Not to be outdone, the 2017 team went for 33 triples to set the new school-record and led the NCAA with 0.56 triples per game. UNCG had nine players hit multiple triples led by Andrew Moritz. Moritz has tripled four times in the last two games to tie the program record with eight triples this season and brought his career total to 21, setting a school record.

UNCG placed second in the league's media poll. The Spartans led all teams with seven selections on the Preseason All-SoCon squad, including five on the first team. First team honorees include second baseman Austin Embler, third baseman Caleb Webster, outfielders Andrew Moritz and Dillon Stewart and designated hitter Devin Ruiz. Second team selections were starting pitcher Matt Frisbee and shortstop Tripp Shelton.

Captains

Head Coach Link Jarrett announced the captains of the 2018 UNCG Baseball team prior to the start of the season. Seniors Jake Kusz, Dan Loats and Andrew Wantz have been elected captains by their teammates.

Kusz is a three-year letterwinner for the Spartans and missed last season due to an injury. The senior catcher has made 134 starts including all 59 behind the plate during the 2016 season. He ranks fifth in runs career runs scored among active players and is has driven in 96 career-runs, fourth-most among active players. Kusz was also voted team captain for the 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Loats worked his way into a weekend role last season and earned UNCG's highest winning percentage among starting pitchers (.727) After starting the season 0-2, Loats went on to win eight-straight, as the Spartans were 12-5 when Loats toed the rubber. In the Southern Conference Tournament, Loats earned the win to advance the Spartans to the championship game and came out of the bullpen the next day to earn his second save of the season as UNCG clinched the SoCon Championship. Loats' toughness has been an important part of his Spartan career. In December, he was diagnosed with cancer. He has overcome several obstacles as he worked his way back to the mound.

2018 will be Wantz's second as a team captain. In three seasons, he has earned a 21-8 record on the hill and earned a 3.93 earned run average in 233.1 innings. He's struck out 246 hitters and has led the team in relief appearances the last two years. His 16 career saves ranks second all-time in program history.
