Series History vs. ECU . . .

Sunday's game marks the 13th meeting all-time between UNCG and East Carolina ... The two teams have met seven straight years and nine times in the past 10 seasons ... The Spartans trail the all-time series by a 10-2 margin with their only wins coming in 2005 (78-70 in Greenville) and 2001 (56-54 in Greensboro).

The two teams have played a pair of heavily contested games the past two years with ECU coming out on top in both instances ... Last season, the Spartans suffered a last-second heart-breaking defeat to the Pirates 85-84 ... East Carolina scored five points in the last 12 seconds while Akeem Richmond hit three free throws with 1.2 seconds remaining to give ECU the victory ... The loss spoiled the breakout party for then freshman guard Tevon Saddler who set a UNCG freshman scoring record with 34 points in the loss ... He connected on 10-of-15 from the field and was 14-of-19 from the free throw line in his coming out party ... He also grabbed a career-high eight rebounds, dished out five assists, blocked one shot and notched a steal in 33 minutes of action.

Former Spartan Kyle Cain fell just shy of a double-double as he scored 16 points and grabbed a game-high nine rebounds ... Cain was 6-of-10 from the field and 4-of-6 from the free throw line in 36 minutes of play ... Nicholas Paulos added 16 points in 37 minutes as he was 5-of-10 from the field, including four three-pointers ... Richmond led five Pirates in double figures scoring in the victory as he finished with 16 points, despite hitting just 5-of-13 from the field as he was a perfect 5-of-5 from the free throw line.

In 2012-13, the Spartans suffered a 76-73 loss in Greenville despite holding a 54-41 second half lead over the Pirates ... ECU posted a 36-19 run down the stretch to overtake the Spartans and come home with the victory ... In that game, Trevis Simpson led the Spartans with 19 points, 10 of which came in the final 2:53 of the contest ... Simpson connected on 6-of-16 from the field, but hit 4-of-8 from three-point land, while playing 30 minutes despite foul trouble.

2014-15 UNCG MEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH WES MILLER

NORTH CAROLINA, 2007

Wes Miller enters his fourth season as the UNCG men's basketball coach in 2014-15 after taking over the reins of the program in December of 2011 on an interim basis. Miller has spent his first three years building a championship-mentality throughout the program and has laid the groundwork for future success.

Miller led the Spartans to 14 wins last season, their highest-win total since 2007-08. Included in that mark was the program's first victory over an ACC school since 2007 and just their second victory all-time against the conference with a come-from-behind win at Virginia Tech. Freshman Tevon Saddler was named as the Southern Conference Player of the Year in 2013-14, the Spartans first such honor since Kyle Hines won the award in 2005.

Junior Kyle Cain was named First Team All-SoCon and Second Team All-Region last year. Cain became the second straight Spartan to sign a professional contract overseas, inking with Ramat Hasharon in Israel. Trevis Simpson is in his second year playing professionally in Greece after starring for the Spartans from 2011-2014.

Miller and his staff were very active on the recruiting trail in his first full season as the Spartans bringing in seven newcomers for the 2013-14 season, the first full recruiting class under Miller's tenure. The highly-touted class includes six freshmen and one transfer. The Spartans were aggressive in recruiting North Carolina where they signed three All-State selections, including Clay Byrd and Diante Baldwin.

Miller and his staff also built on their success recruiting from the Baltimore area as they signed the Maryland Player of the Year, Tevon Saddler, a year removed from signing another Baltimore area standout in top-returning scorer Kayel Locke.

Miller, who was the youngest head coach in NCAA Division I at the time of his hire, made the removal of the interim tag an easy decision as he was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Spartans to the SoCon North Division title at the end of the 2011-12 season.

Miller took control of the program Dec. 13, 2011 with the Spartans sitting at 2-8 and led them through one of the biggest turnarounds in program history. Miller guided the Spartans to an 11-11 record the rest of the season to finish with a 13-19 overall record, including a 10-8 mark in SoCon play.

The Spartans lost their first six games under Miller to fall to 2-14 on the season but the program made an 180-degree turnaround posting an 11-5 record down the stretch. UNCG posted a seven-game winning streak during league play, which included several dramatic victories. The Spartans carried that momentum into the conference tournament where they advanced to the SoCon semifinals for the first time since the 2007-08 season.

Miller, who also spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach at UNCG, is no stranger to the state of North Carolina. He played three seasons at the University of North Carolina and spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Elon and High Point. Miller also ran his own basketball camps in Charlotte and Greensboro for two summers.

In three seasons as a player at North Carolina under head coach and mentor Roy Williams, Miller helped the Tar Heels to the national championship in 2005, two Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season championships and one ACC Tournament title. He was team captain as a senior in 2006-07, leading UNC to 31 wins and the NCAA Elite 8 as well as the ACC regular-season and tournament titles, and a final No. 3 national ranking.

As a junior, Miller shot 44.1 percent from the 3-point line, which was seventh-best in a single season in the UNC record book. His 64 treys that season ranked eighth in the ACC. He earned the team's Defensive Player of the Year and Most Improved Player awards that season, as well.

A fan favorite at UNC, Miller authored a book entitled The Road to Blue Heaven, which was published as a diary of his experiences as a North Carolina basketball player. In addition to his success on the floor, Miller excelled off the court, earning ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition and the UNC Athletic Director's Scholar Athlete-Award. He earned his degree in political science from North Carolina in 2007.

Upon his graduation from North Carolina, Miller played one season of professional basketball for the London Capitals of the British Basketball League, where he averaged 19.6 points per game to rank eighth in the league.

Miller was a prep standout at the New Hampton School in New Hampshire. He earned a scholarship to James Madison University, where he played one season before transferring to North Carolina to become a walk-on for Roy Williams' squad.

Miller married the former Ashley Love in August 2011.
