Captains

Head Coach Link Jarrett announced the captains of the 2018 UNCG Baseball team prior to the start of the season. Seniors Jake Kusz, Dan Loats and Andrew Wantz have been elected captains by their teammates.

Kusz is a three-year letterwinner for the Spartans and missed last season due to an injury. The senior catcher has made 118 starts including all 59 behind the plate during the 2016 season. He ranks in third runs career runs scored among active players and is the active career leader with 85 RBI. Kusz was also voted team captain for the 2017 season.

Loats worked his way into a weekend role last season and earned UNCG's highest winning percentage among starting pitchers (.727) After starting the season 0-2, Loats went on to win eight-straight, as the Spartans were 12-5 when Loats toed the rubber. In the Southern Conference Tournament, Loats earned the win to advance the Spartans to the championship game and came out of the bullpen the next day to earn his second save of the season as UNCG clinched the SoCon Championship.

2018 will be Wantz's second as a team captain. In three seasons, he has earned a 17-8 record on the hill and earned a 4.03 earned run average in 198.2 innings. He's struck out 197 hitters and has led the team in relief appearances the last two years. His nine career saves ranks eighth all-time in program history.

Back in Action

UNCG is back in action Tuesday as it heads to Winston-Salem, North Carolina for a matchup with a Wake Forest team that fell to the eventual National Champions, Florida in the Super Regionals last season.
