TRUIST

THE GOLD STANDARD

The Gold Standard.

It's how 49ers are measured.
It's what we strive for each and every day.

It's why our athletic programs have won 16 conference championships over the past three years.

It's why we were recognized with the top spot in the Excellence in Management Cup in 2024 for doing more with our resources than anyone else in the country.

It's why we achieved our highest-ever ranking in the Learfield Director's Cup in 2023-24.

It's why Charlotte is classified as a Carnegie R1 research university, the nation's highest research designation.

It's why the Fall 2025 enrollment is the highest in school history at over 32,000.

It's why, last fall, the University earned a spot among the top 100 public universities in the country by U.S. News & World Report.

It's not just a saying.
It's the Gold Standard.

It's Charlotte.

The Fight Song

"Hail, Charlotte 49ers, proud as we can be

We stand to fight for the green and white,

'Til we win the Victory (Go Niners!)

We pledge our trust in you,

And wave your colors high

The loyal Niner Nation cheers,

Forever! We'll Fight-Fight-Fight!"

The Alma Mater

"Hail, University! To you we sing our praise,

May Charlotte's light dispell the night, illumine all our days.

In Carolina's crown the brightest gem we see.

Without your power our finest hour would hold no victory.

So let us love your life and cherish your great name.

To aid your cause, up hold your laws, and your enduring fame.

CREDITS

The 2025 Charlotte Football Media Guide is a publication of the Charlotte Athletics Strategic Communications office. All text and photo content is property of Charlotte Athletics and/or UNC Charlotte or used with permission and may not be reproduced without permission.

Special acknowledgement: Tom Whitestone and all former communications staff members who have contributed to maintaining the history of 49er football.

Editor: Kyle Neaves
Asst. Editor: Joe Templin
Design/Layout: Kyle Neaves, Mark Estes, Zakk Ryherd, Joe Templin
Contributors: Carson Horsley, Camden Cobb, Davis Fields
Photography: Ryan Amstutz, Mark Estes, Sam Roberts, Wade Bruton, Kat Lawrence, UNC Charlotte Photographers, Michael Strauss, 49ers Football photos, Durane Byrd, Tim Cowie.
NFL photos courtesy of the respective NFL teams.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at clt49e.rs/25SingleGameCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved.

Credentials will be screened and issued on a priority basis, with those covering Charlotte and the visiting team on a regular basis receiving top priority. Requests for credentials will be reviewed on a case-by-case, year-by-year basis.

The Charlotte Athletics Strategic Communications office has the final authority on whether any individuals from any organization will be issued media credentials. Complimentary tickets are not provided to the media.

Spouses, dates, equipment carriers and non-working members of the media are restricted from the press box, sidelines and interview areas. Any abuse of a credential to a Charlotte athletic event will result in the immediate removal of the media member from the event and may result in the agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of the season.

Credentials are issued to the individual.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance to Jerry Richardson Stadium is located at the southwest corner of the facility. Media members may also pick up their credential, if necessary, from the will call window in the adjacent box office.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: Post-game press conferences are held on the second floor of the Judy Rose Football Center. After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Tim Albin and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers and videographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelancers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the communications office of the participating schools.

Credentials are issued for the purpose of media coverage only, and images and video of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Charlotte Athletics.

Photographers and videographers working on the sidelines of Jerry Richardson Stadium will be required to have a photographer's bib. These can be checked out from the work room on the second floor of the Judy Rose Football Center.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers and videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

FIELD AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Photographers and videographers are allowed access to the playing field at only two points throughout the course of the event: when the 49ers enter the field immediately prior to kickoff and immediately following the game.

Charlotte's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Tuesday during the season, with the exception of the bye weeks, head coach Tim Albin holds his weekly press conference beginning at 11:30 a.m. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Charlotte Athletics.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for media to attend on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday for the first 30 minutes of practice during the individual and stretch portions.

Interviews with student-athletes and assistant coaches will be conducted at the conclusion of practice. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. When attending practice, please contact Joe Templin prior to entering the facility.

CHARLOTTE FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

New for 2025, the 49ers are partnering with WFNZ as the primary home over the airwaves for Charlotte Athletics. WFNZ (92.7 FM) will air the majority of Charlotte Football and Basketball contests, with others carried by local iHeart Radio Stations in the Queen City. Every football, basketball, and road baseball game will have a radio streaming option available on Charlotte49ers.com/watch as well.

The radio crew for 49ers football is made up of the longtime Voice of the 49ers, Matt Swierad, providing play-by-play and former Carolina Panther Al Wallace as analyst. Bobby Rosinski serves as the sideline reporter.

Media Coverage

The Charlotte 49ers also receive significant coverage from local media outlets, including The Charlotte Observer, which is the nation's 50th largest daily circulation. Local affiliates WBTV (CBS), WCNC (NBC), WSOC (ABC), Spectrum News, WCCB (Independent) and WJZY (FOX) also cover the 49ers in the nation's 22nd largest TV market. UNC Charlotte's student media, The Niner Times, also provides regular coverage. Information is readily available at Charlotte49ers.com. The 49ers are also active on Twitter (@charlotte49ers; @CharlotteFTBL), Facebook, Youtube and instagram.

JERRY RICHARDSON STADIUM

Jerry Richardson Stadium, a 15,000-seat facility was built to be expandable to 40,000 seats, houses the 49ers football program which took the field for the first time in the inaugural 2013 season.

The Football Stadium Complex includes the 15,000 seat Jerry Richardson Stadium, the Judy W. Rose Football Center, McColl-Richardson Field and two practice fields. A 6,636 square-foot press box, complete with media seating, a university box and television and radio booths adorn the west sideline at the concourse level. The field house includes coaches offices and meeting rooms, locker rooms and weight and training rooms as well as a 1,920 square-foot Academic Center, a 2,757 square-foot tiered classroom and a 5,947 square-foot Hospitality Deck.

McColl-Richardson Field, the approximately 98,000 square-foot stadium field, is a synthetic playing surface with inlay graphics and lines. A full length practice field and an 80-yard practice field are set off the east entrance. The Bermuda turf sod practice fields total approximately 145,000 square feet.

Local architect Jenkins Peer Architects and national design firm DLR Group created the stadium design while the Construction Manager was Rodgers PCL Russell.

The stadium was named after businessman Jerry Richardson who not only purchased naming rights with fellow local businessman Hugh McColl in 2011 but also contributed an additional $10 million towards the project.

MCCOLL-RICHARDSON FIELD

The playing surface inside Richardson Stadium is named in honor of Jerry Richardson and fellow local businessman Hugh McColl.

With Charlotte's ties to a rich and successful banking industry in the city, McColl served as the first CEO of Bank of America and was a driving force behind consolidating a series of smaller banks into a super-regional banking force. McColl and his family have been active philanthropists in the Charlotte community for decades.

Richardson, a former NFL player for the Balitmore Colts, founded the Carolina Panthers NFL franchise and served as its owner from 1995 until selling the team in 2018. The Panthers franchise become part of Richardson's portfolio following his retirement serving as the CEO of Flagstar, the sixth-largest food service company in the United States.

McColl-Richardson Field was officially named on Nov. 1, 2011.

PROGRAM TIMELINE

March 2007: Chancellor Dr. Phillip Dubois appoints a Football Feasibility Committed chaired by Mac Everett to study the impacts of the re-introduction to football at Charlotte

February 12, 2010: University of North Carolina Board of Governors unanimously approves the school's funding plan, and Governor Bev Purdue signs a non-appropriated Capital Project bill to give the 49ers the green light to move forward

August 11, 2010: Director of Athletics Judy Rose declares it a "Done Deal" alongside Dubois and student body president Megan Smith to ring the school's victory bell.

August 26, 2010: The school announces the first official football series agreement with Morehead State.

March 1, 2011: Brad Lambert is hired to serve as the program's first head coach.

April 28, 2011: Ground is broken on the construction of the football stadium.

February 1, 2012: First official class of 27 signees is announced.

August 8, 2012: Keys are turned over to Charlotte Athletics to officially take ownership of the football facility.

August 31, 2013: 49ers host Campbell for the inaugural game.

November 30, 2019: Charlotte defeats Old Dominion 38-22 in Norfolk to secure the first winning season in program history.

December 20, 2019: Charlotte plays in their first bowl game in school history, the 2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl against Buffalo.

A two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year and the head coach of the 2024 MAC champions, Tim Albin was named Charlotte's fourth full-time head football coach by Director of Athletics Mike Hill on Sunday, December 8.

Albin came to Charlotte following four seasons as the head coach at Ohio where he posted a 33-19 record including a 23-9 mark against conference opponents. Over the past three seasons, Albin led the Bobcats to 30 wins including three straight 10-win seasons from 2022-24, and a 20-4 mark vs. MAC foes. The 30 wins marked the most successful three-year run in program history. For his efforts, Albin was named a semifinalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Munger Award given to the nation's coach of the year.

The consecutive 10-win seasons were program firsts for an Ohio program boasting over 130 years of college football existence. He has also led the Bobcats to three consecutive bowl game appearances and boasts a 2-0 record in the FBS postseason, winning the Arizona Bowl (2022) and Myrtle Beach Bowl (2023). He was recognized as the league's coach of the year during the 2022 and 2024 seasons.

The 2024 MAC Championship was the program's first since 1968, prior to the creation of the championship game. The 35-point margin of victory over Miami (Ohio) was the largest in the 28-year history of the MAC Championship game while the three points allowed were the fewest allowed in title game history.

The Woodward, Okla., native was part of the Ohio staff as either the running backs coach and offensive coordinator or head coach for a 20-year span (2005-24). Over that period, the Bobcats flourished as one of the model programs in the MAC and one of the top in all of the Group of 5.

During his time in Athens, Ohio won six MAC East Division titles while re-writing the Bobcats' offensive record book. All 10 of the top-10 most prolific offenses in program history came during Albin's tenure as did seven of the top 10 highest-scoring offenses.

In the 130 years of Ohio Bobcat football, the program won eight or more games 12 times during Albin's time on staff and just eight times over the previous 110 seasons.

Individually, Bobcat running backs eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark six times during Albin's tenure, of 14 total instances in the history of the program. The top three players for career passing yards, five of the top six in career receiving yards, and three of the top six in career rushing yards all came during Albin's time coordinating Ohio's offense or serving as head coach.

Prior to joining coach Frank Solich to revitalize the Ohio program in 2005, Albin served as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at North Dakota State. During that 2004 season, the Bison's first at the Division 1-AA (now FCS) level, Albin's offense averaged 192.4 yards per game on the ground, developed four offensive players into All-Great West Football Conference honorees, and saw the Bison – now an FCS powerhouse – achieve their first-ever FCS national ranking at No. 25.

Albin's tenure with Solich began at Nebraska where he spent four seasons (2000-03) as a graduate assistant for three seasons before a promotion to running backs coach and passing game coordinator in 2003. While working with the Cornhusker tight ends as a graduate assistant, Albin saw Tracey Wistrom develop into a third-team All-American in consecutive seasons (2000-01) and John Mackey Award semifinalist.

His head coaching tenure began, in fact, prior to his graduate assistant days in Lincoln when he spent three seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northwestern Oklahoma State (NAIA), in Alva, Okla. Albin spent six seasons in total (1994-99) on the Rangers' coaching staff, ultimately culminating in a 1999 NAIA National Championship and a perfect 13-0 record while earning NAIA Coach of the Year Honors by Rawlings and American Football Coach magazine.

Not confined to expertise on the gridiron, Albin was also named the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference (OIC) Coach of the Year twice while at NWOSU for his work leading the men's track and field program. While serving as an assistant football coach from 1994-96, Albin also served as the head coach for men's and women's cross country and track and field.

Albin began his climb up the coaching ranks at Northeastern State (Okla.) in 1989 where he won two conference titles as an assistant football coach and two more as head of the men's track program.

As a player, Albin was a three-time All-OIC first-teamer at NWOSU at wide receiver and became the first Ranger to earn All-District IX three times.

Albin graduated from NWOSU with a degree in Business Administration in 1989 and earned a postgraduate degree in Science from Northeastern State in 1991. Albin and his wife, Brooke, are the proud parents of two children - daughter Tori and son Treyce - and grandparents of Callen (Tori).

TODD FITCH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBS

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | OHIO WESLEYAN, 1986

Todd Fitch joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator while leading the quarterbacks.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Fitch spent four seasons at LSU (2024) and Ohio State (2021-23) working on the offensive side of the ball. During his time at LSU, Fitch helped the Tigers rank No. 7 nationally in passing offense (315.2) while averaging over 30 points per game. Prior to joining the Tigers, Fitch served as an offensive analyst at Ohio State for three years. During his time with the Buckeyes, Ohio State won 33 games and appeared in three New Year's Six Bowls. They also finished each year ranked in the Top 10 – No. 10 in 2023, No. 4 in 2022 and No. 6 in 2021. Fitch worked primarily with the Ohio State quarterbacks during his three seasons with the Buckeyes.

Fitch's coaching career includes stops at 13 schools - including Charlotte - and he served as offensive coordinator at Connecticut, East Carolina, South Florida, Boston College, Louisiana Tech and Vanderbilt.

In 2022, Fitch was credited with contributing to the success of quarterback C.J. Stroud, who was named 2023 NFL Rookie of the Year and 2023 Offensive Rookie of the Year following his first season with the Houston Texans. Stroud was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft after earning second-team All-America honors in 2022.

With nearly four decades of collegiate coaching experience, Fitch served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt in 2020 as well as the interim head coach for the final game that season against Tennessee. Fitch has helped 17 teams make postseason appearances in his collegiate career.

Fitch went to Nashville following a successful stint at Louisiana Tech with head coach Skip Holtz. In 2019, the Louisiana Tech offense played a critical role in the Bulldogs' 10-3 campaign capped by a shutout win over Miami (Florida) in the Independence Bowl. The unit ranked 36th nationally in scoring offense (32.5), 37th in total offense (436.8) and 32nd in pass offense (268.5).

Fitch helped develop J'mar Smith into one of the most productive quarterbacks in Louisiana Tech history. As a senior in 2019, Smith was named Conference USA's Offensive Player of the Year and first team all-conference after completing 64.3% of his throws (236 of 367) for 2,977 yards, 18 touchdowns and just five interceptions. Smith finished his Bulldog career with 9,323 passing yards and 51 touchdowns.

In 2017, despite losing three of the nations' top offensive stars to graduation and the NFL draft, Fitch's offense helped Louisiana Tech reach the Frisco Bowl where the Bulldogs capped with a convincing 51-10 victory over No. 25-ranked SMU.

In 2016 season, Tech finished with a 9-5 record with three Bulldogs winning top individual C-USA awards including Most Valuable Player (Ryan Higgins), Offensive Player of the Year (Carlos Henderson) and Special Teams Player of the Year (Henderson). The Bulldog offense lead the C-USA in completion percentage (66.7), first downs (358) and passing offense (363.4 ypg) while receivers Trent Taylor and Henderson ranked first (and fifth nationally with 1,803 and 1,535 receiving yards, respectively. Taylor and Henderson are currently with the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, respectively.

He has coached several notable NFL players including Tennessee Titan running back Chris Johnson (East Carolina), three-time All-Conference USA honoree Davon Drew (East Carolina) and Troy Williamson (South Carolina).

Prior to joining Louisiana Tech, Fitch spent three years at Boston College first as wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator (2013-14) and then as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2015). At Boston College, Fitch was instrumental to a program that achieved back-to-back seven-win seasons in 2013 and 2014 and advanced to the 2013 Independence Bowl and 2014 Pinstripe Bowl after inheriting a program that went 2-10 in 2012. The five-win improvement from 2012 to 2013 is tied for fourth-best in the FBS.

In his first season at Boston College, he guided an Eagle passing attack highlighted by career receptions and receiving yards record-holder Alex Amidon and quarterback Chase Rettig, who finished the season with a 140.6 efficiency rating and the fewest interceptions in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2013. He also mentored first team All-ACC honoree Alex Amidon, who concluded his collegiate career having registered a school record 191 receptions for a school-record 2,800 yards.

Fitch also served as offensive coordinator alongside Holtz at South Florida (2010-12) and at East Carolina (2007-09).

At USF, Fitch coached quarterback B.J. Daniels, who finished his career second in school history and third in Big East history in total offense (10,501) despite missing the last three games of his senior season because of injury. In his first season at USF, Fitch led an offense that helped USF to its fifth-straight eight-win season, making it one of just 15 programs nationally to accomplish the feat. He mentored both Mo Plancher (793) and Demetris Murray (542) to then-career highs in rushing yards.

The USF offense improved significantly in Fitch's second year, as the unit improved its national ranking in total offense 75 spots from 2010 to 2011, the largest jump of any school in the country. The most dramatic improvement came in the passing game where the Bulls improved by 85 yards per game. In addition, the USF offense increased their rushing production by 38 yards per game.

Fitch was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in three years at East Carolina. In his first season at ECU, the offense broke a pair of school single-season records for most points (403) and touchdowns scored (52). While utilizing two first-year starters at quarterback, the 2007 ECU offense turned in its second-highest scoring average since 1991 and tallied 35 or more points in six of eight C-USA contests before closing the year with a 41-point performance against No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Fitch and the offense helped ECU to back-to-back C-USA titles in 2008 and 2009 becoming the first program in league history to win consecutive conference championships.

Fitch has also worked under legendary head coaches Don Nehlen, Earle Bruce and Lou Holtz during his career which spans back to 1986 and included stops at Iowa State, South Carolina, Connecticut, Colorado State, West Virginia, Bowling Green and his alma mater, Ohio Wesleyan.

From 2004-06, Fitch was quarterbacks coach Iowa State where he tutored All-America performer Bret Meyer who blossomed into Iowa State's most prolific signal-caller with 7,348 passing yards and 41 touchdown passes.

Fitch was South Carolina's quarterbacks coach in 2003 after a year as running backs coach and three seasons as wide receivers coach – all under head coach Lou Holtz and offensive coordinator Skip Holtz – where he helped lead the Gamecocks to consecutive Outback Bowl victories in 2001 and 2002.

Fitch went to South Carolina from Connecticut where he worked under Skip Holtz from 1994 to 1998. He coordinated the Huskies' offense in his final three years, playing a key role in UConn's high-powered and prolific offensive attack in 1998 that resulted in a school-record 10-win season and quarterfinal round appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

A Bellaire, Ohio native, Fitch is a 1986 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, where he was a three-year starter at defensive back and an all-league performer in 1985. Following his playing career, Fitch moved on to an assistant coaching position at Ohio Wesleyan, a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988) and volunteer coaching pos at West Virginia (1989). He returned to Bowling Green as wide receivers coach (1990-1991) before moving on to Colorado State to serve as special teams coordinator and running backs coach in 1992.

Fitch and wife Julie are the parents of two children, Curtis and Peyton.

BRIAN HAINES

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH | SPECIAL TEAMS COORD./RBS

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | MARIETTA COLLEGE, 2004

Brian Haines joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in December 2024 and currently serves as the Assistant Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator while also leading the running backs position group.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Haines spent five seasons (2020-24) on the Appalachian State staff as the running backs coach/special teams coordinator.

During the 2024 regular season, Ahmani Marshall ended the year with five straight 100-yard rushing games, as he took on a bigger role with four other running backs impacted by injuries.

On special teams, Michael Hughes finished as App State's career leader in field goal percentage (83.3, 35-for-42) while also going 225-for-225 on extra points. The 2024 team had several big special teams plays, including Marshall's blocked punt for a safety early in App State's first post-Hurricane Helene game in Boone and Michael Hetzel's return of a blocked punt for a touchdown in a home win against James Madison.

In 2023, Haines had at least one special teams player receive All-America recognition for the third straight year, as Hughes and multi-unit coverage stalwart Jackson Greene were both honored. Hughes went 19 of 22 on field goals (including 11 straight makes to closes the season) and scored 111 points.

Hughes was one of five All-Americans Haines coached in his five-year stint at App State. Joining Hughes was Chandler Stanton (kicker) in 2021, Milan Tucker (kick returner) in 2022, Jackson Greene (all-purpose) in 2023, and Christian Johnstone (snapper) in 2024.

In the running game, Nate Noel was ranking among the national rushing leaders before he suffered a mid-October injury, but Kanye Roberts led App State in rushing five times over an eight-game stretch before another back, Anderson Castle, rushed for a career-high 119 yards in a Cure Bowl victory that capped a nine-win season.

Named a 2021 candidate for the Broyles Award that goes to the nation's top assistant, Haines followed that by coaching an All-America kick returner in Milan Tucker and helping running back Camerun Peoples receive a Reese's Senior Bowl invitation during the 2022 season. The Mountaineers had six games with a 100-yard rusher despite dealing with several injuries at that position.

In 2021, Haines coached a running back group that helped App State produce a 1,000-yard rusher for the 10th straight season and directed a special teams group that included kicker Chandler Staton, who received first-team All-America recognition, and Jalen Virgil, who had two kickoff returns for touchdowns.

App State ranked 16th nationally in overall special teams based on the Fremeau Efficiency Index (FEI) that combines kickoff return, kickoff, punt return, punt and field goal efficiency into one overall rating.

App State's two leading backs (Noel, Peoples) both rushed for more than 900 yards while ranking No. 2 and No. 3 in rushing yards per game in the Sun Belt, and that came a year after the Mountaineers were the only FBS team in the country to have four running backs rush for at least 500 yards.

Virgil added a 100-yard kickoff return at Miami and a 97-yard kickoff return against Georgia Southern to the 100-yard return for a touchdown at Georgia Southern in 2020, and Staton was named PFN's national kicker of the year after going 20 of 21 on field goals while making all 57 of his extra points. He set five App State career records, two App State single season records and two consecutive makes records during the 2021 season, when the Mountaineers ranked in the top 25 nationally by allowing just 4.1 yards per punt return.

App State's top three backs entering the 2020 season combined to miss 11 games, but it got 500-plus rushing seasons from sophomore Peoples (league-leading 1,224 yards with 12 TDs despite making just five starts, all to end the season), junior Daetrich Harrington (595 yards with seven TDs before suffering a season-ending injury in the sixth game), Noel as a true freshman (510 yards, including 327 over the final four games) and Marcus Williams Jr. (503 yards, with three 100-yard games in just eight appearances).

Peoples set a school and NCAA bowl record with 317 rushing yards to go with five touchdown runs (tying a school and NCAA bowl record) in the 56-28 bowl win against North Texas. Williams added 101 rushing yards, making them the 100-yard tandem with the second-most combined rushing yards (418) in a bowl game behind only a Baylor tandem with 460 in 2015.

App State finished with a whopping 500 rushing yards in that game.

On special teams in 2020, punter Xavier Subotsch led the Sun Belt with a net average of 40.3. App State allowed only 2.2 yards per punt return (No. 1 Sun Belt, No. 11 nationally), 3.3 punt return yards per game (No. 2 Sun Belt, No. 23 nationally) and 17.3 yards per kickoff return (No. 2 Sun Belt, No. 14 nationally).

Haines came to Boone after spending 12 of his previous 13 years on staff at Ohio University, where he helped lead the Bobcats to 91 victories, two Mid-American Conference East Division titles, nine bowl appearances and the first five bowl titles in school history.

A native of Williamstown, W. Va., Haines had served as a special teams coordinator for eight seasons before joining App State's staff and as a recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach for each of the last 10 seasons before joining App State's staff. He also had stints at West Virginia and his alma mater, Marietta College, early in his coaching career.

Ohio did not have a losing season in the 10 years after Haines joined Frank Solich's staff as a full-time assistant in 2010. In that decade, Haines helped the Bobcats win eight or more games on seven occasions, including a 10-4 record in 2011 when they won the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for the school's first bowl victory.

Other Ohio bowl wins during Haines' tenure included the 2012 Independence Bowl against ULM, the 2017 Bahamas Bowl against UAB, the 2018 Frisco Bowl against San Diego State and the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl against Nevada.

The Bobcat offense set numerous school records in recent seasons and ranked among the best in the FBS and MAC in a variety of statistical categories. The 2019 offense was 20th in the country in scoring average, while it ranked 12th in 2018 and ninth in 2017. Ohio's rushing offense was 20th in 2019, ninth in 2018 and 16th in 2017.

Three of Haines' Ohio tight ends went on to play in the NFL: Jordan Thompson, Keith Heitzman and Troy Mangen.

Under Haines' watch, Ohio's special teams unit consistently ranked as one of the best in both the FBS and the MAC in terms of kickoff and punt returns and kickoff and punt defense. He coached the two highest-scoring players in program history in Louie Zervos (437 points, 2016-19) and Matt Weller (409 points, 2009-12) as well as three of the top four kickers in terms of field goals made in Weller (79; 2009-12), Zervos (73; 2016-19) and Josiah Yazdani (31; 2013-15). Zervos' school-record 29 field goals in 2016 set an NCAA record for field goals by a freshman.

Haines also developed four-year starting punter Michael Farkas into one of the best in school history.

The Bobcats' kickoff return defense was top 15 in the country each of the last three years, including No. 2 nationally in 2019. It was also No. 8 nationally in 2015, No. 7 in 2013 and No. 9 in 2012, his first year directing the special teams.

In 2010, Haines returned to Athens in a full-time capacity after spending 2009 as a graduate assistant at West Virginia, supervising the Mountaineers' slot receivers and running backs. He helped coach the team's leading rusher (All-Big East first team tailback Noel Devine) and leading receiver (Jock Sanders) as the team made an appearance in the Gator Bowl.

From 2010-11, he coached the Bobcat tight ends and served as recruiting coordinator before adding special teams duties the next year.

Haines served as a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' offense during the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He assisted the offensive staff and worked directly with the wide receivers.

Haines served as an assistant coach at Marietta College, his alma mater, for three seasons from 2004-06. He coached the wide receivers for two seasons and the secondary for one. He also served as the strength and conditioning coordinator for two years.

Haines, a standout wide receiver for Marietta from 2000-03, graduated in 2004 and went on to earn master's degrees from Marietta in 2006 and Ohio in 2008.

He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters: Blair and Quinn.

NATE FAANES

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | LINEBACKERS

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | WINONA STATE, 2015

Nate Faanes joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers coach.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Faanes spent nine seasons (2016-24) as a member of the Ohio staff where he rose from a defensive graduate assistant (2016) to co-defensive coordinator (2024). Faanes spent three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant (2016-18) and one season as the linebackers coach (2019) before adding the responsibility of Special Teams Coordinator prior to the 2020 season. He was named the co-defensive coordinator prior to the 2024 season.

At the conclusion of the 2023 regular season, Faanes was named an American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) 35 Under 35 honoree, as announced by the AFCA.

Faanes mentored a number of All-MAC players during his tenure with the Bobcats including linebackers Quentin Poling (First Team, 2017), Chad Moore (Second Team, 2017), Evan Croutch (Second Team, 2018), Bryce Houston (First Team, 2023), Keye Thompson (First Team 2023), Shay Taylor (Third Team, 2024), and Blake Leake (Third Team) as well as specialists Keegan Wilburn (First Team, 2022), Nathanial Vakos (Second Team, 2022), and return specialist Coleman Owen (Third Team, 2024).

In 2024, the Bobcats won 11 games for the first time in program history, secured their first MAC championship since 1968, and eclipsed the 10-win mark for the third consecutive season. For Faanes, the Bobcat defense was one of the nation's best, finishing No. 10 nationally in total defense (303.1 yards per game) and No. 3 in rushing yards allowed (90.57). Ohio was one of just six programs in the country to allow under 100 rushing yards per game.

2023 was a historic season for the Bobcats, marking the first time in program history the team recorded back-to-back nine-win regular seasons. With the addition of the 41-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the 2023 Myrtle Beach Bowl, the team recorded consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time as well. The defense played a large part in this success, finishing the season No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference and No. 4 in FBS football.

One of Faanes' top pupils, Bryce Houston saw great individual success as well, finishing the season ranked 16th among all NCAA FBS athletes and fourth in the MAC in total tackles (127). Thompson was right on his tail, finishing the season among the top 10 in the MAC in total tackles. Thompson scored his first career touchdown against Bowling Green (Sept. 23) after a 71-yard fumble recovery.

While on staff with the Bobcats, Faanes contributed to some of the league's best defenses coaching multiple linebackers to 100-plus tackle seasons (Poling, Croutch, Houston and Thompson). Under his direction, the Bobcats special teams units scored six kick (five kickoff, one punt) return touchdowns and led the conference in punts downed inside the 10 yard line and kickoff coverage tackles inside the 20 yard line.

Prior to his time on the Ohio staff, Faanes served as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire from 2013-15. With the Blugolds, Faanes coached tight ends, quarterbacks, and running backs. Additionally, Faanes was the quarterbacks coach at Winona (Minnesota) Senior High School from 2009-12. A 2015 graduate of Winona State University, Faanes received his master's degree in Coaching Education from Ohio University in 2018.

KURT MATTIX

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | DEFENSIVE LINE

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | VALPARAISO, 1999

Kurt Mattix joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line coach.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Mattix spent one season at Ohio where he led the defensive ends and served as the program's Pass Rush Specialist. Mattix's chief pupil, Bradley Weaver, earned first team All-MAC accolades as he finished the year with 15.0 tackles for loss (No. 3 MAC) and 8.5 sacks (No. 2 MAC). Weaver was also named to the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks award which is presented annually to the nation's top defensive end.

Mattix joined Ohio by way of San Diego State, where he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2020-23. During his tenure, the Aztecs ranked ninth in rushing defense, 17th in total defense, and 18th in scoring and pass efficiency rating. The 2023 season saw Mattix's defense force 18 turnovers with 10 interceptions and eight fumble recoveries. The 10 interceptions ranked 22nd in FBS and this performance earned three athletes All-Mountain West honors.

One of Mattix's most-decorated student-athletes at San Diego State was Jonah Tavai, who was named All-American by Pro Football Focus, Bleacher Report, Associated Press, USA Today, and College Football Network after the 2022 season. He also coached lineman Cameron Thomas, the 2021 Mountain-West Defensive Player of the Year and a sixth round draft selection by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Prior to SDSU, Mattix served as Eastern Kentucky's defensive coordinator from 2016-19. The Colonels' defensive unit was regarded as one of the leaders in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2019, leading the conference in third down percentage, fourth down percentage, red zone percentage, tackles for loss per game and first downs allowed. They ranked second among OVC teams in scoring defense, rush defense and total defense. EKU held its opponents to under 100 yards rushing six times during the 2019 campaign, highlighted holding Tennessee Tech to two yards and Murray State to 22 yards.

Mattix spent the 2015 season as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, Valparaiso, after working with the defensive line, linebackers and rush backers at Michigan from 2011-15. Prior to Michigan, Mattix served as the tight ends coach at Ball State from 2009-11, returning five years after served as a graduate assistant for the Cardinals' football program. Mattix also held positions at Saint Joseph's College, Wayne State, Anderson University and Trine University after starting his career at Portage High School in Indiana.

Mattix started his collegiate career at the University of Indianapolis, where he was a student-athlete from 1994-95 before using his final two years of eligibility at Valparaiso. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at Valparaiso in 1999.

TRE' BELL

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR | CORNERBACKS

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | CONNECTICUT, 2018

Tre' Bell joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Cornerbacks coach and Defensive Passing Game Coordinator.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Bell spent the 2024 season at West Virginia as a defensive analyst where he organized, implemented, and maintained all aspects of game analysis for the defensive coaching staff with an emphasis on the defensive secondary. He analyzed game film and formulated game plans to assist the defensive coaching staff with game preparation.

Bell went to WVU after serving for two years as the cornerbacks coach for Akron. While with the Zips, he coached three All Mid-American Conference performers in Tyson Durant, Darrian Lewis and KJ Martin. The trio combined for three interceptions and 16 pass breakups during the 2023 season and five interceptions and 13 pass breakups in 2022.

Bell spent the 2021 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Florida State, where he coached All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team defensive back Jammie Robinson, a fifth-round NFL draft selection by the Arizona Cardinals in 2023. Robinson tied for the lead in the ACC in interceptions (4), and the Seminoles ranked No. 6 nationally in red zone defense and No. 25 in interceptions (12).

Prior to that, he spent two years as a graduate assistant coach at Mississippi State. The Bulldogs advanced to bowl games each season. True freshman Emmanuel Forbes earned Freshman All-America honors in 2020 after leading the SEC with five interceptions and ranking first nationally with three interception return touchdowns. Bell also helped develop Cameron Dantzler and Martin Emerson, third-round picks by Minnesota in 2020 and Cleveland in the 2022 NFL Drafts, respectively.

He served as a quality control coach working with defensive backs at Eastern Kentucky in 2018 where he mentored All-Ohio Valley Conference First-Team defensive back Leodis Moore III (2018) and second-team cornerback Cornelius Floyd (2018).

He played collegiately at Vanderbilt. After redshirting in 2013, he played three years for the Commodores, appearing in 20 games during the 2014 and 2015 seasons and recording 33 tackles. Bell sat out the 2016 season after transferring to UConn and appeared in all 12 games, including eight starts his senior year in 2017. He finished with 49 tackles, one interception, two pass breakups and three forced fumbles.

A native of Union, New Jersey, Bell earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Connecticut in 2018 and his master's degree in education from Mississippi State in 2020.

BRIAN METZ

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORD.

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | NOTRE DAME, 2013

Brian Metz joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Recruiting Coordinator and Tight Ends coach.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Metz enjoyed three different tenures at Ohio including the past five seasons (2020-24) where he mentored the program's tight ends. Metz added the responsibilities of Recruiting Coordinator prior to the 2023 season. During a three-year run with Albin, Metz helped the Bobcats to 31 wins including three consecutive 10-win seasons culminating in the 2024 MAC Championship, the program's first since 1968.

At the conclusion of the 2021 regular season, Metz was named an American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) 35 Under 35 honoree, as announced by the AFCA.

Metz mentored a number of highly productive Bobcats during his five seasons in Athens. Tight End Tyler Foster had four receiving touchdowns in 2022, most notably the game-winning overtime grab to seal the Barstool Arizona Bowl win over Wyoming. Ryan Luehrman capped off his career in 2021 tallying 31 career starts, the most by an Ohio tight end, 57 receptions (3rd all-time among Ohio tight ends), 634 receiving yards (3rd all-time among Ohio tight ends), and seven touchdowns (2nd all-time among Ohio tight ends).

During his tenure at Ohio, Metz also coached the kickoff return unit which accounted for five return touchdowns. Three different returners earned MAC Special Teams Player of the Week (De'Montre Tuggle, Julian Ross, and Keegan Wilburn). In 2022, Wilburn was named First Team All-MAC Specialist.

From 2016-18, Metz worked as an offensive graduate assistant with the Bobcat wide receivers. He coached five 1,000-yard career receivers including 2019 NFL free agent Papi White who completed his time at Ohio with 3,090 all-purpose yards, 25 touchdowns, and a school record in career receiving yards (2,620). During the 2013-14 seasons, Metz was an intern working with the quarterbacks and recruiting operations.

In his time away from Ohio, Metz was as an offensive intern at Memphis in 2015 working with a wide receiver group that included four future NFL players at the position (Tony Pollard, Anthony Miller, Mose Frazier, and Tevin Jones).

In 2019, Metz was a graduate assistant at UNLV working with the Rebels' quarterbacks. At UNLV, he helped coach Armani Rogers as he set a UNLV record for career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,549).

Metz earned his undergraduate degree from Notre Dame in 2013. As a student, Metz worked as an equipment manager with the Fighting Irish quarterbacks and also coached football at St. Joseph High School. Metz earned his Master of Business Administration (2015), Master of Sports Administration (2015), and Master of Coaching Education (2018) degrees from Ohio University. In January 2022, he was named to the American Football Coaches Association's 35 Under 35 Leadership Institute.

Metz and his wife, Lindsae, have been married since 2017.

BRYAN NARDO

ASSISTANT COACH | SAFETIES

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | OHIO, 2008

Bryan Nardo joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the safeties coach.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Nardo spent two seasons (2023-24) as the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. Before his time in Stillwater, Nardo served as the defensive coordinator at Gannon University in 2022, the linebackers coach at Youngstown State from 2020-21 and the eight seasons before that as the defensive coordinator at Emporia State.

In his first season at the FBS level (2023), Nardo led a defense that helped Oklahoma State reach the Big XII conference championship game and secure a 10-win season with a victory over Texas A&M in the TaxAct Texas Bowl. The Cowboy defense held opponents to less than 14 points in the second half eight times on the year. They averaged giving up 10.8 points per second half on the year, which ranked among the top 20 of power conference teams. OSU also forced 23 turnovers to rank among the top 20 in the FBS and marked OSU's highest total since 2017.

That year, Oklahoma State also secured a victory over in-state rival Oklahoma in the final edition of the Bedlam Series. The Cowboys' defense forced three turnovers, saced Dillon Gabriel twice, and stopped the Sonners on fourth down twice in the game. This led to hodling an OU offense that averaged over 41 points per game on the season to just 24 - which was the second-lowest total points Oklahoma had scored in the rivalry with Mike Gundy coaching at OSU.

Year-over-year, the 2023 Cowboy defense improved in Rushing Defense, Scoring Defense, Red Zone Defense, Defensive Touchdowns, Total Sacks and Takeaways. The Cowboys also finished No. 2 in the nation in fourth down defense with a conversion rate of just 24 percent, stopping opponents on 19 of 25 attempts. Linebacker Nick Martin led the unit with 140 total tackles to rank as the sixth-most in the FBS and the most for an OSU player since 1984. He also finished No. 3 in the FBS with 83 solo tackles and teamed with safeties Kendal Daniels (105 total tackles) and Trey Rucker (100 total tackles) to make Oklahoma State one of two FBS teams and the only Power Five team with three players to record triple-digit tackles on the year.

Martin was a first team All-Big 12 selection and linebacker Collin Oliver earned second team honors. Safety Kenda Daniels also received All-Big 12 honors under Nadro's watch.

Over the course of his career, Nardo has mentored 28 All-Conference linebackers, eght with First Team honors, and four of them adding All-America recognition.

During his stint at Gannon (2022), Nardo improved the Golden Knights in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense, yards per play, rush defense, pass defense and total defense. Gannon's total defense average improved from 393.3 in 2021 to 287.4 in his lone season in Erie. It was Gannon's lowest total yards per game allowed average in 20 seasons.

Two of his players at Gannon, defensive back Chris Farnsworth and defensive end Nick White, also earned honorable mention All-America honors while helping lead the Golden Knights to an 8-3 overall record.

The linebackers thrived under Nardo at Youngstown State. He recruited and coached transfer Grant Dixon, who stepped right into the starting lineup in 2020 and became the first YSU linebacker to be named first-team All-MVFC since 2007. Dixon followed that up with another all-conference performance under Nardo in 2021, leading the Penguins in tackles with 67 while adding two interceptions and two sacks.

Nardo was selected as a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute in 2019, which was his final year at Emporia State.

Nardo spent eight years as the defensive coordinator at Emporia State, leading a defense that helped the program to a 63-32 record with five postseason appearances.

The 63 wins over eight seasons are more than any other decade of Emporia State football, and were the second-most in the MIAA during that time. The Hornets won two bowl games (2012 and 2018) while making the NCAA Division II Playoffs in 2013, 2015 and 2016, being ranked as high as No. 4 in the country.

Nardo's Emporia State defense was one of the best in the country in forcing takeaways, producing 209 during his time in Emporia. The Hornets were the only Division II program in country to force 25-plus takeaways every year from 2012-16.

Nardo coached two linebackers to All-American accolades during those eight years, Ben Carlson in 2012 and Jace McDown in 2019. They were the first to earn that honor for the Hornets since 1999. Six different Hornet linebackers recorded 100-plus tackles in a season, with two others recording over 90. In 2015, for the first time in MIAA history, all three starting linebackers at Emporia State surpassed 100 tackles.

In 2019, Emporia State was one of the best in the MIAA in almost every defensive category. The Hornets led the league in passing defense, while Lawson Holbert led the conference with seven interceptions and earned All-American honors in the process. ESU was second in total defense and third in rushing defense, which helped junior linebacker Jace McDown earn MIAA Athlete of the Year as well as All-American honors after finishing second in the league in total tackles. The unit's success led to nine players from Emporia State's defense earning all-conference honors.

In 2018, Emporia State finished with another postseason appearance, securing their fourth straight winning season for the first time since joining NCAA Division II, and capped it off with a Corsicana Bowl win to finish 8-4. Nardo helped five players earn All-MIAA honors.

The Hornets finished the 2016 season with an 11-2 overall record, going 10-1 in the MIAA. ESU hosted an NCAA Division II Playoff Game for the first time in school history, defeating 13th-ranked Minnesota Duluth, 59-26, to advance to the second round of the playoffs. The defense ranked in the top three in the MIAA in defensive scoring average and ended the year with 39 sacks. Kole Schankie led the nation in interceptions by a linebacker with seven.

In 2015, Nardo's defense helped the team to an 11-3 record and trip to the NCAA Division II regional final, securing Emporia State's first ever victories in the Division II Playoffs. He guided a defense that was second in the MIAA in sacks with 40 and third in the league in interceptions with 17. The Hornets finished in the top 10 in the country with 32 takeaways, 103 tackles for loss and 40 sacks. The 40 sacks were the second most in a single season since the program began in 1893.

In 2012, Nardo's first season in Emporia, the Hornets went to the postseason for the first time in nine years, finishing the season 10-2 with a victory in the Kanza Bowl. The next season showed continued success as Emporia State made its first trip back to the NCAA Division II Playoffs since 2003, finishing the season 9-2.

Before going to Emporia State, Nardo spent a season at Missouri S&T where he was named the Great Lakes Football Conference Assistant Coach of the Year in 2011. Both of his starting linebackers earned first team All-GLFC honors and the Miners led the GLFC in net punting, punt return defense, and kickoff return yards.

Nardo was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Ohio University, from 2008-10 and coached the nickel backs and outside linebackers. He served as a student coach from 2004-08 at Ohio.

A native of Shadyside, Ohio, Nardo graduated from St. John Central High School and then attended Ohio University, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in Sport Management in 2008. Coaching football runs deep in the Nardo family, as his father, Perry, and two brothers, Matt and Luke, are all members of the coaching profession.

Nardo and his wife, Emma, have three sons: Dominick, Elijah, and Beau.

VINCE REYNOLDS

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE TACKLES

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | NORTHERN ILLINOIS, 2004

Vince Reynolds joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in March 2025 and currently serves as the Defensive Tackles coach.

With over 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, Reynolds came to the Queen City by way of Arkansas State where he spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as the defensive line coach and defensive run game coordinator.

Reynolds tenure with the Red Wolves was marked with significant team and individual player success including helping guide the program back to the post-season for the first time since 2019 with a pair of bowl trips in 2023 and 2024.

In 2024, junior defensive lineman Bryan Whitehead earned All-Sun Belt third team honors, continuing a three-year streak of honorees for Reynolds. In 2023, the Red Wolves' defense posted 6.8 tackles per loss per game, the most for an A-State team since 2018. Defensive end Thurman Geathers earned Third Team All-Sun Belt honors after ranking second in the league with 42 pressures. Geathers finished the year with 12 tackles for loss, most by an A-State player since 2021.

In 2022, Reynolds helped the A-State defense become the most improved rush defense in the country allowing nearly 100 fewer rushing yards per game than the previous season. The Red Wolves allowed seven fewer points per game, 100 total fewer yards per game to improve 40 spots in the national rankings, their third down percentage defense improved from 41.4 percent to 36.4 percent to rank top-50 nationally. He guided Kivon Bennett to a second consecutive all-conference selection while TW Ayers was honorable mention all-conference at defensive tackle.

Prior to Arkansas State, Reynolds spent six seasons as the defensive line (2016, 2020-21) and defensive tackles (2017-19) coach at Syracuse, and his career path has also included coaching positions at Western Michigan, Central Michigan, Central Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin-Platteville. He has been a part of at least one bowl game at all five of his FBS stops.

When Reynolds arrived at Syracuse in 2016, he molded a young defensive line that featured future NFL Draft selection Chris Slayton and two freshman starters at defensive end. The results showed the following season, as his group of interior lineman contributed to a Syracuse defense that allowed 6.4 fewer points, 28.3 fewer rushing yards and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than the year before.

The growth of the Orange's defensive line continued under Reynolds direction, helping the squad rank among the top 16 teams in the country in sacks during two different seasons. Their 2018 defense actually ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories, including turnovers gained (3rd), fumbles recovered (5th) and sacks (6th).

The performance helped spur Syracuse to a 10-3 record, a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia and a No. 15 ranking in the final AP Top 25 and AFCA Coaches Polls. Slayton flourished as the anchor of the front seven, earning an invitation to the East-West Shrine Bowl after the season before being drafted by the New York Giants.

In 2021, Syracuse ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and 16th nationally with over six sacks per game. Cody Roscoe was selected to the All-ACC First Team, while Josh Black earned honorable mention honors.

Reynolds joined the Orange after serving as the defensive line coach at Western Michigan from 2013-15. At WMU, he was part of a staff that engineered one of the most impressive turnarounds in FBS history. Reynolds and the WMU coaches transformed the Broncos from a 1-11 team in 2012 into a program that earned consecutive bowl berths in 2014 and 2015. The 2015 Broncos were 8-5 and defeated Middle Tennessee 45-31 in the Bahamas Bowl, the first bowl victory in school history.

In 2014, Reynolds directed a Western Michigan defensive line that recorded 17 of the team's 29 sacks. The unit was part of a Bronco defense that finished third in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in points allowed per game. Reynolds also was recognized for his recruiting prowess that year. Rivals.com named him to its list of the top 10 recruiters from schools outside the Power Five and American Athletic Conference. That year Reynolds helped solidify, what was at the time, the website's highest ranked class (No. 58) in MAC history.

Prior to his stint in Kalamazoo, Reynolds mentored the defensive linemen at Central Michigan where he helped the Chippewas to a win over Western Kentucky in the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. The group included Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills defensive end Leterrius Walton, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Before making the move to CMU, Reynolds was the defensive line coach at Central Oklahoma in 2010. He also previously worked as a graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Oklahoma State for head coach Mike Gundy. Oklahoma State made appearances in the 2008 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Cotton Bowl while Reynolds was on the OSU staff.

Reynolds started his coaching career in 2006 as the defensive line coach at Division III University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Reynolds has completed two NFL internships. In 2015, he gained critical coaching skills and perspective with the Baltimore Ravens under John Harbaugh. During the summer of 2016, Reynolds worked with head coach Chuck Pagano and the staff of the Indianapolis Colts.

A Detroit, Michigan native, Reynolds played his college football at Northern Illinois from 2000-03. He was named to the All-MAC First Team at defensive end as a senior after totaling 76 tackles, including 15 for a loss, and six sacks.

Reynolds earned his undergraduate degree from Northern Illinois in 2004. He received his master's degree in adult education from Wisconsin-Platteville in 2007.

Reynolds and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons – Eric Coley, Josiah Reynolds and Jeremiah Reynolds.

ALLEN RUDOLPH

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE/RUN GAME COORD.

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | SOUTHERN MISS, 1995

Allen Rudolph joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Offensive Line coach and Run Game Coordinator.

With nearly three decades of coaching experience, Rudolph came to the Queen City following a six-year run with Albin at Ohio where the Bobcats combined to win 31 games over their final three, including three consecutive 10-win seasons (2022, 2023, 2024), culminating in the 2024 MAC Championship, the program's first since 1968.

During his tenure, Rudolph's offensive line was integral in blocking and protecting three of the most prolific offenses in program history. Seven offensive linemen earned All-MAC honors over his six seasons with the Bobcats. Twice during his tenure - 2024 (29.3) and 2022 (31.8) – the Bobcats led the MAC in scoring offense. In 2024, Ohio led the MAC in rushing yards per game (213.4) as well as yards per carry (5.2).

The Bobcats won four bowl games, including three straight, during Rudolph's tenure including the 2019 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the 2022 Arizona Bowl, the 2023 Myrtle Beach Bowl, and the 2024 Cure Bowl.

In 2022, Rudolph's line helped set a program's single-game yardage record with a total of 692 yards against Fordham. The 2022 and 2019 offenses also set top-five marks for total points scored. In 2022 and 2024, Rudolph's line was essential in blocking for 1,000-yard running backs in Sieh Bangura (2022; 1,078 yards) and Anthony Tyus III (2024, 1,111 yards). His offensive lines also ranked inside the top 15 nationally for fewest sacks allowed in 2023 and 2020.

Prior to his move to Ohio, Rudolph spent three years as the offensive line coach at Arkansas State, helping to lead the Red Wolves to 23 victories and three bowl appearances – including a 31-13 win over UCF in the Cure Bowl in 2016.

The 2018 season saw the Red Wolves rank No. 17 in the nation in total offense with 466.2 yards per game and 21st in passing offense with 281.5 yards per game. Under the guidance of Rudolph, tackle Lanard Bonner earned first team All-Sun Belt Conference honors for the second year in a row while center Jacob Still garnered honorable mention All-SBC recognition for the second-straight season.

Rudolph coached an offensive line in 2017 that ranked fifth in the nation in passing offense (342.2 yards per game), 10th in total offense (494.8 yards per game) and 13th in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). A-State's average total offense was also a school record, while its 454 points scored tied the fourth most in school history. Rudolph's offensive line unit helped produce over 400 yards of total offense in 10 of 12 games, including a school and Sun Belt Conference-record 781 yards in a victory over Louisiana-Monroe.

The 2016 offensive line paved the way for 4,932 yards total offense that is the seventh most in school history. Led by two offensive linemen earning All-Sun Belt honors, the Red Wolves recorded over 300 yards total offense in 10 outings, more than 400 in five contests and at least 500 in two outings. The offensive line helped the squad record a season-high 525 yards in the Sun Belt opener, a 27-26 win over Georgia Southern. Under Rudolph's direction, senior offensive linemen Jemar Clark and Colton Jackson were both named all-conference as first and second team selections, respectively.

Rudolph came to Arkansas State after spending the previous three seasons as the offensive line coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Hamilton Tiger-Cats. His time with Hamilton saw him help lead the team to the playoffs every year, including appearances in the 2013 and '14 Grey Cup.

Rudolph's coaching experience also includes stints at Northwestern State (2012), Southeastern Louisiana (2007-11), Samford (2005-06), East Mississippi Community College (2004), Louisiana-Monroe (2002-03), Mississippi College (2000-01), Copiah-Lincoln Community College (1999) and Nicholls State (1995-98).

Rudolph was a four-year letterman at Nicholls State (1989-93) and served as the team's starting center for three seasons. He was one of the Colonels' team captains in his junior and senior campaigns. A Hurley, Miss., native, Rudolph earned his bachelor's degree in American studies from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1995.

Rudolph and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Abbey and McKenzie.

PAUL TURNER

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS/PASS. GAME COORD.

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | LOUISIANA TECH, 2015

Paul Turner joined Charlotte's football staff as part of head coach Tim Albin's initial coaching staff in January 2025 and currently serves as the Wide Receivers coach and Passing Game Coordinator.

Prior to coming to the Queen City, Turner spent two seasons as a lead offensive analyst at LSU. During his time in Baton Rouge, where he also played for two seasons (2011-12), LSU's offense featured three of the nation's most explosive players in quarterback Jayden Daniels and wide receivers Malik Nabers and Brian Thomas. Daniels led the nation in total offense and rushing yards by a quarterback on his way to winning the Heisman Trophy in 2023. In 2024, the Tigers ranked No. 7 nationally in passing offense, led by quarterback Garrett Nussmeier.

Nabers, a unanimous All-America, led the nation in receiving yards per game with 120 yards a contest, while Thomas ranked first nationally in receiving TDs with 17. As a unit, LSU's offense led the country in scoring (45.5) and total offense (543.5).

Turner joined the LSU football program after three years at Louisiana Tech, where he climbed from defensive graduate assistant in 2020 to defensive analyst in 2021 and finally safeties coach in 2022. Head coach Sonny Cumbie elevated Turner to a full-time assistant coach when he took over the Louisiana Tech program in 2022.

After prepping at West Monroe High School where he led the Rebels to the state title game in 2009 and 2010 and was voted the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Class 5A Most Outstanding Offensive Player, Turner signed with LSU.

Following his second year in Baton Rouge, he transferred to Louisiana Tech where he lettered for the Bulldogs in 2014 and 2015 helping lead the program to the 2014 C-USA Championship game and a win over Illinois in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. He was also on the 2015 New Orleans Bowl championship team.

During his two years at Tech, he caught 87 passes for 1,171 yards and seven TDs.

Turner was a three-time Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll member and was named Conference USA and LSWA honorable mention in 2015.

Prior to his start in coaching, Turner spent four seasons in the NFL with the Eagles, Saints, and Patriots.

An undrafted free agent, Turner appeared in four games – with two starts – as a rookie for the Eagles in 2016. He caught nine passes for 126 yards, including six receptions for 80 yards in his first NFL start against the Bengals on Dec. 4, 2016.

JAKE MILLER

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

1ST YEAR AT CHARLOTTE | BAKER UNIVERSITY, 2011

As the process to build out his first coaching staff at Charlotte continues, head coach Tim Albin has added one of the cornerstone pieces as Jake Miller has been tabbed to lead the program's strength and conditioning.

"The head strength coach is an incredibly important hire for us," Albin said. "This role is critical in building not only your team physically but also for instilling an incredible culture in the locker room. I am excited to get Jake on our staff and look forward to seeing him develop our team on and off the field "

It is a reunion for Miller and Albin as the two worked together at Ohio for the 2021, 2022, and 2023 football season where Miller served the Bobcats as the Director of Strength and Conditioning. In Athens, Miller helped the Bobcats post back-to-back 10-win seasons and a trip to the MAC Championship. Miller returns to Albin's staff following a year at UCLA as the Director of Athletic Performance where he was primarily charged with the development of the "bigs" position group - typically consisting of offensive and defensive linemen.

Prior to his time at Ohio, Miller was the Assistant Athletic Director of Athletic Performance at Arkansas State for two seasons (2019-20) where he led the performance programming for all of Arkansas State's teams. He was instrumental in developing the standards for policy and procedures for the University and multiple Sun Belt programs as they navigated the COVID-19 pandemic.

He has also spent time at SMU, Baylor, Missouri State, Louisiana-Lafayette, Rice, Texas Tech, and Mid-America Nazarene.

Miller earned his undergraduate degree in Exercise Science from Baker University (Kansas) and has received his certifications from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). Additionally, he has received his Level I USA Weightlifting certification.

CHARLOTTE — A sellout crowd to open year two of the Biff Poggi era saw the 49ers hold a 7-3 lead, but untimely big plays from the visitors as well as three turnovers ultimately led to a season-opening defeat.

Max Brown, in his first start as a 49er, attempted 45 passes - the fifth-most in a single game in school history. A three-headed attack in the backfield of Terron Kellman, Cartevious Norton, and Hahsaun Wilson doled out a combined 24 rushing attempts.

James Madison closed and opened the half with a bang as quarterback Alonza Barnett III threw a 33-yard pass to George Pettaway with under a minute remaining to make it 9-7 Dukes (PAT missed). His first pass attempt of the second half went for 73 yards and the score, and that wrapped it up.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Max Brown, Bryce Kennon, Dontae Balfour, Mike Kelly-Lawson
- Coin Toss/Result: Lost/Receive
- Opening day: Charlotte moved to 5-5 in opening games since the program moved to the FBS level in 2015. Overall, the 49ers are 7-5, including a previous pair of FCS seasons, and had previously gone undefeated in five home openers before Saturday's loss.
- Strike Gold: Charlotte scored its first touchdown of the season on a 26-yard pass from Max Brown to a diving Isaiah Myers in the second quarter. It came after Chantz Williams forced a fumble, and Colin Coates recovered it in Charlotte territory.
- Turnovers: Charlotte forced two turnovers thanks to a fumble and interception in the second quarter. The 49ers also forced a turnover on downs from their three-yard line to halt James Madison from a potential touchdown in the first quarter. It was one of their two turnovers forced on downs.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — Injuries mounted for the 49ers throughout the first half as multiple starters ended their days early. Charlotte hung tough in their first trip to Chapel Hill, bringing the game back to a one-score game early in the third quarter before the depth of the Tar Heels helped them pull away.

After starting quarterback Max Brown went down with an injury late in the first half, true freshman Deshawn Purdie rallied the Green and White in the second half and threw the first two touchdowns by a true freshman in program history.

Defensive lineman Dre Butler enjoyed his first breakout day as a 49er, tallying 2.5 tackles for loss alongside a sack and forced fumble.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Dontae Balfour, Max Brown, Justin Olson, Prince Wallace-Bemah
- Coin Toss/Result: Won/Deferred
- First-Time Fight: Saturday's meeting between Charlotte and North Carolina was the first since the 49ers were established in 2012. It's the first of three in-state matchups for the 49ers this year — Gardner-Webb (week three) and East Carolina (week six) are also on their schedule.
- Big Plays: Charlotte found its big-play rhythm with eight passing plays of at least 15 yards, led by true freshman Deshawn Purdie's 42-yard throw to redshirt O'Mega Blake in the fourth quarter. Purdie also had a 15-yard run to start the third quarter.
- Air Raid: Purdie and redshirt sophomore Max Brown combined for 309 passing yards and two touchdowns. They had 141.3 and 189.2 passer ratings respectively for Charlotte.

CHARLOTTE — In front of the fourth largest crowd in stadium history, Charlotte rallied from a 20-3 deficit to defeat Gardner-Webb 27-26 on Hall of Fame weekend.

Starting a true freshman quarterback for the first time in program history, the 49ers weren't able to get much of anything going offensively through the first three quarters which included six sacks, two lost fumbles, and a pick-six. Then, in the fourth quarter, backup quarterback Trexler Ivey rallied the 49ers on 11-of-12 passing - a school record for completion percentage - to three-straight scoring drives and the win.

A late Runnin' Bulldogs touchdown made it a tight affair, and when the visitors opted to go for two rather than the tie, the Green and White stepped up on defense and halted the attempt.

- Coin Toss/Result: Lost/Receive
- Attendance: 16,715 (fourth-most in program history)
- Comeback Kids: The 49ers' 17-point comeback was tied for the second largest in program history overall and tied for the largest in program history in the FBS era.
- Aerial Assault: A pair of Charlotte quarterbacks combined for a season-high 336 passing yards on Saturday. It's the highest total for the 49ers since Oct. 1, 2022, when they threw for 347 against UTEP. They've thrown for 300-plus yards in back-to-back games for the first time since Oct. 3 and 10, 2020.
- Second-half Stand: Charlotte's defense allowed only 124 yards in the second half thanks to three sacks and two forced turnovers. It held the Runnin' Bulldogs to minus-6 rushing yards in the final two quarters.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — With 5:19 remaining in the second quarter, Charlotte had mounted consecutive scoring drives to draw the score to 17-14, but that was as close as they would get as Indiana posted a pair of touchdowns in the final five minutes of the half before shutting out the 49ers in the second half on Saturday in Bloomington.

Starting their third quarterback in four games, the 49ers were able to run the football effectively for a season-high 137 yards on a Big Ten front with Catevious Norton posting his best performance in the Green and White - 11 rushes for 58 yards.

Henry Rutledge was electric as ever with the ball in his hands as he racked up 113 all-purpose yards.

HOUSTON — A scoreless first-half led to a halftime quarterback changed which sparked the 49ers to touchdown-scoring drives in three of their five second-half possessions and another double-digit comeback victory for Charlotte.

Trailing 10-0 at halftime, freshman quarterback Deshawn Purdie entered in relief and led the 49ers to two quick scores highlighted by long touchdown passes to O'Mega Blake to put Charlotte up 14-10. After Rice answered to re-take the lead at 20-14.

At the two-minute timeout, facing a 3rd-and-3 that would have ended the game on a conversion, the Niner defense stood tall to force a punt and give Purdie and Co. one final drive from the Charlotte 23. The 49ers opened the drive with yet another deep shot to Blake for 66 yards, and the visitors would punch the ball in from the one-yard line six plays later.

Rice's ensuing drive with 47 seconds on the clock saw the Owls get down to the 49er 22, but Enock Gota's 40-yard attempted sailed left as time expired.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Mike Kelly-Lawson, Bryce Kennon, Mitchell Mayes, Prince Wallace-Bemah
- Coin Toss/Result: Lost (Called)/ Receive
- Second-Half Surge: Charlotte has scored 59 of its 89 points in the second half this year, including 21 against Rice on Saturday. It was the second time this season that the 49ers have scored at least three touchdowns in final two quarters of a game.
- Texas Success: Both of Charlotte's last two wins in the Lone Star State have come against Rice on the road. The win Saturday moved it to 4-3 all-time in Texas and gave the 49ers their first win in a conference opener since 2021 against FIU.
- Finding a Rhythm: Charlotte scored touchdowns on consecutive drives for the third time in as many games. The 49ers have reached the endzone 10 times this season with six of the touchdowns coming in the last three games.

CHARLOTTE — Six rushing touchdowns, 311 yards on the ground, and a whole lot of fun for Niner Nation on Saturday tells the story of the second-ever meeting between in-state foes Charlotte and East Carolina.

The Niners were methodic on their first scoring drive of the day which proved to be an omen for things to come. Charlotte jumped out to a 14-0 lead and never looked back, pushing their margin to as high as 55-17.

True freshman quarterback Deshawn Purdie looked like a completely different player to 49er fans who last saw him start against Gardner-Webb. The Baltimore native was precise for most of the afternoon as he directed the offense to their highest output of the season and the first 50-point game of the Biff Poggi era at Charlotte.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Dontae Balfour, Bryce Kennon, Jonny King, Prince Wallace-Bemah
- Attendance: 17,102 (fourth largest in program history)
- Scoring Barrage: Saturday's 55-point total was the most scored under Biff Poggi. It was the program's highest total since a 56-23 win over Rice on Oct. 29, 2022, and the fifth-highest total in program history. The 31-point margin of victory is the second largest against a conference opponent in program history (33, Rice on Oct. 29, 2022).
- Historic Half: Charlotte's 31 points in the first half were the program's most in a half since 32 in the second half of a comeback win over North Texas on Oct. 26, 2019.
- Perfect Start: Saturday's back-to-back offensive touchdown drives to open the game were the first such occurrence under coach Biff Poggi. It was the second time the 49ers have scored 14 points in the first quarter under Poggi, with the last coming against Maryland on Sept. 9, 2023.
- Hit the Ground Running: Charlotte rushed for six touchdowns, tying the program record set against Morehead State in 2013. It was the only other time the program has done so.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — A pair of interceptions, the first two pass attempts of the game, doomed the 49ers upset bid from the outset as #25 Navy raced out to a 38-0 lead before cruising to a comfortable 51-17 victory.

The 49ers outgained Navy in total offense and first downs, held Navy to their lowest offensive output of the season, and outrushed the nation's No. 2 rushing attack, but five turnovers including two pick-sixes washed away any hope of an upset.

Navy defensive back Dashaun Peele became the first Midshipman in program history with a pair of interception return touchdowns in a game, and the 49ers offense allowed Navy to start their drives on average of their own 44 yard line.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Dontae Balfour, Max Brown, Ja'Qurious Conley, Mitchell Mayes
- Coin Toss/Result: Won(called)/Defer
- Hosts Start Fast: Navy scored 24 points in the first quarter, the most given up by Charlotte since Sept. 22, 2018, against UMASS (28). The hosts' 38 first-half points were the most allowed by the 49ers since Sept. 21, 2019, against Clemson. The Midshipmen entered the game fifth in the nation in per-game scoring.
- Giving the Ball Up: Charlotte turned the ball over three times (two interceptions, one fumble) in the first quarter. It was the program's first three-turnover quarter since Oct. 22, 2022, against FIU. The 49ers' five turnovers on Saturday were their most since the FIU loss as well.
- Behind the Numbers: Charlotte outgained Navy 363-288 in the loss. After allowing 196 total yards in the first quarter, the 49ers held the Midshipmen to 92 in the final three stanzas combined.

MEMPHIS — A halftime quarterback swap gave the 49ers offense life and even a brief lead, but an experienced starter in Memphis' Seth Henigan needed just 49 seconds to drive his team 75 yards for a game-winning score as Memphis escaped the 49ers on Saturday.

True freshman quarterback Deshawn Purdie found his favorite target O'Mega Blake three times for 128 of his 152 passing yards to bring the 49ers back from a 21-7 deficit heading into the third quarter. After knotting the game even at 21 all, Memphis briefly retook the lead at 24-21.

Then, Purdie connected with Blake for a 57-yard strike on the first play from scrimmage before Hahsaun Wilson finished the drive one play later with an 18-yard rush to go up 28-24. However, Charlotte left 1:20 on the clock for the Tigers to work with.

Charlotte received the ball back with 31 seconds, but it was determined the returner had his knee on the ground at the four yard line. A resulting safety ended the game.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Dontae Balfour, Max Brown, Mike Kelly-Lawson, Jonny King
- Quick Start: Charlotte scored its second opening-drive touchdown of the year against Memphis, finished by Cartevious Norton's 17-yard run. The other came in a win over East Carolina.
- Comeback Kids: Saturday's late loss marked the third time this year that Charlotte has overcome a double-digit deficit in the second half to either tie or win the game. The 49ers also did so in wins over Gardner-Webb and Rice.
- Fourth-Quarter Surge: Charlotte tied its season high with 21 points in the fourth quarter against Memphis. The 49ers also had three touchdowns in their final stanza against Gardner-Webb earlier this year.

CHARLOTTE — A 20-play, 80-yard drive by Tulane to open the game set the tone as the Green Wave held the ball for 42 of 60 possible game minutes to soundly defeat Charlotte on Halloween night.

The 49ers, rotating two quarterbacks between starter Deshawn Purdie and Max Brown, managed a program-low seven completions for 69 yards on the afternoon as the Green Wave's defense was stifling in all phases. Running back Hahsaun Wilson's 11.3 yards per carry average on the ground were the offensive highlight, and a shoestring tackle on his 27-yard run prevented the best scoring opportunity of the night.

Punter Michael O'Shaughnessy earned Ray Guy award weekly recognition for his efforts, booting four balls for 195 yards (48.8 avg.) with a long of 58.

Falling to 3-6, the 49ers must now win their final three games of the season to reach bowl eligibility for just the second time in program history.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Ja'Qurious Conley, Mike Kelly-Lawson, Bryce Kennon, Mitchell Mayes
- Tough Sledding: Charlotte was held to 189 total yards, its lowest output since Nov. 18, 2023, against Rice (158). The 49ers were also held to 69 passing yards, the fewest in a game since Sept. 21, 2019, against Clemson (63). It's the second-lowest passing mark in a game in program history.
- Keep Away: Tulane's time of possession 42:09 was the most for a Charlotte opponent in program history.

CHARLOTTE — A competitive first half gave way to a disasterous third quarter as the 49ers surrendered 31 points - the second-most ever in a quarter in program history - to end their bowl hopes during the 2024 homecoming game.

Charlotte's battle against itself often has played as big of a role as any opponent this year, and the team's turnovers on three consecutive drives in the second half proved too much to overcome against South Florida on Saturday in a 59-24 loss.

The Bulls rushed for 425 yards, the second-most Charlotte has ever allowed and the most since becoming an FBS program for the 2015 season.

GAME NOTES

- Captains:
- Third Quarter to Forget: South Florida capitalized on three Charlotte turnovers to score 31 points in the third quarter, breaking open a game that was just 14-10 at halftime. It was the second-most points Charlotte has ever allowed in a single quarter and the most ever in a second half quarter.
- First One: Linebacker Cam Burden started the day off on a high note for the defense as he recorded his first career interception on USF's opening offensive possession.

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — Deshawn Purdie threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to O'Mega Blake for the go-ahead score and Charlotte defeated Florida Atlantic 39-27 on Saturday in a game that matched two new interim coaches.

Charlotte (4-7, 3-4 American Athletic Conference) fired Biff Poggi on Monday and Tim Brewster took over. FAU (2-9, 0-7) fired Tom Ferman, also on Monday, with Chad Lunsford taking charge.

After Blake's third touchdown catch of the game that came with 5:25 left, the 49ers extended their lead when Tyriq Starks was strip-sacked by Ja'Qurious Conley and 335-pound Katron Kevans carried it 22 yards into the end zone.

Blake made five catches for a career-high 205 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown. Purdie was 16 of 30 for a career-best 396 yards passing with the three scores plus an interception. The 49ers only rushed for 46 yards. Stephen Rusnak kicked four field goals.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Captains: Jake Clemons, Mike Kelly-Lawson, Jonny King, Prince Wallace-Bemah
- Aerial Attack: Charlotte's 396 passing yards were the team's most since Chris Reynolds at Georgia State in 2022. O'Mega Blake led six 49er pass catchers with a career-high 205 yards on five receptions, the program's most for a receiver since Austin Duke against Charleston Southern in 2014.
- Comeback Kids: Charlotte has come back in three of its four wins this year, including Saturday's fourth-quarter deficit. The 49ers win over East Carolina was the lone win that didn't require a second-half comeback.
- Clean Game: The 49ers weren't penalized in Saturday's win, the first such instance in program history. The previous low came against Middle Tennessee on Nov. 2, 2019, and Coastal Carolina on Nov. 8, 2014 (1).

CHARLOTTE — A pair of late missed field goals allowed another fourth quarter touchdown catch by O'Mega Blake and a balanced rushing attack to lift Charlotte to a down-to-the-wire senior day win over UAB on Saturday, 29-27.

Charlotte (5-7, 4-4 American Athletic Conference) finishes the season with the most wins in a season by the program since 2021, with interim head coach Tim Brewster guiding the Niners to a 2-0 record over the final two games. For UAB (3-9, 2-6), the 2024 season marks the team's worst record since 2013.

Hahsaun Wilson and Cartevious Norton combined for 134 yards on ground on 29 carries, with both finding the endzone. Wilson's 14 totes and 84 yards were the most in a game since erupting for 164 yards on 15 carries against ECU on Oct. 5.

A week after posting a career-high 205 yards with three touchdowns, Blake hauled in Deshawn Purdie's lone touchdown pass of the day to put Charlotte ahead 29-20 with 5:12 left in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, fellow receiver Sean Brown posted his career-high to pace the offense with 100 yards on five receptions.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Mike Kelly-Lawson, Bryce Kennon, Jonny King, Dez Morgan
- Winning Track: Charlotte's fifth win on Saturday was the most in a season for the program since 2021. It's tied for the second-winningest season in program history behind the 49ers' 7-5 year that sent them to the Bahamas Bowl in 2019.
- Pay Dirt: Hahsaun Wilson and Cartevious Norton each rushed for a touchdown on Saturday to give the program its first combination of running backs in school history with at least seven rushing touchdowns in the same year.
- Kicking for History: Kyle Cunanan took over kicking duties on Saturday and made three field goal attempts to puch the team's program record to 16 consecutive makes. He made the first two of the year before Stephen Rusnak hit 11 consecutive attempts to set up Saturday's continuation of the historic mark.

#49

Since the start of the program, the 49ers have utilized the No. 49 jersey in a variety of ways. Under head coaches Brad Lambert and Will Healy, the No. 49 jersey was worn by a different player each game. The player was selected by the coaching staff for best demonstrating the standards expected of the 49ers. In 2021, the use of the 49 jersey moved away from a game-by-game assignment and became yearly tributes.

In 2013, the back of the jersey included one of the four G-O-L-D standards: Grit, Opportunity, Leadership and Determination.

The first player chosen to wear the No. 49 jersey was then-redshirt freshman nosetackle Larry Ogunjobi, in the 49ers inaugural game vs. Campbell, Aug. 31, 2013.

FOOTBALL, 1946-48

From 1946-48, The Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina (CCUNC) fielded a football team. The two-year night school was housed at Central High School and the athletic teams were nicknamed "Owls". That school would go on to become Charlotte College and eventually UNC Charlotte.

Records are sketchy, including those that appear on the next few pages, but thanks to a visit from original team member Carroll York, a trip to UNC Charlotte Library archives, previous research done by Ken Sanford and Vivian Fogle and especially to the information documented by the school and articles written by the student newspaper at the time, some of the history of the program has been pieced together.

Home games were played at Memorial Stadium, adjacent to Central High School, which housed CCUNC in the evenings once the high school had dismissed for the day.

The team began in 1946, the year that CCUNC was established and documents show that the first game was played against a unit from Ft. Bragg. The Owls lost 20-0 but would go on to win two games that season, over Pembroke State and Belmont Abbey.

More results and information are available for the 1947 season, including roster information from game programs, game recaps and notes pulled from student newspaper articles and names attributed on a team photo.

The final year of play came in 1948.

As CCUNC gave way to Charlotte College in 1949, the school's August 1 enrollment of 40 was not sufficient to support a football team with 15 players appearing at tryouts.

Although football ended, 1949 remains a breakthrough year for the university, with the push by community leaders to establish a permanent institution of higher education (Charlotte College) to replace the temporary center designed to accomodate servicemen returning from the war. Hence, the nickname, 49ers.

The Charlotte 49ers Athletic Department would welcome any additional information from this era.

2019 MAKERS WANTED BAHAMAS BOWL

Buffalo 31 Charlotte 9

Dec. 20, 2019 - Nassau, Bahamas

Charlotte's First-Ever Bowl Appearance
Reynolds Throws Season-Record 22nd TD Pass

#49: Cam Clark

Captains:
Tyriq Harris, Jeff Gemmell, Benny LeMay, Cam Clark
Alex Highsmith, Ben DeLuca, Tyler Ringwood, Tommy Doctor

In Charlotte's first-ever bowl appearance, the 49ers tried to battle back but couldn't overcome a fast start by Buffalo in falling 31-9 in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl.

"That's not the way we wanted to play today," said head coach Will Healy. "It felt like anytime we tried to get some momentum going, they were able to take it away from us. We didn't execute well and obviously did some things that didn't help ourselves. That's a really good football team in Buffalo. When you do those things, that's probably the result you're going to get."

Buffalo (8-5) scored on its first drive with a 12-yard touchdown pass and added a 15-play, 74-yard TD drive that soaked up 8:26 of the second quarter on its way to a 17-0 lead at the half.

Charlotte scored in the third when Chris Reynolds hit Victor Tucker on a crossing route for a 51-yard TD. The historic TD was the 49ers' first in a bowl game and Reynolds' school-record 22nd passing TD of the year. Jonathan Cruz kicked a 32-yard FG to make it 24-9.

"These guys have to realize what they've accomplished. You talk about a group that sat in the locker room the last time this happened and we were 2-5. The next thing you know, the guys responded and led us to an unbelievable bowl game in the Bahamas."

Reynolds was 15-of-24 for 198 yards and a TD. Buffalo-native Tyler Ringwood caught five passes for 64 yards. Tucker had three catches for 61 yards and Cameron Dollar had four for 48 yards.

REYNOLDS RECORD BREAKER
Reynolds' third quarter TD strike to Tucker broke Matt Johnson's 2013 school record of 21 passing TDs. The 51-yarder was the 49ers third-longest TD pass of the season and also marked the ninth-straight game in which Reynolds recorded a passing TD.

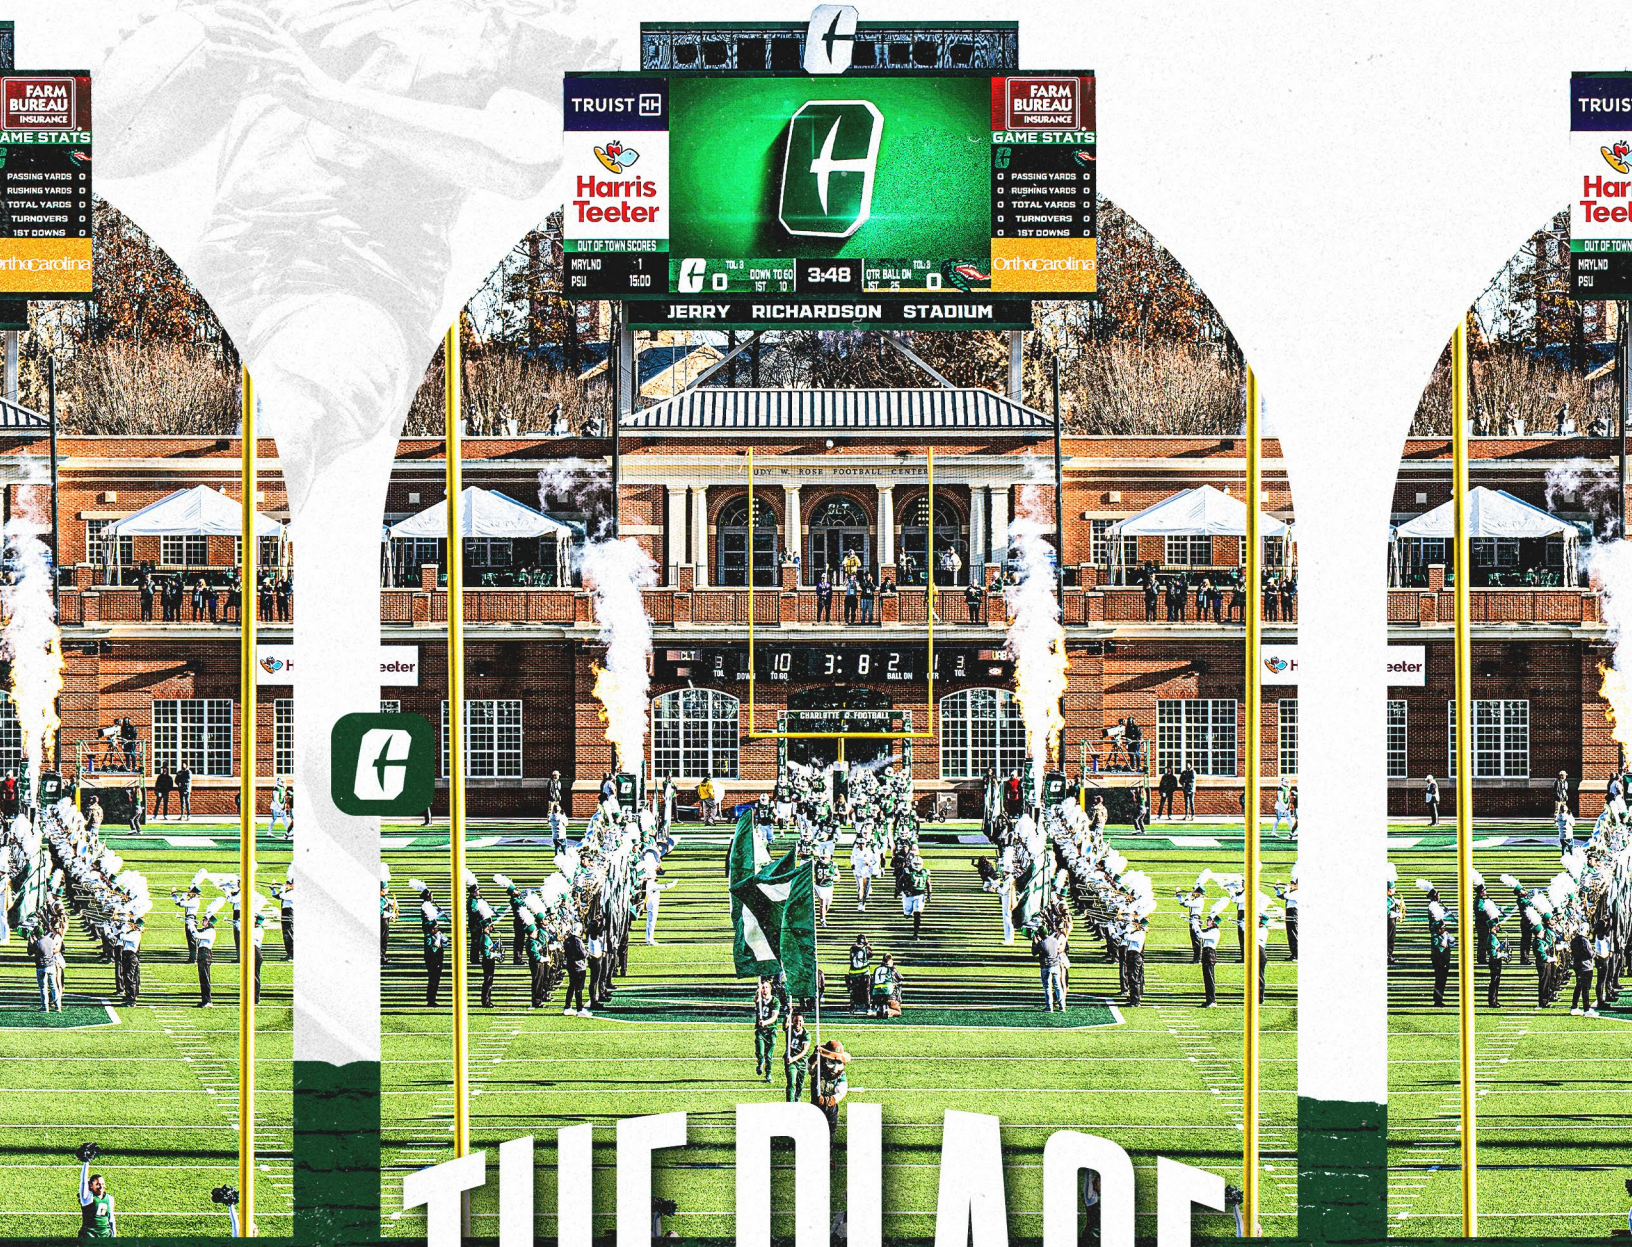

WATTS TIES MARK, PAIR FINISH TOP FIVE
Markees Watts tied his career high with 11 tackles. With nine tackles, Marquavis Gibbs ends the season with 103 tackles, third-most by a 49er in a single season. All-time leading tackler Jeff Gemmell (6 tackles) finished his career with 306 career tackles.

49 IN 49
Redshirt senior Cam Clark wore the honorary #49 before the game -- fittingly playing in the school-record 49th game of his career.

CHARLOTTE FOOTBALL | JERRY RICHARDSON STADIUM | 35.2271°N 80.8431°W | CHARLOTTE, NC

"Hail, Charlotte 49ers, proud as we can be We stand to fight for the green and white Have win the Victory, We pledge our trust in you. And Wave your colors high The loyal Niner Nation cheers, Forever! We'll Fight-Fight-Fight!"

UNC Charlotte, North Carolina's urban research university, is integral to the social, cultural and economic fabric of the Charlotte region and beyond. Charlotte delivers high-quality, affordable education and drives progress and innovation through top-tier research and creative discovery. UNC Charlotte was one of a generation of universities founded in metropolitan areas of the United States immediately after World War II in response to rising education demands generated by the war and its technology.

To serve returning veterans, North Carolina opened 14 evening college centers in communities across the state. The Charlotte Center opened Sept. 23, 1946, offering evening classes to 278 students in the facilities of Charlotte's Central High School. After three years, the state closed the centers, declaring that existing facilities were sufficient to meet the needs of returning veterans and recent high school graduates.

Charlotte's education and business leaders, long aware of the area's unmet needs for higher education, moved to have the Charlotte Center taken over by the city school district and operated as Charlotte College, offering the first two years of college courses.

Once Charlotte College became firmly established, efforts were launched to give it a campus of its own. With the backing of Charlotte business leaders and legislators from Mecklenburg and surrounding counties, land was acquired on the northern fringe of the city and bonds were passed to finance new facilities. In 1961, Charlotte College moved its growing student body into two new buildings on what was to become a 1,000-acre campus 10 miles from Uptown Charlotte.

Three years later, the North Carolina General Assembly approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported institution. The next year, 1965, the legislature approved bills creating the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the fourth campus of the statewide university system.

The most important figure in UNC Charlotte's history during the early years was Bonnie Cone. Affectionately known as "Miss Bonnie," Cone was instrumental in the growth and success of the nascent university. She held the title of director of Charlotte Center, became president after its conversion to Charlotte College and served as acting chancellor during the college's transition to UNC Charlotte. Her tireless advocacy for the establishment of a four-year, state-supported school in the Charlotte region is a foundation of the thriving university of today.

Now a leading public research university, UNC Charlotte has the second-largest undergraduate enrollment in the UNC System and is the largest institution in the Charlotte region. The university comprises eight academic colleges and nearly 3,700 faculty and staff, offering 79 bachelor's, 64 master's and 24 doctoral programs.

UNC CHARLOTTE

Shape What's Next

The University's historic growth has been accompanied by a rise in its infrastructure and connection to the city of Charlotte. With the opening of the LYNX Blue Line extension in 2018, access to Uptown Charlotte is now just a short train ride away. At the 9th Street Station, a gaze upward reveals The Dubois Center at UNC Charlotte. The distinctive, 11-story glass structure at the corner of 9th and Brevard streets, which opened in fall 2011, is the only UNC System classroom building conceived and designed specifically to serve the businesses, organizations and people of an urban center.

UNC Charlotte continues to grow exponentially. As of July 2024, the University boasted more than 178,000 alumni and growing by more than 8,000 new alumni each year.

In 2021, under the leadership of Chancellor Sharon L. Gaber, the University embraced a bold new vision as an emerging top-tier global research university to support the industries and communities in the greater Charlotte region. With growing research expenditures, rising national recognition for innovative academic and student success programs, and impactful new partnerships and discoveries, Charlotte earned the nation's highest research designation – Carnegie R1 – in February 2025.

The PGA Championship has been hosted at Charlotte's Quail Hollow Golf Club as has the Wells Fargo Championship. The U.S. National Whitewater Center is an official United States Olympic Committee training site for whitewater slalom racing and has hosted Olympic team qualifying events.

DR. SHARON L. GABER

UNC CHARLOTTE CHANCELLOR

6TH YEAR AT UNC CHARLOTTE

Sharon L. Gaber, Ph.D., serves as the fifth Chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

With more than 30,000 students, Charlotte is the third largest institution in the University of North Carolina System and is ranked #81 among the nation's public universities, according to U.S. News & World Report.

When Gaber arrived as Chancellor in 2020, the University embarked on "Shaping What's Next," a bold 10-year strategic plan that articulated a new vision as a globally recognized top-tier research university. Charlotte officially earned the nation's top research designation, Carnegie R1, in February 2025.

Gaber was named as the recipient of the 2025 World Citizen Award from the World Affairs Council of Charlotte. Also in 2025, the American Enterprise Institute named her one of the best college presidents of the century (#25 out of more than 400). The Charlotte Business Journal selected her as one of Charlotte's Most Admired CEOs in 2021 and named her to their Power 100 list in both 2022 and 2024. She has also earned a spot on Business North Carolina's Power List for four consecutive years.

Deeply engaged in community and regional activities, she serves on the board of Charlotte Center City Partners and is a member of the Charlotte Executive Leadership Council, the Charlotte Leading on Opportunity Council, Women Executives, and the International Women's Forum – Carolinas.

At the national level, Gaber currently serves on The American Conference Executive Committee and on the board of the Coalition of Urban Serving Universities.

Prior to her arrival at UNC Charlotte, Gaber served for five years as the president of the University of Toledo. Earlier in her career, she served as provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Arkansas. She has also served as an administrator and interim provost at Auburn University and a faculty member and administrator at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

A native of Southern California, Gaber earned an A.B. in Economics and Urban Studies from Occidental College, an M.P.L. in Urban Planning from the University of Southern California, and a Ph.D. in City & Regional Planning from Cornell University.

Gaber is the proud mother of three children: Allison, Peter and Jen (dec).

MIKE HILL

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

8TH YEAR AT UNC CHARLOTTE

Mike Hill became the seventh director of athletics in Charlotte 49ers' history, Feb. 28, 2018 and has brought a Gold Standard of excellence to the program.

Hill has led the 49ers to 30 championships in his tenure and has ushered in a new era of Charlotte Athletics with a move to the American Conference. Hill has also overseen a rebrand of the department's look and has unveiled EverGreen, the athletic facilties master vision that is set to begin with the Jerry Richardson Stadium Expansion Groundbreaking in August of 2025. He has brought Charlotte its 19th varsity sport in women's lacross and seen the 49ers reach the first bowl game in the football program's history, in addition to record-setting contributions to the 49ers Athletic Foundation Annual Fund.

"We're not in it to be ordinary. We're in it to be extraordinary," Hill said. "Gold is the standard."

In his first seven years, the 49ers have witnessed remarkable success.

In 2023-24, Hill guided the 49ers through their first season in the American Conference to record success with a league-high six conference championships across five sport programs. Buoyed by that achievement, Charlotte earned its highest-ever mark in the Director's Cup rankings at No. 94. Each year under Hill's leadership, fundraising has tracked to all-time highs, surpassing the $3 million mark for the first time in 2023-24. The 49ers also hosted the 2024 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball First and Second Rounds at the Spectrum Center, bringing March Madness back to the Queen City for the first time since 2018.

A nod to Hill's steering of the totality of the department, the 49ers were recognized as the nation's leader in championship output relative to budget management by earning the top spot in the Excellence in Management Cup by the Texas A&M College Sports Lab.

The Niners showed no signs of slowing down as they added to their American championships tally in 2024-25 with three more, giving Charlotte a league-best eight over that two year span. In the 2025-26 season, Charlotte is set to break ground on the first phase of expansion of Jerry Richardson Stadium, a premium seating expansion project

Hill also secured the largest single gift in program history, a historic gift of $25 million for benefactors Margaret and Smoky Bissell, prominent philanthropists and developers in the Charlotte area.

In 2022-23, Charlotte saw a record eight teams win Conference USA Championships while the athletic department posted the highest average finish in the league for the third straight year. The 49ers men's and women's cross country and track programs won five of a possible six league titles. Four teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament including softball and women's tennis, which both made their first-ever trips. Men's golf advanced for the third straight time while baseball made its second trip in three years. Men's Basketball won the CBI Championship and posted its most wins since 2001.

In 2021-22, Charlotte won five Conference USA Championships, the previous mark for titles in C-USA, with an additional three runner-up finishes and sent three programs to the NCAA Tournament. In 2020-21, Charlotte earned NCAA Tournament bids in four sports (baseball, men's cross country, men's golf, men's soccer) while three other sports (women's golf, men's outdoor track and women's outdoor track) sent individuals to NCAA post-season competitions. The 49ers placed in the 2021 Director's Cup Top 100 for the first time since 2007. In both years, Charlotte posted C-USA's best average league finish in its 18 sports.

Over his tenure, several programs have earned their first or highest national rankings. Men's soccer has gone to four NCAA Tournaments, women's basketball won the 2022 CUSA regular season and tournament titles, and Charlotte's men won two Triple Crowns by claiming CUSA titles in cross country, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field in 2020-21 and 2022-23. In 2019, Charlotte swept the 2019 Men's and Women's Conference USA Outdoor Track and Field Championships and the football program earned a trip to its first bowl game at the 2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl.

Respected nationally by his peers, Hill has served as co-Chair of the LEAD1 Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness and was named to the NCAA Division 1 Men's Basketball Competition Committee in 2024. He is also the vice chair of the AAC's athletic director's council.

Personally, within his first years with the 49ers, he married Jessica James-Hill, welcomed a daughter, Ellie, and a son, Bobby, and watched his older son, Luke, graduate high school and enroll at Florida.

Hill was formerly the Executive Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at the University of Florida.

"Mike has a deep background in a highly successful athletic program from a 'Power Five' conference, so he has played lead roles in hiring and working with highly successful head coaches, negotiating multi-million dollar media agreements and facilities naming rights, and being on point in external relations for the Gators. But we were equally impressed by his sports administration experience and his dedication to the welfare and personal development of student-athletes," then-Chancellor Philip Dubois said of Hill's hiring.

Hill came to the 49ers after a nearly 25-year career with the University of Florida Athletic Association. He spent his last six years as the Gators' Executive Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. As a primary advisor to the Director of Athletics, he helped lead searches in the hiring of head coaches. He either led searches, helped hire or managed several head coaches, including Mike White and Billy Donovan (men's basketball), Urban Meyer and Dan Mullen (football) and Amanda Butler (women's basketball). He was the direct supervisor for men's basketball and men's tennis at Florida. He served on the administrative fundraising team that developed strategies, cultivated donors and secured major gifts. He chaired the 100 Years of Florida Football fundraiser, coordinated marketing and promotions campaigns for 21 sports and managed corporate partner relationships with Nike, Pepsi and Gatorade.

In his capacity in the Gators' Department of Athletics, Hill served on the University of Florida Branding Steering Committee, had a six-year stint as the chair of the Southeastern Conference Marketing Directors and served on the SEC Fan Experience Working Group. He has been on the Climb for Cancer Board of Directors since 2009.

Prior to joining the University of Florida, Hill was an Assistant to the Athletics Director at Ball State University and served as Assistant Executive Director of the Blockbuster Bowl from 1990-92. A 1990 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Communications. He was a student assistant in the school's Sports Information Office from 1988-90.

For his part, Hill, who has a personal background with the Carolinas, saw the move to the 49ers program as a trip home.

He attended the Charlotte Hornets first basketball game. He's a Carolina Panthers football fan. He watched the 49ers' 1977 Final Four game vs. Marquette from his grandparents living room, in Charlotte. He's seen the Avett Brothers perform over 20 times (Seth Avett attended UNC Charlotte).

"This is personal for me," noted Hill, who grew up in Clemson, S.C., and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. "This is home."
