wins against Methodist and North Carolina State in the opening rounds before being eliminated by Pfeiffer.

Charlotte came back stronger than ever in the 1982 season going 28-22 and advancing to the AIAW Regional Tournament as well as the National Tournament. The Niners picked up win number 100 on April 20, 1982 against Pembroke State (UNC Pembroke), 7-3. Charlotte lost to East Carolina twice during the NAIWA State Tournament but earned a bid to play in the AIAW Regional Tournament. Once again, the 49ers lost to East Carolina and finishing in third. Both teams advanced to the AIAW National Tournament in Graham, N.C. Charlotte grabbed the tenth national seed. Charlotte defeated Cleveland State (6-2), Northern Kentucky (5-4), and getting the best of East Carolina (10-6). The 49ers fell short losing to Florida State (19-4) and Florida (11-6). It was the first appearance in post season play for the 49ers. The Niners were the only Division II team to earn a bid to the AIAW National Tournament.

The 1983 season marked the first season of Division I softball for the 49ers. Charlotte picked up a season-high 31 wins on its way to the NAIWA State Tournament and the National Invitational Tournament. The 49ers advanced to the finals of the NAIWA State Tournament with victories over Appalachian State, Campbell, and Western Carolina. The 49ers struggled against East Carolina losing 4-2 and 4-3 in the finals. The Niners opened the National Tournament with a victory over Capitol 12-0. Charlotte dropped the second round game to South Florida 8-1 but bounced back with a win over Cleveland State 4-1. Charlotte was eliminated from the tournament by Western Carolina, 2-0. The Niners finished seventh in the field of 13. Beverly Crump was named to the NCAAIAW All-State team.

Charlotte took a step back during the 1984 season going 17-15. Despite its record the 49ers took home the UNC Wilmington Invitational title defeating UNC Wilmington in the championship game 9-1. Beverly Crump led the team with a .404 batting average and had 30 RBIs.

In the final season of slow pitch softball for the 49ers, they made their mark posting a season-high 34 wins. The 49ers picked up its 200th and final win of the slow pitch era against Pembroke State (UNC Pembroke), 6-0. Patty Rumble set the school record for wins in a single season going 27-5 in the circle.
